2. Whereas 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 3. [Stat. Dig. tit. FELONS, &c. pl. 74, 75.] was passed, whereby it is enacted, amongst other things, that if any person should steal or take by robbery any exchequer orders or tallies, or other orders, entitling any other person to any annuity or share in any parliamentary fund, or any exchequer bills, bank notes, South Sea bonds, E. I. bonds, dividend warrants of the bank, South Sea Co., E. I. Co., or any other company, society or corporation, bills of exchange, navy bills or debentures, goldsmiths' bills for payment of money, or other bonds or warrants, bills or promissory notes for the payment of any money, being the property of any other person or persons, or of any corporation, notwithstanding any of the said particulars were termed in law a chase in action, it should be deemed to be felony with or without the benefit of clergy; according to the nature of the case, as specified and provided for by the said act; and whereas no provision was made by the said act for the prosecuting and punishment of persons receiving or buying any such orders, tallies, bills, bonds, warrants, debentures or notes, knowing the same to have been stolen; and whereas it is expedient that such persons should be liable to be prosecuted and punished in like manner as persons receiving or buying stolen goods, knowing the same to have been stolen, are liable to be prosecuted and punished; be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [15th May 1822], all persons who shall receive or buy any exchequer order or tally or other order, entitling any other person or persons to any annuity or share in any parliamentary fund, or any exchequer bill, bank note, South Sea bond, E. I. bond, dividend warrant of the bank of Eng., South Sea Co., E. I. Co., or any other company, society or corporation, bill of exchange, navy bill or debenture, goldsmiths' note for the payment of money, or other bond, order or warrant, bill or promissory note for payment of money, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished respectively, for felony or misdemeanor, as the case may be, in like manner as persons receiving or buying stolen goods and chattels, knowing the same to have been stolen, are by the laws now in force liable to be prosecuted and punished, 3 G. 4. c. 24. s. 1.

3. All powers, provisions, and enactments contained in the acts now in force, relative to the searching for and discovery of stolen goods or chattels, and to the apprehending, prosecuting, and punishing of persons receiving or buying stolen goods or chattels, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall extend to the searching for and discovery of any such stolen order, tally, bill, bond, warrant, debenture, or note; and to the apprehending, prosecuting, and punishing of persons receiving or buying any such stolen order, tally, bill, bond, warrant, debenture, or note, knowing the same to have been stolen, in the same manner as if the said powers, provisions, and enactments were herein severally recited and re-enacted, 3 G. 4. c. 24. s. 2.

4. And in all cases where the offence of any person receiving or buying stolen goods or chattels, or any such stolen order, tally, bill, bond, warrant, debenture, or note, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall be deemed to be felony, such offender shall and may be tried and convicted of such felony, as well before as after the trial of the principal felon; and whether the said principal felon shall have been apprehended, or shall be amenable to justice or not, 3 G. 4. c. 24. s. 3.

5. To provide for the more effectual punishment of certain offences by imprisonment with hard labour, 3 G. 4. c. 114.

6. Whereas by 53 G. 3. c. 162. [Stat. Dig. tit. FELONS, &c. pl. 93, 94.] intituled, An Act to repeal a certain provision respecting persons convicted of felony without benefit of clergy, contained in 52 G. 3. c. 44., and for making other provisions in lieu thereof, it is enacted [as in Stat. Dig. tit. FELONS, pl. 94.]: And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said act should be extended to certain aggravated misdemeanors and offences below the degree of felony; it is enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [viz. 5th Aug. 1822], whenever any person shall be convicted of any of the offences hereafter specified and set forth; that is to say:—Any assault with intent to commit felony:—Any attempt to commit felony:—Any riot:—Any misdemeanor for having received stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen:—Any assault upon a peace officer, or upon an officer of the customs or excise, or upon any other officer of the revenue, in the due discharge and execution of his or their respective duty or duties, or upon any person or persons acting in aid of any such officer or officers in the due discharge and execution of his or their respective duty or duties:—Any assault committed in pursuance of any conspiracy to raise the rate of wages:—Being an utterer of counterfeit money, knowing the same to be counterfeit:—Knowingly and designedly obtaining money, goods, wares, or merchandizes, bills, bonds, or other securities for money, by false pretences, with intent to cheat any person of the same:—Keeping a common gaming-house, a common bawdy-house, or a common ill-governed and disorderly house:—Wilful and corrupt perjury, or of subornation of perjury:—Having entered any open or inclosed ground with intent there illegally to destroy, take, or kill game or rabbits, or with intent to aid, abet, and assist any person or persons illegally to destroy, take, or kill game or rabbits, and having been there found at night armed with any offensive weapon:—In each and every of the above cases, and whenever any person shall be convicted of any or either of the aforesaid offences, it shall and may be lawful for the court before which any offender shall be convicted, or which by law is authorized to pass sentence upon any such offender, to award and order (if such court shall think fit) sentence of imprisonment with hard labour, for any term not exceeding the term for which such court may now imprison for such offences, either in addition to or in lieu of any other punishment which may be inflicted on any such offenders by any law in force before the passing of this act; and every such offender shall thereupon suffer such sentence, in such place and for such time as aforesaid, as such court shall think fit to direct," 3 G. 4. c. 114.

7. For enabling courts to abstain from pronouncing sentence of death in certain capital felonies, 4 G. 4. c. 48.

8. Whereas it is expedient that in all cases of felony not within the benefit of clergy, except murder, the court before which the offender or offenders shall be convicted shall be authorized to abstain from pronouncing judgment of death, whenever such court shall be of opinion that, under the particular circumstances of any case, the offender or offenders, is or are a fit and proper subject or fit and proper subjects to be recommended for the royal mercy; it is enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [viz. 4th July 1823], whenever any person shall be convicted of any felony, except murder, and shall by law be excluded the benefit of clergy in respect thereof, and the court before which such offender shall be convicted shall be of opinion that, under the particular circumstances of the case, such offender is a fit and proper subject to be recommended for the royal mercy, it shall and may be lawful for such court, if it shall think fit so to do, to direct the proper officer then being present in court to require and ask, whereupon such officer shall require and ask, if such offender hath or knoweth any thing to say, why judgment of death should not be recorded against such offender; and in case such offender shall not allege any matter or thing sufficient in law to arrest or bar such judgment, the court shall and may, and is hereby authorized to abstain from pronouncing judgment of death upon such offender; and instead of pronouncing such judgment, to order the same to be entered of record, and thereupon such proper officer as aforesaid shall and may, and is hereby authorized to enter judgment of death on record against such offender, in the usual and accustomed form, and in such and the same manner as is now used, and as if judgment of death had actually been pronounced in open court against such offender, by the court before which such offender shall have been convicted, 4 G. 4. c. 48. s. 1.

9. A record of every such judgment, so entered as aforesaid, shall have the like effect to all intents and purposes, and be followed by all the same consequences, as if such judgment had actually been pronounced in open court, and the offender had been reprieved by the court, 4 G. 4. c. 48. s. 2.

10. Nothing herein contained shall extend to that part of the U. K. called Scot., 4 G. 4. c. 48. s. 3.

11. For repealing the capital punishments inflicted by several acts of 6 G. 2. and 27 G. 2., and of 3 G. 3., 4 G. 3., and 22 G. 3.; and for providing other punishments in lieu thereof, and in lieu of the punishment of frame-breaking, under an act of the 28th year of the same reign, 4 G. 4. c. 46.

12. Whereas by 6 G. 2. c. 37. [Stat. Dig. tit. BANKS OF RIVERS, &c. pl. 1.] s. 5., it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall unlawfully and maliciously break down or cut down the bank or banks of any river or any sea-bank, whereby any lands shall be overflowed or damaged, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony without benefit of clergy: and whereas it is by 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 6. [Stat. Dig. tit. Hops, pl. 4, 5.] enacted, that if any person or persons shall unlawfully and maliciously cut any hop-binds growing on poles in any plantation of hops, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony without benefit of clergy: and whereas by 27 G. 2. c. 19. s. 49. [relating to the great Bedford Level] it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall maliciously cut, break down, burn, demolish, or destroy any bank, mill, engine, flood-gate or sluice, making or erecting, or made or erected, supported or maintained, for answering the purposes specified in the said act, every person so offending, being thereof convicted, shall be guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as felons without benefit of clergy: and whereas by 3 G. 3. c. 16. s. 6. [Stat. Dig. tit. GREENWICH HOSPITAL, pl. 48.] it is, among other things, enacted, that whosoever willingly and knowingly shall personate or falsely assume the name or character of, or procure any other to personate or falsely to assume the name and character of any person entitled or supposed to be entitled as an out-pensioner to any out-pension or allowance of money, from the commissioners or governors of Greenwich hospital, in order to receive the money due or supposed to be due on such out-pension, every such person so offending, and being lawfully convicted of any such offence or offences, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy: and whereas it is expedient that a lesser degree of punishment should be provided for the offences by the said acts created; be it enacted, That so much of the said acts as excludes the benefit of clergy from persons convicted of the felonies thereby respectively created, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed; and from and after the passing of this act [4th July 1823], any person convicted of the said felonies, or any of them, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding seven years, 4 G. 4. c. 46. s. 1.

13. And whereas by 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 16. [Stat. Dig. tit. LINEN MANUFACTURES, pl. 12.] provision was made for the capital punishment of persons convicted of divers offences, in stealing, cutting, and destroying linen yarn, linen cloth, or manufactures of linen yarn, and the looms, tools, and implements used therein: and whereas by 22 G. 3. c. 40. ss. 1, 2, 3. [Stat. Dig. tit. LINEN MANUFACTURES, pl. 11., SILK MANUFACTURES, pl. 46., WOOL, &c. pl. 101.], provision was made for the capital punishment of persons convicted of divers offences, in destroying the woollen, silk, linen, and cotton manufactures, and the tools, tackle, and utensils used therein: and whereas it is expedient to provide a lesser degree of punishment for such offences, and to amend some defects in the said two acts, and to incorporate therewith the provision made by 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4. [Stat. Dig. tit. FRAME-WORK, &c. pl. 21.], for the punishment of persons convicted of divers offences, in cutting and destroying framework-knitted pieces, stockings, and other like articles, and breaking, destroying, and damaging frames, machines, engines, tools, instruments, and utensils used in the same manufacture and machinery in the said act mentioned; be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [viz. 4th July 1823], the whole of the 22 G. 3. c. 40., except so much thereof as repeals former acts, and so much of the said recited acts of the 4th and 28th years aforesaid, as create felonies, in stealing, damaging, or destroying manufactures, implements, or machinery, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save only as to offences committed before the passing of this act, as to which the said three last acts shall continue in force; and from and after the passing of this act [viz. 4th July 1823], if any person shall by day or by night break into any house, shop, or building, or enter by force into any house, shop, or building, with intent to cut, break, destroy, or damage, in the loom or frame, or on any machine or engine, or on the rack or tenters, or in any stage, process, or progress of manufacture, any woollen, silk, linen, or cotton goods, or any goods of any one or more of those materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other material; or to cut, break, destroy, or damage any other article of the woollen, silk, linen, or cotton manufactures in the loom or frame, or on any machine or engine, or on the rack or tenters, or in any stage, process, or progress of manufacture; or to cut, break, destroy, or damage any warp or shute of woollen, silk, linen, or cotton, or of any one or more of those materials mixed with each other, or mixed with any other material, or any framework-knitted piece, stocking, hose, or lace; or to burn, break, cut, destroy, or damage any loom, frame, machine, engine, rack, tool, tackle, utensil, instrument, or implement, whether fixed or moveable, prepared for or employed in carding, spinning, throwing, weaving, fulling, shearing, or otherwise manufacturing or preparing any such goods or articles; or shall wilfully and maliciously, and without lawful authority, cut, break, destroy, or damage any such woollen, silk, linen, cotton, or mixed goods, or articles, in the loom or frame, or on any machine or engine, or on the rack or tenters, or in any stage, process, or progress of manufacture; or burn, break, cut, destroy, or damage any such loom, frame, machine, engine, rack, tool, tackle, utensil, instrument, or implement as aforesaid; or counsel, procure, aid, or abet the commission of the said offences, or of any of them; every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding seven years, 4 G. 4. c. 46. s. 2.

14. For extending the benefit of clergy to several larcenies therein mentioned, 4 G. 4. c. 53.

15. Whereas by 22 C. 2. c. 5. s. 3. [Stat. Dig. tits. WOOL, &c. pl. 72., STORES, &c. pl. 4.] the benefit of clergy is taken away from persons convicted of cutting and taking, stealing and carrying away cloth, &c. from the rack or tenter in the night time, or of stealing or embezzling any of H. M.'s naval stores to the value of 20s.: and whereas by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 23. s. 1., as altered by 1 G. 4. c. 117. [Stat. Dig. tit. FELONS, &c. pl. 53—55.], benefit of clergy is taken away from persons convicted of privately and feloniously stealing any goods, wares, or merchandize of the value of 15*l.*, in any shop, warehouse, coach-house, or stable, or of assisting, hiring, or commanding any person to commit any such offence: and whereas by 24 G. 2. c. 45., [Stat. Dig. tit. ROBBERY, pl. 20, 21.], the benefit of clergy is taken away from persons convicted of feloniously stealing any goods, wares, or merchandize of the value of 40s. in any ship, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel or craft, upon any navigable river, or in any port of entry or discharge, or in any creek belonging to any navigable river, port of entry or discharge, within the kingdom of G. B., or of feloniously stealing any goods, wares, or merchandize of the value of 40s. upon any wharf or key adjacent to any navigable river, port of entry or discharge, or of being present, aiding and assisting in the committing any of the offences aforesaid: and whereas it is expedient that a lesser degree of punishment than that of death should be provided for the offences from which the benefit of clergy is so taken away as aforesaid, and that the same punishment should be extended in manner herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said acts as takes away the benefit of clergy from the persons convicted of the offences herein-before mentioned, shall be repealed: and that from and after the passing of this act [8th July 1823], every person who shall be lawfully convicted of cutting, taking, stealing, or carrying away any cloth or other woollen manufactures from the rack or tenters in the night time, or of stealing or embezzling H. M.'s ammunition, sails, cordage, or naval or military stores, or of privately stealing any goods or chattels in any shop, warehouse, coach-house, or stable, or of stealing any goods, wares, or merchandize in any ship, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel or craft, upon any navigable river or canal, or in any port of entry or discharge, or in any creek belonging to any such river, canal, or port, or from any dock, wharf, or quay adjacent to any such river, canal, or port, or of procuring, counselling, aiding, or abetting any such offender, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding seven years, 4 G. 4. c. 53.

16. For allowing the benefit of clergy to persons convicted of certain felonies under two acts, of the 9th year of King George the First, and of the 27th of King George the Second; for making better provision for the punishment of persons guilty of sending or delivering threatening letters, and of assaults with intent to commit robbery, 4 G. 4. c. 54. [AMD. as to sending threatening letters, 6 G. 4. c. 19.]

17. Whereas by 9 G. 1. c. 22. s. 1. [Stat. Dig. tit. RIOT, pl. 32.], it is among other things enacted, that if any person or persons being armed with swords, fire arms, or other offensive weapons, and having his or their faces blacked, or being otherwise disguised, shall appear in any forest, chase, park, paddock, or grounds inclosed with any wall, pale, or other fence, wherein any deer have been or shall be usually kept, or in any warren or place where hares or conies have been or shall be usually kept, or in any high road, open heath, common, or down; or shall unlawfully and wilfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any red or fallow deer, or unlawfully rob any warren or place where conies or hares are usually kept; or shall unlawfully steal or take away any fish out of any river or pond; or if any person or persons shall unlawfully and maliciously break down the head or mound of any fish-pond whereby the fish shall be lost or destroyed, or shall forcibly rescue any person being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for any of the offences before mentioned; or if any person or persons shall, by gift or promise of money or other reward, procure any of H. M.'s subjects to join him or them in any such unlawful act, every person so offending, being therefore lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony without benefit of clergy: and whereas it is expedient that a lesser degree of punishment should be provided for the said offences, and that the same punishment should be extended to persons accessory thereto; be it enacted, That so much of the said act as excludes the benefit of clergy in the cases aforesaid, shall be repealed; and that from and after the passing of this act [8th July 1823], every person duly convicted of the felonies herein-before recited, or of any of them, or of procuring, counselling, aiding or abetting the commission thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for the term of seven years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding three years, 4 G. 4. c. 54. s. 1.

18. And whereas by the said act [viz. 9 G. 1. c. 22. s. 1.], it is further enacted, that if any person or persons shall unlawfully and maliciously kill, maim, or wound any cattle, [see ante, tit. CATTLE, 3 G. 4. c. 71.], or cut down or otherwise destroy any trees planted in any avenue, or growing in any garden, orchard, or plantation, for ornament, shelter, or profit, or shall forcibly rescue any person being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for such offence, or shall, by gift or promise of money or other reward, procure any of H. M.'s subjects to join him or them in any such unlawful act, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in case of felony without benefit of clergy: and whereas it is expedient that a lesser degree of punishment should be provided for the said last-recited offences, and that the same should be extended in the manner herein-after mentioned; be it enacted, That so much of the said act as is last herein-before recited shall be repealed; save only as to offences committed before the passing of this act, as to which the said recited act shall continue in force; and that from and after the passing of this act, [8th July 1823], if any person shall unlawfully and designedly kill, maim, or wound any cattle, whether from malice conceived against the owner or otherwise, or shall unlawfully and maliciously cut down or otherwise destroy any trees planted in any avenue, or growing in any garden, orchard, or plantation, for ornament, shelter, or profit, or shall procure, counsel, aid, or abet the commission of the said offences, or of any of them, or shall forcibly rescue any person lawfully in custody of any officer or other person, for any of the said offences, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for such term not less than seven years, as the court shall adjudge, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding seven years, 4 G. 4. c. 54. s. 2.

19. And whereas by the 9 G. 1. c. 22. s. 1., it is enacted, that if any person or persons shall knowingly send any letter without any name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name, demanding money, venison, or other valuable thing, or shall forcibly rescue any person being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for any such offence, or shall, by gift or promise of money or other reward, procure any of H. M.'s subjects to join him or them in any such unlawful act, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony without benefit of clergy: and whereas by another act, 27 G. 2. c. 15. [Stat. Dig. tit. RIOT, pl. 33.] it is among other things enacted, that if any person or persons shall knowingly send any letter, without any name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name or names, letter or letters, threatening to kill or murder any of H. M.'s subject or subjects, or to burn their houses, outhouses, barns, stacks of corn or grain, hay or straw, though no money or venison or other valuable thing shall be demanded in or by such letter or letters, or shall forcibly rescue any person being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for the said offence, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony without benefit of clergy: and whereas by another act, 30 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1. [Stat. Dig. tit. CHEAT, pl. 6.], it is among other things enacted, that all persons who shall knowingly send or deliver any letter or writing, with or without a name or names subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name or names, letter or letters, threatening to accuse any person of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation, pillory, or any other infamous punishment, with a view or intent to extort or gain money, goods, wares, or merchandizes from the person or persons so threatened to be accused, shall be deemed offenders against law and the public peace; and the court before whom such offender or offenders shall be tried, shall, in case he, she, or they should be convicted of any of the said offences, order such offender or offenders to be fined and imprisoned, or to be put in the pillory or publicly whipped, or to be transported for the term of seven years, as the court in which any such offender or offenders shall be convicted shall think fit and order: and whereas it is expedient that a lesser degree of punishment should be provided for the offence of sending threatening letters, in the cases mentioned in the two first recited acts, and that the same degree of punishment should be inflicted in the cases mentioned in the last recited act, and be extended to persons accessory to the said offence; be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, [viz. 8th July 1823], so much of the said recited acts of the 9th year of the reign of King George the First, and of the 27th and 30th years of the reign of King George the Second, as relates to the sending and delivering letters in the cases therein respectively mentioned, shall be repealed, save only as to offences committed before the passing of this act [8th July 1823], if any person shall knowingly and wilfully send or deliver any letter or writing, with or without any name or signature subscribed thereto, or with a fictitious name or signature, demanding money or other valuable thing, or threatening to kill or murder any of H. M.'s subjects, or to burn or destroy his or their houses, outhouses, barns, stacks of corn or grain, hay or straw, or shall knowingly and wilfully send or deliver any such letter or writing, threatening to accuse any of H. M.'s subjects of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation or pillory, or of any infamous crime, with a view or intent to extort or gain money, security for money, goods or chattels, wares or merchandize, from the person or persons so threatened, or shall procure, counsel, aid, or abet the commission of the said offences, or of any of them, or shall forcibly rescue any person being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for any of the said offences, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for such term, not less than seven years, as the court shall adjudge, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding seven years, 4 G. 4. c. 54. s. 3.

20. Whereas by 4 G. 4. c. 54. s. 3., [ante, pl. 19.] certain provisions are made for the punishment of any person who shall knowingly and wilfully send or deliver any such letter or writing as in the said act is mentioned, threatening to accuse any of H. M.'s subjects of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation, or pillory, or of any infamous crime, with such view or intent as in the said act mentioned, or who shall procure, counsel, aid, or abet the commission of the said offence, or shall forcibly rescue any person being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for the said offence; and also for the punishment of any person who shall maliciously threaten to accuse any other person of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation, or pillory, or of any infamous crime, with such view or intent as in the said act is mentioned, or who shall procure, counsel, aid, or abet the commission of the said offence: and whereas it is expedient to enact that not only every crime now by law deemed infamous by reason of the person convicted thereof being thereby rendered incompetent to give evidence, but also that each of the several offences herein-after mentioned shall be deemed and taken to be an infamous crime within the meaning of the said act; be it therefore enacted, That as well every crime now by law deemed infamous, as also every assault with intent to commit any rape, or the abominable crimes of sodomy or buggery, or either of those crimes, and every attempt or endeavour to commit any rape, or the said abominable crimes or either of them, and also every solicitation, persuasion, promise, threat, or menace, offered or made to any person, whereby to move or induce such person to commit or to permit the said abominable crimes or either of them, shall be deemed and taken to be an infamous crime within the meaning of the said recited act, 6 G. 4. c. 19.

21. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect the remedy given by the said first recited act to the party damaged, by killing or maiming cattle, or by cutting or destroying trees, against the inhabitants of the hundred, but that the same remedy shall remain in as full and ample manner as before the passing of this act, 4 G. 4. c. 54. s. 4. [See MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.]

22. And whereas it is expedient to make better provision for the punishment of persons guilty of offences against the act 7 G. 2. c. 21. [Stat. Dig. tit. ROBBERY, pl. 17.] intituled, An Act for the more effectual punishment of assaults with intent to commit robbery, and to amend the said act; be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [8th July 1825], the last recited act shall be repealed, save only as to the offences committed before the passing of this act, as to which the said act shall continue in force; and that from and after the passing of this act, if any person shall maliciously assault any other person with intent to rob such other person, or shall by menaces or by force maliciously demand money, security for money, goods or chattels, wares or merchandize, of any other person, with intent to steal the same, or shall maliciously threaten to accuse any other person of any crime punishable by law with death, transportation, or pillory, or of any infamous crime, with a view or intent to extort or gain money, security for money, goods or chattels, wares or merchandize, from the person so threatened; or shall procure, counsel, aid, or abet the commission of the said offences, or of any of them; every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to be transported beyond the seas for life, or for such term, not less than seven years, as the court shall adjudge, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, for any term not exceeding seven years, 4 G. 4. c. 54. s. 5.

23. For making further provision by law for the protection of property in orchards, gardens, and nursery grounds, 6 G. 4. c. 127. [Not to extend to Scot. s. 2. See 13 G. 3. c. 32., 42 G. 3. c. 67.; Stat. Dig. tit. TRESPASS, pl. 21. et seq., and see Index, tits. STEALING; TRESPASS.]

24. If any person shall, after the 1st day of Aug. next [1825], enter into any orchard, garden, or nursery ground, or into any hothouse, greenhouse, or conservatory, and shall take, remove, or carry away any trees, plants, shrubs, or roots, or any fruit or vegetable productions, although such trees, plants, shrubs, roots, or vegetable productions respectively had not, by having been severed from the ground or soil in which the same were growing, or such fruit had not, by having been severed from the tree or trees, or plants on which the same was growing, become personal property before such person so entered as aforesaid, but were respectively so severed by such person at the time of his or her so taking, removing, or carrying away the same, the person so taking and carrying away the said articles, or any of them respectively, shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of felony, and shall be punished as guilty of feloniously stealing the same, in case they shall be taken and carried away with such intent, and in other respects under such circumstances as that such taking and carrying away would amount to a felony in case the said articles respectively had been previously severed, and had become personal property previously to such entering, taking, and carrying away the same as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 127. s. 1.

OFFICE. (See SERVICES PUBLIC).

1. To enable the earl marshal and his deputy to execute the duties of their office or offices, without previously taking or subscribing certain oaths or declarations, 5 G. 4. c. 109.

2. Whereas it is expedient that the earl marshal and his deputy for the time being, should be enabled to execute the duties of his or their office or offices, without previously taking or subscribing certain oaths and declarations; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [viz. 24th July 1824], it shall be lawful for the earl marshal, or his deputy for the time being, to execute all the duties of his or their office or offices respectively, without previously taking, making, or subscribing any declaration or oath, save and except the oath of allegiance to H. M., his heirs and successors, and the oath for the due performance of the duties of the said office or offices, 5 G. 4. c. 109. s. 1.

3. All and every act or acts performed or executed by the earl marshal, or his deputy for the time being, without his or their having previously taken or subscribed any declaration or oath, save and except the oath of allegiance, and the oath of office, shall be held, and the same is or are hereby declared and enacted to be of the same force, validity and effect, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been performed or executed by an earl marshal, or his deputy for the time being, who had taken the oath of supremacy, and signed the declaration against transubstantiation, 5 G. 4. c. 109. s. 2.

PARDON.

1. An act for defining the rights of capital convicts who receive H. M.'s pardon, 6 G. 4. c. 25. s. 1. [See rest of the title, and s. 2. 4. of this act, tit. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, and s. 3. tit. SPIRITUAL PERSONS.]

2. Whereas it is expedient that the civil rights of persons having been convicted of capital felonies who receive H. M.'s most gracious pardon, should be more clearly ascertained than is at present the case, it is enacted, That in all cases in which His late Majesty, or the King's Majesty that now is, his heirs or successors, hath been or shall be pleased to extend his or their royal mercy to any offender convicted of any felony whereby the offender was, is, or shall be excluded from the benefit of clergy, and by warrant under his or their royal sign manual, countersigned by one of his or their principal secretaries of state, hath granted or shall grant to such offender either a free pardon, or a pardon upon condition of transportation, imprisonment, or any other punishment, the discharge of such offender out of custody in case of a free pardon, and the performance of the condition in case of a conditional pardon, shall have the effect of a pardon under the great seal for such offender as to the felony whereof he or she was so convicted, 6 G. 4. c. 25. s. 1.

PARLIAMENT.

1. For empowering commissioners to be appointed by H. M. to enquire into the forms of process in the courts of law in Scot., and the course of appeals from the court of sessions to the House of Lords, 4 G. 4. c. 85. [Commissioners were appointed and proceeded in their labours, and upon their report the 6 G. 4. c. 76. is founded: this act is therefore EXPIRED.]

2. For better regulating the office of clerk of the parliaments, 5 G. 4. c. 82.

3. Whereas His late Majesty King George the Third, by letters patent under the great seal of G. B., bearing date at Westminster, the 24th Feb., in the 23d year of his reign, did grant unto Samuel Strutt, esq. since deceased, the office of clerk of the parliaments, to have, enjoy, and exercise the said office unto him the said Samuel Strutt, by himself or his sufficient deputy or deputies, for the term of his natural life, immediately after the decease of Ashley Cowper, esq., since deceased, or when the said office should then first become vacant; and by the said letters patent, his said majesty did grant unto George Rose, esq., since deceased, the said office of clerk of the parliaments, to have, enjoy, and exercise the said office unto him the said George Rose, by himself or his sufficient deputy or deputies, for the term of his natural life, immediately after the decease of the said Ashley Cowper and Samuel Strutt, or when the said office should then first happen to become vacant: and whereas His said late Majesty, by letters patent bearing date the 24th Oct., 55 G. 3., did grant unto George Henry Rose, now the right honourable Sir George Henry Rose, son of the said George Rose, since deceased, the said office of clerk of the parliaments, to have, enjoy, and exercise the said office, unto him the said George Henry Rose, by himself or his sufficient deputy or deputies, for and during the term of his natural life, immediately after the decease of the said George Rose, or when the said office should first happen to become vacant, with a salary of 40*l.* a year, payable as therein mentioned, and with all and all manner of liberties and privileges anciently belonging to the said office, and with all profits, advantages, pre-eminences, and emoluments whatsoever, and howsoever belonging or appertaining to the same office, and in as ample manner and form as the said Ashley Cowper, Samuel Strutt and George Rose, or any other person or persons then had and received, or ought to have had and received, in and for the execution of the said office: and whereas the said Sir George Henry Rose, and his predecessors, as such clerks of parliament as aforesaid, have exercised and enjoyed the right of nominating and appointing (subject to the approbation of the most honourable the House of Lords) all the clerks belonging to the said office: and whereas the said Sir George Henry Rose, in accordance with the wishes, and for promoting the service of the said House of Lords, hath consented to relinquish such right (except as herein-after provided); and it is expedient that such right should in future be exercised in the manner herein-after provided, and that such further regulations as herein-after mentioned should be made upon the expiration of the existing interest of the present clerk of the parliaments and the clerk assistant: be it therefore enacted, That upon and immediately after the expiration of the said last recited letters patent so granted to the said George Henry Rose as aforesaid, the person then executing the office of clerk assistant shall be and become clerk of the parliaments, and shall execute the duties of the said office in person, and be removable by address of the house of lords to H. M. for that purpose, 5 G. 4. c. 82. s. 1.

4. And thereafter the clerk of parliaments shall be appointed by H. M., his heirs and successors, but such clerk of the parliaments so appointed shall also execute the duties of the said office in person, and shall be removable by H. M., upon an address of the house of lords to H. M. for that purpose, 5 G. 4. c. 82. s. 2.

5. From and after the passing of this act, [21st June 1824,] then nomination and appointment (except as herein-after provided) of the clerk assistant and other clerks officiating at the table of the house of lords (except the clerk of the parliaments as aforesaid) shall be vested in and exercised by the lord chancellor or speaker of the house of lords for the time being, but subject always to the approbation of the said house of lords, on such appointments being duly notified to the house, and that such officers, when so appointed and approved, shall be removable only by order of the said house of lords, 5 G. 4. c. 82. s. 3.

6. Provided, that it shall be lawful for the said Sir George Henry Rose, during his life, and for such person as he shall by any writing under his hand, nominate for that purpose, in case of his death to appoint for one turn only, and subject to the approbation of the said house of lords, on such appointment being notified to the house, any person duly qualified to any one of the said offices at the table of the house, which may become vacant by death, or superannuation, or promotion, during the life of the said Sir George Henry Rose, or within 21 years from the time of his death, except as to such appointment as is hereby vested in H. M., but after the lord chancellor or speaker shall have made on the occasion of such vacancy any promotion in such offices which he may deem expedient for the service of the house, or to such vacant office, if no such promotion shall be made, 5 G. 4. c. 82. s. 4.

7. From and after the passing of this act [21st June 1824], all the other clerks, except as aforesaid, belonging to the said office of clerk of the parliaments, (that is to say) the clerk of the journals, copying clerk, clerk of the ingrossments, clerk of the enrolments, and the writing clerks under them, shall be nominated and appointed and removable at pleasure, by the person for the time being executing the office of clerk assistant, during the existence of the said patent so granted to the said

Sir George Henry Rose, and afterwards by the clerk of the parliaments for the time being executing in person the duties of the said office, according to the provisions herein-before contained, 5 G. 4. c. 82. s. 5.

8. The said Sir George Henry Rose shall remain in full possession of all the rights, profits, and emoluments of his said office (except as hereby otherwise provided), in the same manner as if this act had not been made: and nothing herein shall invalidate, abridge, or alter the said letters patent, or the rights of the said Sir George Henry Rose derived under the same, except as hereby provided; and Henry Cowper, esq. the present clerk assistant, shall remain in full possession of all the rights, profits, and emoluments of his said office as heretofore, so long as he shall continue to hold the said office; but if the said office shall at any time become vacant during the existence of the said patent, granted to Sir George Henry Rose, then during the existence of the said patent, the person to succeed to the said office of clerk assistant shall be nominated by the crown, and be removable in like manner as herein-before provided with respect to the office of the clerk of the parliaments, 5 G. 4. c. 82. s. 6.

9. To establish a taxation of costs on private bills in the house of commons; and to prohibit the sale of certain offices under the sergeant at arms attending the house of commons, 6 G. 4. c. 123.

10. Whereas it is expedient to establish a taxation of the costs and expences charged by parliamentary agents, solicitors, and others, in respect of bills subject to the payment of fees in parliament, commonly called private bills, and incurred in complying with the standing orders of the house of commons relative to such bills, and in preparing, bringing in, and carrying the same through the house of commons; and to make provision for the more easy recovery of such costs and expences: be it therefore enacted, That if any petitioner or petitioners for a private bill brought into the commons house of parliament, or the agent or agents of any such petitioner or petitioners, shall make application to the speaker of the house of commons, complaining of the amount of the costs and expences charged by any parliamentary agent or solicitor, or any other person employed in soliciting or preparing such bill, or in complying with the standing orders relative thereto, on behalf of any such petitioner; or if any parliamentary agent or solicitor, or other person employed in soliciting any such private bill, or in preparing the same, or in complying with the standing orders relative thereto, shall make application to the speaker complaining that he is aggrieved by the non-payment of the costs and expences charged by him in respect of any such private bill, it shall be lawful for the speaker, upon receiving any such application, and the speaker is hereby authorized and required, to direct that such costs and expences, so far as the same shall relate to the house of commons, shall be taxed by such person or persons as the speaker shall think proper to appoint; and it shall be lawful for any person or persons so appointed for the taxing of such costs and expences, and he and they is and are hereby required to tax the same, and to report to the speaker the amount of such costs and expences which such person or persons shall think fit to be allowed upon and after such taxation; and the speaker shall, upon application, deliver to the person or persons concerned therein and requiring the same, a certificate, signed by himself, expressing the amount of the costs and expences allowed in and by such report; and it shall be lawful for the person or persons so appointed to tax such costs and expences, and he and they is and are hereby authorized respectively, to demand and receive for such taxation and report such fees as shall be from time to time fixed by any resolution of the house of commons, and for that purpose to charge the amount of such fees at the foot of such report, either against the party applying for such taxation, or against any party complained of, or in such proportions against each of such parties as such person or persons so taxing such costs may think fit; and such certificate, so signed by the speaker, shall be conclusive evidence of all demands therein certified, and the party claiming under the same shall (upon receiving the amount so certified) give a receipt at the foot of such certificate, and such receipt shall be sufficient discharge for such costs and expences, 6 G. 4. c. 123. s. 1.

11. If any petitioner, agent, or other person liable to the payment of such costs and expences, shall refuse to pay the amount so certified by the speaker in any action which shall be commenced for the recovery of such costs and expences, such certificate so signed by the speaker as aforesaid shall have the force and effect of a warrant to confess judgment, and the court in which such action shall be commenced shall, upon motion and production of such certificate, order judgment to be entered up for the sum specified in such certificate, in like manner as if the defendant or defendants in any such action had signed a warrant to confess judgment in such action to that amount, 6 G. 4. c. 123. s. 2.

12. And whereas 52 G. 3. c. 11. was passed, intituled, An Act to repeal an act passed in the 39th and 40th year of His present Majesty, for establishing certain regulations in the offices of the house of commons, and to establish other and further regulations in the said offices: and whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said act [viz. part of s. 15. Stat. Dig. tit. OFFICE, pl. 74.] as directs that certain offices under the sergeant at arms attending the house of commons, shall continue to be sold; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said act shall be and the same is hereby repealed, 6 G. 4. c. 123. s. 3.

13. Provided, that if any person or persons shall have been appointed to any of the said offices during the present session of parliament, he or they shall be exempted and discharged from the payment of any sum of money for the same to which he or they is or are liable in pursuance of the said recited act, and he and they is and are hereby exempted and discharged accordingly, 6 G. 4. c. 123. s. 4.

PASSENGERS. See EMIGRATION.

1. To repeal the laws for regulating vessels carrying passengers from the U. K. to foreign parts, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof, 4 G. 4. c. 84. [REPE. except so far as it repeals any other act, 6 G. 4. c. 105. s. 36.]

2. Whereas it is expedient that the regulations established by various acts for carrying passengers from the U. K. to foreign parts should be repealed, and other regulations substituted; be it enacted, That from and after 1st Aug. 1823, the 43 G. 3. c. 56. intituled, An Act for regulating vessels carrying passengers from the U. K. to H. M.'s plantations and settlements abroad, or to foreign parts, with respect to the number of such passengers, [Stat. Dig. tit. EMIGRATION, pl. 2—6. s. 8—14. 17—26.,] and also 53 G. 3. c. 36. [Stat. Dig. tit. EMIGRATION, pl. 15. 27, 28.] for amending the 43 G. 3. c. 56., and also 56 G. 3. c. 83. [Stat. Dig. tit. EMIGRATION, pl. 31—42.] intituled, An Act for regulating the carrying of passengers to and from the island of Newfoundland, and coast of Labrador, and also 56 G. 3. c. 114. [Stat. Dig. tit. EMIGRATION, pl. 16.] intituled, An Act to regulate the conveyance of passengers from the U. K. to the United States of America in British vessels, and also 57 G. 3. c. 10. [Stat. Dig. tit. EMIGRATION, pl. 43—52.] intituled, An Act to regulate the vessels carrying passengers from the U. K. to certain of H. M.'s colonies in North America, shall be repealed, 4 G. 4. c. 84. s. 1.

3. For regulating vessels carrying passengers between G. B. and Ire., 4 G. 4. c. 88.

4. From and after the 1st of Sept. 1823, it shall not be lawful for the master or commander, or person having the charge or command of any vessel employed in the conveyance of passengers between G. B. and Ire., being of any burthen less than 200 tons, to take on board, or to carry any greater number of persons than 20 as passengers, from any port in G. B. to any port in Ire., or from any port in Ire. to any port in G. B., unless a licence for the conveyance of passengers shall have been previously granted to the owners, or master of such ship or vessel, under the hand of the collector, controller, or other chief officer of customs, at the port from which such vessel shall sail from G. B. to Ire., and from Ire. to G. B.; and it shall be lawful for every such collector, controller, or chief officer of customs, to grant and sign such licence without fee, in such form and under such regulations as shall be directed by the commissioners of customs: provided, that no such licence shall be granted, except upon such certificate as shall be required by the commissioners of customs, that such vessel is seaworthy and properly sound in all respects; and every such licence shall remain in force for one year from the date thereof, and no longer, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 1.

5. It shall not be lawful for any master, &c. of any ship or vessel so licensed for the conveyance of passengers, which shall clear out from any port in the U. K., after the 1st Sept. 1823, to have on board at or after being cleared out at any one time, or to convey, carry, or transport from any port in G. B. or Ire., in any such ship, &c., a greater number of persons (exclusive of the ordinary crew), than in the proportion of five adult persons, or of 10 children under 14, or of 15 children under seven years of age, for every four tons burthen; and every such ship, &c. shall be deemed to be of such tonnage or burthen as is described in her certificate of registry, and if any such ship or vessel shall be partly laden with goods, or horses, or carriages, then it shall not be lawful for the master, &c., to receive or take on board a greater number of persons (exclusive of the ordinary crew), than in the proportion of five adult persons, or of 10 children under 14, or of 15 children under seven years of age, for every four tons of that part of such ship or vessel which shall remain unladen; and such goods, wares, or merchandize with which such ship or vessel may be partly laden shall, at the sight and under the direction of the collector or controller, or other officer of customs, be stowed and disposed of in such a manner as to leave good, sufficient, and wholesome accommodation for the proportion of persons allowed in such case to be received on board, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 2.

6. And if any master, &c. shall take on board any passengers, or if the owners of such ship or vessel shall engage to take on board any passengers beyond the number of 20, without such licence, every such master, or owner, shall for every offence forfeit 50*l.*; and if any master shall take on board, or if such master, or the owners, shall engage to take on board a greater number of persons than in the proportion allowed by this act, such master shall forfeit 5*l.* for every person, exceeding in number the proportion herein-before limited; and every such ship or vessel so having on board, or conveying or carrying any greater number than 20 persons without such licence first had, shall be seized and detained by the collector, controller, surveyor, or officer of customs, until such penalty of 50*l.* shall be satisfied, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 3.

7. After the 1st of Sept. 1823, it shall not in any case be lawful for any master, &c. of any trading or coasting ship or vessel, not being wholly employed in the conveyance of passengers, and not licensed to carry passengers, whether laden in part or in the whole with goods, not being the baggage of passengers, or employed in the carriage of cattle or pigs, or in ballast, and which shall sail from any port in G. B. to any port in Ire., or from any port in Ire. to any port in G. B., to take on board a greater number of persons than 10 (exclusive of the ordinary crew), if such ship or vessel shall be of the burthen of 100 tons or under, nor a greater number of persons than 20 (exclusive of the ordinary crew), if such ship or vessel shall be of a burthen greater than 100 tons, and not exceeding 200 tons; and if more persons shall be found or taken on board any such ship or vessel than in the proportion herein allowed, every such master shall forfeit 5*l.* for every person beyond such proportion, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 4.

8. An abstract of this act shall be prepared and printed by and under the direction of the commissioners of customs, and a printed copy of such abstract shall be hung up in the custom-house of every port of the U. K., and a printed copy of such abstract, and also a copy of the licence granted to the captain or owners of such ship or vessel, and a statement of the number of persons allowed to be carried in such vessel, shall be hung up in some conspicuous place on the deck, and in the cabin of every ship or vessel carrying passengers under this act; and the master, &c. shall cause the said copies to be kept and renewed, so that the same may be at all times accessible to every person on board, upon pain that every such master, &c. of every such ship or vessel, in which such abstract, licence, and notice, shall not be hung up, and shall not be renewed and remain as aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 5.

9. Provided, that nothing in this act shall extend to ships or vessels in the service of H. M., or the post-master general, or of the commissioners of customs and excise, or of the E. I. C.; nor to any ship or vessel of the burthen of 200 tons or upwards, nor to any ship or vessel employed in carrying troops, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 6.

10. All penalties and forfeitures for any offence against this act may be recovered at any time within three calendar months after the commission of such offence, in a summary way, by the order and adjudication of any one justice of the peace of the county or place in which the port is situate, from which such ship, &c. shall depart, or at which such ship, &c. shall arrive, on complaint exhibited to him; and such penalty shall be levied, as well as the costs of such proceedings, on non-payment, by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice; and such justice shall summon witnesses, and examine such witnesses upon oath touching such offence, and hear and determine the same; and the overplus (if any) of the money levied, after discharging penalty and costs, shall be returned upon demand to the owners of the goods distrained; and in case such penalty shall not be forthwith paid upon conviction, then it shall be lawful for such justice to order the offender to be kept in custody, until return can be made to such warrant of distress, unless the offender shall give security for his appearance before such justice on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such warrant of distress; such day not being more than seven days from the time of taking such security, and which security such justice may take by way of recognizance or otherwise; but if, upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had, then it shall be lawful for such justice, or any other justice for the county, &c., by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such offender to be committed to the gaol of such county, there to remain, without bail, for not exceeding two calendar months, unless such penalty or forfeiture, and all charges, shall be sooner paid; and one moiety of such penalty, when levied, shall be paid to the person who shall prosecute, for his own use, and the other moiety to the use of H. M., 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 7.

11. Provided, that if any person shall think himself aggrieved by any such conviction, it shall be lawful for such person to appeal to the justices at the next general quarter session to be holden for the county or place; such appellant (if there be sufficient time after the cause of complaint shall have arisen) first giving 10 days' notice in writing of his intention of bringing such appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the justice whose conviction is appealed against, and within seven days after such notice entering into a recognizance before the said justice or some other justice of the county or place, with two sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide the order of sessions, and to pay such costs as shall be awarded by such quarter sessions; and for want of sufficient time for giving such notice, previous to the quarter sessions next after such cause of complaint arose, then such appeal, after such notice and under such recognizance, may be made at the second general quarter sessions for the county or place; and the justices at such first or second sessions, on due proof of such notice and recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the matter of appeal, in a summary way, and award costs to the parties appealing or appealed against, as they shall think proper; and the determination of such justices at such quarter sessions shall be final, binding, and conclusive; and the said justices at such sessions may also, by their warrant, cause such costs, so awarded, by distress and sale to be levied of the goods of the person who shall refuse or neglect to pay the same; and for want of sufficient distress may commit such person to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding two calendar months, or until payment of such costs, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 8.

12. No proceedings under this act shall be quashed for want of form, nor be removed or removable by certiorari, or other process, into any court of record at Dublin; and where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied under this act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the parties making it trespassers, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceedings; nor shall the parties distraining, be deemed trespassers ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards committed; but the parties aggrieved may recover full satisfaction for the special damage (if any) in an action on the case; but no plaintiff shall recover in such action if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made by or on behalf of the party distraining, before action commenced, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 9.

13. Any action or suit commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance and by authority of this act, shall be commenced within three calendar months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought in the county, city, or place where the cause arose; and the defendants may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at the trial, and that the same was done in pursuance thereof; and if it shall so appear, or if such action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in a wrong county, &c., then the jury shall find for the defendants, and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues his action, or has a verdict given against him, the defendant shall recover double costs, and have the like remedy for the same as any other defendant hath for costs in other cases by law, 4 G. 4. c. 88. s. 10.

14. For regulating vessels carrying passengers to foreign parts, 6 G. 4. c. 116.

15. Whereas 6 G. 4. c. 105. [see post, tit. STATUTES.] was passed, intituled, An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the customs, in which it is declared, that the laws of the customs have become intricate by reason of the great number of acts relating thereto which have been passed through a long series of years, and that it is therefore highly expedient for the interest of commerce and the ends of justice, and also for affording convenience and facility to all persons who may be subject to the operation of those laws, or who may be authorized to act in the execution thereof, that all the statutes now in force relating to the customs should be repealed, and that the purposes for which they have from time to time been made should be secured by new enactments, exhibiting more perspicuously and compendiously the various provisions contained in them: and whereas by the said act the laws relating to the carrying of passengers to foreign parts will be repealed; and it is expedient to make new provisions in lieu thereof: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the 5th Jan. 1826., this act shall come into, and be and continue in full force and operation for regulating vessels carrying passengers to foreign parts, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 1.

16. No British ship carrying any passenger or passengers shall sail from any port or place in the U. K. to or for any port or place out of Europe, and not being within the streights of Gibraltar, with more persons on board, including the master and crew, than one for every five tons of her burthen, without a licence under the hands and seals of the commissioners of customs, under the penalty of 50*l.* for every person exceeding such proportion, to be paid by the master of such ship: provided, that no such licence shall be granted for any ship to carry any greater number of persons, including the master and crew, than in the proportion of one person for every two tons of the burthen of such ship or vessel, except as herein-after provided in the case of ships sailing from Ireland to the British possessions in North America; provided also, that two children under 14 years of age, or three children under seven years of age, shall in all cases be computed as one person, for the purposes herein-before mentioned, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 2.

17. It shall not be lawful for the master of any ship laden with goods and merchandize for exportation, which shall sail from any port or place in the U. K. to or for any port or place out of Europe, and not being within the streights of Gibraltar, to receive or take on board a greater number of persons, including the master and crew, computed as aforesaid, than in the proportion of one person for every two tons of such ship remaining unladen with goods and merchandize, under the penalty of 20*l.* for every person exceeding such proportion, to be paid by the master of such ship: provided, that every clear integral space between the deck and the cargo of every ship which shall have but one deck, or between the decks of any ship having more decks than one, such space being unoccupied with goods or merchandize, or with stores, provisions, water, or baggage, and being six feet in length, two feet six inches in breadth, and being of the whole of the height between decks, or being five feet six inches in height, if there be only one deck, shall be deemed to be and shall be equivalent to two tons of such ship remaining unladen, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 3.

18. Every British ship shall be deemed to be of such burthen as is set forth in the certificate of the registry of such ship, and the burthen of every foreign ship shall be ascertained by admeasurement, in the manner directed by any act now in force or hereafter to be made respecting the admeasurement of British ships for the purpose of being registered, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 4.

19. The master of every British ship carrying passengers as aforesaid, and having more persons on board, including the master and crew, computed as aforesaid, than one for every five tons of the burthen of such ship, previously to his leaving the port from whence he shall be bound, shall deliver to the collector and controller of customs at such port a list containing the full number of the crew, and also the number of the passengers, with their names, ages, and descriptions, and the places to which they are to be respectively conveyed, for the purpose of being registered at such port; and if the number of such persons shall exceed 50., such ship shall not be cleared out, unless the owner or owners, or the master, shall have given bond to H. M. with two sufficient sureties, such bond to be without stamp, and to be taken by and left in the hands of the collector or controller of the customs of the port from whence such ship shall be cleared out, in an amount equal to the sum of 20*l.* for each passenger, whether child or adult, on board such ship, with condition that such ship is seaworthy, and properly stored with water and provisions, and shall have for the voyage a surgeon, with a medicine-chest properly stored with medicines, as herein-after provided; and that every such passenger, if alive, shall be landed at the port or ports to which such passenger shall have contracted to be conveyed, unless landed elsewhere at his or her own desire, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 5.

20. If the master of any British ship, having a licence to carry passengers in the manner herein-before directed, shall take on board, or if he or the owner or owners of any such ship shall engage to take on board, any person or persons exceeding the number mentioned and specified in such licence, such master, owner or owners, shall severally forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.* for each and every person so taken or engaged to be taken beyond the persons specified in such licence, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 6.

21. Every such ship, having a licence as aforesaid, shall be provided with such a supply of good and wholesome water as will afford an allowance of five pints of water daily during the voyage for every person (including the master and crew), and computing two children under 10 years of age as one person, which supply of water shall be stowed below the lower deck, if there be two decks, or five feet six inches at least below the deck, if there be only one deck; and every such ship shall also be provided with such a supply of provisions as will afford an allowance for every such person, during the voyage, of one pound weight of bread or biscuit, and one pound weight of beef, or three quarters of a pound weight of pork, daily, and also two pounds weight of flour, and three pounds weight of oatmeal, or of pease, or of pearl barley, and half a pound weight of butter, weekly; the said allowance to commence on and be computed from the day the ship takes her departure from the port at which she shall be cleared outwards, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 7.

22. The master of such ship failing to give out the allowance of provisions and water herein-before specified, if required to do so, shall forfeit the sum of 10*l.* of lawful money for each and every such neglect or omission, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 8.

23. Provided, that if any passenger who has entered into any contract or agreement for the voyage on board any such ship, shall signify to the collector or controller, or other proper officer of the customs, or to any justice of the peace or other magistrate, in the U. K., that he or she is desirous of being relanded, and of not proceeding on any such voyage, it shall and may be lawful to and for such collector or controller, or other proper officer of the customs, or for such justice of the peace or other magistrate, and they are hereby empowered and required, to take such passenger, together with his or her baggage, out of the ship, and to set such passenger free from his or her engagement, reserving to either party any legal claim which may arise in consequence thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 9.

24. If after any such ship shall have been cleared out the master of any such ship shall unship or reland, or permit or suffer to be unshipped or relanded, any water or provisions, such master shall forfeit the sum of 500*l.*: provided, that if any passenger shall be relanded, and shall not proceed, then it shall and may be lawful for such master to unship or reland, under the inspection of the proper officers of the customs, at the port where such passenger shall be relanded, a quantity of water and provisions not exceeding the proportion sufficient for the allowance of every such passenger so relanded, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 10.

25. The bedding of each and every passenger on board any such ship shall be aired by exposure upon the deck, when the weather will permit, daily during the voyage; and such ship shall be fumigated with vinegar at least twice in every week during the voyage; and the master of such ship shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.* for each failure or neglect in airing the said bedding, or in fumigating the ship, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 11.

26. No British ship having a licence to carry passengers as aforesaid, carrying 50 persons or upwards, including the master or crew, computed as aforesaid, shall be cleared out at any port of the U. K., unless such ship shall be provided with a surgeon, who is to continue during the whole of the voyage, and who shall produce, to the officer of the customs at the port where the ship is to be cleared, a certificate of his having passed his examination at Surgeons'-hall in London, or at the royal college of surgeons of Edinburgh or Dublin, or before the medical faculty of the university of Glasgow, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 12.

27. Every such surgeon shall have a medicine chest properly stored with medicines in proportion to the number of persons on board such ship, of the kind and according to the assortment generally used and made for the like voyages on board of H. M.'s ships of war; and before any such ship shall be allowed to be cleared out, such surgeon shall specify upon oath, before the collector or controller of the customs at the port from whence such ship is to be cleared out, the contents of such medicine-chest; and shall further make oath, that the medicines are of good and proper quality, and of the assortment generally used and made for the like voyages on board of H. M.'s ships of war, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he is engaged, and does intend to go the voyage as surgeon on board such ship; and the affidavit of every such surgeon shall be deposited and preserved in the custom-house where the clearance of such ship shall be granted; and the owner or master of every such ship failing to provide a surgeon so qualified, and a medicine-chest properly stored as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.* for every person on board, including the master and crew, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 13.

28. And whereas it is expedient that some certain mark should be placed on certain British ships or vessels carrying passengers, that they may at all times be known at sea by H. M.'s ships and vessels of war or revenue; be it therefore enacted, That the letter P. shall be painted in white at least three feet in length, and of proportionate width, on the quarters of every British ship carrying passengers as aforesaid, and having more persons on board, including the master and crew, computed as aforesaid, than one for every five tons burthen of such ship, under the penalty of the forfeiture of 100*l.* by the master of such ship on failure of having such mark, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 14.

29. All captains and officers commanding H. M.'s ships of war or revenue vessels, who shall meet any such British ship at sea, and the collectors and controllers of customs at any port in the U. K., or in the British possessions, and the governors and lieutenant-governors at any such possessions, and H. M.'s consuls at any foreign port, shall and may, and they are hereby empowered and required to call upon the master of any such ship to produce the licence granted by the commissioners of customs, for the purpose of inspection and examination, and to ascertain whether the regulations of this act have been duly complied with; and in case the master of any such ship shall refuse or fail to produce the said licence he shall forfeit the sum of 200*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 15.

30. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to ships in the service of H. M., or of H. M.'s postmaster-general, or of the E. I. C., or to any ship bound to the fisheries at Newfoundland, or on the coast of Labrador, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 16.

31. Provided, that: it shall be lawful for the treasury, by any order or direction to be issued by them from time to time for that purpose, to exempt from the operation of this act, or of any of the provisions herein contained, any ship or vessel carrying passengers from Ire. to the British possessions in North America; and that any such ship or vessel so exempted by any such order or direction, and complying with the conditions of the same, shall not be subject to any of the conditions and forfeitures imposed by this act touching any of the matters to which any such order or direction shall apply, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 17.

32. No foreign ship, carrying any passenger or passengers, shall sail from any port or place in the U. K. to or for any port or place out of Europe, and not being within the streights of Gibraltar, with more persons on board, including the master and crew, than one for every five tons burthen of such ship, (unless special permission shall be given for that purpose by the commissioners of customs), under penalty of 50*l.* for every person exceeding such proportion, to be paid by the master of such ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 18.

33. Provided, that during the continuance of any convention of commerce and navigation between H. M. and any foreign state, whereby the privileges of British ships shall be conceded to the ships of such foreign state, so much of this act as relates to British ships shall extend and be construed to extend to ships belonging to such states, during the existence of such convention, and carrying more passengers than other foreign ships are by this act permitted to carry, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 19.

34. All sums of money, penalties, and forfeitures in this act mentioned and contained, shall be calculated and paid and payable within G. B. and Ire. in lawful money of G. B.; and that any penalty or forfeiture inflicted by this act may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the court of exchequer, or in the court of session in Scot., in the name of H. M.'s attorney general for Eng. or Ire., or advocate for Scot. respectively, or in the name of any person or persons whatsoever, wherein no essoign, protection, privilege, wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and in every action or suit the person against whom judgment shall be given for any penalty or forfeiture under this act, shall pay double costs of suit; and every such action or suit shall and may be brought at any time within three years after the offence committed, and not afterwards; and one moiety of every penalty to be recovered by virtue of this act shall go and be applied to H. M., and the other to the use of such person or persons as shall first sue for the same, after deducting charges of prosecution from the whole, 6 G. 4. c. 114. s. 20.

35. If any action or suit shall be brought or commenced against any person or persons for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant in such action or suit may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this act; and if it shall appear to be so done, then the jury shall find for the defendant; and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his action, or if a verdict shall pass against the plaintiff, or upon demurrer judgment shall be given against such plaintiff, the defendant shall recover double costs, and have the like remedy for the same as any defendant hath for costs of suit in any other cases by law, 6 G. 4. c. 116. s. 21.

PENITENTIARY.

1. To authorize for one year, and from thence to the end of the next session of parliament, the temporary removal of convicts from the general penitentiary, 4 G. 4. c. 82.—EXPIRED.

2. To provide for the future confinement of male convicts removed from the general penitentiary, and now on board vessels in the river Thames, 5 G. 4. c. 19.

3. Reciting 4 G. 4. c. 82., and that by virtue thereof certain offenders have been removed from the said penitentiary, and were then confined on board vessels provided for that purpose, and lying in the river Thames; and whereas it is expedient to place such of the said offenders as are males under the management of the superintendent and overseers appointed, or to be appointed, under 56 G. 3. c. 27. [Stat. Dig. tit. TRANSPORTATION, pl. 23. See post, TRANSPORTATION.] intituled, An Act to amend several laws relative to the transportation of offenders, to continue in force until the 1st May 1821; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [12th April, 1824], the vessels so provided for male offenders, under and by virtue of the said first recited act, shall be under the management of the said superintendent and overseers appointed, or to be appointed by H. M., under and by virtue of the 56 G. 3. c. 27.; and that the said male offenders shall be subject to the same treatment, discipline, correction, clothing, and diet, as other offenders, under and by virtue of the said last recited act, and shall be confined on board the said vessel, or on board other vessels, provided or to be provided under the said last recited act, until they shall become entitled to their liberty, 5 G. 4. c. 19.

PILOTAGE.

1. For the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage; and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons, 6 G. 4. c. 125. [PUBLIC CLAUSE, s. 92.]

2. Whereas ships and vessels have frequently been wrecked, and many lives and much property have been lost, from the ignorance or misconduct of persons taking charge of such ships and vessels as pilots: And whereas the master, wardens, and assistants of the guild, fraternity, or brotherhood of the most glorious and undivided Trinity, and of Saint Clement in the parish of Deptford Strond in the county of Kent, commonly called "The Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond," have, as well by usage for more than three centuries, as by grants from the crown, been empowered to appoint pilots, loadsmen, or guides, to conduct ships and vessels into and out of and upon the river of Thames, through the North Channel, to or by Orfordness, and round the Long Sand Head, or through the Queen's Channel, the South Channel, or other channels into the Downs, and from and by Orfordness and up the North Channel, and up the rivers Thames and Medway, and the several creeks and channels belonging or running into the same, and to make such orders and constitutions as should be needful for the wholesome government of seafaring men, and maintenance and increase of navigation, and of all seafaring men within the said river of Thames: in pursuance of which powers the said corporation have from time to time appointed a sufficient number of pilots for the purposes before-mentioned, and made orders for the better regulation and government of the same: And whereas there hath been time out of mind, and now is, a society or fellowship of pilots of the Trinity-house of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, who have had the pilotage and loadmanage of all ships from the said places up the rivers Thames and Medway, which said society or fellowship have been confirmed by various acts of parliament for regulating the pilots of the society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called "Cinque Port Pilots:" And whereas by certain acts of parliament, and more particularly by 52 G. 3. c. 39. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 1—11. 13—85.], intituled, An Act for the more effectual regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of Eng., certain additional powers and authorities were vested as well in the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and the said society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called "Cinque Port Pilots," as also in the corporation of the Trinity-house of the ports of Hull and Newcastle respectively: And whereas 55 G. 3. c. 87. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 99—103.], intituled, An Act to relieve certain foreign vessels resorting to the port of London, in respect of pilotage, and to regulate the mode of payment of pilotage on foreign vessels in the said port: And whereas the provisions of the said acts have been found inadequate and insufficient, and it is therefore expedient that the same should be repealed (except as herein-after provided), and that the several provisions therein contained respecting pilots and pilotage should be improved and amended and consolidated in one law; be it enacted, That the 52 G. 3. c. 39., and 55 G. 3. c. 87., and all and every the clauses, provisions, powers, penalties, forfeitures, matters, and things, relating as well to pilots appointed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, as to pilots of the fellowship of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, and to the pilotage by and regulation of all such pilots as aforesaid, and also as to the conduct of all persons in matters of pilotage, within the jurisdiction of the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and the liberty of the cinque ports, which are contained in any act [viz. 53 G. 3. c. 140. Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 12. 84—98.] or acts of parliament heretofore made, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal so much of the said acts, passed in the 52d and 55th years of the reign of His late Majesty, or either of them, as relates to any rates of pilotage due or to become due, or to any penalty or forfeiture incurred or to be incurred, or any other act, matter, or thing done or to be done before the commencement of the operation of the provisions of this act, in relation to any such matters and things as last aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 1.

3. From and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], it shall be lawful for the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and they are hereby required, after due examination, to appoint and license, under their common seal, fit and competent persons duly skilled to act as pilots, for the purpose of conducting all ships and vessels sailing, navigating, and passing as well up and down or upon the rivers of Thames and Medway, and all and every the several channels, creeks, and docks thereof or therein, or leading or adjoining thereto, between Orfordness and London Bridge, as also from London Bridge to the Downs, and from the Downs westward as far as the Isle of Wight, and in the English Channel, from the Isle of Wight up to London Bridge; and all ships and vessels sailing, navigating, and passing as aforesaid (save and except as herein-after provided), shall be conducted and piloted within the limits aforesaid, by such pilots so to be appointed and licensed, and by no other pilots or persons whomsoever: provided, that it shall be lawful for all pilots heretofore licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, until the 31st Jan. [1826] next after the passing of this act, and whilst their licences shall respectively continue in force, but no longer, to pilot or conduct any ships or vessels within such limits as such pilots might lawfully have conducted and piloted the same immediately before the passing of this act; and the licences so heretofore granted to such pilots respectively as aforesaid, shall, unless revoked or suspended, as herein-after mentioned, continue in force notwithstanding this act, until the said 31st Jan., so that such pilots respectively do in all things conform themselves to the provisions of this act, and the by-laws, rules, orders, and regulations herein-after directed to remain in force, or to be established under the same, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 2.

4. No person shall be licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond as a pilot, who shall not have served as mate for three years on board of, or who shall not have been for one year in the actual command of a square-rigged vessel of not less than 80 tons register tonnage, as to licences for the North Channel upwards, and not less than 150 tons register tonnage, as to licences for the North Channel, Queen's Channel, South Channel, or other channels downwards, or who shall not have been employed in the pilotage or buoyage service of the said corporation of Trinity-house for seven years, or who shall not have served an apprenticeship of five years to some pilot vessel licensed under the 52 G. 3. c. 39., or under this act; and that no person so licensed shall take charge as a pilot of any ship or vessel drawing more than 14 feet water in the river Thames or Medway, or any of the channels leading thereto or therefrom, until such person shall have acted as a licensed pilot for three years, and shall have been after such three years, on re-examination, approved of in that behalf by the said corporation of Trinity-house, on pain of forfeiting 10*l.* for every such offence, as well by the person acting as such pilot, as also by the master or other person having the command of such ship or vessel, who shall permit any such person to take charge as a pilot of the same, contrary to the provision aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 3.

5. Each and every pilot already licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or to be licensed by the said corporation under this act (except only such pilots as have been or shall be so licensed by the said corporation, upon their receiving certificates of examination by any sub-commissioners of pilotage), as in the 52 G. 3. c. 39., and herein-after directed in lieu and satisfaction of and for all the ancient and accustomed duties heretofore payable by such pilots to the said corporation, shall from time to time and at all times hereafter pay or cause to be paid to the said corporation, or to such person as they shall appoint to receive the same on their behalf the sum of three guineas, in the month of Jan. yearly; and that each and every pilot so licensed, or to be licensed by the said corporation as aforesaid, as well upon receiving such certificates as aforesaid, as otherwise howsoever, shall also from time to time and at all times, from and after the 1st July next, pay or cause to be paid to the said corporation, or to such person and at such places and times as the said corporation shall in that behalf appoint, a certain poundage of 6*d.* in the pound upon all the pilotage earned by each and every of such pilots, from the said 1st July inclusive, on pain of forfeiture for default of any of the payments aforesaid, or for any concealment or fraud therein or relating thereto, double the amount payable, and of being suspended or dismissed from acting as a pilot, at the discretion of the said corporation; which said payments hereby directed to be made as aforesaid shall be carried to and applied to the purposes of the pilots' fund of the said corporation herein-after mentioned, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 4.

6. It shall be lawful for the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and they are hereby required to appoint from time to time (as often and for such periods as they in their discretion shall think fit) proper and competent persons, at such ports or places in Eng. as they may think requisite (except within the liberty of the cinque ports, and all such other ports and places within or for which particular provision shall have been made by any act of parliament, or by any charter for the appointment of pilots), not to exceed five nor less than three persons at each port or place for which any such appointment shall be made, which persons to be appointed shall be called sub-commissioners of pilotage, and shall take the oath in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked (C.), for the faithful discharge of their duty; and such persons so to be appointed shall examine, and they are hereby authorized (so long as their respective deputations or appointments shall not be revoked or superseded by the appointment of other persons in their places) to examine into the qualification of persons to act as pilots for such respective ports and places, and the adjoining coasts specified in their respective deputations or appointments as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said corporation, upon their receiving a satisfactory certificate under the hands of any three of the persons so to be appointed, where the whole number at any port or place shall consist of four or five, and of any two where the whole number shall consist of three, that the person examined as aforesaid is duly qualified to act for such port or ports and the adjoining coasts, to give a licence to such person to act as a pilot within the particular limits (describing the same) for which he shall have passed such examination, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 5.

7. Provided, that it shall be lawful for the corporation of the Trinity-houses of the ports of Hull and Newcastle respectively, to appoint sub-commissioners of pilotage to examine pilots, and give licences for them to pilot ships and vessels into or out of any ports, harbours, or places within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, any thing in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: provided, that such sub-commissioners as have been already appointed, either by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or by the said corporations of the Trinity-houses of the ports of Hull and Newcastle respectively, under the authority of any act of parliament heretofore passed, shall continue to act in the same manner as if they were appointed under this act, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 6.

8. When and as soon as the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond shall have licensed pilots for any particular port or ports, and the respective coasts near the same as aforesaid, they shall cause notice of such licences to be published by fixing up such notice in writing at the Trinity-house and at the custom-house in London, and also at the respective custom-houses of the ports for which, and for the coasts near the same, such licences shall be granted, and shall also afterwards cause such notice to be published in the London Gazette, and in one or more of the newspapers circulated in that part of the country where the ports shall respectively be situated, which publication in the London Gazette shall be good and sufficient evidence of such notice having been given; and from and after a time or times to be limited in the said notice, which shall not in any case, or in relation to any ships or vessels whatever, be less than six weeks from the publication thereof as aforesaid, and shall be proportionably more at the discretion of the said corporation, in relation to ships and vessels engaged in foreign voyages at the time of such publication, all ships and vessels sailing, navigating, or passing into or out of the said respective ports, or upon the coast thereof (save and except as herein-after mentioned) shall be conducted and piloted by such pilots only as shall be so licensed as aforesaid, and by no other pilots or persons whomsoever, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 7.

9. It shall be lawful for the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and they are hereby authorized and required to establish, vary, and alter from time to time, as circumstances shall render the same necessary, rates of pilotage, in relation to all pilotage performed in any river, port, or place, or upon any coast whatever, by any pilot or pilots already licensed, or who shall be licensed by the said corporation, upon their receiving certificates of examination from sub-commissioners of pilotage as aforesaid, which rates shall be regulated by and proportioned as well to the size and draught of water of the vessels, as to the distance piloted, the detention and responsibility of the pilot, and such other circumstances as the said corporation may think fit to take into consideration in fixing and establishing such rates; of which establishment or alteration of rates of pilotage notice shall be given, by hanging up printed tables thereof, corrected from time to time as variations therein shall be made, at the several custom-houses at the ports to which the said rates shall apply; and no greater or less rates, or other reward or emolument for such pilotage, shall under any pretence whatever be demanded, solicited, received, paid, or offered, on pain of forfeiting 10*l.* for every such offence, as well by the person demanding, soliciting, or receiving, as by the person paying or offering such greater or less rates, reward, or emolument: provided that ships returning by distress of weather, contrary winds, or on account of accident, into ports in the districts of the Isle of Wight, Plymouth, and Falmouth, shall be subject to pay one-half of the common pilotage in the said ports, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 8.

10. Provided, That if the major part in number of the pilots who shall be licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, for any particular port or place, in consequence of their receiving certificates of examinations as aforesaid, shall be dissatisfied with the rates so established or altered for such port or place; or in case any owner of any ship or vessel interested in any such rates shall be dissatisfied therewith, it shall be lawful for such parties respectively to appeal to H. M. in council, and for any committee of such privy council, calling to their assistance any such persons as they may think fit, to hear and determine the matter of such appeal, and to settle, alter, and regulate such rates as to them shall appear to be expedient, in case the matter of such appeal shall, in the discretion of the said privy council, or committee thereof, appear to require the making of any order therein, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 9.

11. All and every the licences to be granted under this act, by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, shall be granted in the first instance up to and until the 31st of Jan. next ensuing the date thereof, and no longer; and that the same licences, and also all and every the licences heretofore granted by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and which shall be in force at the time of the passing this act, shall and may be renewed and confirmed from year to year, up to and until the 31st Jan. in every year, and no longer, at the discretion of the said corporation, such renewal and confirmation to be by indorsement on such licences respectively, signed by the secretary to the said corporation for the time being, or by such other person or persons as shall or may be thereunto authorized by the said corporation, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 10.

12. All persons licensed to act as pilots, or in pilot vessels, by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, by virtue of this act, shall from time to time and at all times hereafter be subject to the regulations and government of the said corporation, who are hereby authorized and empowered, as well for ensuring the good conduct and constant attendance of such pilots upon their duty, as for enforcing the general purposes of this act, from time to time to make and frame all such bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances as they shall think fit, therein specifying and directing also what annual or other sums shall be paid by any such pilots to the sub-commissioners of pilotage, for the examination of such pilots, and for granting and renewing or confirming their licences from time to time; and it shall be lawful for the said corporation respectively to annex such reasonable penalties and forfeitures for the breach of such bye-laws, &c. when made, as to them shall seem expedient in that behalf; and from time to time to annul, alter, and amend all or any of the existing bye-laws, &c., and to make such other and new bye-laws, &c. as they shall think proper, so as such bye-laws, &c. be made conformable to the true intent and meaning of this act, and shall not be repugnant to the laws of this realm: provided, that no bye-laws, &c. hereafter to be made by the said corporation, shall have force or effect before they shall have been examined, sanctioned, and approved by the chief justice of the courts of K. B., or C. P., the sanction and approbation of either of which chief justices shall be verified under his hand and seal; and all and every such bye-laws, &c., when so made and confirmed as aforesaid, shall be observed and kept and put in execution, and have the same force and effect and operation, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were respectively enacted by this act, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 11.

13. And in order that all such bye-laws, &c. may be previously examined by the parties interested therein, be it further enacted, That copies of all such proposed bye-laws, &c. shall be transmitted to H. M.'s privy council, and to the commissioners of customs in London, three calendar months before the same shall be submitted to such chief justice as aforesaid; and the commissioners of the customs are hereby required, upon the receipt of such copy, to cause the same to be printed and hung up, as soon as the same can be done, in the several custom-houses of the principal ports in G. B., there to be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein at all seasonable times; and notice shall be given in the gazette of such proposed bye-laws being so hung up for inspection as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 12.

14. All such bye-laws, &c. as shall be so made and confirmed as aforesaid, shall be printed, and shall be hung up in some public or conspicuous place in the several custom-houses of the ports of Eng., within the limits for which the pilots respectively shall be licensed, and also at the Trinity-house in London, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 13.

15. From and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], it shall and may be lawful for the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle, or his lieutenant for the time being, and they are hereby required to appoint and licence fit and competent persons duly skilled as pilots, for the purpose of conducting all ships and vessels sailing, navigating, and passing from or by Dungeness, up the rivers Thames and Medway to London Bridge and Rochester Bridge, and all and every the several channels, creeks and docks of the same, and from the south buoy of the Brake to the westward, as far as the west end of the Owers; and all ships and vessels sailing, navigating, and passing as aforesaid (save and except as herein-after provided), shall be conducted and piloted within the limits aforesaid, by such pilots so appointed and licensed, and by no other pilots or persons whomsoever: provided, that it shall be lawful, after the passing this act, for any pilot or pilots heretofore licensed by the said lord warden and constable for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being, to pilot or conduct any ship or vessel within such limits as such pilot or pilots might lawfully have conducted and piloted the same immediately before the passing of this act; and the licences so heretofore granted to such pilots as aforesaid shall continue in force notwithstanding this act, so that such pilots do in all things conform themselves to the provisions of this act, and the rules and regulations herein-after directed to remain in force or be established under the same, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 14.

16. No person shall, from and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], take charge of any ship or vessel, as a pilot belonging to the society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called "Cinque Port Pilots," before he shall be examined by the master and two wardens, or by four wardens of the said society or fellowship for the time being touching his abilities, and shall be approved and admitted into the society or fellowship of the Trinity-house of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, by the lord warden of the cinque ports, and constable of Dover castle for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being; and if any person shall presume to act as a pilot belonging to the said society or fellowship, without having been so examined, approved, and admitted as aforesaid, every such person shall for the first offence forfeit 10*l.*, for the second 20*l.*, and for every other offence 40*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 15.

17. No person belonging to the said society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called "Cinque Port Pilots," shall, from and after the passing of this act, be allowed to take charge as a pilot of any ship or vessel drawing more than 11 feet 6 inches water, until he shall have been licensed and acted as a pilot for three years; or of any ship or vessel drawing more than 14 feet water, until he shall have been licensed and acted as a pilot for two years more, making five years; or of any ship or vessel drawing more than 17 feet water, until he shall have been licensed and acted as a pilot two years more, making seven years in the whole; and at the expiration of such period of seven years, such pilot shall be again examined as to his fitness and competency, and if he shall be approved of, and licensed on such examination, shall be authorized and allowed and entitled to take charge of any ships or vessels of any draught of water, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 16.

18. The master, and such wardens of the said society or fellowship of pilots of the Trinity-house of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as shall be appointed from time to time to examine into the skill and ability of any person on his being first admitted as a pilot in the said society or fellowship, or after he shall have been licensed and served for seven years, shall take the oath marked (B.) in the schedule hereunto annexed, to be administered unto him or them respectively by the registrar of the court of loadmanage, who is hereby authorized to administer such oath, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 17.

19. A proper and sufficient number of pilots of the cinque ports, not less than 18 at any one time, and in succession from time to time, without intermission or any unnecessary delay, shall at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat between the South Foreland, and Dungeness, to take charge of ships and vessels coming from the westward; and such pilots shall not allow any ship or vessel, having a signal for a pilot flying, to pass without attempting to board her; and that upon proper signals being made at and from signal-houses now erected, or which may be erected on commanding situations near to Dover for that purpose, giving notice of the approach of any fleet of ships or vessels coming from the westward, all cinque port pilots not on duty at the time shall, according to such rules and regulations as to number, rotation, or otherwise, as have been or shall be made in that behalf, forthwith to prepare to go afloat, and shall go off in sufficient time to fall in with such ships and vessels, on pain of forfeiting, in case of neglect herein, for the first offence the sum of 20*l.*, and for the second the offender shall be suspended from acting as a pilot for 12 months, and for the third offence shall forfeit his licence to act as such pilot, and shall be rendered thereby incapable of acting thereafter as a pilot, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 18.

20. The master or other person having the command of any ship or vessel, coming from the westward, and bound to any place in the rivers of Thames or Medway, not having a duly qualified cinque port pilot on board, shall, on the arrival of such ship or vessel off Dungeness, and until she shall have passed the south buoy of the Brake, or a line to be drawn from Sandown castle to the said buoy, or have been at anchor for one hour, as herein-after mentioned, display and keep flying the usual signal for a pilot to come on board; and if any duly qualified cinque port pilot shall be within hail or approaching and within half a mile, with the proper distinguishing flag flying in his vessel or boat, the master or other person having the command of such ship or vessel shall, by heaving to in proper time or shortening sail, or by all practicable means consistently with the safety of the ship or vessel, facilitate such pilot getting on board, and shall give the charge of piloting his ship or vessel to such cinque port pilot; and every person commanding any such ship or vessel, who shall not display and keep flying the usual signal for a pilot to come on board, from the time such ship or vessel shall have arrived off Dungeness, and until she shall have passed the south buoy of the Brake, in a line to be drawn from Sandown castle to the said buoy (unless in the mean time a duly qualified cinque port pilot shall have come on board), or who shall within the limits aforesaid decline to take on board the first duly qualified cinque port pilot who shall offer, or to give charge of his ship or vessel to such duly qualified cinque port pilot, or who shall not heave to, shorten sail, or otherwise consistently with the safety of the ship or vessel facilitate such pilots coming on board as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the sum which would have been demanded for the pilotage of such ship or vessel: provided, that if any ship or vessel coming from the westward, and bound to any place in the rivers Thames or Medway, shall anchor any where in the Downs between the South Foreland, and a line drawn from Sandown castle to the south buoy of the Brake, having any licensed pilot other than a duly qualified cinque port pilot on board, it shall not be necessary for the master of such ship or vessel to display or keep flying the usual signal for a pilot to come on board thereof, any longer than for and during one hour next after such ship or vessel shall so have anchored as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any duly qualified cinque port pilot at any time before such ship or vessel shall have been at anchor one hour with such signal flying as aforesaid, to repair on board the same, and to take charge of her up the said rivers, but not otherwise, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 19.

21. And whereas the pilots of the cinque ports are divided into two parts or classes, called "The Upper" and "Lower-Book Pilots:" and whereas the permitting cinque port pilots of the lower book to take charge of ships which before the passing of the 52 G. 3. c. 39., could only be taken by pilots of the upper-book has diminished and will diminish the profits of the upper book pilots, and has increased and will increase the profits of the lower book-pilots, and it is therefore reasonable that compensation should be made by the lower book pilots, to the persons who were at the time of the passing of the said last-mentioned act upper-book pilots; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the court of loadmanage from time to time to settle the amount of the deductions to be made from the rates received by lower-book pilots, for taking charge of vessels of greater draught of water than they could before the passing of the said act by law take, and in what proportions, and how and in what manner and to whom the same are to be paid, and how the same shall be applied in making compensation to the persons who were upper-book pilots at the time of the passing of the said act, for the losses they may sustain by such lower-book pilots taking charge of such vessels as aforesaid, provided that such deductions so to be fixed as aforesaid shall from time to time be diminished and decreased as such persons who were so upper-book pilots at the time of the passing of the said act shall die, be superannuated, or discontinue to act as pilots, and that such deductions shall be taken and accepted in lieu of all other allowances or contributions whatsoever from the said lower-book pilots, except Trinity-money, clerks' fees, and for widows, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 20.

22. All persons licensed or to be licensed to act as cinque port pilots shall from time to time and at all times hereafter be subject to the regulations and government of the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, and it shall be lawful for the master and wardens of the said society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, and the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, his lieutenant for the time being, and the deputy lieutenant for the time being, or either of them, with the assent of the commissioners of loadmanage, or the major part of them, present at an assembly commonly called "A Court of Loadmanage," to be held by the said lord warden or his deputy, as and when they shall see fit, or occasion shall require, to annul, alter, or amend the rules and regulations of the said lord warden or court of loadmanage, which shall be in force at the time of the passing of this act, and which are hereby directed to remain in force notwithstanding the same, and to make from time to time such other sufficient rules and orders for enforcing the due observance of the provisions of this act by all cinque port pilots, and for providing for the good government, constant attendance, and regulation of all such pilots in going off to and taking charge of, and conducting and navigating H. M.'s ships and vessels, and the ships and vessels in H. M.'s employ, and also all ships and vessels whatever and wheresoever, within the proper and usual limits of such pilots, or wherein they shall for the time being act or be; and for effectually securing the performance of all the duties and services of such pilots at all times, and all alterations and amendments in such rules and regulations so in force as aforesaid, and all other rules and regulations, or alterations or amendments thereof, hereafter to be made, shall, before the same are allowed to take effect, or become binding on any person or persons whatever, be printed and transmitted to the custom-house in London, and there hung up in some conspicuous place in the long room of the said custom-house; and notices shall be published in the Gazette, and put up at the custom-house within the cinque ports, of such rules and regulations, or any alterations thereof, for inspection, for one calendar month, in order that any persons interested therein, whether as owners or masters of ships, or pilots, or otherwise, may transmit to the lord warden of the cinque ports, or his lieutenant, any objections which they may have thereto, for the purpose of the same being altered or confirmed; and if no objection to the rules and regulations so made or altered shall be proposed, by or on the behalf of any person or persons, within the space of 30 days after the notices shall have been given and made public, in the manner herein-before provided, they shall have the same force and effect to all intents and purposes as all other rules and regulations for the government of pilots within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports have; but if an objection shall be made to the lord warden, or his lieutenant, by or on behalf of any person or persons, to any rule or regulation, or to any alteration in any rule or regulation, of which notice shall be given as aforesaid, within 30 days after the publication thereof, then and in such case the operation thereof shall be suspended until reference shall be had to H. M.'s most honourable privy council, who are hereby authorized and empowered to hear as well any person who shall be deputed by the court of loadmanage, as by the person or persons objecting, and finally to decide as to the confirming, altering, or rejecting such rules or regulations, which decision of the privy council shall be final and binding on all parties; and copies of such rules or regulations shall be delivered to every member of the said society or fellowship, and also to every new member of the said society on his election; and a copy or extract thereof shall be at all times in the possession of every pilot belonging to the cinque ports, as well those already admitted and licensed as all others hereafter to be licensed as such pilots; and it shall be lawful in such rules and regulations to establish rates of payment out of such surplus earnings of the lower-book pilots, as may arise from their being allowed to take the higher classes of ships, in the absence of pilots of the upper book, under the provisions of this act, for the better support and maintenance of the upper-book pilots, and also penalties and forfeitures for the enforcing such rules and regulations, and better ordering of the said pilots, and for suspending or depriving any of the said pilots of their licences for breaking such rules or orders, or omitting to do any thing required by the same to be done, or for acting in anywise contrary to such rules or orders, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 21.

23. Provided, that if any such rules and regulations so hereafter to be made in relation to cinque port pilots as aforesaid shall appear to be in any material point erroneous, insufficient, or defective, it shall be lawful for the owner of any ship, or other person interested in the matter of such rules or regulations, to apply to H. M.'s most honourable privy council, who shall thereupon amend, correct, or enlarge the same, or cause such other proper and sufficient rules and regulations to be drawn up for the purposes aforesaid; which rules and regulations so made, or so amended, corrected, and enlarged, shall be distributed, published, and made use of in such manner as H. M.'s said privy council shall in that behalf appoint and direct; and the same shall take effect from such time as in the said rules or regulations shall be expressed in regard to the commencement thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 22.

24. And whereas under the provisions of 48 G. 3. c. 104. [Stat. Dig. this tit., STATS. rep., &c. pl. 4.] intituled, An Act for the better regulation of pilots, and of the pilotage of ships and vessels navigating the British seas, the number of pilots of the cinque ports was increased to 140, and it hath been found that the said last mentioned number is at present, in the time of peace, more than sufficient for the trade and navigation of this kingdom; be it therefore enacted, That until the number of such pilots shall by death or otherwise be reduced below 120., or shall be added to, as herein-after mentioned, it shall not be lawful for the said lord warden and constable of Dover castle, or his lieutenant for the time being, without special permission in that behalf given by H. M.'s most honourable privy council, upon the recommendation of the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, to fill up any more than each alternate vacancy which shall arise in the number of such pilots: provided that 20 cinque port pilots more, or any less number of such pilots, shall and may be added to the then existing number whenever such addition shall be directed to be made by an order of such privy council, upon application thereto for that purpose by the said corporation of Trinity-house, and in like manner from time to time, so as the number of cinque port pilots shall not at any one time exceed 180., of which said reduction or additions respectively notice shall be given by or under the authority of the lord warden of the cinque ports, in the London Gazette, and in one or more newspaper or newspapers circulating in the counties of Middlesex and Kent, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 23.

25. Whenever such additions to the number of the said pilots shall respectively take place, as herein-before provided, the numbers so increased shall from thenceforth be kept up from time to time by the appointment of pilots in succession, as often as any vacancy or vacancies shall happen by death, incapacity, or dismission: provided, that in time of peace no more than each alternate vacancy in the number of cinque port pilots shall be filled up without a special permission in that behalf given by H. M.'s privy council, upon the recommendation of the said corporation of Trinity-house, unless the number of such pilots shall, at the time of such filling up, be reduced below 120., in which case such vacancy shall and may be filled up from time to time without such permission as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 24.

26. From and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], the respective rates or prices herein-after enumerated in the tables marked (A. and B.) respectively in the schedule marked (A.) to this act annexed, shall and may be lawfully demanded and received by any pilot licensed or to be licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or by the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being respectively, for the piloting or conducting of any ship or vessel from place to place, as expressed in the said tables respectively; that is to say, the respective rates or prices enumerated in the said table marked (A.) shall and may be demanded and received by any pilot licensed or to be licensed by the said corporation; and the respective rates or prices enumerated in the said table marked (B.) shall and may be demanded and received by any pilot licensed or to be licensed by the said lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being; and no greater or less rates or prices, or other reward or emolument shall under any pretence whatever be demanded, solicited, received, paid, or offered than such rates or prices, on pain of forfeiting 10*l.* for every such offence, as well by the person demanding, soliciting, or receiving, as also by the person paying or offering such greater or less rate or price, reward, or emolument, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 25.

27. Provided, that it shall and may be lawful for the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond (as to the said rates or prices to be demanded and received by pilots licensed, or to be licensed, by the said corporation), and for the said lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being (as to the said rates or prices to be demanded and received by pilots licensed, or to be licensed, by the said lord warden and constable, or his lieutenant), and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times hereafter, with the consent of H. M. in council, to increase, reduce, alter, or modify all or any or either of the said respective rates or prices so enumerated in the said tables respectively, or to substitute other rates or prices in lieu thereof, and the same rates or prices so increased, reduced, altered, modified, or substituted as aforesaid, again in like manner and with the like consent from time to time to increase, reduce, alter, or modify, or others to substitute in lieu thereof, and to fix and determine the period (so that the same be not less than three calendar months from the giving of the notice herein-after mentioned) from and after which such altered or substituted rates and prices are to be demanded, of which rates and prices, and of the period from and after which the same are to be demanded, notice shall from time to time be given, by hanging up printed tables thereof in some public or conspicuous place in the custom-house of London, and also at the Trinity-house in London; and from and after the period specified in such last mentioned tables, the respective rates or prices therein enumerated may and shall be demanded and received by any pilot licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house, or by the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being respectively, instead of the said several rates and prices mentioned in the said tables marked (A. and B.) respectively; and from and after such period, no greater or less rates or prices, or other reward or emolument, shall, under any pretence whatever, be demanded, solicited, received, paid, or offered, on pain of forfeiting 10*l.* for every such offence, as well by the person demanding, soliciting, or receiving, as also by the person paying or offering such greater or less rate or price, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 26.

28. Every person who shall apply for a licence to act as a pilot by virtue of this act, shall, before any licence shall be granted to him, execute a bond in a penal sum, at the discretion of the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or of the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being (as the case may be), to an amount not exceeding 100*l.*, to be paid to the said corporation, or to the society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet (as the case may be), their successors or assigns, with a condition subjoined thereto for better securing the due obedience of such pilot to the bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances made in pursuance of any act of parliament heretofore passed, or which shall be made and framed pursuant to this act, which bond shall be capable of being given in evidence in any court of law or equity, without being stamped according to the laws relating to the stamp duties: provided, that all bonds before given by pilots under any former act of parliament shall continue in force, and be deemed to be given under this act, unless new bonds shall in any case be required by the said corporation, or by the said lord warden and constable, or his lieutenant respectively, in which case new bonds shall be given accordingly, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 27.

29. All bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances made under the 48 G. 3. c. 104., or 52 G. 3. c. 39., or either of them, and which shall be in force under the same respectively at the time of the passing of this act [5th July 1825], shall remain, continue, and be in full force and virtue, until the same respectively shall have been annulled or altered, or other bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, or ordinances made in lieu thereof under this act, and shall be and are hereby declared to be good and valid bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances, under this act, as fully as if they had been made under the authority of the same; any thing herein-before, or in any other act of parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 28.

30. Provided, that as well every such licence so granted or to be granted, renewed, or confirmed, by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond as aforesaid, as also every such licence so granted or to be granted by the said lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle, or his lieutenant for the time being, as aforesaid, shall and may be by the said corporation, or by the said lord warden and constable of Dover castle, or his lieutenant for the time being respectively, annulled, suspended, or adjudged to be forfeited, in such manner and at any such time or times as to them the said corporation and lord warden, or his lieutenant for the time being respectively, shall seem meet, as well during as at the end of the period for which such licences respectively shall have been so granted, renewed, or confirmed as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 29.

31. Provided, that every pilot whose licence shall be revoked, annulled, suspended, or adjudged to be forfeited, or who shall be suspended from acting as a pilot, as herein-before or herein-after mentioned, shall and may, at any time within six months next after such revocation, annulling, suspension, or adjudication shall have been made, and upon giving notice to the corporation or other authority by which such licence shall have been so revoked, annulled, or suspended, or such adjudication made as aforesaid, and every person who, having complained of any such pilot, shall be dissatisfied with the adjudication made upon the matter of such complaint by the corporation or other authority which shall have cognizance thereof, shall and may, at any time within six months next after such adjudication, and upon giving notice to the corporation or other authority by which such adjudication was made, appeal to H. M.'s most honourable privy council, who shall thereupon hear the appeal, and confirm or annul any determination or adjudication in the premises, or at their discretion make any particular and special order relating thereto, and to the matter of such appeal, and the costs thereof, as the case may require, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 30.

32. It shall be lawful for the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and for the said society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, and also for all other corporate bodies, or persons having lawful authority to appoint pilots within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, to license vessels of such size and description as shall appear to them to be proper, for the purpose of having pilots constantly in attendance in such vessels at sea, and to nominate and appoint, and from time to time to remove and again appoint the masters of such vessels respectively; and for the better support of such pilot-vessels, it shall be lawful for any number of pilots, licensed by virtue of this act, or otherwise lawfully licensed, with the consent of the said corporate bodies, or persons by whom respectively such pilots have been or shall be appointed as aforesaid, to constitute a joint stock company or companies, for the providing and maintaining of such pilot-vessels, which companies and the said vessels shall at all times be subject to such rules and regulations as shall from time to time be sanctioned and approved in that behalf by the corporate bodies, or persons by whom respectively such pilots shall respectively have been licensed, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 31.

33. Every pilot-boat or vessel, or other boat or vessel, in the pilot service of any corporation or society established by law, in relation to pilotage, or of or belonging to any person authorized to act as a pilot by such corporation or society, shall at all times, and on every station, be fitted with black sides, and have the upper streak next the gunwale painted white, and shall while afloat carry a flag at the mast-head, or on a sprit or staff, or in some other equally conspicuous situation, which flag shall be of large dimensions, proportioned to the size of the boat or vessel carrying the same, and shall be half red and half white, in horizontal stripes, of which the uppermost shall be white, and the same shall at all times be kept and preserved in a clean and distinct condition, so as to be easily discerned at a proper and sufficient distance; and every such boat or vessel shall also have the name of the principal pilot thereof for the time being painted in broad white letters, of three inches in length, on a black ground, on her stern, and on each bow such number as shall be expressed in the licence of such principal pilot, which name and number shall not be hid or concealed by any person at any time, on pain of forfeiting, for the omission or evasion of any of the provisions herein-before made in respect of such pilot-boat or vessel, the sum of 20*l.*, to be paid by the senior pilot on board, who is hereby declared answerable for the due observance of the matters aforesaid, by every person on board such boat or vessel; and in case any pilot shall be carried off in any boat not in the service of any such corporation or society, such pilot shall exhibit a similar flag at the mast-head, or on a sprit or staff, to distinguish that such boat has a pilot on board, on pain of such pilot so carried off forfeiting the sum of 20*l.*, unless he shall show reasonable cause for having omitted to exhibit such flag, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 32.

34. If any boat or vessel, not having a licensed pilot on board, shall without lawful authority carry such distinguishing flag as aforesaid, the owner or owners, or the master or other person having charge of such boat or vessel, displaying or carrying any such flag, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 33.

35. If any boat or vessel shall run before any ship or vessel not having a licensed pilot on board, when such ship or vessel cannot, from particular circumstances, be boarded for the purpose of directing her course, until a licensed pilot can be put on board, the pilot on board such boat or vessel, or if no pilot shall be on board and the person having charge of her shall run her before such ship or vessel, at the request or by the direction of the master, or other person having the command thereof, then such person having charge of such boat or vessel shall be entitled to the full pilotage for the distance run, until a duly licensed pilot shall be put on board, as if such pilot, or person respectively, had been actually on board such ship or vessel, and had the charge of her as a pilot, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 34.

36. From and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], all bodies politic and corporate, and all and every other person authorized to appoint or license pilots in or for any port of Eng., or any of the seas, coasts, harbours, or rivers thereof, or places therein, shall from time to time, as and when each appointment of a pilot shall be by them respectively made, forthwith transmit to the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at the Trinity-house in London, and to the commissioners of customs, at the custom-house in London, the christian and surname, age, and place of residence of every such pilot so appointed, distinguishing the limits within which such pilot is appointed to act, and by whom such appointment is made; and the said bodies politic and corporate, and other persons, authorized to appoint or license pilots as aforesaid, shall and they are hereby required to transmit to the said corporation of Trinity-house, at the Trinity-house aforesaid, and to the said commissioners of customs, at the custom-house aforesaid, annually, on the 31st Dec., or within one calendar month afterwards, a list, corrected up to the said 31st Dec. in each year, of the names and residences of all the pilots within their several jurisdictions, in which list so to be transmitted to the Trinity-house as aforesaid shall be stated all such alterations (if any) as may have been made in the rates of pilotage charged, or in the rules and regulations for governing pilots within their respective districts, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 35.

37. And whereas by certain acts of parliament for the more effectual performance of quarantine [see post, QUARANTINE], pilots are required, on going on board ships arriving from foreign parts, in certain cases to give information to the commanders thereof respecting proclamations and orders in council relative to the performance of quarantine, which renders it necessary that notice of such proclamations and orders should have been previously communicated to all pilots throughout Eng.: be it further enacted, That the said commissioners of H. M.'s customs shall from time to time with all convenient speed transmit to the principal officers of the revenue under their management, at the several ports in Eng., the names and places of residence of all such pilots of whose nomination they shall receive notice from the proper authority, or who shall be in the list so annually to be transmitted to such commissioners as aforesaid, as shall reside within the limits of each port respectively, in order that the said principal officers at the several ports may be enabled to communicate and deliver to every pilot within the limits of such ports respectively copies of all proclamations or orders in council respecting the performance of quarantine by ships arriving from infected places, which the said officers are hereby required to communicate accordingly, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 36. [See 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 1. post, QUARANTINE, pl. 2.]

38. The said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and the court of loadmanage of the cinque ports, and all other corporations and persons authorized to manage or direct pilots in any part of Eng., under the authority of any act of parliament or charter whatever, shall annually, on the 1st Jan. in every year, or within one calendar month then next following, transmit to the office of the receiver of the sixpenny duty in the port of London, a list of all the vessels of every description employed by them respectively, or by persons under their authority, for the purposes of pilotage, with the number of men and boys belonging to or serving in any such vessels, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 37.

39. No pilot shall be taken to sea beyond the limits of his district by the commanding-officer of any of H. M.'s ships, or by the master of other person having the command of any other ship or vessel whatever, without such pilot's free consent, except under circumstances of absolute and unavoidable necessity; and then and in such case every pilot so taken to sea shall over and above his pilotage have and receive 10s. and 6d. per diem, to be computed from and inclusive of the day next after the day on which the ship or vessel shall pass the limit to which such pilot was engaged to pilot her up to, and until he shall be returned to the port or place where he was taken on board, or until he shall have been discharged from the ship for a sufficient time to have enabled him to return there, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 38.

40. And whereas certain harbours near the Downs have become much frequented as places of safety, and ships and vessels lying in or sailing through the Downs are oftentimes compelled to run for those harbours, and it is therefore necessary to make provision for the pilotage into and out of such harbours; be it therefore enacted, That all pilots whose licences shall authorize them to pilot ships or vessels from any place to the westward up to London Bridge, shall qualify themselves, and shall be examined as to their qualification and ability to conduct any ship or vessel into and out of Ramsgate harbour, and the harbours of Dover, Sandwich, and Margate, and shall be obliged to pilot any ships or vessels into and out of the said harbours; and if any such pilot shall refuse to take charge of or conduct any ship or vessel into or out of any of the said harbours, such pilot shall forfeit all pay and reward to which he might otherwise have been entitled for the pilotage of any such ship or vessel, and shall be subject to such fine or other punishment as shall be established in that behalf by the bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, or ordinances of the corporation, or other authority, from which the licence of such pilot shall have been derived, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 39.

41. Provided, that every licensed pilot who shall take charge of and conduct any ship or vessel into or out of Ramsgate harbour, or into or out of the harbours of Dover, Sandwich, or Margate, shall be entitled to and shall receive for such pilotage at and after the rate of 5s. for every foot of the draught of water of the ship or vessel so piloted and conducted by him into or out of any such harbours, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 40.

42. The master or other person commanding any ship or vessel bound to the river Thames, and which shall repair to Standgate Creek, or any other place appointed for the performance of quarantine, shall pay the full charges of pilotage up to Standgate Creek, or other the place so appointed; and the pilot conducting such ship or vessel to Standgate Creek, or other the place so appointed as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the further sum of 8s. per diem for the days he shall be obliged to remain on quarantine, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 41.

43. If any pilot taking charge of any ship or vessel into the rivers Thames or Medway shall quit such ship or vessel at Gravesend or Standgate Creek, or in any other part of the Thames or Medway respectively, before such ship or vessel shall have arrived at the place to which she is bound in the said rivers respectively, without the consent of the captain or other person having the command thereof, unless some other duly qualified pilot shall with such consent come on board, and shall take the charge and conduct of such ship or vessel for the residue of the pilotage to be performed, every such pilot so quitting such ship or vessel shall forfeit for every such offence all pay or reward to which he might be entitled for having conducted or piloted such ship or vessel to Gravesend, Standgate Creek, or such part of the Thames or Medway respectively as aforesaid, and shall also be subject to such other penalty or punishment as by virtue of any of the provisions of this act, or of the bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, and ordinances hereby directed to remain in force, or which may be made or established in pursuance hereof, any pilots shall be liable to for quitting a ship or vessel before she shall arrive at her place of destination, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 42.

44. Every pilot shall write his christian and surname in the log-book of every master or other person having the command for the time being of any ship or vessel entering the port of London, and required to be piloted according to the directions of this act; and every pilot or other person inserting a false name shall forfeit the sum of 20l.; and the master or other person having the command of such ship or vessel shall, in making the entry or report of such ship or vessel inwards, insert or cause to be inserted in such entry or report, the name or names of the pilot or pilots employed or engaged to pilot such vessel into the said port, which insertion shall be made in the said entry or report (without fee or reward) by the proper officer of the customs, who shall report the same to the corporation of the Trinity-house daily, and to the lord warden of the cinque-ports monthly; and such officer is hereby authorized and required to reject such entry or report, unless and until the name or names of the pilot or pilots so employed or engaged as aforesaid, shall be inserted or notified to such officer for insertion in such entry or report as aforesaid; and also that the principal searcher or clearing officer of the customs at Gravesend shall demand and take the name or names of the pilot or pilots of all ships or vessels clearing outwards from the port of London, and shall transmit monthly lists of such names to the said corporation of Trinity-house, on pain of forfeiting a sum not exceeding 10l., nor less than 5l., to be paid by each and every of the persons aforesaid, who shall neglect to comply with any of the foregoing regulations, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 43.

45. All sums of money which shall become due to any licensed pilot for the pilotage of any ship or vessel, except ships and vessels not having British registers, trading to and from the port of London, shall and may be recovered from the owners or masters of such ship or vessel, or from the consignees or agents thereof, who shall have paid or made themselves liable to pay any other charge for the said ship or vessel in the port of her arrival or delivery, as to pilotage inwards, and in the port from whence she shall clear out or sail as to pilotage outwards; which sums of money shall and may be levied in such and in the like manner, according to the amount of any such sums of money as aforesaid respectively, as any penalty or penalties of the like amount may be recovered and levied under and by virtue of this act, demand thereof being made in writing at least 14 days before such levy, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 44.

46. The consignees or agents of any ship or vessel, from whom any sum of money due to any licensed pilot for pilotage shall have been recovered, or shall be recoverable, or by whom any such sum of money shall have been paid, are hereby authorized and empowered to retain in their hands respectively, out of any monies which they may have received, or shall thereafter receive, for or on account of such ship or vessel, or the owner or owners thereof, so much as shall be sufficient to pay and discharge such pilotage, and any expences attending the same, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 45.

47. And in order to prevent as well impositions and disputes respecting the charges for, as evasions in the payment of the pilotage of such ships and vessels trading to and from the port of London, and not having British registers, as are by law required to be piloted by pilots licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house, be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], the master or other person having the charge of every such ship or vessel which shall enter into or sail from the said port of London, or the consignees or agents for such ship or vessel, shall pay or cause to be paid at the Trinity-house in London, to such person or persons as shall from time to time be in that behalf appointed by the said corporation of Trinity-house, the full pilotage inwards and outwards respectively of every such ship or vessel; that is to say, in all cases as to pilotage outwards the full amount of pilotage for the distance which such ship or vessel shall by law be required to be piloted by such licensed pilot as aforesaid; and so far as concerns the pilotage inwards, where a duly licensed pilot shall have been on board such ship or vessel, the full amount of pilotage for the distance piloted by him, if greater than that which such ship or vessel shall be so required to be piloted; and if less, or if no such pilot shall have been on board, then the full amount of the pilotage for the distance which such ship or vessel shall be by law required to be piloted as aforesaid; and if such pilotage inwards be not paid within 14 days from the day of such ship or vessel's reporting inwards, the same shall and may be recovered by the said corporation from the master or other person having the charge of every such ship or vessel, or from the consignees or agents thereof, who shall have paid or made themselves liable to pay any other charge for such ship or vessel in the said port of London, and shall and may be levied in such and the like manner, according to the amount of any such sums of money respectively, as any penalty or penalties may be recovered and levied under and by virtue of this act, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 46.

48. The person or persons so to be appointed by the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond as last aforesaid shall, upon his or their receiving such pilotage, give to the person paying the same a certificate thereof in writing, and that no ship or vessel not having a British register, and being required by law to be piloted as aforesaid, shall be cleared at the office of customs in the said port of London, on her outward-bound voyage, without the production of such certificate as aforesaid; and the said person or persons so to be appointed as aforesaid shall, upon proof to the satisfaction of the said corporation that such pilotage service hath been duly performed, pay over to the pilot duly licensed, who shall have had charge of every such ship or vessel, all such sums of money as shall have been received by such person or persons appointed as aforesaid, and as shall be due and payable to such pilot for or in respect of such pilotage service so by him performed, after deducting and retaining thereout the poundage herein-before made payable to the said corporation; and the residue of such pilotage received by such person or persons so appointed as aforesaid shall, together with the poundage aforesaid, be carried to and applied to the purposes of the pilots' fund of the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond herein-after mentioned, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 47.

49. Provided, that in any case where such pilotage shall have been received as aforesaid, for or in respect of any ship or vessel not having a British register, if it shall appear to the said corporation that no licensed pilot was in fact employed on board thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said corporation, and they are hereby authorized, if they shall so think fit, out of such pilotage to make or give to any unlicensed person or persons who shall have piloted or assisted in piloting such ship or vessel during so long time as no licensed pilot shall, to the knowledge of such unlicensed person or persons, have offered to take charge thereof, such compensation or reward as in the discretion of the said corporation they shall deem proper in that behalf, not exceeding the sum which would have been payable to a duly licensed pilot, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 48.

50. And in order the better to facilitate the ascertaining and settling the amount of the pilotage outward of ships and vessels not having British registers, in the port of London, under the authority of this act, be it further enacted, That the rates or amount of pilotage outward, to be payable and paid in respect of all such ships and vessels, shall from time to time be calculated and made out according to the scale or amount of the tonnage of every such ship or vessel, upon or according to which such ship or vessel shall be rated in the said port of London, to the payment of the light and other dues payable to the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or according to the draught of water thereof, as the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond shall in their discretion think most proper; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 49.

51. And in order to prevent or settle controversies concerning the draught of water of ships and vessels from time to time on the river Thames, (not having British registers,) be it further enacted, That whenever any difference about the draught of water of any ship or vessel shall arise between the master or other person having the command of any such ship or vessel, and any person who shall have piloted the same into the said river, or who shall be required to pilot the same therefrom, pursuant to the directions of this act, the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or some proper officer or person appointed by them, shall admeasure the draught of water of such ship or vessel, and shall settle and determine the same between the parties, upon application made by either of them to the said corporation within 12 hours after such ship or vessel shall have arrived at her moorings in the river, on any inward voyage, or before the cargo thereof shall be begun to be unladen, or before such ship or vessel shall quit her moorings on any outward voyage, for which admeasurement the officer or person making the same shall be paid one guinea if the ship or vessel shall be below the entrance to the London Docks at Wapping, and half a guinea if above the said entrance to the London Docks, by the person against whom the said officer or person so appointed by the corporation of the Trinity-house shall decide, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 50.

52. And whereas it may be expedient from time to time to relieve such ships and vessels not having British registers as may come to the port of London with fish, corn, or other provisions, in manner herein-after directed; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from time to time, at their discretion, to make all such regulations in relation to the piloting of ships not having British registers, bringing fish, corn, or other provisions into the port of London, and which are or ought to be piloted by pilots licensed by the said corporation of Trinity-house, for the ease and relief of such ships and vessels in respect of the rates or amount of pilotage hereby made payable or demandable for such ships and vessels, or for the exemption of such ships or vessels from any such rates or amount, or from any rules or regulations as to the pilotage of such ships or vessels under the provisions of this act, or of any other act of parliament relating to pilotage, or under any law or usage whatsoever, as the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond shall from time to time deem just, proper, and expedient, in relation to such ships and vessels respectively; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 51.

53. And whereas under 48 G. 3. c. 104, and 52 G. 3. c. 59, the surplus rates of pilotage imposed on ships not having British registers have been applied in creating funds for the relief of superannuated and infirm pilots belonging to the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and the fellowship of the cinque ports respectively, as in the said acts mentioned; and it is expedient that the surplus rates of pilotage imposed by this act on such ships should be carried to such funds respectively, and that the said funds should be applied as herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That as well as the fund already created for such superannuated and infirm pilots belonging to the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond as aforesaid, as also all such surplus rates by this act imposed or to be imposed as aforesaid, on ships not having British registers, which shall pertain to the establishment of the said corporation of Trinity-house, shall be carried to a fund to be called "The Pilots' Fund," and that such last mentioned fund shall be applied by the said corporation in the manner following; (that is to say,) after defraying the expences of carrying this act into execution, so far as concerns the said corporation of Trinity-house, the said fund shall be applied by the said corporation for the better support, maintenance, or relief of such indigent pilots belonging to the said corporation, as shall become incapable of discharging their duty from advanced age, or from any accident or infirmity, and of the wives, widows, and children of such pilots, to be applied and distributed in such manner and under such rules and regulations as the said corporation of Trinity-house shall order and provide; and that as well the fund already created for such superannuated and infirm pilots belonging to the society or fellowship of the cinque ports as aforesaid, as also all such surplus rates of pilotage by this act imposed or to be imposed as aforesaid on ships not having British registers, which shall pertain to the establishment of the cinque ports, shall be applied by the said court of loadmanage for the better support, maintenance, or relief of such indigent pilots belonging to the said society or fellowship as shall become incapable of discharging their duty from advanced age, or from any accident or infirmity, to be applied and distributed in such manner and under such rules and regulations as the said court of loadmanage shall order and provide; and as well all and every the pilots who shall receive any such surplus rates, as also the person or persons to whom the pilotage of ships and vessels not having British registers, and entering into or sailing from the said port of London, is by this act directed to be paid, shall and they are hereby required to pay over all such surplus rates to such receivers, and at such convenient places as shall be in that behalf respectively appointed by the said corporation of Trinity-house, and by the said lord warden and court of loadmanage respectively; of all which receipts, and of the appropriations aforesaid, the said corporation and the said lord warden and court of loadmanage respectively, shall annually lay an account before parliament, within 20 days after the commencement of each session, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 52.

54. No owner or master of any ship or vessel shall be answerable for any loss or damage which shall happen to any person whatsoever, from or by reason or means of no licensed pilot being on board of any such ship or vessel, or of no duly qualified pilot being on board thereof, unless it shall be proved that the want of such licensed or of such duly qualified pilot respectively shall have arisen from any refusal to take such licensed or qualified pilot on board, or from the wilful neglect of the master of such ship or vessel in not heaving to, or using all practicable means, consistently with her safety, for the purpose of taking on board thereof any pilot who shall be ready and offer to take charge of the same, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 53.

55. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to make the owner of any ship or vessel liable in any such case for any loss or damage beyond the value of such ship or vessel, and her appurtenances, and the freight due or to grow due for and during the voyage wherein such loss or damage may happen or arise, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 54.

56. No owner or master of any ship or vessel shall be answerable for any loss or damage which shall happen to any person whomsoever from or by reason or means of any neglect, default, incompetency, or incapacity of any licensed pilot acting in the charge of any such ship or vessel, under or in pursuance of any of the provisions of this act, where and so long as such pilot shall be duly qualified to have the charge of such ship or vessel, or where and so long as no duly qualified pilot shall have offered to take charge thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 55.

57. Nothing in this act contained shall extend to deprive any person of any remedy upon any contract of insurance, or of any other remedy whatsoever, which he might have had if this act had not been passed, by reason or on account of the neglect, default, incompetency, or incapacity of any pilot duly acting in the charge of any ship or vessel under or in pursuance of any of the provisions of this act, or by reason or on account of no pilot, or of no duly qualified pilot, being on board of any such ship or vessel, unless it shall be proved that the want of a pilot, or of a duly qualified pilot, shall have arisen from any refusal to take a pilot, or a duly qualified pilot on board, or from the wilful neglect of the master of such ship or vessel, in not heaving to or using all practicable means consistently with the safety of such ship or vessel, for the purpose of taking on board any pilot who shall be ready and offer to take charge of such ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 56.

58. Provided, that no pilot licensed, or to be licensed as aforesaid, who shall have executed the bond herein-before directed to be executed by him, and shall be piloting or conducting, within the limits specified in his licence, any ship or vessel which he shall be duly qualified to pilot, or be piloting in the absence of a duly qualified pilot, shall be liable to any action for damages at the suit of the party grieved in any greater sum than the amount which shall have been specified by way of penalty in such bond, and the pilotage payable to him in respect of the voyage on which such ship or vessel shall then be, for any loss or damage which shall happen from or by reason or means of his neglect or want of skill whilst acting in his capacity of a pilot on board such ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 57.

59. Every master of any ship or vessel who shall act himself as a pilot, or who shall employ or continue employed as a pilot any unlicensed person, or any licensed person acting out of the limits for which he is qualified, or beyond the extent of his qualification, after any pilot licensed and qualified to act as such, within the limits in which such ship or vessel shall then actually be, shall have offered to take charge of such ship or vessel, or have made a signal for that purpose, shall forfeit for every such offence double the amount of the sum which would have been legally demandable for the pilotage of such ship or vessel, and shall likewise forfeit for every such offence an additional penalty of 5*l.* for every 50 tons burthen of such ship or vessel, if the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, as to cases in which pilots licensed by or under the said corporation shall be concerned, or the said lord warden for the time being, or his lieutenant for the time being, as to cases in which the cinque port pilots shall be concerned, shall think it proper that the person prosecuting should be at liberty to proceed for the recovery of such additional penalty, and certify the same in writing, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 58.

60. Provided, that for and notwithstanding any thing in this act contained, the master of any collier, or of any ship or vessel trading to Norway, or to the Cattegat or Baltic, or round the North Cape, or into the White Sea, on their inward or outward voyages, or of any constant trader inwards, from the ports between Boulogne inclusive and the Baltic (all such ships and vessels having British registers, and coming up either by the North Channel, but not otherwise), or of any Irish trader using the navigation of the rivers Thames and Medway, or of any ship or vessel employed in the regular coasting trade of the kingdom, or of any ship or vessel wholly laden with stone from Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and being the production thereof, or of any ship or vessel not exceeding the burthen of 60 tons, and having a British register, except as herein-after provided; or of any other ship or vessel whatever, whilst the same is within the limits of the port or place to which she belongs, the same not being a port or place in relation to which particular provision hath heretofore been made by any act of parliament, or by any charter for the appointment of pilots, shall and may lawfully, and without being subject to any of the penalties by this act imposed, conduct or pilot his own ship or vessel when and so long as he shall conduct or pilot the same without the aid or assistance of any unlicensed pilot or other person than the ordinary crew of the said ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 59.

61. Provided, that from and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], it shall and may be lawful for H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, or by any order or orders in council, to permit and authorize ships and vessels not exceeding the burthen of 60 tons, and not having a British register, to be piloted and conducted without having a duly licensed pilot on board, upon the same terms and conditions as are by this act imposed on British ships and vessels, not exceeding the like burthen, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 60. [See 4 G. 4. c. 77. s. 5. post, tit SHIPPING.]

62. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to subject the master or owner of any ship or vessel to any of the penalties of this act, for employing any person whomsoever as a pilot in and for the assistance of such ship or vessel whilst the same shall be in distress, or in consequence thereof, or under any circumstances which shall have rendered it necessary for such owner or master to avail himself of the best assistance which at the time could be procured; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 61.

63. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to subject to any penalty the master or mate of any ship or vessel being the owner or a part owner of such ship or vessel, and residing at Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, for conducting or piloting such his own ship or vessel from any of the places aforesaid, up or down the rivers Thames or Medway, or into or out of any port or place within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 62.

64. Provided, that when any ship or vessel shall have been brought into any port in Eng. by any pilot duly licensed, nothing in this act contained shall extend to subject to any penalty the master or mate, or other person belonging to such ship or vessel, and having the command thereof, or if in ballast, any person appointed by any owner, or master or agent of the owner thereof, for afterwards removing such ship or vessel in such port or ports for the purpose of entering into or going out of any dock, or for changing the moorings of such ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 63.

65. Every master or other person having the command for the time being of any ship or vessel, who shall report, or be privy or consenting to any other person's reporting to any pilot taking the charge of such ship or vessel, a false account of the draught of water of such ship or vessel, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, in addition to the payment of the full rate of pilotage to the pilot entitled thereto, double the amount of such pilotage; and any master or other person having the command for the time being of any ship or vessel, or having any interest, share, or property therein, who shall fraudulently alter any marks on the stem or stern-post thereof, denoting the draught of water, or shall be privy and consenting thereto, shall for any such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 500*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 64.

66. A particular description of the person of every pilot shall be written in or upon or endorsed on the back of his licence; and every captain or master or other person having the command of a ship or vessel shall, on receiving a pilot on board, inspect his licence; and if he shall have reason to think that such pilot is not the person to whom the licence was granted, such captain or master or other person is hereby required forthwith to transmit a copy of such licence to the corporation or other authority by whom such licence shall have been granted, stating the date thereof, together with such account and description of the person producing such licence as may lead to the discovery of the offender, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 65.

67. No person shall take charge of any ship or vessel, or in any manner act as a pilot, or receive any compensation for acting as a pilot, until his licence shall have been registered by the principal officers of the custom-house of the place at or nearest to which such pilot shall reside (which officers are hereby required to register the same without fee or reward), nor without having his licence at the time of his so acting in his personal custody, and producing the same to the master of any ship or vessel, or other person who shall be desirous of employing him as a pilot, or to whom he shall offer his services, on pain of forfeiting a sum not exceeding 30*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, for the first offence; and for the second or any subsequent offence, a sum not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 30*l.*; and upon further pain, as to any person licensed as aforesaid, of forfeiting his licence or being suspended from acting as a pilot, by and at the discretion of the corporation or other authority from which such pilot's licence was derived, either for the first, second, or any subsequent offence, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 66.

68. Every pilot, licensed or to be licensed as aforesaid, shall, at all times when thereunto required, produce or deliver and yield up his licence to the corporation or other authority by which the same was granted; and on the death of any such pilot, his executors or administrators, or one of them, or the person to whose hands the licence of such deceased pilot shall come, shall without wilful delay transmit such licence to the corporation or other authority by which the same was granted, on pain of such pilot, executor, administrator, or other person, forfeiting for any neglect therein a sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 67.

69. From and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], if any pilot, licensed by virtue of this act, or otherwise duly licensed, shall keep, or be concerned in keeping, either by himself or any agent or servant, or other person, or shall in any way be interested in the keeping of any public-house or tavern or place of public entertainment, or in the selling of any wine or spirituous liquors, or tobacco or tea (unless such pilot shall have kept or been concerned or interested in the same before the 1st May 1808, and shall be duly authorized by the corporation, or other authority under which such pilot shall act, to continue in such business or employment; or if any pilot, licensed as aforesaid, shall be convicted of any offence against any law relating to the revenues of customs or excise, or shall be concerned in or shall wilfully connive at any indirect practices or frauds against the revenues of customs or excise, or shall procure, abet, connive at, or participate in any destruction, spoil, or concealment, fraud, exaction, or corrupt practice, relating to ships or vessels, or persons in distress at sea, or by shipwreck, or relating to the tackle, apparel, or furniture, or the cargoes of such ships or vessels, or relating to the crew or passengers belonging thereto, or the monies, goods, or chattels of any of them, then and in every such case every pilot shall (over and above all other punishments, mulcts, and penalties for such offences), be adjudged to forfeit his licence, or shall be suspended from acting as a pilot, by and at the discretion of the corporation, or other authority from which such pilot's licence was derived, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 68.

70. If any person, suspended or adjudged to have forfeited his licence as a pilot, shall, during the time of such suspension, or after such adjudication, take upon himself to conduct any ship or vessel as a pilot, such person shall be liable to all such penalties, to be recovered and applied in like manner and form as are provided by this act, against any person who shall pilot or conduct any ship or vessel without ever having been licensed as a pilot, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 69.

71. It shall be lawful for any licensed pilot within the limits of his licence, and the extent of his qualification therein expressed, to supersede in the charge of any ship or vessel any person not licensed to act as a pilot, or not licensed so to act within such limits, or acting beyond the extent of his qualification; and every person assuming or continuing in the charge or conduct of any ship or vessel, without being a duly licensed pilot, or without being duly licensed to act as a pilot within the limits in which such ship or vessel shall actually be, or beyond the extent of his qualification, as expressed in his licence, after any pilot, duly licensed and qualified to act in the premises, shall have offered to take charge of such ship or vessel, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 70.

72. Provided, that for and notwithstanding any thing in this act contained, any person whatsoever shall and may lawfully, and without being subject to any penalty by this act imposed, assume, or continue in the charge or conduct of any ship or vessel as a pilot, where and so long as a pilot duly licensed and qualified shall not have offered to take the charge of such ship or vessel, or made a signal for that purpose, or where and so long as such ship or vessel shall be in distress, or under circumstances which shall have rendered it necessary for the master of such ship or vessel to avail himself of the best assistance which at the time could be procured, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 71.

73. Every pilot licensed or to be licensed as aforesaid, who shall, when not actually engaged in his capacity of pilot, refuse or decline, or wilfully delay to go off to or on board of or to take charge of any ship or vessel wanting a pilot, and within the limits specified in his licence, and of which he shall be qualified to take charge, upon the usual signal for a pilot being displayed from such ship or vessel, or upon being required so to do by the captain, or by any commissioned or warrant officer of or belonging to such ship or vessel (if the same shall be in H. M.'s service), or by the master, or other person having the command of such ship or vessel, or by any person interested therein as principal or agent (if the same shall not be in H. M.'s service), or upon being required so to do in either of the cases aforesaid, by any officer of the corporation or society to which such pilot shall belong, or by any principal officer of H. M.'s customs (unless in any of the cases aforesaid), it shall be unsafe for such pilot to obey such signal, or comply with such requisition, or he shall be prevented from so doing by illness or other sufficient cause to be shown by him in that behalf; and every pilot licensed or to be licensed as aforesaid, who shall on any frivolous pretext quit any ship or vessel, or decline the piloting thereof, after he has been engaged to pilot the same, or after going alongside thereof, before the service shall have been performed for which he was hired, and without leave of the captain of such ship or vessel (if in H. M.'s service), or of the master or other person having the command of such ship or vessel (if not in H. M.'s service), shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding 100*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, and shall be liable to be dismissed from being a pilot, or suspended from acting as such, at the discretion of the corporation or other authority by whom such pilot was licensed, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 72.

74. In case any pilot, licensed or to be licensed as aforesaid, shall employ or make use of, or shall compel or require any person having the command or charge of any ship or vessel, to employ or make use of any boat, anchor, cable, hawser, or any other matter or thing in or for the service or pretended service of such ship or vessel beyond what shall actually and bonâ fide be necessary and proper for the use thereof, with intent thereby to enhance or increase the charge or expence of pilotage or pilot assistance of such ship or vessel, whether for the gain and emolument of such pilot, or for the gain or emolument of any other person whomsoever, then and in every such case the person so offending shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, and shall also be liable to be deprived of his licence, or suspended from acting as a pilot, at the discretion of the corporation or other authority by whom he was licensed, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 73.

75. In case any pilot, licensed or to be licensed as aforesaid, shall lend his licence to any unlicensed person to assist him in acting or claiming to act as a licensed pilot, or in case any such licensed pilot, or any person not being a pilot, but acting under pretext or colour of being a pilot, shall by drunkenness render himself incapable of conducting any ship or vessel, or shall wilfully or negligently run any ship or vessel on shore, or lose or injure the same, or the tackle or furniture thereof, or shall wilfully and knowingly conduct, lead, decoy, or betray any ship or vessel into danger in any manner not already provided against by any statute, or shall unnecessarily or improperly cut any cable of or belonging to any ship or vessel, or cause or procure the same to be cut unnecessarily and improperly; or if any such person shall by wilful misrepresentation of any circumstances upon which the safety of any ship or vessel shall appear materially to depend, for the time being, obtain or endeavour to obtain the charge and conduct of any such ship or vessel, then and in every such case the person so offending, or who shall aid in, procure, abet, or connive at the committing of any such offence, shall, besides being liable to damages at the suit of the party grieved, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 100*l.* nor less than 20*l.*; and if the person so offending shall be a pilot, he shall also be liable to be deprived of his licence, or suspended from acting as a pilot at the discretion of the corporation or other authority by whom his licence was granted, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 74.

76. And whereas the dock-master or dock-masters appointed by divers dock companies in the port of London, under and by virtue of divers acts of parliament, have power and authority to direct the mooring and unmooring, moving or removing of ships and other vessels, within certain distances from the entrances out of the river Thames into the docks of such companies respectively; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], if any pilot having the charge or direction of any ship or vessel within such distances from the respective entrances into the said docks respectively from the river Thames, and either intended to go into or having recently come out of the docks of the said companies respectively, shall neglect or refuse to obey such orders or directions as shall or may from time to time be given to such pilot by the said dock-master or dock-masters respectively, under and by virtue of and agreeably to the powers vested in him and them by any act or acts of parliament, touching or relating to the mooring, unmooring, moving, or removing of such ships or vessels so being under the charge or direction of such pilot as aforesaid, then and in every such case, every pilot so offending shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.*; and every such pilot shall be liable to be dismissed from being a pilot, or suspended from acting as such, at the discretion of the corporation, or other authority by whom such pilot was licensed, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 75.

77. All fines, penalties, or forfeitures herein-before or herein-after imposed by this act, or by any of the bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, or ordinances hereby directed to remain in force, or hereafter to be made under the authority of this act, which shall exceed the sum of 20*l.* (the manner of levying whereof shall not by this act be otherwise expressly provided for), and likewise all fines, penalties, or forfeitures imposed as aforesaid (the manner of levying which shall not by this act be otherwise expressly provided for), in cases where the lowest penalty recoverable not being greater than 20*l.*, and the largest penalty recoverable being greater than 20*l.*, the party prosecuting shall proceed in respect thereof for a sum greater than 20*l.*, with the written consent of the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or of the said lord warden or his lieutenant for the time being respectively (as the case may be), shall and may be recovered with full costs of suit, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, to be commenced within 12 calendar months next after such offence or offences shall be committed, or within such other time as is herein-after in that behalf directed; the venue in which said action, bill, plaint, or information shall and may, at the option of the plaintiff or informant, be laid, and the said action, bill, plaint, or information tried either in the county of Middlesex or the city of London, or else in such county or place wherein the offence or offences shall have been committed, and no essoign, protection, wager of law, or any more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and in any such case or cases it shall be lawful to sue for the largest penalty or penalties recoverable in that behalf, and the jury giving the verdict shall and may award either such largest penalty or penalties, or any other smaller sum of money, not less than the sum specified as the lowest penalty recoverable in that behalf, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 76.

78. All fines, penalties, or forfeitures herein-before or herein-after imposed by this act, or by any of the bye-laws, rules, orders, regulations, or ordinances hereby directed to remain in force, or hereafter to be made, under the authority of this act, and which shall not exceed 20*l.* (the manner of levying whereof shall not by this act be otherwise expressly provided for); and likewise all fines, penalties, or forfeitures imposed as aforesaid (the manner of levying which shall not by this act be otherwise expressly provided for), in cases where the lowest penalty recoverable, not being greater than 20*l.*, and the largest penalty recoverable being greater than 20*l.*, the party prosecuting shall proceed in respect thereof for any sum not exceeding 20*l.*, with such written consent as aforesaid, shall and may be levied and recovered within six calendar months after the offence committed, or within such other times as is herein-after in that behalf directed, before any justice or justices of the peace for the county, city, division, or place where the offence shall be committed; or if committed by any pilot, then before any justice or justices of the peace for the county, city, division, or place aforesaid, or before any justice or justices of the peace, or any magistrate or magistrates of the city, town, or port to which such pilot shall belong; or if committed by any owner or master of any ship or vessel, before any justice or justices of the peace for the county, city, division, or place where the offence shall have been committed, or before any justice or justices of the peace, or any magistrate or magistrates of the county, city, town, or port at which such owner or master shall reside, or to which the ship of such owner or master shall belong; or if committed on any part of the sea from Orfordness to the mouth of the river Thames, or from Dungeness to the mouth of the river Thames, or upon the rivers Thames or Medway, then only before some justice or justices of the peace of the counties of Kent, Surrey, Essex, or Middlesex, or before some magistrate or magistrates of the city of London; and all and every the justice and justices, and magistrate and magistrates aforesaid, is and are hereby empowered and required, upon complaint to him or them made, to grant a warrant to bring before him or them such offender at the time or place in such warrant specified; and if on conviction of the offender on his confession, or on the evidence of one credible witness upon oath, (which oath such justice or magistrate is hereby empowered to administer,) such fine, penalty, or forfeiture shall not be forthwith paid, it shall and may be lawful to and for such justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, to levy the penalty by distress, and for want of distress to commit every such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, city, or place where such offender or offenders shall be convicted there to remain without bail or mainprize for any time not exceeding six calendar months, nor less than 21 days, unless such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid: provided, that in case the said respective periods of 12 calendar months and 6 calendar months, or either of them, within which fines, penalties, or forfeitures are to be sued for as aforesaid, shall in any case elapse and run out before any action or prosecution hereby authorized and directed shall have been commenced for the recovery of such fines, penalties, or forfeitures; and if it shall in manner herein-after mentioned be made to appear, as soon after as the circumstances of the case shall reasonably admit, that the commencement of the action or prosecution has been delayed by reason of the absence of any party or parties whether offending or complaining, or by the absence of any necessary witness, then upon such circumstances being stated by affidavit in writing, made before any judge of any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, it shall thereupon be lawful for any such judge or judges to order or authorize the commencement of such action or prosecution within such further time as such judge shall think fit to limit in that behalf; and in such case the action or actions, prosecution or prosecutions so ordered or authorized shall and may be commenced and prosecuted within the time or respective times so limited, in like manner and with the like effect in all respects as if such prosecutions had been commenced and prosecuted within the said respective periods of 12 months and 6 months hereby limited, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 77.

79. In case any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, before or after any conviction for any offence against this act, shall escape, go into, or reside, or be in any other county, riding, division, city, liberty, town, or place not within the jurisdiction of the justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, granting such warrant, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace of the county, riding, division, city, liberty, town, or place into which such person shall escape, either before or after conviction, and they and every of them are hereby required upon proof made upon oath of the hand-writing of any justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, granting such warrant, to endorse his name on such warrant, and the same when so endorsed shall be sufficient authority to all peace-officers to execute such warrant in such other county, riding, division, city, town, or place, out of the jurisdiction of the justice or justices granting the said warrant; and any justice or justices respectively, on the offender being apprehended and brought before him or them, within their respective jurisdictions, may proceed to hear and determine the complaint, in the same manner as if it had originally arisen within his or their respective jurisdictions, or may direct the offender to be carried, and such offender shall accordingly, in that case, be carried to or before the justice or justices who granted the original warrant, to be dealt with according to law, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 78.

80. If any person who shall be summoned as a witness upon any complaint or information before any justice or justices of the peace, magistrate or magistrates, shall refuse or neglect to appear at the time by such summons appointed, having no just cause for such neglect or refusal, it shall be lawful for such justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, on proof of such summons having been served, and of a tender of reasonable expences having been made to such person on his being served with such summons, to issue a warrant, under his hand and seal or their hands and seals, to bring such person before him or them; and if on appearance, or on being brought before any justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, such person shall refuse to be examined on oath concerning the premises, without having some just cause for such refusal, it shall be lawful for such justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, by warrant under his hand and seal, or their hands and seals, to commit such person to the house of correction of the county, city, division, or place where any such person shall be apprehended, there to remain for any time not exceeding six weeks, nor less than 10 days, as any such justice or justices, magistrate or magistrates, shall direct, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 79.

81. Every person who in any examination upon oath, under the provisions of this act, shall wilfully give false testimony, or a false account of the matter sworn to by such person, shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same by indictment, and if duly convicted of false swearing in the premises, shall be subject and liable to such punishments, disqualifications, and disabilities, as any person would be subject or liable to for wilful and corrupt perjury, in any other case by the laws and statutes of the realm, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 80.

82. And for the more easy and speedy conviction of offenders against this act, be it further enacted, That all and every justice and justices of the peace, magistrate or magistrates, before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this act, or against any bye-law, rule, regulation, or order hereby directed to remain in force, or hereafter to be made under the authority hereof, shall and may cause the conviction to be drawn up according to the following form, or in words to the like effect; videlicet,

'Be it remembered, That on the — day of — in the year of our Lord —

A. B. is convicted before me [or us], one [or two, as the case may be] of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the — [here specify the offence, and the time and place when and where committed, as the case may be,] contrary to an act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [here insert the title of this act], and I [or we] do adjudge that the said — [insert the offender's name] hath therefore forfeited the sum of [here insert the penalty]. Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals] the day and year first above written.'

And no certiorari, or other writ or process for the removal of any such conviction or any proceedings thereon, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, shall be allowed or granted, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 81.

83. It shall and may be lawful to and for any person so convicted by any justice or justices of the peace, magistrate or magistrates before mentioned, of any offence against this act, or against any bye-law, rule, order, regulation, or ordinance hereby directed to remain in force, or hereafter to be made under the authority hereof, within three calendar months next after such conviction, to appeal to the justices of the peace assembled at the general quarter sessions holden for the county, city, or place where the matter of appeal shall arise, first give 10 days' notice of such appeal to the person appealed against, and of the matter thereof, and within 14 days next after such notice entering into a recognizance before some justice of the peace for such county, city, or place, with sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; and such justices so assembled shall, upon due proof of such notice having been given, and recognizance entered into, hear and determine the matter of such appeal, and may either confirm or quash and annul the said conviction, and award such costs to either party as to them shall seem just and reasonable (and the decision of the said justices therein shall be final, binding, and conclusive); and no proceeding to be had or taken in pursuance of this act shall be quashed or vacated for want of form only, or be removed by certiorari or any other writ or process whatsoever, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster or elsewhere; any law or statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 82.

84. One-third of all fines or penalties to be levied in pursuance of this act, or under any bye-law, rule, order, regulation, or ordinance hereby directed to remain in force, or hereafter to be made under the authority of this act, by whomsoever incurred (save and except such fines or penalties, the application whereof shall by this act be otherwise expressly provided for), shall go to the person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the remainder of all such fines or penalties shall be carried to and applied to the purposes of the said fund belonging to the said corporation of Trinity-house, called "The Pilots' Fund," in case such fines or penalties shall be incurred by pilots licensed by the said corporation, or by any person in relation to any matters wherein such last-mentioned pilots shall be in anywise concerned; and in case such fines or penalties shall be incurred by pilots belonging to the fellowship of the cinque ports, or by pilots under any other jurisdictions or authorities, or by any other person in relation to any matters wherein such pilots respectively shall be in anywise concerned, then the remaining two-thirds of such last-mentioned fines or penalties shall be carried to and applied to the purposes of such fund as hath been or shall be created for the relief of such indigent pilots belonging to the said fellowship, or such other jurisdictions or authorities respectively, as shall become incapable of discharging their duty from advanced age, or from any accident or infirmity, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 83.

85. If any suit or action shall be brought or prosecuted against any person for anything done or to be done in pursuance of this act, in every such case the action or suit shall be commenced within six calendar months next after the fact committed, and not otherwise, and shall be laid in the county, city, or place where the cause of action arises; and the defendant may plead the general issue not guilty, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at the trial, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this act; and if it shall appear so to be done, or if any such action or suit shall be brought after the time limited for bringing the same, then the jury shall find for the defendant; and if the plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or suffer a discontinuance, or if a verdict shall pass against him, or if upon demurrer judgment shall be given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, and shall have such remedy for the same as any defendant hath for costs of suit in other cases of law, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 84.

86. All acts of parliament, and all clauses, provisions, powers, authorities, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures contained in any act, which in any manner relate to the regulation of pilots or pilotage within any river, port, or harbour, or within any local limits specified in any such act, clause, or provision, and in which any reference is made to the 48 G. 3. c. 104., or 52 G. 3. c. 39., or either of them, or in any manner apply thereto, or vary or alter any of the provisions thereof as to pilots or pilotage within any such limits, shall continue in full force notwithstanding their repeal, and shall be deemed to refer and apply to this act, and shall be so construed as if the same were particularly referred to in this act; any thing in this act to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 85.

87. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any ships or vessels belonging to H. M., as to their being compelled to take pilots on board, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 86.

88. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to affect or impede the jurisdiction of the court of loadmanage, as far as respects the pilots appointed under the authority of the said court; and provided also, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect or impair the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 87.

89. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prejudice or take away any right, property, authority, or jurisdiction of the mayor of the city of London, or of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, to, in, and upon the river Thames aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 88.

90. Nothing in this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to the taking away, abridging, defeating, impeaching, or interrupting of any grants, liberties, franchises, or privileges heretofore granted by any charters or acts of parliament to the pilots of the Trinity-house of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, or the Trinity-house of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or to give any authority to the corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, within any ports or districts having separate jurisdictions in matters of pilotage, under any act of parliament or charter, or to alter or repeal any provisions contained in any act or acts of parliament relating to the pilots of any ports or districts in relation to which particular provision shall have been made in any act or acts of parliament as to the pilots or pilotage, or to the pilotage within the limits prescribed by any act or acts of parliament relating to pilotage for such ports, or to the burthen of vessels navigating to or from such ports, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 89.

91. All provisions, clauses, penalties, and forfeitures, contained in 8 El. c. 15. [Stat. Dig. tit. SEA-MARKS, pl. 1.], or any other act made and in force for the preservation of sea-marks and beacons, shall extend and be construed to extend to all vessels duly appointed to exhibit lights therein for the preservation of ships and vessels at sea, and to all persons removing, injuring, or destroying such vessels or lights, which offences may be laid and tried in any county in Eng., 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 90.

92. Every person who shall ride by, make fast to, or remove, or wilfully run down, or run foul of any vessel, appointed or placed to exhibit lights, or any buoy or beacon belonging to the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or belonging to or placed by any other corporation having lawful authority to place the same, shall, besides being liable to the expence of replacing or making good any damage occasioned thereby, forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in which no essoign, protection, privilege, wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be granted or allowed; one-third of which said penalty shall go to the persons who shall inform or sue for the same, and the remainder of which said penalty shall go to the said corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or other the corporation to which such vessel, buoy, or beacon shall belong, or by which the same shall have been placed as aforesaid, as the case may be, to be applied to the charitable purposes of the said corporations respectively, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 91.

SCHEDULE (B.) [See s. 17, pl. 18.]

Oath to be taken by the master and wardens of the society of cinque port pilots.

'I A. B. do swear, that I will diligently and impartially examine and inquire into the capacity and skill of — in the art of piloting ships and vessels over the flats, and round the Long Sand Head, and up the rivers of Thames and Medway, and into Ramsgate, Dover, Sandwich, and Margate harbours, and also upon the coasts of Flanders and Holland; and will make true and speedy return thereof to the lord warden of the cinque ports for the time being, or his deputy, without favour, affection, fee, or reward. So help me God.'

SCHEDULE (C.) [See s. 5, pl. 6.]

Oath to be taken by sub-commissioners for pilotage.

'I A. B. do swear, that I will diligently and impartially examine into the capacity and skill of — in the art of piloting ships and vessels into the roadstead, port, or harbour, and upon the coasts following; videlicet [here describe the limits within which the person examined is intended to act as pilot] and will make true and speedy return thereof to the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, without favour, affection, fee, or reward, other than such fee or reward as is allowed by the bye-laws or regulations duly established in that behalf. So help me God.'

PIRACY.

1. For encouraging the capture or destruction of piratical ships and vessels, 6 G. 4. c. 49.

2. Whereas it is expedient to give encouragement to the commanders, officers, and crews of H. M.'s ships of war and hired armed ships to attack and destroy any ships, vessels, or boats, manned by pirates or persons engaged in acts of piracy: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [22d June 1825], there shall be paid by the treasurer of H. M.'s navy, upon bills to be made forth by the commissioners of the navy, to be paid according to the course thereof, without fee or reward, unto the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others, who shall have been actually on board any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, or hired armed ships, at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying of any ship, vessel, or boat, manned by pirates or persons engaged in acts of piracy, since the 1st Jan. 1820, the sum of 20*l.* for each and every such piratical person, either taken and secured or killed during the attack on such piratical vessel, and the sum of 5*l.* for each and every other man of the crew not taken or killed, who shall have been alive on board such pirate vessel at the beginning of the attack thereof; the numbers of such piratical men respectively to be proved by the ship's papers taken on board such piratical ship, vessel, or boat, verified by the oaths of two or more of the persons who shall have found and taken possession of such papers, or by such other evidence as under the circumstances of the case shall, by the judge of the high court of admiralty, or by the judge of any other court authorized to take cognizance of such matter, be deemed sufficient proof thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 49. s. 1.

3. And for the more speedy distribution of such reward payable in respect of pirates or pirate vessels, taken or destroyed in distant parts; be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the amount of the bounty so to be paid, and the numbers of men in respect of whom it shall be payable, shall have been ascertained in manner aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the commissioner of the navy resident at any of H. M.'s dock-yards abroad, or in the absence of a commissioner of the navy, for the naval officer and storekeeper, or if there shall be no such commissioner or naval officer, then for the commander-in-chief or senior officer of H. M.'s ships and vessels at the port or place into which the piratical ship, vessel, or boat shall be taken to be proceeded against, or in case of the destruction of the vessel, the place into which the piratical persons seized shall be carried, to draw upon the commissioners of the navy a bill or bills at 30 days' sight for the amount of such bounty, which bill or bills shall, upon the said commissioners being satisfied of the correctness and amount thereof by the production to them of the proof herein-before required, be by them assigned for payment on the treasurer of the navy, and when paid be charged as an imprest on the person so drawing the same; and that all bills so to be made out by the commissioners of the navy, or to be drawn upon them as aforesaid, shall be made payable to such person or persons as shall be authorized and appointed agents for the appraisement and sales of such piratical ships or boats in respect of which such bounty shall be payable, or for the receipt of such bounty only, in case such piratical ships, vessels, or boats shall have been sunk, burnt, or destroyed, in like manner as by 45 G. 3. c. 72. * [Stat. Dig. tit. PRIZE, STAT. rep., pl. 6.] intituled, An Act for the encouragement of seamen, and for the better and more effectually manning H. M.'s navy during the present war, was directed with respect to the appointment of agents for the appraisement and sale of prizes taken from the enemy; and that the same bounty shall be paid, distributed, and divided by such authorized and appointed agent or agents, to and amongst such persons, and in such manner, form, and proportion as H. M., his heirs or successors, by any order or orders in council for that purpose, shall think fit to declare and direct, 6 G. 4. c. 49. s. 2.

4. If any ship, vessel, boat, goods, merchandize, or other property found and taken in the possession of pirates, shall be duly proved in and adjudged by the court of admiralty or other court having competent jurisdiction therein, to have belonged to and to have been taken from any of H. M.'s subjects, then such ship, vessel, boat, goods, merchandize, and other property, and every part thereof so proved, shall by the decree of the said court be adjudged to be restored, and shall be accordingly restored to the former owner or owners thereof respectively, he or they paying for or in lieu of salvage a sum of money equal to one-eighth part of the true value of such ship, vessel, boat, goods, merchandize, and other property respectively; which money shall be paid to and divided and distributed amongst such persons, and in such manner, form, and proportion, as shall by any proclamation or order of H. M. in council, be directed for the distribution of the produce of any ship, vessel, boat, goods, or other property of pirates, 6 G. 4. c. 49. s. 3.

5. No person or persons who shall desert from any of H. M.'s ships or hired armed vessels, or otherwise from H. M.'s service, shall be entitled to receive any proportion of bounty money, salvage, or other monies payable by virtue of this act; but that the shares of all such persons, as well as all other shares which shall not be legally demanded within the times prescribed by the 45 G. 3. c. 72. * for the demand of prize-money, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the royal hospital at Greenwich, within such times, in such manner, and to and for such uses and purposes, and subject to such provisions, regulations, and exceptions, as in the said act is mentioned with respect to prize-money, 6 G. 4. c. 49. s. 4.

6. All and every person who shall be so nominated and appointed agent or agents as aforesaid, for the appraisement and sale of any piratical ships, vessels, or boats taken by any of H. M.'s ships or vessels, or hired armed ships, or for the distribution of the bounty money by this act given, shall exhibit and cause to be registered their letter or letters of attorney in the respective courts wherein the proceedings touching the vessels so taken, or touching such bounty or salvage, shall be had; and all such agents shall be subject to such forfeitures and disqualifications for not registering the same as in and by the 45 G. 3. c. 72. * are enacted and provided, 6 G. 4. c. 49. s. 5.

POLICE.

1. For the more effectual administration of the office of a justice of the peace in and near the metropolis, and for the more effectual prevention of depredations on the river Thames and its vicinity, for seven years, 3 G. 4. c. 55. [PUBLIC CLAUSE, s. 50. AMD. 6 G. 4. c. 21.]

2. Whereas it is expedient that the provisions of 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. intituled, An Act for the more effectual administration of the office of a justice of the peace in and near the metropolis, and for the more effectual prevention of depredations on the river Thames and its vicinity, for one year, should be continued and amended: be it enacted, That the several police offices now established in the parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster, Saint James Westminster, Saint Mary-le-bone, Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Leonard Shoreditch, Saint Mary Whitechapel, and Saint John Wapping, in the county of Middlesex, and Saint Saviour in the county of Surrey, shall be continued; and that the several persons heretofore appointed to execute the duties of a justice of the peace at the police-offices now established under the said recited act, shall continue to execute the same at the said eight police-offices, together with such other justices of the peace for the said counties respectively as may think proper to attend thereat; and that it shall be lawful for H. M., upon every vacancy, by death or otherwise, to appoint another fit person, being a justice of the peace of the said counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, to execute the duties of a justice of the peace at the said several police-offices, in lieu of the person making such vacancy, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 1.

3. One or more of the said justices so appointed shall diligently attend at each of the said police-offices every day, from 10 in the morning until 8 in the evening, and at such other times and places as shall be found necessary, and directed by one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state; and that two of the said justices shall in like manner attend together at each of the said offices from 12 at noon until 3 in the afternoon; provided, that no such attendance shall be given on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving, unless in cases of urgent necessity, or when it shall be directed by such principal secretary of state, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 2.

4. The present receiver for the said police-offices shall continue such receiver, and it shall be lawful for H. M., upon any vacancy in the said office of receiver, by death or otherwise, to appoint any other proper person, not being one of the justices appointed to act at either of the said police-offices, to be the receiver of the said eight police-offices; and that the said receiver for the time being shall receive all fees, penalties, and forfeitures, and other sums of monies applicable to the purposes of this act, and shall keep an exact and particular account of all such monies as shall be received by him, and shall apply the same quarterly in discharge of the salaries, expences, and charges attending the said police-offices, and in carrying this act into execution, and shall make all such contracts and disbursements as shall be necessary for purchasing, hiring, fitting up, and furnishing proper and sufficient houses and buildings wherein the said eight police-offices shall be held, in such manner as H. M., by and with the advice and consent of his privy council, shall think proper to direct and appoint; of which houses and buildings so to be hired or purchased, and of all houses and buildings already hired or purchased for the like purposes, and of the fixtures and furniture thereof, and of all other necessities to be held or purchased for the purposes of this act, the property acquired therein shall be vested in the receiver for the time being, who shall and may sell, assign, and dispose of the same or any part thereof, under the like directions and appointment, as occasion shall require; and such receiver shall prepare proper plans and estimates of all such contracts and disbursements as shall be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, and shall deliver the same to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state; and shall further do and execute all such other lawful matters and things towards the establishment of the said eight police-offices, and towards the carrying this act into execution, as H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, shall from time to time think proper to direct, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 3.

[* Note.—The framers of this act appear to have overlooked the circumstance that the 45 G. 3. c. 72. had expired in part, and was, as to the residue, repealed by 5 G. 4. c. 93. s. 1., which see, Stat. Dig. tit. PRIZE, pl. 10, 11. et seq.]

5. The justices appointed as aforesaid, or any two of them, in their respective offices, shall appoint, retain, and employ a sufficient number of fit and able men, subject to the approbation of one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, whom they are hereby authorized and empowered to swear in to act as constables, for preserving the peace and preventing robberies and other felonies, and apprehending offenders against the peace; which constables so sworn shall, within the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, and Kent, have all such powers, authorities, privileges, and advantages as any constable duly appointed now has, or hereafter may have by virtue of any law or statute now made or hereafter to be made; and shall obey all such lawful commands as they shall from time to time receive from the said justices respectively, for the apprehending offenders, or otherwise conducting themselves in the execution of their offices; and such justices may at any time suspend or dismiss from his employment any such constable attached to their respective offices, whom they shall think remiss or negligent in the execution of his duty, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any such constable shall be so dismissed, or cease to belong to any of the said offices, all powers and authorities vested in him as a constable under this act, shall immediately cease and determine, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4.

6. The justices appointed to the said police-office in the parish of Saint John Wapping, commonly called the "Thames Police Office," or any two of them, shall (subject to such approbation as aforesaid) appoint, retain, and employ any number of fit and discreet men, not exceeding 50, who, under the name of Thames police surveyors, shall (being first duly sworn in manner above mentioned) have, within the counties aforesaid, the powers, authorities, privileges, and advantages of a constable as aforesaid; and shall direct and inspect the conduct of the constables attached to the Thames police-office, and of all persons to be employed in and about ships and vessels in the said river Thames, or in or on the several creeks, wharfs, quays, and landing-places thereto adjacent, and (subject to the orders of the said last-mentioned justices) shall have power by virtue of their offices to enter at all times, as well by night as by day, into and upon every ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel (not being then actually employed in H. M.'s service) lying or being in the said river or creeks, and into every part of every such vessel, for the purpose of inspecting, and upon occasion directing the conduct of any constable who may be stationed on board of any vessel, and of inspecting and observing the conduct of all other persons who shall be employed on board of any vessel in or about the lading or unlading thereof as the case may be, and for the purpose of taking all such measures as may be necessary for providing against fire and other accidents, and preserving peace and good order on board of any such vessel, and for the effectual prevention in all cases of any felonies or misdemeanors being committed, and for the effectual detection of any felonies or misdemeanors which may have been committed, or which such surveyor may have reasonable cause to suspect to have been committed on board any such vessel; and the justices appointed to the said Thames police-office may at any time suspend or dismiss any such Thames police surveyor whom they shall find remiss or negligent in the execution of his duty, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any such surveyor shall be so dismissed, or cease to belong to the said office, all powers and authorities vested in him as such surveyor under this act, shall immediately cease and determine, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 5.

7. It shall be lawful for H. M., to direct that such sum shall be issued quarterly out of the consolidated fund of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., to the said receiver, as will be sufficient to pay the yearly salary of 600*l.*, clear of all fees or deductions, to each of the justices so appointed to attend at the said police-offices, for their time and trouble; and such further sums as may be necessary for the expences of the offices, and for the payment of clerks, constables, surveyors, and others therein employed, and for the payment of the expences of the public-office in Bow Street, and of the magistrates, clerks, and constables, and others therein employed, and of the horse and foot patrol acting under the orders of the chief magistrate of that office; provided that the whole of the said charges shall not exceed the annual sum of 68,000*l.*, over and above the necessary disbursements for purchasing, hiring, repairing, fitting up, and furnishing the houses and buildings wherein the said offices shall be held; and that the said receiver, out of the monies so issued to him, shall pay to the constables and surveyors so appointed as aforesaid, for their trouble and attendance, such sum as may from time to time appear reasonable to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, and any extraordinary expences they shall appear to have been necessarily put to in apprehending offenders, and executing the orders of the justices acting under this act; such extraordinary expences being first examined and approved of by the justices attending the police-office to which such constables shall be respectively attached; and such further sum for rewarding the extraordinary diligence or exertion of any of the said constables or surveyors, and for compensating them for wounds or severe injuries received in the performance of their duties, and for an allowance to such of them as shall be completely disabled by bodily injury received, or shall be worn out by length of service, as shall be directed by such principal secretary of state, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 6.

8. This salary increased to any sum not exceeding 800*l.* per ann., in discretion of a secretary of state, commencing from 5th April 1825, 6 G. 4. c. 21. s. 1.

9. No justice of the peace for the county of Middlesex, county of Surrey, city and liberty of Westminster, or liberty of the tower of London, or his clerk, or any person on their behalf, elsewhere than at the said police-offices, shall directly or indirectly, upon any pretence or under any colour whatever, take or receive any fee, reward, gratuity, or recompence, for any act by him or them done or to be done in the execution of his or their office or employ, as justice of the peace, or clerk as aforesaid, within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, or within the parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone, Paddington, Saint Pancras, Kensington, and Saint Luke Chelsea, in the said county of Middlesex, upon pain of forfeiting the sum of 100*l.* for every such offence, one moiety thereof to the said receiver, to be applied to the purposes of this act, and the other moiety thereof, with full costs of suit, to the person who shall sue for the same in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no essoign, privilege, wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed: provided that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to extend to any fees taken at any general or quarter sessions of the peace, or at any meeting of justices for the purpose of licensing alehouses, or to any fees taken at the said public office in Bow Street, or to any fees taken by the vestry clerk of any parish for the purpose of enforcing the payment of any taxes or assessments arising within the same parish, or for the purpose of hearing and determining any offence cognizable before justices of the peace, by virtue of any statute made and provided for the special regulation or government of such parish, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 7.

10. In some conspicuous part of each of the said police-offices, and also of the said public-office in Bow Street, there shall be affixed a table of the fees which may legally be taken at such offices respectively, under 26 G. 2. c. 14. [Stat. Dig. tit. JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl. 95.], intituled, An Act for the settling and ascertaining the fees to be taken by clerks to justices of the peace; and under 27 G. 2. c. 16. s. 4. [Stat. Dig. tit. JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl. 100.], intituled, An Act, [amongst other things,] for confirming the tables of fees to be taken by the clerks to the justices of the peace for the county of Middlesex; and it shall be lawful for any justice at such offices respectively to refuse to do any act for which any fee shall be demandable, unless such fee shall be first paid; and that if any such act shall be done, and the fee due thereon shall not be paid, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to summon the person from whom such fee shall be due, and to make order for payment of the same, with the costs of the proceedings, and in default of payment to levy the same, with the costs of the distress, by warrant under his hand and seal, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 8.

11. The justices so appointed to attend at the said police-offices, and their clerks respectively, shall in books to be provided for that purpose keep a full, true, and particular account of all fees taken and received at each of the said offices, together with all penalties and forfeitures which shall have been recovered, levied, or received in pursuance of any adjudication, conviction, or order had or made at any of the said offices, or any process or warrant issuing from the same; to which books of account the said receiver shall at all times have free access; and the said justices shall, once in every quarter of a year, deliver unto such receiver such account, verified upon oath by such justice or clerk, or such other person as shall be employed in keeping such accounts respectively, or any part thereof, before some justice of the peace for the said county of Middlesex, or county of Surrey, and shall pay the amount of all such fees unto such receiver, to be applied in manner hereinbefore [s. 6.] mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 9.

12. All such penalties and forfeitures, and shares of penalties and forfeitures, as are by any act now in force, or shall be by any future act (unless it shall contain express words to the contrary) limited and made payable to H. M., or to any description of persons other than the informer or informers who shall sue for the same, or any party aggrieved, and which shall be recoverable in a summary way before a justice or justices of the peace, and which shall be recovered or adjudged before any justice or justices at either of the said eight police-offices, or at the said public-office in Bow Street, shall be accounted for and paid into the hands of the said receiver, by the justice, clerk, constable, officer, or other person who shall levy or receive the same, to be applied by such receiver in manner herein-before mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 10.

13. If the justices appointed as aforesaid, or any other person having received any such fees at any of the said police-offices, shall neglect to account for and pay the same in manner aforesaid; or if any justice, justice's clerk, constable, officer, or other person, who shall levy or receive such penalties or forfeitures, or shares of penalties or forfeitures, shall neglect to pay the same into the hands of such receiver; or if any person, having resigned any such office of receiver, or having been removed from the same, shall neglect, within 21 days after notice for that purpose, to account for and pay into the hands of the succeeding receiver all such sums of money as shall remain in his hands applicable to the purposes of this act; it shall be lawful for such receiver for the time being, in his own proper name only, or by his name and description of office, to sue for and recover the same, with double costs of suit, in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt, in which action it shall be sufficient for such receiver to declare as for money had and received to the use of such receiver for the purposes of this act; and the defendant in such action may, at the discretion of any judge of such court, be held to special bail, in such competent sum as such judge shall order and direct; and in any such action the court in which such action shall be brought may, if such court shall think proper, at the instance of either of the parties, refer the account in dispute, in a summary manner, to be audited by any officer of the court or other fit person at their discretion, who may examine both plaintiff and defendant upon oath, (which oath the said referee shall have power to administer); and upon the report of such referee, unless either of the parties shall show good cause to the contrary, such court may make a rule, either for the payment of such sum as upon such report shall appear to be due, or for staying the proceedings in such cause, and upon such terms and conditions as to the same court shall appear reasonable and just; or may order judgment to be entered up by confession, for such sum as upon such report shall appear to be due, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 11.

14. In case of the death of any such receiver, or of any person having resigned, or been removed from such office, or of any of the other persons whom the said receiver for the time being is authorized to sue as aforesaid, in every such case, the receiver for the time being may, in his own proper name only, or by his name and description of office, sue for and recover such sum of money as shall have been remaining in the hands of such deceased receiver or other person, applicable to the purposes of this act, or the executors or administrators of such person deceased; in which action it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to declare that the deceased was indebted to the plaintiff for money had and received to his use for the purposes of this act, or that the deceased died possessed of money had and received for the purposes of this act, whereby an action accrued to the plaintiff to demand and have the same of such executors or administrators; and the like action shall and may be brought against any executors or administrators of executors or administrators; in all which actions the defendant may plead in like manner, and avail themselves of the like matters in their defence, as in any action founded upon simple contracts of the original testator or intestate; and in all actions to be brought by such receiver by virtue of this act, proof of the plaintiff's acting in the execution of such office shall be sufficient evidence of his holding the same, unless the contrary shall be shown in evidence by the defendant in such action, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 12.

15. Such receiver shall, every three months, and oftener if required, deliver to the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., for the time being, a full and particular account of all monies by him received and paid as aforesaid, with vouchers for the same; which account shall be verified upon oath, before some justice or baron of one of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster; and such receiver, for his care and pains in the execution of such office, shall and may retain to his own use, out of the monies so received by him as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding 400*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 13.

16. No justice appointed as aforesaid shall, during his continuance in such appointment, be capable of being elected, or of sitting as a member of the house of commons; and no justice, receiver, surveyor, or constable, appointed by virtue of this act, shall, during the time that he shall continue in his office respectively, or within 6 months after he shall have quitted the same, be capable of giving his vote for the election of a member to serve in parliament for the counties of Middlesex or Surrey, or for the city and liberty of Westminster, or the borough of Southwark respectively; nor shall by word, message, writing, or in any other manner, endeavour to persuade any elector to give or dissuade any elector from giving his vote for the choice of any person to be a member to serve in parliament for the said counties, city, or borough; and every such justice, receiver, surveyor, or constable, offending therein, shall forfeit the sum of 100*l.*; one moiety thereof to the informer, and the other moiety thereof to the use of the poor of the parish or place where such offence shall be committed; to be recovered by any person that shall sue for the same, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, in which no essoign, protection, privilege, wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; such action to be brought within the space of one year after such offence committed: provided nevertheless, that nothing in this act shall extend to subject any such justice, receiver, surveyor, or constable, to any penalty for any act done by him at or concerning any of the said elections, in the discharge of his duty in the said respective capacities, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 14.

17. Where by any law now in being, or hereafter to be made, any act is directed or authorized to be done by any justice or justices of the peace residing in or near or next the parish or place where any offence or other matter cognizable before them shall be committed or shall arise, the same jurisdiction shall and may be exercised by a justice or justices acting in such of the said police-offices as may be situated next or near such parish or place, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 15.

18. It shall be lawful for H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, to make such alterations in the places where any of the said police-offices shall be situated, or make such alterations in the hours of attendance therein, and to make all such other regulations to be observed in conducting the same, as he from time to time shall think proper, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 16.

19. Whereas divers fairs are held within the city and vicinity of London, by charter or prescription, and other fairs without any lawful authority, which lead to scenes of riot, disorder, debauchery, and crime, and it is expedient to regulate such fairs as are legally held, and to suppress such as have no lawful origin; be it therefore enacted, That all fairs held within 10 miles of Temple Bar, all business and amusements of all kinds, shall cease at the hour of 11 in the evening, and not recommence earlier than the hour of 6 in the morning; and that if any house, shop, room, booth, standing, tent, caravan, waggon, or other place, shall, during the continuance of any such fair as aforesaid, be open within the hours herein-before prohibited, for any purpose of business or amusement in the place where such fair shall be held, or within 500 yards thereof, then it shall be lawful for any constable or other peace-officer, within his jurisdiction, to take into custody the master or mistress, or other person having the care, government, or management of any such house, shop, room, booth, standing, tent, caravan, waggon, or other place, and also every person being therein, and who shall not quit the same forthwith upon being bidden by any such constable or other peace-officer so to do, and to convey every such person so taken, as soon as conveniently may be, before a justice of the peace, who shall proceed to hear the complaint in a summary way; and every person convicted before any such justice, as a master, mistress, or person having the care, government, or management of any such house, shop, room, booth, standing, tent, caravan, waggon, or other place, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 5*l.*; and every person so convicted as having been therein, and not quitted the same forthwith upon being bidden by a constable or other peace-officer so to do, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 40*s.*; and if the party so convicted shall not immediately pay the penalty, the justice shall commit him or her to hard labour in the house of correction for any space of time not exceeding three months, nor less than six days, unless the penalty shall be sooner paid; and if there shall appear to any two justices within their respective jurisdictions, reason to believe that any fair usually held within the distance aforesaid, has been held without charter, prescription, or other lawful authority, or that any fair lawfully held within the said distance has been usually held for a longer period than is warranted by charter, prescription, or other lawful authority, it shall be competent to them to summon the owner or occupier of the ground upon which such fair is usually held, to appear before such justices as may be present at some petty sessions, to be held at the time and place to be specified in the summons, not less than eight days after the service of the summons, to show his right and title to hold such fair, or to hold such fair beyond a given period, (as the case may be); and if such owner or occupier shall not attend in pursuance of such summons, or shall not show to the justices present at such petty sessions sufficient cause to believe that such fair has been held by lawful right and title, for the whole period during which the same has been usually held, such justices shall declare, in writing, such fair to be unlawful, either altogether or beyond a stated period (as the case may be), and shall give notice of such their declaration, by affixing copies thereof on the parish church, and on the most public places in and near the ground where such fair has been usually held; and if after such notices shall have been affixed for the space of six days any attempt shall be made to hold such fair, if it shall be declared altogether unlawful, or to hold it beyond the prescribed period, if it shall be declared unlawful beyond a certain period, any justice of the peace within his jurisdiction may, by his warrant, direct any constable or other peace-officer to remove every booth, standing, and tent, and every carriage, of whatsoever kind, conveyed to or being upon such ground for the purpose of holding or continuing such fair, and to take into custody every person erecting, pitching, or fixing, or assisting to erect, pitch, or fix, any such booth, standing, or tent, and every person driving, accompanying, or conveyed in every such carriage, and every person resorting to such ground with any exhibitions, shows, swings, roundabouts, whirligigs, or other instruments of gambling or amusement, and to carry every person so taken before the justice granting such warrant, or before some other justice, who shall proceed to hear the complaint in a summary way; and every person convicted before any such justice of any of the offences last aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 10*l.*, nor less than 20*s.*; and if the party so convicted shall not immediately pay the penalty, the justice shall commit him or her to hard labour in the house of correction, for any space of time not exceeding three months, nor less than six days, unless the penalty shall be sooner paid: provided nevertheless, that if the owner or occupier of the ground whereon any such fair has been usually held, shall, when summoned before the justices at their petty sessions as aforesaid, enter into a recognizance in the penal sum of 200*l.* (which recognizance such justices are hereby authorized to take), with condition to appear in the court of K. B. on the first day of the then next term, and to answer to any information in the nature of a quo warranto, which H. M.'s attorney or solicitor-general may exhibit against such owner or occupier, touching the right and title to such fair, and to abide the judgment of the court thereon, and to pay such costs as may be awarded by the court, which costs the said court is hereby authorized to award, then notwithstanding the justices shall declare such fair to be unlawful, they shall forbear from giving notice of such their declaration, and from taking any further measures thereon, until judgment shall be given by the said court against the right and title to such fair; and the justices taking such recognizance shall forthwith transmit the same to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, to the end that the same may be filed in the said court, and such further directions may be given thereon as to such secretary of state may seem fit and necessary, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 17.

20. Whereas it hath become a practice of late to open shops or rooms for the sale or under the pretence of selling ready-made coffee, tea, and other liquors, and to keep such shops or rooms open during the whole or the greatest part of the night, thereby affording shelter and accommodation to thieves, prostitutes, and other disorderly persons, and tending greatly to the encouragement of robberies, and to the concealment of stolen property; be it further enacted, That no shop, room, or place, for the purpose aforesaid, within the city of London or the liberties thereof, within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, or within any of the parishes herein-before [s. 7. pl. 9.] mentioned, shall be kept open after the hour of 11 at night during any part of the year, nor opened before the hour of four in the morning between Lady Day and Michaelmas, or before six in the morning between Michaelmas and Lady Day; and if any such shop, room, or place, shall be open within the hours herein-before prohibited, or being shut up, if any person shall during those hours be found therein, except the persons actually dwelling there, or having lawful excuse for being there, then the master, mistress, waiter, or other person having the care, government, or management of such shop, room, or place, whether he or she be the real owner or keeper thereof or not, shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 10*l.*, nor less than 20*s.*, upon conviction of any such offence before any justice of the peace, by confession or upon the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses; and if the party so convicted shall not immediately pay the said penalty, the justice shall commit him or her to hard labour in the house of correction, for any space of time not exceeding three months, nor less than six days, unless the said penalty shall be sooner paid; and the said penalty, when paid, shall be distributed, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the chamberlain of the city of London, if the offence be committed in the said city, and if out of the said city, then to the said receiver for the purposes of this act: provided, that nothing herein contained shall apply to or affect any house duly licensed for the sale of wines and spirituous liquors; and that no such conviction shall exempt the owner, keeper, or manager of any such shop, room, or place, from any penalty or penal consequence whereto he or she may be liable for keeping a disorderly house, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 18.

21. If any person shall, within the city of London and liberties thereof, or within the limits and parishes aforesaid, blow any horn, or use any other noisy instrument for the purpose of hawking, selling, or distributing any article whatsoever, it shall be lawful for any constable, head-borough, patrol, watchman, or other person, to apprehend every person so offending, and convey him before any justice of the peace, who shall proceed to examine upon oath any witnesses appearing to give evidence touching such offence; and if the party accused shall be convicted of such offence, then and in every such case he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 40*s.*, nor less than 10*s.*, to be applied in such manner as such justice shall direct; and in case the offender shall not upon conviction forthwith pay the penalty, such justice is hereby required to commit such offender to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding 10 days, nor less than three, unless the penalty shall be sooner paid, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 19.

22. Every conviction for the offences aforesaid shall be in the following form of words, or in some other form of words to the like effect:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is brought before me [or, having been duly summoned, has neglected to appear before me], C. D. esquire, one of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the county of — [or city, or liberty, or place, as the case may be], and is charged before me the said justice with having [here describe the offence], and it appearing to me the said justice, upon the confession of him the said A. B. [or, upon the oath of a credible witness, as the case may be], that the said A. B. is guilty of the said offence; I do therefore adjudge the said A. B. to forfeit and pay the sum of —; and in default of payment, to be imprisoned in the house of correction at — and there kept to hard labour for the term of — unless the said penalty shall be sooner paid; and I do hereby direct, that the said penalty shall, when paid, be applied to [here direct the mode]. Given under my hand and seal, the day and year first above written.'

3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 20.

23. Whereas ill-disposed and suspected persons and reputed thieves frequent the parks, fields, streets, highways, and places adjacent, and divers places of public resort, and the avenues leading thereto, within the city of London and the liberties thereof, the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, and the said parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone, Paddington, Saint Pancras, Kensington, and Saint Luke Chelsea, and also the said river Thames, and the docks and creeks, quays and warehouses adjacent thereto, and the streets, highways, and avenues leading to the said river, docks, creeks, quays, and warehouses, with intent to commit felony on the persons or property of H. M.'s subjects; and although their evil purposes are sufficiently manifest, the power of H. M.'s justices of the peace, to demand of them sureties for their good behaviour, hath not been of sufficient effect to prevent them from carrying their evil purposes into execution; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any constable, headborough, patrol, watchman, or other person, to apprehend every such suspected person or reputed thief, and convey him or her before any justice of the peace; and if it shall appear before the said justice, upon the oath of one credible witness, that such person is a person of evil fame and a reputed thief, and such person shall not be able to give a satisfactory account of himself or herself, and of his or her way of living, and it shall also appear to the satisfaction of the said justice, that there is just ground to believe that such person was in or on such park, field, street, highway, river, dock, creek, quay, warehouse, avenue, or other place as aforesaid, with such intent as aforesaid, every such person shall be deemed a rogue and vagabond, within the intent and meaning of an act [5 G. 4. c. 83. See VAGRANT.] made in the present session, for consolidating and amending the laws relating to rogues, vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly persons, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 21.

24. Every such conviction shall be in the following form of words, or in some other form of words to the like effect:

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is brought before me C. D. esquire, one of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the county of — [or city, liberty, or place, as the case may be], and charged before me the said justice with being a rogue and vagabond, he the said A. B. having been apprehended on the — day of — in a certain — called — in the parish of — in the said county [or city, et cetera, as the case may be]; and it appearing to me the said justice, on the oath of — a credible witness, that the said A. B. is a person of evil fame and a reputed thief, and the said A. B. on his examination before me not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself, or of his way of living, and it also appearing to the satisfaction of me the said justice, that there is just ground to believe that the said A. B. was in such — as aforesaid with intent to commit felony on the person or property of H. M.'s subjects there being; I do therefore, in pursuance of an act passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled [here insert the title of this act] convict him the said A. B. of the said offence, and adjudge him to be a rogue and vagabond, within the intent and meaning of the statute made in the same year, intituled An Act for consolidating into one act, and amending the laws relating to idle and disorderly persons, rogues and vagabonds, incorrigible rogues and other vagrants, in Eng.; and that he, for his said offence, be committed to the house of correction at — until the next general [or quarter, as the case may be] sessions of the peace to be holden for the said county [city, or place, as the case may be] then and there to be Further dealt with according to law. [If the party be committed for a less time than until the sessions, then say, there to remain for the space of —.] Given under my hand and seal, the day and year first above written.

3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 22. [See ante s. 20. pl. 22.]

25. No conviction under this act, for any of the offences aforesaid, shall be quashed or set aside or adjudged void or insufficient for want of form; nor shall the same be removed by certiorari into H. M.'s court of K. B.; but that in all cases where the penalty shall exceed the sum of 5*l.*, or one month's imprisonment, if any person shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, such person may appeal to the justices of the peace at the next general or quarter sessions of the peace to be held for the county or city wherein the cause of complaint shall have arisen, such person at the time of his conviction entering into a recognizance with two sufficient sureties, conditioned personally to appear at the said sessions to try such appeal, and to abide the further judgment of the justices at such sessions assembled; and in case any such conviction of a reputed thief shall be affirmed at such sessions, the said justices may adjudge the offender to be a rogue and vagabond, and proceed against him or her in the same manner as they might have done if such rogue and vagabond had been committed to the house of correction until such general or quarter sessions; and in case such offender shall not appear pursuant to the said recognizance, the person so convicted by such justice shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, within the intent and meaning of the said last-recited act; and the justices at such sessions, or any two of them, shall issue their warrant to apprehend and commit the person so deemed an incorrigible rogue to some house of correction or common gaol within their jurisdiction, there to remain until the next general or quarter sessions for the said county, city, or liberty, as the case may be, then and there to be further dealt with according to law, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 23.

26. Whereas by 21 G. 3. c. 67. [Stat. Dig. tit. LONDON (Cattle), pl. 7.], intituled, An Act to prevent the mischiefs that arise from driving cattle within the cities of London and Westminster, and liberties thereof, and bills of mortality, a penalty not exceeding 20*s.* nor less than 5*s.* is imposed on every person, not being hired or employed to drive cattle, who pelts with stones or brickbats, or by any other means drives or hunts away, or sets any dog at any ox, heifer, cow, steer, or other cattle, without the consent of the owner of the same, or his servant: and whereas the said penalty has been found insufficient to deter evil-disposed persons from the practice of hunting bullocks; be it therefore further enacted, That if any person shall pelt, drive, or hunt, or set any dog at any ox, heifer, cow, or steer, contrary to the said last-recited act, such person shall, upon being convicted thereof according to the same act, forfeit and pay, on the first conviction, any sum not exceeding 40*s.* nor less than 20*s.*, and on the second and every future conviction, any sum not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 50*s.*, to the person who shall prosecute such offender to conviction, and in default of payment shall be committed to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding two months on the first conviction, nor five months on the second and every future conviction, in the manner prescribed by the said last-recited act, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 24.

27. Whereas it is expedient that the officers of the said public-office in Bow Street, and the horse and foot-patrol acting under the orders of the chief magistrate of that office, shall be sworn in as constables, and be empowered to act within the said several counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, and Kent; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said chief magistrate to administer to such persons respectively an oath duly to execute the office of constable within the counties aforesaid; and each of such persons, being sworn, shall have power to act as a constable for the preservation of the peace, and for the security of property against felonious and other unlawful modes of obtaining the same, within any and every of the said several counties, and for apprehending offenders against the peace, as well by night as by day; and shall have all such powers and authorities, privileges and advantages, as any constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his constablewick: provided, that when any such constable shall be dismissed from his said employment, or cease to belong to the said public-office in Bow Street, all powers and authorities, allowances, emoluments, privileges, and advantages, vested in the persons so dismissed or ceasing to belong to the said office, shall immediately cease and determine, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 25.

28. And whereas by 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 25. pl. 27., the chief magistrate of the public-office in Bow Street is empowered to administer to the officers of the said office, and to the horse and foot-patrol acting under the orders of the said chief magistrate, an oath duly to execute the office of constable within the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, and Kent; and each of the persons so sworn is empowered to act as a constable in the manner therein mentioned, and it is expedient to extend the powers of the persons so sworn as herein-after mentioned; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the chief magistrate of the said public-office in Bow Street to administer to such persons respectively an oath duly to execute the office of a constable within the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, and Kent, and within the royal palaces of H. M., and 10 miles thereof; and that each of such persons being so sworn, and each of the officers of the said public-office, and each of the horse and foot-patrol, already sworn under the said recited act shall, from and after the passing of this act [20th May 1825], have power to act as a constable for the said counties, and also within the said royal palaces, and 10 miles thereof, and shall have all such powers and authorities, privileges and advantages, as any constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his constablewick, 6 G. 4. c. 21. s. 2.

29. For the purpose of ensuring competency and fidelity in the watchmen and patrols employed by the aldermen and common council of the city of London, and the vestries and other parochial and local authorities within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality and the parishes herein-before [s. 7. pl. 9.] mentioned, when any case of incompetency, negligence, misconduct, or delinquency shall appear to any two justices of the peace acting within the said city or limits and parishes, against any such watchman or patrol, it shall be lawful for the said two justices, by writing under their hands and seals, to declare the same, and to pronounce the man so found incompetent or guilty of such negligence, misconduct, or delinquency, to be either suspended for a limited time, or absolutely dismissed from his office, as they shall think proper, and to give notice of such suspension or dismissal to the aldermen and common council of the ward, if in the city of London, or to the vestry or other authority by whom such watchman or patrol was appointed, if elsewhere; and every such watchman or patrol shall be incapable of being re-appointed, either for the same or any other ward, parish, or place, while such suspension or dismissal shall remain in force; and if no watchman or patrol shall be appointed by the alderman and common council of the ward, or by the vestry or other proper authority, at their next meeting after such notice shall be delivered to the deputy of the ward, or to the clerk or secretary of such vestry, or other proper authority, or left at the house or office where their business is usually transacted, the said justices shall appoint a successor, who shall exercise and enjoy the said duties and powers, and receive the same pay, emolument, and allowances, as if regularly appointed, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 26.

30. No man shall hereafter be appointed within the limits and parishes aforesaid, by any authority whatsoever, to be a watchman or patrol, who shall be above the age of 40 years, unless he shall have been previously and up to the time of such appointment employed in the said horse or foot-patrol, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 27.

31. It shall be lawful for the aldermen and common council of the respective wards in the city of London and liberties thereof, to make such allowance to superannuated watchmen, beadles, or patrols, as they shall think proper, to be paid out of the watch-rate to be raised in such wards respectively, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 28.

32. For the better administration of the police within the limits and parishes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the constable or headborough attending at any watchhouse within those limits and parishes, between the hours of eight in the afternoon and six in the forenoon, to take bail by recognizance, without any fee or reward, from any person who shall be brought into his custody within the said hours without the warrant of a justice, charged with any petty misdemeanor, if such constable shall deem it prudent to take such bail for the appearance of such person before the justices at the said public-office in Bow Street, or at one of the said police-offices, to be specified in the recognizance, for examination, at the hour of ten in the forenoon next after such recognizance shall be taken, unless that hour shall fall on a Sunday, or on one of the days of absence allowed by this act, and in that case at the like hour on the succeeding day; and that every recognizance so to be taken shall be of equal obligation on the parties entering into the same, and liable to the same proceedings for the estreating thereof, as if the same had been taken before one of H. M.'s justices of the peace; and the constable or headborough shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose in every watchhouse, the names, residence, and occupation of the party and his sureties entering into such recognizance, together with the condition thereof, and the sums respectively acknowledged, and shall lay the same before such justice as shall be present at the time and place when and where the party is required to appear; and if the party does not appear at the time and place required, or within one hour after, the justice shall cause a record of the recognizance to be drawn up, to be signed by the constable or headborough, and shall return the same to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace, with a certificate at the back thereof, signed by such justice, that the party has not complied with the obligation therein contained, and the clerk of the peace shall make the like estreats and schedules of every such recognizance as of recognizances forfeited in the sessions of the peace; and if the party not appearing shall apply, by any person on his behalf, to postpone the hearing of the charge against him, and the justice shall think fit to consent thereto, the justice shall be at liberty to enlarge the recognizance to such further time as he shall appoint; and when the matter shall be heard and determined, either by the dismissal of the complaint, or by binding the party over to answer the matter thereof at the sessions, or otherwise, the recognizance for the party's appearance before the justices shall be discharged without fee or reward, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 29.

33. If any person shall wilfully destroy or damage, or endeavour to destroy or damage, or be wilfully concerned in destroying or damaging, or endeavouring to destroy or damage, any boat belonging to or hired or employed by or by the authority of the justices appointed to attend at the Thames police-office, or any part of the sails, oars, or other tackle, stores, goods, or furniture contained in or belonging to any such boat, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every boat so destroyed or damaged, or attempted to be destroyed or damaged, or of which any of the tackle or other contents shall have been so destroyed or damaged, or attempted to be destroyed or damaged, any sum not exceeding 30*l.*, or shall suffer imprisonment for any time not exceeding three months, over and above any such damages as may be recoverable by action at law against any such offender, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 30.

34. It shall be lawful for every such Thames police-surveyor (subject to the orders of the said justices appointed to attend the Thames police-office), having just cause to suspect that any felony has been or is about to be committed in or on board of any ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel, lying or being in the said river, docks, or creeks, to enter at all times, as well by night as by day, into and upon every such ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel, and therein to take all necessary measures for the effectual prevention or detection of all felonies which he has just cause to suspect to have been or to be about to be committed in and upon the said river, docks, or creeks, and to apprehend and detain all persons suspected of being concerned in such felonies, and also all property so suspected to be stolen, and the same to produce before some justice, to be dealt with according to law, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 31.

35. It shall be lawful for every such Thames police-surveyor, at any time between sun-rising and sun-setting, to enter any ship or vessel (except H. M.'s ships) in the said river, docks and creeks, and to search the same for unlawful quantities of gunpowder, and also to exercise the same powers of seizing, removing to proper places, and detaining all such unlawful quantities of gunpowder found on board any such ship or vessel, and the barrels or other packages in which such gunpowder shall be, as are given to persons searching for unlawful quantities of gunpowder under a warrant of a justice, by virtue of 12 G. 3. c. 61. [Stat. Dig. tit. GUNPOWDER, pl. 16.], intituled, An Act to regulate the making, keeping, and carriage of gunpowder within G. B., and to repeal the laws heretofore made for any of those purposes, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 32.

36. It shall be lawful for any Thames police-constable or surveyor, or any other peace-officer within his jurisdiction, to stop, search, and detain in some place of safety, any boat, craft, or vessel which there shall be reason to suspect of having therein any of H. M.'s naval stores, or any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, materials, or any part of any cargo or lading, or any lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, pewter, solder, or other article, stolen, or unlawfully procured; and also to apprehend, search, and detain any person who may be reasonably suspected of having or conveying any such articles in such boat, craft, or vessel, or on land, and to convey every such person so apprehended (as soon as conveniently may be) before some justice of the peace; and if such person shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such justice how he or she came by the same, then the person so apprehended shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned; and such boat, craft, or vessel, with her tackle, apparel, furniture, and loading, shall, upon such conviction, be forfeited and disposed of as is herein-after directed, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 33.

37. If on information given on oath it shall appear to any justice that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any such articles as aforesaid, after having been so stolen or unlawfully obtained, are concealed or otherwise lodged in any dwelling-house, warehouse, yard, garden, or any other place, it shall be lawful for such justice, by special warrant under his hand and seal, directed to any Thames police-constable or surveyor as aforesaid, or other constable within his jurisdiction, to cause every such place to be searched at any time of the day, or by night, if power for that purpose be especially given in and by such warrant; and the said justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may moreover empower such constable or surveyor, with any such assistance as to the said justice may appear, or by such constable or surveyor may be found necessary (such constable or surveyor having previously made known such his authority), to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise; and if upon search thereupon made any such suspected article shall be found, then to convey the same forthwith to and before a justice, or to guard the same on the spot while the offenders are taken before a justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some place of safety, subject to the orders of a justice in manner above mentioned; and moreover to apprehend and convey before the said justice the person in whose house, lodging, or other place the same shall so have been found, as also every other person found in such house, lodging, or place, who shall appear to have been privy to the depositing of such article in such place, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to have been stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained; and if such persons respectively shall not immediately, or within some reasonable time to be assigned by the justice, make it appear to the satisfaction of the justice by what lawful means such articles came to be deposited or situated in such place as aforesaid, without any default on the part of such persons respectively, then the person in whose house, lodging, or other place any such suspected article was found, and also every other person so appearing to have been privy to the depositing thereof, knowing or having cause to suspect the same to have been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 34.

38. Provided, that if any person, on being so produced before any justice to give an account of any articles seized and detained, in any of the cases aforesaid, shall declare himself or herself to have bought, received, or otherwise obtained such articles of some other person, such justice is hereby authorized and required to examine every such other person, and also every other prior purchaser or pretended purchaser; and if upon the whole evidence it shall appear to such justice, that the party suspected, or the party upon whom such articles were found, or the person so produced, or such prior purchaser or pretended purchaser, or any of them, at the time of his or her receiving such articles into his or her possession, did believe or had reasonable cause to believe that such articles, or any part thereof, were at any time and by any person unlawfully come by or obtained, it shall be lawful for such justice to adjudge such party to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and the party so convicted shall thereupon suffer as herein-after mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 35.

39. For the more effectual prevention of accidents by fire and other mischiefs upon the said river, be it further enacted, That if any master or commander, or other officer of any ship or vessel (except H. M.'s ships,) shall, while such ship or vessel shall lie or be in the said river between Westminster Bridge and Blackwall, keep any gun on board such ship or vessel shotted or loaded with ball, or cause or permit to be fired or discharged any gun on board such ship or vessel, before sun-rising or after sun-setting, such master, commander, or other officer shall, for every such gun so kept shotted or loaded, forfeit the sum of 5*s.*; and for every gun so fired or discharged, the sum of 10*s.*; and if any master, commander, or other officer of any such ship or vessel, or any other person on board of the same, or any person on board of any barge, lighter, boat, or other craft or vessel, shall, while such ship, barge, lighter, boat, craft, or vessel shall lie or be in the said river between Westminster Bridge and Blackwall, heat or melt, or cause or permit to be heated or melted by fire, logger-heat shot, or any other means, on board any ship, barge, lighter, boat, craft, or vessel whatever, any pitch, tar, rosin, grease, tallow, oil, or other combustible matter, every person so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; and any one of the justices appointed to attend at the Thames police-office, or any other justice within his jurisdiction, is hereby authorized and required, upon any information exhibited or complaint made in that behalf, within 10 days next after any such offence shall have been committed, to summon the party accused, and also the witnesses on either side, or after oath made of the commission of any of the facts above mentioned by one credible witness, to issue a warrant to apprehend the party accused, and upon the party's appearance or contempt in not appearing (upon the proof of notice given), such justice shall proceed to the examination of the witness or witnesses on oath, and upon due proof thereof, either by the voluntary confession of the party, or by the oath of one credible witness, to give judgment or sentence; and in case the party accused shall be convicted of such offence, it shall be lawful for such justice to commit such offender to prison, there to remain for any time not exceeding the space of two months, unless the penalty shall be sooner paid; and if any person shall find himself aggrieved by the judgment of any such justice, he may appeal to the next court of general quarter sessions for the county or city where such offence shall have been committed, on giving immediate notice of such appeal, and finding sufficient security, to the satisfaction of such justice, for prosecuting such appeal with effect, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; and the said court are hereby empowered to summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the matter, and in case the judgment shall be affirmed, to award the person appealing to pay such costs occasioned by such appeal as shall seem meet; and one moiety of all money recovered on account of every such penalty shall be distributed, at the discretion of the justice making the conviction, to such person as he shall judge to have been instrumental in detecting and prosecuting the offender, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 36.

40. Every person who for the purpose of protecting or preventing any goods, wares, merchandize, or other articles whatsoever from being seized, on suspicion of their being stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained, or of preventing the same from being produced or made to serve as evidence of or concerning any felony or misdemeanor, shall frame or cause to be framed, or be anywise concerned in framing or causing to be framed, any bill of parcels containing any false statement in regard to the name or abode of any alleged vendor, the quantity or quality of any goods, the place from whence, or the conveyance by which the same were furnished, the price agreed upon or charged for the same, or any other particular, knowing such statement to be false, or who shall fraudulently produce such bill of parcels knowing the same to have been fraudulently framed, shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned; and may moreover, at the discretion of any justice in whose jurisdiction such offence shall be committed, be published and advertised as a fabricator of false bills of parcels, or as a convicted or reputed receiver of goods stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained as the case may be, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 37.

41. Whereas, for the purpose of increasing the facility of depredation it hath been a common practice among persons concerned in the landing and warehousing of merchandize from on board ships and vessels in the said river, wilfully to injure and promote the opening and breaking of casks, bags, and other packages, and the spilling of their contents; for remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That if any person employed in the loading, landing, or warehousing of any goods, or any other person, shall wilfully or through culpable negligence or carelessness, cause or suffer, or be concerned in causing or suffering to be broken, bruised, pierced, started, cut, torn, or otherwise injured, any cask, box, chest, bag, or other package, containing or being designed and prepared for containing any goods while on board of any barge, lighter, or other craft lying or being in the said river, or any dock, creek, quay, wharf, or landing-place adjacent to the same, or in or in the way to or from any warehouse to or from which such package shall have been removed, shall be removing, or about to be removed, with intent that the contents of such package, or any part thereof, may be spilled or dropped from such package, every person so offending shall for every such offence be deemed and adjudged guilty of misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 38.

42. If for the purpose of preventing the seizure or discovery of any materials, furniture, stores, or merchandize belonging to or having been part of the cargo of any ship or vessel lying in the said river or the docks or creeks adjacent thereto, or of any other articles unlawfully obtained from any such ship or vessel, any such or any other article shall be wilfully let fall or thrown into the river, or in any other manner directly or purposely conveyed away or endeavoured to be conveyed away from any ship, boat, barge, lighter, craft, wharf, quay, or other landing-place, every person being party, privy, or accessory to such letting-fall, throwing, or conveyance, or to any previous instructions or premeditated design so to let fall, throw, or convey away any such article with any such purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor; and every Thames police-surveyor, or constable or other peace-officer within his jurisdiction, shall apprehend and detain every such person, and forthwith convey him or her before some justice, and shall also seize and detain any boat in which such person shall be found, or out of which any such article shall be so let fall, thrown, or conveyed away; and upon the conviction of such person, such boat, with her tackle, apparel, furniture, and loading, shall be forfeited and disposed of as is herein-after directed, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 39.

43. For every offence herein-before declared to be a misdemeanor, or for which no special penalty is herein-before appointed, the offender shall, at the discretion of the justice before whom the conviction shall take place, either forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, or suffer imprisonment for any time not exceeding two months, in any gaol or house of correction within the jurisdiction of such justice; and in case of the adjudication of a pecuniary penalty, and non-payment thereof, it shall be lawful for such justice to commit the offender to any gaol or house of correction for the like term, unless such penalty shall be sooner paid; and one moiety of every such pecuniary penalty shall be paid to such receiver as aforesaid for the purposes of this act, and the other moiety thereof, under the direction of the justice by whom the same shall have been adjudged, shall either be paid and applied to the use of the informer alone, or be distributed between such persons as shall have contributed to the conviction of the offender, in such shares and proportions as such justice shall think fit; and that when any articles shall be seized by virtue of this act, and the person in whose possession the same shall have been found shall be convicted of a misdemeanor as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the justice before whom the conviction shall take place, to cause such articles to be advertised in some public newspaper, to the end that persons having a right thereto may claim and receive the same within 30 days from the date of such advertisement, in the manner and upon the conditions directed in and by 2 G. 3. c. 28. [Stat. Dig. tit. THAMES POLICE, pl. 1.], intituled, An Act to prevent the committing of thefts and frauds by persons navigating bum-boats and other boats upon the river Thames; and if no person shall prove his property and right to the said articles within the said 30 days, the same shall be sold for the best price that can reasonably be gotten for the same; and after deducting the charges according to the said recited act, the residue of the produce thereof shall be paid to the said receiver, for the purposes of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 40.

44. In every case in which complaint shall be made of any offence by this act declared to be a misdemeanor, or for which any pecuniary penalty is herein-before appointed, with or without imprisonment, in addition thereto or in lieu thereof, the matter of such complaint, if the offence shall have been committed or the offender apprehended within the jurisdiction of the city of London, may be heard and determined by the lord mayor, recorder, or one of the aldermen of the said city, and not elsewhere; but if the offence shall have been committed or the offender apprehended out of the said jurisdiction, such complaint may be heard and determined, either by one of the justices appointed to the Thames police-office as aforesaid, or by any other justice within whose jurisdiction the offence shall have been committed or the offender apprehended; and every conviction thereupon had, shall be certified, filed, and entered in such manner as is directed in and by 2 G. 3. c. 28., with respect to convictions under that act, and may also be drawn up in such form and manner, mutatis mutandis, as is appointed in and by the same act; and neither such conviction, nor any proceeding previous thereto, shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise, into any court of record, but such conviction shall be final and conclusive, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 41.

45. Whereas the punishments for misdemeanors provided in and by the 2 G. 3. c. 28. have been found insufficient for the preventing of such offences; be it enacted, That every person who shall be guilty of any of the offences respectively made and declared to be misdemeanors in and by the said act, may be punished at the discretion of the justice or justices by or before whom the offender shall be convicted, either with the punishment appointed in and by the said act, or by such other punishment as is hereby appointed for and in cases of offences declared to be misdemeanors in and by this present act; and that all the powers and provisions of the said last recited act, respecting the obstruction of its execution, and the commencement and prosecution of actions against justices, and their officers acting thereunder, shall extend to all things done, and to all persons acting under this act, as fully as if the same powers and provisions were herein repeated and re-enacted, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 42.

46. In all cases in which it is directed by the said last recited act, that any boat with her tackle and appurtenances, which shall be forfeited, shall be burnt and destroyed, it shall be lawful for any justice before whom any person shall have been convicted of any offence, whereby any boat is or should be adjudged to be forfeited under that act, and also for any justice by whom any boat shall be adjudged to be forfeited under this act, to direct such boat, with her tackle and appurtenances, either to be burnt and destroyed, or to be restored to the owners thereof, or to be publicly sold, and the produce of such sale to be applied in like manner as other forfeitures under this act, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 43.

47. Whereas disputes frequently arise between bargemen, lightermen, watermen, ballastmen, coal-whippers, coal-porters, sailors, lumpers, riggers, shipwrights, caulkers, and other labourers who work for hire in or upon the said river, and the docks, creeks, wharfs, quays, and places adjacent, respecting wages or money due to them for work, and the owners, masters, or commanders of vessels and their agents, and the owners, wharfingers, or occupiers of such wharfs or quays, and their agents and other persons employing such labourers; be it further enacted, That all differences, complaints, and disputes which shall happen and arise between any bargemen, lightermen, watermen, ballastmen (except Trinity-ballastmen), coal-whippers, coal-porters, sailors, lumpers, riggers, shipwrights, caulkers, or other labourers who work for hire in or upon the said river, or the docks, creeks, wharfs, quays or places adjacent, and the owners, masters, or commanders of vessels or their agents on the said river, or the docks or creeks thereunto adjoining, or the owners, wharfingers, or occupiers of such wharfs or quays, or their agents or other employers, respecting wages or money due to such labourers for work, whether the same persons be employed for any certain time, or in any other manner, shall be heard and determined by the justices appointed to the Thames police-office, or any one of them, or any other justice within his jurisdiction; and every such justice is hereby empowered to summon before him any such master or commander of any vessel, or any such owner thereof, or his agent, or the owner, wharfinger, or occupier of any wharf or quay, or their respective agents, or any other employer; and if any such master, commander, owner, wharfinger, occupier, agent, or employer, shall refuse or neglect to attend such summons, then every such justice is hereby empowered to issue his warrant to bring such person summoned before him, to answer such complaint, and to examine upon oath any such bargemen, lightermen, waterman, ballastman (other than any Trinity-ballastman), coal-whipper, coal-porter, sailor, lumper, rigger, shipwright, caulker or other labourer, or any other witness or witnesses touching any such complaint or dispute, and to make such order for payment of so much wages to such bargemen, lighterman, waterman, ballastman (other than any Trinity-ballastman), coal-whipper, coal-porter, sailor, lumper, rigger, shipwright, caulker, or other labourer, as to such justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided that the sum ordered do not exceed 5*l.*, besides all reasonable costs attending the prosecution of the complaint, which costs the justice is empowered to order; and in case of refusal to pay, or nonpayment of any sum so ordered, by the space of 24 hours next after such determination, such justice may issue forth his warrant to levy the same, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person ordered to pay the same, together with the charge of such distress and sale; and if no sufficient distress shall be found, such justice shall commit the person ordered to make such payment to prison, for any time not exceeding one month, unless the sum so ordered shall be sooner paid; and every such order shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be removable by certiorari or otherwise, into any court whatsoever, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 44.

48. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize or empower any justice, except the lord mayor, aldermen, and recorder of the city of London, for the time being, or some or one of them, to hear and determine any such differences, complaints, or disputes as shall or may arise for or in respect of any employment or work done within the said city of London, or the suburbs and liberties thereof, or on board of any ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat or other vessel lying or being on the north side of the river, between the Tower of London and the western extremity of the Temple, adjoining Essex Street in the county of Middlesex, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 45.

49. Provided, that nothing in this act shall extend to deprive the lord mayor, and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, of any right, privilege, or jurisdiction heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised, or enjoyed within the town and borough of Southwark, or the liberties thereof, or to prevent the said lord mayor for the time being, or such of the aldermen of the said city as have borne the office of mayoralty, or the recorder of the said city for the time being, from acting as justices of the peace within the said town and borough of Southwark, and the liberties thereof, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this act had not been made; nor to deprive the lord mayor and commonalty and citizens of the said city of any right, privilege, immunity, or jurisdiction which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised, or enjoyed upon the said river, or the lord mayor of the said city for the time being as conservator of the said river; nor to prevent the said lord Mayor, and the said aldermen and recorder of the said city, from acting as justices of the peace upon the said river, or taking cognizance of offences committed upon or within the limits of the same, in such manner as they might or would have done in case this act had not been made, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 46.

50. Provided, that nothing in this act shall extend to deprive the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, or the high steward or high bailiff of the city and liberty of Westminster, for the time being, or their respective lawful deputies, of any rights, privileges, or jurisdictions which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised, or enjoyed within the said city and liberty, in such and the like manner as they could or might have done in case this act had not been made, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 47.

51. Provided also that nothing in this act contained shall extend to prejudice or derogate from any of the rights, privileges, or authorities of the master, warden, and assistants of the guild, fraternity, or brotherhood of the most glorious and undivided Trinity, and of Saint Clement, in the parish of Deptford Strond in the county of Kent, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 48.

52. This act shall commence and have effect from the expiration of the 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118, [which expired on 5th July 1822, see s. 1. of that act, and which is the date of this act,] of the last session of parliament, and shall continue and be in force for the term of seven years, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 49.

53. This act shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a public act; and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all judges, justices, and other persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded, 3 G. 4. c. 55. s. 50.

54. All powers and authorities, privileges, advantages, exemptions, duties, obligations, and liabilities, by the said recited act conferred and imposed upon the magistrates of the said public-office in Bow Street, and upon the clerks, constables, and others therein employed, and on the horse and foot-patrol acting under the orders of the chief magistrate of that office, shall, in case of the removal of that office from the said street to any other street or place, be used and exercised, enjoyed and performed by the magistrates, clerks, officers, patrol, and others respectively, at the office to be substituted for the said public-office in Bow Street, in as full and ample manner, to all intents and purposes, as if such substituted office had been expressly named in the said recited act and this act, 6 G. 4. c. 21. s. 5.

55. It shall be lawful for two of the justices appointed under the said recited act to any of the police-offices thereby established, upon the application of five of the inhabitants of any street or square, or of the proprietor of any place of public resort, within the limits of the bills of mortality and the parishes therein enumerated, to appoint a competent number of persons, recommended by such inhabitants or such proprietor respectively, and approved of by such justices, to be constables, to keep the peace within such street or square, or such place of public resort, and the avenues leading thereto, for such period of time as such justices shall deem fit and necessary, and to administer an oath to every such constable, duly to execute that office within the limits and for the period of time for which he shall be appointed; and every constable so sworn shall, within the limits and during the period for which he shall serve, have all such powers and authorities, privileges and advantages, as any constable duly appointed hath or shall have within his constableness, and shall be paid by the inhabitants or proprietor respectively, on whose application he shall be appointed, such wages as shall be deemed reasonable and adequate by the justices by whom he shall be appointed, 6 G. 4. c. 21. s. 4.

56. Whensoever any offender convicted of a misdemeanor of a fraudulent nature under the said recited act, shall be adjudged to imprisonment in the house of correction, it shall be lawful for the convicting justice, if he shall so think fit, to adjudge that such offender shall be there kept to hard labour, 6 G. 4. c. 21. s. 5.

57. And for preventing the evasion of that provision in the said recited act, whereby justices of the peace are prohibited, except in certain cases, from taking any fees within the limits of the bills of mortality, and certain parishes in the said act enumerated; be it further enacted, That every summons which shall, after the passing of this act, be issued by any justice of the peace of the counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, requiring any person residing within the said limits and parishes, to appear at any place without those limits and parishes, to answer any information or complaint touching any matter arising within the said limits and parishes, shall be utterly void and of none effect; any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 21. s. 6.

58. Every offence committed against the said recited act, and thereby made punishable under 3 G. 4. c. 40. [post, tit. VAGRANT], intituled, An Act for consolidating into one act and amending the laws relating to idle and disorderly persons, rogues, and vagabonds, incorrigible rogues, and other vagrants, in Eng., is and shall be punishable and punished under the provisions of 5 G. 4. c. 83. [post, tit. VAGRANT], intituled, An Act for the punishment of idle and disorderly persons and rogues and vagabonds, in that part of G. B. called Eng.; and that the form of conviction prescribed by the said first-recited act, shall and may be altered and adapted as the circumstances of the case shall require, 6 G. 4. c. 26. s. 7.

POOR.

1. For the amendment of the law respecting the settlement of the poor, as far as regards renting tenements and paying parochial taxes, 6 G. 4. c. 57.

2. Whereas the settlement of the poor has been made, in some instances, to depend upon the annual value of tenements which they may have rented, or upon the annual value of tenements in virtue of which they have paid parochial rates: and whereas the ascertaining such value, in such respective cases, has given rise to very expensive litigation; and whereas doubts have been entertained, whether 59 G. 3. c. 50. [Stat. Dig. tit. Poor, pl. 215.], has been effectual for the purpose of altering the law in respect of the necessity of proving the annual value of tenements so rented; and it is expedient that further provision be made relating thereto: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [22d June 1825], the 59 G. 3. c. 50. [Stat. Dig. tit. Poor, pl. 194. 215. see Rex v. Inhabitants of Benneworth, 2 Barn. & Cres., 775.], intituled, An Act to amend the laws respecting the settlement of the poor, so far as regards renting tenements, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, 6 G. 4. c. 57. s. 1.

3. No person shall acquire a settlement in any parish or township maintaining its own poor, by or by reason of settling upon, renting, or paying parochial rates for any tenement, not being his or her own property, unless such tenement shall consist of a separate and distinct dwelling-house or building, or of land, or of both, bonâ fide rented by such person, in such parish or township, at and for the sum of 10*l.* a year at the least, for the term of one whole year; nor unless such house or building, or land, shall be occupied under such yearly hiring, and the rent for the same, to the amount of 10*l.*, actually paid, for the term of one whole year, at the least: provided, that it shall not be necessary to prove the actual value of such tenement; any thing in any act or acts, or any construction of or implication from any act or acts, or any usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 57. s. 2.

PRISON AND PRISONER (See GAOL).

PRIZE.

1. To extend two acts of His late Majesty for distribution of prize-money, to all cases of capture that have been made by foreign ships or land forces in conjunction with H. M.'s ships or land forces, 4 G. 4. c. 65.
2. Whereas 47 G. 3. sess. 1. c. 47. [Stat. Dig. this tit., STATS. rep.,

&c. pl. 8.], was passed, intituled, *An Act to authorize the payment of prize money arising from captures made by ships of His Sicilian Majesty in conjunction with British ships to the Sicilian envoy, for the use of the officers and men of such ships; and also the payment of money arising out of proceeds of prizes or captures made by any other ships or vessels belonging to foreign states in conjunction with H. M.'s ships; And another act, 48 G. 3. c. 100. [Stat. Dig. this tit., STATS. rep., pl. 8.] was passed, intituled, *An Act for extending the provisions of an act made in the 47th year of His present Majesty, so far as respects the payment of prize-money arising by captures made by foreign in conjunction with British ships, to captures made by the land forces of foreign states in conjunction with the British; and whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said act should be extended to all like cases of capture, as therein described, occurring previous to the termination of the late war, not therein provided for: be it therefore enacted, That the provisions of the said acts shall be extended to all cases of capture therein described, that may have been made by foreign ships or land forces in conjunction with H. M.'s ships or land forces in the several wars in which H. M. was engaged, between the time of the passing of the said acts and the termination of the late war: and that all matters and things contained in the said acts shall be so extended, in as full a manner as if they had been herein severally expressed, 4 G. 4. c. 65.

QUARANTINE.

1. To repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 78.

2. Whereas it is expedient to repeal the several laws relating to the performance of quarantine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof: be it therefore enacted, That from and after 1st June 1825, all and every act [see 45 G. 3. c. 10., 46 G. 3. c. 98., 50 G. 3. c. 20., 51 G. 3. c. 46. Stat. Dig. this tit., all which acts are REP. 6 G. 4. c. 105.], and all parts of acts of the parliament of G. B. and Ire. respectively, and of the parliament of the U. K., relating to the performance of quarantine, or relating to the charging any duty or duties upon vessels which may be liable to, or have performed quarantine, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; save and except such acts, and such parts of acts, as relate to the payment and recovery of any duties imposed by the said acts, or any parts of acts, which shall be due and unpaid on the said 1st June by any person under any or either of the said acts; and also save and except as to any fine, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment, or fines, penalties, forfeitures, or punishments, to which any such person may be liable by reason of the same; and also save and except as to any action, suit, prosecution, or other proceeding brought or commenced, or which shall hereafter be brought or commenced, for or on account of any such offence so done or committed as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 1.

3. From and after the 1st June 1825, all vessels, as well H. M.'s ships of war as others, coming from or having touched at any place from whence H. M., by and with the advice of his or their privy council, shall have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of H. M.'s subjects may be brought, and all vessels and boats receiving any person, goods, wares, and merchandize, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other article whatsoever, from or out of any vessel so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid, whether such persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles, shall have come or been brought in such vessels, or such persons shall have gone, or articles have been put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels at any port or place in the U. K., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and whether such vessels were or were not bound to any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other article whatsoever on board of any vessels so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid, or on board of any such receiving-vessels or boats as aforesaid, shall be and be considered to be liable to quarantine within the meaning of this act, and of any order or orders which shall be made by H. M. in council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection, from the time of the departure of such vessels from such infected place as aforesaid, or from the time when such persons, goods, wares, merchandize, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles shall have been received on board respectively; and all such vessels and boats as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares, and merchandize, and all other articles as aforesaid, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid, or going or being put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles as aforesaid, on board such receiving-vessel or boat as aforesaid, shall, upon their arrival at any such port or place, be obliged to perform quarantine in such place or places, for such time, and in such manner as shall from time to time be directed by H. M., by his order or orders in council, notified by proclamation, or published in the London Gazette; and that until such vessels and boats, persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles as aforesaid, shall have respectively performed, and shall be duly discharged from quarantine, no such person, goods, wares, or merchandize, or other articles as aforesaid, or any of them, shall, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, come or be brought on shore, or go and be put on board any other vessel or boat, in order to come or be brought on shore in any such port or place, although such vessels so coming from such infected place as aforesaid may not be bound to any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, unless in such manner and in such cases, and by such licence as shall be directed or permitted by such order or orders made by H. M. in council, as aforesaid; and all such vessels and boats, whether coming from such infected place as aforesaid, or being otherwise liable to quarantine as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares and merchandize, and other articles as aforesaid, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats, or going or being put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, and although such vessels or boats shall not be bound to any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid; and all commanders, masters, or other persons, having the charge or command of any such vessels or boats, whether coming from any infected place, or being otherwise liable to quarantine as aforesaid, shall be subject to all provisions, rules, regulations, and restrictions contained in this act, or in any order or orders which shall be made by H. M. in council, as aforesaid, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection, and to all the pains, penalties, forfeitures, and punishments contained in this act, for any breach or disobedience thereof, or of any order or orders of H. M. in council made under the authority thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 2.

4. It shall and may be lawful for H. M., by his or their order in council, or for the lords or others of his privy council, or any two or more of them, by their order from time to time, as often as they may see reason to apprehend that the yellow fever or other highly infectious distemper prevails on the continent of America, or in the West Indies, to require that every vessel coming from or having touched at any port or place on the continent of America or in the West Indies, shall come to an anchor at certain places to be appointed from time to time by the commissioners of customs, (who are hereby authorized to make such appointment,) for the purpose of having the state of health of the crew of such vessel ascertained before such vessel shall be permitted to enter the port whereto she shall be bound, or any other port of the U. K.; but that such vessel shall not be deemed liable to quarantine unless it shall be afterwards specially ordered under that restraint, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 5.

5. Provided, that it shall and may be lawful for the lord lieutenant, or other chief governor or governors of Ire., by his or their order or orders, made by the advice and consent of H. M.'s privy council in Ire., and notified by proclamation, to give directions, where the urgency of the case shall require, as to the place, and as to the time and manner in which ships and vessels arriving, and persons, goods, and merchandizes coming or imported into any port or place in Ire., shall make their quarantine, in pursuance of the provisions of this act; and that until such ships, vessels, persons, goods, and merchandizes shall have respectively performed and been discharged from such quarantine, pursuant to the provisions of this act, it shall and may be lawful for any such persons, goods, or merchandizes, or any of them, to come or be brought on shore, or to go or be put on board any other ship or vessel in any place in Ire., in such cases, and by such licence as shall or may be directed or permitted by any order or orders to be made by the lord lieutenant, &c. of Ire., by the advice and consent of the privy council there, and notified as aforesaid; and that all such ships and vessels, and the persons or goods coming or imported in, or going and being put on board such ships or vessels, and all ships, vessels, boats, and persons receiving any goods or persons out of the same, and all persons going on board any such ship or vessels, shall be subject to such orders, rules, and directions concerning quarantine and the preventing infection, as shall be made from time to time by the lord lieutenant, &c. of Ire. in council, and shall be notified by proclamation as aforesaid, in pursuance of the provisions contained in this act; and that the publication in the Dublin Gazette of any order or orders of the lord lieutenant, &c. and council, made in pursuance of this act, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient notice to all persons concerned, of all matters contained in any such order or orders respectively, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 4.

6. And whereas certain sorts of goods and merchandize are more especially liable to retain infection, and may be brought from places infected into other countries, and from thence imported into the U. K., or the islands aforesaid; be it enacted, That all such goods and merchandize as shall be particularly specified for that purpose in any order or orders made by H. M. in council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection as aforesaid, which shall be brought or imported into any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, from any foreign country or place, in any vessel whatever, and the vessels in which the same shall be brought, and also all vessels which shall arrive from any port or place whatever, under any alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, shall be subject and liable to such regulations and restrictions as shall be made by such order or orders of H. M. in council as aforesaid, respecting the same, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 5.

7. It shall and may be lawful for the lords and others of H. M.'s privy council, or any two or more of them, to make such order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessels shall not have come from any place from which H. M. in council may have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague or any such infectious disease or distemper may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles as aforesaid on board the same; and in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, to make such orders and give such direction, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper, and the rest of H. M.'s subjects, as shall appear to the said lords or others of H. M.'s privy council, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose, and likewise to make such orders as they shall see fit, for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandize, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them or any of them from quarantine; and all such orders so made by the lords or others of the privy council, or any two or more of them as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any order or orders made by H. M. in council concerning quarantine, notified by proclamation or published in the London Gazette, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 6.

8. If the plague, or such other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, shall appear on board any vessel within or without the streights of Gibraltar, then the commander, master, or other person having the charge or command thereof, shall immediately proceed to such place as H. M. in council shall from time to time direct and appoint; where being arrived, he shall make known his case to some officer of the customs there, who shall with all possible speed send intelligence thereof to the commissioners of the customs in the port of London, to the end that such precautions may be used to prevent the spreading of the infection, as the case shall require; and the said vessel shall there remain until directions shall be given thereto by the lords or others of H. M.'s privy council, or any two or more of them; nor shall any of the crew or passengers on board thereof go on shore; and such master and every other person on board such vessel shall obey such directions as he shall receive from the lords and others of H. M.'s privy council, or any two or more of them as aforesaid; and the said commander, master, or any other person on board such vessel as aforesaid, who shall not act conformably to the provisions and regulations herein directed, or shall act in disobedience to such directions as shall be received on board such vessel from the lords or others of the privy council, or any two or more of them as aforesaid, shall forfeit the sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 7.

9. Every commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel liable to the performance of quarantine, shall be and is hereby required, at all times, when such vessel shall meet with any other vessel at sea, or shall be within two leagues of the coast of the U. K., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to hoist a signal to denote that his vessel is liable to the performance of quarantine, which signal shall in the day-time, if the said vessel shall have a clean bill of health, be a large yellow flag, of six breadths of bunting, at the maintop mast-head; and if such vessel shall not have a clean bill of health, then a like yellow flag, with a circular mark or ball, entirely black in the middle thereof, whose diameter shall be equal to two breadths of bunting; and in the night-time the signal shall in both cases be a large signal lanthorn with a light therein (such as is commonly used on board H. M.'s ships of war), at the same mast-head; and such commander, master, or other person shall keep such signals respectively, as the case shall be, hoisted during such time as the said vessel shall continue within sight of such other vessel, or within two leagues of the said coasts or islands, and while so in sight, or within such distance, until such vessel so liable to quarantine as aforesaid shall have arrived at the port or place where it is to perform quarantine, and until it shall have been legally discharged from the performance thereof; on failure whereof such commander, master, or other person having charge of such ship or vessel so liable to the performance of quarantine, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 8.

10. Every commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel on board whereof the plague or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of H. M.'s subjects shall actually be, shall be and is hereby required at all times when such vessel shall meet with any other vessel at sea, or shall be within two leagues of the coast of the U. K., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to hoist a signal to denote that his vessel has the plague or other infectious disease or distemper highly dangerous to the health of H. M.'s subjects actually on board thereof, which signal shall be in the day-time a flag of yellow and black, borne quarterly, of eight-breadths of bunting, at the maintop mast-head; and in the night-time, the signal shall be two large signal lanthorns, such as are commonly used on board of H. M.'s ships of war, one over the other, at the same mast-head; and such commander, master, or other person shall keep such signal hoisted during such time as the said vessel so having the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid on board thereof, shall continue within sight of such other vessel, or within two leagues of the coasts or islands aforesaid, while so in sight or within such distance, until such vessel so having the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid on board thereof, shall have arrived at the port or place where it is to perform quarantine, and until it shall have been legally discharged from the performance thereof; on failure thereof such commander, master, or other person having charge of such vessel, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 9.

11. If any commander, master, or other person having the charge or command of any vessel, and knowing that the same is not liable to the performance of quarantine, shall hoist such signal as aforesaid, or either of them, by day or night respectively, such commander or other person as aforesaid shall forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 10.

12. From and after the 1st July 1825, as to all vessels arriving from any places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or Cape Horn in South America, and after the 1st Aug. 1825, as to all vessels arriving from any parts of Africa, or America not beyond those capes, and from the West Indies and Mediterranean, and from after the 1st June 1825, as to all vessels arriving from any other places, every commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel coming from foreign parts, shall give to the pilot who shall go on board such vessel a written paper, containing a true account of the names of the place and country at which such vessel shall have loaded, and also of all the places at which any such vessel shall have touched on the homeward voyage, on pain of forfeiting the sum of 100*l.* for any neglect or refusal to give such paper, or for any false representation or wilful omission therein; and if by any proclamation or order of H. M. in council, made after the departure of any vessel from the U. K. and the said islands, and then in force, vessels coming from any place mentioned in any such paper shall be liable to the performance of quarantine, such pilot shall immediately give notice thereof to the commander or other person aforesaid, of such vessel, on pain of forfeiting the sum of 100*l.* for any neglect therein; and such commander or other person shall thereupon hoist a proper signal, according to the provisions of this act, and under the penalties in this act contained for any neglect or refusal in respect of hoisting such signals, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 11. [See 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 36. tit. PILOTAGE, pl. 37.]

13. Every commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel coming from foreign parts, which shall not be liable to quarantine in respect of the place from whence such vessel comes, shall give to the pilot who shall go on board of such vessel a written paper, containing a true account of the different articles composing the cargo of such vessel, on pain of forfeiting the sum of 50*l.* for any neglect or refusal to give such paper, or for any false representation or wilful omission therein; and if by any proclamation or order of H. M. in council then in force, vessels having on board any of the articles mentioned in such paper shall be liable to the performance of quarantine, such pilot shall immediately give notice thereof to the commander or other person having the charge of such vessel, on pain of forfeiting 100*l.* for any neglect therein, and such commander or other person shall thereupon hoist a signal, according to the provisions and under the respective penalties in this act contained, for any neglect or refusal in respect of hoisting such signals; and in case any pilot shall bring or cause to be brought or conducted any vessel liable to the performance of quarantine, into any place which is not or shall not be specially appointed for the reception of vessels so liable, after receiving such paper as aforesaid, whereby it shall have been made appear that such vessel was liable to the performance of quarantine, or without requiring and receiving such paper as aforesaid, unless compelled thereto by stress of weather, adverse winds, or accidents of the sea, such pilot shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 200*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 12.

14. If any pilot being on board, or any commander, master, or other person having the charge of any vessel coming from foreign parts, whether such vessel shall be liable to quarantine or not, shall be required by any officer of the customs, authorized to act in the service of quarantine, to bring to such vessel, to the end that the commander, master, or other person having the charge thereof may be interrogated, according to the provision of this act, and shall neglect or refuse to bring to such vessel, as soon as it can be done with safety, in obedience to such requisition, every such pilot, commander, master, or other person having the charge of any such vessel shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 15.

15. And to the end that it may be better known whether any vessel be actually infected with the plague or other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, or whether such vessel, or the mariners or passengers coming, or the cargo imported in the same, are liable to any orders touching quarantine; be it further enacted, That when any country or place shall be known or suspected to be infected with the plague or other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, or when any order or orders shall be made by H. M. in council concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection as aforesaid, then and in such case, as often as any vessel shall attempt to enter into any port or place in the U. K., or of the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, whether such port shall have been appointed for the performance of quarantine or not, the superintendent or assistant at such port or place, or if not, the principal officer of customs at such port or place, or such officer of the customs as shall be authorized to act in that behalf, shall go off to such vessel, and shall, at a convenient distance from such vessel, demand of the commander, master, or other person having charge of such vessel, and such commander, master, or other person shall, upon such demand, give a true answer in writing or otherwise, and upon oath or not upon oath, according as he shall by such superintendent or his assistant, or other officer of the customs authorized as aforesaid, be required, to all such questions or interrogatories as shall be put to him by virtue and in pursuance of such regulations and directions as H. M. by order in council shall be pleased to prescribe; and in case such commander or master, or other person having charge of such vessel shall, upon such demand made as aforesaid, refuse to make a true discovery in any of the particulars concerning which he shall be interrogated in manner aforesaid, or in case he shall not be required to answer such questions or interrogatories upon oath, shall give a false answer to any such question or interrogatory as aforesaid, such commander, master or other person having charge of such vessel, for every such offence shall forfeit the sum of 200*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 14.

16. In case it shall appear upon such examination or otherwise, that such vessel is under such circumstances as shall render it liable to perform quarantine, and that the port or place where it so arrived, or at which it attempts to enter as aforesaid, is not the port or place where it ought to perform quarantine, in which case it shall and may be lawful to and for the officers of any of H. M.'s ships of war, or of any of H. M.'s forts or garrisons, and all other H. M.'s officers, upon notice thereof given to them, or any of them respectively, and to and for any other person whom they shall call to their aid and assistance, and such officers and other persons are hereby required to oblige such vessel to go and repair to such place as hath been or shall be appointed for performance of quarantine, and to use all necessary means for that purpose, either by firing of guns upon such vessel, or by any other kind of necessary force whatsoever; and in case any such vessel shall come from, or shall have touched at any place infected by the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, or shall have any person on board actually infected with the plague or other such infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, and the commander, master, or other person having charge of such vessel, knowing that the place from whence he came, or at which he had touched as aforesaid, was infected with the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper, or knowing some person on board to be actually infected with the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, shall refuse or omit to disclose the same upon such examination as aforesaid, or shall wilfully omit to hoist the signal herein-before directed, to denote that his vessel is liable to the performance of quarantine, at the times and on the occasions herein directed with respect to the same, such commander, master, or other person having charge of such vessel shall forfeit the sum of 500*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 15.

17. Every commander, master, or other person having charge of any vessel which shall be ordered to perform quarantine as aforesaid, shall forthwith, after his arrival at the place appointed for the performance of quarantine, deliver on demand to the superintendent of quarantine or his assistant, or other officer of the customs authorized to act in that behalf, and which superintendent, assistant, or other officer as aforesaid is hereby required to make such demand, his bill of health and manifest, together with his log-book and journal, under pain of forfeiting the sum of 100*l.* if he shall wilfully refuse or neglect so to do, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 16.

18. If any commander, master, or other person having charge of any vessel liable to perform quarantine, and on board of which the plague or other infectious disease or distemper shall not then have appeared, shall himself quit, or shall knowingly permit or suffer any seamen or passenger coming in such vessel to quit such vessel by going on shore, or by going on board any other vessel or boat, before such quarantine shall be fully performed, unless by such licence as shall be granted by virtue of any order in council to be made concerning quarantine as aforesaid, or in case any commander or other person having charge of such vessel shall not, within a convenient time after due notice given for that purpose, cause such vessel and the lading thereof to be conveyed into the place or places appointed for such vessel and lading to perform quarantine; then and in every such case every such commander, master, or other person as aforesaid, for every such offence shall forfeit and pay the sum of 400*l.*; and if any such person coming in any such vessel liable to quarantine (or any pilot or other person going on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessel at any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid), shall, either before or after such arrival, quit such vessel, unless by such licence as aforesaid, by going on shore in any port or place in the U. K., or the islands aforesaid, or by going on board any other vessel or boat, with intent to go on shore as aforesaid, before such vessel so liable to quarantine as aforesaid shall be regularly discharged from the performance thereof, it shall and may be lawful for any person whatsoever, by any kind of necessary force, to compel such pilot or other person so quitting such vessel so liable to quarantine to return on board the same; and every such pilot or other person so quitting such vessel so liable to quarantine shall for every such offence suffer imprisonment for the space of six months, and shall forfeit and pay the sum of 500*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 17.

19. And whereas disobedience or refractory behaviour in persons under quarantine or liable to the performance of quarantine, or in other persons who may have had any intercourse or communication with them, may be attended with very great danger to H. M.'s subjects; be it further enacted, That all persons liable to perform quarantine, and all persons having had any intercourse or communication with them, whether in vessels or in a lazaret or elsewhere, shall be subject, during the said quarantine, or during the time they shall be liable to quarantine, to such orders as they shall receive from the superintendent of quarantine, or his assistant, or from the principal officer of the customs at any port or place where there is no such superintendent or assistant, or from any other officer of the customs authorized to act in that behalf, and the said officers are hereby empowered and required to enforce all necessary obedience to the said orders, and in case of necessity to call in others to their assistance, and all persons so called in are hereby required to assist accordingly; and such officers shall and they are hereby empowered and required to compel all persons liable to perform quarantine as aforesaid, and persons having had any intercourse or communication with them, to repair to such lazaret, vessel, or place, and to cause all goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles comprized within any such orders to be made as last aforesaid, to be conveyed to such lazaret, vessel, or place duly appointed in that behalf, in such manner and according to such directions as shall be made by order of H. M. in council as aforesaid, or of the lords or others of the privy council, or of any two or more of them; and if any person liable to perform quarantine as aforesaid, or any person having had any intercourse or communication with him, her, or them, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to repair forthwith, when required and directed so to do by such officers as aforesaid, to the said lazaret, vessel, or place duly appointed in that behalf, or having been placed in the said lazaret, vessel, or place, shall escape or attempt to escape out of the same before quarantine duly performed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said quarantine officers, and also the watchmen and other persons appointed to see quarantine performed, and each of them are hereby respectively required, by such necessary force as the case shall require, to compel every such person so refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, and every such person so escaping or attempting to escape as aforesaid, to repair or return to such lazaret, vessel, or place so appointed as aforesaid; and every person so refusing or neglecting to repair forthwith as aforesaid to the said lazaret, vessel, or place, and also every person actually escaping as aforesaid, shall forfeit the penalty of 200*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 18.

20. It shall be lawful for any constable, headborough, tithingman, or other peace-officer, or any other person, to seize and apprehend any person that shall, contrary to the provisions of this act, have quitted or come on shore from any vessel liable to perform quarantine, or who shall have escaped from or quitted any vessel under quarantine, or from any lazaret, vessel, or place appointed in that behalf, for the purpose of carrying such person before any justice of the peace or magistrate; and it shall be lawful for any such justice of the peace or magistrate to grant his warrant for the apprehending and conveying of any such person to the vessel from which he or she shall have come on shore, or to any vessel performing quarantine, or lazaret, from which he or she shall have escaped, or for the confining of any such person in any such place of safe custody (not being a public gaol), and under such restrictions as to having any communication with any other persons, as may in the discretion of any justice of the peace or magistrate (calling to his aid, if he shall see fit, any medical person) appear to be proper, until such person can be safely and securely conveyed to some place appointed for the performance of quarantine, or until directions can be obtained from the privy council as to the disposal of any such person, and to make any further order, or grant any further warrant that may be necessary in that behalf, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 19.

21. And whereas it may be necessary for the public security to prevent all communication whatever with vessels performing quarantine; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for H. M., by order or orders in council, notified by proclamation or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all persons, vessels, and boats whatsoever, from going under any pretence whatsoever within the limits of any station which by any order or orders in council as aforesaid has been or may be assigned for the performance of quarantine; and if any person whatsoever, after such notification or publication of any such order or orders in council, shall presume, under any pretence whatsoever, to go with any vessel or boat within the limits of any such station, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 200*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 20.

22. If any officer of customs, or any other officer or person whatsoever, to whom it doth or shall appertain to execute any order or orders made or to be made concerning quarantine, or the prevention of infection, and notified as aforesaid, or to see the same put in execution, shall knowingly and wilfully embezzle any goods or articles performing quarantine, or be guilty of any other breach or neglect of his duty in respect of the vessels, persons, goods, or articles performing quarantine, every such officer or person so offending shall forfeit such office or employment as he may be possessed of, and shall become from thence incapable to hold or enjoy the same, or to take a new grant thereof; and every such officer and person shall forfeit and pay the sum of 200*l.*; and if any such officer or person shall desert from his duty when employed as aforesaid, or shall knowingly and willingly permit any person, vessel, goods, or merchandize to depart or be conveyed out of the said lazaret, vessel, or other place as aforesaid, unless by permission under an order of H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, or under an order of two or more of the lords or others of His privy council; or if any person hereby authorized and directed to give a certificate of a vessel having duly performed quarantine or airing, shall knowingly give a false certificate thereof, every such person so offending shall be guilty of felony; and if any such officer or person shall knowingly or wilfully damage any goods performing quarantine under his direction, he shall be liable to pay 100*l.* damages, and full costs of suit to the owner of the same, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 21.

23. If any vessel arriving from the Mediterranean, or from any port in Turkey or Africa, shall have undergone examination by the proper officer of quarantine, and upon a report of such examination being made to the lords or others of H. M.'s privy council, their lordships shall think proper to direct the release of such vessel from the performance of quarantine, it shall be lawful for such officer, and he is hereby required to grant to the master or person having the charge or command of such vessel, a certificate in writing of such examination and release, and upon the production of such certificate to the collector or principal officer of H. M.'s customs, at any port in the U. K. such vessel shall be admitted to entry without being liable to any further restraint, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 22.

24. After quarantine shall have been duly performed by any vessel, or persons obliged to perform quarantine as aforesaid, according to this act, and to such order or orders made as aforesaid, and upon proof to be made by the oaths of the master or other person having charge of such vessel, and of three or more of the persons belonging thereto, or upon proof to be made by the oaths of two or more credible witnesses, before the collector or principal officer of the customs at the port where such quarantine shall be performed, or at the port nearest thereto, or before the superintendent of quarantine, or his assistant at the quarantine station, or before any justice of the peace living near to the port or place, or when such quarantine shall have been performed within any of the said isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, before any two jurats or magistrates of any of the said isles respectively, that such vessel, and all and every such person and persons respectively, have duly performed quarantine as aforesaid, and that the vessel and all and every person are free from infection, and after producing a certificate to that purpose, signed by the chief officer who superintended the quarantine of the said vessel, or person acting for him, then and in the said respective cases, such collector or principal officer of the customs, or the superintendent of quarantine, or his assistant, or such justice of the peace, or such jurats or magistrates as aforesaid, respectively, are hereby required to give a certificate thereof, and thereupon such vessel, and all and every such person so having performed quarantine, shall be liable to no further restraint or detention upon the same account, for which such vessel, person or persons shall have performed quarantine as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 23.

25. All goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles liable to quarantine as aforesaid, shall be opened and aired in such place, and for such time and in such manner as shall be directed by H. M., by such order or orders to be made as aforesaid, and after such order shall have been duly complied with, proof thereof shall be made by the oaths of the master of the lazaret or vessel in which the goods, wares, and merchandize and all other articles shall have been opened and aired, and of one of the guardians, or if there be no guardians, then one of the officers authorized by the commissioners of customs to act in the service of quarantine in such lazaret or vessel, or if there be no such officer, then by the oaths of two or more credible witnesses serving in the said lazaret or vessel, before the superintendent of quarantine or his assistant, in case such opening and airing shall be had at a port or place where such superintendent or assistant shall be established, or otherwise before the principal officer of the customs authorized to act in the service of quarantine at such port or place, which oath such superintendent, assistant, or principal officer is hereby authorized to administer; and such superintendent, assistant, or principal officer, as the case may be, shall grant a certificate of such proof having been made, and upon production of such certificate to the proper officer of the customs, such goods, wares, and merchandizes, and other articles, shall be liable to no further restraint or detention, either at the port or place where such quarantine shall have been performed, or at any other place whereto they be afterwards conveyed, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 24.

26. If any person shall knowingly or wilfully forge or counterfeit, interline, erase, or alter, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, interlined, erased, or altered, any certificate directed or required to be granted by any order of H. M. in council, now in force or hereafter to be made touching quarantine, or shall publish any such forged or counterfeited, interlined, erased, or altered certificate, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, interlined, erased, or altered, or shall knowingly and wilfully utter and publish any such certificate with intent to obtain the effect of a true certificate to be given thereto, knowing the contents of such certificate to be false, he or she shall be guilty of felony, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 25.

27. If any person shall land or unship, or shall move in order to the landing or unshipping thereof, any goods, wares, or merchandize, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles from on board any vessel liable to perform quarantine as aforesaid, or shall knowingly receive the same after they have been so landed or unshipped, every such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of 500*l.*; and if any person shall clandestinely convey or secrete, or conceal for the purpose of conveying any letters, goods, wares, or merchandize or other articles as aforesaid, from any vessel actually performing quarantine, or from the lazaret or other place where such goods, wares, merchandize, or other articles as aforesaid shall be performing quarantine, every such person so offending as last aforesaid shall forfeit the sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 26.

28. In case it shall at any time happen that any part of the U. K., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or France, Spain, or Portugal, or the Low Countries, shall be infected with the plague, or any other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for H. M., by his or their proclamation, to prohibit or restrain all vessels and boats under the burthen of 100 tons from sailing or passing out of any port or place of the U. K., or the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or any of them, until security be first given by the master of every such vessel or boat respectively, to the satisfaction of the principal officers of the customs, or the chief magistrate of the port or place from whence such vessel or boat shall sail, by bond taken by such officer or magistrate, to the King, his heirs or successors, with sufficient sureties in the penalty of 200*l.*, with condition, that if such vessel or boat shall not go to or touch at any country, port, or place, to be mentioned for that purpose in such proclamation, and if neither the master or other person having charge of such vessel or boat, nor any mariner or passenger in such vessel or boat, shall, during the time aforesaid, go on board any other vessel at sea, and such master or other person having charge of such vessel or boat shall not permit or suffer any person to come on board such vessel or boat at sea from any other vessel, and shall not during the time aforesaid, receive any goods or merchandize whatsoever out of any other vessel, then such bond shall be void; for the making of which bond no fee or reward whatsoever shall be taken; and in case any vessel or boat for which such security shall be required by such proclamation, shall set sail or pass out of any port or place of the U. K., or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or any of them respectively, before security be given as aforesaid, every such vessel or boat so sailing or passing out of any port or place contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be forfeited to H. M., and the master of, and every mariner sailing in such vessel or boat, shall severally forfeit and pay the sum of 200*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 27.

29. The consuls and vice-consuls of H. M., shall and are hereby empowered to administer oaths in all cases respecting quarantine, in like manner as if they were magistrates of the several towns or places where they respectively reside, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 28.

30. In all cases wherein by virtue of this act, or any other act hereafter to be made touching quarantine, any examination or answer shall be taken or made upon oath, the person who shall be authorized and required to take such examinations and answers, shall and may be deemed to have full power and authority to administer such oaths; and if any person who shall be interrogated or examined, shall wilfully swear falsely to any matter concerning which such person shall depose or make oath on such examination, or in such answer, or if any person shall procure any other person so to do, he or she so swearing falsely, or procuring any other person so to do, shall be deemed to have been guilty of, and shall be liable to be prosecuted for perjury, or subornation of perjury, as the case may be, and shall suffer the pains, penalties, and punishments of the law in such case respectively made and provided, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 29.

31. All superintendents of quarantine at the several ports, and their assistants, shall and may be appointed by any instrument signed by the commissioners of customs for the time being; and every thing required to be done and performed by the superintendent of quarantine, or his assistant, may, in case of the absence or sickness of such superintendent or assistant, be done and performed by such principal officer of the customs as shall be authorized to act in that behalf, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 30.

32. The publication in the London Gazette of any order in council, or of any order by any two or more of the lords or others of H. M.'s privy council, made in pursuance of this act, or H. M.'s royal proclamation made in pursuance of the same, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient notice to all persons concerned of all matters therein respectively contained, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 31.

33. All forfeitures and penalties that shall be incurred by reason of any offence committed against this act shall and may be recovered by suit in any of H. M.'s courts of record in Eng. or Ire., in which no essoign or wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be granted; or in Scot., by summary action in the court of session, or by prosecution before the court of justiciary there, or by suit in any of H. M.'s courts in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; and every such forfeiture and penalty shall belong and be given, two-thirds to the person who shall inform and sue for the same, and the remainder to H. M., 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 32.

34. Provided, that it shall not be lawful for any person whatsoever to commence, prosecute, enter, or file, or cause or procure to be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, any action, bill, plaint, information, or prosecution, in any of H. M.'s courts in Eng., Ire., or Scot., or any proceeding before any justice of the peace of any county, riding, division, city, town, stewartry, or place for the recovery of any fine, penalty or forfeiture, incurred by reason of any offence committed against this act, or against any order or orders made by H. M. in council, or by two or more of the lords or others of H. M.'s privy council as aforesaid, unless the same be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed in the names of H. M.'s attorney general in Eng. or Ire., or advocate in Scot. respectively, or under the direction of the commissioners of the customs, and in the name or names of some officer or officers of the customs in Eng., Ire., or Scot. respectively; and if any action, bill, plaint, information, or prosecution, or any proceeding before any justice as aforesaid, shall be commenced, prosecuted, entered, and filed in the name or names of any other person than is in that behalf before mentioned, the same shall be and are hereby declared to be null and void, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 33.

35. Provided, that in case any prosecution, suit, complaint or other proceeding as aforesaid, shall be commenced or depending by any officer of the customs, for the recovery of any fine, penalty or forfeiture, incurred by reason of any offence committed against this act, or against any order or orders made by H. M. in council, or by any two or more of the lords or others of H. M.'s privy council as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng. or Ire., or advocate in Scot., respectively, to stop all further proceedings therein, as well with respect to the share of such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, to which any such officer or officers shall or may claim to be entitled, as to the share thereof belonging to H. M., if upon consideration of the circumstances under which any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, may be incurred, it shall appear to them respectively to be fit and proper so to do, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 34.

36. All offences committed against any of the provisions of this act, for which no specific penalty, forfeiture, or punishment is provided by this act, shall and may be tried, heard, and determined before any three justices of the peace of the county, riding, division, city, or place where such offence or disobedience shall happen; and if any person shall be convicted of any such offence or disobedience, he or she shall be liable to such forfeiture and penalty not exceeding the sum of 500*l.* for any offence, or to such imprisonment, not exceeding 12 months for any one offence, as shall in the discretion of the three justices who shall have heard and determined the same, be judged proper; and such forfeiture and penalty shall be paid two-thirds to the person suing for the same and the remainder to H. M., to be applied as the proceeds of other forfeitures and penalties are herein-before directed to be applied, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 35.

37. In any prosecution, suit, or other proceedings against any person whatsoever, for any offence against this act, or any act which may hereafter be passed concerning quarantine, or for any breach or disobedience of any order or orders which shall be made by H. M., with the advice of his privy council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection, and notified or published as aforesaid, or of any order or orders made by two or more of the lords or others of the privy council aforesaid, the answer of the commander, master, or other person having charge of any vessel, to any question or interrogatories put to him by virtue and in pursuance of this act, or of any act which may hereafter be passed concerning quarantine, or of any such order or orders as aforesaid, may and shall be given and received as evidence, so far as the same relates or relate to the place from which such vessel shall come, or to the place at which such vessel touched in the course of the voyage, and where any vessel shall have been directed to perform quarantine by the superintendent of quarantine or his assistant, or where there is no such superintendent or assistant, by the principal officer of the customs at any port or place, or other officer of the customs authorized to act in that behalf, they having been so directed to perform quarantine, may and shall be given and received as evidence that such vessel was liable to quarantine, unless satisfactory proof shall be produced by the defendant in any such prosecution, suit, or other proceeding, to show that the vessel did not come from or touch at any such place or places as is or are stated in the said answer, or that such vessel, although directed to perform quarantine, was not liable to the performance thereof; and where any such vessel shall have in fact been put under quarantine at any port or place by the superintendent of quarantine or his assistant, or other officer of the customs authorized as aforesaid to act in that behalf, and shall actually be performing the same, such vessel shall in any prosecution, suit, or other proceeding, against any person whatever, for any offence against this act or any other act which may hereafter be passed concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection, or any order or orders which shall be made by H. M. in council, or any two or more of the lords or others of his privy council as aforesaid, be deemed and taken to be liable to quarantine, without proving in what manner or from what circumstance such vessel became liable to the performance thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 36.

38. If any action or suit shall be commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance or execution of this present act, or of any order of council made by virtue thereof, the defendant in such action or suit may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at the trial, and that the same was done in pursuance and in execution of the said act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, then the jury shall find for the defendant; and if the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his action after the defendant shall have appeared, or if judgment shall have been given upon any verdict or demurrer against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for the same as the defendant hath in other cases by law; and that no such action or suit shall be brought against any person for any matter or thing done in pursuance or execution of this act, but within the space of six months after such matter or thing shall have been done, 6 G. 4. c. 78. s. 37.

REVENUE.

1. To enable certain persons to receive and hold offices in the management, collection, and receipt of the revenue, without taking or subscribing certain oaths and declarations, 5 G. 4. c. 79. [REP. as to the customs from 5th July 1826, 6 G. 4. c. 105. s. 385.]

2. Whereas it is expedient that persons holding certain offices or places of trust or profit, in the management, collection, or receipt of any of the public revenues, should be enabled to receive, hold, use, and enjoy the same, without previously taking, making, or subscribing certain oaths and declarations: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [viz. 17th June 1824], it shall be lawful for any person, being H. M.'s subject, to have, hold, take, use, enjoy, and execute any of the offices of commissioners of customs excise, stamps, or taxes, or any of the offices concerned in the collection, management, or receipt of the revenues which are subject to the said commissioners, or any of the officers concerned in the collection, management, or receipt of the revenues subject to the authority of the postmaster-general, in any part of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., without previously taking, making, or subscribing any declaration or any oath, except the oath of allegiance to H. M., his heirs and successors, and the oath for the due performance of the duties of such office or place, prescribed by any act or acts of parliament relating thereto; any thing in any acts passed in the parliament of Eng. or of G. B. or of Ire., or of the U. K. to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding, 5 G. 4. c. 79. s. 1.

3. To allow the averment of the order for the prosecution by commissioners of customs or excise to be sufficient proof of the order having been made, 5 G. 4. c. 94. [REP. as to the customs from 5th July 1826, 6 G. 4. c. 105. s. 387.]

4. Whereas by 45 G. 3. [So printed in the act, but the title of the act intended to be quoted, and also the section, are agreeable to 56 G. 5. c. 104. s. 15.], persons were prohibited to commence, prosecute, enter, or file any action, bill, plaint, or information against any person for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture incurred under any act relating to the revenues of customs or excise, or to issue any writ of appraisement for the condemnation of any ship, boat, or vessel, or any goods, wares, or merchandize whatsoever, seized as forfeited under such acts, unless the same were commenced, &c. by the commissioners of customs or excise, or in the name of the King's attorney-general, and whereas difficulties occur by reason of the necessity of proving, that the order for prosecution had been actually made; be it therefore enacted, That the statement, allegation, or averment of the fact in the information or complaint, or in any prosecution or proceeding for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture incurred under any act of parliament, made or to be made relating to customs or excise, or for the condemnation of any ship, boat, or other vessel, or any horses, carts, or other carriages, or any other goods, chattels, wares, or merchandize whatsoever, seized as forfeited, or forfeited under such acts, that such information or complaint, or prosecution or other proceeding, is commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed by order of the said commissioners of customs or excise respectively, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient evidence throughout the U. K., that such prosecution, information, complaint, or other proceeding was commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed by order of the said commissioners of customs or excise, without any other evidence of the fact, unless by other positive evidence the contrary shall be made to appear, 5 G. 4. c. 94.

SEA-MARKS.

Touching sea-marks, 8 El. c. 13. [In force, and AMD. 6 G. 4. c. 125., ss. 90, 91. See PILOTAGE, pl. 91, 92.]

SERJEANT AT LAW.

1. To enable such persons as H. M. may be pleased to call to the degree of a serjeant at law, to take upon themselves that office in vacation, 6 G. 4. c. 15.

2. Whereas it is expedient, whenever H. M. shall be pleased to issue a writ to call any person, being a barrister at law, to the degree of a serjeant at law, that such person should be enabled to take upon him that degree in vacation: be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for H. M., at any time before the commencement of the next Michaelmas term, and during any succeeding vacation, from time to time to cause a writ to be issued out of H. M.'s high court of chancery, directed to any such person, being a barrister at law, as H. M. shall think fit, returnable immediately in the said court, commanding such person to appear in the said court, and to take upon himself the state and dignity of a serjeant at law, and such person shall and may thereupon forthwith appear before the lord high-chancellor, lord keeper, or lords commissioners for the custody of the great seal for the time being, at such time and place as the said chancellor, keeper, or commissioners shall appoint; and such person so appearing, and taking the oaths usually administered to a serjeant at law, shall without any further act or ceremony be and be deemed and taken to be a serjeant at law, sworn to all intents and purposes, 6 G. 4. c. 95.

SERJEANT AT LAW.

SEAMEN.

1. For regulating the number of apprentices to be taken on board British merchant-vessels; and for preventing the desertion of seamen therefrom, 4 G. 4. c. 25. [REP., except so far as it repeals any former act, from 5th July 1826, 6 G. 4. c. 105. s. 367.]

2. Whereas by 57 G. 5. c. 75. s. 4. [Stat. Dig. tit. SEAMEN, pl. 120.] it was enacted as therein mentioned; and whereas it is expedient to repeal the said provisions in respect to apprentices on board merchant-ships trading to H. M.'s colonies and plantations in the West Indies, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof; be it enacted, That so much of the said recited act as requires the master of any ship trading to H. M.'s colonies and plantations in the West Indies, to have on board an apprentice or apprentices, shall be repealed, 4 G. 4. c. 25. s. 1. [See SHIPPING; NAVIGATION.]

SERVANTS.

1. For the further and more adequate punishment of servants convicted of robbing their masters, 3 G. 4. c. 38. [See s. 1. MANSLAUGHTER; ss. 3, 4. ACCESSORIES.]

2. Whereas frequent depredations have of late been committed by clerks, apprentices, and servants, to the serious detriment and loss of their masters, mistresses, or employers; and it is expedient that such offenders, when entitled to benefit of clergy, should be made liable to a more severe punishment than can now by law be inflicted: it is therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1822], if any clerk, apprentice, or servant whatsoever, shall feloniously steal any goods, chattels, money, bond, bank-note, cheque upon a banker or bankers, draft, promissory-note for the payment of money, bill of exchange, or other valuable security or effects, from or belonging to, or in the possession, custody, or power of his, her, or their master or masters, mistress or mistresses, or employer or employers, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, and be entitled to the benefit of clergy, then and in every such case, such offender or offenders, instead of being subjected to such punishment as may now by law be inflicted upon persons so convicted, and entitled to the benefit of clergy, may, at the discretion of the court by or before which he, she, or they shall be convicted, be ordered and adjudged to be transported beyond the seas for any term not exceeding 14 years, or to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned or kept to hard labour, in the common gaol, house of correction, or penitentiary house, for any term not exceeding three years, 3 G. 4. c. 38. s. 2.

SERVICES, PUBLIC.

1. To amend an act passed in the 50th year of His late Majesty, for directing that accounts of increase and diminution of public salaries, pensions, and allowances shall be annually laid before parliament, and for regulating and controlling the granting and paying such salaries, pensions, and allowances, 3 G. 4. c. 113. [AMD. 5 G. 4. c. 104., EXT. to clerks in the office of the clerk of the errors, 6 G. 4. c. 96. s. 3. ante, tit. ERROR.]

2. Whereas 50 G. 5. c. 117. [Stat. Dig. tit. SERVICES, PUBLIC, pl. 1.] was passed, intituled, An Act to direct that accounts of increase and diminution of public salaries, pensions and allowances should be annually laid before parliament, and to regulate and control the granting and paying of such salaries, pensions, and allowances: and whereas it is expedient that the superannuations allowed to be granted by the said recited act should in certain cases be reduced, and that further regulations should be made in relation thereto, and that a fund should be raised towards the payment of such superannuation allowances, by deduction from the salaries and emoluments of the persons holding situations entitling them to have such allowances granted to them; and it is expedient and necessary for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid, that the 50 G. 5. c. 117. should be amended, as far as respects such superannuation allowances: be it enacted, That from and after the 5th July 1822, in lieu and instead of the several proportions of salaries and emoluments, which under the provisions of the said recited act are authorized to be granted as superannuation allowances, after the respective periods of service therein specified, the proportions of such salaries and emoluments, and the respective periods of service after which the same may be granted as superannuation allowances, shall, after the said 5th July 1822, with such exception only as herein-after is authorized and directed, be as follows; that is to say, to any officer or person who shall have served for 10 years and upwards, and not exceeding 15 years, any annual allowance, not exceeding in amount four-twelfths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office or employment; for 15 years and upwards, and not exceeding 20 years, any such annual allowance, not exceeding in amount five-twelfths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office or employment; for 20 years and upwards, and not exceeding 25 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount six-twelfths of such salary and emoluments; for 25 years and upwards, and not exceeding 30 years, any annual allowance not exceeding in amount seven-twelfths of such salary and emoluments; for 30 years and upwards, and not exceeding 35 years, eight-twelfths of such salary and emoluments; for 35 years and upwards, and not exceeding 40 years, nine-twelfths of such salary and emoluments; for 40 years and upwards, and not exceeding 45 years, ten-twelfths of such salary and emoluments; for 45 years and upwards, and not exceeding 50 years, eleven-twelfths of such salary and emoluments; and to any officer or person who shall have served for 50 years and upwards, any annual allowance not exceeding the net amount of the salary and emoluments of his office or employment, after making a deduction therefrom equal in amount to the deduction or contribution to which such last-mentioned salary and emoluments is or are made liable for the purpose of creating a superannuation fund under the provisions of this act; and all such salaries and emoluments shall, for the purpose of estimating the amounts of superannuation allowances to be granted in respect thereof, be calculated upon the amount of the pecuniary emoluments made chargeable with the respective deductions and payments which are by this act required to be made for the creating the superannuation fund to be formed under the provisions thereof, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 1.

3. Provided, that no person to be hereafter superannuated under this act, shall claim or be allowed the benefit of any period of service after the 5th July 1822, except for the period during which such person may have contributed to the fund created and established by this act, unless the salary received by such person, during the period for which he did not contribute, was not of an amount which would, under the terms of this act, have subjected it to any contribution, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 2.

4. From and after the 5th July 1822, no superannuation allowance shall be granted by any public department whatever, other than under the authority of an order of H. M. in council, or by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., or any three or more of them; any thing in the 50 G. 5. c. 117. to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 114. s. 3.

5. Provided, that it shall not be lawful to grant any such superannuation allowance to any officer who shall be under 65 years of age, unless upon certificates from the heads of the department to which any such officer shall belong, and from two medical practitioners, that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, nor unless he shall have discharged the duties of his situation with diligence and fidelity, to the satisfaction of the head officers or head officer of the office or department to which he shall belong, to be certified by any two of such head officers (if there shall be more than one) or by such head officer (if only one); and in case the person claiming any such superannuation allowance shall himself be one of the head officers, or the head officer, then such superannuation allowance shall not be granted, unless he shall have discharged the duties of his situation with diligence and fidelity, to the satisfaction of the commissioners of the admiralty (if such head officer or person shall hold any office or situation under the controul of that department), and in all other cases to the satisfaction of the commissioners of the treasury; and the said commissioners of the admiralty and treasury respectively shall express such satisfaction in their minute recommending or directing the grant of any such superannuation allowance, 3 G. 4. c. 115. s. 4.

6. In any case in which it shall appear to the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, that any special circumstances give to any officer a just claim to any amount of superannuation allowance not authorized by this act, or exceeding the allowance specified therein, with reference to the actual length of service of such officer, it shall be lawful for the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, and they or any three or more of them are hereby authorized, to grant or to give authority for the granting of any special superannuation: provided, that the grounds upon which any such special superannuation shall be granted or authorized, shall be stated in the grant thereof, or the authority for granting the same, and also entered in the minutes of the treasury, and shall also be laid before parliament, within one month after the 5th Jan. in each year, if parliament shall be then sitting, or if not then sitting then within one month after the then next meeting of parliament, 3 G. 4. c. 115. s. 5.

7. An account shall be made up to the 5th Jan. in each year, specifying the total amount of superannuation allowances payable under the Provisions of this act in each department, on the 5th Jan. in the preceding year, the name of every person receiving such allowance who may have died in the course of the year, together with the annual amount of the allowance which was payable to such person, and also the name of every person to whom a superannuation allowance may have been granted in the course of the year, and the annual amount of such allowance; and such account shall be laid before parliament on or before the 25th March in each year, if parliament shall be then sitting, or if not then sitting, then within one month after the then next sitting of parliament, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 6.

8. This act shall extend to all such civil offices and departments in the U. K. as are set forth and enumerated in the schedule to this act annexed, with such exceptions as are specified in the said schedule: provided, that it shall be lawful for the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, by any order or warrant signed by them, or any three or more of them, to add to the list of offices and departments enumerated in the schedule to this act, any other offices or departments which now exist or which may hereafter be created or established, and to place the same, and the officers and persons belonging thereto or employed therein, under the provisions of this act; provided, that in every such case the reasons for adding any such office or department shall be stated in such order or warrant, and a copy of every such order or warrant shall be laid before parliament within one month after the signing thereof, if parliament shall be then sitting, or if not then sitting, then within one month after the then next sitting of parliament; and all the provisions of this act, and all the powers, authorities, regulations, restrictions, and clauses therein contained, shall in every such case apply and be put in force as to every office and department so added as aforesaid to the list contained in the schedule to this act annexed, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said offices or departments had been specified and enumerated in the said list, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 7.

9. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to, or authorize the adding to such list any offices held under military or naval commissions, entitling the officers or persons holding the same to half-pay; or any military or naval allowances in lieu of or in addition to half-pay, allowed, granted, or paid, or which may hereafter be granted or paid, under the regulations of any order of H. M. in council, to any persons who may have served in H. M.'s army, navy, or ordnance; or to any officers in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster or Dublin, or any other of H. M.'s courts of justice elsewhere; or to any of the principal officers of H. M.'s receipt of the exchequer, whose offices are or may hereafter be directed to be abolished or regulated upon the termination of the existing interests therein; or to any offices in relation to which the granting of any allowances for past service has been specially regulated by any act of parliament made for the special regulation of any such allowance; or to any offices held as sinecures, or executed principally by deputy, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 8.

10. From and after the passing of this act all such parts of the 3 G. 4. c. 113. [see ss. 9-22.], as charge the salaries and emoluments of persons to whom superannuation allowances may be granted under that act, with any deductions or payment by way of contribution for the purpose of creating, raising, and maintaining a superannuation fund towards the payment of such superannuation allowances, and all regulations and provisions whatever relative to such deductions or payments, or to the management thereof, and also all such parts of the said act as charge the funds of public departments or offices with one moiety only of such superannuation allowances as may be granted to any officers or persons serving therein, or belonging thereto, shall be repealed, 5 G. 4. c. 104. s. 1.

11. From and after the passing of this act [24th June 1824], the whole of every such superannuation allowance, as may have been or may be granted under the provisions of the recited act, shall be charged upon and made payable out of the funds of the respective departments or offices in which the persons receiving such allowances shall have served, in such and the same manner as the moieties of such superannuation allowances are, by the same act, charged and made payable, 5 G. 4. c. 104. s. 2.

12. All sums of money which, under the provisions of the recited act, shall have been contributed and paid by, or which shall have been deducted from the salaries or emoluments of any such officers or persons, shall be repaid to all such officers and persons, or to the executors or administrators of such of them as may be deceased, in such manner and form as the commissioners of the treasury, shall from time to time direct; and the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt and the heads of all offices and departments shall duly observe and perform all such orders, rules, and regulations, as the commissioners of the treasury may from time to time prescribe for their guidance, in repaying to the several officers or persons aforesaid, or the executors or administrators of such of them as may be deceased, all such sums of money as they may be respectively entitled to receive under this act, 5 G. 4. c. 104. s. 3.

13. Provided, that in case the person who shall at the time of the passing of this act [5th Aug. 1822], hold any office in respect of which any allowance is authorized to be granted under 57 G. 3. c. 67. [Stat. Dig. tit. OFFICE, &c. pl. 81.], intituled, An Act to enable H. M. to recompense the services of persons holding or who have held certain high and efficient civil offices, and who shall at any time previously to his appointment to such office have held any other office or offices, or situation or situations, in respect of which any superannuation allowance might have been granted for service therein, under the provisions of the 50 G. 3. c. 117.; and in case such person shall, within six months after the passing of this act, signify his desire to the head or heads of the department to which he shall belong, to contribute to the superannuation fund to be created under this act, and who shall thereupon contribute to such fund from the 5th July 1822, in manner in this act directed, then and in every such case the person so contributing shall be entitled to reckon the period of his former services, together with that of his service in the office held at the time of the passing of this act, and may, in pursuance thereof, be entitled to receive such amount of superannuation allowance as is authorized by this act; provided, that in every case in which any such officer or person shall retire from or quit any such office, under any circumstances which will not authorize the grant of any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this act, such officer or person shall be entitled to a return of all money deducted from and contributed by him under this act, but without any interest thereon, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 9. [REF. qu. 5 G. 4. c. 104. s. 1. ante, pl. 10.]

14. All salaries and emoluments of officers and persons to whom superannuation allowances may be granted under this act shall be charged with such deductions and payments as are herein-after specified, in proportion to the annual amount of the salary and emoluments of each office or employment; (that is to say), upon and in respect of any office or employment, the salary and emoluments of which shall in the whole amount to 100*l.* and be less than 200*l.* per annum, a deduction at and after the rate of 2*l.* 10*s.* per cent. per annum upon the amount of such salary and emoluments; and upon and in respect of every office or employment, the salary and emoluments of which shall amount to 200*l.* per annum and upwards, a deduction at and after the rate of 5*l.* per cent. per annum upon so much of the salary and emoluments of the person holding any such office or employment as may have been or may hereafter be fixed or authorized as the future and permanent salary and emoluments of any such office or employment, according to any regulations heretofore, or which may hereafter be sanctioned by parliament, or which may be made by H. M. in council, or by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, for the department in or to which any such office or employment may belong; and a deduction at and after the rate of 10*l.* per cent. per annum upon any excess of salary and emoluments which any such officer or person, now holding and executing the duties of such office or employment, may be allowed to continue to receive, and be in the receipt of, in respect of any such office or employment, beyond the amount of salary and emolument which may have been or may be so fixed and regulated as aforesaid, as the future and permanent salary of such office or employment; and all such charges, deductions, and payments shall be made upon the amount of salary and emoluments received in the proportions herein-before mentioned, and shall go to and be applied in the creating, raising, and maintaining a superannuation fund, under this act; and all such deductions and payments respectively shall commence and take effect from and after the 5th July 1822, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 10. [REF. ante, pl. 10.]

15. If any person shall hold two or more offices giving a claim to a superannuation allowance, the amount of contribution to be paid by such person shall be estimated upon the total amount of the salaries and emoluments received by such person in respect of both or all of such offices, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 11. [REF. ante, pl. 10.]

16. All such charges upon and in respect of the salaries and emoluments of any office or employment, or upon any officer or person required by this act to contribute to the creating, raising, and maintaining the superannuation fund to be created and raised under this act, shall be deducted by the respective officers in each department who shall pay such salaries, and shall be accounted for and paid over in such manner, and at such times, and upon such orders and vouchers for the deduction and payment thereof, as shall be from time to time established in any such department, with the sanction of the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, in relation thereto; and all such charges as may arise upon any emoluments of any office or employment, not being in the nature of salary, but derived from fees, perquisites, or any other sources of emolument, shall be accounted for and paid in each quarter to some officer or person in such department; and all such payments shall be made, and such vouchers given in respect thereof, and shall be accounted for and paid over by the person receiving the same, in such manner, and under such rules and regulations as shall be established in that behalf in the department in which the same shall be received, with the approbation of the commissioners of the treasury, or any three or more of them, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 12. [REP. ante, pl. 10.]

17. Provided, that it shall be lawful for the person at the head of any department in which any fees, perquisites, or other sources of profit, may form part of the emolument of any office in such department, to take with the approbation of the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, a sum not exceeding the average amount of such emoluments for three preceding years, and fix the amount to be paid towards the superannuation fund in respect thereof, upon a sum not exceeding such average; and in every such case the amount of payment so fixed shall be deducted from any salary received by the person holding such office or employment, and accounted for and paid over to the superannuation fund in manner directed by this act as to deductions from salaries, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 13. [REP. ante, pl. 10.]

18. Provided, that in every case in which any person who shall have contributed, by deductions or payment towards the superannuation fund established by this act, shall die while holding any office or employment, or offices or employments, in respect of which any such deduction or payment shall have been made, the aggregate and full amount of the principal sum of all deductions and payments which shall have been made from or by any such person, in respect of any office or employment, or offices or employments which may have been held by any such person as aforesaid, but without any interest thereupon, shall be deemed part of the personal estate or property of the person so dying, and shall be devisable as such, or distributed, in case no devise shall be made thereof, as personal estate; and the amount thereof shall be ascertained and certified by the head officers or head officer of the department or departments in which such deductions or payments shall have been made, within six months after the death of the person so dying, and paid to the executors or administrators of such person out of the superannuation fund established under this act, in such manner as shall be established by any regulation which may be made from time to time by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, in that behalf; provided also, that in case any person who may have contributed to the same superannuation fund shall die after his resignation or removal from any office, in respect of which he may have contributed to the said fund, and without having received any allowance therefrom, it shall be lawful for the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, if they shall think fit under the circumstances of the case, to direct the aggregate amount of the deductions and payments which may have been made from or by such person to be repaid as aforesaid to his executors or administrators, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 14. [REP. ante, pl. 10.]

19. In every case in which any allowance hath been or shall hereafter be granted to any person upon retirement from any office or employment, in any case in which the office or employment shall be upon such retirement abolished, or in which any arrangement shall have been or shall be made upon any such retirement, producing a saving upon the establishment of the department in which such office or employment shall belong, equal to or exceeding the allowance granted upon such retirement, such allowance shall be considered as a compensation allowance upon abolition of office, and shall be paid wholly out of the funds of the department to which the person so retiring shall have belonged, and no part thereof shall be charged upon or paid out of the superannuation fund established under this act, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 15. [REP. ante, pl. 10.]

20. One moiety of all superannuation allowances which shall be granted from and after 5th July 1822, shall be paid in the respective offices and departments in like manner, and out of such and the like funds as heretofore, and the remaining moiety of all such superannuation allowances shall be paid out of the sums deducted and contributed under the regulations of this act, for the payment of superannuations, and for forming the superannuation fund to be created and established in pursuance thereof; and the surplus of the money so deducted and contributed (if any shall remain after payment of such last-mentioned moiety) shall be paid by the officers or persons respectively who shall receive such contributions in G. B., into the bank of Eng., and by such officers or persons respectively as shall receive such contributions in Ire., into the bank of Ire.; and the cashier or cashiers of the said banks of Eng. and Ire. respectively are hereby required to receive all such sums of money, and to place them in new and separate accounts, to be raised in the books of the governor and company of the bank of Eng., in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, and in the books of the governor and company of the bank of Ire., in the name of the vice-treasurer of Ire. for the time being, under the title or denomination of "The General Superannuation Fund," of the public civil departments of government, established pursuant to an act passed in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 16. [REP. ante, pl. 10.]

of every office or department wherein any superannuation allowance shall be payable under this act, shall, within 30 days after the expiration of every quarter of a year, transmit or cause to be transmitted, in duplicate, to the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, a statement, containing the aggregate amount of all salaries, allowances, fees, or other emoluments, payable in respect of the preceding quarter, to the several persons employed in such department, and subject to deduction or contribution for the purposes of this act, and also containing the aggregate amount of the sums deducted or contributed therefrom, in respect of such quarter, and also containing the aggregate amount of the superannuation allowances payable in respect of the same quarter in such department, distinguishing such superannuation allowances as shall have been granted subsequently to 5th July 1822; and every such statement shall be according to such form or forms, and under such regulations as shall from time to time be directed or approved by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, for the time being; one of which duplicate statements shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall be received by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, be transmitted to the office of the said commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., and to the vice-treasurer in Ire., 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 17. [REP. ante, pl. 10.]

22. In case and whenever the aggregate amount of superannuation allowances payable in any quarter of the year, in any office or department, and which shall have been granted subsequently to the 5th July 1822, shall exceed the aggregate amounts of the sum payable by virtue of this act out of the public funds of the said office or department, and also of the sums to be deducted or contributed from the salaries and emoluments of the respective officers or persons employed therein, taken together, then and in every such case the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury shall, by warrant under the hands of any three or more of them, authorize and empower the head officers, if more than one, or in cases where there shall be only one, then the head officer of every such office or department wherein any such excess shall occur, to draw upon the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., or upon the vice-treasurer in Ire., as the case may require, for the amount thereof, and shall also, by another warrant under the hands of any three or more of them, authorize the said last-mentioned commissioners and vice-treasurer respectively, to issue or pay to the proper officer of such office or department, out of the general superannuation fund under their management, the amount of such excess; and in every such case it shall be lawful for such head officers or head officer, by any draft or writing under the hands of not less than two of such head officers (if more than one), or under the hand of such head officer (where there shall be only one), attested by two or more credible witnesses, to draw upon the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., or upon the vice-treasurer in Ire., as the case may require, for such a sum of money as shall be necessary to provide for the said excess in the aggregate amount of such superannuation allowances payable in respect of such quarter in the said office or department, over and above the aggregate amounts of the said respective sums by this act made applicable in such quarter to the payment thereof; and every such draft shall be drawn in such form as the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them for the time being, shall from time to time direct or approve, and shall be made payable to such person or persons as shall be specially appointed for the purpose in such office or department, in the manner herein-after directed; and the controller-general or other chief officer of the said office of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt or his assistant in Eng., and such officer as shall be specially appointed for that purpose in the office of the vice-treasurer in Ire., shall within seven days after the receipt of any such draft respectively, indorse thereupon an order under his hand, and in such form as shall from time to time be directed by the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., and the vice-treasurer in Ire. respectively, with the approbation of the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, for the payment of the sum mentioned in the said draft; and every order for the payment of any such draft, if in Eng., shall be countersigned by the principal accountant of the cheque department in the office of the said commissioners for the reduction of the national debt or his chief clerk, and in Ire. by such officer or officers as shall be appointed by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, for that purpose, who is and are hereby respectively required to make an entry of every such draft, and of the order thereupon, in books to be kept in the said respective offices of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., and of the vice-treasurer in Ire. for that purpose; and such orders respectively shall be addressed to the cashiers of the governor and company of the bank of Eng., or of the bank of Ire., as the case may require; and such cashiers or one of them shall, upon the production of such drafts and orders, pay the sums specified and directed therein respectively to the person or persons named therein, whose receipt or receipts shall be a sufficient discharge to the respective governors and companies of the banks of Eng. and Ire., and also to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt and the vice-treasurer of Ire. respectively; and every sum of money which shall be received in pursuance of any such drafts and orders as aforesaid, shall be paid and applied in discharge of the superannuation allowances in the office or department in respect whereof such drafts and orders shall be drawn, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 18. [REP., ante, pl. 10.]

23. Before any such draft as aforesaid shall be drawn by the head officers or head officer (as the case may be) of any office or department, upon the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., or upon the vice-treasurer in Ire., for any sum of money required for the payment of any superannuation allowances under this act, such head officers, or head officer (where there shall be only one) of every such department, shall, by some deed or instrument, under the hands and seals of two or more of them (if more than one), or under the hand and seals of such head officer (where there shall be only one), and attested by two credible witnesses, nominate and appoint some person or persons, who shall be then serving or employed in such department, to receive such sum of money as shall from time to time be payable at the banks of Eng. or Ire. respectively, under any orders of the controller-general, or other chief officer in the office of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng. for his assistant, or of the person appointed for that purpose in the office of the vice-treasurer in Ire.; and every such deed or instrument shall in Eng. be produced and deposited in the office of the said last-mentioned commissioners, and in Ire. at and in the office of the vice-treasurer there, seven days at least before any order shall be issued from the said offices respectively for the payment to the person or persons therein named, of any sum of money on account of such department: provided, that it shall be lawful for the head officers or head officer for the time being of any office or department wherein any such appointment shall have been made, from time to time as often as they or he shall think fit and circumstances may require, by any deed or instrument to be executed and attested as herein-before is directed, to revoke any such nomination or appointment as aforesaid, which shall have been made either by themselves or himself, or by any of their or his predecessors or predecessor in the office, and by the same deed or instrument to make any new appointment for the purposes and in the manner herein-before directed; and every such new appointment shall, from the time to be specified therein, supersede the appointment then in force, and shall from time to time, as the case may require, be produced at and deposited in the respective offices of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., or of the vice-treasurer in Ire., in the manner herein-before directed, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 19. [REP., ante, pl. 10.]

24. After satisfying the claims to which the said general superannuation fund shall or may, under this act, be subject at the end of every quarter of a year, the surplus (if any) which shall be remaining of the said fund at the bank of Eng. or bank of Ire., shall be invested by or under the directions of the said commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in Eng., and by or under the directions of the vice-treasurer in Ire., in some of the public annuities payable at the bank of Eng. or Ire. respectively, or in exchequer bills, as the said commissioners or vice-treasurer respectively shall deem most expedient; and the dividends or interest arising therefrom shall be carried to and form part of the said general superannuation fund, standing in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt at the bank of Eng., or in the name of the vice-treasurer of Ire. at the bank of Ire.; and so much of the said dividends or interest as shall not be required to be issued in discharge of any such drafts as aforesaid, under this act, shall from time to time be laid out and invested, by or under the direction of the said commissioners and vice-treasurer respectively, in like public annuities or exchequer bills, for the accumulation and increase of the said general fund, in the same manner as such surplus monies are herein directed to be laid out and invested; and in case there shall at any time be a deficiency of uninvested monies remaining in the names or name, and to the credit of the accounts of the said commissioners or vice-treasurer, in the books of the governors and companies of the banks of Eng. or Ire. respectively, to answer the drafts drawn upon the said commissioners or vice-treasurer respectively, under this act, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said commissioners and vice-treasurer respectively, to cause so much of the respective public annuities or exchequer bills standing in their names on account of the general superannuation fund as may be necessary, to be sold out and disposed of, and to apply the monies to arise and be produced by such sale or sales for the purpose of making good such deficiency, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 20. [REP., ante, pl. 10.]

25. The vice-treasurer of Ire. shall from time to time, whenever required so to do by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury or any three or more of them, transmit accounts of the execution of this act, and of all matters and things relating thereto, in his execution of the powers thereof, in such manner and form, and containing such particulars, as shall from time to time be specified in that behalf by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 21. [REP., ante, pl. 10.]

26. No appointment, certificate, order, or receipt, made or given under this act, shall be liable to any stamp duty whatever, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 22. [REP., ante, pl. 10.]

27. If any person or persons shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or knowingly or wilfully act or assist in forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any certificate or certificates, or any order or orders for any payment to be made under this act, or any appointment or appointments to be made under this act, or any of them, or any receipt or receipts to be given by the cashier or cashiers of the bank of Eng. or bank of Ire. in pursuance of this act, or shall wilfully utter or deliver any such forged, counterfeited, or altered certificate, order, appointment, or receipt, to any person or persons in the execution of the powers of this act, or shall utter any such forged, counterfeited, or altered certificate, order, appointment, or receipt, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, with intent to defraud H. M., his heirs or successors, or any body or bodies politic or corporate, or any person or persons whomsoever, then and in every such case all and every person or persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy, 3 G. 4. c. 113. s. 23.

9. And whereas it might tend to the advantage of British vessels arriving in foreign ports, if power was given to H. M. to exempt foreign vessels of less burthen than 60 tons from the obligation of taking on board pilots to conduct them into or from the ports of the U. K., in all cases in which British vessels of less burthen than 60 tons are not required by law to take pilots; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [18th July 1823], it shall be lawful for H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, or by an order or orders in council, in all such cases aforesaid, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than 60 tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the U. K., 4 G. 4 c. 77. s. 5. [See 6 G. 4. c. 125. s. 60., PILOTAGE, pl. 61.]

10. A copy of every order in council which may be issued under the authority of this act shall be laid before parliament as soon after the issuing thereof as may be practicable, if parliament shall be sitting, and if it shall not then be sitting, within 30 days after the meeting thereof, 4 G. 4 c. 77. s. 6.

SHIPPING (BRITISH).

11. For the registering of vessels, 4 G. 4. c. 41. [REP. from the 5th July 1826, except so far as it repeals any other act, 6 G. 4. c. 105. s. 371.]

12. Whereas the wealth and strength of this kingdom, and the prosperity and safety of every part of the British empire, greatly depend on the encouragement given to shipping and navigation: and whereas divers acts have from time to time been passed for the purpose of confining to ships wholly built in H. M.'s dominions the advantages which were formerly given by the legislature to ships owned and navigated by H. M.'s subjects, and for that purpose divers regulations have from time to time been made, for the registering of and the transferring of the property in such ships; which regulations have been found in some respects ineffectual, and in others inconvenient: and whereas the object of the legislature in passing the said several acts may be more effectually attained by repealing the same, and by comprising and consolidating in one act the several provisions contained therein, but varied and altered in some respects; be it therefore enacted, That from 31st Dec. 1823, so much of 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 22. ss. 17—21., intituled, An Act for preventing frauds and regulating abuses in the plantation trade, as relates in any way to the registering of ships and vessels; and also so much of 15 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 1—3., intituled, An Act for further regulating the plantation trade, and for relief of merchants importing prize goods from America, and for preventing collusive captures there; and for obliging the claimers of vessels seized for exportation of wool, or any unlawful importation, to give security for costs; and for allowing E. I. goods to be taken out of warehouses in order to be cleaned and refreshed, as relates in any way to the proof to be given that the ship or vessel belongs to British subjects, before the same is permitted to trade; and as relates to the liberty to be given to trade where the certificate of the registry hath been lost; and as relates to the registering of a ship or vessel de novo; and also the whole of 26 G. 3. c. 60., intituled, An Act for the further increase and encouragement of shipping and navigation; and also so much of 27 G. 3. c. 19. ss. 1—9. 13., intituled, An Act to enforce and render more effectual several acts passed in the 12th year of the reign of King Charles the Second, and other acts made for the increase and encouragement of shipping and navigation, as relates in any way to the registering of ships or vessels; and also so much of 28 G. 3. c. 34. ss. 13, 14., intituled, An Act more effectually to secure the performance of quarantine, and for amending several laws relating to the revenue of customs, as relates to masters of ships or vessels detaining the certificates of registry of the same; and also so much of 34 G. 3. c. 68. ss. 14—22., intituled, An Act for the further encouragement of British mariners, and for other purposes therein mentioned, as relates to the transfer or contract, or agreement for transfer, and the alteration of property in any ship or vessel, and as relates to the certificate of registry being withheld or detained by the master of the ship or vessel, and as relates to the registering a ship or vessel de novo, under the several circumstances therein mentioned; and also the whole of 48 G. 3. c. 70., intituled, An Act to provide that British ships which shall be captured by the enemy, and shall afterwards become the property of British subjects, shall not be entitled to the privileges of British ships; and also the whole of 49 G. 3. c. 41., intituled, An Act to amend an act made in the 48th year of His present Majesty, to provide that British ships captured by the enemy, becoming the property of British subjects, shall not be entitled to the privileges of British ships; and also so much of 55 G. 3. c. 116. ss. 1—5., intituled, An Act to make further regulations for the registry of ships built in India, as relates in any way to the registering of ships or vessels in India; and also the whole of 59 G. 3. c. 5., intituled, An Act to ascertain the tonnage of vessels propelled by steam; and also so much of 1 G. 4. c. 9. ss. 1—4., intituled, An Act for granting the privileges of British ships to vessels built at Malta, Gibraltar, and Heligoland, and certain of those privileges to vessels built in the British settlements at Honduras, as relates to the registering of ships or vessels at Malta, Gibraltar, and Heligoland; and also all and every other act [54 G. 3. c. 59.], or so much of any other act, passed in G. B. or in Ire., as relates in any way to the registering of ships and vessels; shall be and the same are hereby respectively repealed, 4 G. 4. c. 41. s. 1. [And 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 22., 15 G. 2. c. 31., 28 G. 3. c. 34., (see tit. QUARANTINE), and 34 G. 4. c. 68. are further REP. as to customs by 6 G. 4. c. 105.; see post, tit. STATUTES.]

13. For the registering of British vessels, 6 G. 4. c. 110. [See, as to vessels British-owned, and built at Honduras in Yucatan, how far entitled to the privileges of British ships, 1 G. 4. c. 9. ss. 5, 6., and as to ships registered in India, 4 G. 4. c. 80. s. 19. (ante, tit. EAST INDIA COMPANY, pl. 146.) Ships built within the limits of the Co.'s charter prior to 1st Jan. 1816, and then and thence hitherto British-owned, deemed British ships, 6 G. 4. c. 114. s. 77. (ante, tit. NAVIGATION, pl. 145.) It has been seen that the 4 G. 4. c. 41. repealed the 1 G. 4. c. 9. ss. 1—4., and all other acts relating to the registering of ships;—Qu. are ss. 5, 6. thereby repealed? The 4 G. 4. c. 80. is neither wholly or partially repealed by 6 G. 4. c. 105., it is therefore in force.]

14. Whereas 6 G. 4. c. 105. [post, tit. STATUTES] was passed, intituled, An Act to repeal the several laws relating to the customs, in which it is declared, that the laws of the customs have become intricate by reason of the great number of acts relating thereto which have been passed through a long series of years; and that it is therefore highly expedient for the interest of commerce and the ends of justice, and also for affording convenience and facility to all persons who may be subject to the operation of those laws, or who may be authorized to act in the execution thereof, that all the statutes now in force relating to the customs should be repealed, and that the purposes for which they have from time to time been made should be secured by new enactments, exhibiting more perspicuously and compendiously the various provisions contained in them: and whereas by the said act all the laws relating to the registering of British vessels will be repealed; and it is expedient to make regulations for the registering of such ships and vessels, after such repeal shall have effect; be it therefore enacted, That from and after 5th Jan. 1826, this act shall come into and be and continue in full force and operation for the registering of British vessels, except where any other commencement is herein-after particularly directed, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 1.

15. No ship or vessel shall be entitled to any of the privileges or advantages of a British registered ship, until the person claiming property therein shall have caused the same to be registered in manner herein-after mentioned, and shall have obtained a certificate of such registry from the person or persons authorized to make such registry, and grant such certificate as herein-after directed; the form of which certificate shall be as follows; videlicet,

‘ This is to certify, that in pursuance of an act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled, An Act [here insert the title of this act, the names, occupation, and residence of the subscribing owners], having taken and subscribed the oath required by this act, and having sworn that [he or they] together with [names, occupations, and residence of non-subscribing owners] [is or are] sole owner or owners, in the proportions specified on the back hereof, of the ship or vessel called the [ship's name] of [place to which the vessel belongs], which is of the burthen of [number of tons], and whereof [master's name] is master, and that the said ship or vessel was [when and where built, or condemned as prize, referring to builder's certificate, judge's certificate, or certificate of last registry, then delivered up to be cancelled], and [name and employment of surveying officer] having certified to us that the said ship or vessel has [number] decks and [number] masts, that her length from the fore part of the main stem to the after part of the stern post aloft is [number of feet and inches], her breadth at the broadest part [stating whether that be above or below the main-wales] is [number of feet and inches], her [height between decks, if more than one deck, or depth in the hold, if only one deck] is [number of feet and inches], that she is [how rigged] rigged with a [standing or running] bowsprit, is, [description of stern] sterned, [carvel or clinker] built, has [whether any or no] gallery, and [kind of head, if any] head; and the said subscribing owners having consented and agreed to the above description, and having caused sufficient security to be given, as is required by the said act, the said ship or vessel called the [name] has been duly registered at the port of [name of port]. Certified under our hands at the Custom-house, in the said port of [name of port] this [date] day of [name of month] in the year [words at length].

‘ [Signed]

Collector.
Controller.’

And on the back of such certificate of registry there shall be an account of the parts or shares held by each of the owners mentioned and described in such certificate, in the form and manner following:

Names of the several owners within mentioned.	Number of sixty-fourth shares held by each owner.
' [Name _____]	Thirty-two.
' [Name _____]	Sixteen.
' [Name _____]	Eight.
' [Name _____]	Eight.]
	' [Signed] Collector.
	' [Signed] Controller.'

6 G.4. c.110. s.2.

16. The persons authorized and required to make such registry and grant such certificates shall be the collector and controller of customs in any port in the U.K. of G.B. and Ire. and in the Isle of Man respectively, in respect of ships or vessels to be there registered; and the principal officers of customs in the island of Guernsey or Jersey, together with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of those islands respectively, in respect of ships or vessels to be there registered; and the collector and controller of customs of any port in the colonies, plantations, islands, and territories to H. M. belonging in Asia, Africa, and America, together with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of such colonies, plantations, islands, and territories respectively, in respect of ships or vessels to be there registered; and the collector of duties at any port in the territories under the government of the E. I. C., and other territories belonging to H. M. within the limits of the charter of the said Co., payable to the said Co., or any other person of the rank in the said Co.'s service of senior merchant, or of six years standing in the said service, being respectively appointed to act in the execution of this act, by any of the governments of the said Co. in India, in any ports in which there shall be no collector and controller of customs, in respect of ships or vessels to be there registered; and the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of Malta, Gibraltar, Heligoland, and Cape of Good Hope respectively, in respect of ships or vessels to be there registered: provided, that no ship or vessel shall be registered at Malta, Gibraltar, or Heligoland, except such as are wholly of the built of those places respectively, and such ships or vessels shall not be registered elsewhere; and that such ships or vessels so registered shall not be entitled to the privileges and advantages of British ships in any trade between the said U.K. and any of the colonies, plantations, islands, or territories in America to H. M. belonging: provided also, that wherever in and by this act it is directed or provided that any act, matter, or thing shall and may be done, or performed by, to, or with any collector and controller of H. M.'s customs, the same shall or may be done or performed by, to, or with the principal officers of customs in the islands of Guernsey or Jersey, together with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of those islands respectively, and also by, to, or with such collector or other person in India in the service of the E. I. C. as aforesaid, and also by, to, or with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of Malta, Gibraltar, Heligoland, or Cape of Good Hope, and according as the same act, matter, or thing is to be done or performed at the said several and respective places, and within the jurisdiction of the said several persons respectively: provided also, that wherever in and by this act it is directed or provided that any act, matter, or thing shall or may be done or performed by, to, or with the commissioners of H. M.'s customs, the same shall or may be done or performed by, to, or with the said commissioners, or any two or more of them, in Eng., Ire., or Scot. respectively, and also by, to, or with the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of any place where any ship or vessel may be registered under the authority of this act, so far as such act, matter, or thing can be applicable to the registering of any ship or vessel at such place, 6 G.4. c.110. s.3.

17. In case any ship or vessel, not being duly registered, and not having obtained such certificate of registry as aforesaid, shall exercise any of the privileges of a British ship, the same shall be subject to forfeiture, and also all the guns, furniture, ammunition, tackle, and apparel to the same ship or vessel belonging, and shall and may be seized by any officer or officers of customs: provided, that nothing in this act shall extend or be construed to extend to affect the privileges of any ship or vessel which shall have been registered by virtue of any act which was or were in force for the registry of British ships and granting certificates thereof prior to the 31st Dec. 1823, or by virtue of any act which was in force at the time of the commencement of this act [5th July 1825], until such time as such ships or vessels shall be required by this act to be registered de novo under the regulations thereof, 6 G.4. c.110. s.4.

18. No ship or vessel shall be registered, or having been registered, shall be deemed to be duly registered by virtue of this act, except such as are wholly of the built of the said U.K., or of the Isle of Man, or of the islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or of some of the colonies, plantations, islands, or territories in Asia, Africa, or America, or of Malta, Gibraltar, or Heligoland, which belong to H. M. at the time of the building of such ships or vessels, or such ships or vessels as shall have been condemned in any court of admiralty as prize of war, or such ships or vessels as shall have been condemned in any competent court as forfeited for the breach of the laws made for the prevention of the slave-trade, and which shall wholly belong and continue wholly to belong to H. M.'s subjects, duly entitled to be owners of ships or vessels registered by virtue of this act, 6 G.4. c.110. s.5.

19. No ship or vessel shall continue to enjoy the privileges of a British ship after the same shall have been repaired in a foreign country, if such repairs shall exceed the sum of 20s. for every ton of the burthen of the said ship or vessel, unless such repairs shall have been necessary by reason of extraordinary damage sustained by such ship or vessel during her absence from H. M.'s dominions, to enable her to perform the voyage in which she shall have been engaged, and to return to some port or place of the said dominions; and whenever any ship or vessel which has been so repaired in a foreign country shall arrive at any port in H. M.'s dominions as a British registered ship or vessel, the master or other person having the command or charge of the same shall, upon the first entry thereof, report upon oath to the collector and controller of H. M.'s customs at such port, that such ship or vessel has been so repaired, under penalty of 20s. for every ton of the burthen of such ship or vessel according to the admeasurement thereof; and if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, that such ship or vessel was seaworthy at the time when she last departed from any port or place in H. M.'s dominions, and that no greater quantity of such repairs have been done to the said vessel than was necessary as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, upon a full consideration of all the circumstances, to direct the collector and controller of the port where such ship or vessel shall have arrived, or where she shall then be, to certify on the certificate of the registry of such ship or vessel, that it has been proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, that the privileges of the said ship or vessel have not been forfeited notwithstanding the repairs which have been done to the same in a foreign country, 6 G.4. c.110. s.6.

20. And whereas it has recently happened that the owners of British ships have been unable to effect the necessary repairs to their vessels in British ports, by reason of combinations of workmen: and whereas it is expedient to make provisions for relief of the ship-owners in such cases, in order that the voyages of British ships may not be frustrated by such means, to the great detriment of the commerce and navigation of the empire; be it therefore enacted, That for two years from and after the passing of this act [5th July 1825], when and as often as it shall appear expedient to the lords and others of H. M.'s privy council, it shall be lawful for them, or any three or more of them, to make and issue their order in behalf of the master or owners of any such ship, permitting the same to proceed to some foreign port or ports, to be named in such order, and there to be repaired to such extent as shall be necessary for the voyage in which such ship is engaged, 6 G.4. c.110. s.7.

21. And whereas by the law of navigation British ships cannot proceed to sea unless they be navigated by a crew of which three-fourths at least are British seamen, and it has recently happened that the owners of British ships have been unable to procure proper crews for their ships, by reason of combinations of seamen; be it therefore enacted, That for two years from and after the passing of this act, when and as often as it shall appear expedient to the lords and others of H. M.'s privy council, it shall be lawful for them, or any three or more of them, to make and issue their order in behalf of the master or owners of any such ship, permitting such ship to proceed upon her voyage with a less number of British seamen than is required by the law of navigation; and every ship or vessel which shall be navigated with the number of British seamen required in such order shall be deemed to be duly navigated; any thing in the law of navigation to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G.4. c.110. s.8.

22. If any ship or vessel registered under the authority of this or any other act, shall be deemed or declared to be stranded or unseaworthy, and incapable of being recovered or repaired to the advantage of the owners thereof, and shall for such reasons be sold by order or decree of any competent court for the benefit of the owners of such ship or vessel, or other persons interested therein, the same shall be taken and deemed to be a ship or vessel lost or broken up to all intents and purposes within the meaning of this act, and shall never again be entitled to the privileges of a British-built ship for any purposes of trade or navigation, 6 G.4. c.110. s.9.

23. No British ship or vessel, which has been or shall hereafter be captured by and become prize to an enemy or sold to foreigners, shall again be entitled to the privileges of a British ship: provided that nothing contained in this act shall extend to prevent the registering of any ship or vessel whatever which shall be condemned in any court of admiralty as prize of war, or in any competent court for breach of laws made for the prevention of the slave-trade, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 10.

24. No such registry shall hereafter be made, or certificate thereof granted, by any person herein-before authorized to make such registry and grant such certificate, in any other port or place than the port or place to which such ship or vessel shall properly belong, except so far as relates to such ships or vessels as shall be condemned as prizes in any of the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, which ships or vessels shall in future be registered in manner herein-after directed; but that all and every registry and certificate, granted in any port or place to which any such ship or vessel does not properly belong, shall be utterly null and void to all intents and purposes, unless the officers aforesaid shall be specially authorized and empowered to make such registry and grant such certificate in any other port, by an order in writing under the hands of the commissioners of customs, which order the said commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to issue in manner aforesaid, if they shall see fit; and at every port where registry shall be made in pursuance of this act, a book shall be kept by the collector and controller, in which all the particulars contained in the form of the certificate of the registry herein-before directed to be used, shall be duly entered; and every registry shall be numbered in progression, beginning such progressive numeration at the commencement of each and every year; and such collector and controller shall forthwith, or within one month at the farthest, transmit to the commissioners of H. M.'s customs a true and exact copy, together with the number of every certificate which shall be by them so granted, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 11.

25. Every ship or vessel shall be deemed to belong to some port at or near to which some or one of the owners, who shall take and subscribe the oath required by this act before registry be made, shall reside; and whenever such owner or owners shall have transferred all his or their share or shares in such ship or vessel, the same shall be registered de novo before such ship or vessel shall sail or depart from the port to which she shall then belong, or from any other port which shall be in the same part of the U. K., or the same colony, plantation, island, or territory as the said port shall be in: provided, that if the owner or owners of such ship or vessel cannot in sufficient time comply with the requisites of this act, so that registry may be made before it shall be necessary for such ship or vessel to sail or depart upon another voyage, it shall be lawful for the collector and controller of the port where such ship or vessel may then be, to certify upon the back of the existing certificate of registry of such ship or vessel, that the same is to remain in force for the voyage upon which the said ship or vessel is then about to sail or depart: provided, that if any ship or vessel shall be built in any of the colonies, plantations, islands, or territories in Asia, Africa, or America, to H. M. belonging, for owners residing in the U. K., it shall be lawful for such ship or vessel to proceed to any part of the U. K., whether by a direct or circuitous voyage, and there to import a cargo, before registry shall have been made of such ship or vessel; provided the master of such ship or vessel, or the agent for the owner or owners thereof, shall have produced to the collector and controller of the port at or near to which such ship or vessel was built, or from which she shall be cleared for her voyage as aforesaid, the certificate of the builder required by this act, and shall have made oath before such collector and controller, of the names and descriptions of the principal owners of such ship or vessel, and that she is the identical ship or vessel mentioned in such certificate of the builder, and that no foreigner, to the best of his knowledge and belief, has any interest therein; whereupon the collector and controller of such port shall cause such ship or vessel to be surveyed and measured in like manner as is directed for the purpose of registering any ship or vessel, and shall give the master of such ship or vessel a certificate under their hands and seals, purporting to be under the authority of this act, and stating when and where, and by whom such ship or vessel was built, the description, tonnage, and other particulars required on registry of any ship or vessel, and the voyage for which such ship or vessel is cleared by them; and such certificate shall, for such voyage, have all the force and virtue of a certificate of registry under this act; and such collector and controller shall transmit a copy of such certificate to the commissioners of customs, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 12.

26. No person who has taken the oath of allegiance to any foreign state, except under the terms of some capitulation, unless he shall afterwards become a denizen or naturalized subject of the U. K., by H. M.'s letters patent, or by act of parliament; nor any person usually residing in any country not under the dominion of H. M., unless he be a member of some British factory, or agent for or partner in any house or copartnership actually carrying on trade in G. B. or Ire., shall be entitled to be the owner, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, of any ship or vessel required and authorized to be registered by virtue of this act, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 13.

27. No registry shall henceforth be made, or certificate granted, until the following oath be taken and subscribed before the person or persons herein-before authorized to make such registry and grant such certificate respectively (which they are hereby respectively empowered to administer), by the owner of such ship or vessel, if such ship or vessel is owned by or belongs to one person only; or in case there shall be two joint-owners, then by both of such joint-owners, if both shall be resident within 20 miles of the port or place where such register is required, or by one of such owners, if one or both of them shall be resident at a greater distance from such port or place; or if the number of such owners or proprietors shall exceed two, then by the greater part of the number of such owners or proprietors, if the greater number of them shall be resident within 20 miles of such port or place as aforesaid, not in any case exceeding three of such owners or proprietors, unless a greater number shall be desirous to join in taking and subscribing the said oath, or by one of such owners, if all, or all except one, shall be resident at a greater distance:

'I A. B. of [place of residence and occupation] do make oath, that the ship or vessel [name] of [port or place] whereof [master's name] is at present master, being [kind of built, burthen, et cætera, as described in the certificate of the surveying officer], was [when and where built, or if prize or forfeited, capture and condemnation, as such], and that I the said A. B. [and the other owners' names and occupations, if any, and where they respectively reside, videlicet, town, place, or parish, and county, or if member of and resident in any factory in foreign parts, or in any foreign town or city, being an agent for or partner in any house or copartnership actually carrying on trade in G. B. or Ire., the name of such factory, foreign town, or city, and the names of such house or copartnership], am [or are] sole owner [or owners] of the said vessel, and that no other person or persons whatever hath or have any right, title, interest, share, or property therein or thereto; and that I the said A. B. [and the said other owners, if any] am [or are] truly and bonâ fide a subject [or subjects] of G. B.; and that I the said A. B. have not [nor have any of the other owners, to the best of my knowledge and belief] taken the oath of allegiance to any foreign state whatever, [except under the terms of some capitulation, describing the particulars thereof], or that since my taking [or his or their taking] the oath of allegiance to [naming the foreign states respectively to which he or any of the said owners shall have taken the same], I have [or he or they hath or have] become a denizen, [or denizens, or naturalized subject or subjects, as the case may be] of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., by H. M.'s letters patent, or by an act of parliament [naming the times when such letters of denization have been granted respectively, or the year or years in which such act or acts for naturalization have passed respectively], and that no foreigner directly or indirectly hath any share or part interest in the said ship or vessel.'

Provided, that if it shall become necessary to register any ship or vessel belonging to any corporate body in the U. K., the following oath, in lieu of the oath herein-before directed, shall be taken and subscribed by the secretary or other proper officer of such corporate body; (that is to say),

'I A. B. secretary or officer of [name of company or corporation], do make oath, that the ship or vessel [name] of [port] whereof [master's name] is at present master, being [kind of built, burthen, et cætera, as described in the certificate of the surveying officer], was [when and where built, or if prize or forfeited, capture and condemnation, as such], and that the same doth wholly and truly belong to [name of company or corporation].

6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 14.

28. In case the required number of joint-owners or proprietors of any ship or vessel shall not personally attend to take and subscribe the oath herein-before directed to be taken and subscribed, then and in such case such owner or owners, proprietor or proprietors, as shall personally attend, and take and subscribe the oath aforesaid, shall further make oath, that the part-owner or part-owners of such ship or vessel then absent is or are not resident within 20 miles of such port or place, and hath or have not to the best of his or their knowledge or belief wilfully absented himself or themselves, in order to avoid the taking the oath herein-before directed to be taken and subscribed, or is or are prevented by illness from attending to take and subscribe the said oath, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 15.

29. And in order to enable the collector and controller of H. M.'s customs to grant a certificate, truly and accurately describing every ship or vessel to be registered in pursuance of this act, and also to enable all other officers of H. M.'s customs, on due examination, to discover whether any such ship or vessel is the same with that for which a certificate is alleged to have been granted; be it enacted, That previous to the registering or granting of any certificate of registry as aforesaid, some one or more person or persons appointed by the commissioners of customs (taking to his or their assistance, if he or they shall judge it necessary, one or more person or persons skilled in the building and admeasurement of ships), shall go on board of every such ship or vessel as is to be registered, and shall strictly and accurately examine and admeasure every such ship or vessel as to all and every particular contained in the form of the certificate herein-before directed, in the presence of the master, or of any other person who shall be appointed for that purpose on the part of the owner or owners, or in his or their absence by the said master; and shall deliver a true and just account in writing of all such particulars of the built, description, and admeasurement of every such ship or vessel as are specified in the form of the certificate above recited, to the collector and controller authorized as aforesaid to make such registry and grant such certificate of registry; and the said master or other person, attending on the part of the owner or owners, is hereby required to sign his name also to the certificate of such surveying or examining officer, in testimony of the truth thereof, provided such master or other person shall consent and agree to the several particulars set forth and described therein, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 16.

50. For the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of ships or vessels, the rule for admeasurement shall be as follows: videlicet, the length shall be taken on a straight line along the rabbet of the keel, from the back of the main stern-post to a perpendicular line from the fore part of the main stem under the bowsprit, from which subtracting three-fifths of the breadth, the remainder shall be esteemed the just length of the keel to find the tonnage, and the breadth shall be taken from the outside of the outside plank in the broadest part of the ship, whether that shall be above or below the main wales, exclusive of all manner of doubling planks that may be wrought upon the sides of the ship, then multiplying the length of the keel by the breadth so taken, and that product by half the breadth, and dividing the whole by 94, the quotient shall be deemed the true contents of the tonnage, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 17.

51. And whereas it would in some cases endanger ships or vessels to cause them to be laid on shore; be it therefore enacted, That in cases where it may be necessary to ascertain the tonnage of any ship or vessel when afloat, according to the foregoing rule, the following method shall be observed; that is to say, drop a plumb-line over the stern of the ship, and measure the distance between such line and the after part of the stern-post at the load water-mark; then measure from the top of the plumb-line, in a parallel direction with the water, to a perpendicular point immediately over the load water-mark at the fore part of the main stem, subtracting from such measurement the above distance, the remainder will be the ship's extreme, from which is to be deducted three inches for every foot of the load draught of water for the rake abaft, also three-fifths of the ship's breadth for the rake forward, the remainder shall be esteemed the just length of the keel to find the tonnage; and the breadth shall be taken from outside to outside of the plank in the broadest part of the ship, whether that shall be above or below the main wales, exclusive of all manner of sheathing or doubling that may be wrought on the side of the ship; then multiplying the length of the keel for tonnage by the breadth so taken, and that product by half the breadth, and dividing by 94, the quotient shall be deemed the true contents of the tonnage, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 18.

52. Provided, that in each of the several rules herein-before prescribed, when used for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of any ship or vessel propelled by steam, the length of the engine-room shall be deducted from the whole length of such ship or vessel, and the remainder shall, for such purpose, be deemed the whole length of the same, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 19.

53. Whenever the tonnage of any ship or vessel shall have been ascertained according to the rule herein prescribed (except in the case of ships or vessels which have been admeasured afloat), such account of tonnage shall ever after be deemed the tonnage of such ship or vessel, and shall be repeated in every subsequent registry of such ship or vessel, unless it shall happen that any alteration has been made in the form and burthen of such ship or vessel, or it shall be discovered that the tonnage of such ship or vessel had been erroneously taken and computed, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 20.

54. At the time of the obtaining of the certificate of registry as aforesaid, sufficient security by bond shall be given to H. M., by the master and such of the owners as shall personally attend as is herein-before required, such security to be approved of and taken by the person or persons herein-before authorized to make such registry, and grant such certificate of registry at the port or place in which such certificate shall be granted, in the penalties following; that is to say, if such ship or vessel shall be a decked vessel, or be above the burthen of 15 tons and not exceeding 50 tons, in the penalty of 100*l.*; if exceeding the burthen of 50 tons and not exceeding 100 tons, in the penalty of 300*l.*; if exceeding the burthen of 100 tons and not exceeding 200 tons, in the penalty of 500*l.*; if exceeding the burthen of 200 tons, and not exceeding 300 tons, in the penalty of 800*l.*; and if exceeding the burthen of 300 tons, in the penalty of 1000*l.*; and the condition of every such bond shall be, that such certificate shall not be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of to any person or persons whatever, and that the same shall be solely made use of for the service of the ship or vessel for which it is granted, and that in case such ship or vessel shall be lost or taken by the enemy, burnt or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the port to which she belongs, or shall on any account have lost and forfeited the privileges of a British ship, or shall have been seized and legally condemned for illicit trading, or shall have been taken in execution for debt and sold by due process of law, or shall have been sold to the Crown, or shall under any circumstances have been registered de novo, the certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up within one month after the arrival of the master in any port or place in H. M.'s dominions to the collector and controller of some port in G. B., or of the Isle of Man, or of the British plantations, or to the governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief for the time being of the islands of Guernsey or Jersey; and that if any foreigner or any person for his use and benefit shall purchase or otherwise become entitled to the whole or any part or share of or any interest in such ship or vessel, and the same shall be within the limits of any port of G. B., Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or the British colonies, plantations, islands, or territories aforesaid, then and in such case the certificate of registry shall, within seven days after such purchase or transfer of property in such ship or vessel, be delivered up to the person or persons herein-before authorized to make registry and grant certificate of registry at such port or place respectively as aforesaid; and if such ship or vessel shall be in any foreign port when such purchase or transfer of interest or property shall take place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British consul or other chief British officer resident at or nearest to such foreign port, or if such ship or vessel shall be at sea when such purchase or transfer of interest or property shall take place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British consul or other chief British officer at the foreign port or place in or at which the master or other person having or taking the charge or command of such ship or vessel shall first arrive, after such purchase or transfer of property at sea, immediately after his arrival at such foreign port; but if such master or other person who had the command thereof at the time of such purchase or transfer of property at sea, shall not arrive at a foreign port, but shall arrive at some port of G. B., Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or H. M.'s said colonies, plantations, islands, or territories, then that the same shall be delivered up in manner aforesaid, within 14 days after the arrival of such ship or vessel, or of the person who had the command thereof in any port of G. B., Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or any of H. M.'s said colonies, plantations, islands, or territories: provided, that if it shall happen that at the time of registry of any ship or vessel the same shall be at any other port than the port to which she belongs, so that the master of such ship or vessel cannot attend at the port of registry to join with the owner or owners in such bond as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him to give a separate bond, to the like effect, at the port where such ship or vessel may then be, and the collector and controller of such other port shall transmit such bond to the collector and controller of the port where such ship or vessel is to be registered, and such bond, and the bond also given by the owner or owners, shall together be of the same effect against the master and owner or owners, or either of them, as if they had bound themselves jointly and severally in one bond, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 21.

55. When and so often as the master or other person having or taking the charge or command of any ship or vessel registered in manner herein-before directed shall be changed, the master or owner of such ship or vessel shall deliver to the person or persons herein-before authorized to make such registry and grant such certificates of registry at the port where such change shall take place, the certificate of registry belonging to such ship or vessel, who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a memorandum of such change, and shall forthwith give notice of the same to the proper officer of the port or place where such ship or vessel was last registered pursuant to this act, who shall likewise make a memorandum of the same in the book of registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give notice thereof to the commissioners of customs: provided, that before the name of such new master shall be indorsed on the certificate of registry, he shall be required to give and shall give a bond, in the like penalties and under the same conditions as are contained in the bond herein-before required to be given at the time of registry of any ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 22.

56. If any person whatever shall at any time have possession of and wilfully detain any certificate of registry granted under this or any other act, which ought to be delivered up to be cancelled according to any of the conditions of the bond herein-before required to be given upon the registry of any ship or vessel, such person is hereby required and enjoined to deliver up such certificate of registry, in manner directed by the conditions of such bond, in the respective cases and under the respective penalties therein provided, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 23.

57. It shall not be lawful for any owner or owners of any ship or vessel to give any name to such ship or vessel, other than that by which she was first registered in pursuance of this or any other act; and that the owner or owners of all and every ship or vessel which shall be so registered shall, before such ship or vessel, after such registry, shall begin to take in any cargo, paint or cause to be painted in white or yellow letters, of a length not less than four inches, upon a black ground, on some conspicuous part of the stern, the name by which such ship or vessel shall have been registered pursuant to this act, and the port to which she belongs, in a distinct and legible manner, and shall so keep and preserve the same; and that if such owner or owners, or master, or other person having or taking the charge or command of such ship or vessel, shall permit such ship or vessel to begin to take in any cargo before the name of such ship or vessel has been so painted as aforesaid, or shall wilfully alter, erase, obliterate, or in anywise hide or conceal, or cause or procure or permit the same to be done (unless in the case of square-rigged vessels in time of war), or shall in any written or printed paper, or other document, describe such ship or vessel by any name other than that by which she was first registered pursuant to this act, or shall verbally describe, or cause or procure or permit such ship or vessel to be described, by any other name, to any officer or officers of H. M.'s revenue in the due execution of his or their duty, then and in every such case such owner or owners, or master, or other person having or taking the charge or command of such ship or vessel, shall forfeit the sum of 100*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 24.

38. All and every person who shall apply for a certificate of the registry of any ship or vessel, shall and they are hereby required to produce, to the person or persons authorized to grant such certificate, a true and full account, under the hand of the builder of such ship or vessel, of the proper denomination, and of the time when and the place where such ship or vessel was built, and also an exact account of the tonnage of such ship or vessel, together with the name of the first purchaser or purchasers thereof, (which account such builder is hereby directed and required to give under his hand, on the same being demanded by such person so applying for a certificate as aforesaid,) and shall also make oath before the person or persons herein-before authorized to grant such certificate (which oath he or they is or are hereby authorized to administer), that the ship or vessel for which such certificate is required is the same with that which is so described by the builder as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 25.

39. If the certificate of registry of any ship or vessel shall be lost or mislaid, so that the same cannot be found or obtained for the use of such ship or vessel when needful, and proof thereof shall be made to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, such commissioners shall and may permit such ship or vessel to be registered de novo, and a certificate thereof to be granted: provided, that if such ship or vessel be absent and far distant from the port to which she belongs, or by reason of the absence of the owner or owners, or of any other impediment, registry of the same cannot then be made in sufficient time, such commissioners shall and may grant a licence for the present use of such ship or vessel, which licence shall, for the time and to the extent specified therein and no longer, be of the same force and virtue as a certificate of registry granted under this act: provided, that before such registry de novo be made, the owner or owners and master shall give bond to the commissioners aforesaid, in such sum as to them shall seem fit, with a condition that if the certificate of registry shall at any time afterwards be found, the same shall be forthwith delivered to the proper officers of customs to be cancelled, and that no illegal use has been or shall be made thereof with his or their privity or knowledge; and further, that before any such licence shall be granted as aforesaid, the master of such ship or vessel shall also make oath that the same has been registered as a British ship, naming the port where and the time when such registry was made, and all the particulars contained in the certificate thereof, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and shall also give such bond, and with the same condition as is before mentioned: provided also, that before any such licence shall be granted, such ship or vessel shall be surveyed in like manner as if a registry de novo were about to be made thereof; and the certificate of such survey shall be preserved by the collector and controller of the port to which such ship or vessel shall belong; and in virtue thereof it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, and they are hereby required to permit such ship or vessel to be registered after her departure, whenever the owner or owners shall personally attend to take and subscribe the oath required by this act before registry be made, and shall also comply with all other requisites of this act, except so far as relates to the bond to be given by the master of such ship or vessel; which certificate of registry the said commissioners shall and may transmit to the collector and controller of any other port, to be by them given to the master of such ship or vessel, upon his giving such bond, and delivering up the licence which had been granted for the then present use of such ship or vessel, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 26.

40. And whereas it is not proper that any person under any pretence whatever should detain the certificate of registry of any ship or vessel, or hold the same for any purpose other than the lawful use and navigation of the ship or vessel for which it was granted; be it therefore enacted, That in case the master of any ship or vessel, or any other person, who shall have received or obtained by any means or for any purpose whatever the certificate of the registry thereof (whether such master or other person shall be a part-owner or not), shall wilfully detain and refuse to deliver up the same to the proper officers of customs, for the purposes of such ship or vessel, as occasion shall require, it may and shall be lawful to and for any owner or owners of such ship or vessel, the certificate of registry of which shall be detained and refused to be delivered up as aforesaid, to make complaint on oath against the master of the ship or vessel, or other person, who shall so detain and refuse to deliver up the same, of such detainer and refusal, to any justice of the peace residing near to the place where such detainer and refusal shall be, in G. B. or Ire., or to any member of the supreme court of justice, or any justice of the peace in the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, or Man, or in any colony, plantation, island, or territory to H. M. belonging in Asia, Africa, or America, or Malta, Gibraltar, or Heligoland, where such detainer and refusal shall be in any of the places last mentioned; and on such complaint the said justice or other magistrate shall and is hereby required, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such master or other person to be brought before him to be examined touching such detainer and refusal; and if it shall appear to the said justice or other magistrate, on examination of the master or other person, or otherwise, that the said certificate of registry is not lost or mislaid, but is wilfully detained by the said master or other person, such master or other person shall be thereof convicted, and shall forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.*, and on failure of payment thereof he shall be committed to the common gaol, there to remain without bail or mainprize for such time as the said justice or other magistrate shall in his discretion deem proper, not being less than three months nor more than 12 months; and the said justice or other magistrate shall and he is hereby required to certify the aforesaid detainer, refusal, and conviction, to the person or persons who granted such certificate of registry for such ship or vessel, who shall, on the terms and conditions of law being complied with, make registry of such ship or vessel de novo, and grant a certificate thereof conformably to law, notifying on the back of such certificate the ground upon which the ship or vessel was so registered de novo; and if such master or other person who shall have detained and refused to deliver up such certificate of registry as aforesaid, or shall be verily believed to have detained the same, shall have absconded, so that the said warrant of the justice or other magistrate cannot be executed upon him, and proof thereof shall be made to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners to permit such ship or vessel to be registered de novo, or otherwise, in their discretion, to grant a licence for the present use of such ship or vessel, in like manner as is herein-before provided in the case wherein the certificate of registry is lost or mislaid, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 27.

41. If any ship or vessel, after she shall have been registered pursuant to the directions of this act, shall in any manner whatever be altered, so as not to correspond with all the particulars contained in the certificate of her registry, in such case such ship or vessel shall be registered de novo, in manner herein-before required, as soon as she returns to the port to which she belongs, or to any other port which shall be in the same part of the U. K., or in the same colony, plantation, island or territory, as the said port shall be in, on failure whereof such ship or vessel shall to all intents and purposes be considered and deemed and taken to be a ship or vessel not duly registered, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 28.

42. The owner or owners of all such ships and vessels as shall be taken by any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, or by any private or other ship or vessel, and condemned as lawful prize in any court of admiralty, or of such ships or vessels as shall be condemned in any competent court as forfeited for breach of the laws for the prevention of the slave-trade, shall, upon registering such ship or vessel, before he or they shall obtain such certificate as aforesaid, produce to the collector and controller of customs a certificate of the condemnation of such ship or vessel, under the hand and seal of the judge of the court in which such ship or vessel shall have been condemned (which certificate such judge is hereby authorized and required to grant), and also a true and exact account in writing of all the particulars contained in the certificate herein-before set forth, to be made and subscribed by one or more skilful person or persons, to be appointed by the court then and there to survey such ship or vessel, and shall also make oath before the collector and controller, that such ship or vessel is the same vessel which is mentioned in the certificate of the judge aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 29.

43. Provided, that no ship or vessel which shall be taken and condemned as prize or forfeiture as aforesaid, shall be registered in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, although belonging to H. M.'s subjects residing in those islands, or in some one or other of them; but the same shall be registered either at Southampton, Weymouth, Exeter, Plymouth, Falmouth, Liverpool, or Whitehaven, by the collector and controller at such ports respectively, who are hereby authorized and required to register such ship or vessel, and to grant a certificate thereof in the form and under the regulations and restrictions in this act contained, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 30.

44. When and so often as the property in any ship or vessel, or any part thereof, belonging to any of H. M.'s subjects, shall after registry thereof be sold to any other or others of H. M.'s subjects, the same shall be transferred by bill of sale, or other instrument in writing, containing a recital of the certificate of registry of such ship or vessel, or the principal contents thereof, otherwise such transfer shall not be valid or effectual for any purpose whatever, either in law or in equity: provided, that no bill of sale shall be deemed void by reason of any error in such recital, or by the recital of any former certificate of registry instead of the existing certificate, provided the identity of the ship or vessel therein intended be effectually proved thereby, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 31.

45. The property in every ship or vessel, of which there are more than one owner, shall be taken and considered to be divided in 64 parts or shares, and the proportion held by each owner shall be described in the registry as being a certain number of 64th parts or shares; and that no person shall be entitled to be registered as an owner of any ship or vessel in respect of any proportion of such ship or vessel, which shall not be an integral 64th part or share of the same; and upon the first registry of any ship or vessel, the owner or owners who shall take and subscribe the oath required by this act, before registry be made, shall also declare upon oath the number of such parts or shares then held by each owner, and the same shall be so registered accordingly: provided, that if it shall at any time happen that the property of any owner or owners in any ship or vessel cannot be reduced, by division, into any number of integral 64th parts or shares, it shall and may be lawful for the owner or owners of such fractional parts as shall be over and above such number of integral 64th parts or shares into which such property in any ship or vessel can be reduced by division, to transfer the same one to another, or jointly, to any new owner, by memorandum upon their respective bills of sale, or by fresh bill of sale, without such transfer being liable to any stamp-duty: provided also, that the right of such owner or owners to such fractional parts shall not be affected by reason of the same not having been registered: provided also, that it shall be lawful for any number of such owners, named and described in such registry, being partners in any house or copartnership actually carrying on trade in any part of H. M.'s dominions to hold any ship or vessel, or any share or shares of any ship or vessel, in the name of such house or copartnership, as joint-owners thereof, without distinguishing the proportionate interest of each of such owners, and that such ship or vessel, or the share or shares thereof so held in copartnership, shall be deemed and taken to be partnership property to all intents and purposes, and shall be governed by the same rules, both in law and equity, as relate to and govern all other partnership property in any other goods, chattels, and effects whatsoever, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 32.

46. No greater number than 32 persons shall be entitled to be legal owners at one and the same time of any ship or vessel, as tenants in common, or to be registered as such: provided, that nothing herein contained shall affect the equitable title of minors, heirs, legatees, creditors, or others, exceeding that number, duly represented by or holding from any of the persons within the said number, registered as legal owners of any share or shares of such ship or vessel: provided also, that if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, that any number of persons have associated themselves as a joint stock company, for the purpose of owning any ship or vessel, or any number of ships or vessels, as the joint property of such company, and that such company have duly elected or appointed any number, not less than three of the members of the same, to be trustees of the property in such ship or vessel, or ships or vessels so owned by such company, it shall be lawful for such trustees, or any three of them, with the permission of such commissioners, to take the oath required by this act, before registry be made, except that instead of stating therein the names and descriptions of the other owners, they shall state the name and description of the company to which such ship or vessel, or ships or vessels, shall in such manner belong, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 33.

47. Whenever any ship or vessel which had been registered before the said 31st Dec. 1823, and shall not have been registered de novo since that day, and before the commencement of this act [5th July 1825], shall be registered de novo, the number of such shares held by each owner shall be registered as far as the same be practicable, and to that intent the owner or owners who shall take and subscribe the oath required by this act before registry be made, shall produce the bills of sale or other titles of themselves and of the other owners, in order that the number of such shares held by each of them may be ascertained and registered accordingly; and if the registry of such ship or vessel then in force shall be the first registry, and the shares of any of the owners shall remain the same as they were at the time of such registry, and the owner or owners, or any one of them, who shall attend to take and subscribe the oath required by this act before registry be made, shall be the same as was or were the owner or owners, or one of them, who took and subscribed such oath before such first registry was made, such original owner or owners instead of producing the bills of sale, shall declare upon oath to the best of his or their knowledge and belief, the number of such shares held by him or them, or by any other original owner or owners, whose proportionate property in such ship or vessel shall have remained unchanged: provided, that if at the time of such registry de novo such owner or owners shall make oath that he and they, and each of them, are unable to produce the bill or bills of sale, or to give any certain account or proof of the share or shares of the other previous owners, or some or any one of them; it shall be lawful for the collector and controller to register such ship or vessel without requiring the share or shares of such owner or owners to be declared and specified, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 34.

48. Provided, that from and after the commencement of this act [5th July 1825], or from and after the first arrival and entry of any ship or vessel, after such commencement, at the port to which she belongs, or at any other port which shall be in the same part of the U. K., or in the same colony, plantation, island, or territory as the said port shall be in, no certificate of registry shall be in force, except such as shall be granted under the authority of this act, or which shall have been granted under the authority of 4 G. 4. c. 41., intituled, An Act for the registering of vessels, and in which the share or shares herein-before described held by each owner shall be set forth, unless it shall be certified thereon by the collector and controller of the port to which such ship or vessel belong, that farther time has been granted by the commissioners of customs for ascertaining and registering the number or numbers of such shares as cannot then be ascertained, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 35.

49. Upon the first registry in compliance with this act, of any ship or vessel which had been before registered, no stamp-duty shall be charged upon the bond therein required to be given; and if the certificate of such former registry then delivered up to be cancelled shall have a Mediterranean pass attached thereto, no stamp-duty shall be charged on account of the new Mediterranean pass which shall be obtained in lieu of the one so delivered up and cancelled, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 36.

50. No bill of sale or other instrument in writing, shall be valid and effectual to pass the property in any ship or vessel, or in any share thereof, or for any other purpose, until such bill of sale or other instrument in writing shall have been produced to the collector and controller of the port at which such ship or vessel is registered, or to the collector and controller of any other port at which she is about to be registered de novo, as the case may be, nor until such collector and controller respectively shall have entered in the book of registry or in the book of intended registry of such ship or vessel, as the case may be, (and which they are respectively hereby required to do upon the production of the bill of sale or other instrument for that purpose) the name, residence, and description of the vendor or mortgagor, or of each vendor or mortgagor, if more than one, the number of shares transferred, the name, residence, and description of the purchaser or mortgagee, or of each purchaser or mortgagee, if more than one, and the date of the bill of sale or other instrument, and of the production of it; and further, if such ship or vessel is not about to be registered de novo, the collector and controller of the port where such ship is registered shall and they are hereby required to indorse the aforesaid particulars of such bill of sale or other instrument on the certificate of registry of the said ship or vessel, when the same shall be produced to them for that purpose, in manner and to the effect following; videlicet,

' Custom House [port and date; name, residence, and description of vendor or mortgagor] has transferred by [bill of sale or other instrument] dated [date; number of shares] to [name, residence, and description of purchaser or mortgagee.]

A. B. Collector.

C. D. Controller.'

And forthwith to give notice thereof to the commissioners of customs; and in case the collector and controller shall be desired so to do, and the bill of sale or other instrument shall be produced to them for that purpose, then the said collector and controller are hereby required to certify, by indorsement upon the said bill of sale or other instrument, that the particulars before mentioned have been so entered in the book of registry, and indorsed upon the certificate of registry as aforesaid, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 37.

51. When and so soon as the particulars of any bill of sale or other instrument by which any ship or vessel, or any share or shares thereof, shall be transferred, shall have been so entered in the book of registry as aforesaid, the said bill of sale or other instrument shall be valid and effectual to pass the property thereby intended to be transferred, as against all and every person and persons whatsoever, and to all intents and purposes, except as against such subsequent purchasers and mortgagees who shall first procure the indorsement to be made upon the certificate of registry of such ship or vessel in manner herein-after mentioned, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 38.

52. When and after the particulars of any bill of sale, or other instrument by which any ship or vessel, or any share or shares thereof, shall be transferred, shall have been so entered in the book of registry as aforesaid, the collector and controller shall not enter in the book of registry the particulars of any other bill of sale, or instrument purporting to be a transfer by the same vendor or mortgagor, or vendors or mortgagors, of the same ship or vessel, share or shares thereof, to any other person or persons, unless 30 days shall elapse from the day on which the particulars of the former bill of sale, or other instrument, were entered in the book of registry; or in case the ship or vessel was absent from the port to which she belonged at the time when the particulars of such former bill of sale or other instrument were entered in the book of registry, then unless 30 days shall have elapsed from the day on which the ship or vessel arrived at the port to which the same belonged; and in case the particulars of two or more such bills of sale, or other instruments as aforesaid, shall at any time have been entered in the book of registry of the said ship or vessel, the collector and controller shall not enter in the book of registry the particulars of any other bill of sale or other instrument as aforesaid, unless 30 days shall in like manner have elapsed from the day on which the particulars of the last of such bills of sale or other instrument were entered in the books of registry, or from the day on which the ship or vessel arrived at the port to which she belonged, in case of her absence as aforesaid; and in every case where there shall at any time happen to be two or more transfers by the same owner or owners of the same property in any ship or vessel entered in the book of registry as aforesaid, the collector and controller are hereby required to indorse upon the certificate of registry of such ship or vessel, the particulars of that bill of sale or other instrument under which the person or persons claims or claim property, who shall produce the certificate of registry for that purpose within 30 days next after the entry of his said bill of sale or other instrument in the book of registry as aforesaid, or within 30 days next after the return of the said ship or vessel to the port to which she belongs, in case of her absence at the time of such entry as aforesaid; and in case no person shall produce the certificate of registry within either of the said spaces of 30 days, then it shall be lawful for the collector and controller, and they are hereby required, to indorse upon the certificate of registry the particulars of the bill of sale or other instrument to such person as shall first produce the certificate of registry for that purpose, it being the true intent and meaning of this act that the several purchasers and mortgagees of such ship or vessel, share or shares thereof, when more than one appear to claim the same property, shall have priority one over the other, not according to the respective times when the particulars of the bill of sale or other instrument by which such property was transferred to them were entered in the book of registry as aforesaid, but according to the time when the indorsement is made upon the certificate of registry as aforesaid: provided, that if the certificate of registry shall be lost or mislaid, or shall be detained by any person whatever, so that the indorsement cannot in due time be made thereon, and proof thereof shall be made by the purchaser or mortgagee, or his known agent, to the satisfaction of the commissioners of customs, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners to grant such further time as to them shall appear necessary for the recovery of the certificate of registry, or for the registry de novo of the said ship or vessel under the provisions of this act, and thereupon the collector and controller shall make a memorandum in the book of registers of the further time so granted, and during such time no other bill of sale shall be entered for the transfer of the same ship or vessel, or the same share or shares thereof, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 39.

53. If the certificate of registry of such ship or vessel shall be produced to the collector and controller of any port where she may then be, after any such bill of sale shall have been recorded at the port to which she belongs, together with such bill of sale, containing a notification of such record, signed by the collector and controller of such port as before directed, it shall be lawful for the collector and controller of such other port, to indorse on such certificate of registry (being required so to do), the transfer mentioned in such bill of sale, and such collector and controller shall give notice thereof to the collector and controller of the port to which such ship or vessel belongs, who shall record the same in like manner as if they had made such indorsement themselves, but inserting the name of the port at which such indorsement was made: provided, that the collector and controller of such other port shall first give notice to the collector and controller of the port to which such ship or vessel belongs, of such requisition made to them, to indorse the certificate of registry, and the collector and controller of the port to which such ship or vessel belongs, shall thereupon send information to the collector and controller of such other port, whether any and what other bill or bills of sale have been recorded in the book of the registry of such ship or vessel; and the collector and controller of such other port, having such information, shall proceed in manner directed by this act in all respects to the indorsing of the certificate of registry, as they would do if such port were the port to which such vessel belonged, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 40.

54. If it shall become necessary to register any ship or vessel de novo, and any share or shares of such ship or vessel shall have been sold since she was last registered, and the transfer of such share or shares shall not have been recorded and indorsed in manner herein-before directed, the bill of sale thereof shall be produced to the collector and controller of customs, who are to make registry of such ship or vessel, otherwise such sale shall not be noticed in such registry de novo, except as herein-after excepted: provided, that upon the future production of such bill of sale, and of the existing certificate of registry, such transfer shall and may be recorded and indorsed, as well after such registry de novo as before, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 41.

55. If upon any change of property in any ship or vessel, the owner or owners shall desire to have the same registered de novo, although not required by this act, and the owner or proper number of owners shall attend at the custom-house at the port to which such ship or vessel belongs for that purpose, it shall be lawful for the collector and controller of H. M.'s customs at such port, to make registry de novo of such ship or vessel at the same port, and to grant a certificate thereof, the several requisites herein-before in this act mentioned and directed being first duly observed and complied with, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 42.

56. And whereas great inconvenience hath arisen from the registering officers being served with subpoenas requiring them to bring with them and produce, on trials in courts of law relative to the ownership of vessels, or otherwise, the oaths or affidavits required to be taken by the owners thereof prior to the registering thereof, and the books of registry, or copies or extracts therefrom: and whereas it would tend much to the dispatch of business if the attendance of such registering officers with the same upon such trials were dispensed with; be it therefore enacted, That the collector and controller of H. M.'s customs at any port or place, and the person or persons acting for them respectively, shall, upon every reasonable request by any person whomsoever, produce and exhibit for his, her, or their inspection and examination any oath or affidavit taken or sworn by any such owner or owners, proprietor or proprietors, and also any register or entry in any book or books of registry required by this act to be made or kept relative to any ship or vessel, and shall, upon every reasonable request by any person whomsoever, permit him to take a copy or copies, or an extract or extracts thereof respectively; and that the copy or copies of any such oath or affidavit, register or entry, shall, upon being proved to be a true copy or copies thereof respectively, be allowed and received as evidence upon every trial at law, without the production of the original or originals, and without the testimony or attendance of any collector or controller, or other person or persons acting for them respectively, in all cases as fully and to all intents and purposes as such original or originals, if produced by any collector or collectors, controller or controllers, or other person or persons acting for them, could or might legally be admitted or received in evidence, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 43.

57. If the ship or vessel, or the share or shares of any owner thereof who may be out of the kingdom, shall be sold in his absence by his known agent or correspondent, under his directions, either expressed or implied, and acting for his interest in that behalf, and such agent or correspondent who shall have executed a bill of sale to the purchaser of the whole of such ship or vessel, or of any share or shares thereof, shall not have received a legal power to execute the same, it shall be lawful for the commissioners of customs, upon application made to them, and proof to their satisfaction of the fair dealings of the parties, to permit such transfer to be registered, if registry de novo be necessary, or to be recorded and indorsed, as the case may be, in manner directed by this act, as if such legal power had been produced; and if it shall happen that any bill of sale cannot be produced, or if, by reason of distance of time, or the absence or death of parties concerned, it cannot be proved that a bill of sale for any share or shares in any ship or vessel had been executed, and registry de novo of such ship or vessel shall have become necessary, it shall be lawful for the commissioners of H. M.'s customs, upon proof to their satisfaction of the fair dealings of the parties, to permit such ship or vessel to be registered de novo, in like manner as if a bill of sale for the transfer of such share or shares had been produced: provided, that in any of the cases herein mentioned, good and sufficient security shall be given to produce a legal power or bill of sale within a reasonable time, or to abide the future claims of the absent owner, his heirs and successors, as the case may be; and at the future request of the party whose property has been so transferred, without the production of a bill of sale from him or from his lawful attorney, such bond shall be available for the protection of his interest, in addition to any powers or rights which he may have in law or equity against the ship or vessel, or against the parties concerned, until he shall have received full indemnity for any loss or injury sustained by him, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 44.

58. When any transfer of any ship or vessel, or of any share or shares thereof, shall be made only as a security for the payment of a debt or debts, either by way of mortgage, or of assignment to a trustee or trustees for the purpose of selling the same for the payment of any debt or debts, then and in every such case the collector and controller of the port where the ship or vessel is registered, shall in the entry in the book of registry, and also in the indorsement on the certificate of registry, in manner herein-before directed, state and express that such transfer was made only as a security for the payment of a debt or debts, or by way of mortgage, or to that effect; and the person to whom such transfer shall be made, or any other person claiming under him as a mortgagee, or a trustee only, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be the owner of such ship or vessel, share or shares thereof; nor shall the person making such transfer be deemed by reason thereof to have ceased to be an owner or owners of such ship or vessel, any more than if no such transfer had been made, except so far as may be necessary for the purpose of rendering the ship or vessel, share or shares so transferred, available by sale or otherwise for the payment of the debt or debts for securing the payment of which such transfer shall have been made, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 45.

59. When any transfer of any ship or vessel, or of any share or shares thereof, shall have been made as a security for the payment of any debt or debts, either by way of mortgage or of assignment as aforesaid, and such transfer shall have been duly registered according to the provisions of this act, the right or interest of the mortgagee or other assignee as aforesaid shall not be in any manner affected by any act of bankruptcy committed by such mortgagor or assignor, mortgagors or assignors, after the time when such mortgage or assignment shall have been so registered as aforesaid, notwithstanding such mortgagor or assignor, mortgagors or assignors, at the time he or they shall so become bankrupt as aforesaid, shall have in his or their possession, order, and disposition, and shall be the reputed owner or owners of the said ship or vessel, or the share or shares thereof, so by him or them mortgaged or assigned as aforesaid, but that such mortgage or assignment shall take place of and be preferred to any right, claim, or interest which may belong to the assignee or assignees of such bankrupt or bankrupts in such ship or vessel, share or shares thereof; any law or statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 46.

60. The commissioners of customs in Scot. and Ire. respectively shall transmit, at the end of every month in each year, to the commissioners of customs in Eng., true and exact copies of all such certificates as shall be granted by them, or by any officer or officers within the limits of their commission, in pursuance of this act, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 47.

61. It shall and may be lawful for any governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief of any of H. M.'s colonies, plantations, islands, or territories, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, if any suit, information, libel, or other prosecution or proceeding of any nature or kind whatever shall have been commenced, or shall hereafter be commenced in any court whatever in any of the said colonies, plantations, islands, or territories respectively, touching the force and effect of any register granted to any ship or vessel, upon a representation made to any such governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief, to cause all proceedings thereon to be stayed, if he shall see just cause so to do, until H. M.'s pleasure shall be known and certified to him by H. M., by and with the advice of H. M.'s privy council; and such governor, lieutenant-governor, or commander-in-chief is hereby required to transmit to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, to be laid before H. M. in council, an authenticated copy of the proceedings in every such case, together with his reasons for causing the same to be stayed, and such documents (properly verified) as he may judge necessary for the information of H. M., 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 48.

62. If any person shall falsely make oath to any of the matters herein-before required to be so verified, such person shall suffer the like pains and penalties as are incurred by persons committing wilful and corrupt perjury; and if any person shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any certificate or other instrument in writing, required or directed to be obtained, granted, or produced by this act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any certificate or other instrument so counterfeited, erased, altered, or falsified, or shall wilfully grant such certificate or other instrument in writing, knowing it to be false, such person shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 500*l.*, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 49.

63. All the penalties and forfeitures inflicted and incurred by this act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in such courts, and be disposed of in such manner, and by such ways, means, and methods, as any penalties or forfeitures inflicted or which may be incurred for any offences committed against the laws of customs may now legally be sued for, prosecuted, recovered and disposed of; and that the officer or officers concerned in seizures or prosecutions under this act shall be entitled to and receive the same share of the produce arising from such seizures, as in the case of seizures for unlawful importation, and so such share of the produce arising from any pecuniary fine or penalty for any offence against this act, as any officer or officers is or are now by any law or regulation entitled to upon prosecutions for pecuniary penalties, 6 G. 4. c. 110. s. 50.

SILK MANUFACTURES.

1. Entering a house, with intent to cut, &c. silk goods, 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 2. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 45, 46.] REPEALED, and new punishment awarded, 4 G. 4. c. 46. s. 2. Note.—The 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 2. is extended to Scot. by 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3., which, however, seems in force. [See ante, tit. OFFENCE, &c. pl. 14.]

2. To repeal certain acts of His late Majesty relating to the wages of persons employed in the manufacture of silk, and of silk mixed with other materials, 5 G. 4. c. 66. [See 5 G. 4. c. 95., tit. LABOURERS.]

3. Whereas the 13 G. 3. c. 68. was passed, intituled An Act to empower the magistrates therein mentioned to settle and regulate the wages of persons employed in the silk manufacture within their respective jurisdictions, which act was extended by 32 G. 3. c. 44., and amended by 51 G. 3. c. 7. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 10. 29—44.], and the Irish silk manufacture acts, 19 & 20 G. 3., 36 G. 3., 40 G. 3., and 50 G. 3. c. 7. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 47.]: and whereas the provisions of the said acts have not been found beneficial; be it enacted, That the said acts, and every clause, matter and thing therein contained, shall be repealed, 5 G. 4. c. 66.

4. For discouraging the importation of thrown silk, 2 W. & M. c. 9. REP. 6 G. 4. c. 29.

SLAVE-TRADE.

1. To amend and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition of the slave-trade, 5 G. 4. c. 113. [To commence from and after 1st Jan. 1825, s. 82.] Persons making seizures under 5 G. 4. c. 113. shall have the benefit of this act; and penalties under 5 G. 4. c. 113. shall be applied as herein directed, 6 G. 4. c. 114. ss. 71, 72. [ante, tit. NAVIGATION, pl. 138, 139.]

3. Whereas it is expedient that the various acts and enactments relating to slavery and the slave-trade should be consolidated and amended; be it therefore enacted, That from and after 1st Jan. 1825, all the acts and enactments relating to the slave-trade and the abolition thereof, and the exportation and importation of slaves, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except in so far as they may have repealed any prior acts or enactments, or may have been acted upon, or may be expressly confirmed by this present act, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 1. [Viz. 6 G. 3. c. 37. s. 18., 46 G. 3. c. 52., 47 G. 3. sess. 1. c. 36., 51 G. 3. c. 23., 53 G. 3. c. 112., 55 G. 3. c. 172., 58 G. 3. c. 49., 58 G. 3. c. 98., 59 G. 3. c. 97., 59 G. 3. c. 120., 1 G. 4. c. 50. Stat. Dig. tit. SLAVE-TRADE.]

4. It shall not be lawful (except in such special cases as are herein-after mentioned) for any persons to deal or trade in, purchase, sell, barter, or transfer, or to contract for the dealing or trading in, purchase, sale, barter, or transfer of slaves, or persons intended to be dealt with as slaves; or to carry away or remove or to contract for the carrying away or removing of slaves or other persons, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or to import or bring, or to contract for the importing or bringing into any place whatsoever, slaves or other persons, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or to ship, tranship, embark, receive, detain, or confine on board, or to contract for the shipping, transshipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, slaves or other persons, for the purpose of their being carried away or removed, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or to ship, tranship, embark, receive, detain, or confine on board, or to contract for the shipping, transshipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, slaves or other persons, for the purpose of their being imported or brought into any place whatsoever, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or to fit out, man, navigate, equip, dispatch, use, employ, let, or take to freight or on hire, or to contract for the fitting out, manning, navigating, equipping, dispatching, using, employing, letting, or taking to freight or on hire, any ship, vessel, or boat, in order to accomplish any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or to lend or advance, or become security for the loan or advance, or to contract for the lending or advancing, or becoming security for the loan or advance of money, goods, or effects, employed or to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or to become guarantee or security, or to contract for the becoming guarantee or security for agents employed or to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or in any other manner to engage or to contract to engage directly or indirectly therein as a partner, agent, or otherwise; or to ship, tranship, lade, receive, or put on board, or to contract for the shipping, transshipping, lading, receiving, or putting on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, money, goods, or effects, to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or to take the charge or command, or to navigate or enter and embark on board, or to contract for the taking the charge or command, or for the navigating or entering and embarking on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, as captain, master, mate, petty-officer, surgeon, supercargo, seaman, marine, or servant, or in any other capacity, knowing that such ship, vessel, or boat is actually employed, or is in the same voyage, or upon the same occasion, in respect of which they shall so take the charge or command, or navigate or enter and embark, or contract so to do as aforesaid, intended to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or to insure or to contract for the insuring of any slaves, or any property, or other subject matter, engaged or employed, or intended to be engaged or employed, in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 2.

5. If any person (except in such special cases as are in and by this act permitted) shall deal or trade in, purchase, sell, barter or transfer, or contract for the dealing or trading in, purchase, sale, barter, or transfer of slaves, or persons intended to be dealt with as slaves, or shall carry away or remove or contract for the carrying away or removing of slaves or other persons, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves, or shall import or bring or contract for the importing or bringing into any place whatsoever slaves or other persons, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves, or shall ship, tranship, embark, receive, detain, or confine on board, or contract for the shipping, transshipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, slaves or other persons for the purpose of their being carried away or removed, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or to ship, tranship, embark, receive, detain, or confine on board, or contract for the shipping, transshipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, slaves or other persons, for the purpose of their being imported or brought into any place whatsoever, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves, then the person so offending, and his procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of 100*l.* of lawful money of G. B. for each and every slave so dealt or traded in, purchased, sold, bartered, or transferred, carried away, removed, imported, brought, shipped, transhipped, embarked, received, detained, or confined on board, or so contracted for as aforesaid; the one moiety thereof to the use of H. M., and the other moiety to the use of any person who shall inform, sue, and prosecute for the same; and all property or pretended property in such slaves or persons as aforesaid shall also be forfeited, and the said slaves or persons shall and may be seized and prosecuted as herein-after is mentioned and provided, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 3.

6. If any person (except in such special cases or for such special purposes as are in and by this act permitted) shall fit out, man, navigate, equip, dispatch, use, employ, let or take to freight or on hire, or contract for the fitting out, manning, navigating, equipping, dispatching, using, employing, letting or taking to freight or on hire, any ship, vessel or boat, in order to accomplish any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, such ship, vessel, or boat, together with all her boats, guns, tackle, apparel, and furniture, and together likewise with all property, goods, or effects found on board, belonging to the owner or part-owner of any such ship, vessel, or boat, shall become forfeited, and shall be seized and prosecuted as herein-after is mentioned and provided, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 4.

7. If any persons (except in such special cases or for such special purposes as are in and by this act permitted) shall knowingly and wilfully lend or advance, or become security for the loan or advance, or shall contract for the lending or advancing, or becoming security for the loan or advance of money, goods, or effects, employed or to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, then the persons so offending, and their procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence double the value of all the money, goods, and effects so lent, advanced, or secured, or so contracted for as aforesaid, to be recovered and applied as is herein-after mentioned and provided, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 5.

8. If any persons (except in such special cases or for such special purposes as are in and by this act permitted) shall knowingly and wilfully become guarantee or security, or contract for the becoming guarantee or security for agents employed, or to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, or shall in any other manner engage or contract to engage directly or indirectly therein, as a partner, agent, or otherwise, then the persons so offending, and their procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence double the value of all the money, goods, and effects so by them secured or contracted so to be as aforesaid, to be recovered and applied as is herein-after mentioned and provided, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 6.

9. If any persons (except in such special cases or for such special purposes as are in and by this act permitted), shall knowingly and wilfully ship, tranship, lade, receive, or put on board, or contract for the shipping, transshipping, lading, receiving, or putting on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, any money, goods, or effects to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, then the persons so offending, and their procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence double the value of all the money, goods, and effects so shipped, transhipped, laden, received, or put on board, or contracted so to be as aforesaid, to be recovered and applied as is herein-after mentioned and provided, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 7.

10. If any person (except in such special cases or for such special purposes as are in and by this act permitted) shall knowingly and wilfully insure or contract for the insuring of any slaves, or any property or other subject matter engaged or employed or intended to be engaged or employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, then the person so offending, and his procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of 100*l.* of lawful money of G. B. for every such insurance or contract for the same, and also treble the amount of the premium of any such insurance or contract for the same, the one moiety thereof to the use of H. M., and the other moiety to the use of any person who shall inform, sue, and prosecute for the same, and every such insurance shall be absolutely null and void, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 8.

11. If any subject of H. M., or any person residing or being within any of the dominions, forts, settlements, factories, or territories, now or hereafter belonging to H. M., or being in H. M.'s occupation or possession, or under the government of the united Co. of merchants of Eng. trading to the E. I., shall, except in such cases as are in and by this act permitted, after the 1st Jan. 1825, upon the high seas, or in any haven, river, creek, or place where the admiral has jurisdiction, knowingly and wilfully carry away, convey, or remove, or aid, or assist in carrying away, conveying, or removing, any person as a slave, or for the purpose of his or her being imported or brought as a slave into any island, colony, country, territory, or place whatsoever, or for the purpose of his or her being sold, transferred, used, or dealt with as a slave, or shall after the said 1st Jan. 1825, except in such cases as are in and by this act permitted, upon the high seas, or within the jurisdiction aforesaid, knowingly and wilfully ship, embark, receive, detain, or confine, or assist in shipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board any ship, vessel, or boat, any person for the purpose of his or her being carried away, conveyed, or removed as a slave, or for the purpose of his or her being imported or brought as a slave into any island, colony, country, territory, or place whatsoever, or for the purpose of his or her being sold, transferred, used, or dealt with as a slave, then and in every such case the person so offending shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of piracy, felony, and robbery, and being convicted thereof shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, and loss of lands, goods, and chattels, as pirates, felons, and robbers upon the seas ought to suffer, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 9.

12. If any persons (except in such special cases as are in and by this act permitted or otherwise provided for) shall deal or trade in, purchase, sell, barter, or transfer, or contract for the dealing or trading in, purchase, sale, barter, or transfer of slaves, or persons intended to be dealt with as slaves, or shall, otherwise than as aforesaid, carry away or remove, or contract for the carrying away or removing of slaves or other persons, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or shall import or bring, or contract for the importing or bringing, into any place whatsoever, slaves or other persons, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or shall, otherwise than as aforesaid, ship, tranship, embark, receive, detain, or confine on board, or contract for the shipping, transshipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, slaves or other persons, for the purpose of their being carried away or removed, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or shall ship, tranship, embark, receive, detain, or confine on board; or contract for the shipping, transshipping, embarking, receiving, detaining, or confining on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, slaves or other persons, for the purpose of their being imported or brought into any place whatsoever, as or in order to their being dealt with as slaves; or shall fit out, man, navigate, equip, dispatch, use, employ, let or take to freight or on hire, or contract for the fitting out, manning, navigating, equipping, dispatching, using, employing, letting, or taking to freight or on hire, any ship, vessel or boat, in order to accomplish any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or shall knowingly and wilfully lend or advance, or become security for the loan or advance, or contract for the lending or advancing, or becoming security for the loan or advance of money, goods, or effects, employed or to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or shall knowingly and wilfully become guarantee or security, or contract for the becoming guarantee or security, for agents employed or to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful, or in any other manner to engage, or to contract to engage, directly or indirectly therein, as a partner, agent, or otherwise; or shall knowingly and wilfully ship, transship, lade, receive, or put on board, or contract for the shipping, transshipping, lading, receiving, or putting on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, money, goods, or effects to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or shall take the charge or command, or navigate, or enter and embark on board, or contract for the taking the charge or command, or for the navigating or entering and embarking on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, as captain, master, mate, surgeon, or supercargo, knowing that such ship, vessel, or boat is actually employed, or is in the same voyage, or upon the same occasion, in respect of which they shall so take the charge or command, or navigate or enter and embark, or contract so to do as aforesaid, intended to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or shall knowingly and wilfully insure, or contract for the insuring of any slaves, or any property or other subject matter engaged or employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; or shall wilfully and fraudulently forge or counterfeit any certificate, certificate of valuation, sentence, or decree of condemnation or restitution, copy of sentence or decree of condemnation or restitution, or any receipt (such receipts being required by this act), or any part of such certificate, certificate of valuation, sentence or decree of condemnation or restitution, copy of sentence or decree of condemnation or restitution, or receipt as aforesaid; or shall knowingly and wilfully utter or publish the same, knowing it to be forged or counterfeited, with intent to defraud H. M., or any other person whatsoever, or any body politic or corporate; then and in every such case the persons so offending, and their procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall be and are hereby declared to be felons, and shall be transported beyond the seas for a term not exceeding 14 years, or shall be confined and kept to hard labour for a term not exceeding five years, nor less than three years, at the discretion of the court before whom such offender shall be tried and convicted, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 10.

13. If any persons (except in such special cases, or for such special purposes as are in and by this act expressly permitted) shall enter and embark on board, or contract for the entering and embarking on board of any ship, vessel, or boat, as petty-officer, seaman, marine, or servant, or in any other capacity not herein-before specifically mentioned, knowing that such ship, vessel, or boat is actually employed, or is in the same voyage, or upon the same occasion, in respect of which they shall so enter and embark on board, or contract so to do as aforesaid, intended to be employed in accomplishing any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have herein-before been declared unlawful; then the persons so offending, and their procurers, counsellors, aiders, and abettors, shall be and they are hereby declared to be guilty of a misdemeanor only, and shall be punished by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 11.

14. Provided, that nothing in this act contained, making piracies, felonies, robberies, and misdemeanors of the several offences aforesaid, shall be construed to repeal, annul, or alter the provisions and enactments in this act also contained, imposing forfeitures and penalties or either of them upon the same offences, or to repeal, annul, or alter the remedies given for the recovery thereof; but that the said provisions and enactments imposing forfeitures and penalties shall in all respects be deemed and taken to be in full force, it being the true intent and meaning of this act, that the right and privilege heretofore exercised of suing in vice-admiralty courts for the forfeitures or penalties, shall remain in full force and effect as before the passing of this act; and the jurisdiction of the said vice-admiralty courts in all cases of forfeitures and penalties imposed by this act is hereby established, given, ratified, and confirmed, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 12.

15. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent any persons from dealing or trading in, purchasing, selling, bartering, or transferring, or from the contracting for the dealing or trading in, purchase, sale, barter, or transfer of any slaves or slave lawfully being within any island, colony, dominion, fort, settlement, factory or territory belonging to or in the possession of H. M., in case such dealing or trading, purchase, sale, barter, transfer or contract shall be made and entered into with the true intent and purpose of employing or working such slaves or slave within such and the same island, colony, dominion, fort, settlement, factory or territory, in which they, he, or she may lawfully be at the time of the making or entering into any such dealing or trading, purchase, sale, barter, transfer, or contract, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 13.

16. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent any person from carrying away or removing by land or coastwise, or from contracting for the carrying away or removing by land or coastwise, of any slaves, lawfully being in any part of any island, colony, dominion, fort, settlement, factory or territory belonging to or in the possession of H. M., to any other part of the same island, colony, dominion, fort, settlement, factory, or territory: provided, that where two or more islands are comprised in the same colonial government, nothing in this act contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent any proprietor of slaves, lawfully being in any one of such islands, from carrying away or removing such slaves to any other island, within the same government, for the purpose of cultivating any estate or plantation belonging to such proprietor himself, provided that such special purpose of the removal shall previously be made to appear to the satisfaction of the governor or lieutenant-governor, or other person having the chief civil command for the time being within such government, who thereupon shall grant a licence for such removal, specifying therein the special cause thereof; but before any slave shall, by virtue of any such licence, be so removed or embarked on board of any ship or vessel for that purpose, such clearances or permits and such certificates shall be obtained as are herein-after mentioned and directed in regard to domestic slaves attending on their owner or master or his family by sea, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 14.

17. Provided, that it shall be lawful for H. M., by any order or orders to be by him from time to time issued, with the advice of his privy council, to authorize and permit, until the 31st July 1827, and to the end of the next ensuing session of parliament, and no longer, the removal of any slaves from any island in the West Indies belonging to or in the possession of H. M., to any other island in the West Indies belonging to or in the possession of H. M., in case it shall be made appear to H. M., and his council, that such removal is essential to the welfare of the slaves proposed to be so removed: provided also, that it shall be lawful for H. M., by any such order or orders as aforesaid, to make and establish such stipulations, conditions, and regulations for the benefit of such slaves, in the island to which they may be so removed, as to H. M., with the advice of his council, may seem meet, and to take security in double the value of the slaves so to be removed (such value to be estimated according to the price of slaves in the island to which such slaves are to be taken) by bond or recognizance to be made and entered into by the person to or on the application of whom such licence may be granted, with at least two sufficient sureties, for the due and faithful observance and performance of all such stipulations, conditions, and regulations as aforesaid; and all orders in council to be so issued as aforesaid shall be laid before both houses of parliament within six weeks next after the commencement of each session, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 15.

18. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent the transportation to any foreign colony or place of any slave or slaves that shall have been convicted in any court of record, by due course of law, in any present or future British island or colony, of any crime to which the punishment of transportation is or shall be annexed by the law of such island or colony; but in every such case a copy of the judgment or sentence, certified by the court before which the offender was convicted, shall be put on board in the ship or vessel in which any such convict shall be transported, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 16.

19. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent any slave, who shall be really and truly the domestic servant of any person residing or being in any island, colony, plantation, or territory, belonging to or under the dominion or in the possession of H. M., from attending such his owner or master, or any part of his family, by sea, to any place whatever; nevertheless, under the following regulations; that is to say, first, the name and occupation of every such domestic slave shall be inserted in or indorsed upon the clearance or permit to depart of such ship or vessel, by or in the presence of the collector, controller, or other chief officer of the customs of the port or place from which such ship or vessel shall clear outwards on any voyage, who shall, without fee or reward, certify under his hand, that the slave or slaves so embarked or carried were reported or described to him as domestic servants; secondly, the master or owner of any such domestic slave or slaves shall obtain from the registry of the colony to which the same shall belong, an extract, certified by the registrar thereof, showing that such domestic slave or slaves has or have been duly entered in the slave registry of the said colony, by their name and description or names and descriptions therein specified, which extract and certificate shall always be on board the ship or vessel in which any such domestic slave or slaves is or are carried; and upon such slave or slaves being brought into or landed in any British colony, the extract and certificate of his, her, or their registration in the colony from which he, she, or they may have come, shall be forthwith produced to the collector or principal officer of the customs, and a copy thereof shall be by him delivered to the registrar of slaves in the colony into which he, she, or they may be brought; and if the domestic slave or slaves shall be again removed from the colony into which they may have been so brought, previous to the next period for making returns of slaves therein, the collector shall, previous to the embarkation of such domestic slave or slaves, return to the party requiring it the original extract and certificate of registration delivered into his office to be kept on board the ship or vessel in which such domestic slave or slaves may be carried; and if the regulations herein contained be not complied with, the owners of the said slave or slaves shall forfeit the sum of 100*l.* for every such slave or slaves so illegally dealt with, and the master or other person having the charge of such ship or vessel shall in every such case forfeit the sum of 100*l.* for each and every domestic slave so unlawfully taken on board, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 17.

20. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent any slave or slaves from being employed in navigation, in numbers not exceeding in any one vessel or boat those usually employed in navigating such vessels or boats; nevertheless where he or they shall be designedly so employed in navigating from any British island, colony, plantation, or territory, the regulations prescribed for the transit of domestic slaves as aforesaid shall be duly observed, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 18.

21. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent any slave or slaves from being employed in fishing, or any other his ordinary business or occupation upon the seas; nevertheless, where he or they shall be so employed in the course of a navigation designedly undertaken from any British island, colony, plantation, or territory, the regulations prescribed for the transit of domestic slaves as aforesaid shall be duly observed, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 19.

22. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent any slave from being put on board any ship or vessel by the order of H. M.'s commander-in-chief, either by sea or land, in any island, colony, plantation, or territory belonging to or under the dominion of H. M., in order to be employed in H. M.'s military or naval service, and from being by such order so employed, however or wheresoever the said service may require, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 20.

23. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall prevent the transshipping and assisting at sea any slave which shall be in any ship or vessel in distress, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 21.

24. All slaves and all persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves, which shall be seized or taken as prize of war or liable to forfeiture under this act, shall, for the purposes only of seizure, prosecution, and condemnation as prize or as forfeiture, be considered, treated, taken, and adjudged as slaves and property, in the same manner as negro slaves have been heretofore considered, treated, taken, and adjudged when seized as prize of war, or as forfeited for any offence against the laws of trade and navigation respectively; but the same shall be condemned as prize of war or as forfeited to the sole use of H. M., for the purpose only of divesting and barring all other property, right, title, or interest whatever, which before existed or might afterwards be set up or claimed in or to such slaves or persons so seized, prosecuted, or condemned; and the same nevertheless shall in no case be liable to be sold, disposed of, treated, or dealt with as slaves by or on the part of H. M., or by or on the part of any person claiming or to claim from, by, or under H. M., or under or by force of any such sentence or condemnation: provided, that it shall be lawful for H. M., and such officers, civil or military, as shall by any general or special order of the King in council be from time to time appointed to receive, protect, and provide for such persons as shall be so condemned, either to enter, and enlist the same or any of them into H. M.'s land or sea service as soldiers, seamen, or marines, or to bind the same or any of them, whether of full age or not, as apprentices for any term not exceeding seven years, to such person, in such place, and upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such regulations as to H. M. shall seem meet, and as shall by any general or special order of H. M. in council be in that behalf directed and appointed; and any indenture of apprenticeship, duly made and executed by any person to be for that purpose appointed by any such order in council for any term not exceeding seven years, shall be of the same force and effect as if the party thereby bound as an apprentice had himself or herself when of full age upon good consideration duly executed the same; and every such person who shall be so enlisted or entered as aforesaid into H. M.'s land or sea forces as a soldier, seaman, or marine, shall be considered, treated, and dealt with in all respects as if he had voluntarily so enlisted or entered himself, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 22.

25. Provided, that in case any person illegally held or detained in slavery shall hereafter by shipwreck or otherwise be cast upon, or shall escape to or arrive at any island or colony, fort, territory, or place under the dominion or in the possession of H. M., it shall be lawful for H. M., or for any such officers civil or military as aforesaid, to deal with, protect, and provide for any such person, in such and the same manner as is herein-before directed with respect to persons condemned as prize of war, or as forfeited under this act, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 23.

26. Whenever any person apprenticed under the provisions of any of the acts for the abolition of the slave-trade, shall be ill-treated by the master to whom he is apprenticed, or by any other person by his directions, or with his knowledge, approbation, or consent, it shall be lawful for such person so apprenticed and so ill-treated, to apply himself, or by any other person on his behalf, to the judge of the vice-admiralty court nearest to which his said master shall be residing; and the said judge shall have authority and is hereby empowered and required to take cognizance of the said complaint, and to summon the said master, witnesses, and other persons before him, and examine into the same summarily, and decide thereupon; and if the said complaint shall, in the judgment of the said court, be satisfactorily proved, it shall be lawful for the said judge to fine the said master any sum not exceeding 100*l.* of good and lawful money of G. B., and to enforce payment thereof by distress and imprisonment; and also, if it shall seem to him meet, to cancel the indentures of apprenticeship; and any fine so enforced shall go to and belong to the King, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 24.

27. Provided, that where any slaves or persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves taken as prize of war by any of H. M.'s ships of war or privateers duly commissioned, shall be finally condemned as such to H. M.'s use, there shall be paid to the captors thereof, out of the consolidated fund of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., such bounty as H. M. shall direct by any order in council, so as the same shall not exceed the sum of 20*l.* lawful money of G. B. for every man, woman, and child that shall be so taken and condemned, and shall be delivered over to the proper officer or officers, civil or military, appointed to receive, protect, and provide for the same; which bounties shall be divided amongst the officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers on board H. M.'s ships of war or hired armed ships, in manner, form, and proportion, as by H. M.'s proclamation for granting the distribution of prizes to be issued for that purpose shall be directed and appointed, and amongst the owners, officers, and seamen of any private ship or vessel of war, in such manner and proportion as by any agreement in writing which they shall have entered into for that purpose shall be directed, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 25.

28. Provided, that on the condemnation to the use of H. M., of any slaves or persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves, seized and prosecuted not as prize of war, but as forfeited for any offence against this act (when such seizure has been made at sea by the commander or officer of any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war), there shall be paid to the commander or officer of such ship or vessel of war, who shall so seize, inform, and prosecute, for every man, woman, and child so condemned and delivered over, the sum of 10*l.* like money, subject nevertheless to such distribution of the said bounties or rewards for the said seizures made at sea, as H. M. shall think fit and direct by any order in council made for that purpose; and where such seizure shall not have been made at sea by the commander or officer of any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, there shall be paid to and to the use of the person who shall have sued, informed, and prosecuted the same to condemnation, the sum of 7*l.* 10*s.* lawful money aforesaid, for every man, woman, and child that shall be so condemned and delivered over, and also the like sums to and to the use of the governor or commander-in-chief of any colony or plantation wherein such seizure shall be made, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 26.

29. Provided, that in order to entitle the captors to receive the said bounty-money, the numbers of men, women, and children so taken, condemned, and delivered over, shall be proved to the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, by producing a copy duly certified of the sentence and decree of condemnation, and also a certificate under the hand of the said officer or officers, military or civil, so appointed as aforesaid, and to whom the same shall have been delivered, acknowledging that he or they hath or have received the same, to be disposed of according to H. M.'s instructions and regulations as aforesaid, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 27.

30. Provided, that in any cases in which doubts shall arise whether the party claiming such bounty-money is entitled thereto, the same shall be summarily determined by the judge of the high court of admiralty, subject nevertheless to an appeal to the lords commissioners of appeals in prize causes, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 28.

31. No appeals shall be prosecuted from any decree or sentence of any court of admiralty or vice-admiralty, touching any of the matters provided for in this act, unless the inhibition shall be applied for and decreed within 12 months from the time when such decree or sentence was pronounced, except where such decree or sentence shall be passed in any vice-admiralty court at the Cape of Good Hope or to the eastward thereof, in which cases 18 months shall be allowed for the prosecution of the said appeal, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 29.

32. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to repeal or alter 57 G. 3. c. 127., intituled, An Act to settle the share of prize-money, droits of admiralty and bounty-money, payable to Greenwich hospital, and for securing to the said hospital all unclaimed shares of vessels found derelict, and of seizures for breach of the revenue, colonial navigation, and slave abolition laws; but that the provisions of the said act shall be and they are hereby declared to be applicable to the several matters and things in this act contained, the same as if the said provisions were specially enumerated and enacted herein, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 30.

33. Provided, that it shall be lawful for H. M. in council, from time to time to make such orders and regulations for the future disposal and support of such persons as shall have been bound apprentices under this act, or the acts hereby repealed, after the term of their apprenticeship shall have expired, or the indenture of apprenticeship shall have been cancelled, as to H. M. shall seem meet, and as may prevent such persons from becoming at any time chargeable upon the island, colony, or settlement in which they shall have been so bound apprentices as aforesaid, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 31.

34. When any slaves or persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves, shall be captured or seized as prize of war, or as forfeited or liable to forfeiture to H. M., or otherwise proceeded against in and by virtue of any law, and brought to adjudication in the high court of admiralty, or in any court of vice-admiralty, or in any court of H. M.'s colonies or plantations, or elsewhere within H. M.'s dominions, which is or may be authorized to hold jurisdiction in such cases, it shall be lawful for the person claiming any right or property in, or the possession of such slaves, and he is hereby required to put such slaves on shore; and it shall be lawful for the collector or other chief officer of the customs in such port or place in which such slaves shall be brought to adjudication, and he is hereby required to direct enquiry to be made, whether the person claiming any right or property in, or the possession of such slaves, shall have furnished, or shall be willing and able to furnish sufficient food and necessaries for the support and wholesome maintenance of the said slaves, during the proceedings which may have been or may be instituted respecting such slaves; and such collector or other chief officer of the customs shall, as soon as may be, report to the governor or lieutenant-governor, or other person exercising the authority of governor in such colony, or plantation or place, the result of such enquiry; and if it shall appear to the said governor or lieutenant-governor, or other person exercising the authority of governor, that sufficient food and necessaries for the wholesome maintenance of such slaves during the proceedings so instituted or to be instituted as aforesaid, have not been furnished; and if the person claiming any right of property in or to such slaves shall refuse or afterwards neglect or omit to supply proper food and necessaries for the support and wholesome maintenance of the said slaves during such proceedings, the said governor or lieutenant-governor, or other person exercising the authority of governor in such colony, or plantation, or place, being satisfied of the truth of the report so made to him, shall authorize the said collector or chief officer of the customs to take on himself the immediate care and custody of such slaves, and to provide proper food and necessaries for such slaves, during the proceedings so instituted or to be instituted in any such court as aforesaid, until the said court shall have made its decree, having the force and effect of a definitive sentence, condemning or restoring the said slaves; and in case the said court shall, by such decree, absolutely restore or condemn such slaves, the said court shall, on application made by the said collector or chief officer of the customs so providing or having provided for the support and maintenance of such slaves as aforesaid, direct the accounts for the provisions and necessaries so supplied for the said slaves to be brought into the registry of the court and examined, and direct the same, when confirmed, to be a charge on the said slaves, to be defrayed by the person receiving possession thereof under the decree of such court: provided nevertheless, that in case the court shall not immediately restore or condemn the said slaves by decree, having the force and effect of a definitive sentence, but shall direct further proof to be made in the cause, whereby the restitution or condemnation shall be deferred, and the person claiming any right or property in, or the possession of the said slaves, shall not have supplied, or at any time pending proceedings in that court, shall refuse or neglect to supply proper food and necessaries for the said slaves, it shall be lawful for the court to direct a valuation to be made of such slaves, and to decree such slaves, after such valuation had and approved by the court, to be delivered over to such officer or person as may be appointed by H. M. to receive slaves condemned to H. M.'s use, according to the provisions of this act, and the same shall be dealt with and treated in all respects according to the said provisions, save and except that the bounty shall not be due or payable for such slaves, but in the event of final condemnation, according to this act, 5 G. 4. c. 145. s. 32.

35. In all cases in which there shall have been a decree having the force and effect of a definitive sentence, restoring or condemning the said slaves, and the same shall be suspended by appeal, it shall be lawful for the court, notwithstanding such appeal, to proceed forthwith to direct the slaves so detained to be valued as above directed; and after such valuation had and approved by the court, to be delivered over to such officer or person as may be appointed to receive slaves condemned to H. M.'s use, according to the aforesaid provisions, as if the same had been finally condemned to H. M.; and such slaves shall be treated and dealt with in all respects in the same manner as if they had been finally condemned to H. M.; save and except that the bounties shall not be due or payable thereon, but in the event of final condemnation to H. M., according to this act, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 33.

36. In all cases in which such slaves shall have been delivered over as before directed, and shall be finally restored in the court of appeal, restitution in value shall be made for the use of the claimant or proprietor thereof, according to the valuation made as above directed, together with interest thereon, such sums being deducted therefrom as may have been expended for the support and maintenance of the said slaves, by the collector or chief officer of the customs as above directed; and the value so adjusted shall be paid out of the consolidated fund in the same manner as bounties are directed to be paid for slaves condemned to H. M. under this act, on the production of an official copy of the final sentence of restitution, with the valuation of the said slaves endorsed thereon by the registrar of the said court, or his deputy, subject nevertheless, when the restitution shall be decreed by the court of appeal, to the review and correction of the said valuation, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 34.

37. Provided, nothing herein contained shall prevent the said courts or any of them having jurisdiction in the principal cause, from adjudging and decreeing the captors, seizers, or prosecutors in any such cause as aforesaid, to pay, out of their own proper monies, such sums in the nature of costs or damages as the said court shall decree, when it shall appear to such court that the capture, seizure, or prosecution, or the appeal thereon on the behalf of the captor, seizer, or prosecutor, shall not be justified by the circumstances of the case, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 35.

38. All ships or vessels, whether British or foreign, which shall be condemned in any court of admiralty or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions, for any offence in relation to the slave-trade, or under any of the mixed commission courts herein-after mentioned, or which may in future be established in pursuance of any treaty or convention between this country and any foreign power, shall, from and after such judgment or condemnation respectively, be entitled to a certificate of registry as a British ship, and thereupon have and enjoy all the privileges and advantages of British-built ships and vessels, being first duly registered according to the provisions of 26 G. 3. c. 60., [which act was repealed by 4 G. 4. c. 41. post, SHIPPING], and shall be deemed and taken as such, and shall be entitled to have and enjoy all and every the same rights, liberties, privileges, and advantages in all respects whatsoever with British-built ships and vessels, and shall be subject and liable to all and every the rules and regulations that British-built ships or vessels are subject and liable to, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 36.

39. And whereas in and by 59 G. 3. c. 120. [Stat. Dig. tit. SLAVE-TRADE.], intituled, An Act for establishing a registry of colonial slaves in G. B., and for making further provisions with respect to the removal of slaves from British colonies, it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for H. M. to nominate and appoint, by warrant under the hand and seal of one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, some fit and proper person as the registrar of colonial slaves, to receive the copies of all registries or returns of slaves, and of any abstracts or indexes referring thereto, which may have been, or which may at any time hereafter be transmitted from any of H. M.'s foreign possessions, either in pursuance of any order of H. M. in council, or of any law or ordinance duly passed in any of the British colonies respectively, which said registrar, and his successors respectively, shall continue to hold the said office during H. M.'s pleasure; and also, that the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, shall assign to the registrar so appointed such a salary, not exceeding in the whole the sum of 800*l.* per annum, as shall appear to them adequate and proper, and shall fix the number of such clerks, officers, or other persons, to assist the said registrar, as may from time to time be necessary, and shall allow to them also such salaries as may be proper, and also reasonable sums for incidental charges; all which salaries and charges shall be defrayed and paid, in the same manner as the salaries and incidental charges of the offices of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state are now defrayed and paid; and also, that the said commissioners of the treasury, shall provide a proper and distinct office for the said registrar, and shall appoint the several fees to be taken by the registrar or his assistants in the said office, and shall cause a schedule of the same to be delivered to the said registrar at the time of his appointment, which said schedule, or a copy thereof, shall be always kept and hung, for public information, in the office of the registrar; provided, that the fees so received by the registrar, or his assistants, shall be carried to the public account, and the residue thereof, if any, after paying the salaries of the registrar, and other persons employed in his office, shall be applied, under the direction of the said commissioners of the treasury, in aid of the expences of H. M.'s civil list; and also, that the person who may be at any time appointed registrar of colonial slaves shall, before he enters on the execution of his said office, be sworn, before the chief justice, or one of the justices of H. M.'s courts of K. B. or C. P., or the chief baron, or one of the barons of H. M.'s court of exchequer, in the words following;

' I A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will in all respects faithfully and uprightly perform the duties of registrar of colonial slaves, to the best of my judgment and ability.
So help me God.'

And also, that any registrar of slaves who may be appointed by virtue of this act shall, during his continuance in such office, be incapable of being elected or of sitting as a member of the house of commons; and also, that as soon as the office of registrar of colonial slaves shall be opened, copies and duplicates of the several registries and returns of slaves in the several colonies, and all papers connected therewith, which may have been received by any of H. M.'s secretaries of state, shall be delivered over to the said registrar, and shall be by him kept in the said office; and the said registrar shall from time to time carry on, continue, correct, and enlarge the copies of the several registries of slaves respectively, pursuant to the further returns of slaves which may from time to time be received from the several colonies, and shall form such indexes and abstracts, and such convenient arrangements in other respects as may best promote regularity in keeping the said books and facilitate search therein; and also, that every such registrar or his clerk or assistants, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall give due attendance at the said office every day in the week (except Sundays and such holidays as are kept at the bank of Eng.), from the hour of 10 of the clock in the morning, to the hour of 4 of the clock in the afternoon, for the dispatch of all business belonging to the said office; and that every such registrar, or his clerks or assistants, shall, as often as required, make searches concerning any slave or slaves that shall be registered or supposed to be registered in any of the said books; and shall also, if required, give certificates under the hand of the said registrar as to the registration or non-registration of any such slave or slaves, with extracts, when the same is or are found to be registered, of the name and description or names and descriptions thereof, and of the plantation or plantations, owner or owners to whom the same is or are described to belong, and of any other particulars relating thereto which may be stated in the said registry; and that such registrar shall be entitled to receive for every such search, certificate, or extract, such sums as shall be duly appointed in the schedule of fees, to be fixed by the said commissioners of the treasury as is herein-before provided for; and also, that it shall not be lawful for any of H. M.'s subjects in this U. K. to purchase or to lend or advance any money, goods, or effects upon the security of any slave or slaves in any of H. M.'s colonies or foreign possessions, unless such slave or slaves shall appear by the return received therein to have been first duly registered in the said office of the registrar of colonial slaves; and that every sale, mortgage, and conveyance, of assurance of, and every charge or other security upon any slave or slaves not so appearing to be registered, which shall be made or executed within this U. K., to or in trust for any of H. M.'s subjects, shall be absolutely null and void in respect of any such unregistered slave or slaves; and that for this purpose no slave or slaves shall be deemed and taken to be duly registered, unless it shall appear that a return of such slave or slaves duly made by the owner or owners or other persons in his or their behalf, in the manner and form required by law in the colony in which such slave or slaves may reside, or a copy or abstract of such return, shall have been received in the office of the said registrar from the colony in which such slave or slaves shall reside, within the four years next preceding the date of such sale, mortgage, conveyance, or assurance, charge, or security as aforesaid; and also, that no deed or instrument made or executed within this U. K., whereby any slave or slaves in any of the said colonies shall be intended to be mortgaged, sold, charged, or in any manner transferred or conveyed, or any estate or interest therein created or raised, shall be good or valid in law, to pass or convey, charge or affect any such slave or slaves, unless the registered name and description, or names and descriptions, of such slave or slaves, shall be duly set forth in such deed or instrument, or in some schedule thereupon indorsed or thereto annexed, according to the then latest registration, or corrected registration, of such slave or slaves, in the said office of the registrar of slaves: provided always, that no deed or instrument shall be avoided or impeached by reason of a clerical error in setting forth the names and descriptions of any slave or slaves therein, or in any schedule thereto contained, nor shall the same be avoided or impeached by reason of any disagreement between the names and descriptions and the entries thereof, in the books of the registry, or duplicate registry, which shall have arisen from any error or default of the registrar, his assistant or clerks, in extracting and certifying the said names and descriptions, without the fraudulent contrivance or wilful default of the parties to such deed or instrument: provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to hinder or prevent the transfer or assignment of any security, mortgage, or charge, of or upon slaves, granted, made, created, or executed antecedently to the passing of this act, nor to avoid any deed or instrument whereby such security, mortgage, or charge shall be hereafter transferred, nor to avoid, hinder, or impeach any will, codicil, or other testamentary paper, or any probate or letters of administration, or any bill of sale, assignment, conveyance, or instrument, made by or under the authority of any commission of bankrupt, or any public officer appointed to assign or convey any insolvent estate and effects, or by or under the authority of any court of justice, or any officer thereof, or in the execution of any legal process, by reason that the registered names and descriptions of any slaves are not set forth in such deed, will, codicil, testamentary paper, probate of letters of administration, bill of sale, assignment, conveyance, or instrument; and also, that the issue of any slave or slaves, named or described in any deed or instrument executed in the U. K., or any schedule thereto, born after the return required by law, in the colony in which such slave or slaves may be resident, who shall afterwards be duly registered in the next return required by law in the said colony, shall be deemed and considered to pass and be conveyed and affected as registered slaves by such deed or instrument, as effectually to all intents and purposes as if such issue were therein named and described, and any thing in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; now be it declared and enacted, That the said several enactments shall be and remain in full force and effect, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 37.

40. Every act which the governor of any island, colony, plantation, or territory, belonging to or under the dominion of H. M., is by this act directed or authorized to do or perform, may be lawfully done or performed by the person executing, pro tempore, the office or function of governor of any such island, colony, plantation, or territory, by authority from H. M., whether under the style and title of governor, lieutenant-governor, president of the council, or under any other style or title whatsoever, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 38.

41. Every mortgage, bond, bill, note, or other security, made in or to accomplish any of the objects, or the contracts in relation to the objects, which objects and contracts have by this act been declared unlawful, shall, except in the case of a bonâ fide purchaser or holder of any such of the said securities as are in their nature negotiable, who may have purchased or obtained the same without notice that the same were made or given for any such unlawful purposes, be void, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 39.

42. Provided, that if any person offending as a petty-officer, seaman, marine, or servant, against any of the provisions of this act, shall, within two years after the offence committed, give information on oath before any competent magistrate, against any owner or part-owner, or any captain, master, mate, surgeon or supercargo of any ship or vessel, who shall have committed any offence against this act, and shall give evidence on oath against such owner or part-owner, captain, master, mate, surgeon, or supercargo, before any magistrate or court before whom such offender may be tried; or if such person so offending shall give information to any of H. M.'s ambassadors, ministers plenipotentiary, envoys, charges d'affaires, consuls, residents, or other agents, so that any person or persons owning such ship or vessel, or navigating or taking charge of the same, as captain, master, mate, surgeon, or supercargo, may be apprehended, such person so giving information and evidence shall not be liable to any of the pains or penalties under this act, incurred in respect of his offence, and H. M.'s ambassadors, ministers plenipotentiary, envoys, charges d'affaires, consuls, residents, or other agents, are hereby required to receive any such information as aforesaid, and to transmit the particulars thereof, without delay, to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, and to transmit copies of the same to the commanders of H. M.'s ships or vessels then being in the said port or place, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 40.

43. If any oath taken under this act shall be wilfully false, or if such false oath shall be unlawfully or wilfully procured or suborned, the offender shall incur and suffer the like pains and penalties as are by law inflicted upon persons committing wilful and corrupt perjury, or subornation of perjury respectively, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 41.

44. Where any slave or slaves that may be lawfully removed shall be sent, removed, carried, or conveyed, without observing the regulations, or any or either of them, required by this act, such slave or slaves shall be forfeited to H. M.; and where any slave or slaves shall be found on board, who shall be untruly or fraudulently described in or upon the clearance or permit required by this act, with intent to violate or elude any of the prohibitions or regulations in this act contained, the owner, master, or other person by whom or by whose procurement such slave or slaves shall be so untruly or fraudulently described, with such intent as aforesaid, shall respectively forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.* lawful money of G. B. for every such slave or slaves; and also where the non-observance shall consist in exporting, sending, removing, carrying, or conveying any slave or slaves (not being domestics or mariners, as in this act aforesaid), without such certified copy from the registrar of the colony, as by this act is mentioned, the ship or vessel in which the same shall be so exported, sent, removed, carried, or conveyed, shall be forfeited to H. M.; and where the non-observance shall consist in embarking or carrying any slave or slaves without such certificate, the master or other person having the charge of the ship or vessel in which the same shall be so embarked and carried, without such certificate as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.* lawful money aforesaid for every such slave or slaves, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 42.

45. All ships, vessels, slaves or persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves, and all goods and effects that may become forfeited under this act, shall be seized by any officer of H. M.'s customs, or by the commanders or officers of any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, or any officer bearing H. M.'s commission in H. M.'s navy or army; and moreover, it shall be lawful for all governors or persons having the chief command, civil or military, of any of the colonies, settlements, forts, or factories belonging to H. M., and for all persons deputed and authorized by any such governor or commander-in-chief, to seize and prosecute all ships and vessels, slaves, or persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves, and all goods and effects whatsoever that shall or may become forfeited for any offence under this act, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 43.

46. The proceeds of all ships and goods seized, prosecuted, and condemned for any offence against this act, except in such seizures as shall be made at sea by the commanders or officers of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, shall be divided, paid, and applied as follows; that is to say, after deducting the charges of prosecution from the gross amount thereof, one-third of the net proceeds shall be paid into the hands of such person as H. M. may please to appoint, for the use of H. M.; one-third part thereof to the governor or commander-in-chief of the island, colony, plantation, settlement, or territory where the said seizure shall have been made or prosecuted; and the other third part thereof to the person who shall lawfully seize, inform, and prosecute the same to condemnation; and in cases of seizures made at sea by the commanders or officers of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, one moiety of the said net proceeds, after deducting the charges of prosecution as aforesaid, shall be paid into the hands of such person as H. M. may please to appoint, for the use of H. M., and the other moiety to the commanders or officers of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, who shall have made the seizure, and prosecuted the same to condemnation, subject nevertheless to such distribution in the seizures made by the commanders or officers of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, whether at sea or otherwise, as H. M. shall think fit to order and direct by any order in council, or by any proclamation to be made for that purpose, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 44.

47. All persons authorized to make seizures under this act shall, in making and prosecuting any such seizures, have the benefit of 4 G. 3. c. 15., intituled, An Act for granting certain duties in the British colonies and plantations in America; for continuing, amending, and making perpetual an act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, 'An Act for the better securing and encouraging the trade of H. M.'s sugar colonies in America,' for applying the produce of such duties, and of the duties to arise by virtue of the said act, towards defraying the expences of defending, protecting, and securing the said colonies and plantations; for explaining an act made in the 25th year of the reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, 'An Act for the encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland trades, and for the better securing the plantation trade; and for altering and disallowing several drawbacks on exports from this kingdom, and more effectually preventing the clandestine conveyance of goods to and from the said colonies and plantations, and improving and securing the trade between the same and G. B.; or any other act made for the protection of officers seizing and prosecuting for any offence against the said act, relating to the trade and revenues of the British colonies or plantations in America, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 45.

48. If any action or suit shall be commenced, either in G. B. or elsewhere, against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at the trial, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, the jury shall find for the defendant; and if the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his action after the defendant shall have appeared, or if judgment shall be given upon any verdict or demurrer against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for the same as defendants have in other cases by law, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 46.

49. All actions, suits, bills, indictments, or informations, for the recovery of any of the penalties or forfeitures under this act, may be commenced, had, brought, sued, exhibited, or prosecuted, at any time within five years after the offence committed, by reason whereof such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred: provided, that where any slave has been, or shall at any time be, illegally imported, nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent proceedings being commenced to obtain the condemnation or forfeiture thereof, but that the said slave so illegally imported shall and may be condemned and forfeited at any time after such illegal importation, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 47.

50. All offences against this act which shall be committed in any country, territory, or place, other than this U. K., or on the high seas, or in any port, sea, creek, or place where the admiral has jurisdiction, and which shall be prosecuted as piracies, felonies, robberies, or misdemeanors, shall and may be enquired of, either according to the ordinary course of law, and the provisions of 28 H. 8. c. 15., intituled, An Act for pirates: or according to 35 H. 8. c. 23, intituled, An Act to proceed by commission of oyer and terminer against such persons as shall confess treason and felony, without remanding the same to be tried in the shire where the offence was committed, as far as the same act is now [sic] repealed; or according to 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7., intituled, An Act passed for the more effectual suppression of piracy, in as far as the same act is now unrepealed; or according to 46 G. 3. c. 54., intituled, An Act passed for the more speedy trial of offences committed in distant parts, upon the seas; and all persons convicted of any of the said offences, to be enquired of, tried, and determined, under and by virtue of any commission to be made or issued according to 46 G. 3. c. 54. aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to and shall suffer all such and the same pains, penalties, and forfeitures, as by this act, or any law or laws now in force, persons convicted of the same respectively would be subject and liable to, in case the same were respectively enquired of, tried, and determined and adjudged within this realm, by virtue of any commission made according to 28 H. 8. c. 15., 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 48.

51. All offences against this act, which shall be committed in any place where the admiral has not jurisdiction, and not being within the local jurisdiction of any ordinary court of a British colony, settlement, plantation, or territory, competent to try such offence, may be enquired of, tried, and determined, under any commission to be issued according to 46 G. 3. c. 54., 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 49.

52. All offences committed against this act may be enquired of, tried, determined, and dealt with, as if the same had been respectively committed within the body of the county of Middlesex, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 50.

53. Unless in cases specially provided for by this act, all forfeitures and penalties shall be prosecuted, sued for, recovered, and applied as follows; that is to say, the several pecuniary penalties and forfeitures imposed and inflicted by this act shall be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in any court of record in G. B., or in any court of record or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions, wherein the offence was committed, or where the offender may be found after the commission of such offence; and all seizures of ships, vessels or boats, slaves, or persons treated, dealt with, carried, kept, or detained as slaves, goods or effects, subject to forfeiture under this act, shall be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in any court of record in G. B., or in any court of record or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions in or nearest to which such seizures may be made, or to which such ships or vessels, slaves, or persons treated as slaves as aforesaid, goods or effects (if seized at sea or without the limits of any British jurisdiction), may most conveniently be carried for trial; and all the said penalties and forfeitures, whether pecuniary or specific (unless where it is expressly otherwise provided for by this act), shall go and belong to such persons, in such shares and proportions, and shall be sued for and prosecuted, tried, recovered, distributed, and applied, in such and the like manner, and by the same ways and means, and subject to the same rules and directions, as any penalties or forfeitures incurred in G. B. and in the British colonies and plantations in America respectively, by force of any act relating to the trade and revenues of the said British colonies or plantations in America, now go and belong to, and may now be sued for, prosecuted, tried, recovered, distributed, and applied respectively in G. B., or in the said colonies or plantations respectively, by 4 G. 3. c. 15. intituled [as aforesaid, see s. 45. pl. 47.], 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 51.

54. Whereas certain treaties and conventions, and a declaration, together with certain explanatory and additional articles, still subsisting full in force, were made between His late Majesty King George the Third, and His Catholic Majesty the King of Spain, His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal, and H. M. the King of the Netherlands respectively, for preventing traffic in slaves, [and which are recited at length in the act, but are too long to be given here]: And whereas by 58 G. 3. c. 36. [Stat. Dig. tit. SLAVE-TRADE, pl. 74.] intituled, An Act to carry into execution a treaty made between H. M. and the King of Spain, for preventing traffic in slaves; and by 58 G. 3. c. 85. [Stat. Dig. this tit., pl. 89.] intituled, An Act to carry into execution a convention made between H. M. and the King of Portugal, for the preventing the traffic in slaves; and by 59 G. 3. c. 16. [Stat. Dig. this tit., pl. 109.] intituled, An Act to carry into effect the treaty with the Netherlands, relating to the slave-trade; and by 59 G. 3. c. 17. [Stat. Dig. this tit., pl. 89.] intituled, An Act to amend an act of the last session of parliament, for carrying into execution a convention made between H. M. and the King of Portugal, for the preventing the traffic in slaves; it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for H. M., by any warrant under his royal sign manual, countersigned by one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, to appoint such commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration, judges and arbitrators, as are in and by the said treaties and conventions, and the regulations thereto annexed, mentioned to be appointed by H. M., and from time to time to supply any vacancies which may arise in such offices, by appointing other persons thereto, and to grant salaries to such commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration, judges, and arbitrators as aforesaid, not exceeding such annual sums as the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. shall from time to time direct; and such commissary judges, and commissioners of arbitration, judges, and arbitrators are hereby authorized and empowered to examine and decide all such cases of detention, captures, and seizures of vessels, and their cargoes as aforesaid, detained, seized, taken, or captured under the said treaties, conventions, instructions, and regulations, or included therein, as are by the said treaties, conventions, instructions, and regulations, and by these acts, made subject to their jurisdiction; and to proceed therein, and give such judgments, and make such orders therein, and to do all other acts, matters, and things appertaining thereto, agreeably to the provisions of the said treaties, conventions, and the instructions and regulations annexed thereto as aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes, as if special powers and authorities for that purpose were specifically and particularly inserted and given in relation thereto in these acts: now be it declared and enacted, That the said provisions as herein recited, shall continue, remain, and be in full force and effect, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 52.

55. And whereas in and by 58 G. 3. c. 81., and 59 G. 3. c. 17. it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for H. M., by any warrant under his royal sign manual, countersigned by one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state for the time being, to nominate and appoint a secretary or registrar to the respective commissions and courts which shall be established in H. M.'s dominions, and from time to time supply, by other appointments, any vacancy which may thereafter occur in such office, and to grant a salary to such secretary or registrar, not exceeding such annual sum as the treasury shall from time to time direct; and such secretary or registrar is hereby respectively authorized and empowered to do, perform, and execute all the duties of such office, as set forth and described in the said treaties, conventions, instructions, and regulations respectively, and to do, perform, and execute all such acts, matters, and things, as may be necessary for the due discharge of the duties of his office, according to the provisions of the said treaties, conventions, instructions, and regulations as aforesaid: now be it declared and enacted, That the said provision as herein recited, shall continue, remain, and be in full force and effect, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 53.

56. It shall be lawful for the governor or lieutenant-governor, or principal magistrate of the colony or settlement in which such commission or court shall sit, within the possessions of His Britannic Majesty, to fill up every vacancy which shall arise in such commission or court, either of commissary judge, commissioner of arbitration, or any officer thereof appointed by H. M. as aforesaid, according to the provisions contained in the aforesaid regulations, annexed to the said treaties and conventions as aforesaid, ad interim, until such vacancy or vacancies shall be thereafter filled by some person appointed by H. M. for that purpose, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 54.

57. Every commissary judge and commissioner of arbitration appointed by H. M., or ad interim as aforesaid, shall, before he shall enter upon the execution of any of the duties of such his office, take an oath in the presence of the principal magistrate then residing and acting in the colony, settlement, or place in which the commission or court shall be appointed to reside; which oath every such magistrate in any colony, settlement, or place belonging to H. M., in which such commission or court shall be appointed, is hereby authorized to administer, in the form following; (that is to say),

' I A. B. do solemnly swear, that I will, according to the best of my skill and knowledge, act in the execution of my office as —, faithfully, impartially, fairly, and without preference or favour, either for claimants or captors, or any other persons; and that I will, to the best of my judgment and power, act in pursuance of and according to the stipulations, regulations, and instructions contained in the treaty or convention between His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, signed at Madrid on the 23d day of Sept. 1817, [or, in the treaty between His Majesty and His Most Faithful Majesty, of the 22d day of Jan. 1815, and the additional convention thereto, signed at London on the 28th day of July 1817; or, between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, signed at the Hague on the 4th day of May 1818, [as the case may require].

So help me God.'

5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 55.

58. Every secretary or registrar appointed by H. M., or ad interim as aforesaid, under the provisions of the said treaties, conventions, instructions, and regulations, and of this act, shall, before he enters on the duties of his said office, take an oath before the British commissary judge as aforesaid, who is hereby empowered to administer the same, in the form following; (that is to say),

' I A. B. do solemnly swear, that I will, according to the best of my skill and knowledge, act in the execution of my office, and that I will conduct myself with due respect to the authority of the commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration of the commission to which I am attached, and will act with fidelity in all the affairs which may belong to my charge, and without preference or favour either for claimants or captors or any other persons.

So help me God.'

5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 56.

59. It shall be lawful for the said commissary judges, or for any such secretary or registrar, and they are hereby respectively empowered, to administer oaths to and take the depositions of all parties, witnesses, and other persons, who may come or be brought before them to be examined, or for the purpose of deposing in the course of any proceeding before the said commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration, in the cases in which such commissioners of arbitration shall act with the said commissary judges under the said treaties, conventions, instructions, or regulations, or this act; and it shall also be lawful for the said commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration, in the cases aforesaid, to summon before them all persons whom they may deem it necessary or proper to examine, in relation to any suit, proceeding, or matter or thing under their cognizance, and to send for and issue precepts for the producing of all such papers as may relate to the matters in question before them, and to enforce all such summonses, orders, and precepts, by such and the like means, powers, and authorities, as any court of vice-admiralty may do, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 57.

60. Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence in any examination or deposition or affidavit, had or taken upon or in any proceeding before the said commissary judges or commissioners aforesaid, or in any examination or deposition or affidavit, had or taken before the said secretary or registrar, under the said treaties, conventions, instructions, or regulations, or this act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and being thereof convicted, shall be subject and liable to all the punishments, pains, and penalties to which persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are liable; and every such person may be tried for any such perjury, either in the place where the offence was committed, or in any colony or settlement of H. M. near thereto, in which there is a court of competent jurisdiction to try any such offence, or in H. M.'s court of K. B. in Eng.; and that in case of any prosecution for such offence in H. M.'s said court of K. B., the venue may be laid in the county of Middlesex, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 58.

61. The pendency of any suit or proceeding instituted before the said commissioners for the condemnation or restitution of any ship or cargo of slaves, taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said treaties or conventions with Spain and Portugal, or instructions or regulations thereto annexed, or the final adjudication or condemnation, or judgment or determination thereupon, may be pleaded in bar or given in evidence under the general issue, and shall be and be deemed and adjudged in any court whatever, to be a good and complete bar in any action, suit, or proceeding, whether brought or instituted by any person or persons for the recovery of any ship, vessel, or cargo, or of any damage for any injury sustained thereby, or by the persons on board the same, in consequence of any capture, seizure, or detention, or act, matter, or thing done under the authority or in pursuance of the provisions of the said treaties or conventions, or of the instructions or regulations thereto annexed, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 59.

62. It shall not be lawful for any person to commence, prosecute, or proceed in any claim, action, or suit whatever, in the high court of admiralty, or in any other court, or before any judges or persons whomsoever, other than the several mixed courts of justice appointed under and by virtue of the treaty with the Netherlands aforesaid and this act, for the condemnation or restitution of any ship or cargo, or slaves, or for any compensation or indemnification for any loss or damage, or for any injury sustained by such ship, cargo, or slaves, or by any persons on board any such ship, in consequence of any capture, seizure, or detention, under the authority or in pursuance of the provisions of the said treaty with the Netherlands, or of the instructions and regulations thereto annexed, or of this act; and that the pendency of any claim, suit, or proceeding instituted, or which may be instituted before any of the said mixed courts, so to be appointed under the authority of the said treaty with the Netherlands, and this act, for the condemnation or restitution of any ship or cargo, or slaves, taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said treaty with the Netherlands, or of the instructions and regulations thereto annexed, or for any compensation or indemnification for any loss or damage, in consequence of the taking, seizing, or detaining any such ship, or the final adjudication, condemnation, judgment, or determination of any such mixed court, as the case shall require, may be pleaded in bar or given in evidence under the general issue; or in case no such claim, suit, or proceeding shall have been instituted before any such mixed court, then the said treaty, instructions, and regulations, and this act, may in like manner be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence under the general issue; and every such plea in bar or evidence so given under the general issue, shall be deemed and adjudged to be a good and complete bar to any such claim, action, suit, or proceeding in the said high court of admiralty, or in any court or place other than such mixed courts, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 60.

63. Provided, that it shall be lawful for the lords commissioners of appeal in prize causes, and for the high court of admiralty, in all cases and questions arising out of the said captures that may be depending before them, or that may be brought before them on appeal from any vice-admiralty court, according to their respective jurisdictions (except in such cases as are in and by this act expressly excepted), to proceed therein, and to hear and determine all questions respecting any right or interest in or to the same, to which H. M., or the captors or seizers of such ships, vessels, or cargoes may claim to be entitled by reason of the capture or seizure thereof, and the laws relating thereto, and to enforce their judgments and orders therein by the usual process of the said courts, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 61.

64. Provided, that in all cases of Spanish and Portuguese ships captured and proceeded against, and for which indemnification has or may be made, in pursuance of the said treaties or conventions aforesaid, and in which the captors or seizers shall not establish any right or interest on their behalf, by reason of the capture thereof, and the laws relating thereto, it shall be lawful for the said court respectively, to order and adjudge the ships, vessels, and cargoes, or the proceeds thereof, and all and every part thereof, unto or to which the captors shall not establish any right or interest as aforesaid, to be delivered or paid to the use of H. M., to such person as the treasury for the time being shall appoint to receive the same, and to enforce the delivery or the payment thereof by the usual process, as is used and established by law in cases of prize, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 62.

65. And whereas several vessels belonging to the subjects of Spain, Portugal, and the Netherlands respectively, have been captured between the 17th Feb. 1815, and the period at which the commissioners appointed in virtue of the before mentioned treaties or conventions have assembled: and whereas the vessels belonging to the subjects of Portugal so captured as aforesaid, are by the additional convention with that state, bearing date the 28th July 1817, made the subject of special adjudication under the mixed commission established in London: and whereas during the period aforesaid, certain proceedings have been had and decrees have been made without due authority or jurisdiction, in the vice-admiralty court at Sierra Leone, in respect of seizures of the vessels and cargoes belonging to the subjects of Spain, Portugal, and the Netherlands, some or all of them, for alleged contravention of the said treaties or conventions: and whereas it is expedient and necessary to make further provisions and regulations respecting all the aforesaid ships and cargoes, and also for the payment of bounties in certain cases for slaves seized and taken on board the said ships; be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the treasury to direct the original papers and proceedings respecting all ships, vessels, and cargoes belonging to any of the subjects of Spain, Portugal, or the Netherlands, condemned in the vice-admiralty court at Sierra Leone since the 17th Feb. 1817, to be transmitted to the registry of the high court of admiralty of Eng.; and further, to direct the proceeds of such ships and cargoes, in whosoever possession the same may be, to be remitted and paid for the use of H. M., in such manner as the treasury may direct and appoint; and further, that it shall be lawful for the treasury to institute proceedings in the said high court of admiralty, against any person in possession of the said proceeds, for the purpose of obtaining payment of the same, and to enforce the payment thereof by process of the said court, and to reward the captors in all cases where contravention of treaty has taken place, by granting to them one moiety of the proceeds of every ship and cargo captured as aforesaid; and the remaining moiety of the said proceeds shall be paid to such person as the treasury shall direct or appoint to receive the same for the use of H. M., 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 63.

66. Provided, that the captors shall not be entitled to any such reward, where the mixed commission, established in London for the adjudication of the claims of Portuguese subjects, have awarded or may hereafter award indemnification to be made to the Portuguese owners, 6 G. 4. c. 113. s. 64.

67. In every seizure of any ship or vessel for being engaged or employed in the illicit traffic in slaves, by any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, or any ship or vessel duly commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies or settlements, in which it shall appear to the satisfaction of the lord high treasurer or the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury for the time being, that such seizure has not been wantonly or improperly made, it shall be lawful for the treasury to order and direct that all the costs, charges, and expences which may have been or may be incurred by the person making such seizures, in any proceedings, or for any matter or thing relating thereto, or arising out of any such seizure, shall be paid and defrayed out of the proceeds of such capture or seizure, or out of any of the proceeds of the said vessels or cargoes, paid or to be paid to the order of the treasury under the provisions of this act, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 65.

68. Wherever ships and cargoes captured by any of H. M.'s ships of war, or by any ship or vessel commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies or settlements, have been in fact condemned for illicit trading in slaves, contrary to the treaties or conventions made between the governments of Spain, Portugal, or the Netherlands, and where distribution of the proceeds thereof has been made prior to the 10th July 1821, the said captors shall be confirmed, and are hereby confirmed in the possession of the said proceeds; any law, statute, or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 66.

69. Where any ship or vessel employed or engaged in illicit traffic in slaves, in violation of any of the said conventions herein-before mentioned, shall be seized by any ship or vessel belonging to H. M., duly authorized under the provisions of the said conventions to make such seizure, and shall be afterwards condemned by any of the commissioners appointed in virtue of the treaties or conventions aforesaid, there shall be paid to the captors the moiety to which H. M. is entitled, under the said treaties or conventions of the net proceeds of the said ship and cargo; the said moiety of the said net proceeds to be distributed in the manner hereafter directed for the distribution of bounties on slaves taken on board the said vessels, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 67.

70. There shall be paid out of the consolidated fund of the U. K. a bounty of 10*l.* of lawful money of G. B., for every man, woman, and child slave seized and found on board any ship or vessel taken, and by the commissioners appointed in virtue of any of the said treaties or conventions, condemned for illicit traffic in slaves, in violation of any of the provisions of the said conventions, such bounty to be issued and paid by order from the treasury, and to be distributed to and amongst the captors aforesaid, in such manner and proportions as H. M. shall think fit to order and direct, by any order or orders in council, or by any proclamation or proclamations to be made for that purpose, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 68.

71. And whereas, besides the treaties herein-before mentioned, a certain other treaty was concluded with His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of Portugal, on the 19th Feb. 1810: and whereas prior to the passing of this act, and since the conclusion of the said treaties respectively, divers seizures have been made of ships, cargoes, and slaves on board the said ships, the said ships being engaged in traffic for slaves, contrary to the provisions of the said treaties, some or one of them; be it further enacted, That in all captures of Portuguese vessels, made by any of H. M.'s ships of war, or any ship or vessel duly commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies or settlements, between the 1st Jan. 1814, and 28th July 1817, which said vessels shall have violated any treaty or convention with Portugal, there shall be paid a like bounty of 10*l.* for every man, woman, and child slave so seized and taken; and in all captures of vessels belonging to Spain, Portugal, or the Netherlands, captured by any of H. M.'s ships or vessels duly authorized under the provisions of the said treaties, of the 28th July 1817 with Portugal, the said 25d Sept. 1817 with Spain, and the said 4th May 1818 with the Netherlands, prior to the passing of this act, and condemned for contravention of the provisions thereof, there shall be paid a like bounty of 10*l.* for every man, woman, and child slave found on board any such vessel, to be distributed to the captors thereof, in the same manner as is by the provisions of this act herein-before directed: provided, that in all cases in which the proceeds of any such capture shall have been distributed among the captors, and allowed to be retained by such captors, under the provisions of this act, the amount of the moiety of the proceeds shall be deducted from such bounties, 5 G. 4. c. 113. s. 69.

72. Provided, that in all cases where any bounty or bounties, or any

SPIRITUAL PERSONS.

1. To inflict the like punishments on clerks in orders, guilty of petty treason, arson, murder, sodomy, robbery, burglary, or other felony, as on laymen guilty of the like offences, 6 G. 4. c. 25. s. 3. [Note. — This title is framed to shew the object of this provision. See 22 H. 8. c. 14. s. 5. Stat. Dig. tit. FELONS, &c. pl. 27. — 25 H. 8. c. 3. s. 2. Stat. Dig. tit. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 9. — 25 H. 8. c. 6. Stat. Dig. tit. SODOMY. — The rest of 6 G. 4. c. 25. will be found tits. BENEFIT OF CLERGY; PARDON.]

2. Whereas by 28 H. 8. c. 1. [viz. s. 7. Stat. Dig. tit. SPIRITUAL PERSONS, pl. 39.] it was enacted, that such as were within holy orders should from thenceforth stand and be under the same pains and dangers for the offences therein referred to, and should be used and ordered to all intents and purposes as other persons not being within holy orders; which enactment has been considered to have been repealed by 1 Ed. 6. c. 12. s. 4. [Stat. Dig. tit. FELONS, &c. pl. 35.] or by 1 M. st. 1. c. 1. s. 5. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 35.]: and whereas it is expedient to revive the said provision of the said act of H. 8., it is enacted, That clerks in holy orders, being convicted of felony, shall stand and be under the same pains and dangers for the same, and shall be used and ordered to all intents and purposes as other persons not being in holy orders; any law, statute, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 25. s. 3.

3. The allowance of the benefit of clergy to any person who shall after the passing of this act be convicted of any felony, shall not render the person to whom such benefit is allowed dispunishable for any other felony by him or her committed before the time of such allowance, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 25. s. 4.

SOLDIERS.

1. To amend two acts of the 58th year of His late Majesty, for regulating the payment of regimental debts, and the distribution of the effects of officers and soldiers dying in service, and the receipt of sums due to soldiers; and of the 4th year of His present Majesty, for punishing mutiny and desertion of officers and soldiers in the service of the E. I. C., 6 G. 4. c. 61.

2. Whereas 58 G. 3. c. 73. was passed, intituled, An Act for regulating the payment of regimental debts, and the distribution of the effects of officers and soldiers dying in service, and the receipt of sums due to soldiers: and whereas by 4 G. 4. c. 81. s. 49. [tit. EAST INDIA COMPANY, pl. 59.] intituled, An Act to consolidate and amend the laws for punishing mutiny and desertion of officers and soldiers in the service of the E. I. C., and to authorize soldiers and sailors in the E. I. to send and receive letters at a reduced rate of postage, and by certain articles of war made in pursuance thereof, provision is made for the care and application of the effects and credits of deceased officers and soldiers in the said Co.'s service: and whereas the transmission to regimental agents or other persons of the effects or proceeds of effects of officers and soldiers dying in H. M.'s service, or in the service of the said Co., has been found highly beneficial in securing an early distribution of such effects among the relations of such officers and soldiers at small expence, and many sums are thereby saved to the relations of soldiers, which would otherwise be, from their small amount, wholly lost; and it is therefore expedient to render the provisions of the said recited acts, relating to such matters, more effectual: be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for all officers and persons who may be employed or required by or under the authority of any articles of war in force for the time being, either for the officers or soldiers in the service of H. M., or for the European officers or soldiers in the service of the said Co., to take care of or collect, or superintend and direct the collection of the effects of officers or soldiers dying in service out of the U. K., to ask, demand, and receive any such effects, and to commence, prosecute, and carry on any actions or suits for the recovery thereof, without taking out any letters of administration, either with any will annexed or otherwise, in like manner in every respect as if such officers or persons had been appointed executors, or had taken out letters of administration of such effects; and no registrar of any court in the E. I., or elsewhere in any colonies or possessions of H. M. abroad, shall in any manner interpose in relation to any such effects, unless required or authorized so to do by any such officers or persons under the provisions of this act; any act or acts of parliament, law, statute, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 61. s. 1.

3. Such effects or proceeds of effects, when remitted to any regimental agent or other person, under any order or regulation of the secretary at war in that behalf, or of the military secretary to the government of any of the said Co.'s presidencies respectively, shall not, by reason of coming into the hands of such agent or person, be deemed or taken to be assets or effects within the province in which such agent or person shall reside, so as to render it necessary that administration should be taken out in respect thereof in such province, unless administration of any other effects of the officer or soldier to whom the proceeds so remitted shall have belonged shall have been or shall be taken out in such province; and it shall be lawful for the secretary at war, in all cases relating to the effects of any officer or soldier in H. M.'s service, and for the military secretary to the government of the presidency to which the deceased officer or soldier shall have belonged, in all cases relating to the effects of any European officer or soldier in the service of the said Co., to order that any such effects or proceeds of any such effects shall be remitted to any other place where the same can be more conveniently paid over to the person entitled thereto; and the obedience to any such orders by any agent or person to whose hands any such effects shall come, shall be a sufficient discharge to such agent or person; and no such agent or person shall be liable to any action or suit by reason of any such effects or proceeds of effects having been in his hands, and thereafter transmitted under the order of the secretary at war or military secretary respectively in that behalf, 6 G. 4. c. 61. s. 2.

4. It shall be lawful for the secretary at war, in the case of any officer or soldier in H. M.'s service, and for the military secretary to the government of the presidency to which the deceased officer or soldier shall have belonged, in the case of any European officer or soldier in the service of the said Co., to order or direct the payment of any charges or expences attending or relating to the illness or funeral of any such officer or soldier, out of any such effects or proceeds of effects, or out of any arrears of pay or half pay, and that such charges and expences, together with all regimental debts and military payments which may be allowed under the provisions of any act or acts of parliament, or articles of war made in pursuance thereof, shall be made out of such effects or proceeds of effects, or arrears of pay or half pay, and the surplus only, after such payment, shall be deemed the personal estate of the deceased, 6 G. 4. c. 61. s. 3.

STAMPS.

Duties.

1. The duties of stamps have been altered or repealed upon the following subjects; which see post, this title:

Conveyances, 3 G. 4. c. 117.
Law Proceedings, 5 G. 4. c. 41.
Newspapers, 6 G. 4. c. 119.
Post Horses, &c., 4 G. 4. c. 62.
Stage Coaches, 3 G. 4. c. 95.

General Regulations.

2. To amend 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 55. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS (General Regulations), pl. 103], for removing doubts as to the amount of certain stamp-duties in G. B. and Ire. respectively, 3 G. 4. c. 117. s. 5. [See rest of this act, post, this title, CONVEYANCES.]

3. Whereas by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4., it is provided, that any deed, agreement, or other instrument duly stamped pursuant to the said act shall not be liable to any stamp-duty by reason of the same also containing any covenant, agreement, or obligation for the payment of any sum of money, at whatever place such money may be made payable, or may by law be payable: and it is expedient to repeal the said provision in manner herein-after contained: be it therefore enacted, That the said recited provision shall be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to any such covenant, agreement, or obligation for the payment of any money which either by law or by the terms of such covenant, agreement, or obligation, shall be payable in Ire., 3 G. 4. c. 117. s. 5.

Articled Clerks.

4. To allow, until the 5th July 1825, the enrolment of articles of clerkship to solicitors and attornies in Eng., and the making and filing of affidavits relating thereto, in certain cases, where the same may have been omitted or neglected, 6 G.4. c.45.]

5. Whereas by 34 G.3. c.14. s.2., [Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS (Articled Clerks.), pl. 246.] intituled, An Act for granting to H. M. certain stamp-duties on indentures of clerkship to solicitors and attornies in any of the courts in Eng. therein mentioned; it is amongst other things enacted [as in Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS (Articled Clerks.), pl. 246. is mentioned]: and whereas it may happen in certain cases, that such contracts and the indentures thereof may not have been enrolled or registered, and that such affidavits may not have been made and filed within the time allowed for that purpose by the said recited act: be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for every person who at any time before the passing of this act shall have neglected or omitted to cause any such contract or indenture to be enrolled or registered, or who shall have neglected or omitted to cause any such affidavit or affidavits as aforesaid to be made and filed pursuant to the directions of the said recited act, to cause any such contract or indenture duly stamped to be enrolled or registered at any time on or before the 5th July next after the passing of this act [22d June 1825], with the proper officer in that behalf; and also, at any time on or before the said 5th July, to cause any one or more affidavit or affidavits to be made and filed in such manner as the same ought to have been made and filed within the time allowed for that purpose by the said recited act; and every person who shall cause any such contract or indenture to be so enrolled or registered, and any such affidavit or affidavits to be so made and filed, at any time on or before the said 5th July 1825, shall be indemnified, released, freed, and discharged from and against all penalties, forfeitures, incapacities, and disabilities in or by the said recited act, or in or by any other act or acts mentioned or incurred for or by reason of any such neglect or omission as aforesaid; and every such contract or indenture so to be enrolled, and every such affidavit so to be made and filed respectively, and which shall be enrolled or registered, or made and filed respectively at any time on or before the said 5th July, shall be as effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the same had been enrolled or registered, and as if the same affidavit had been made and filed, within the respective times within which the same ought to have been enrolled and registered respectively, and the service of the clerk under any such contract or indenture shall be deemed to have commenced from the time of the execution of such contract or indenture; and it shall be lawful for the respective officer or officers who ought to receive, enrol, register, make, and file every such contract or indenture and affidavit respectively, and such officer or officers respectively are hereby authorized and required to receive, enrol, and register, and to make and file every such contract, indenture, or affidavit respectively; at any time on or before the said 5th July, 6 G.4. c.45.

Attornies' Certificates.

6. To prevent articled clerks of attornies, and others, in G. B., from being prejudiced by the neglect of such attornies, and others, in omitting to take out their annual certificates, 6 G.4. c.46.

7. Whereas by 37 G.3. c.90. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS (Attornies' Certificates.), pl. 271, 272.], s.31. intituled, An Act for granting to H. M. certain stamp-duties on the several matters therein mentioned, and for better securing the duties on certificates to be taken out by solicitors, attornies, and others practising in certain courts of justice in G. B.; it is amongst other things enacted, [as in Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS (Attornies' Certificates.), pl. 272. is set forth]: and whereas it may happen that some solicitors, attornies, notaries, proctors, agents, or procurators may have omitted or may omit to take out the annual certificates, or to enter, enrol, or register the same, as directed by the said act, whereby infants and other persons who may have served or who may serve under contract or articles of clerkship to such solicitors, attornies, notaries, proctors, agents, or procurators, have been and may be prevented and disqualified from being admitted to practise as solicitors, attornies, notaries, proctors, agents, or procurators, in the several courts of G. B.: and it is expedient to provide for the relief of such infants and other persons who may have served or who may serve as aforesaid: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [22d June 1825], no person who shall have regularly served any attorney, solicitor, proctor, writer to the signet, agent, procurator, or notary public, for the term of years required by law, shall be prevented or disqualified from being admitted an attorney, solicitor, proctor, writer to the signet, agent, procurator, or notary public, by reason of any omission of the person to whom he served for the same term, or for any part thereof, having so neglected to take out his annual certificate, or to register the same; provided that such person be otherwise entitled to be so admitted by the laws now in force relating thereto, 6 G.4. c.46.

Conveyances.

8. To reduce the stamp-duties on reconveyances of mortgages, and in certain other cases, 3 G.4. c.117. [See rest of this act, s.5. ante, this title, pl. 2.]

9. Whereas by 55 G.3. c.184. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS], intituled, An Act for repealing the stamp-duties on deeds, law proceedings, and other written or printed instruments, and the duties on fire insurances, and on legacies and successions to personal estates upon intestacies, now payable in G. B., and for granting other duties in lieu thereof; and by 56 G.3. c.56., intituled, An Act to repeal the several stamp-duties in Ire.; and also several acts for the collection and management of the said duties, and to grant new stamp-duties in lieu thereof, and to make more effectual regulations for collecting and managing the said duties; and by the schedules to the said acts respectively annexed, certain ad valorem duties, and other duties were imposed on any transfer, assignment, disposition, assignation, or reconveyance of any mortgage or wadset, or other such security as in the said acts, and the schedules thereto annexed, are mentioned, specified, and contained; and by the 56 G.3. c.56., and the said schedule thereto annexed, a duty of 3d. was also imposed on every promissory note, whether in the form of a bank note, bank post bill, or otherwise, issued by the governor and company of the bank of Ire., or by any registered banker or bankers in Ire., where the sum therein expressed should not amount to 5l.: and whereas it is expedient that the said several duties should be repealed, and that other duties should be granted in lieu thereof, in manner herein-after mentioned: be it enacted, That from and after the expiration of 10 days after the passing of this act [5th Aug. 1822], the said several duties herein-before mentioned shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save as to the raising, receiving, allowing or paying any arrears of the said duties under the said acts or either of them respectively; and save as to any proceedings commenced or to be commenced in any court, against any person for or by reason of any fine or punishment in respect of any offence committed, in anywise relating to the collection or management of the said duties so repealed, 3 G.4. c.117. s.1.

10. From and after the expiration of 10 days next after the passing of this act [5th Aug. 1822], in lieu and instead of the duties by this act repealed, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid in Ire., unto H. M. the several sums of money and duties following; that is to say,

Upon any transfer, assignment, disposition, assignation, or reconveyance of any mortgage, or of any other security in the said acts, and the schedules thereto annexed, in that respect severally mentioned, or of the benefit thereof, or of the money or stock thereby secured; provided no further sum of money or stock be added to the principal or stock already secured, there shall be paid for the first skin or piece of vellum or parchment, or sheet or piece of paper, upon which such transfer, assignment, disposition, assignation, or reconveyance shall be ingrossed, written or printed,

In G. B. a stamp duty of 1l. 15s.

In Ire. (British currency), 1l.

And where any such transfer or assignment, disposition or assignation, in G. B., hereby charged with a duty of 1l. 15s., together with any schedule, receipt, or other matter put or indorsed thereon, or annexed thereto, shall contain 2160 words, or upwards.

Then for every entire quantity of 1080 words contained therein, over and above the first 1080 words, there shall be paid a further progressive duty of 1l. 5s.

And for every skin or piece of vellum or parchment, or sheet or piece of paper beyond the first, upon which any such transfer, assignment, or reconveyance shall be ingrossed, written or printed in Ire., there shall be paid the sum of 10s. British currency.

And, if any further sum of money or stock shall be added to the principal money or stock already secured, the ad valorem duty on mortgages, payable under the said recited acts respectively, shall be charged only in respect of such further money or stock.

And upon every promissory note, whether in the form of a bank note, bank post bill, or otherwise, which shall be issued by the bank of Ire., or by any banker in Ire., who shall have registered his name or firm, in manner directed by law where the sum therein expressed shall not amount to 5l., there shall be paid the sum of one penny halfpenny Ir. currency, and no more,

3 G.4. c.117. s.2.

11. Where any deed or other instrument already made or hereafter to be made as an additional or further security for any sum of money, or any share in any of the government or parliamentary stocks or funds, or in the stock and funds of the bank of Eng. or of the bank of Ire., already or previously secured by any bond on which the ad valorem duty on bonds, charged by the 55 G.3. c.184. and 56 G.3. c.56., and the schedules thereto respectively annexed, shall have been paid, such deed or other instrument shall be and be deemed to be and to have been exempt from the several ad valorem duties charged by the said acts, and the said schedules respectively, on mortgages, and shall be charged only with the ordinary duty payable on deeds in general, in G. B. and Ire. respectively; but if any further sum of money or stock shall be added to the principal money or stock already secured, the said ad valorem duties respectively shall be charged in respect of such further sum of money or stock; and if necessary for the sake of evidence, the deeds and instruments hereby exempted from the said ad valorem duties shall be stamped with a particular stamp for denoting or testifying the payment of the ad valorem duty upon all the deeds and instruments relating to the particular transaction, provided such deeds and instruments shall be produced at the stamp-office in London or Dublin (as the case may require), and shall appear to be duly stamped with the duties to which they are liable, 3 G. 4. c. 117. s. 3.

12. And whereas by the 55 G. 3. c. 184. and 56 G. 3. c. 56., and by the schedules thereto respectively annexed, certain ad valorem duties are payable upon every grant or appointment by H. M., or by the lord-lieutenant or other chief governor of Ire. for the time being, or by any other person, body politic or corporate, of or to any office or employment by letters patent, deed, or other writing: and whereas it frequently happens that persons holding such offices or employments in H. M.'s customs in G. B. and Ire. respectively, are promoted from one office to another, and the grants on such promotions are chargeable with the whole of the ad valorem duty now payable upon the appointment to each office respectively; and it is expedient that upon the promotion of any person from any office or employment in H. M.'s customs in G. B. and Ire. respectively, in respect of which he shall have once paid the ad valorem duty, to any other office or employment therein, the ad valorem duty should not be calculated upon the whole of the salary, fees, or emoluments appertaining to the office or employment to which he shall be promoted, but only to the increase gained by such promotion; be it therefore enacted, That in all such cases of promotion as aforesaid, the ad valorem duty shall be paid and payable on the appointment to which such officer shall be promoted, in respect of the increase only of such salary, fees, and emoluments, above the salary, fees, and emoluments of the office or employment, from which the party promoted shall have been removed, unless the amount of such increase shall be equal in amount to the original salary; and in that case, the full ad valorem duty shall be paid on such appointment, as is payable under the said acts respectively, 3 G. 4. c. 117. s. 4. [See s. 5. ante, pl. 2.]

13. The duties hereby granted shall be under the management of the commissioners of stamps in G. B. and Ire. respectively; and all the powers, provisions, clauses, regulations, and directions, fines, forfeitures, pains, and penalties, contained in and imposed by the several acts relating to H. M.'s stamp-duties in G. B. and Ire. respectively, and to the vellum, parchment, and paper, instruments, matters, and things charged or chargeable therewith, shall, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, be of full force and effect, and be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution for raising, levying, collecting, securing, and applying the duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as far as the same are not repealed, or shall not be superseded by or inconsistent with the express provisions of this act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said duties hereby granted, 3 G. 4. c. 117. s. 6.

Law Proceedings.

14. To repeal certain duties on law proceedings in the courts in G. B. and Ire. respectively; and for better protecting the duties payable upon stamped vellum, parchment, or paper, 5 G. 4. c. 41.

15. Whereas it is expedient to repeal the several stamp-duties payable for or in respect of the several instruments herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the 10th Oct. 1824, the several stamp-duties or sums of money now payable in G. B. and Ire. respectively, upon or for or in respect of the several instruments, matters, or things mentioned, described, and set forth in the schedule to this act annexed; and also upon or for or in respect of any bond to be given to the lord chancellor, lord keeper, or commissioners of the great seal of G. B. or Ire. respectively, for the time being, by any creditor or creditors petitioning for a commission of bankrupt; and also upon or for or in respect of any bond to be given in G. B. or Ire. to any sheriff or other person upon the replevy of any goods or chattels; and also for or upon or in respect of the assignment of any of such bonds; and also for or upon or in respect of any copy or extract of any will or codicil deposited in any ecclesiastical court in G. B. or Ire.; and also for or upon or in respect of any letter or power of attorney or proxy filed in any such ecclesiastical court; and also for or in respect of the vellum, parchment, or paper upon which any such instrument, matter or thing, bond, assignment, copy or extract, letter or power of attorney or proxy, shall be written or printed, shall cease and determine; save and except such of the said respective duties, or so much and such part thereof, as shall have become or shall be payable or become due before or upon the 10th Oct. 1824, and remain in arrear or unpaid afterwards; all which duties, or any part which shall remain so in arrear or unpaid as aforesaid, shall be recoverable by the same ways and means, and with such and the same penalties, and in such and the same manner in all respects, as if this act had not been made, 5 G. 4. c. 41. s. 1.

16. It shall be lawful for all persons having in their possession any stamped paper, not made use of, and which by the operation of this act is rendered unfit for the instruments for which the same was originally intended, to send such stamped paper to the head office of stamps in Eng. Scot. or Ire. respectively, at any time within six calendar months from and after the 10th Oct. 1824; and it shall be lawful for the commissioners of stamps in G. B. and Ire. respectively to cause the stamps upon such paper to be cancelled, and to deliver out in lieu thereof other stamps, as near as may be of equal value in the whole with the stamps so cancelled, and, if necessary, to pay the difference out of any monies in the hands of the receiver-general of the stamp-duties in G. B. or Ire. respectively, 5 G. 4. c. 41. s. 2. EXP.

17. Whereas it is expedient to make provision for the better protecting the duties payable to H. M., his heirs and successors, upon stamped vellum, parchment, or paper; be it therefore further enacted, That in any suit, prosecution, or proceeding to be brought against any person, or body politic or corporate, for the taking or detaining, or for the losing, damaging, or destroying of any vellum, parchment, or paper upon which any stamp or stamped mark or marks denoting any duty imposed by law hath been impressed or put, or for any other cause of action or proceeding relating to the same respectively, such suit, prosecution, or proceeding shall and may be commenced, instituted, and proceeded in in the name of H. M., his heirs and successors, or in the name of the attorney or solicitor-general in Eng. or Ire., or of the advocate or solicitor-general in Scot. respectively for the time being, for and on behalf of His said Majesty, his heirs and successors; and that in all such suits, prosecutions, or proceedings, the property in such vellum, parchment, or paper so stamped, marked, and impressed as aforesaid, shall be described to be and shall be deemed and taken to be in H. M., his heirs and successors, and that the value of the same respectively shall be deemed and taken to be the amount of the value of the vellum, parchment, and paper, and of the stamp-duty or stamp-duties denoted by the stamp or stamps, mark or marks, so impressed and put upon the same respectively; and further, that in every prosecution for embezzling or stealing such vellum, parchment, or paper so stamped, marked, and impressed as aforesaid, or for any other offence for or relating to the same respectively, it shall be sufficient in the indictment or information to state and describe the property in the same to be in H. M., his heirs and successors, which property shall be deemed and taken to be vested in His said Majesty, his heirs and successors accordingly, 5 G. 4. c. 41. s. 3.

Newspapers.

18. To allow newspapers to be printed upon paper of a larger size than is now allowed; and to reduce the stamp-duties now payable upon supplements to newspapers and other papers in G. B., 6 G. 4. c. 119. [To commence and take effect from and after the 5th July 1825. s. 7.]

19. Whereas it is expedient to remove the restrictions [see Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS (Newspapers), pl. 636, 637.], which prevent the printing of newspapers upon paper not exceeding 32 inches in length and 22 inches in breadth: and whereas it is expedient to allow supplements to newspapers containing advertisements only to be printed and published subject to a stamp-duty not exceeding one-half of the stamp-duties now payable on newspapers, and to allow papers not containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, but containing only or principally advertisements, to be printed and published periodically, subject to a like reduced stamp-duty; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the commencement of this act, any newspaper or paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, shall and may be printed and published in G. B. upon any single sheet or piece of paper duly stamped, although such sheet of paper shall exceed 32 inches in length and 22 inches in breadth, and whatever size such sheet or piece of paper may be; and it shall be lawful for the commissioners of stamps, and they are hereby authorized and directed, when thereunto required, to mark and stamp any such single sheet or sheets, or piece or pieces of paper, to be used for printing thereon any newspaper or other paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, although such sheet or sheets, or piece or pieces of paper, shall respectively be of a larger size than 32 inches in length and 22 inches in breadth; any thing contained in any act or acts of parliament to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 119. s. 1.

20. From and after the commencement of this act [5th July 1825. s. 7.], there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in G. B., unto H. M., for and in respect of the articles, matters, and things following, the several stamp-duties or sums of money following; that is to say, for every supplement to any newspaper or paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, printed in G. B., such supplement containing advertisements only (that is to say), for every sheet, half-sheet, or other piece of paper on which such supplement shall be printed, the sum of 2d.; and for every paper printed in G. B., weekly or oftener, or at intervals not exceeding 26 days, containing only or principally advertisements, and not containing any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, for every sheet, half-sheet, or other piece of paper, the sum of 2d., 6 G. 4. c. 119. s. 2.

21. The duties hereby granted shall be under the care and management of the commissioners of stamps in G. B.; and the said commissioners, or the major part of them, are hereby empowered and required to provide and use proper and sufficient plates, stamps, or dies, for marking, expressing, and denoting the duties hereby granted, and to alter and renew such plates, stamps, or dies, from time to time, as occasion shall require, and also to employ such officers and persons under them, and to do all such other acts and things as shall be thought necessary or expedient for effectually raising and collecting the several duties hereby granted, and for putting this act into execution, in the like and in as full and ample manner as they or any former commissioners of stamps are or have been authorized to do, for the raising and collecting of any former duties under their care and management, or for putting into execution any act or acts relating thereto, 6 G. 4. c. 119. s. 3.

22. From and after the commencement of this act [5th July 1825. s. 7.], it shall not be lawful for any person to print in or upon any paper which shall be stamped with a stamp denoting the duties by this act granted, any public news, intelligence, or occurrences whatsoever; and that upon every supplement to any newspaper chargeable with the duties granted by this act there shall be printed the name and title of the newspaper to which the same shall be a supplement; and that upon every paper printed weekly or oftener, or at intervals not exceeding 26 days, chargeable with the duties granted by this act, there shall be printed the name and title of such paper; and that upon every such supplement, and also upon every such other paper respectively, there shall be printed in large type at the top of each side of every such supplement or other paper as aforesaid respectively, the month, and day of the month, and year, on which such newspaper or other paper respectively shall be published, and the name of the printer and place of printing, in large type, in or upon some conspicuous part of every such supplement or other paper as aforesaid respectively; and that if any person shall print, or cause or permit or suffer to be printed, any public news, intelligence, or occurrences, other than advertisements, in or upon any such supplement to any newspaper, or in or upon any such paper printed weekly or oftener, or at intervals not exceeding 26 days, or if any person shall print, or cause or permit or suffer to be printed, any supplement or supplements to any newspaper, without the name and title of the newspaper, or any such paper printed weekly or oftener, or at intervals not exceeding 26 days, without the title thereof being respectively printed in large type at the top of each side of every such supplement or other paper as aforesaid respectively, or without the month, and day of the month, and year, on which such newspaper or other paper as aforesaid respectively shall be published, or without the name of the printer, and the place of printing, in large type, in or upon some conspicuous part of every such supplement or other paper as aforesaid, being respectively printed in or upon every such supplement or other paper as aforesaid respectively, in manner herein-before directed, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay, over and above all other penalties recoverable by law, the sum of 50*l.* for every such offence, 6 G. 4. c. 119. s. 4.

23. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forfeited [so in the act, but qu. forged] or counterfeited, any plate, stamp, or die, or any part of any plate, stamp, or die, which shall have been or shall be provided, made, or used in pursuance of this act, for expressing and denoting any of the duties granted by this act; or shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, the impression, or any part or resemblance of the impression, of any such plate, stamp, or die, upon any paper whatsoever; or shall stamp or mark, or cause or procure to be stamped or marked, any paper whatsoever, with any such forged or counterfeited plate, stamp, or die as aforesaid, with intent to defraud H. M. of any of the duties by this act granted, or any part thereof; or if any person shall utter or sell, or expose to sale, any paper having thereupon the impression of any such forged or counterfeited plate, stamp, or die, or part of any plate, stamp, or die, or any such forged or counterfeited impression, or part or resemblance of impression as aforesaid, knowing the same respectively to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled; or if any person shall privately and secretly use any plate, stamp, or die which shall have been so provided, made, or used as aforesaid, with intent to defraud H. M.; then every person so offending, and every person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting any person in committing any such offence as aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy, 6 G. 4. c. 119. s. 6.

Post Horses.

24. To repeal the duties upon horses let to hire for the purpose of travelling in G. B., and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; and to provide for letting the same to farm, 4 G. 4. c. 62.

25. Whereas it is expedient to repeal the rates and duties now payable upon or in respect of horses, mares, and geldings let for hire, for the purpose of travelling in G. B.; and also the duty on licences required to be taken out by persons letting such horses, mares, and geldings for hire; and to grant other duties upon all horses, mares, and geldings let for hire, in lieu thereof: and whereas it is also expedient to repeal the several acts now in force relating to the said rates and duties, and to reduce the same into one act of parliament, and to make other provisions for the better collecting the duties herein-after granted, and for letting the same to farm: be it therefore enacted, That from and after 31st Jan. 1824, so much of 25 G. 3. c. 51. [s. 4—44. Stat. Dig.

tit. STAMPS (Post Horse), pl. 684—725.], intituled, An Act for repealing the duties on licences taken out by persons letting horses for the purpose of travelling post, and on horses let to hire for travelling post and by time, and on stage coaches, and for granting other duties in lieu thereof, and also additional duties on horses let to hire for travelling post and by time, as relates to the duties on horses hired to be used in travelling post and by time; and also 27 G. 3. c. 26. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 772—789.], intituled, An Act to enable the lord high treasurer, or commissioners of the treasury for the time being, to let to farm the duties granted by an act made in the 25th year of His present Majesty's reign, on horses let to hire for travelling post and by time, to such persons as should be willing to contract for the same; and also 44 G. 3. c. 98. [Sch. B. as to duty on post-horses, Stat. Dig. page 1401.], intituled, An Act to repeal the several duties under the commissioners for managing the duties upon stamped vellum, parchment, and paper in G. B., and to grant new and additional duties in lieu thereof, as relates to the duties on horses hired to be used in travelling in G. B.; and also 57 G. 3. c. 59. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 790. 793—798. 748—766. 768.], intituled, An Act for letting to farm the post-horse duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said duties; and also 1 G. 4. c. 88. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 791, 792. 769—771. 767.], intituled, An Act to continue, until the 1st of Jan. 1824, an act of the 57th year of His late Majesty, for letting to farm the post-horse duties, and to amend the acts relating to the post-horse duties; and all the rates and duties, clauses, provisions, and regulations contained in any other acts, as far as the same relate to the said rates and duties, shall cease and determine; save and except as far as the said acts or any of them, or any enactments, may have repealed any former acts or enactments therein contained, relating to the payment or collection of the said rates and duties, or any part thereof, which may be now payable, or which may become payable, or to any penalty or penalties which hath or have been or may be incurred under any of the said acts; which said rates, duties, and penalties shall be recoverable, and proceedings or suits thereon shall be instituted and carried on, in the same manner as if this act had not been made: provided that the several bonds given or which may hereafter be given, in pursuance of the said acts or any of them, shall continue and be in full force and effect, with respect to all duties due and owing, or which may become due and owing by virtue of any of the said acts; and that the several licences granted or which may hereafter be granted in pursuance of any of the said acts, shall continue and be in full force and effect, for and during the periods for which the same have been or may be respectively granted; and that the several deputations and appointments which have been or may be made under the provisions of any of the said acts, shall remain and continue in full force and effect until duly revoked or determined, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 1.

26. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, there shall be collected and paid, throughout the kingdom of G. B., unto and for the use of H. M., the several duties following; that is to say,

Every postmaster or other person in G. B., who shall let horses, mares, or geldings for hire (except as herein-after mentioned), shall pay annually unto H. M. the sum of 5s. for a licence, authorizing him or her so to do:

And for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding let for hire by the mile (at the usual rate charged for horses travelling post at the place at which such horse, mare, or gelding shall be let for hire), the sum of 1½d. for every mile such horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired or used to travel or go:

And for and in respect of every horse, mare or gelding let for hire, to go no greater distance than eight miles from the place of letting for hire every such horse, mare, or gelding, one-fifth part of the sum charged for such letting for hire, or the sum of 1s. 9d. for every horse, mare, or gelding so let for hire:

And for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding let for hire, to go no greater distance than eight miles from the place of letting for hire every such horse, mare, or gelding, where such horse, mare, or gelding shall not bring back any person, and shall not deviate from the usual line of road between the place of letting and the place or distance to which every such horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired to travel or go, the sum of 1s. for every such horse, mare, or gelding so let for hire as last aforesaid:

And for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding let for hire or used for any period of time less than 28 successive days, or in any other manner than by the mile, or to go no greater distance than eight miles, in either of the cases aforesaid one-fifth part of the sum charged on every such letting for hire or using, or the sum of 2s. 6d. for each day not exceeding three days, and the sum of 1s. 9d. for each day exceeding three days and not exceeding 13 days, and the sum of 1s. 3d. for each day exceeding 13 days and less than 28 days, during the time for which every such horse, mare, or gelding shall be so let for hire or used:

And for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding let for hire or used for 28 successive days, or for any longer period of time, where any such horse, mare, or gelding shall be returned in a less period of time than 28 successive days, and not to be exchanged for another horse, mare, or gelding in continuation of the same hiring, one-fifth part of the sum received or agreed to be received for such letting for hire or using, for and in respect of every such horse, mare, or gelding, or the sum of 2s. 6d. for each day not exceeding three days, and the sum of 1s. 9d. for each day exceeding three days and not exceeding 13 days, and the sum of 1s. 3d. for each day exceeding 13 days and less than 21 days, during the time every such horse, mare, or gelding shall have been under the direction of the person hiring the same, by virtue of such letting for hire, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 2.

27. The duties granted by this act shall be deemed to attach and be payable upon or in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding let for hire or used as aforesaid, either as a saddle-horse, or for drawing any carriage or vehicle conveying any person, and upon or in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding used for drawing any mourning-coach or hearse; but the said duties shall not be deemed to attach upon or be payable in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding used for the purpose of drawing any carriage or vehicle conveying passengers for hire at separate fares, as a public stage-coach or carriage, and duly licensed by the commissioners of stamps in G. B.; nor shall the said duties attach upon or be payable in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding used in drawing any hackney-coach or carriage duly licensed by the commissioners of hackney-coaches, where the same shall be licensed to go no greater distance than 10 miles from the cities of London or Westminster; nor shall the said duties be payable for or in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding used for drawing any mourning-coach or hearse, where the same shall be used to go no greater distance than eight miles from Temple Bar in the city of London; nor shall the said duties be payable for or in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding which shall be used for drawing any cart or carriage kept or usually employed for the conveyance of fish, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 3.

28. And for the better and more effectually collecting and paying the said duties herein-before granted, be it further enacted, That the said duties shall be under the care and management of the commissioners of stamps in G. B. for the time being; which said commissioners, or the major part of them, are hereby required and empowered to appoint and employ such officers and persons under them for that purpose, and to allow such salaries and incidental charges as shall be necessary, and also to do all other acts, matters, and things necessary to be done for putting this act in execution, with relation to the said duties hereby granted, 4 G. 4. c. 64. s. 2.

29. From and after the 31st Jan. 1824, any two or more of the said commissioners of stamps, or some person duly authorized by them, shall grant licences to any person who shall apply for the same, to let any horses, mares, and geldings for hire as aforesaid; and that all such licences which shall be granted between the 31st Jan. and the 16th March in any year shall be dated on the 1st Feb. in that year; and that all such licences which shall be granted at any other time shall be dated on the day on which the same shall be granted; and all such licences respectively shall have effect and continue in force from the day of the date thereof until the 31st Jan. following, both inclusive, and no longer; and that no person whatsoever required by this act to be licensed shall, unless he or she shall have obtained a proper licence in that behalf, let any horse, mare, or gelding for hire to be used in any of the cases aforesaid, upon pain to forfeit for every horse, mare, or gelding so let out for hire as aforesaid the sum of 10l.: provided, that no such licence shall be granted to any person applying for the same, until he or she shall have entered into and given or renewed the security by bond, as by this act required, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 5.

30. The said commissioners of stamps, or their collectors, shall supply all persons who shall be licensed to let horses, mares, and geldings for hire, in the manner aforesaid, with proper tickets and certificates, and the toll-gate-keeper with proper exchange and check-tickets; and that the tickets for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding, or of any number of horses, mares, or geldings, let for hire by the mile, for drawing any carriage or vehicle conveying any person, shall be adapted for the insertion of the day of the month, the month and year, on which every such horse, mare, or gelding shall be let for hire, the christian and surname of the person letting for hire, if not an innkeeper, or the name of his or her sign or description of house, if an innkeeper, and in either case the name of the place of his or her residence, the number of horses, mares, and geldings, the number of miles, the names of the town or place (and if to London, the name of the street, square, or place) to which every such horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired to go; and that the tickets for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding, or of any number of horses, mares, or geldings, let for hire for a day or less period of time, to be used within the distance of eight miles from the place of letting for hire any horse, mare, or gelding, for the purpose of drawing any carriage or vehicle conveying any person, shall be adapted for the

31. And whereas there are many public roads on which there are no toll-gates or bars, so that the tickets or certificates directed to be issued by the several postmasters and other persons cannot be received and filed, as directed by this act; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the said commissioners of stamps to erect bars and gates across any public road, for the receipt of the tickets and certificates directed to be issued in pursuance of this act, and to place a proper person thereat, who shall have the same power and authority to collect and receive such tickets or certificates, and shall be authorized to demand the money from the traveller, for not producing and showing such ticket or certificate, in like manner as the keepers of any toll-gates or bars are authorized by this act to collect, demand, and receive the same; and such person shall be liable and subject to the same

32. The said commissioners, at the time of issuing any such licence as aforesaid, shall deliver to every postmaster, or other person to whom such licence shall be granted as aforesaid, printed or written papers, intituled "Stamp-Office Weekly Accounts," which shall be adapted for the insertion of the following particulars relating to the horses, mares, or geldings which may be let for hire, videlicet, the day of the month, the month and the year, of such letting for hire, the names of the towns or places from and to which, or from and to which and back again, according as the hiring may be, the number of every carriage required by this act to be numbered, the christian and surname of every postillion or driver employed, the amount of the sum charged for or in respect of every letting for hire, the number of horses, mares, or geldings let for hire, the number of days, and the number of miles for which such horses, mares, or geldings shall be let for hire, and the amount of the duty payable for and in respect of every such letting for hire, as the case may be or shall require, according to the following or such other form as the said commissioners shall judge convenient for keeping such account,

4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 8.

[illegible]

35. Where any person who shall be licensed to let horses for hire in the manner aforesaid shall keep any carriage, to be furnished at the same time with any horse or horses by him or her let for hire by the mile as aforesaid (except hearses and mourning-coaches), he or she shall, before such carriage shall be so furnished or used, cause the same to be numbered with different numbers, beginning with number one and proceeding upwards progressively to the highest number of carriages which he or she shall so keep, and shall also mark or paint, in one or more straight line or lines on the outside pannel of each door of every such carriage which shall have a door thereto, and on some conspicuous part of each of the outsides of every such carriage which shall not have a door thereto, his or her christian and surname, and the name of the city, town, or place where he or she shall keep such carriage, in large and legible characters, and figures of black or white, whichever shall most differ from the colour of the figures whereon the same shall be marked or painted, each letter to be at least one inch in length, and each figure at least one inch and an half in length, and both letters and figures to be of a proper breadth in proportion to the length thereof respectively, and shall continue the same on every such carriage as long as such carriage shall be kept for the purpose aforesaid, varying the numbers on such carriage from time to time as occasion shall require, so as to make the same correspond with the actual number of such carriages which he or she shall then keep; and if any person so licensed as aforesaid shall neglect or omit to number, mark, or paint any such carriage in manner aforesaid, or shall mark or paint thereon, any false or fictitious name or place of residence, or any higher number than the greatest number of such carriages which he or she shall then keep, or shall keep two or more such carriages with the same number marked or painted thereon, or shall continue any number upon any such carriage after he or she shall cease to keep any number of such carriages corresponding therewith, he or she shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 11.

56. Every postmaster or other person so licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid shall, at the time of receiving his, her, or their first licence, give security by bond to H. M., his heirs and successors, in the sum of 50*l.*, with a condition that he or she will, whenever thereunto required, re-deliver, or cause to be re-delivered, all and every the stamp-office tickets which he or she may have received, and that may remain unaccounted for by him or her, or that he or she will pay the value of such tickets, to be ascertained as herein mentioned; and that he or she will also deliver, to the person properly authorized by the said commissioners of stamps, the stamp-office weekly accounts so delivered to such postmaster or other person, faithfully made out and signed as herein-after directed, and make payment of all such sum and sums of money as shall be due and payable to H. M., in pursuance of and according to the true intent and meaning of this act; and also that he and she shall and will truly and faithfully observe and perform all the directions, matters, and things herein contained, on his or her behalf to be observed and performed: provided, that every postmaster or other person so licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, is hereby required to renew from time to time such security by bond to H. M., conditioned as aforesaid, at the expiration of three years from the date of the first, or if more than one bond shall have been given, at the expiration of three years from the date of the last preceding bond, by another bond conditioned as aforesaid; and in case of the non-performance or breach of any such condition, or any part thereof, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, or the persons so appointed by them, to cause each and every such bond to be prosecuted according to law, and in case of judgment against the defendant, the said commissioners may, if they shall think fit, refuse to grant to such person against whom such judgment shall be obtained any licence to let horses for hire as aforesaid in future, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 12.

57. Every person appointed a collector under this act shall, at or before the expiration of every three months, transmit and send to the said commissioners of stamps every bond given as a security to H. M., as aforesaid, which may have been taken from any postmaster or other person, conditioned as herein-before set forth, and shall also make out and deliver, within the time aforesaid, an account or list in writing of the licences granted by him, as such collector as aforesaid, to any person to let horses, mares, or geldings for hire as aforesaid, which list or account shall specify the christian and surname of the person licensed, the place of residence, the names of the inn (if any), and the date of every such licence; and if any such collector shall neglect or refuse to transmit and send every such bond, account, or list as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 13.

58. No deputation or commission to be hereafter granted pursuant to this act, appointing any person to be a collector of the said duties on horses let for hire in the manner aforesaid, shall be charged or chargeable with any higher stamp-duty than 1*l.* and 15*s.*; and that no bond by this act required to be given by any postmaster or other person letting horses for hire as aforesaid shall be charged or chargeable with any higher stamp-duty than 10*s.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 14.

59. Every postmaster or other person letting any horse, mare, or gelding for hire, shall be chargeable with and made liable for the payment of the duty by this act imposed in respect of every such letting for hire, whether the person letting such horse, mare, or gelding for hire shall have received such duty or not; and that every postmaster or other person who shall receive the hire for any horse, mare, or gelding, shall be considered as the person to whom the duties herein-before granted shall be paid, and shall be chargeable with and accountable for the same, as if such postmaster or other person was the actual proprietor of such horses, mares, or geldings, although the same may belong to and be the property of some other licensed postmaster or other person; and that where any postmaster or other person so licensed as aforesaid, at whose inn, house, or other place any person shall apply to change horses, if he or she cannot furnish horses to convey such person on his or her journey, when applied to for that purpose, such postmaster or other person shall issue, to any person requiring the same, a fresh ticket properly filled up, and receive the duty due thereon, and charge himself or herself therewith, in the same manner as if such horses had been hired from such postmaster or other person, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 15.

40. If any person not being licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, shall after the said 31st Jan. 1824, let for hire any horse, mare, or gelding, as aforesaid, he or she shall be chargeable with and accountable for the duty hereby made payable for and in respect of every horse, mare or gelding which shall be so let for hire, in such and the same manner as if he or she had obtained such licence as aforesaid, and had received such duty of and from the person hiring such horse, mare, or gelding as aforesaid; and shall from time to time, upon a week's notice in writing for that purpose given by any collector of the said duties for the county, district, or place where he or she shall so let any horse, mare, or gelding for hire as aforesaid, deliver to such collector, whenever by him requested, after the expiration of such notice, a true account in writing, signed by him or her, of every such horse, mare, or gelding which he or she shall have let for hire in the manner aforesaid, and shall not then have already accounted for, and of the mode and manner in which every such horse, mare, or gelding shall have been let for hire, and of the duty payable in respect thereof, in such and the same manner as is hereby required to be done by persons licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, and shall also verify such account by oath or affirmation (to be administered by such collector), in like manner as licensed persons are hereby required to do, and shall thereupon pay to such collector the amount of such duty; and in case of any refusal or neglect so to do, then he or she shall forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.* for every default in not delivering such account, verified as aforesaid, and double the amount of the duty which he or she shall be then chargeable with: provided, that where any such notice shall have been given and request made for the delivery of such account as aforesaid, then upon the delivery of such account, and payment of the duty due thereon, in pursuance of such notice and request, and upon taking out such licence as ought to have been taken out by him or her previously thereto, the person so delivering such account shall be indemnified and discharged from any penalty which he or she may be then liable to, in consequence of having let for hire any horse, mare, or gelding, in the manner mentioned in such account, without having obtained such licence as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 16.

41. No person hiring any horse, mare, or gelding, shall be compelled to pay for a greater number of miles, for the hire of such horse, mare, or gelding, than shall be expressed upon the ticket by this act directed to be delivered to such person; and if any postmaster or other person so licensed as aforesaid shall insert in such ticket the name of any other town or place than the town or place to, or to and from which, the horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired to go, or to go and return, or a less number of miles, every postmaster or other person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*; and the said commissioners shall, if they think fit, after conviction of such offender, refuse to grant such offender any licence in future, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 17.

42. If any postmaster or other person, licensed to let horses for hire in manner aforesaid, shall die or become insolvent, it shall be lawful for his or her executors or administrators, assignees or trustees, or other persons succeeding to or taking possession of such inn, house, or other place, to let horses for hire in manner aforesaid, until such time as such person shall procure such licence and give such security as herein-before directed without being liable to the penalty herein-before imposed upon persons letting horses for hire without being licensed in that behalf; provided that such licence be taken out within 30 days after the death or insolvency of such postmaster or other person; and such person shall be subject to the same rules, regulations, and charges, and liable to account for and pay the duties hereby imposed, in like manner as such postmaster or other person was subject and liable, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 18.

43. Every postmaster or other person who shall, from and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, let any horse, mare, or gelding for hire, shall by himself or herself, or his or her servants, previous to the using any such horse, mare, or gelding, deliver to the person hiring any such horse, mare, or gelding, one or more ticket or tickets, properly filled up as to all the particulars herein-before mentioned, which shall be applicable to the hiring of such horse, mare, or gelding; and that every postmaster or other person who shall let for hire any horse, mare, or gelding, for 28 successive days or more, shall in like manner as aforesaid deliver to the person hiring such horse, mare, or gelding, one or more of the certificates herein-before mentioned, properly filled up as to the several particulars herein-before mentioned, in respect of every such letting for hire; and if any postmaster or other person as aforesaid, under any pretence whatsoever, shall neglect or refuse to deliver to the person hiring any such horse, mare, or gelding, one or more of the tickets or certificates herein-before directed to be delivered to such person, properly filled up, as to the several particulars herein-before mentioned, applicable to such respective letting for hire, such postmaster or other person shall forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 19.

44. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, where any person so licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, shall let for hire any horse, mare, or gelding for 28 successive days or more, and such horse, mare, or gelding, shall be given up and returned to the person letting the same before the expiration of the time for which such horse, mare, or gelding shall have been so let for hire, the person so letting such horse, mare, or gelding, shall, at the time of receiving back such horse, mare, or gelding, ask for and receive of and from the person so returning or giving up such horse, mare, or gelding, the check-ticket which he or she shall have received in exchange for the original ticket or certificate delivered to him, her, or them, on the letting for hire such horse, mare, or gelding, and shall within three days after the return of such horse, mare, or gelding, deliver up or transmit such check-ticket to the collector of the aforesaid duties, to whom he or she shall be bound to deliver his or her stamp-office weekly account; and if any person so licensed as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to ask for such check-ticket, or having received the same shall refuse or neglect to deliver it up or transmit the same to the said collector within the time aforesaid, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.*; and if he or she shall use any such check-ticket, or permit the same to be used, or give out the same to any person for the purpose of being used to cover and protect any other letting for hire whatever from the duty hereby granted, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 20.

45. Every person hiring any horse, mare, or gelding, before using the same, shall receive of and from the person letting the same one or more of the tickets or certificates, properly filled up as to the several particulars in that behalf herein-before mentioned, which shall be applicable to the hiring of such horse, mare, or gelding, and shall leave and deliver every such ticket or certificate with the keeper of any toll-gate or bar, at the first toll-gate or bar which the person hiring or using any such horse, mare, or gelding shall pass or go through, and shall ask for and receive of and from such keeper of any toll-gate or bar the necessary exchange or check-ticket as aforesaid, containing the several particulars in that behalf herein-before mentioned, which shall be applicable to the hiring of any such horse, mare, or gelding, which exchange or check-ticket shall be produced and shown by the person hiring or using any such horse, mare, or gelding, at every toll-gate or bar through which he or she shall afterwards pass or go with such horse, mare, or gelding at any time within the period for which such horse, mare, or gelding shall have been let for hire as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 21.

46. If any person hiring or using any horse, mare, or gelding, shall neglect or refuse to deliver, produce, or show, at any toll-gate or bar, the ticket, exchange-ticket, certificate, or check-ticket which he or she ought, according to the provisions of this act, to deliver, produce, or show at such toll-gate or bar, and shall falsely allege such horse, mare, or gelding with which he or she shall pass such toll-gate or bar, to be his or her own and not hired, in order to avoid being stopped, or to avoid the payment of the sum which the keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall be entitled to demand, in default of such ticket, exchange-ticket, certificate, or check-ticket being delivered or shown as aforesaid, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 22.

47. The keeper of every toll-gate or bar in any city, town, or other place through which any horse, mare, or gelding let for hire for drawing any carriage or vehicle as aforesaid, shall or may first pass or go, shall ask and demand of and from the person using such horse, mare, or gelding, the ticket or certificate issued for and in respect of such horse, mare, or gelding; and every such keeper of such toll-gate or bar shall deliver to the person hiring or using any such horse, mare, or gelding, one or more exchange-tickets or check-tickets, properly filled up as to the particulars in that behalf herein-before mentioned, and shall receive and write his or her name upon and file all and every such ticket or certificate; and every such keeper of such toll-gate or bar is hereby authorized and empowered to prevent any horse, mare, or gelding let for hire in any of the ways aforesaid, passing or going through such toll-gate or bar, unless the person hiring or using any such horse, mare, or gelding, shall first deliver or produce and show to the keeper of such toll-gate or bar the necessary ticket, certificate, exchange-ticket, or check-ticket aforesaid, containing and specifying the particulars in that behalf herein-before mentioned, which shall be applicable to the hiring of such horse, mare, or gelding as aforesaid, or shall pay or offer to pay to the keeper of such toll-gate or bar the sum of 1*s.* 9*d.* for and in respect of every such horse, mare, or gelding; which sum the keeper of such toll-gate or bar is hereby authorized to ask, demand, and receive, to and for his or her own use and benefit, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 23.

48. If any keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall neglect to ask and demand, or shall refuse to receive from any person hiring or using any horse, mare, or gelding, any ticket or certificate hereby directed to be delivered to such keeper of any toll-gate or bar as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to write his or her name, or to file the same when delivered, such keeper of such toll-gate or bar as aforesaid shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 24.

49. If any keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall neglect or refuse to give to any person hiring or using any horse, mare, or gelding, the ticket hereby directed to be given in exchange; or shall deliver an exchange or check-ticket without having first received the necessary ticket or certificate containing the particulars in that behalf herein-before mentioned, applicable to the hiring of any horse, mare, or gelding as aforesaid; or shall make, or permit or cause or suffer to be made, any alteration whatever in any ticket hereby authorized to be received and filed by him or her, after any such ticket shall have come to his or her possession or custody; or shall deliver any ticket, herein-before directed to be received and filed by him or her, to any person other than the person duly authorized as herein mentioned to receive the same; or shall permit or suffer any person to examine, see, or inspect any ticket directed to be by him received and filed as aforesaid, other than the person duly authorized to receive such ticket; or if any keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall ask, demand, or receive, or agree to take or accept any less sum than he or she is hereby authorized to ask, demand, and receive, and retain to his or her own use, every such keeper of any toll-gate or bar as aforesaid, offending in any or either of the cases aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 25.

50. The keeper of every toll-gate or bar within the distance of five miles from the head office of stamps in the city and liberties of Westminster shall bring all and every the tickets and certificates required by him or her to be received to the said head office, or to such other place within the bills of mortality as the said commissioners shall appoint; and if such toll-gate or bar shall be beyond the distance of five miles from the head office aforesaid, then the keeper of every such toll-gate or bar shall bring or cause to be brought all and every the tickets and certificates by him or her received as aforesaid to such places and at such times as the collector appointed to collect such tickets and certificates shall require, provided such places shall not be at a greater distance than the nearest market town; and such keeper of every such toll-gate or bar shall, upon demand made to him or her for that purpose, deliver up all such tickets and certificates as aforesaid to the collectors to be appointed as aforesaid; and if any keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall neglect or refuse to attend with and deliver up all and every the ticket or tickets, certificate or certificates, so received by him or her as aforesaid, at the time and place herein-before mentioned in that behalf as aforesaid, every such keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall, for each ticket or certificate he or she shall so neglect or refuse to deliver up, forfeit and pay the sum of 20*s.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 26.

51. And for the encouragement of the keepers of the toll-gates or bars in the execution of this act, and as a compensation for their trouble, be it further enacted, That every keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall be and he is hereby authorized to demand and receive, from the collector or other person appointed to get in such tickets as aforesaid, and to whom such keeper of any toll-gate or bar shall deliver such tickets as aforesaid, the sum of one farthing for and in respect of each horse specified in any ticket; and also the sum of one farthing for each such horse for every day more than one and less than 28 successive days in such tickets mentioned; and such collector or other person is hereby authorized to pay and allow the same accordingly, which allowance shall be over and above the allowance or privilege hereby given to such keepers of any toll-gate or bar, of retaining the money by him, her, or them collected from such person who shall not, pursuant to this act, deliver, produce, or show the ticket, exchange-ticket, certificate, or check-ticket, as is herein-before directed, to the keeper of any toll-gate or bar as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 27.

52. It shall be lawful for any collector, or other person duly authorized as aforesaid, from time to time to enter into and remain in any toll-house or other place at the gate or bar of which any toll is by law payable, for the purpose of examining and receiving the tickets and certificates by this act directed to be delivered; and if any keeper of any toll-gate or bar, or any other person shall refuse to permit any collector, or other person authorized as aforesaid, from time to time to enter into and remain in any such toll-house or other place as aforesaid, or to examine and receive such tickets or certificates as aforesaid, or shall obstruct, hinder, or molest such collector, or other person so authorized, in entering into and remaining in such toll-house or other place as aforesaid, for the purpose of examining and receiving such tickets or certificates; or if any keeper of any toll-gate or bar, or any other person shall in any way hinder, molest, interrupt, or disturb any such collector, or other person authorized as aforesaid, in the reasonable use of such toll-house or other place as aforesaid, for the purpose aforesaid, every keeper of any such toll-gate or bar, and every person aiding and assisting such keeper of any toll-gate or bar, offending in any of the cases aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 28.

53. In calculating the amount of duty to be paid, when the same shall be one-fifth part of the sum charged for any letting for hire of any horse, mare, or gelding, such one-fifth part shall be calculated upon the whole sum charged by such postmaster or other person letting such horse, mare, or gelding, for and in respect of such horse, mare, or gelding so let for hire, and of the carriage (if any) used therewith; and that in calculating the amount of the duty to be paid as aforesaid, no fractional part of any sum amounting to a less sum than 1*d.* shall be charged in respect of any part of the said duties; and that the inn, house, or other place at which any person shall be licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be the place of letting for hire of every horse, mare, or gelding by him or her so let for hire; and that where any horse, mare, or gelding which shall have been let for hire for any period of time, and shall be retained and kept beyond the expiration of the time for which the same shall have been let for hire without a new hiring or new hirings, every such horse, mare, or gelding shall be deemed and taken, so far as relate to the duties imposed by this act, to have been retained and kept upon a hiring similar to that for which every such horse, mare, or gelding was originally let for hire, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 29.

54. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, all and every person letting horses for hire as aforesaid, shall insert and set forth in his or her stamp-office weekly account the several particulars following; that is to say, whenever he or she shall let for hire by the mile any horse, mare, or gelding, the day of the month, the month and year for which such horse, mare, or gelding shall be let for hire, the names of the towns or places from and to which, or from and to which and back again, such horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired to go, the number of every carriage which he or she shall furnish with any such horse, mare, or gelding (if by this act required to be numbered), the christian and surname of every postillion or driver employed therewith, the number of horses, mares, or geldings so let for hire, and also the amount of the duty payable for and in respect of every such letting for hire; and whenever such person letting horses for hire as aforesaid shall let for hire for a day or less period of time, to be used within the distance of eight miles from the place of letting for hire any horse, mare, or gelding as aforesaid for the purpose of drawing any carriage conveying any person as aforesaid, any horse, mare, or gelding, he or she shall insert and set forth in his or her stamp-office weekly account, the several particulars following; that is to say, the day of the month, the month and year, on which such horse, mare, or gelding shall be let for hire, the number of every carriage, if by this act required to be numbered, the christian and surname of every postillion or driver employed with such horse, mare, or gelding, the number of horses, mares, or geldings so let for hire, and the amount of the sum charged for such letting for hire; and shall be answerable and accountable for one-fifth part of such sum of money so charged, or for the sum of 1*s.* 9*d.* for each horse, mare, or gelding so let for hire; and shall enter in his or her stamp-office weekly account such one-fifth part of such sum charged, or the sum of 1*s.* 9*d.* for each horse, mare, or gelding, as and for the duty payable in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding so let for hire as aforesaid; and whenever such person letting horses for hire as aforesaid shall let for hire any horse, mare, or gelding to go no greater distance than eight miles from the place of letting for hire any horse, mare, or gelding, where such horse, mare, or gelding shall not bring back any person, and shall not deviate from the usual line of road between the place of letting and the place or distance to which every such horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired to travel or go, for the purpose of drawing any carriage or vehicle conveying any person as aforesaid, he or she shall insert and set forth in his or her stamp-office weekly account the several particulars following; that is to say, the day of the month, and month and year, on which such horse, mare, or gelding shall be so let for hire, the number of every carriage, if by this act required to be numbered, the christian and surname of every postillion or driver employed with such horse, mare, or gelding, the number of horses, mares, or geldings so let for hire, and also the amount of the duty payable for and in respect of every such letting for hire as aforesaid; and whenever such person letting horses for hire as aforesaid shall let for hire for any period of time less than 28 successive days, and in any other manner than by the mile, or to go no greater distance than eight miles in either of the cases aforesaid, any horse, mare, or gelding, he or she shall insert and set forth in his or her stamp-office weekly account the several particulars following; that is to say, the day of the month, the month and year, on which such horse, mare or gelding shall be let for hire, and from and to what place, or from and to what place and back again, such horse, mare, or gelding shall be hired to go, the number of every carriage which shall be furnished therewith, if by this act required to be numbered, the christian and surname of every postillion or driver employed with such horse, mare, or gelding, the amount of the sum charged for the hire or use of such horse, mare, or gelding, the time for which the same shall be let for hire or used, the number of horses, mares, and geldings so let for hire, and where the distance shall be ascertained the number of miles which the same shall be hired to go, or to go and return; and in all cases the amount of the duty payable for and in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding, upon every letting for hire or using; and whenever such person letting horses for hire as aforesaid shall let for hire for 28 successive days or more, any horse, mare, or gelding as aforesaid, he or she shall insert and set forth in his or her stamp-office weekly account the several particulars following; that is to say, the number of horses, mares, or geldings so let for hire, the day of the month, the month and year, on which such hiring shall commence, the number of every carriage which shall be furnished therewith (if by this act required to be numbered), the christian and surname of every postillion or driver employed with such horse, mare, or gelding, the time for which the same shall be hired, and the name and place of abode of the person hiring the same; and he or she shall also insert in every such account a memorandum or notice of all horses, mares, or geldings which shall have been let for hire by him or her as aforesaid, for 28 successive days or more, and which since the date of his or her last account shall have been given up and returned to him or her by the hirer before the expiration of the time for which such horse, mare, or gelding shall have been let for hire, and the day of the month on which the same shall have been so given up and returned, and shall be answerable and account for one-fifth part of the sum received or agreed to be received for such letting for hire or using, for and in respect of every such horse, mare, or gelding, or the sum of 2*s.* 6*d.* for each day not exceeding three days, and the sum of 1*s.* 9*d.* for each day exceeding three days and not exceeding 13 days, and the sum of 1*s.* 3*d.* for each day exceeding 13 days and less than 21 days, during the time every such horse, mare, or gelding shall have been under the direction of the person hiring the same, by virtue of such letting for hire as aforesaid; and in case of any refusal or neglect of any person letting any horse, mare, or gelding, for hire as aforesaid, to insert in his or her stamp-office weekly account the particulars herein-before respectively mentioned, or any or either of them, applicable to each letting for hire, such person shall for such refusal or neglect forfeit and pay the sum of 20*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 30.

55. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, every person so licensed as aforesaid, who shall let for hire any horse, mare, or gelding as aforesaid, shall enter in his or her stamp-office weekly account the several particulars by this act required to be inserted therein, on the same or following day on which any such horse, mare, or gelding shall be so let for hire, or so given up and returned as aforesaid; and in default thereof he or she shall, for every such default, forfeit and pay the sum of 40*s.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 31.

56. The stamp-office weekly account required to be kept by every postmaster or other person licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, shall be open for the inspection and examination, at all seasonable times, of the said commissioners of stamps, or any collector appointed by them as aforesaid; and if any postmaster or other person as aforesaid shall refuse to permit and suffer the said commissioners of stamps, or any collector appointed by them as aforesaid, at any seasonable time, to inspect his or her stamp-office weekly account, such postmaster or other person so licensed as aforesaid shall, for every such refusal as aforesaid, forfeit and pay the sum of 10*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 32.

57. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, every person licensed as aforesaid, residing in the city of London or liberty of Westminster, or within the distance of five miles from the head office of stamps, or within the bills of mortality, shall attend and deliver his or her stamp-office weekly accounts, and pay the duties for which he or she shall be accountable, unto the said commissioners of stamps, at the said head office, or to some collector authorized to receive the same, at such place and at such time as shall be appointed for that purpose, by a notice to be written or printed upon the blank forms of the stamp-office weekly accounts, which shall from time to time be delivered to him or her by any authorized collector of the said duties, for the purpose of making therein the entries required by this act, provided such place be not at a greater distance than two miles from the said head office; and every person so to be licensed as aforesaid, not residing within five miles of the head office of stamps, or within the bills of mortality, shall attend and deliver his or her stamp-office weekly accounts, and pay the duties for which he or she shall be accountable, unto the collector authorized to receive the same, at such place in the market town in which he or she shall reside, or in the nearest market town to his or her place of residence, and at such time as shall be appointed for that purpose by a notice to be written or printed upon the blank forms of the stamp-office weekly accounts, which shall from time to time be delivered to him or her by any authorized collector of the said duties, for the purpose of making therein the entries required by this act, under the penalty of 10*l.* for every default in not delivering such account, and double the amount of the duties due and payable by such licensed persons, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 33.

58. And for the more effectually taking an account of the several duties imposed by this act, and preventing frauds therein; be it further enacted, That from and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, every postmaster or other person so licensed to let horses for hire as aforesaid, shall, at the respective times of delivering his or her account to the said commissioners, or other person authorized by them to receive the same, and the money due thereon, make oath, or being one of the people called Quakers, make and subscribe a solemn affirmation before such commissioners or other person authorized as aforesaid, who are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to administer such oath and affirmation, to the truth of the account then delivered, in the form following:

‘ I A. B. do swear [or affirm, in the case of a Quaker], that the stamp-office weekly account [or accounts] now delivered by me, doth or do contain a just and true statement of the number of horses, mares, and geldings which have been let for hire by me, or my servants, or on my account and behalf, from the — day of — to the — day of — both inclusive, together with the manner in which such horses, mares, and geldings have been so let for hire as aforesaid, and also the full amount of the duty due and payable by me, or for which I am chargeable or accountable, for or in respect of every such horse, mare, or gelding so let for hire by me, or on my account as aforesaid, during the time aforesaid; all which said statements, matters and things, and all the other particulars contained in the said account or accounts, so far as regards myself and my own acts, are true, and so far as regards the acts of my servants, or of any other person or persons on my behalf, are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
So help me God.’

Which said oath or affirmation shall be made and subscribed before the said commissioners of stamps, or other person authorized to receive such account as aforesaid; which said commissioners of stamps, or other person authorized as aforesaid, are and is hereby respectively empowered to administer such oath or affirmation; and if any person making such oath or affirmation shall knowingly and wilfully make a false oath or affirmation, of or concerning any of the matters to be therein specified and set forth, every person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be subject and liable to such pains and penalties as by any law now in force persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are subject and liable, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 34.

59. And to prevent disputes as to the rate or value at which any of the tickets, delivered in pursuance of this act to postmasters, or other persons letting horses for hire as aforesaid, and which may remain unaccounted for on the 31st Jan. in each and every year, shall be settled and accounted for; be it enacted, That every such ticket delivered as aforesaid, and which shall remain unaccounted for at the time aforesaid, shall be valued in account and paid for at and after the rate of 1s. for each horse, according to the number of horses expressed by figures on such ticket, and in the receipt given by such postmasters or other persons for the same, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 35.

60. The receiver-general at the head office, and the said other collectors duly appointed to receive the duties hereby imposed, shall, at the time of settling the respective accounts of the several licensed postmasters and other persons, allow to them, and deduct from their respective accounts, at and after the rate of 3d. in the pound out of the monies by them regularly accounted for, and paid to such receiver-general or other collector, on account of the duties imposed by this act, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 36.

61. And for the convenience of persons residing in cities or populous towns (other than the cities of London and Westminster, or the borough of Southwark), letting for hire or using horses, mares, or geldings for drawing coaches or other carriages, to be used as or in the nature of hackney-coaches, and for rendering it unnecessary for such persons, in respect of horses, mares, or geldings let for hire or used as last aforesaid, to keep the weekly accounts hereby directed to be kept by persons letting horses for hire; be it further enacted, That every person letting for hire or using any horse, mare, or gelding, for drawing any such coach or carriage, to be used as or in the nature of a hackney-coach, any distance not exceeding five miles from the general post-office of any city, town, or place, (such coach or carriage not being licensed as a carriage or vehicle conveying passengers for hire at separate fares, as a public stage-coach or carriage,) shall be subject and liable to the payment of the duties following; that is to say, the sum of 5s. per week for or in respect of the horses, mares, or geldings let for hire or used for drawing every such coach or carriage, used as or in the nature of a hackney-coach, when drawn by two horses, mares, or geldings; and the sum of 3s. per week for or in respect of every horse, mare, or gelding let for hire or used for drawing any such coach or carriage, used as or in the nature of a hackney-coach, when drawn by one horse, mare, or gelding, in lieu of the duties by this act chargeable upon horses, mares, or geldings let for hire: Provided, that if any horse, mare, or gelding used for drawing any such coach or carriage, used as or in the nature of a hackney-coach, shall go a greater distance than five miles from any such general post-office as aforesaid, the person letting for hire or using any such horse, mare, or gelding, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations, and shall be chargeable with and accountable for the duties hereby generally imposed in respect of horses, mares, or geldings let for hire; and provided also, that the person letting for hire or using any horse, mare, or gelding for drawing any such coach or carriage, as or in the nature of a hackney-coach as aforesaid, shall take out a licence expressly authorizing him so to do, and shall cause every such coach or carriage to be numbered, and his christian and surname, and the name of the city, town, or place, to be painted and inscribed upon the outside pannel of each door, or upon some conspicuous part of such coach or carriage as aforesaid, in like manner as is herein-before directed in respect of carriages kept to be furnished or used with horses let for hire, under and subject to the like penalties as are hereby imposed upon persons neglecting to take out licences; or to number any coach or carriage kept to be furnished or used as aforesaid; or to paint thereon the name of the person letting to hire or using any such horse, mare, or gelding, and the name of the city, town, or place where such coach or other carriage shall be kept; and every person letting or using such horse, mare, or gelding for hire, for drawing such coach or carriage used as or in the nature of a hackney-coach as aforesaid, shall attend and pay the said weekly duties at such times and places as persons licensed to let horses for hire are required by this act to do, and shall be subject and liable to the like penalty for any neglect or default in attending and paying such duties as aforesaid; provided also, that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed to exempt from the payment of the general duties by this act imposed, any person letting horses for hire to draw any such coach or carriage, unless such coach or carriage shall be regularly and constantly used, and shall regularly and constantly ply in the public streets of some city or town as a hackney-coach; and that in all informations, actions, suits, or other proceedings in any of H. M.'s courts of record, or before any justice of the peace, respecting the payment of any duty, or the recovery of any penalty, in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding, used in drawing any such coach or carriage, the proof of such coach or carriage being a coach or carriage regularly and constantly used, and regularly and constantly plying in the public street as aforesaid, shall be upon the person letting such horse, mare, or gelding for hire; and provided also, that nothing in this act contained respecting the licences to be taken out by persons letting for hire or using any horses, mares, and geldings for drawing any coaches or carriages to be used as or in the nature of hackney-coaches, or respecting the painting the names or numbers upon such coaches, shall be construed to extend to coaches or carriages which are or hereafter may be subject to the provisions contained in any local act of parliament, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 37.

62. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, where any person liable to account for and pay any duty granted by this act for and in respect of horses, mares, or geldings by him let for hire as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to account for and pay the same, according to the directions of this act, to the collector appointed to receive such duties for the county, district, or place where he shall have let to hire such horses, mares, or geldings, and such duty shall not exceed the sum of 20l., it shall be lawful for such collector, first obtaining a warrant for that purpose under the hand and seal of any one or more of H. M.'s justices of the peace residing near the place where any such letting for hire shall have been made (which justice, on complaint made to him or them, shall summon the party complained of, and the witnesses on either side, and examine into the matter of fact, and shall grant such warrant, on due proof being made of the sum due and owing for such duty or duties as aforesaid, by the voluntary confession of the party, or by the oath of one witness), to distrain such person by his goods and chattels, for the amount of such duty, and the distress so to be taken to detain and keep for the space of five days, at the costs and charges of such person; and if he shall not within that time pay the amount of such duty, with the costs and charges of taking and keeping such distress, then the goods and chattels so distrained shall be sold by such collector, who shall render the overplus of the money arising by the sale thereof (if any shall remain), after deducting and retaining the amount of such duty, and the costs of taking, keeping, and selling such distress, to the person so to be distrained as aforesaid; and it shall also be lawful for such collector, for the purpose of taking such distress, to break open in the day-time any house or place where any goods or chattels of such person shall be, being thereunto authorized by such warrant as aforesaid, and calling to his assistance a constable, tithingman, or headborough, or other officer of the county, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, where any refusal or resistance shall be made, which said officers are hereby required to aid and assist therein; and the leaving of the summons to appear before such justice at the dwelling-house or usual or last known place of abode of the party complained of, shall be deemed a good service thereof, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 38.

63. And whereas it is expedient, that the horses, mares, and geldings let for hire, and also the coaches, chaises, and other carriages, harness, and other articles and things used with such horses, mares, or geldings, should be made subject and liable to the duties hereby imposed, and which may be in arrear and owing from time to time by any such postmaster or other person letting horses for hire as aforesaid; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, all the horses, mares, and geldings kept for the purpose of being let for hire, and also all the coaches, chaises, and other carriages, harness, and other articles and things kept and used with such horses, mares, and geldings, in the custody or possession of such postmaster or other person letting horses for hire as aforesaid, or in the custody or possession of any other person for the use and on the account of or in trust for such postmaster or other person, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to and chargeable with the said duties from time to time due, in arrear, and owing, or which shall become due and payable from time to time, from or by such postmaster or other person as aforesaid, for or in respect of any horses, mares, or geldings which shall have been let for hire as aforesaid by him, or by any other person for his use or account as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 39.

64. Every postmaster or other person letting horses for hire as aforesaid, who shall be guilty of any wilful concealment, or of making any false account, or any other fraudulent contrivance, device, or pretence whatsoever, with an intent or design to defraud H. M., or any person, of any of the duties imposed by this act, or any part thereof, shall forfeit the sum of 50*l.*: and the said commissioners of stamps shall, if they shall so think fit, after judgment obtained against the offender, refuse to grant such offender any licence in future, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 40.

65. If any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or wilfully aid or assist in the false making, forging, or counterfeiting, any ticket or certificate by this act authorized or directed to be used, with an intent to defraud H. M., or any person, of any of the said duties, or shall utter or publish as true any false, forged, or counterfeited ticket or certificate, with an intent to defraud H. M., or any person, of any of the said duties, every person so offending in any or either of the cases aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 41.

66. In all actions, bills, plaints, informations, and proceedings, had, commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, or hereafter to be had, commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, in the name of H. M., or in the name of any other person, for the recovery of any of the duties, debts or penalties granted or imposed, due or payable under this act, it shall be lawful for H. M., or any other person suing or prosecuting for the same, to have and recover such duties, debts, and penalties, with full costs of suit, and all other reasonable charges and expences attending the same, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 42.

67. Any pecuniary penalty imposed by this act, which shall amount to the sum of 10*l.* or more, shall or may be sued for in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, for any offence committed in Eng., or Wa., or Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in H. M.'s courts of exchequer in Scot., for any offence committed in that part of G. B. called Scot., by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no essoign, protection, privilege, wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 43.

68. Provided, that it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace, residing near the place where the offence shall be committed, to hear and determine any offence against this act which may subject any offender to any pecuniary penalty not amounting to 50*l.*, which said justice of the peace is hereby authorized and required, upon any information exhibited or complaint made to him in that behalf, to summon the party accused, and also the witnesses on either side, and to examine into the matter of fact, and upon due proof made thereof, either by the voluntary confession of the party accused, or by the oath of one witness, to give judgment or sentence of dismissal, or for the penalty or forfeiture as is hereby directed; and to award and issue out his warrant under his hand and seal for the levying any pecuniary penalty or forfeiture so adjudged, together with the costs by this act directed to be allowed, on the goods of the offender, and to cause sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within six days, rendering to the party the overplus (if any); and where goods of such offender cannot be found sufficient to answer the penalty, costs and charges as aforesaid, to commit such offender to prison, for the space of six calendar months, unless such pecuniary penalty, costs and charges, shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and if any person shall find himself aggrieved by the judgment or sentence of dismissal of any such justice, then he shall and may (upon giving security to the amount of the penalty sought to be recovered, together with such costs and charges as shall be awarded by such justice, in case judgment or sentence of dismissal shall be affirmed,) appeal to the justices of the peace at the next general quarter sessions for the county, riding, or place, who are hereby empowered to summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the judgment or sentence of dismissal of such justice shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for such justices to award the person so appealing to pay such costs occasioned by such appeal as to such justices shall seem meet: provided, that if the next general quarter sessions of the peace shall fall within six days after such judgment or sentence of dismissal, it shall be lawful for the person so finding himself aggrieved as aforesaid, if he shall think fit, giving such security as aforesaid, to appeal to the next subsequent quarter sessions; and that no such proceedings so to be had or taken, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form, or removed by certiorari, or any other writ or process, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or elsewhere in Eng. or Wa.; nor shall any such proceeding before such justice be taken or removed by a certiorari, suspension, advocacy, or reduction, or by any other writ, process, or proceeding, into the court of session, court of judicatory, or court of exchequer in Scot., 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 44.

69. If any person shall be summoned as a witness to give evidence before any justice, touching any of the matters relating to this act, either on the part of the prosecution, or of the person accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place to be for that purpose appointed, without a reasonable excuse for such his or her neglect or refusal, to be allowed by such justice, or appearing shall refuse to be examined on oath, and give evidence before such justice before whom the prosecution shall be depending, every person so summoned, and so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such neglect or refusal the sum of 5*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 45.

70. A conviction or a judgment, or a sentence of dismissal, in the form and to the effect following, (mutatis mutandis) as the case shall happen to be, shall be good and effectual, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, without stating the case, or the facts or evidence in any particular manner; that is to say,

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — at — in the — of — A. B. came before me C. D., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said — residing near the place where the offence was committed, and informed me that E. F. of — on the — day of — at — in the said — did [here set forth the fact for which the information is laid]; whereupon the said E. F., after being duly summoned to answer the said charge, appeared before me on the — day of — at — in the said — and having heard the charge contained in the said information, declared he was guilty of the said offence; [or, (as the case may happen to be,) did not appear before me pursuant to the said summons; or, did neglect or refuse to make any defence against the said charge]; but the same being fully proved upon the oath of G. H. a credible witness; or, (as the case may happen to be,) acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the same to be true; and it manifestly appearing to me, that he the said E. F. is guilty of the offence charged upon him in the said information, I do hereby convict him of the offence aforesaid, and do declare and adjudge that he the said E. F. hath forfeited the sum of — of lawful money of G. B., for the offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the law directs, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided; [or, after stating the summons and non-appearance of the said defendant, or, the appearance of the said defendant, and that he was not guilty of the said offence, as the case may be,] and it manifestly appearing to me that he the said E. F. is not guilty of the said offence charged upon him by the said information, I do therefore dismiss the said complaint or information. Given under my hand and seal, the — day of —

Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the said justice, where he shall see cause, to mitigate and lessen any such penalty as he shall think fit or reasonable (costs and charges of the officers and informers, as well in making the discovery as in prosecuting the same, being always allowed over and above such mitigation), and so as such mitigation do not reduce such penalties to less than one-fourth part of the penalty incurred over and above the said costs and charges, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 46.

71. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, all pecuniary penalties imposed by this act, which shall be sued for, in respect of which any information shall be exhibited within six calendar months after the same shall have been incurred, shall be distributed and paid in the manner following; that is to say, one moiety thereof to H. M., and the other, together with full costs of suit incurred in suing, prosecuting, or informing for and in respect of such penalties, to the person who shall inform and sue or prosecute for the same as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any person whomsoever to exhibit any information or complaint before any justice of the peace or other magistrate whatsoever, within the time aforesaid, against any person for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture incurred by virtue of this act, which shall not amount to the sum of 50*l.*, and all such penalties as shall not be sued for, or respecting which no information or informations shall have been exhibited within the time aforesaid, shall belong and be paid to H. M.; and that the moiety of every such penalty payable to H. M. as aforesaid, shall be paid into the hands of H. M.'s solicitor of stamps for the time being in Eng., Wa., or Scot. respectively, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 47.

72. From and after the passing of this act [10th July 1823], it shall be lawful for the lord high treasurer, or the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., or any three or more of them for the time being, and he or they is and are hereby empowered from time to time, as it shall be necessary, either by himself or themselves, or by the said commissioners of stamps, or the major part of them, to let to farm the said several duties hereby granted, for and in respect of horses let for hire in the manner herein-before mentioned, to such person as shall be willing to farm the same, in separate divisions or districts, according to the regulations and in the manner herein-after mentioned: provided, that it shall not be lawful to let to farm the said duties, or any part thereof, at any one time, for a longer period than three years from the day on which any such letting to farm shall commence and take effect, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 48.

73. One month's notice at least shall be given by the said lord high treasurer or commissioners of the treasury, or the said commissioners of stamps, in the London Gazette, of the time and place of letting the said duties, specifying the divisions or districts within which it is intended to let to farm such duties, and also the place or office at which proposals for taking such duties, or any part thereof, shall be delivered, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 49.

74. No such proposals shall be proceeded upon, unless the same be signed by and in the proper names of the parties proposing to become bidders, and specifying the place of their abode, and shall have been delivered as aforesaid, at least three days previous to the day mentioned in the London Gazette for letting the said duties to farm, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 50.

75. The biddings for such duties shall be conducted under such regulations as shall be established for that purpose by the said lord high treasurer, or the commissioners of the treasury, or by the said commissioners of stamps; and the person who shall be the highest bidder shall be the farmer of the said duties, or such part thereof as shall be then put up to farm, for such term, not exceeding three years as aforesaid, as may be determined on, and as shall be inserted in the London Gazette; and shall forthwith execute a contract to be prepared in pursuance of this act, and give security by bond to H. M., with three or more securities, for payment to H. M., of the money or yearly rent so contracted for, the said money or rent to be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of stamp-duties, at the head office of stamps, in equal portions, by eight several payments in the year, on the days to be fixed and appointed before any such letting to farm as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 51.

76. It shall be lawful for the said commissioners of the treasury, or the said commissioners of stamps, to appoint the time for making a deposit of a sum of money, and the amount thereof, on account of the rent to be paid by the person who shall be the best bidder for, and be declared the farmer of any of the said duties hereby allowed to be farmed; and in case any such person shall fail to make such deposit at the time appointed, or shall fail to execute a proper contract in writing, and to give security for the payment of the rent and the due performance of such contract, in the manner directed by this act, within the time to be appointed for that purpose, then it shall be lawful for the said commissioners of the treasury, or any three or more of them, or the said commissioners of stamps, or the major part of them, authorized as aforesaid, to declare the bidding and contract of such person or persons null and void, and his or their deposit, if made, to be forfeited, and to cause the duties whereof he shall have been declared the farmer, to be again put up to be let to farm, pursuant to the directions of this act, and so from time to time as often as such failure shall be made, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 52.

77. In case any of the said duties to arise in any district shall not be let to farm at the time mentioned in such advertisement, for want of a sufficient bidding for such duties, it shall be lawful for the said lord high treasurer, or the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or the said commissioners of stamps, to appoint such future day or days as they shall judge most proper, for letting the said duties to arise in such district respectively, in the manner and upon the like notice as herein-before directed, or to receive proposals for farming such duties, and to let the same to farm by private contract for any period of time not exceeding three years as aforesaid: provided, that no contract for letting the duties herein mentioned to farm shall be made with any person licensed to let horses for hire, nor to any one for his use, or on his behalf, or so as that he shall have any interest therein, or benefit therefrom, but that the same (if so made) shall be utterly null and void; and that if any such contract shall be assigned to any such person as aforesaid, or to any other person for his use, so that he shall have any interest therein or benefit therefrom, such assignment shall be also utterly null and void, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 53.

78. In order to prevent disputes concerning the said duties hereby granted, in cases where the same may be collected in one district, division, or collection, and the tickets may be delivered in another district, division, or collection; be it further enacted, That the said duties shall belong, and the tickets issued thereupon shall be delivered and accounted for, to the person respectively who shall be the farmer of the several duties arising within the district, division, or collection within which the inn house, or other place at which the person letting any horse for hire shall be licensed as aforesaid is situated, and the keeper of every toll-gate or bar, at whose gate or bar such ticket shall be delivered, shall deliver the same to the farmer of the said duties arising within such district, division, or collection as aforesaid, at the time and in the manner such tickets are by this act directed to be delivered to the several collectors, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 54.

79. No person farming the said duties, or any part thereof, or appointed a collector thereof, shall in pursuance of such appointment be disqualified from voting at any election of members to serve in parliament, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 55.

80. It shall be lawful for the said commissioners of stamps or the major part of them, from time to time as occasion shall require, to depute and appoint not only the persons who shall become farmers or lessees of the said duties, and their executors, administrators, and assigns, but also any other person, at the request and upon the nomination and for the use of such farmers or lessees, or their executors, administrators or assigns, to be collectors of the said duties arising within the respective districts, with full powers to grant the necessary licences to persons within the respective districts, for letting out horses for hire in the manner aforesaid, and to take securities by bond from the person to be licensed, in the name of H. M., his heirs and successors, with such conditions as are required by this act, and to receive the stamp-office weekly accounts relating to the said duties herein-before directed and required to be delivered by persons letting horses for hire in the manner aforesaid within their respective districts, and the money due thereon, and to administer the oath or affirmation herein-before required to be made as to the truth of the accounts to be delivered by the persons licensed under this act, and generally to execute and do all other the powers, matters, and things touching the collecting, managing, and enforcing the payment of the said duties within and for their respective districts, which by this act are given to and authorized to be done by any collector of the said duties, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 56.

81. It shall be lawful for the person so farming the said duties, or any part thereof, with the consent of the said commissioners of stamps, to vary the mode of keeping the weekly account directed by this act to be kept by the several persons who may let out horses for hire, in such manner as they shall judge most convenient for keeping the said accounts; and such person so farming the said duties shall also be at liberty, by an indorsement or on the face of the tickets or certificates to be delivered by them to the several licensed persons as aforesaid, to add the name or number of the district which he shall so farm, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 57.

82. All securities, bonds, or obligations taken by the person farming the said duties, or any part thereof, from such postmasters, innkeepers, or other licensed persons under this act, shall be taken in the name of H. M., his heirs and successors, and shall and may be sued and prosecuted in the name of H. M., his heirs or successors, by and with the consent of H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., or the lord advocate in Scot., 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 58.

83. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, no person shall commence any action or suit in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or elsewhere in Eng. or Wa., or in the court of exchequer in Scot., for the recovery of any penalty to be incurred under this act, until the expiration of 14 days after such person shall have delivered to the person incurring such penalty, or left for him at his dwelling-house, or usual or last place of abode, a printed or written notice of the intention of such person to apply to the commissioners of stamps in G. B., for leave to commence such action or suit, and which notice shall state the offence committed, the day of committing the same, and the amount of each penalty intended to be recovered; and that it shall not be lawful for such person, at the trial of such action or suit, to give in evidence any matter or thing relating to any offence not specified and set forth in such notice, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 59.

84. Provided, that it shall not be lawful for any farmer of any of the said duties, or for any other person, to sue or prosecute for any such pecuniary penalty in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or elsewhere in Eng. or Wa., or in the court of exchequer in Scot., without having first obtained the consent in writing of the said commissioners of stamps, or two of them, nor unless the suit or prosecution for the same shall be carried on by the solicitor of stamps, or of some other solicitor or attorney to be approved of by the said commissioners or any two of them; and it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, or any two of them, if they shall think fit, to order the proceedings to be stayed in any such suit or prosecution on payment of part only of any penalty incurred, with or without costs, or on payment only of the costs incurred in such prosecution, or any part thereof, as they shall judge proper and expedient, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 60.

85. All the powers, provisions, articles, clauses, penalties, forfeitures, and all other directions, matters, and things prescribed or appointed by this act, with relation to the said duties, or to the persons appointed or to be appointed to collect the same, shall be put in force and carried into execution by the person farming the said duties, or any part thereof, in like manner as any collector hereby directed to be appointed, is authorized and empowered by this act to put in force and execute the same; and the person farming the said duties shall be entitled to the same privileges, and to have and use the like remedies for collecting and recovering the duties by this act imposed, in like manner as if the duties were sued for by or on behalf of H. M., and such duties had not been let to farm, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 61.

86. If any person shall at any time be sued, molested, or prosecuted for any thing by him done or executed in pursuance of this act, or of any clause, matter, or thing herein contained, such person may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence for his defence; and if upon the trial a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall become nonsuited, then such defendant shall have treble costs awarded to him against such plaintiff, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 62.

87. If any person employed in the execution of this act, in relation to the said duties, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to do or perform any matter or thing by this act required or directed to be done or performed by such person, whereby any of H. M.'s subjects shall or may sustain any damage whatsoever, such person so offending shall be liable in any action to be founded on this statute, to answer to the party aggrieved all such damages, with full costs of suit, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 63.

88. From and after the said 31st Jan. 1824, it shall not be necessary, upon the trial or hearing of any information, action, suit, or other proceeding, to be commenced for the recovery of any of the said duties on horses, mares, and geldings hereby granted as aforesaid, which shall be let to farm in pursuance of this act or of any future act of parliament, or for the recovery of any penalty imposed by this act, or to be imposed by any future act, in anywise relating to the said duties, to produce the instrument whereby the commissioners of stamps in G. B., or any of them, shall be authorized by the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury to let to farm the duties granted by this act, or any of them; or to produce the commission whereby the said commissioners of stamps shall be constituted and appointed such commissioners; or to prove that the persons executing any contract or agreement, or any commission, deputation, authority, or other instrument, are or act as commissioners of stamps; or to prove the execution of any contract or agreement whereby any of the said duties on horses, mares, and geldings shall be let to farm; or to prove the execution of any assignment of any such contract or agreement; or to prove the execution of any commission, deputation, or authority, whereby any person shall be appointed a collector of any of the said duties, by the said commissioners of stamps, or any of them; or to prove the signatures of the said commissioners of stamps to any consent to prosecute for any such pecuniary penalty as aforesaid: provided, that such contract, agreement, assignment, commission, deputation, or authority and consent to prosecute, shall be produced on the trial or hearing of any such information, action, suit, or proceeding; and it shall be made to appear that the person claiming or acting under such contract, agreement, assignment, commission, deputation, or authority, had in fact acted as the farmer or collector of the duties therein mentioned and described, or some of them; and that in every such case such proof shall be deemed and taken by the judges or justices before whom any such trial or hearing shall be had, to be good and legal evidence of such person being the farmer or collector of the duties mentioned and described in such contract, agreement, assignment, commission, deputation, authority or other instrument, unless by other evidence the contrary shall be made to appear, 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 64.

89. All the monies to arise from the duties granted by this act shall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of the stamp-duties in G. B., who shall from time to time pay the same into the bank of Eng., for safe custody, pursuant to the act [46 G. 3. c. 76. and 59 G. 3. c. 59. Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS, pl. 57.] in that case made and provided, and shall thereafter pay the same (after deducting the charges of raising, collecting, and accounting for the same, and all other charges first payable thereout), into the receipt of H. M.'s exchequer at Westminster, in one sum, at such times and in such manner as the present stamp-duties are by the laws in force directed to be paid; and the monies so paid into the said receipt shall be carried to and made part of the consolidated fund of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., 4 G. 4. c. 62. s. 65.

Stage Coaches.

90. To reduce the rate of duties payable in respect of certain carriages used and employed for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, and to make regulations and provisions relating to stage-coaches and the duties thereon, 3 G. 4. c. 95.

91. Whereas it is expedient, in certain cases, to reduce the rate of duties now payable in respect of certain carriages, and to regulate the rate of the said duties in respect of certain other carriages used or employed for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, granted and imposed by 55 G. 3. c. 185., intituled, An Act for repealing the stamp-office duties on advertisements, almanacks, newspapers, gold and silver plate, stage-coaches, and licences for keeping stage-coaches, now payable in G. B., and for granting new duties in lieu thereof; and it is also expedient to carry into effect the power given to the commissioners of stamps to require, that instead of the inscription mentioned in 50 G. 3. c. 48. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAGE-COACHES, pl. 1.], intituled, An Act to repeal three acts, made in the 28th, 30th, and 46th years of His present Majesty, for limiting the number of persons to be carried on the outside of stage-coaches or other carriages, and to enact other regulations for carrying the objects of the said acts into effect, a plate made of brass or other metal should be fixed upon the side of every coach or carriage, as far as the said last-mentioned act directs a distinct number to be put upon such plate; and it is also expedient that further provisions should be made for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the duties upon stage-coaches and other carriages used for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the 1st Sept. 1822, the duties mentioned in the schedule annexed to the 55 G. 3. c. 185., and thereby made payable upon stage-coaches or other carriages with two or more wheels, which should be employed as public stage-coaches or carriages for conveying passengers for hire to or to and from any place or places in G. B., as far as the same relates to carriages or vehicles drawn by one or two horses, and not being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring, or (if drawn by one horse) being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring, or if drawn by two or more horses, and such carriages or vehicles shall be made for the accommodation of one description of passengers only, not distinguishing between inside and outside passengers, and shall be upon or have the aid or assistance of any spring, shall cease, determine, and be repealed; save and except as to so much and such part of the said duties as shall have become due or payable before or upon the said 1st Sept., and shall remain in arrear or unpaid afterwards, 5 G. 4. c. 95. s. 1.

92. From and after the said 1st Sept., in lieu of so much of the said duties hereby repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the use of H. M. in and throughout the whole of G. B., the rates or sums of money following; that is to say, for and in respect of any carriage or vehicle with two or more wheels, not being upon or not having the aid or assistance of any spring of any kind whatsoever, and which shall be kept, used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, to or from different places in G. B., and drawn by one horse only, for every mile that any such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel, the sum of 1d.; any such carriage or vehicle as above described, drawn by two horses only, for every mile that such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel, the sum of 2d.; any carriage or vehicle drawn by one horse only, being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring of any kind whatsoever, which shall be kept, used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid, for every mile that any such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel, the sum of 1½d.; any carriage or vehicle drawn by two horses only, being upon or having the aid or assistance of any spring of any kind whatsoever, but which shall be made for the accommodation of one description of passengers only, not distinguishing between inside and outside passengers, and which shall be kept, used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid, for every mile that such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel, the sum of 3d.; any such carriage or vehicle as last aforesaid, drawn by three or more horses, for every mile that such carriage or vehicle shall be licensed to travel, the sum of 4½d., 5 G. 4. c. 95. s. 2.

93. Immediately from and after the passing of this act [30th July, 1822.], the commissioners of stamps in G. B., or the major part of them, are hereby required to provide proper and sufficient plates, at the expence of the person applying for a licence to keep, use, employ, or let out any carriage or vehicle for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to and from any place in G. B., each plate or pair of plates having thereupon a distinct number, to be named by the said commissioners, for the purpose of being fixed or placed upon the door, or if more than one, upon each door, or upon some other part of every carriage or vehicle used, employed, or let out for the purpose of carrying and conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid (except mail-coaches and hackney-coaches duly licensed by the commissioners of hackney-coaches, or under any local act relating to hackney-coaches, and not licensed by the said commissioners of stamps); and to alter and renew such plate or plates from time to time, as the said commissioners of stamps shall think necessary, or as occasion shall require; and the said commissioners or any other persons authorized so to do, granting any such licence as aforesaid, are hereby required and directed to deliver to the person applying for such licence, at the time of granting the same, or at any other time, as occasion may require, such plate or plates to be placed or fixed upon every such carriage or vehicle as aforesaid, and to insert in the said licence, the number of the plate or plates so delivered in respect of such carriage or vehicle in respect of which such licence shall be granted, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 3.

94. From and after the 31st Aug. 1822, it shall not be lawful for any person to use, employ, or let out, or to permit or suffer to be used, employed, or let out, any carriage or vehicle for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid, before fixing or placing on the door, or if more than one, upon each door, or if there be no door, upon one of the pannels on each side of such carriage or vehicle, or if there be no pannels, then upon some conspicuous part of such carriage or vehicle, one of the plates hereby required to be fixed and placed thereupon; and in case such plate shall at any time be broken or become illegible, the person to whom any such licence as aforesaid shall be granted, shall, within three days after such plate shall be broken or become illegible, apply to the said commissioners of stamps, or to the person authorized to grant such licence, for a new plate or plates; and on delivery to the said commissioners, or to the person authorized to grant such licence, of the old plate or plates, or part thereof, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners of stamps, and they are hereby authorized to deliver a new plate or plates of the same, or any other number, to the person whose plate or plates shall have been broken or become illegible as aforesaid; which new plate or plates such person is hereby required, as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt thereof, to affix or place on such carriage or vehicle, as by this act is directed, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 4.

95. If any person shall, from and after the said 31st Aug., keep, use, employ, or let out, or permit or suffer to be used, employed, or let out, any carriage or vehicle for the purpose of conveying any passenger for hire to or from different places in G. B., not having the plate or plates fixed or placed thereupon as hereby directed, or having any plate or plates fixed or placed on such carriage or vehicle as aforesaid, of a different or other number than that mentioned in the licence granted to such person, or having any broken or illegible plate or plates, such person so offending in any or either of the said cases, shall forfeit for every day on which such carriage or vehicle shall be so used, employed, or let out for hire, the sum of 20*l.*; provided nevertheless that nothing herein contained shall charge any person with the said penalty of 20*l.*, to which he or she may become subject, between the time of any such plate or plates having been broken or become illegible, and the time hereby allowed for affixing or placing a new plate or plates on such carriage or vehicle as aforesaid, in the place of any plate or plates that may have become broken or illegible, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 5.

96. Every carriage or vehicle used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to or from any place in G. B., and travelling at the rate of three or more miles in the hour, shall, without regard to the number of wheels or to the number of horses by which the same may be drawn, or to the number of passengers which the same shall be able or fitted to contain or carry, or to its being an open or close carriage, be deemed and taken to be a stage-coach or carriage within the meaning of this act, or any former act of parliament relating to the duties on carriages or vehicles kept, used and employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid; provided the passenger or passengers to be carried or conveyed by any such carriage or vehicle, shall be charged or shall pay separate and distinct fares, or be charged at the rate of separate and distinct fares, for his, her, or their place or seat therein, or conveyance thereby respectively, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 6.

97. In all actions, bills, complaints, informations, or proceedings to be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed in any of H. M.'s courts of G. B., or before any justice of the peace or other magistrate whatsoever in G. B., against any person for the recovery of any duty, fine, penalty, or forfeiture incurred under or by force of this act, or any former act of parliament relating to the duties on carriages or vehicles, kept, used, employed, or let for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid, if evidence shall be offered and given that the carriage or vehicle in respect of which, or in any manner relating to which any such action, bill, complaint, information, or proceeding shall be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, was seen travelling or going upon any turnpike road or public highway in G. B., such carriage or vehicle having fixed or placed thereupon a plate or plates as required by this act to be fixed or placed upon carriages or vehicles used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, or having painted or marked thereupon any of the particulars required by any former act of parliament relating to such carriages or vehicles, such carriages or vehicles shall (unless the contrary be proved) be deemed and taken to be a carriage or vehicle kept, used, employed, and let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire to or from different places in G. B.; and that in all such actions, bills, complaints, informations, or proceedings, the person described in the licence granted in respect of such carriage or vehicle shall (unless the contrary be proved) be considered as the person to whom such carriage or vehicle doth belong, and shall be liable to the duty or penalties imposed by this act, or any former act of parliament relating to the duties on such carriages or vehicles as aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 7.

98. It shall be lawful for any person duly authorized to examine the plates by this act directed to be fixed and placed upon carriages or vehicles used or employed for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, from time to time to enter into and remain in any toll-house or other place, at the gate or bar of which any toll is by law payable, for the purpose of examining such plates, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 8.

99. If any toll-collector or toll-gate-keeper, or any other person, shall refuse to permit any person authorized to examine the plates directed to be fixed and placed upon carriages or vehicles, used, employed, or let out for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, from time to time to enter into and remain in any toll-house or other place, at the bar or gate of which any toll is by law payable; or shall obstruct or hinder or molest such person in entering into and remaining in such toll-house or place as aforesaid, for the purpose of examining such plates; or if any toll-collector or toll-gate-keeper, or any other person shall in any way hinder, molest, interrupt, or disturb any such person authorized to examine such plates, in the reasonable use of such toll-house or other place as aforesaid, for the purpose aforesaid, every such toll-collector or toll-gate-keeper, and every person aiding and assisting him, and every person offending in any of the cases aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 20*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 9.

100. And whereas it is expedient that all and every the carriages or vehicles aforesaid, for or in respect or on account whereof the duty which shall become due and payable by virtue of this act, and the 55 G. 3. c. 185. and the schedule thereto; and also all and every horse, harness, and other articles and things used and employed for the purpose of drawing such carriages or vehicles, should be made subject and liable to the duties in arrear and owing from time to time, by the person to whom any such licence so herein mentioned shall be granted; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said 31st day of Aug., every carriage or vehicle for or in respect or on account whereof any duty is imposed, or which shall become due and payable under this act, or the 55 G. 3. c. 185. and the schedule thereto, and all and every the horse and harness, and all other articles and things used or employed for the purpose of drawing such carriage or vehicle as aforesaid, in the custody and possession of the person or persons, or any of them, to whom any such licence shall have been granted as aforesaid, or in the custody or possession of any other person, to the use and for the account of or in trust for such person or persons, to whom any such licence shall have been granted as aforesaid, or any of them, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to, and chargeable with all the duties in arrear and owing, or which shall become due and payable from time to time from or by such person or persons, for or in respect of such carriage or vehicle kept, used, or employed by him, her, or them respectively, for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire as aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 10.

101. And whereas by the 50 G. 3. c. 48. s. 11. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAGE-COACHES, pl. 11.] it was (amongst other things) enacted, that in case the driver of any such coach, mail-coach, or other carriage, as therein described, or the person acting as guard, should, by intoxication, or by negligence or other misconduct (unavoidable accidents always excepted), endanger the safety of the passengers in their lives, their limbs, or their property, then and in every such case the driver or guard (as the case may be) so offending, and being convicted thereof by his own confession, the view of a justice (in any case applicable thereto), or the oath of one credible witness, before any justice or other magistrate as therein mentioned, should forfeit and pay a sum not less than 5*l.* nor more than 10*l.* for every such offence; and in case of non-payment, every such justice or other magistrate above mentioned, were thereby authorized to commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, riding, city, town, division, or place where such offence should have been committed, there to remain without bail or mainprize for any time not exceeding six months nor less than three months, at the discretion of the justice or other magistrate above mentioned, by or before whom any such offender should be convicted: and whereas it is expedient to extend the powers given by the said recited act; be it therefore enacted, That if the coachman, guard, or other person having the care of any such coach, mail-coach, or other carriage or vehicle as aforesaid, or employed in, upon, or about the same, shall, by intoxication, or wanton and furious driving, or any other wilful misconduct on the public highway, injure or endanger any person whatever in his or her life, or limbs, or property, every such coachman or person as aforesaid so offending, shall for every such offence be liable to the same or the like fine or penalty, to be levied, mitigated, and applied in the same manner as in and by the said recited act was mentioned and provided with respect to the offences therein specified; provided that nothing in this act contained shall extend to or be construed to extend to affect hackney-coaches or chariots, or their owners or drivers respectively, duly licensed by the commissioners of hackney-coaches, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 11.

102. And whereas in cases where such carriages or other vehicles are employed for the conveyance of passengers and goods between places lying distant from each other, it usually happens that the property in such carriages or other vehicles is in several persons, who reside at different points of the line of journey performed by such carriage or other vehicle, and the residences of some of whom is at a great distance from some of the places through which such carriage or other vehicle passes, or at which it arrives, and by reason of such distance such last-mentioned proprietors have not the means of exercising the same superintendence and controul over the management of such carriage or other vehicle, in distant parts of its journey, as such of the proprietors as have their residence nearer thereto: and whereas it is expedient, that in all cases of informations and convictions for offences against this act or any former act, such information and conviction should be had and laid against such one or more of the owner or owners, proprietor or proprietors of such carriages or other vehicles, as are resident nearest to the place where the offence shall be committed; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [30th July 1822], all summonses, informations, and convictions, which shall be issued, laid, or prosecuted against any owner or proprietor of any coach, carriage, or other vehicle, under this act, or any former act, for the recovery of any fine or penalty hereby or thereby imposed, shall in all cases in which there shall be more than one such owner or proprietor; and when such owners or proprietors shall reside in different counties (the residence of such owner or proprietor being ascertained by the entry at the stamp-office, or other place from which the licence to such owner or proprietor was issued), be so issued, laid, or prosecuted against such one or more of the said owners or proprietors as shall reside in the county or place in which, or nearest to which the offence proceeded against shall have been or shall be alledged to have been committed; and that in all such cases as aforesaid, this present act shall and may be allowed and pleaded in bar to the conviction of any such owner or proprietor as aforesaid, other than and except of such owner or proprietor, whose residence shall be in the county or place in which, or nearest to which, the offence so proceeded against shall have been or shall be alledged to have been committed; any thing herein or in any former act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 12.

103. And whereas difficulties have arisen in proceedings for penalties under 1 G. 1. c. 57., intituled, An Act for better regulating hackney-coaches, carts, drays, and waggons, within the cities of London and Westminster, and the weekly bills of mortality; and for preventing mischiefs occasioned by the drivers riding upon such carts, drays, cars, and waggons; by reason of the person giving information being unable to prove the payment of the fare paid or to be paid by any person carried in or upon any coach or other carriage used for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire; be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [30th July 1822], in all cases where any coach or other carriage used for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, shall take up any passenger after such coach or other carriage shall have entered the paved streets of London, Westminster, or the borough of Southwark, and shall carry and convey such passenger along the said paved streets, or any of them, the proprietor of such coach or carriage, or the driver thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be a person standing, driving, and plying for hire within the meaning of that act, unless the contrary shall be shown, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 13.

104. And whereas all licences which before the passing of this act may have been granted, authorizing any person to keep or employ any carriage or vehicle, to be employed as a public stage-coach or carriage for conveying passengers for hire to and from different places in G. B., and which at the time of passing this act will be in force, will, under 53 G. 3. c. 108. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAMPS, pl. 858.], intituled, An Act for altering, explaining, and amending an act of the 48th year of H. M.'s reign, for granting stamp-duties in G. B., with regard to the duties on re-issuable promissory notes, and on conveyances on the sale and mortgage of property; for better enabling the commissioners of stamps to give relief in cases of spoiled stamps, and to remit penalties for exempting certain instruments from stamp-duty; and for better securing the duties on stage-coaches, expire on the 31st July in the present year: and whereas it is expedient to keep all such licences in force for the space of one calendar month beyond that day; be it therefore enacted, That all such licences shall be and remain in full force for one calendar month next after the said 31st July; and that all licences to be granted at any time after the passing of this act, and before the 1st Aug. 1823, shall terminate on the 31st July in that year, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 14.

105. All the powers, provisions, clauses, regulations, and directions, fines, forfeitures, pains, and penalties contained in and imposed by the several acts of parliament, or any of them, relating to the duties upon stage-coaches, or other carriages used for the purpose of conveying passengers for hire, shall be of full force and effect with respect to the duties hereby granted, as far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all cases not hereby expressly provided for; and shall be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution for the raising, levying, collecting and securing the duties on carriages or vehicles kept, used, employed, or let out for hire, for the purpose of conveying passengers as aforesaid, granted by the 55 G. 3. c. 185. and the schedules thereto, and the said duties hereby granted, so far as the said acts or any of them shall not be repealed or be superseded by, and shall be consistent with the express provisions of this act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said duties granted by the said act of 55 G. 3. c. 185., and the said schedule thereto, and also to the duties hereby granted, 3 G. 4. c. 95. s. 15.

STATUTES.

1. To enable trustees or commissioners under acts of parliament to meet and carry such acts into execution, although they may not have met according to the direction of such acts, 4 G. 4. c. 35.

2. Whereas it has happened that the trustees or commissioners appointed to carry into execution an act or acts of parliament have not been able to meet on the day appointed by such act or acts for carrying the same into execution by reason that the day appointed for such meeting has been antecedent to the passing of such act or acts, whereby the interest of such act or acts hath been or may be frustrated: for remedy whereof, be it enacted, That in all cases where the trustees or commissioners appointed by any act or acts of parliament have not been or shall not be able to meet on the day appointed for their first meeting by any such act or acts, by reason that the day appointed for such meeting has been or shall be antecedent to the passing of such act or acts, it shall be lawful for three or more of the said trustees or commissioners appointed to execute such act or acts to meet at the place appointed by such act or acts for the first meeting of such trustees or commissioners on the 14th day after the passing of such act or acts, or of this act; and every such meeting shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if such trustees or commissioners had met in pursuance of the act or acts of parliament which they are appointed to carry into execution, 4 G. 4. c. 35.

3. To repeal divers ancient statutes and parts of statutes so far as they relate to the importation and exportation of goods and merchandize from and to foreign countries, 3 G. 4. c. 41.

4. Whereas several statutes and acts of parliament or certain parts thereof respectively, relating to the importation and exportation of goods and merchandize from foreign countries, and to the regulations and restrictions concerning such importation and exportation made and passed at various times before the 12th year of the reign of King Charles the Second, remain unrepealed, although the same are inconsistent with or rendered unnecessary by the acts made since that time, and now in force for the encouraging and increasing of shipping and navigation; and doubts may be entertained how far the said statutes or acts, or some parts thereof, may or may not be or remain in force or effect; and for the preventing of any inconvenience which may arise from such doubts, it is expedient that the said statutes and acts, or so much thereof as relate to the importation and exportation of such goods, and to the regulations and restrictions concerning the same, should be expressly repealed and declared to be no longer in force or effect; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1822], so much and such parts of the several statutes herein-after mentioned relating to the importation of goods, or to commerce or navigation, as are herein-after specified, shall be repealed; that is to say, 20 Ed. 1. st. 4. c. 1. s. 1. & in part ss. 3, 4.

[Stat. Dig. tit. COIN, pl. 2—4.]

5. So much of a statute of uncertain date concerning money, whereby it is forbidden on the King's behalf, that none bring money into the country but only for his expences, (Stat. de Moneta temp. incerti. vulgo 20 E. 1.) and also, so much of the said statute as relates to any money so brought.

9 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 1. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 5, 6.]

6. Also, so much of the statute made in the ninth year of the reign of King Edward the Third, whereby it is ordained and established, "that all merchant strangers and denizens, and all other and every of them, of what estate or condition soever they be, that shall buy or sell corn, wines, avoirdupois, flesh, fish, and all other livings and victuals, wools, cloths, wares, merchandizes, and all other things vendible, from whence-soever they come, by foreigners or denizens, at what place soever it be, city, borough, town, port of the sea, fair, market, or elsewhere within the realm, within franchise or without, may freely without interruption, sell them to what persons it shall please them, as well to foreigners as to denizens, except always the enemies of our Lord the King and his realm;—and also, so much of the said statute whereby any damages are given, or any penalty or punishment, or loss of franchise is imposed or inflicted, for any disturbance to any merchants, contrary to the said statute; and also, so much of the said statute whereby it is ordained and established, “that no alien or denizen shall be troubled, but that he may freely buy such things aforesaid in the said places, and carry them where it pleaseth him.”

11 Ed. 3. c. 2. and 11 Ed. 3. c. 3.

[Stat. Dig. tit. WOOL, &c. (STAT. rep.) pl. 2.]

7. Also, so much of a statute made in the 11th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is accorded, “that no man or woman of Eng., Ire., Wa., or Scot., (the King, Queen, and their children only except,) shall wear no cloth, other than is made in Eng., Ire., Wa., or Scot., upon pain of forfeiture of the same cloth, and further to be punished at the King’s will;”—and also, so much of the said statute, whereby it is accorded and established, “that no merchant, foreign nor denizen, nor none other, shall bring or cause to be brought privily or openly, by himself nor by other, into the lands of Eng., Ire., Wa., and Scot., within the King’s power, any cloths made in any other places than in the same, upon the forfeiture of the said cloths, and further to be punished at the King’s will.”

14 Ed. 3. st. 2. c. 2. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 3.]

8. Also, so much of a statute made in the 14th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is granted or provided, “that all merchants, denizens, and foreigners, except those which be of the King’s enmity, may without let safely come into the realm of Eng. with their goods and merchandize.”

18 Ed. 3. st. 2. c. 3. [Stat. Dig. tit. WOOL, &c. pl. 2.]

9. Also, so much of the statute made in the 18th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is granted or provided, “that the sea be open to all manner of merchants, to pass with their merchandize where it shall please them.”

25 Ed. 3. st. 3. (vulgo 4.) c. 2. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 9.]

10. Also, so much of a statute made in the 25th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is accorded, “that the said herein-before recited statute, made in the ninth year of the said King Edward the Third, in all points and articles contained in the same, be holden, kept, and maintained; and that if any statute, charter, letters patent, proclamation or commandment, usage, allowance, or judgment be made to the contrary, the same shall be openly repealed, void, and holden for none; and moreover, that every merchant or other, of what condition he be, as well alien as denizen, that bring wines, flesh, fish, or other victuals, cloths, woollfells, avoirdupois, or any other manner of merchandizes or chaffer, to the city of London, or other cities, boroughs, or good towns of Eng., or ports of the sea, may freely and without challenge or impeachment of any, sell them in gross or at retail, or by parcels, at his will, to all manner of people that will buy the same, notwithstanding any franchises, grants, or custom used, or any other thing done to the contrary.”

27 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 6. [Stat. Dig. tit. WINES, pl. 5.]

11. Also, so much of a statute made in the 27th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is ordained and established, “that all merchants, Gascoins, and other strangers, may safely bring their wines into Eng., to what port that shall please them, and thereof make their profits.”

27 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 5. and 27 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 7. [Stat. Dig. tit. WINES, pl. 4.—7.]

12. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, as relates to the buying, or engrossing, or forestalling of wines in Gascoigne, and as imposes any penalty or forfeiture in respect of such buying, engrossing, or forestalling.

27 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 8. [Stat. Dig. tit. GAUGING, pl. 1.]

13. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, as relates to gauging of wines by the King’s gauger, or his deputy.

27 Ed. 3. st. 2. c. 2. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 15, 16.]

14. Also, so much of the statute or ordinance of the staples made in the 27th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is ordained, established, or provided, “that all merchant strangers which be not of the King’s enmity, of what land or nation that they be, may safely and surely come and dwell in the realm of Eng. and land of Wa., where they will, and from thence return with their ships, wares, and all manner of merchandizes, and freely sell their merchandizes at the staple and elsewhere within the same realm and lands, to any that will buy them.”

28 Ed. 3. c. 13. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 21.]

15. Also, so much of a statute made in the 28th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is accorded and established, “that no manner of ship, which is fraught toward Eng. or elsewhere, be compelled to come to any port of Eng., nor there to abide, against the will of the masters and mariners of the same, or of the merchants whose the goods be; and if such ships come of their own good will, or be driven by tempests, or other misfortune or mischief, to any port in Eng., and the masters, mariners, or merchants of the same ships will sell or deliver part of their merchandizes with their good will, it shall be lawful for every man to buy such merchandize freely without impeachment, in the port where such ships shall come, albeit the said merchandizes be not put to land to sell; so that the masters, mariners, and merchants, after that they have sold that which pleaseth them of their said goods, and paid thereof the customs, may freely depart and go with their ships and all the remnant of their goods whither it shall please them, without custom thereof to be paid;” and also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute as imposes any forfeiture upon disturbing or hindering such merchants.

31 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 5.

[Stat. Dig. tit. GAUGING, pl. 2.; see 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 23.]

16. Also, so much of a statute made in the 31st year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, in the parliament holden at Westminster, on Monday next after Easter week, as relates to the contents of tuns of wine and gauging thereof.

37 Ed. 3. c. 16. [Stat. Dig. tit. WINES, pl. 4.]

17. Also, so much of a statute made in the 37th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby the statutes of wines of the 27th year of the said King is confirmed, or altered or amended.

38 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 2. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 22.]

18. Also, so much of a statute made in the 38th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it was ordained that all merchants, as well aliens and denizens, may sell or buy all manner of merchandizes, and freely carry them out of the realm.

38 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 8.

19. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is accorded and assented, “that no owner shall lose his ship for a small thing put within the ship not customed, without his knowledge or privacy.”

38 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 10. [Stat. Dig. tit. WINES, pl. 4.]

20. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is assented, “that the statutes and ordinances made as to the merchandize of wines, and of those that pass the sea to fetch wines in Gascoigne, shall stand in force.”

38 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 11. [Stat. Dig. tit. WINES, pl. 8.]

21. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is granted or provided, “that the Gascoignes, and all other aliens, may come into the realm with their wines, and freely sell them without any disturbance or impeachment;” and whereby it is saved to the King, “that it may be lawful for him, whensoever it shall seem meet to him and his good council, to ordain on this article in the manner as best shall seem to him, for the profit of him and his commons.”

42 Ed. 3. c. 8.

22. Also, so much of a statute made in the 42d year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is assented and accorded, “that no Englishman shall pass into Gascoigne to seek wines there, but they shall be brought into Eng. by the Gascoignes and other aliens; and that all the ships of Eng. and of Gascoigne that cometh into Gascoigne, shall be first freighted to bring wines into Eng. before all other.”

43 Ed. 3. c. 1.

23. Also, so much of a statute made in the 43d year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, whereby it is ordained, “that all merchants, aliens and denizens, may freely go through Eng., Ire., and Wa., and buy and sell wools, woollfells, and leather, and all other merchandizes at their will, without impeachment or disturbance.”

43 Ed. 3. c. 2.

24. Also, so much of the said statute made in the 43d year of the reign of the said King Edward the Third, as relates to Englishmen, Irishmen, or Welshmen, passing into Gascoigne to fetch wines there.

2 R. 2. st. 1. c. 1. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 12—14.]

25. Also, so much of a statute made at Gloucester, in the second year of the reign of King Richard the Second, whereby it is ordained and established, “that all merchants aliens, of what realms, countries, or seignories that they come, which be of the amity of the King and of this realm, may safely and surely come within the realm of Eng., and in all cities, boroughs, ports of the sea, fairs, markets, or other places within the realm, within franchise and without, may abide with their goods and all merchandizes, under the safeguard and protection of the King, as long as shall please them, without disturbance or denying of any person; and that as well those merchants aliens as denizens whatsoever, and every of them, that will buy and sell corn, flesh, fish, and all manner of other victuals and sustenance, and also all manner of spiceries, fruit, tea, and all manner of small wares, as silk, gold wire or silver wire, coverchiefs and other such small ware, may freely, and without denying or any manner of disturbance, as well in the city of London as in all cities, boroughs, ports of the sea, fairs, markets, and other places within the realm, sell and buy in gross or by parcels, to whom and of whom they please, denizens or foreign, except the King's enemies; and except also, that all manner of wines shall be sold by the said strangers in gross, as in the said statute is mentioned; and as to all other great wares, as cloth of gold and silver, silk, sendal, napery, linen cloth, canvas, and other such great wares, and also all manner of other great merchandizes not above expressed, whatsoever they be, as well aliens as denizens, as well in the city of London as in other cities, boroughs, ports of the sea, towns, fairs, markets, and elsewhere through the said realm, within franchise and without, may sell the same in gross only, to every person foreign or denizen that will buy the same, freely and without denying (except as in the said statute is excepted); notwithstanding any statutes, ordinances, charters, judgments, allowances, customs, and usages made or suffered to the contrary; which charters and franchises (if any there be,) shall be utterly repealed, as a thing made, used, or granted against the common profit in oppression of the people;" also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby any damages are given, or any penalty or punishment, or loss of franchise is imposed or inflicted for any disturbance, to any merchant, contrary to the said provisions of the said statute.

2 R. 2. st. 1. c. 3. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 25.]

26. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statutes, whereby it is ordained or assented, "that all merchants of Genoa, Venice, Catalonia, Aragon, and of other realms, lands, and countries towards the west, being of the King's amity, that will bring to Hampton, or elsewhere within the realm, carracks, ships, gallies, or other vessels charged or discharged, may there freely sell their merchandizes to whom they please, and there recharge their vessels with wools, leather, woollfells, lead, tin, and other merchandizes of the staple, and freely carry them into their country towards the west, under the regulations in the said statute mentioned and contained."

4 R. 2. c. 1. [Stat. Dig. tit. GAUGING, pl. 3.], and repealed also by 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 23.

27. Also, so much of a statute made in the fourth year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, as relates to the gauging of all vessels of wine, honey, oil, and other liquors brought into the realm.

5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 3.

28. Also, so much of a statute made in the fifth year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, in a parliament holden on the morrow after All Souls, whereby it is assented and accorded, "that none of the King's liege people do ship any merchandize in going out or coming within the realm of Eng., in any port or any where, but only in ships of the King's ligeance; and that every person of the said ligeance, which do ship and merchandize in any other ships or vessels upon the sea than of the said ligeance, shall forfeit to the King all his merchandizes shipped in other vessels, or the value of the same."

5 R. 2. st. 2. c. 1. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 26.]

29. Also, so much of a statute made in the said fifth year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, in the parliament holden on the morrow of Saint John Port Latin, whereby it is accorded and assented, "that all manner of merchants strangers, of whatsoever nation or country they may be, being of the amity of the King and of his realm, shall be welcome, and freely may come within the realm of Eng. and elsewhere within the King's power, as well within franchise as without, and there to be conversant to merchandize, and tarry as long as them liketh, as those whom our said Lord the King taketh into his protection and safeguard, with their goods, merchandizes, and all manner familiars; and that they and every of them, with their merchandizes and all manner of goods, be suffered to go and come without disturbance or impeachment of any."

6 R. 2. st. 1. c. 8.

30. Also, so much of a statute made in the sixth year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, whereby it is ordained and granted, "that the statute made in the fifth year of the said King Richard the Second (and herein-before recited), that none of the King's liege people do ship any merchandize but only in ships of the King's ligeance, only have place so long as ships of the said ligeance, in the parts where the said merchants shall happen to dwell, be found able and sufficient; so that then they shall be bound to freight the same ships of the King's ligeance with their merchandizes before all other ships; and otherwise, it shall be lawful to the said merchants to hire other ships convenient, and there to freight them with their goods and merchandizes, notwithstanding the said first statute."

6 R. 2. st. 1. c. 10. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 27.]

31. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is ordained and accorded, "that all manner of foreigners and aliens, being of the amity of the King and his realm, and coming within the city of London, and other cities, boroughs, and towns within the realm, with fish and all manner of other victuals, there tarrying and going again to their own countries, shall be under the safeguard and special protection of our Lord the King; and that there it shall be lawful for them and every to cut their fishes and victuals aforesaid in pieces, and in part, or in all, at retail, or in gross, as to them best shall seem, to sell and make their profit."

11 R. 2. c. 7. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 11.]

32. Also, so much of a statute made in the 11th year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, whereby it is ordained and established, "that the said statutes of the 9th and 25th years of the reign of King Edward the Third (herein-before recited, and as recited in the said statute of the 11th year of King Richard the Second), shall be firmly holden, kept, maintained, and fully executed in all the points and articles of the same, notwithstanding any ordinance, statute, charter, letters patent, franchise, proclamation, commandment, usage, allowance or judgment made or used to the contrary; and that if any such statute, ordinance, charter, letters patent, franchise, proclamation, commandment, usage, allowance or judgment be made or used to the contrary, it shall be utterly repealed, avoided, and holden for none."

14 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. [Stat. Dig. tit. MERCHANT, pl. 29.]

33. Also, so much of the said statute made in the 14th year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, whereby it is ordained and established, "that every person alien that bringeth any merchandize into Eng., shall find sufficient sureties before the customers in the port, where the merchandize shall be brought, to buy other merchandize, to the value of half the said merchandizes so brought at the least, as wools, leather, woollfells, lead, tin, butter, cheese, cloth or other commodities of the land."

Also, so much of a statute made in the second year of the reign of King Henry the Fifth, in a parliament holden at Westminster the Monday next after the octaves of Saint Martin, whereby an ordinance made in the 1st year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, relating to the staple of wools, leather, woolfells, lead and tin, at Calais, was confirmed; and whereby it was ordained, "that no wools, fells, leather, lead, or tin, nor none other merchandize of the staple, should be sent or carried to any parts beyond the sea, unless they were first brought to the said staple at Calais, after the form of the said ordinance, upon the penalties and under the regulations in the said last recited statute mentioned and provided."

2 H. 6. c. 4. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAPLE, pl. 1.]

196. Also, so much of a statute made in the second year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby it was ordained and established, "that any statutes or ordinances relating to the staple at Calais, before then made and not repealed, should be holden and kept and put in due execution; and that the whole repair of wools, woolfells, leather, lead, tin, whole or molten, called shotten tin, and all other merchandizes pertaining to the staple, passing out of the realm of Eng. and of the countries of Wa. and Ire., should be at the said place of Calais, and at none other place beyond the sea, as long as the said staple should be at the town of Calais, upon pain of forfeiture of the very value of the merchandizes which should pass elsewhere but to the parts towards the west named in the said statutes thereof made; and also, so much of the said last mentioned statute, as relates to licences for shipping of wools, fells, and leather of Northumberland, Westmoreland, Cumberland, and the bishopric of Durham.

2 H. 6. c. 5.

197. Also, so much of the said last mentioned statute, whereby it is ordained and established, "that if any person carry, or cause to be carried, any wools or woolfells not customed out of the realm to other places than to the staple of Calais, he shall forfeit to the King the value of the merchandizes so shipped, and his body to prison till he hath made and paid a fine and ransom; and that he that giveth knowledge to the treasurer of Eng. for the time being, and the trespasser for the same duly convict, shall have the fourth part of the forfeiture due to the King in this behalf."

3 H. 6. c. 4. [REF. ante, s. 3. pl. 136.]

198. Also, so much of the statute made in the third year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained and established, "that he that will carry butter and cheese to any other parts than to the staple at Calais, shall sue to the chancellor of Eng. for the time being, to have a licence in this behalf; and that the same chancellor shall have power to make him such licences under the King's great seal, if it like him so to do by his discretion."

6 H. 6. c. 6.

199. Also, so much of a statute made in the sixth year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that every merchant, as well denizen as alien, may freely and safely ship wools, leather, woolfells and other merchandizes of the staple, in the port of Melcombe in the county of Dorset, and from thence carry them to the staple at Calais, paying the customs and subsidies due to the King."

8 H. 6. c. 17. [Stat. Dig. tit. STAPLE, pl. 1.]

200. Also, so much of a statute made in the eighth year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that no person ship, nor do to be shipped, no manner of wools, woolfells, leather, lead, nor tin, whole nor shotten, nor the same carry nor convey to none other parts beyond the sea, but only to the staple of Calais;" and whereby any forfeiture or penalty is imposed or inflicted, or made payable in respect of merchandizes carried or conveyed contrary to the ordaining of the said statute.

8 H. 6. c. 18.

201. Also, so much of the said last mentioned statute as relates to the sale of wools, woolfells, and tin at the staple of Calais, and the payment for the same, and the bringing bullion to the mint there, and the partition of the money for wools and woolfells sold there, and the acquittances to merchants buyers.

8 H. 6. c. 20.

202. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is ordained, "that no merchant continually inhabiting within the town of Calais, shall be suffered to buy beyond the sea, any manner of wools, woolfells, leather, lead, nor tin, nor other merchandize pertaining to the staple, upon pain of forfeiture of the same."

8 H. 6. c. 21.

203. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is ordained, "that certain licences to the men of Newcastle and Berwick, for the exporting of wools, shall be repealed; and that, if any of evil will do sell or carry any wools or woolfells, leather, lead, or any other merchandizes of the staple, in defraud of the King or hindrance of the commodity of his realm, into Scot., that he shall forfeit the same goods with the double value, and his body to prison by the space of a year."

10 H. 6. c. 1.

204. Also, so much of a statute made in the 10th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that all the recognizances of debts, before the mayor and constable of the staple of Calais, made or to be made by any persons beyond the sea, shall be as effectual and executory and of such force in all points within the realm, and in the same form executory, as the recognizances made before the mayor and constables of the staple of Westminster, or before any other mayors or constables within the said realm be."

10 H. 6. c. 7.

205. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby any penalty or forfeiture is imposed or made payable, or any search is authorized, in respect of any wool, woolfells, hides, lead, tin, or other merchandizes of the staple, carried into Scot., Flanders, Holland, Zealand, or Brabant.

11 H. 6. c. 13.

206. Also, so much of a statute made in the 11th year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that the ordinance and statute made in the eighth year of the said King Henry the Sixth, and herein-before recited, relating to the sale of wools, woolfells, and tin, at the staple of Calais, and the payment for the same, and the bringing bullion to the mint there, and the partition of the money for wools and woolfells sold there, should be continued; saving to the King, power and authority to modify the same statute by the advice of his council."

11 H. 6. c. 14.

207. Also, so much of the said statute of the 11th year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained and established, "that none upon pain of felony, bring, carry, or ship, nor cause to be brought, carried, nor shipped, any merchandizes of the staple, in any creeks within the realm of Eng."

14 H. 6. c. 2.

208. Also, so much of a statute made in the 14th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that no licences mentioned in the said statute, as prejudicial and contrary to the common and universal weal of the realm and of the merchants, and in destruction of the town of Calais, and of the ordinance of partition made in the eighth year of the reign of the said King, shall in nowise be granted; and that every man which shippeth, or doeth to be shipped, any wools or woolfells to carry them over the sea in anywise, shall repair with the same to Calais and there discharge the said wools and woolfells, after the tenor of the statutes, and after the good rules and ordinances of the staple, saving as in the said statute is saved and provided."

14 H. 6. c. 5.

209. Also, so much of the said statute of the 14th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that all the wools and woolfells, and all other merchandizes, which by statute ought to repair to the staple of Calais, found in any creek, shipped contrary to the statute and ordinance made in the 11th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, and herein-before recited and repealed, shall be forfeit: and that every person that shall ship or cause to be shipped, any manner of wools, woolfells, or other merchandize, to go to the staple aforesaid, and come not there, shall forfeit as much goods as the wools, woolfells, and other merchandizes by them so shipped and carried to other places than to Calais, do amount, by extent after the very value, except the merchandizes which be to be excepted to pass by the King's licence to other places: and that if any person lay any wools, woolfells, or other merchandize of the staple, in any suspicious place adjoining to the water-side, and no indenture thereof made betwixt him and the mayor, bailiffs, or constables of the town in which such wools, woolfells, or other merchandize of the staple be so laid, that the said wools, woolfells, and merchandize be forfeit; and that every man shall have power to make search in every place for such goods of the staple so carried or shipped or laid to be shipped as aforesaid, without impediment or disturbance of any person."

15 H. 6. c. 8.

210. Also, so much of a statute made in the 15th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that no person shall ship nor do to be shipped, wools, woolfells, and other merchandizes pertaining to the staple, in no place within the realm, but only at the keys and wharfs being in the ports assigned by statute, where the King's weights and his beam be set; and that every master of the ships and vessels in which such wools and woolfells and merchandizes be put, shall find security to the customer of the ports where they do ship to carry the said wools and woolfells and merchandize to the staple of Calais, and to bring a certification from thence that he hath so done."

18 H. 6. c. 15.

211. Also, so much of a statute made in the 18th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained, "that no manner of person shall carry or do to be carried any wools or woolfells customable out of the realm to other places than to the staple of Calais, without the King's special licence, upon pain of felony; and that if any person do contrary thereto, and thereof be convicted or attainted, that he be adjudged for a felon;" and also, so much of the said statute as relates to the enquiring, hearing, and determining of such offences.

20 H. 6. c. 12.

212. Also, so much of a statute made in the 20th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, as relates to a certain ordinance of partition made upon wools and woolfells in the staple at Calais.

27 H. 6. c. 2.

213. Also, so much of a statute made in the 27th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is ordained and established, "that the mayors, constables, and fellowship of merchants of the staple of Calais for the time being, and their successors for ever, may have and enjoy all their franchises and liberties, and every of them, and whole repair of all manner of merchandizes to the said staple by the said King or his progenitors, to them or to their predecessors, or any of them, by the authority of parliament granted or confirmed, not repealed nor excepted;" and also, so much and all such parts of the said last-mentioned statute as in any way relate to the said mayor, constables, and fellowship, and their successors, or to any powers, authorities, or privileges to be used or exercised by them, or to any action or suit to be brought by them under the said statute; and also, so much and such parts of the said statute as relate to any licence for shipping wools, woolfells, or tin, out of the realm of Eng., Ire., or Wa., to any other place, than to the staple of Calais; or to the shipping or carrying any wools, woolfells, or tin out of the realm by colour of any licence, and putting them to sale in any other port or place out of the realm than at the said staple of Calais; or to any penalties or forfeitures of money, goods, or chattels imposed or inflicted in respect of any such offences by the said statute; or to any powers of seizing any wools, woolfells, or tin, carried or shipped contrary to the said statute; or to any penalties on any customer, controller, searcher, or surveyor, admitting any such wools, woolfells, or tin to be shipped to any other port or place than to the said staple, or willingly suffering any such merchandizes to pass out of the realm, not customed or not weighed at the King's beam; or to the mode of recovering such penalties; or to the trial of any thing done contrary to the ordinance of the said statute, either within the realm or without.

3 Ed. 4. c. 1. [REP. ante, ss. 1. 3. pl. 64—140.]

214. Also, so much and such parts of a statute made in the third year of the reign of King Edward the Fourth, as relate to the buying or shipping of wools or woolfells, morling or shorling, by aliens or strangers within the realm, or the carrying the same by them out of the realm; or to the carrying any wools, woolfells, morling or shorling out of the realm, by any person, stranger, alien, or denizen, or to the shipping or carrying such wools, woolfells, shorling or morling to any place out of the said realm except to Calais; or to the shipping any wools, woolfells, shorling or morling of the growing within any of the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmorland, or within the bishoprick of Durham; or to any pain, penalty, or forfeiture whatever, in respect of any offences against the said provisions of the said statute ; and also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is ordained and established, "that no merchant of the said staple of Calais shall sell or utter any wools, woolfells, morling or shorling, or any other merchandizes of the staple, at the said staple, but that he, before or upon delivery of the same, receive and take ready payment and contentation for the same in manner directed by the said statute, upon the penalty or forfeiture in the said statute mentioned ; and that no merchant of the said staple shall sell or utter or alter the property from him of the said merchandizes of the staple, nor no part of the same, at any place out of the realm, other than at the said staple of Calais."

4 Ed. 4. c. 2.

215. Also, so much and such parts of a statute made in the fourth year of the reign of the said King Edward the Fourth, whereby it is granted, ordained, and established, "that all wools and woolfells, shorling and morling, that shall be shipped to pass out of the realm, shall be shipped at the towns of such ports wherein the King hath his beam, his weights, and collectors of the customs, to serve and deliver the merchandize as specified and set forth in the said statute ; and that every person that so shall ship or cause to be shipped out of this realm, any wools, woolfells, shorling or morling, upon the shipping of them, and before that they pass out of any of the said towns where they shall be shipped, shall find surety to the King and the collector of his customs there, that the same wools, woolfells, shorling and morling, shall pass to Calais and to none other place, without fraud or collusion ;" and also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute as relates to any certificate of the customer testifying the coming of all such ships with wools, woolfells, shorling and morling to Calais, or as imposes any penalty on such customer not giving such certificate, or any person not bringing in such certificate, or on any person doing contrary to the said statute, or as relates to the application or recovery of any such penalty.

4 Ed. 4. c. 3.

216. Also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute as relates to the shipping of any wool or woolfells, morling or shorling, shipped at the port and town of Newcastle, or as imposes any penalty or forfeiture in respect of any such wools, woolfells, morling or shorling, at the said town or port, or as relates to the application or recovery of any such penalty or forfeiture.

12 Ed. 4. c. 5.

217. Also, so much of a statute made in the 12th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Fourth, whereby it is enacted, ordained, and established, "that all the wools, woolfells, and fells called shorling and morling, growing within the realm (other than in the said statute are excepted) to be shipped and conveyed out of the realm, shall be conveyed to the staple of Calais, and to none other place, and that if any man do to the contrary, and thereupon be duly convicted, that then he shall stand and be of like condition as a man attainted of felony after the course of the common law, and shall incur like pain and forfeiture as he so attainted for the same should do," and also, so much of the said last-mentioned statute, whereby it is ordained, "that all wools and woolfells, and fells called morling and shorling, growing or being in any county of the realm, or in Wa., or in the markets of the same, other than before excepted, to be carried out of the realm, shall be conveyed to the said staple of Calais and to none other place, upon the same penalty and forfeiture ; the prerogative of the King to grant any licence to the contrary except."

14 Ed. 4. c. 3.

218. Also, so much of a statute made in the 14th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Fourth, whereby it is ordained and established, "that the act of the 12th year of the reign of the said King Edward the Fourth, immediately herein-before recited, should be in full strength and effect in every point thereof, saving only as in the said statute of the said 14th year is saved and excepted ;" and also, so much of the said statute of the said 14th year as relates to wools, woolfells, and fells called shorling and morling, growing and being within the counties of Westmorland, Cumberland, Northumberland, the bishoprick of Durham, Richmondshire, and Allerton, to be carried out of the realm :—SHALL BE REPEALED.

219. And the said several statutes and ordinances herein-before recited, and so much and such parts of the several other statutes as are herein-before recited and set forth, are hereby accordingly repealed, and from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1822], shall cease, determine, and be of no force, effect, or validity whatsoever, except as in this act is excepted or provided for ; any thing in the said recited statutes and ordinances, or any of them, or in any statute or act for continuing or amending of the said statutes or ordinances, or any of them, or any part thereof, or any law, usage or custom whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding ; except so far as the said statutes or ordinances, or any of them, or any thing therein, repeal any former statute or statutes, or act or acts, or any part thereof : and all and every of which said statutes or statute, or the parts thereof so repealed, shall remain and continue repealed to all intents and purposes whatsoever, 3 G. 4. c. 41. s. 5.

220. From and after the passing of this act [24th June 1822], the several acts hereafter mentioned, or so much and such parts of the said acts respectively as are herein-after recited, shall be repealed ; (that is to say) —

23 H. 8. c. 6. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 10.]

232. The whole of an act "for obligations to be taken by the two chief justices, the mayor of the staple, and recorder of London," made in the 23d year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, and intituled, An Act concerning before whom recognizances of debt shall be made, and the form of the obligation.

27 El. c. 4. s. 7. [Stat. Dig. tit. FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE, pl. 27.]

233. So much of an act made in the 27th year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act against covenous and fraudulent conveyances, as in any way relates to or concerns recognizances by statutes merchant, or statutes of the staple.

8 G. 1. c. 25. [Stat. Dig. tit. RECOGNIZANCE, pl. 10.]

234. An act made in the eighth year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for supplying some defects in the statute of the 23d of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, 'An Act for obligations to be taken by the two chief justices, the mayor of the staple, and the recorder of London;' and for setting down the time of signing judgments in the principality of Wa., and counties palatine; but the said several statutes, and the several provisions therein contained, so far as the same relate to such obligations and recognizances, shall be and remain, and the same are hereby declared to be and remain, in such FORCE AND EFFECT as the said statutes, and the said provisions contained therein or in any of them were immediately before the passing of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 41. s. 7.

235. Provided also, that nothing in this act shall extend to repeal 28 Ed. 3. c. 13. [Stat. Dig. tit. JURY, pl. 17, 18.]

So much of the said recited statute made in the 28th year of the reign of King Edward the Third, confirming the ordinance of the staple whereby it is accorded and established, "that in all manner of inquests and proofs which be to be taken or made among aliens and denizens, be they merchants or other, as well before the mayor of the staple as before any other justices or ministers, although the King be party, the one half of the inquest or proof shall be of denizens and the other half of aliens, if so many aliens be in the town or place where such inquest or proof is to be taken, that be not parties nor with the parties in contracts, pleas, or other quarrels, whereof such inquests or proofs ought to be taken; and that if there be not so many aliens, then shall there be put in such inquests or proofs as many aliens as shall be found in the same towns or places which be not thereto parties nor with the parties as afore is said; and the remnant of denizens which be good men and not suspicious to the one party nor the other:"

8 H. 6. c. 29. [Stat. Dig. tit. JURY, pl. 19, &c.]

236. Nor to extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter so much of a statute made in the eighth year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby it is declared that so much of a statute made in the second year of the reign of King Henry the Fifth, as is recited in the said statute of the eighth year of King Henry the Sixth, shall extend only to inquests to be taken between denizen and denizen; and that so much of the said statute of the 28th year of the reign of King Edward the Third, as is herein-before recited, shall be put in due execution; and so much and such parts of the said statutes as relate to such inquests, shall remain in full FORCE, 3 G. 4. c. 41. s. 8.

237. Provided also, that nothing in this act shall extend to repeal any of the statutes, or parts of statutes, herein-before mentioned, so far as the same or any of them may relate to the contents of tuns, pipes, tertians, hogsheads, or other vessels of wine, oil, honey, and other gaugeable liquors or articles imported into the city of London or the liberties thereof, or the gauging thereof, which the mayor and commonalty and citizens of London are, by divers charters, authorized to gauge within the city of London and the liberties thereof; nor to repeal the duty called gauge, which the said mayor and commonalty and citizens are entitled to receive by virtue of the aforesaid charters, but the same shall remain in force, 3 G. 4. c. 41. s. 9. [See post, tit. WEIGHTS and MEASURES.]

238. Whereas certain statutes, or parts thereof, relating to the importation and exportation of divers goods, have been heretofore repealed, and it is expedient that the same should be specified in this act; for the more completely effecting the purposes of this act, it is enacted, That the several statutes, and parts thereof, herein-after mentioned, shall remain repealed; that is to say,

14 R. 2. c. 7.

239. So much of a statute made in the 14th year of the reign of King Richard the Second, as ordains that the passage of tin out of the realm, shall be at the port of Dartmouth, and no where else.

15 R. 2. c. 8.

240. Also, so much of a statute made in the 15th year of the reign of the said King Richard the Second, as concerns the carriage of tin to Calais.

2 H. 4. c. 6. [Stat. Dig. tit. COIN, pl. 7.]

241. Also, so much of a statute made in the second year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, as prohibits the bringing in of coin of Flanders or Scot., and other foreign coin.

242. And which parts of the said several statutes are repealed by (21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 71.) an act made in the 21st year of the reign of King

8 H. 6. c. 2.

243. Also, so much of a statute made in the eighth year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby it was ordained and established, that none of the King's subjects, being Englishmen, should go or repair into any of the parts, lordships, or dominions of the King of Denmark, and which part of the said recited statute was repealed by (1 H. 8. c. 1.) an act made in the first year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act for the repealing of a statute for fishing in Iceland.

5 H. 7. c. 7.

244. Also, so much of an act made in the third year of the reign of King Henry the Seventh, intituled, An Act against merchants carrying of goods from one port to another, without a certificate from the customer where the goods were first entered; whereby it was ordained and established, that no manner of merchant, denizen, nor stranger, should take upon him to enter or cause to be entered in the books of any customer of any port within the same, any manner of merchandize coming into the realm or going out of the same, in any other merchant's name, save only the name of the merchant owing the same, upon pain of forfeiture of all such goods and merchandizes so entered, and which part of the said recited act is repealed by (1 H. 8. c. 5.) an act made in the first year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act for the true payment of the King's customs.

5 H. 8. c. 15.

245. Also, an act made in the third year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act concerning hats and caps.

21 H. 8. c. 9.

246. Also, an act made in the 21st year of the reign of the said King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act limiting the prices of hats and caps brought from beyond the seas; or, An Act limiting the prices of woollen hats, bonnets, and caps made beyond the sea, and brought to be sold within this realm.

1 M. st. 2. c. 11.

247. Also, an act made in the first year of the reign of Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the sale of hats and caps beyond sea.

248. And which said three last-mentioned acts are repealed by (1 Ja. 1. c. 25. s. 7.) an act made in the first year of the reign of King James the First, intituled, An Act for continuing and reviving of divers statutes, and for repealing of some others.

5 H. 8. c. 7.

249. Also, an act made in the fifth year of the reign of the said King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act that strangers buy no leather but in open market, or, An Act for strangers for buying of leather in open market, and which act was repealed by (5 El. c. 3. s. 44.) an act made in the fifth year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act touching tanners, curriers, shoemakers, and other artificers occupying the cutting of leather.

21 H. 8. c. 14.

250. Also, an act made in the 21st year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act for the linen-draper in London, which is repealed by (28 H. 8. c. 4.) an act made in the 28th year of the reign of the said King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act repealing of the statute lately made, for bringing in of dowlas and lokerams.

12 Ed. 4. c. 2. (Ir.)

251. Also, an act made in the parliament of Ire., in the 12th year of the reign of King Edward the Fourth, intituled, An Act for bringing bows into this realm, from the realm of Eng., by merchants and others, (Irish act,) and which was repealed by 10 C. 1. st. 3. c. 22. (Ir.) an act made in the parliament of Ire., in the 10th year of the reign of King Charles the First, for repealing the said act of King Edward the Fourth.

28 & 5 Ed. 6. c. 26.

252. Also, an act made in the parliament holden in the second and third years of the reign of King Edward the Sixth, intituled, An Act against the carrying of white ashes out of this realm, which was repealed by (28 G. 3. c. 16.) an act made in the 28th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for repealing the said act of King Edward the Sixth.

1 El. c. 10.

253. Also, an act made in the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act that carrying of leather, tallow, or raw hides out of the realm for merchandize, shall be felony, and which act was repealed by (18 El. c. 9.) an act made in the 18th year of the reign of the said Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act against the transporting of leather, tallow, and raw hides out of the realm.

1 J. 1. c. 22. s. 48.

254. Also, so much of an act, made in the first year of the reign of King James the First, intituled, An Act concerning tanners, curriers, shoemakers, and other artificers occupying the cutting of leather; whereby any penalty is imposed on officers of customs permitting the undue exportation of leather, and the whole of which act, of the first year of King James, is repealed by (48 G. 3. c. 60.) an act made in the 48th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, made, among other things, for repealing the said act of King James the First.

5 H. 8. c. 3., 27 H. 8. c. 13., and 33 H. 8. c. 19.

255. Also, the several acts made in the 5th, 27th, and 33d years of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, relating to the exportation of cloths, and which acts were repealed by (50 G. 3. c. 83.) an act made in the 50th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act to repeal several acts respecting the woollen manufacture, and for indemnifying persons liable to any penalty for having acted contrary thereto.

3 Ed. 4. c. 4., and 1 R. 3. c. 12.

256. Also, the several acts or parts of the statutes made in the third year of the reign of King Edward the Fourth, and in the first year of the reign of King Richard the Third, and which acts or parts of statutes were repealed, or were intended, or which purport to be repealed by (56 G. 3. c. 36.) an act made in the 56th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act to repeal two acts passed in the reign of King Edward the Fourth, and King Richard the Third, which prohibit the importation of wrought goods and certain other articles.

17 Ed. 3. c. 1. ss. 2, 3., 27 Ed. 5. st. 2. c. 14., 38 Ed. 3. st. 1. c. 2. s. 2., 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 2. ss. 1—3., 17 R. 2. c. 1., 2 H. 4. c. 5., 2 H. 6. c. 6., 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 23., 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17. ss. 5, 7, 8, 13., and 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 19. ss. 6—10.

257. Also, so much and such parts of the statutes made in the 17th, 27th, and 38th years of the reign of King Edward the Third, and in the 5th and 17th years of the reign of King Richard the Second, and in the second year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, and in the second year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, and in the fourth year of the reign of King Henry the Seventh, and in the sixth and seventh, and seventh and eighth years of the reign of King William the Third, as relates to the exportation of gold or silver in money, bullion, plate, vessel, mass, or jewel of gold or silver, or molten silver or bullion, and all which are repealed by (59 G. 3. c. 49. ss. 11, 12.) an act made in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, made, among other things, to permit the exportation of gold and silver.

5 El. c. 7., and 12 C. 2. c. 4. s. 11.

258. Also, an act made in the fifth year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act avoiding divers foreign wares by handicraftsmen beyond the seas, and also, so much of an act made in the 12th year of the reign of King Charles the Second, for a subsidy, as prohibits the shipping, carrying out, and transporting gunpowder, when the price of the same doth exceed 5*l.* per barrel, and which last-mentioned act of Queen Elizabeth, and the said recited part of the said act of King Charles the Second, were repealed by (59 G. 3. c. 73.) an act made in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third.

259. And the said several statutes and acts and parts of statutes and acts so repealed by the said several acts made for repealing the same, shall accordingly be and REMAIN and are hereby declared to be REPEALED, except only so far as they repeal any former act or acts; and all which act or acts so repealed shall be and remain so repealed to all intents and purposes whatsoever, 5 G. 4. c. 41. s. 10.

260. To repeal the several laws relating to the customs, 6 G. 4. c. 105.

261. Whereas the laws of the customs have become intricate by reason of the great number of the acts relating thereto which have been passed through a long series of years: and whereas it is therefore highly expedient for the interests of commerce and the ends of justice, and also for affording convenience and facility to all persons who may be subject to the operation of those laws, or who may be authorized to act in the execution thereof, that all the statutes now in force relating to the customs should be repealed; and that the purposes for which they have from time to time been made should be secured by new enactments, exhibiting more perspicuously and compendiously the various provisions contained in them: be it enacted, That from and after the 5th July 1826, so much and such parts of the several and respective statutes herein-after mentioned and recited, made in the parliaments of Eng. and of G. B. respectively, as relates to the trade and navigation of this kingdom, or to the importation and exportation of goods, wares, and merchandize, or as relate to the collection of the revenue of customs or prevention of smuggling, as are herein-after set forth, shall be repealed; that is to say, —

17 R. 2. c. 5.

262. So much of an act passed in the 17th year of the reign of King Richard the Second, as ordains, that no searcher, gauger of wines, aulneger, finder nor weigher of wools or other merchandizes, collector of customs or subsidies whatsoever, or controller, shall have estate in his office for term of life or of years, but that the said offices shall remain in the King's hands, under the governance of the treasurer for the time being, with the assent of the council when need is; and if any charters or letters patent be made to the contrary, they shall be clearly admitted void and of none effect; — and also,

1 H. 4. c. 13.

263. So much of a statute passed in the first year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, as accords, that customers and controllers in every port of Eng. shall be resident upon their offices in their persons, without making any proper deputy or lieutenant in their names; — and also,

4 H. 4. c. 20.

264. So much of a statute passed in the fourth year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, as ordains, that customers and controllers in every part of Eng. shall abide upon their offices in their proper persons, without making any deputy or lieutenant in their names; and that they shall be sworn to the same from time to time; that the lieutenant of the King's chief butler and the searcher shall be resident in the same manner; and that every customer, upon yielding of his account, shall be sworn by his oath to answer of all manner of profits and commodities for the payment of any assignment; — and also,

4 H. 4. c. 21.

265. So much of an act made in the fourth year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, as ordains, that the searcher in every port of Eng. shall not let their offices to farm, or occupy them by deputy, nor take of masters of ships for their office of searching any money for their welcome or farewell, nor any other thing for the same, and that no searcher be host to any merchant or mariner; — and also,

11 H. 4. c. 2.

266. So much of an act passed in the 11th year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, as ordains, that no man who holdeth a common hostry in any city or borough of Eng. shall be a customer, controller, finder, or searcher of the King; — and also,

13 H. 4. c. 5.

267. So much of an act passed in the 13th year of the reign of King Henry the Fourth, as ordains, that customers and controllers, gaugers of wines, and searchers, through the realm, shall be constantly resident upon their offices; — and also,

3 H. 6. c. 3.

268. So much of an act passed in the third year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, as ordains, that if any customer, collector, or controller of the King's customs of cockets of cloths, of subsidies of tonnage or poundage, shall be convicted or attainted of false concealing of the King's custom or subsidy duly entered, paid by any merchant, that then the said customer, collector, or controller shall lose and forfeit treble value of the merchandizes, and make fine and ransom; — and also,

31 H. 6. c. 5.

269. So much of an act passed in the 31st year of the reign of King Henry the Sixth, as ordains, that no letters patent of any of the offices of searcher, finder, weigher, collector, or controller, shall be made but by warrant of bill sealed by the treasurer of Eng. for the time being, sent by him into the chancery; — and also,

5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 16. [Stat. Dig. tit. OFFICE, &c. pl. 7.]

270. An act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Edward the Sixth, against buying and selling of offices, so far as regards the revenue of customs or offices in the service of the customs; — and also,

1 El. c. 11.

271. An act passed in the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act limiting the time for laying on land merchandizes from beyond the seas, and touching customs for sweet wines; — and also,

5 El. c. 5. [Stat. Dig. tit. FISH, pl. 41.]

272. So much of an act passed in the fifth year of Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act touching politic constitutions for the maintenance of the navy, as enacts, that it shall not be lawful to any person or persons to cause to be loaden and carried in any bottom or bottoms whereof any stranger or strangers born then be owner, of any kind of fish, victual, wares, or things, of what kind or nature soever the same shall be, from one port or creek of this realm to another port of the same; — and also,

M.'s supply; and for taking off the drawbacks upon hops exported to Ire.; and for payment of annuities to be purchased after the rate of 4*l.* per cent. per ann. at the exchequer, redeemable by parliament; and for appropriating supplies granted in this session of parliament; and to prevent counterfeiting receipts and warrants of the officers of the South Sea Company; and for explaining a late act concerning foreign salt cellared and locked up before the 24th of June 1719; and to give a further time for paying duties on certain apprentice indentures; and for relief of Thomas Vernon, Esq., in the year 1716, as relates to the importation and exportation of plate, and the duties and drawbacks thereon;—and also,*

6 G. 1. c. 12.

327. So much of an act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act for preventing frauds and abuses in the allowance on damaged wines, and for lengthening the time for the drawbacks on the exportation of wines, as allows damaged or unmerchantable wines to be staved or destroyed after landing, and the duties to be repaid, and as allows a compensation upon such goods for freight and other charges;—and also,

6 G. 1. c. 21.

328. So much of an act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for preventing frauds and abuses in the public revenue of excise, customs, stamp-duties, post-office, and house-money, as enacts, that if any foreign brandy or spirits of any kind whatsoever shall be imported or brought into G. B., in any ship, vessel, or boat of the burthen of 50 tons or under (except for the use of the seamen, not exceeding one gallon for each seaman), all such brandy or other spirits, together with the ship, vessel, or boat, shall be forfeited; and also so much of the said act as empowers commanders of men-of-war, frigates, or armed sloops, and officers of the customs, to compel masters of ships laden with brandy, hovering within two leagues of the shore, to come into port; and also so much of the said act as enacts, that if any master or person having charge of any ship or vessel shall suffer any brandy or other uncustomed or prohibited goods to be put out of the said ship or vessel into any hoy, lighter, boat, or bottom, to be laid on land, or shall suffer any wool, woollfells, mortlings, shortlings, yarn made of wool, wool-flocks, fullers'-earth, fulling-clay, or tobacco-pipe clay, to be laden or taken in from the shore, to be put on board such ship or vessel to be carried to parts beyond the seas, shall, besides the penalties and forfeitures to which they shall be liable, suffer six months' imprisonment without bail or mainprize; and also so much of the said act as enacts that if any officer or officers of the customs be forcibly hindered, wounded, or beaten, in the due execution of their office, by any person armed with clubs or any manner of weapon, tumultuously assembled in the day or night to the number of eight or more persons, all and every person or persons so forcibly hindering, wounding, or beating the said officer or officers, or such as shall act in their aid or assistance, being convicted thereof, shall by advice of the court before whom such offender or offenders shall be convicted, be transported to some of H. M.'s colonies and plantations for such term as the court shall think fit, not exceeding seven years; and also so much of the said act as authorizes officers of the customs to stop and put prohibited or uncustomed goods into H. M.'s warehouse, there to remain until the claimer shall satisfy the commissioners of H. M.'s customs with respect to the same; and also so much of the said act as forfeits spices found on board ships in bags or other parcels packed in hogsheads, casks, or bales;—and also,

7 G. 1. st. 1. c. 21.

[Stat. Dig. tit. EAST INDIA COMPANY, pl. 97—102.]

329. So much of an act passed in the seventh year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further preventing H. M.'s subjects from trading to the E. I. under foreign commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful trade thereto, and for further regulating the pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as prohibits the importation into Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or into any land, island, plantation, colony, territory, or place, to H. M. or to the crown of G. B. belonging, or which shall hereafter belong to H. M., his heirs or successors, in Africa or America, of any commodity of the growth, product, or manufacture of the E. I., and other places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, but such only as shall bonâ fide and without fraud be laden and shipped in G. B., in ships navigated according to the laws then in being; and also so much of the said act as allows merchants and traders exporting foreign goods for drawbacks to have three years' time from the importation of such goods for that purpose, accounting such importation from the master's report of his ship;—also,

8 G. 1. c. 15.

330. So much of an act passed in the eighth year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the encouragement of the silk manufacturers of this kingdom, and for taking off several duties on merchandize exported, and for reducing the duties upon beaver-skins, pepper, mace, cloves, and nutmegs imported, and for the importation of all furs of the product of the British plantations into this kingdom only, and that the two corporations of assurance, of any suit brought on their policies, shall be liable only to single damages and costs of suit, and which said act was in part made perpetual by an act passed in the 49th year of the reign of King George the Third, as relates to allowances to be paid upon the exportation of the silk manufactures of this kingdom, or upon the manufacturers of silk mixed with any other materials, or as imposes any penalty or forfeiture upon the shipment or relanding of such goods; and also so much of the said recited acts as enacts, that all beaver-skins and other furs of the product of the British plantations in America, Asia, or Africa, shall be imported directly from thence into G. B., and laid on shore there and not elsewhere;—and also,

8 G. 1. c. 18.

[Stat. Dig. tit. BOATS, pl. 1. 3. 5. 11.]

331. So much of an act passed in the eighth year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act to prevent the clandestine running of goods, and the danger of infection thereby, and to prevent ships breaking their quarantine, and to subject copper ore of the production of the British plantations to such regulations as other enumerated commodities of the like production are subject; and which said act was in part made perpetual by an act passed in the 49th year of the reign of King George the Third, as relates to the importation of foreign brandy and other spirits in vessels of less burthen than 40 tons; and as relates to the forfeiture of boats rowing with more than four oars above or below London bridge, or within the limits of the ports of London, Sandwich, or Ipswich, or the members or creeks to them or either of them respectively belonging; and also as relates to persons passing with foreign goods landed without entry, and being more than five in number, resisting officers of the customs or excise in the seizing or securing any sort of run goods or commodities; and also as imposes a penalty upon persons receiving or buying any run goods, or being clandestinely concerned in the running of such goods; and also as directs the mode in which seizures of vessels and boats are to be proceeded upon and dealt with; and also so much of the said act as forfeits goods removed from one part of G. B. into another, and landed before delivery of the cocquet to the proper officer, and as forfeits foreign goods landed without the presence of an officer of the customs; and also as relates to the allowance for freight on wine staved, spilt, or otherwise destroyed, or on wine stranded; and as relates to the importation of copper ore, the produce of the British plantations; and also as regards the penalty imposed on persons resisting officers of the customs and excise in the due execution of their duty;—and also,

9 G. 1. c. 21.

332. So much of an act passed in the ninth year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for enabling H. M. to put the customs of G. B. under the management of one or more commissioners; and for the better securing and ascertaining the duties on tobacco; and to prevent frauds in exporting tobacco and other goods and merchandize, or carrying the same coastwise, as enacts, that if any tobacco or other foreign goods or merchandizes shall be taken on board any coasting vessel in parts beyond the seas, or out of any ship or vessel at sea, or at any other port or place of this kingdom, other than the port or place from whence such goods shall be certified, that the said goods and double the value thereof shall be forfeited, and the master of the coasting ship shall forfeit the value of the said tobacco or other goods;—and also,

11 G. 1. c. 30.

333. So much of an act passed in the 11th year of the reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing frauds and abuses in the public revenue; for preventing frauds in the salt duties, and for giving relief for salt used in the curing of salmon and cod fish, in the year 1719, exported from that part of G. B. called Scot.; for enabling the insurance companies to plead the general issue in actions brought against them; and for securing the stamp-duties upon policies of insurance, as enacts that no tea whatsoever shall be imported from any place whatsoever, other than the place of its growth; and also so much of the said act as forfeits run and prohibited goods for being harboured, kept, or concealed, and imposes a penalty of treble the value of the said goods upon the person or persons who shall harbour, keep, or conceal the same; and also as forfeits goods offered for sale as prohibited or run goods, and imposes a penalty upon the seller or buyer of such goods; and as to the proof required, upon trial of an information relating to H. M.'s customs or excise, of any person being an officer of the customs or excise;—and also,

STOCKS (See CHANCERY).

1. To regulate the performance of certain contracts, and to authorize the courts of chancery and exchequer to make orders in cases which may arise out of the conversion of certain annuities of 5 per cent. per ann. into annuities of 4 per cent. per ann., and for paying off such proprietors of 5 per cent. annuities as shall dissent from receiving 4 per cent. annuities in lieu thereof, 3 G.4. c.61.

2. Reciting the 3 G.4. c.9. for transferring the 5 per cents. into 4 per cents., and the 3 G.4. c.17. for the like purpose in Ire.; and whereas many persons may be bound by the conditions of bonds, or the terms of contracts or trusts, or as executors under wills executed, entered into, or made before the said acts were passed, to transfer specific amounts of 5 per cent. stock at periods posterior to the reduction of the 5 per cents., or to pay certain annuities out of dividends upon such 5 per cent. annuities, which such persons will be disabled from doing in consequence of such acts; and it is expedient to provide for the mode of executing such bonds, contracts, or wills: be it enacted, That in case any person shall, at the passing of this act [15th June 1822], be or remain bound by the condition of any bond or obligation, or by any instrument in writing, or by any agreement or contract entered into before the passing of the recited acts [viz. 15th March 1822, and 3rd April 1822], to transfer stock in the 5 per cent. annuities, the condition of every such bond, or the terms of every such instrument in writing, or agreement, or contract, shall be deemed in law and equity to be satisfied by making a transfer of 105l. capital stock in the new 4 per cent. annuities in lieu of every 100l. capital stock in the said 5 per cent. annuities, and so in proportion; and where any party is so bound or required to pay half-yearly sums equal to the dividends on any specified amount of 5 per cent. annuities, every such bond, instrument, agreement, or contract, shall be satisfied by the payment of half-yearly sums equal to the dividends upon an equivalent amount of the new 4 per cent. annuities calculated as aforesaid, 3 G.4. c.61. s.1.

3. Provided, that in every case in which any such 5 per cent. annuities shall have been transferred in the way of loan, upon any condition in any bond or instrument, or under or upon any agreement or contract, to replace the amount of stock transferred, it shall be lawful for the person who shall have made such loan, their executors, administrators, or assignees, to declare an option, and give notice thereof in writing, and thereby require the repayment of 100*l.* for every 100*l.* capital stock of 5 per cent. annuities, so transferred in the way of loan, and so in proportion for any greater or less amount; and every bond, obligation, instrument, agreement, or contract, given upon any such loan or contract, shall be deemed in every such case, in law and in equity, to entitle the person to such repayment in money, and to demand and recover the same in any court; any thing in any such bond, instrument, agreement, or contract, to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 2.

4. Every power of attorney, in force before 15th March 1822 in Eng., or 3d April 1822, Ire., for the sale or transfer of any such 5 per cent. annuities, in respect of which any dissent may have been signified shall remain in full force, unless legally revoked, for the purpose of enabling the attornies to give a legal discharge for the principal and dividend of such annuities when paid off, under 3 G. 4. c. 9 or 17., 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 3.

5. And all powers of attorney which would have remained in force if this act had not passed, for the receipt of dividends, or for sale or transfer of 5 per cent. annuities, and which have been or shall be converted into 4 per cent. annuities, shall remain in full force, for receiving the dividends which shall become due on the 4 per cent. annuities created in lieu thereof, or for selling or transferring any such 4 per cent. annuities, and also for receiving dividends on any further sum of 4 per cent. annuities, which the parties by whom such letters of attorney were given may hereafter purchase, until such powers are revoked, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 4.

6. All such 5 per cent. annuities, in respect of which any dissent shall have been signified which shall in consequence be paid off, shall, immediately upon such payment being made, and a discharge given for the same, be cancelled at the banks of Eng. or Ire. respectively; and a certificate of the amount so cancelled shall be transmitted to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 5.

7. All trusts, whether created by will or otherwise, and which existed either in the whole or in part, and all directions contained in any will or devise, or testamentary paper which remained unexecuted on 15th March 1822 in Eng., or 3d April 1822 in Ire., as to any 5 per cent. annuities which have been converted into 4 per cent. annuities, or as to the payment or distribution of any dividends thereon, or as to the transfer of any such annuities, in any events specified in any such trusts, or will, or testamentary paper, shall extend in all cases, and in all courts of law and equity in any of H. M.'s dominions, to all such 4 per cent. annuities created in lieu of any 5 per cent. annuities subject to or affected by any such trusts or devises: provided that in all cases in which any proportions of any such 5 per cent. annuities are required to be transferred, under any such trusts or will, or any proportion of any dividends arising from any such 5 per cent. annuities are required to be paid or distributed, the transfer of a like proportion of 4 per cent. annuities, calculated in the proportion of 105*l.* 4 per cent. annuities for every 100*l.* 5 per cent. annuities, and the payment of like proportion of dividends at the rate of 4 per cent. instead of 5 per cent. upon the capital so calculated, shall be deemed in all courts and for all purposes, to be a due execution of such trusts, or of the directions contained in any will, and shall fully discharge the trustee or executor who are hereby indemnified therefore, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 6.

8. In every case in which any question may have arisen or may arise, upon the execution of any trusts, or upon any distributions which may have been or may be made, or may remain to be made, by any trustees, executors, or administrators, of or in relation to, or arising out of any such 5 per cent. annuities, which may have been vested in any trustees, or distributable by any executors or administrators, or as to the application of any residue thereof, or as to the distribution of any 4 per cent. annuities transferred under the said acts in lieu of any 5 per cent. annuities, whether as to the powers or authorities of any such trustees, executors, or administrators, or as to the relative interest of any persons entitled under any such trusts or under wills to receive any annuities charged upon, or arising, or payable out of the proceeds of any such 5 per cent. annuities, and of any person interested in any residue of any such 5 per cent. annuities, whether under any specific provision relating to any such trusts, or contained in any wills, or arising out of the execution of any wills by any executors, or the distribution of any estate by any administrators: and in all other cases whatever in which any question may arise in consequence of the transfer of any such 5 per cent. annuities into 4 per cent. annuities, it shall be lawful for any such trustees, executors, or administrators, and for any persons entitled to or interested in any such 5 per cent. annuities, or any 4 per cent. annuities created in lieu thereof, or in any proceeds of any such annuities, whether in reversion or otherwise, to make application to the high courts of chancery, or to the courts of exchequer in Eng. or Ire. respectively, or to the court of session in Scot., in a summary way, either by motion or petition; and it shall be lawful for the said courts to make general orders in relation to any such question, or special orders in a summary way upon any such application, or as to any other matter or thing relating to any such annuities, or to any dividends thereof, or to any 4 per cent. annuities which may be created in lieu thereof, or to the application of any such 4 per cent. annuities, or any dividends thereof; and no application, petition, or affidavit, made by or on behalf of any trustees, executors, or administrators, or other persons interested in any such annuities, or any dividends thereof respectively, nor any order or report made, or other proceeding had in any of the said courts in consequence of any question which may arise out of the said acts in relation to the said 5 per cent. annuities, or any part or share thereof, or in relation to any 4 per cent. annuities which may be created under the said act in lieu of the said 5 per cent. annuities, or the dividends thereof; nor any copy or copies of such application, petition, affidavit, order, report, or other proceeding, shall be liable to be stamped; and all justices, executors, administrators, and other persons acting under any orders made by any of such courts, or whose acts shall be confirmed by such courts, if done before any application made to any of such courts shall be indemnified against all actions, suits, or proceedings, for or in respect of any act, matter, or thing done by them in pursuance of such order, or which shall be confirmed by any such order; and in case any action, &c. is commenced against any such trustee, executor, &c. for any act, &c., it shall be lawful for the courts where such action, &c. is commenced, or pending, on summary application to stay, and such court shall stay such action, &c. and make such order relative to the costs thereof as such court thinks expedient, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 7.

9. It shall be lawful for the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, to accept and receive new 4 per cent. annuities, created by 3 G. 4. c. 9., as the consideration for the purchase of life annuities; and for the purpose of ascertaining the price of such stock, the cashiers of the bank of Eng. shall, on every day on which any of the said annuities shall have been bought at the bank of Eng., cause an account to be made out of the average price thereof according to the regulations prescribed by any acts in force for ascertaining the average price of 3 per cent. bank annuities, for enabling the purchase of life annuities; which said account shall be transmitted to the officer appointed by the commissioners, to enable him to ascertain the amounts of the like annuities which may be purchased by the transfer of such new 4 per cent. bank annuities, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 8.

10. When any new 4 per cent. bank annuities shall be transferred to the said commissioners, for the purchase of life annuities, such 4 per cent. bank annuities shall be first converted, by the computation of the said officer, into 3 per cent. reduced or consolidated bank annuities (at the option of the purchaser) according to the average price of those stocks; and the life annuities to be granted thereon shall be calculated upon the amount of 3 per cent. bank annuities, including fractions (if any), produced by such conversion, according to regulations prescribed by any acts now in force, enabling such commissioners to grant life annuities, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 9.

11. It shall be lawful for the commissioners of the treasury, out of any of the aids which have been or which may hereafter be granted by parliament, to issue to the bank of Eng. or Ire., such sums as may be necessary for paying off any proprietors who may dissent from accepting 4 per cent. in lieu of 5 per cent. annuities, and also for paying the proportion of the dividend which may have accrued on the said 5 per cent. annuities, up to the day or days which may be appointed by the commissioners of the treasury for paying off such proprietor, and which shall in no case be less than 10 days from the day of signifying such dissent, 3 G. 4. c. 61. s. 10.

12. To permit the mutual transfer of capital in certain public stocks or funds transferrable at the banks of Eng. and Ire. respectively, 5 G. 4. c. 53. [The title of this act seems to suffice in this place as showing its existence.]

SWEARING.

1. To amend an act passed in the 19th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act more effectually to prevent profane cursing and swearing, 4 G. 4. c. 31.

2. Whereas 19 G. 2. c. 21. s. 13. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 14.] was passed, whereby it is enacted as therein mentioned, and whereas it is expedient to repeal the same: be it enacted, That so much of the said statute as is herein-before recited, shall be repealed, (4 G. 4. c. 31. s. 1.) PUBLIC CLAUSE, 4 G. 4. c. 31. s. 2.

TAXES, ASSESSED.

I. Officers.—II. Duties.—III. Compounding.

I. Officers.

1. To amend the laws relating to the land and assessed taxes, and to regulate the appointment of receivers-general in Eng. and Wa., 3 G. 4. c. 88., [AMD. as to allowance to clerks, &c. 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 1. See 6 G. 4. c. 32. s. 6. tit. LAND-TAX, pl. 13.]

2. Whereas it is expedient to amend the laws relating to the land-tax and assessed taxes, and compositions for assessed taxes, so far as respects the receipt and payment of the monies arising therefrom by the receivers-general in Eng. and Wa.; be it therefore enacted, That so much and such parts of the several acts relating to the said taxes, and compositions for assessed taxes, or either of them, which allow a compensation to each receiver-general in Eng. and Wa. by a pound rate on the sums by him respectively paid into the receipt of H. M.'s exchequer, or which require the said receivers-general to appoint sufficient deputies to receive the said taxes, shall, from and after the 5th April 1822, in respect of the assessments of the said taxes, and the contracts of compositions thereafter made, be and the same are hereby repealed, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 1.

3. Every person who, after the 5th April 1822, shall be appointed by H. M., or by the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. for the time being, or any three or more of them, to be receiver-general of the said taxes, or either or any of them, and any other taxes or sums of money under the care and management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes; and every other person to be appointed by the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, to do or perform any part of the duty of any such receiver-general; and the several officers appointed or to be appointed by the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, now or for the time being, or any three or more of them, for the survey and inspection of any of the said taxes; and all other persons appointed or to be appointed by the respective commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts, in the several counties, divisions, cities, towns, parishes, wards, and places within Eng. or Wa., shall severally and respectively observe and be subject to the rules and regulations set forth in this act, and the penalties therein contained; which rules and regulations shall be deemed a part of this act, as if the same had been severally inserted herein under special enactment, 3 G. 4. c. 88.

No. I.—RULES and regulations touching the office of receiver-general.

First.—Every receiver-general to be appointed as aforesaid shall be entitled to such annual salary, payable half-yearly by equal portions, as the said commissioners of the treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall appoint, not in any case exceeding the sum of 600*l.* per ann., to be allowed to him out of any monies in his hands of the said taxes, by virtue of the warrant of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes for the time being, or any two or more of them.

Second.—Every receiver-general to be appointed as aforesaid shall be, on his first appointment, charged with the stamp-duty payable by law on the bond to be given in such case, and every renewed or succeeding appointment of the same person shall be free of stamp-duty; but such receiver-general shall not be required to renew his bond under each or any new or succeeding appointment, except in the case of any change in his security, or under circumstances that may render any such renewed bond necessary, under the directions of the said commissioners of the treasury, which renewed bonds shall also be free of stamp-duty; and such receiver-general shall not in any case be liable to or charged with any fee or gratuity on his commission, warrant, or other instrument to be obtained or had, either on his first appointment or on any renewed or succeeding appointment to the said office, nor to any fee or gratuity for any matter or thing incident to the execution of his office, or for auditing or passing his accounts either in H. M.'s treasury, the office for taxes, or in any office of the court or receipt of exchequer.

Third.—Every receiver-general to be appointed as aforesaid shall execute the duties of the said office in person, without any deputy or deputies, unless he shall be required or authorized, in cases of illness or other temporary or sufficient cause, to appoint a deputy or deputies with the approbation of the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes.

Fourth.—Every receiver-general to be appointed as aforesaid shall attend at such places, and observe such route in proceeding from place to place, for the receipt of the said taxes from the several collectors of the parishes, wards, or places within the limits assigned to him, and at such times, and from time to time, as shall be settled with him, and approved by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes: provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three or more of them, to allow every such receiver-general an allowance not exceeding 2*s.* per mile, and one guinea per day, for his travelling expences, when absent from home upon his quarterly or half-yearly receipt; and also a like allowance if travelling upon an extraordinary occasion, by the direction of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes: provided also, that whenever the said commissioners of the treasury shall require any receiver-general to keep open an office daily or weekly, or on two or more days in each week, except Sundays and Christmas Day, for the receipt of the taxes of his district or any part thereof, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners of the treasury to assign an additional salary and allowance for the expences incident to his said office, over and above the salary and allowance herein limited, to be paid out of the said taxes, in manner herein-before directed: provided always, that an account of the salaries, allowances, or other emoluments, in any manner accruing to the several receivers-general of the taxes under this act, shall be annually laid before both houses of parliament within 20 days after the meeting thereof.

Fifth.—It shall be lawful for the said commissioners of the treasury to contract, or to authorize the said commissioners for the affairs of taxes to contract with any receiver-general, or any other person or persons, to remit the taxes collected and received, and paid to the receiver-general, or his deputy, authorized as aforesaid, to be by such person or persons paid, or caused to be paid, into the receipt of H. M.'s exchequer at Westminster, at such time or times, and in such manner as shall be specified in such contract; and also to contract in like manner with the same or any other person or persons, to receive from the collectors residing within the limits specified in their respective contracts, all such taxes as shall remain in the hands of any collector or collectors, or shall have been collected by him or them since the last circuit of receipt of the receiver-general, or his deputy, or to be collected by any collector or collectors aforesaid, at any time or times in the same or succeeding quarter of the year after the last half-yearly circuit of receipt, by any receiver-general or his deputy, upon such terms and conditions as shall be specified in such contracts respectively, of which contract or contracts the respective commissioners shall have notice, and from time to time shall make such order or orders for the payment of the monies from time to time collected or received by the respective collectors aforesaid, as by this act is directed.

Sixth.—It shall be lawful for every receiver-general who shall not contract to remit the taxes by him received into the receipt of H. M.'s exchequer, under the regulations prescribed by the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, to pay over the same to such person or persons as shall be authorized as aforesaid to pay the same into the said receipt of exchequer, and who shall attend such receiver-general for that purpose; and the receipt of such authorized person or persons, in duplicate, shall be a full discharge and acquittance to such receiver-general; and the first of every receipt in duplicate so given shall be transmitted to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes; and the second of every such receipt shall remain with the said receiver-general as his voucher in passing his accounts; and every such receipt shall be free of stamp-duty.

Seventh.—Whenever any receiver-general shall be required to keep open daily or weekly (except as before excepted) an office for the receipt of taxes within his district, it shall be lawful for such receiver-general, and he is hereby required, to fix the day or days for receiving the same from each collector whose place of residence shall be within 10 miles of the said office, according to such course, order, and rotation as shall be approved by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, or any three or more of them; according to which rotation every such collector shall attend to make his payment, so that each such collector may attend four or a less number of days in each quarter of a year, or quarterly, as the commissioners of the district shall think expedient, and shall certify to the commissioners for the affairs of taxes according to the said course, order, and rotation; of which day or days of payment due notice shall be given to the respective commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and this act; and where the residence of any collector or collectors within the district of any such receiver-general mentioned in this rule shall not be within the distance before mentioned, the receipts of the monies from time to time collected by them shall be held by the deputy of such receiver-general, in the manner prescribed in this act in regard to other districts.

Eighth.—All bonds, contracts, and securities to be entered into with or taken from the receivers-general to be appointed, or with or from any other person or persons to be appointed under this act, and their respective sureties, to remit the monies arising by the taxes granted by the said acts, or any of them, or any other duties or sums of money under the management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, shall be to H. M., his heirs and successors, and entered into with and taken by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, and shall be filed and kept in the office of the said commissioners; and no such bond, contract, or security shall be entered or filed at any of the offices in the court of exchequer, unless and until it shall be necessary to be made matter of record for the purpose of suing process at law in the said court of exchequer at Westminster, for the recovery of any penalty forfeited thereon, or any debt or duty owing thereon, or against the person and effects of the parties bound thereby, their heirs, executors, or administrators respectively; in which cases the commissioners for the affairs of taxes shall cause the same to be delivered into the office of the King's remembrancer of the said court; and such delivery shall be deemed and be as valid and effectual as if the bonds, contracts, and securities had been taken in one of the said offices, according to the course or practice of the said court heretofore used, to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and shall be applied and made use of in such and the like manner, in any suit, action, or process of law on the said bonds, contracts, or securities, as if the same had been from the caption thereof respectively filed in the said court.

No. II. — RULES and regulations respecting the said office, in relation to assessed taxes.

First.—Every receiver-general to be appointed as aforesaid, and his deputy or deputies, except as after mentioned, authorized under this act, shall and is hereby respectively empowered and authorized, at the respective times appointed by the said acts and this act for the delivery of schedules of defaulters, to administer an oath to every such collector (or being a person called a Quaker, a solemn affirmation,) that he or they hath or have fully paid all the sums by him or them collected or received of or for the assessed taxes, and hath or have fully accounted for all sums not collected or received, in the schedule or schedules then delivered, and shall true answer make to all such questions as shall be demanded of him; and it shall be lawful for every receiver-general, or his deputy or deputies, authorized under this act, at the time of delivering such schedule or schedules, to examine each collector on any matters touching the sums collected, and the sums in arrear, and the substance of the answer or answers which any collector shall give on such examination, shall in his presence be reduced into writing, and read to him, with liberty to alter and amend the same in any particular; and every such collector shall write or sign his assent to the same, in his own hand-writing or sign, and in his usual manner of writing or signing the same.

Second.—Every collector residing within 10 miles of an office for the daily or weekly receipt of the said taxes, to be established pursuant to this act, shall, once in every intervening quarter of a year, when required by the receiver-general of the district where such office shall be, account with the said receiver-general, and on his oath or affirmation, be examined by such receiver-general, in the manner directed by the preceding rule, unless the accounts of the monies of the said taxes respectively received by such collector shall have been previously examined by the commissioners of the district, and the amount to be then paid to the receiver-general shall have been certified under their hands, and the certificate thereof delivered to the said receiver-general, as directed by this act.

Third.—It shall be lawful for every such receiver-general, or his authorized deputy, as aforesaid, whenever he shall see occasion, to report to the commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and this act, in any matter or thing touching the conduct of any collector or collectors aforesaid; and in every case where there shall be a failure of assessing or charging the duties in any parish, ward, or place, parishes, wards, or places, or of raising or paying the several sums respectively charged on any person or persons chargeable in such parish, ward, or place, parishes, wards, or places, or in the making out or returning any duplicates of assessments by their clerk, or of doing any other act required by the acts relating to the said taxes, or by this act to be done by such clerk, stating therein the particulars of his complaint against such collector or collectors, or other person or persons acting as aforesaid, and what in his opinion ought to be done therein; and whenever any receiver-general, or his authorized deputy, shall have reported to the commissioners acting for any parish, city, town, or place, or any ward or other division, any matter or thing which in the opinion of such receiver-general, or his authorized deputy aforesaid, shall require the particular consideration of the said commissioners, it shall be lawful for them, and they are hereby required to summon a meeting within a reasonable time after such report; of which meeting the receiver-general, or his authorized deputy aforesaid, shall have notice, and may and shall attend thereat, and assist in the consideration of the measures necessary and expedient to be taken in the execution of the said acts and this act.

No. III. — RULES and regulations respecting the office of collector of assessed taxes.

First.—At each quarterly or half-yearly receipt of any receiver-general as herein mentioned, to be held next after the 10th day of Oct. and the 5th day of April in each year, pursuant to the directions of this act, all and every the collectors and collector of the assessed taxes, or the monies arising by compositions for assessed taxes, within the jurisdiction of such receiver-general, shall bring with him and produce to the receiver-general, or his deputy, the duplicate or duplicates of assessment, showing the respective sums by them or him collected and received duly written off in the said duplicate or duplicates, or instead thereof, a certificate signed by two or more of the commissioners of the district, stating the several sums collected and received, and the sums to be paid to the receiver-general or his deputy at the ensuing receipt, together with a full and true account, in writing, signed by such collectors or collector, in their or his usual manner of writing or signing their or his christian and surnames or name, of all sums of money by them or him collected for that year of assessment, and on his oath or solemn affirmation aforesaid, true answer make to all such lawful questions as the said receiver-general or his deputy shall there demand of them or him touching the assessed taxes; and if any collector of the assessed taxes shall at any such half-yearly receipt neglect or refuse to bring with him and produce such duplicate or duplicates of assessment, showing the respective sums collected or received in manner aforesaid, or instead thereof a certificate, signed by the commissioners of the district aforesaid, together with an account in writing, signed by such collector in manner before directed, or shall refuse to take the oath or affirmation aforesaid, or to answer any lawful question or questions demanded of him by such receiver-general, or deputy authorized as aforesaid, or shall declare, in any answer by him made, any matter or thing which shall be false, every such collector shall forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, to be sued for and recovered as any penalty may be sued for or recovered under the acts relating to the said taxes or any of them, together with all costs and charges attending the recovery thereof.

Second.—Whenever any sum or sums of the monies collected and received under the authority of the said acts shall be detained in the hands of any collector or collectors, and shall not be duly accounted for to the receiver-general or his deputy at the receipt to be holden next after the same shall have been collected or received by him or them; and whenever any sum or sums of the arrears of taxes and monies so collected or received shall be ordered to be paid by the respective commissioners of the district acting in the execution of this act, and shall not be paid on the day so ordered, every such collector shall forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, and a further penalty at the rate of 5*l.* per cent. per ann. for the whole sum by him detained; and the amount of the said penalties shall be used for and recovered in the manner herein-before directed, with all costs and charges.

Third.—If any collector of the said taxes shall from and after the passing of this act, advance or lend to any person or persons any of the monies so by him collected or received, or if any such collector shall pay or apply any monies, or any part of the said monies, to his own use or purpose, or shall deposit or deliver over the same to any other person or persons, so that the full sums or any part thereof to be raised under the said acts, according to the tenor and effect thereof, shall be withheld and not be paid to the receiver-general at the times on which the same ought to be paid according to this act, every such collector shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, with all costs and charges, to be recovered in manner last aforesaid.

Fourth.—All schedules of defaulters to be delivered after the passing of this act, by any collector or collectors of the said taxes, and composition monies, or any of them, shall be delivered to the several receivers-general, or their authorized deputies, on their receipt, after the 10th Oct. and the 5th April, yearly; and at the time of such collector or collectors attending the receiver-general with an affidavit subscribed on the oath or affirmation of the collector or collectors in the manner directed by the said acts, and which oath or affirmation the said receivers-general, or their respective authorized deputies are hereby respectively authorized to administer and subscribe; and any collector neglecting to deliver any such schedule, duly verified as aforesaid, to such receiver-general or his deputy at the time, and on his receipt as aforesaid, shall be subject to the like process as is provided for neglecting to deliver schedules under the said acts relating to the assessed taxes, and all such schedules respectively shall be delivered by such receiver-general or his deputy, to the respective commissioners, to remain in their hands during the same time as is allowed by the said acts relating to assessed taxes.

Fifth.—Every bond or other security to be given after the passing of this act by the collector or collectors of the land-tax, to the respective commissioners acting in the execution of the act relating to the said tax, shall be free of any stamp-duty whatever.

Sixth.—Every collector shall receive from the receiver-general the poundage allowed to him under the said recited acts, unless the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury shall direct all or any portion of such poundage to be discontinued, and which the said commissioners are hereby authorized to do from time to time, and in such manner as shall appear to them expedient for the better execution of the provisions of this act.

No. IV.—RULES and regulations respecting the offices of other persons acting in the execution of the said acts.

First.—It shall be lawful for the several commissioners acting in the execution of the said recited acts and of this act, in their respective divisions, and they are hereby required, whenever they shall have received notice, as directed by this act, of any receipt to be holden by the receiver-general of the monies collected and received within the limits of the district of the said commissioners respectively, and on or immediately before the day or days of receipt to be so holden, to call before them the respective collectors appointed for each parish or place, and to examine him or them upon solemn oath or affirmation, and assure themselves of all and every of the sum or sums of money, and arrears of the said duties and compositions respectively, that shall have been collected, or remain to be collected, and which shall be payable to the said receiver-general or his deputy, or such other person or persons as shall be authorized to receive the same under this act, at such ensuing receipt, and to make such order therein for the payment of the same to the receiver-general or his deputy, or other person or persons aforesaid, as they shall judge necessary; and the said commissioners shall thereupon cause to be delivered to every such collector a certificate of the sum to be so paid to the said receiver-general or his deputy, or other person or persons aforesaid, together with their order for the payment of such sum or sums as aforesaid, under the hands of the said commissioners, or any two of them, and which certificate shall be delivered by every such collector to the receiver-general or his deputy, or other person or persons aforesaid, at the time of his attending to make such payment of the monies by him collected and received; and the said commissioners shall enter every such certificate and order in a book, to be by them provided for that purpose; and it shall be lawful for the inspector and surveyor acting for the district of the said commissioners, at all convenient times to inspect the said book, and take such extracts therefrom as shall be required by the said commissioners for the affairs of taxes.

Second.—Whenever the respective commissioners shall have signed and allowed any assessment of assessed taxes, and the days to be appointed for hearing appeals therefrom shall have elapsed, the clerk to the said commissioners shall cause to be numbered the pages in each book of assessment, and the sums assessed in each page to be duly cast up; and they shall forthwith, and before the next ensuing receipt for the said taxes, transmit to the receiver-general of the district or his deputy, the total amount of the sum to be paid to such receiver-general by and for each parish, ward, or place in the respective districts, together with the names of the collectors appointed to collect and receive the same.

4. If any collector of the said duties and sums of money aforesaid, or any of them, shall neglect or refuse to pay any sum of money which shall be by him received as aforesaid, as in and by the said several acts or by this act is directed, and shall detain in his hands any money received by him, and not pay or account for the same in manner directed by the said acts or this act, the commissioners acting in the execution of the acts relating to the said duties, or any two or more of them, in their respective districts, are hereby authorized and empowered to imprison the person, and seize and secure the estate, as well freehold as copyhold, and all other estate, both real and personal, of such collector, to him belonging, or which shall have descended or come into the hands or possession of his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, wheresoever the same can be discovered and found; and the said commissioners who shall so seize and secure the estate of any collector, or any two or more of the commissioners acting as aforesaid in the same district, shall and are hereby empowered to appoint a time for a meeting of the commissioners for such division, city, town or place, and then to cause public notice to be given of the place where such meeting shall be appointed, 10 days at least before such meeting; and the commissioners of such division, city, town, or place, present at such meeting, or the major part of them, in case the accounts of such collector be not duly delivered, or the monies detained by any such collector or collectors be not paid or satisfied, as ought to be done according to the directions of the said acts or of this act, shall be and are hereby empowered and required to sell and dispose of all such estates which shall be, for the cause aforesaid, seized and secured, or any part of them, to satisfy and pay into the hands of the receiver-general the sum that shall not be so accounted for, or shall be so detained in the hands of such collector, his heirs, executors, or administrators respectively, together with the reasonable costs and charges of recovering, raising, and paying the same, which costs and charges shall be ascertained and settled by the said commissioners, and the overplus (if any) shall be restored to the collector or person entitled thereto, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 3.

5. Any two or more of the commissioners acting for the division in which the estate and effects of such collector shall be seized and secured as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby authorized and required to make conveyance of all such freehold and copyhold estates respectively; and in like manner to assign the leasehold and other personal estate of such collector, and all his right, title, and interest therein at the time of such seizure, or at the time of the death of any collector so dying in default as aforesaid, to the respective purchasers thereof respectively, by deed indented between any two or more of the said commissioners; and such sales and purchases respectively shall be as effectual and valid, to all intents and purposes, against such collector, his heirs, executors, and administrators, and all persons claiming under such collector, in like manner as the sale of bankrupts' estates of the like nature, under and by virtue of the statute relating to bankrupts, or any of them, may be made by deed indented or enrolled, or by deed of assignment, according to the several natures of such last-mentioned estates: provided, that such person to whom any such sale of copyhold lands shall be made, shall in like manner as the purchaser of the copyhold estates of bankrupts, before such time as he shall enter or take any profit of the said lands or tenements, agree and compound with the lords of the manors of whom the same shall be holden, for such fines or incomes as heretofore hath been most usual and accustomed to be yielded or paid therefore; and that upon every such agreement or composition, the said lords for the time being, at the next court to be holden at or for the said manors, shall not only grant to the said vendee upon request, the same copyhold or customary lands or tenements by copy of court-roll of the same manors, for such estate or interest as to them shall be so sold, and reserving the ancient rents, customs, and services, but also in the same court admit them tenants of the same copyhold or customary lands, as other copyholders of the same manors have been wont to be admitted, and to receive their fealty, suit, or service, according to the custom of the court of such manor, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 4.

6. The several and respective persons who for the time being shall be commissioners for putting in execution the acts relating to assessed taxes and to the land-tax respectively, shall be commissioners for putting in execution this act, and the powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective counties, ridings, divisions, shires, and stewartries, cities, boroughs, cinque ports, towns, and places in G. B.; and the several collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general for the time being, appointed or to be appointed to put into execution the said acts, shall respectively be collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general, to put in execution this act, within the limits of their respective divisions, districts, and places, to which they are or shall be appointed; and the said commissioners and others before-mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all things necessary for putting this act in execution, in the like and in as full and ample a manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in execution the said acts, and all and every the powers and authorities, methods, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, matters and things, contained in any of the said acts (except where such provisions are varied, or other provisions are substituted by this act), shall, in collecting, levying, and accounting for the said duties and monies respectively, be severally and respectively duly observed, practised, and put in execution throughout G. B., in relation to all and every the duties and monies aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes, as if the same powers, authorities, methods, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, matters, and things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the body of this act, and applied to all and every such duties and monies aforesaid, as part of the provisions of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 5.

7. From and after the 25th March 1822, every appointment of clerk to the commissioners for executing the acts relating to the land-tax, shall be made for the term and under the rules and regulations for the appointment, continuance, and removal of a clerk to the commissioners for executing the acts relating to the assessed taxes, as is provided by 43 G. 3. c. 99. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 2.], intituled, An Act for consolidating certain of the provisions contained in any act or acts relating to the duties under the management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, and for amending the same, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 6.

8. And whereas the delay of enrolling and passing declared accounts of receivers-general of the land and assessed taxes through the different offices in the court of exchequer, previous to the issuing the quietus thereon, is attended with great inconvenience to such receivers-general, and to their securities, in obtaining the cancellation of their bonds to H. M. from time to time, as they become satisfied, for the year or years on which such declared accounts are balanced in the office of the auditor or auditors of the land revenue, in the usual course of passing such accounts; be it further enacted, That from and after the passing this act [29th July 1822], in every case where any account of a receiver-general of land or assessed taxes, to which any bond now or hereafter to be entered into to H. M., filed of record in the court of exchequer, or to be taken by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes under the provisions of this act, shall relate, has been or shall be stated and passed in the office of the said auditors, or their deputy, and have been or shall be declared before a baron of the court of exchequer, and no balance shall appear to remain due on such account from any such receiver-general, the said auditors or their deputy shall, as soon as conveniently may be after such declaration, cause a certificate thereof to be made out, and signed by them or him, and the total amount of the sums forming the charge and discharge parts of the said account, with the words "even and quit," shall be inserted in such certificate, and delivered to the said receiver-general; and every such certificate so made out and signed as aforesaid, and delivered into or lodged by the said receiver-general in the office of the King's remembrancer in the court of exchequer, or in the office of the said commissioners, shall be a sufficient authority to the officers of the said court and to the said commissioners having the custody of the bond of the said receiver-general for the year to which the said certificate shall relate, to deliver up such bond to the said receiver-general, or to his authorized agent in that behalf, a receipt for such bond being endorsed on such certificate, and signed by the party receiving the same, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 7.

9. And whereas it is expedient, in the several counties in Eng. and Wa., where two or more persons execute the said office of receiver-general, to abolish one of such offices; be it further enacted, That upon the death, resignation, or removal of any one of the receivers-general whose names are set forth in the schedule to this act annexed, marked with the letter A, the office of such receiver-general shall be discontinued, and it shall be lawful for the said commissioners of the treasury to consolidate the said vacant office with the office of the receiver or receivers of the rest of the county, or to add the same or any part or parts thereof to any adjoining district or districts of receipt, as the said commissioners of the treasury shall think most beneficial to the collection of the said taxes, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 8.

10. From and after the passing of this act [29th July 1822], one part only of the accounts of every receiver-general to be hereafter passed, shall be made up and transcribed in the offices of the auditors of the said accounts, for the purpose of being presented for declaration before a baron of H. M.'s court of exchequer, and which accounts shall be written on paper in the English language in common characters, and the several sums of money expressed therein shall be written and described in common numerals or figures; and every such account, after the same shall have been declared before a baron of the said court according to the usage thereof, shall be transmitted to the office of H. M.'s remembrancer of the said court, and shall there be enrolled, as of record, in like manner in all respects as the part of any account transcribed on parchment hath heretofore been enrolled; and which enrolment herein directed shall be as valid and effectual for enabling the proceedings for the recovery of any balance and interest due or to become due thereon, and for all other purposes whatsoever in anywise concerning or relating to such accounts, as if the same had been also recorded in the offices of the lord treasurer's remembrancer and of the clerk of the pipe, according to the course of the exchequer before the passing of this act: provided nevertheless, and all and every the provisions contained in 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 121. [Stat. Dig. tit. ACCOUNTS PUBLIC, pl. 1.] intituled, An Act to alter and abolish certain forms of proceedings in the exchequer and audit office, relative to public accounts, and for making further provisions for the purpose of facilitating and expediting the passing of public accounts in G. B., and to render perpetual and amend an act passed in the 54th year of His late Majesty for the effectual examination of the accounts of certain colonial revenues, so far as the same relate to the record and enrolment of any of the said accounts in the offices of the lord treasurer's remembrancer and of the clerk of the pipe respectively, in cases where such enrolments or records may be found necessary for the purposes in the said acts mentioned; and also so far as the provisions of the said acts relate to allowing compensation to the persons now holding the said offices of the lord treasurer's remembrancer and clerk of the pipe, for loss of fees or proportions of fees, in respect of enrolments of the receivers' accounts in the said last-mentioned offices, and of the effect of such enrolments; and also in respect of compensation to the said officers, and to the King's remembrancer and other officers of the court of exchequer, for loss of fees or proportions of fees which they shall respectively sustain under the provisions of this act, shall and may be severally observed, practised, and followed, and applied to the provisions of this act and in the execution thereof, to all intents as if the said several provisions of the said last mentioned act had been re-enacted and incorporated in the body of this act, and particularly applied to the provisions of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 9.

11. And whereas by the said acts relating to the land and assessed taxes respectively, the receivers-general of the said duties and their agents or servants are required to travel together, three in company at the least, on their respective receipts, and for the purposes in the said acts mentioned; be it further enacted, That no receiver-general, or his authorized deputy, to be appointed under the provisions of this act, shall be required to travel in company with more than one person on each receipt respectively; and such receiver-general or his authorized deputy so travelling as last aforesaid, shall have the same remedies and advantages in his protection on his said receipt, to all intents, as if he had travelled in company with two or more persons, in the manner directed by the said acts; any thing in the said recited acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 88. s. 10.

12. And whereas, by reason of the repeal and reduction of the said duties of assessed taxes respectively, the compensation by poundage directed by the said acts on the amount of the assessments of the remaining duties to persons acting as clerks to the said commissioners of certain districts, may in particular cases be inadequate to enable such clerks to defray the expences incurred by them in the execution of their duty under the said acts: be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the treasury to order and direct the allowance and discharge of such actual expences or any part thereof as shall be necessarily incurred by any such clerk in the due execution of the said acts, where such allowances shall appear to the treasury reasonable and proper to be made over and above the allowance by poundage made to any such clerk for the particular year of assessment to which such expences shall under the authority of the said acts, and the certificate of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, or any three or more of them, shall be an authority to the receivers-general respectively to pay such further allowance, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 11.

13. Allowances to receivers-general repealed, and new ones given, 3 G. 4. c. 88. [See RECEIVERS.]

II. Duties.

14. For exempting farmers occasionally riding a horse used commonly for husbandry purposes from the duties on riding horses, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 4 and 5. [This title is framed from the preamble to s. 4. See further, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 8. post, pl. 41.]

15. And whereas by 56 G. 3. c. 66. [Stat. Dig. tit. TAXES (Assessed), pl. 200.] intituled, An Act for reducing the duties payable on horses used for the purposes therein mentioned, for two years, and for repealing the acts granting allowances in respect of children, relief was granted to the occupiers of farms at less than 200*l. per ann.*, from the former duties on horses used for the purpose of husbandry, and in lieu of which duties certain reduced duties were substituted for the period therein limited; and it was therein provided, that any person chargeable to the said reduced duties, should, during the continuance of the said act, be exempted from the duties payable under the said several acts in respect of one such horse, mare, or gelding, used occasionally for the purposes of riding thereon; and whereas the provisions of the said act were extended by subsequent acts, and by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 110. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 209.] intituled, An Act for repealing the duties imposed on husbandry horses, and to make perpetual several acts for reducing the duties on certain horses and mules, the duties on husbandry horses granted by the said former acts were wholly repealed, but the said exemption was not extended beyond the period of continuance of the said reduced duties: And whereas it is expedient to continue the said exemption for the same term mentioned in the said act for the continuance of the said reduced duties; be it further enacted, That from and after the 5th April 1822, for the term of five years then next following, any person occupying a farm as tenant at rack-rent, the rent of which shall be less than 200*l. a year*, and making a livelihood solely thereby, or any person occupying any estate on any other tenure than as tenant at rack-rent solely on such estate, together with a farm at rack-rent, the value of which in the whole shall be less than equivalent to a farm at the rack-rent of 200*l. a year*, (reckoning the value of every estate occupied by the owner thereof, or on any tenure other than as tenant at rack-rent, as equivalent to double the amount of the like farm at rack-rent), and making a livelihood solely by such his own estate, or by such estate and farm jointly, shall be exempt from the duty payable under the said acts, for one horse, mare, or gelding bonâ fide kept and usually employed for the purpose of husbandry on his said estate or farm, although used occasionally for the purpose of riding, such being claimed and allowed in like manner as is directed by the acts relating to assessed taxes in other cases of exemption from the said duty, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 4. [See 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 8. post, pl. 41.]

16. From and after the said 5th of April 1822, any persons occupying a farm of less value than 200*l. per ann.*, in the cases of exemptions last herein-before described, and making a livelihood solely thereby, and from the profits of letting and use herein-after mentioned, shall be exempt from the duty chargeable by the said recited acts in respect of any horses, mares, or geldings bonâ fide kept for the occupation of his, her, or their farm, although any such horses, mares, or geldings shall be occasionally let to hire, or used in drawing for hire or profit by such person or persons for any other purpose than of drawing any carriage chargeable with duty in respect of such horses or carriages, or of letting the same to hire, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 5.

17. For repealing certain of the duties of assessed taxes; for reducing certain other of the said duties; and for relieving persons who have compounded for the same, 4 G. 4. c. 11. [AMD. 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 10. 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 4—8.]

18. Whereas by 48 G. 3. c. 55., intituled, An Act for repealing the duties of assessed taxes, and granting new duties in lieu thereof, and certain additional duties to be consolidated therewith; and also for repealing the stamp-duties on game certificates, and granting new duties in lieu thereof, to be placed under the management of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, certain duties were granted to H. M. upon houses, windows, and lights, as set forth in the schedule to the said act annexed, marked (A.) [Stat. Dig. this tit. pp. 1498, 1499]: and whereas a duty of 6*s.* was also granted to H. M. by the said act, as set forth in the schedule thereto annexed, marked (C.) No. 2, in respect of gardeners, or persons employed to work in any garden under any person chargeable to the duties, mentioned in the schedule to the said act marked (C.) No. 1, and for every gardener employed in any garden where the constant labour of one person should not be necessary [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1503]: and whereas by 50 G. 3. c. 104., intituled, An Act for altering the amount of certain duties of assessed taxes, granted by an act passed in the 48th year of His present Majesty's reign; and for granting to H. M. certain other duties of assessed taxes on the articles therein mentioned, a duty of 6*s.* was also granted to H. M. for every gardener who should have contracted for the keeping of any garden, where the constant labour of one person should not be necessary, [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1503]: and whereas by 52 G. 3. c. 93., intituled, An Act for granting to H. M. certain new and additional duties of assessed taxes, and for consolidating the same with the former duties of assessed taxes, a new and additional duty of 4*s.* was granted to H. M. upon each and every of the said persons so employed as gardeners, and as also described and set forth in the schedule to the said last-mentioned act annexed, marked (C.) No. 2, [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1503]: and whereas certain other duties of 6*s.* and 4*s.* respectively were also granted to H. M. by the 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pp. 1502, 1503] as set forth in the said respective schedules thereof, marked (C.) No. 3, in respect of male servants and male persons bonâ fide retained for the purposes of husbandry, manufacture, or trade, by which the master or mistress described and chargeable with the duties as therein mentioned should gain a livelihood, at any time employed in any domestic capacity, or in any of the capacities in schedule (C.) No. 1. of the said acts last mentioned, or as a groom, stable boy, or helper in the stables, in manner in the said schedule (C.) No. 3. also described: and whereas by the 48 G. 3. c. 55., and 50 G. 3. c. 104. aforesaid, certain duties of 1*l. 6s. 6d.* were granted to H. M. for every carriage called a taxed cart, constructed, built, and used in the manner in the said acts particularly described, and certain additional duties of 2*s. 6d.* in respect of such taxed carts were also granted to H. M. by the 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1506]: and whereas by the said acts passed in the 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1508] aforesaid, certain duties of 2*s. 10d.* and of 2*d.* respectively, set forth in the schedules to the said acts annexed, marked (F.) No. 2, were granted to H. M. in respect of husbandry horses, mares, geldings, or mules, kept by the occupiers of small farms or estates in the said schedule described, such occupiers making also a livelihood therefrom, and a profit by any trade or employment as therein also described: and whereas by 56 G. 3. c. 66. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 200], intituled, An Act for reducing the duties payable on horses used for the purposes therein mentioned, for two years, and for repealing the acts granting allowances in respect of children, a duty of 3*s.* was granted to H. M. for a period therein limited, in respect of any horse, mare, or gelding kept by any occupier of a farm under 50*l. per ann.*, and making a livelihood principally thereby, and a profit by any trade or employment in the manner in the said act described; and such last-mentioned duty was made perpetual by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 110. s. 5. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 200], intituled, An Act for repealing the duties on husbandry horses, and to make perpetual several acts for reducing the duties on certain horses and mules: and whereas it is expedient finally to determine certain of the said duties on windows or lights, now payable in respect of shops or warehouses being part of dwelling-houses occupied by persons in trade, and the whole of the said other duties herein-before described: be it therefore enacted, That from and after the 5th April 1823, in that part of G. B. called Eng., Wa., and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and from and after the 24th May 1823, in that part of G. B. called Scot., for and in respect of and upon all assessments to be made for any year commencing from the respective days and year last aforesaid, so much of the said duties on windows or lights in shops or warehouses being parts of dwelling-houses chargeable by the said first-mentioned act, in respect of any number not exceeding three such windows or lights in any shop or warehouse in the front or fronts, and on the ground or basement story of every dwelling-house occupied by any person in trade, who shall expose to sale or sell any goods, wares, or merchandizes in any such shop or warehouse; and also the whole of the said duties on gardeners, and on servants in husbandry or trade, and on taxed carts, and on horses, mares, geldings, or mules, herein-before respectively and particularly enumerated and described, and all assessments thereon for and in respect of any year commencing from and after the respective days aforesaid, shall severally cease and determine, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 1.

19. And whereas doubts have arisen whether under the provisions of 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 1. [ante, pl. 18.] intituled, An act for repealing certain of the duties of assessed taxes, for reducing other of the said duties, and for relieving persons who have compounded for the same, the duty of 3*s.* theretofore chargeable under the schedule marked (F.) of 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1508.] therein described for horses, mares, or geldings, being under the height of 13 hands, are wholly repealed, or reduced only; and it is reasonable and proper to remove such doubts, be it further enacted, That all and every the provisions in the said act contained for repealing the several duties of 3*s.* and of 2*s. 10d.*, and of 2*d.* respectively chargeable by the several acts therein recited for and in respect of horses, mares, and geldings, or mules, shall be deemed and taken to extend to the repeal of the said duties of 3*s.* on all horses, mares, or geldings under the height of 13 hands in the said schedule (F.) described, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 10.

20. And whereas it is also expedient to reduce such of the several duties of assessed taxes granted to H. M. on windows or lights, and on male servants, male persons, carriages, and horses respectively herein-after described, as are not wholly repealed by this act; be it further enacted, That from and after the said 5th April 1823, in that part of

G. B. called Eng., Wa., and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and from and after the 24th May 1823, in that part of G. B. called Scot., on all assessments to be made for any year commencing from the respective days last aforesaid, one moiety and equal half part of each and every of the duties on windows or lights set forth in the said schedule marked (A.) of the 48 G. 3. c. 55.; and also one moiety and equal half part of each and every of the several duties on male servants and male persons respectively set forth in the respective schedules marked (C.) No. 1, No. 3, and No. 4, of the 48 G. 3. c. 55., and 52 G. 3. c. 95.; and also one moiety and equal half part of each and every of the duties on carriages with four wheels, and of each and every of the duties on carriages with two wheels, respectively set forth in the respective schedules marked (D.) No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, and No. 4, of the 48 G. 3. c. 55., and 52 G. 3. c. 95.; and also of the duties on carriages granted by schedule (D.) No. 2, of the 50 G. 3. c. 104.; and also by 58 G. 3. c. 17., intituled, An Act for charging certain duties on four-wheel carriages, constructed and drawn in the manner therein stated; and also one moiety and equal half part of the duties made payable on all horses, mares, geldings, or mules respectively set forth in the respective schedules of the said acts, passed in the 48 G. 3. c. 55., and 52 G. 3. c. 95. aforesaid, marked schedule (E.) No. 1, schedule (E.) No. 2, schedule (E.) No. 3, and schedule (F.) No. 1.; also one moiety and equal half part of the duties on horses, mares, or geldings, or mules, described in and granted by 59 G. 3. c. 15. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 194—197.] intituled, An Act to continue two acts of the 56th and 58th years of His present Majesty, for reducing the duties payable on horses used for the purposes therein mentioned, to the 5th April 1821; and to reduce the duties chargeable under certain acts of the 48th and 52d years of His present Majesty, in respect of certain horses, mares, geldings, and mules; and which duties so reduced were made perpetual by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 110. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 200.] shall respectively cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable: provided nevertheless, That the duties hereby reduced, and to be hereafter assessed and payable, shall not include any fraction of 1d., 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 2.

21. And whereas under and by virtue of 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 259.] and 3 G. 4. c. 50., divers persons have compounded for their assessed taxes in G. B., under contracts of composition, which were made to continue in force on the said duties of windows or lights and on inhabited houses for the term of six years, and on the other duties of assessed taxes allowed to be compounded for under the said acts for the term of five years respectively, from the 5th April 1822; and it is expedient to relieve the persons who have so compounded in respect of the said duties, as well those wholly as those in part repealed, as of the additional duties payable under the said acts on the amount of the duties compounded for, which are so wholly or in part repealed, upon all instalments payable on contracts after the period herein mentioned; be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the respective commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, in their respective districts, and they are hereby authorized and required, to remit and deduct so much and such parts of the duties compounded for and included in any such contract as are repealed by this act, and also so much of the additional duty granted by the said acts, and payable by any such contract on the amount of any duty, or any portion of the duties so repealed, and to cause such reduced amounts to be inserted in the assessments of composition, and in the several duplicates thereof, to be delivered and returned by the said commissioners under the said acts in their respective districts, after the said 5th April 1823, and during the periods of such respective compositions; and every such contract shall be of the same force and effect for the recovery and enforcing payment of the reduced instalments under the provisions of the said acts, and of this act, to commence from the 5th April 1823, to all intents as if the full amount of the instalments compounded for continued payable on such contracts, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 3.

22. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to revive, set up, or substitute any higher or other duty of assessed taxes granted by any of the said acts in lieu of the duties hereby repealed, on all and every the person and persons respectively in the said acts described, who before the passing of this act were by the said recited acts authorized and empowered, on payment of the duties hereby repealed, to employ any male servant or person in the capacities first herein-before enumerated, or to keep or use any carriage herein-before described as a taxed cart, or any horse, mare, gelding, or mule herein-before also described, on payment of the duties hereby respectively repealed; but that all and every such person or persons who at any time within the year ending the 5th April 1823, in Eng. and Wa., or the 24th May 1823, in Scot., have kept, retained, or employed, or who shall or may from and after the passing of this act [19th March 1823], retain or employ any such male servants and persons respectively, and keep and use any such carriage of the description of a taxed cart, and any horse, mare, gelding, or mule respectively, in the manner and according to the schedules, rules, and provisions prescribed by the said acts granting the said duties hereby repealed, shall and is hereby declared to be free of any other or higher duty or assessment chargeable under the said acts relating to the assessed taxes, for and in respect of the said male servants, persons, carriages, and horses respectively, for any year or years commencing from and after the respective days last aforesaid; and all and every the schedules, rules, and provisions of the said acts for regulating and charging the said duties hereby repealed, shall remain and continue in full force and effect for protecting all and every such persons heretofore chargeable with such duties so repealed by this act, from any other or higher duty in lieu of the duties so repealed, so far as such servants, carriages, and horses respectively shall have been or shall be kept, employed, and used in the manner and for the purposes in and by the said schedules, rules, and provisions last aforesaid respectively prescribed and allowed: provided, that so much of the provisions contained in any of the said acts, which require the words, "A Taxed Cart," and the owner's christian and surname and place of abode, and also the name and place of abode of the maker thereof, and the full value thereof, or the actual price or consideration paid or given for the same, to be marked or painted on a black ground in white letters, on the outside of the back pannel, or back part of any carriage, shall, from and after the passing of this act [19th March 1823], be and are hereby declared to be discontinued and repealed; but every such carriage last aforesaid shall in every other respect (except as herein varied) be built and constructed according to the regulations of the said acts, and the rules therein contained; and it shall be lawful for any person or persons keeping and using any horse, mare, gelding, or mule bonâ fide for the purposes of husbandry, to use any such horse, mare, gelding, or mule in drawing any carriage of the description of a taxed cart, the duty whereon is repealed by this act, and kept by any such person respectively for his, her, or their own use, free of any duty chargeable under the said acts in respect of any such horse, mare, gelding, or mule, in and by any assessment to be made for any year commencing from and after the said 5th April 1823, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 4.

23. The powers and provisions contained in 59 G. 3. c. 118. s. 2. [Stat. Dig. this title, pl. 177.], for giving relief from the duties charged on shopmen by the said acts to every male person wholly maintained and lodged in the house of his employer or employers, such persons respectively being under the age of 15 years, shall, upon every assessment made or to be made after the 5th April 1823, be extended to all and every such male person described in the said act, being respectively under the age of 18 years: provided, that the clauses of every exemption in respect of any such male person shall be truly returned and stated in the manner directed by the said act, and the several other acts in force before the passing of this act, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 5.

24. Persons having compounded for a two-wheel carriage may substitute a four-wheel carriage in the composition, paying only the difference of duty, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 6. [See at length, post, pl. 65.]

25. Provided, that copies of all cases which shall after the passing of this act [19th March 1823] be stated and signed by any commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, at the instance and request of any assessor, inspector, surveyor, or person appealing under the powers in the said acts contained, and which shall be determined by any one or more of the justices of the courts of K. B. or C. P., or of the barons of the court of exchequer for the time being at Westminster, in Eng., Wa., or Berwick-upon-Tweed, or by any one or more of the lords of the court of sessions or barons of the court of exchequer in Scot., shall, together with a copy or copies of the said judge or judges opinion and determination thereto subscribed, duly certified by the solicitors for the affairs of taxes for Eng. and Scot. respectively, be annually laid before parliament within 21 days after the meeting thereof, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 7.

26. And whereas by the 48 G. 3. c. 55., under the said schedule thereto marked A., there is charged for the windows in every dwelling-house in Eng. and Wa., and Berwick-upon-Tweed, having not more than six windows or lights therein, a duty of 6s. 6d., and for every such dwelling-house in Scot. a like duty of 4s. 6d. (such houses respectively not being worth the rent of 5l. by the year), and which duties are reduced by the provisions of this act; and it is expedient to exempt the occupiers of such houses in certain cases from the said reduced duties; be it further enacted, That upon any assessment of the said duties to be made upon the occupier of any such dwelling-house, for any year commencing from or after the 5th April 1823, it shall be lawful for the respective commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, in their respective districts, to grant relief to any such occupier having three children born in lawful wedlock, and wholly maintained by him or her, and at his or her expence, and to strike out the charge on any such occupier on the proof by the rules and in the manner authorized and required by the said recited acts in cases of exemption from the said duties by reason of poverty, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 8.

27. The several and respective persons who for the time being shall be commissioners for putting in execution the acts relating to the assessed taxes, shall be commissioners for putting in execution this act, and the powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective counties, ridings, divisions, shires, and stewartries, cities, boroughs, cinque-ports, towns, and places in G. B.; and the several assessors, collectors, inspectors-general, inspectors, and surveyors, for the time being, appointed or to be appointed to put into execution the said acts, shall respectively be assessors, collectors, inspectors-general, inspectors, and surveyors, to put into execution this act, within the limits of their respective divisions, districts, and places to which they are or shall be appointed; and the said commissioners and others before mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all things necessary for putting this act in execution, in the like and in as full and ample a manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in execution the said acts; and all and every the powers and authorities, methods, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, matters, and things contained in any of the said acts, and applying to the said several duties by the said acts granted (except where such provisions are varied or other provisions are substituted by this act), shall, in assessing, charging, collecting, levying, and accounting for the said duties and monies respectively, be severally and respectively duly observed, practised, and put in execution throughout G. B. in relation to all and every of the duties reduced and in part repealed under the provisions of this act, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the said reduced duties remaining unrepealed and in force were specially granted and particularized in and by this act, and as if the same powers, authorities, methods, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, matters, and things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the body of this act, and applied to all and every such reduced duties and monies aforesaid, as part of the provisions of this act: provided, and nothing herein contained shall alter or affect any of the provisions of the said recited acts for assessing, charging, raising, levying, and collecting any assessment of the said duties made or to be made for any year or years commencing previous to the 5th April 1823, any thing in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 9.

28. And whereas by 57 G. 3. c. 25. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 160. 167—170.] provision is made for granting exemptions to persons in trade from the duties on houses, windows, and lights, and on inhabited houses, in respect of houses, tenements or buildings, or parts of tenements or buildings, used solely by such persons for the purposes of trade, such persons respectively residing in a separate and distinct dwelling-house, or part of a dwelling-house, charged to the said duties, as in the said act described: and whereas it is expedient to extend the said exemptions to the cases herein mentioned; be it further enacted, That upon all assessments to be made for any year commencing from and after the 5th April 1824, the provisions in the said act contained, for granting exemptions from the said duties to persons in trade, in respect of houses, tenements or buildings in the said act described, shall and may be extended and applied by the respective commissioners and officers acting in the execution of the said act and of this act, on due proof, to all and every person, or any number of persons in partnership together, for and in respect of any house, tenement or building, or part of a tenement or building, in the said act described, which shall be used by such person or persons as offices or counting-houses for the purposes of exercising or carrying on any profession, vocation, business or calling, by which such person or persons shall seek a livelihood or profit, no person inhabiting, dwelling, or abiding therein, except in the day-time only, for the purpose of such profession, vocation, business or calling, such person or each such persons in partnership respectively residing in a distinct and separate dwelling-house, or part of the dwelling-house charged to the said duties; provided nevertheless, that the exemption herein authorized shall not extend to any chamber or apartment in any of the inns of court or of chancery, or to any college or hall in either of the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, now chargeable with any of the said duties; and the said exemptions hereby authorized shall be claimed and allowed on due proof, and the assessments thereupon discharged by the same rules, and in like manner and form, as are allowed by the said act to persons in trade; and all and every the provisions in the said act contained shall be observed, followed, and practised by the respective commissioners, inspectors, surveyors, assessors, and other persons in the said act described, in granting exemptions and discharging assessments under the provisions of this act, to all intents as if such provisions formed part of the 57 G. 3. c. 25., any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 4.

29. Upon all assessments to be made for any year or years commencing from and after the 5th April 1824, any person occupying a farm of less value than 100*l. per ann.*, and making a livelihood solely thereby, as owner or tenant, in the manner described in the said acts, and as applied to exemptions from the duties on horses, mares, or geldings kept by such occupiers and rode on the occasions therein mentioned, shall be exempt from the duty by the said acts granted in respect of any dog, not being a greyhound, hound, pointer, setting-dog, spaniel, lurcher or terrier, which shall have been or shall be bonâ fide and wholly kept and used by such occupier, or by any person employed by him as a shepherd on his said farm in the care of sheep; provided, that every such exemption shall be claimed and allowed in like manner as is directed by the acts relating to the assessed taxes in other cases of exemption therein mentioned, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 5.

30. And whereas doubts have arisen, whether the respective duties chargeable by the said acts on porters, and on overseers or managers, extend to the employment of male persons on certain occasions; and it is expedient to remove such doubts; be it further enacted, That for and in respect of any assessment to be made for any year commencing from and after the 5th April 1824, any male person hired by the employer or employers in the said acts described, by the year, or by the week, or otherwise, shall not be deemed and taken to be a porter chargeable with the said duties, for or by reason of his employment in the loading, unloading, stowage, or removal of goods, wares, or merchandize, from, to, or upon any horse, cart, waggon, or other carriage, in the receipt or delivery of such goods, wares, or merchandize at the shop, warehouse, or place of deposit, unless such person shall also be employed in the drawing or taking of samples of goods, wares, or merchandize exhibited for the purposes of sale at such shop or warehouse, or elsewhere; nor shall any person wholly employed in any mine, adventure, or concern, under the superintendence and authority of one or more manager or managers, or one or more clerk or clerks, in such mine, adventure, or concern, (where the person or persons liable to the said duties by the said acts shall be assessed for the duty for one overseer or manager at the least, and also for one clerk at the least), be deemed and taken to be an overseer or manager, or a clerk under an overseer or manager chargeable with duty, by reason of the employment of any such person under such manager or clerk in the overlooking and checking of labourers in the performance of the work and labour allotted to them in any such mine, adventure, or concern, and in accounting for the same to any such manager or clerk; any thing in the said acts to the contrary notwithstanding, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 6.

31. And whereas by the said acts, and the rules therein contained, it is provided, that if any person shall do any act for any of the purposes therein mentioned, without having obtained a certificate in order to an assessment for the duty thereby granted and payable, in respect of taking or killing game, or doing other acts therein mentioned, every such person shall forfeit and pay the penalty of 20*l.*; and every such offender shall also be liable to the payment of the full duty to H. M., to be charged by way of increased charge by the inspector or surveyor in manner therein directed: and whereas doubts have arisen whether the inspector or surveyor in the said cases is authorized to charge for the game-duty persons liable who have omitted to pay the said duty and obtain certificates thereof, without a previous proceeding against such offender, and a previous conviction thereon in the said penalty, or for some part thereof; and it is expedient to remove such doubts; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [3d June 1824], it shall and may be lawful for any inspector or surveyor acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, without any previous information and conviction of the offender in the said penalty, or any part thereof, to charge, according to the provisions of the said acts, any person so chargeable with the said duty payable by persons in respect of their taking or killing game, or doing acts in the said acts mentioned, and who shall have omitted to pay the said duty, and obtain the certificate as by the said acts directed; provided every such charge be made within the period limited by the said acts, and in the single duty only; and which charges shall be allowed by the respective commissioners in the execution of the said acts, and shall be subject to appeal according to the provisions and directions thereof, in like manner as any charges are authorized to be made by any inspector or surveyor, and appeals therefrom heard and determined under the said acts, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 7.

32. All and every the provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, and things contained in the said recited acts, although expressly applied to the compositions made under the said acts or either of them, and to relief from duties compounded for, and for which exemptions are subsequently provided, shall severally and respectively be construed and deemed to apply to the compositions to be entered into under this act, and to the duties for which exemptions are provided by this act, and (except where other provisions are substituted in and by this act) shall severally and respectively be used and practised in ascertaining the amount on which any composition is to be made, and the additional rate to be imposed thereon, and also in reducing any assessment of composition entered into before the passing of this act, in respect of duties for which exemption is herein provided, with the additional duty payable on the amount of such last mentioned duties, and also in doing and performing all other matters and things necessary for carrying this act into execution, and shall be construed, deemed, and taken to belong to this act as part thereof, in like manner as if the same were severally repeated in and expressly applied to the provisions of this act; and where other provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, or things are substituted by this act, in lieu of any provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, or things contained in the said acts, the same respectively shall be construed, used, and practised in such manner and to the like effect in all respects as if the said recited acts and this act had been incorporated, and as if this act had expressly abrogated and made void the several parts of the said recited acts in lieu whereof any part of this act is substituted, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 8.

33. For the further repeal of certain duties of assessed taxes, and for granting relief in the cases therein mentioned, 6 G. 4. c. 7.

34. Whereas by 4 G. 4. c. 11., intituled, An Act for repealing certain of the duties of assessed taxes, for reducing certain other of the said duties, and for relieving persons who have compounded for the same, several of the duties of assessed taxes were wholly repealed, and others thereof were reduced to one moiety: and whereas it is expedient to repeal certain of the remaining duties of assessed taxes now payable to H. M., and to grant relief in the cases herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the 5th April 1825, in that part of G. B. called Eng., Wa., and the town of Berwick-on-Tweed, and from and after the 24th May 1825, in that part of G. B. called Scot., for and in respect of and upon all assessments for any year commencing from the respective days and year last aforesaid, the several and respective duties granted and now payable to H. M. by 48 G. 3. c. 55. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pp. 1498, 1499], and as set forth in the schedule thereto annexed, marked (A.) (in the said first-mentioned act recited), for every dwelling-house, with the offices therein described, containing not more than six windows or lights, and not worth the rent of 5*l.* by the year; and for every dwelling-house, with the offices aforesaid, containing not more than six windows or lights, and of the said value of 5*l.* by the year; and for every such dwelling-house, with the offices aforesaid, containing not more than seven windows or lights; and also such of the duties of 1*s.* 6*d.* in the pound, granted on inhabited dwelling-houses by 48 G. 3. c. 55. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1500], and the schedule thereto annexed, marked (B.), as are now charged and chargeable, by the rules and directions therein contained, for every inhabited dwelling-house, with the offices and lands therein described, being under the rent or value of 10*l.* by the year; and also the several and respective duties granted and payable to H. M. by the 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1503], and described in the schedules to the said acts respectively annexed, marked (C.) No. 3; and (in the said first-mentioned act also described), so far as such last-mentioned duties are severally charged or chargeable in respect of every male person employed as an occasional waiter in any tavern, coffee-house, inn, or other house in the said schedule mentioned, for a period of six calendar months, and also for a lesser period than six calendar months in any year respectively; and for every such person, not being a servant, who has been or shall be employed as an occasional waiter in any private house, not less than six times within the year; and for every male person employed by any stable-keeper for or in expectation of profit, to take care of any horse, mare, or gelding kept for the purposes of racing, running, or training, as therein described; and also all and every the duties on taxed carts granted to H. M. by 50 G. 3. c. 104. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1506], and the schedule thereto, marked No. 2; and also by the 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1506], and described and set forth in the schedule thereto annexed, marked (D.) No. 4; and also all and every the duties granted to H. M. by the 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1507], and by the same schedule marked (D.) No. 5, and payable by coachmakers and makers of other carriages chargeable with duty by the said act, and on carriages made, sold, or repaired, as therein mentioned; and also the several duties granted to H. M. under the provisions of the said last-mentioned acts, and made payable by the said schedule marked (D.) No. 6. [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1507], by persons selling carriages by auction or on commission; and also the duty granted to H. M. on carriages with four wheels, drawn by ponies, mules, oxen, or asses, and made payable by 58 G. 3. c. 17., intituled, An Act for charging certain duties on four-wheeled carriages constructed and drawn in the manner therein described; and also the duty granted to H. M. by 59 G. 3. c. 13. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 192—197], upon every person keeping any mule or mules for the purpose of carrying ore, slate, or stone, coal or culm, to or from the mine or pit, or for the purposes of carrying lime, sea-sand, sea-weed, or other manure, on the backs of such mules, as therein mentioned, shall severally and respectively cease and determine; and all assessments for any year commencing as aforesaid, so far as the same shall apply to or contain all or any of the duties hereby repealed, shall be null and void, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 1.

35. And whereas it is expedient to grant further relief to occupiers of dwelling-houses, and to make provision in the cases herein mentioned; be it further enacted, That where the occupier or tenant of any dwelling-house, cottage, or tenement chargeable with duty shall quit the same after an assessment shall be made, and such occupier shall give notice thereof, on so quitting, to the assessor, in the manner directed by the said acts, the duty thereon shall be discharged by the commissioners for executing the said acts and this act, for the particular quarter or quarters of the year of such assessment during which it shall appear to the said commissioners such house, cottage, or tenement shall have continued for each entire quarter wholly empty and unoccupied, and although any such quitting shall not have taken place on the actual determination of the lease or demise by which such occupier or tenant held the premises, in the manner described by the 48 G. 3. c. 55.: provided, that where any house, cottage, or tenement shall not have been built or otherwise completed for occupation at the time of making the assessments yearly, as directed by the said acts, and the same shall, after the expiration of the first or of any succeeding quarter of the year, become occupied during a portion only of the year of assessment, such house, cottage, or tenement shall, on notice of the commencement of occupation, to be given by the occupier in the manner directed by the said act, be assessed and charged with the said duties for that part only of the year of assessment during which such house, cottage, or tenement shall be actually occupied, to wit, from the end of the quarter of the year preceding such occupation; and when any window or windows shall be made, opened, or restored in any dwelling-house, cottage, or tenement, after the commencement of each year's assessment, and notice thereof shall be given as directed by the said acts, the assessments for the windows or lights in such house, cottage, or tenement, shall be amended in respect of any such additional window or windows, and the duty shall be charged and assessed for the full number of windows for the remainder only of the year commencing from the end of the quarter of the year preceding the increase of such window or windows: provided, and in every case of default of notice of the commencement of occupation, or of the increase of windows, as directed by the said acts in the cases herein mentioned, and also in every case where any house, cottage, or tenement shall become occupied, or the additional window or windows therein shall be made or restored within and before the expiration of the first quarter of the year of assessment, the assessments or amended assessments herein directed shall be made and payable for the whole of the year within which such occupation shall have commenced, or such additional number of window or windows shall have been made or restored: provided further, and where any additional window or windows shall be made, opened, or restored, in any house, cottage, or tenement containing at the commencement of the year of assessment not more than seven windows or lights, and thereby made free of duty under the directions of this act, such house, cottage, or tenement shall immediately thereupon become chargeable with duty for and in respect of the full number of windows therein; and an assessment shall in like manner be made, and the duties charged according to such full number of windows, and levied on the occupier or occupiers in respect thereof, for the whole of the year in which any such additional window or windows shall be made, opened, or restored; all which assessments shall be made, amended, levied, and collected by the like rules as any assessment to the said duties is directed to be made, amended, levied, and collected under the directions of the said acts; any thing in the said acts or this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 2.

36. Any house or tenement from which the owner or occupier shall have bonâ fide removed, and which shall be wholly unfurnished at the time of making the assessment, shall be deemed and taken to be unoccupied, and not liable to assessment, although such house or tenement shall or may be left or committed to the care or charge of a person or servant who shall or may have been placed and shall dwell therein solely for the purpose of airing the same, and of preventing depredation or injury to the premises during the period of their being so unoccupied: provided, and every such house or tenement shall afterwards, and within the year of assessment, be liable to be brought into charge for the whole or a portion of the year, and shall be assessed in the manner directed by the said acts, on the same coming into the possession or occupation of any other person or persons, according to the rules and provisions of the said acts; and where any such house or tenement shall become unoccupied in manner aforesaid, at any time after the commencement of the year, and after an assessment made thereon, it shall be lawful for the respective commissioners, on due notice thereof by the owner or tenant, as in the other cases herein-before provided, to discharge such assessment for the entire quarter or quarters of the year during which it shall appear to the said commissioners such house or tenement shall have so continued wholly unfurnished and unoccupied, save and except by a person or servant for the purposes aforesaid; any thing in the said acts or in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 3.

37. The exemption from duty granted by 57 G. 3. c. 25. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 160.] for one glazed window in any room used as a dairy or cheese-room in any dwelling-house being a farm-house, in the said act described, shall and is hereby declared to extend, from and after the 5th April 1825, to any one such window made with glass in any dairy, and to any one such like window made with glass in any cheese-room, where such rooms shall be distinct, and there shall be more than one room used for such purposes, or either of them, in any farm-house in the said act described; provided that the exemption for more than two such windows shall not in any case be claimed or allowed for any one farm-house; and the further exemption hereby granted shall be claimed and allowed in the manner directed by the said act in the case of one such glazed window, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 4.

38. And whereas the rules for charging the duties on windows or lights contained in the said schedule marked (A.) [Stat. Dig. this tit. pp. 1498, 1499], to the said act passed in the 48th year of His said late Majesty's reign annexed, extend to all windows in the interior parts of dwelling-houses, and the household and other offices therein enumerated: and whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said rules as apply to the charging any interior lights which wholly derive and give light from exterior windows or lights charged to the said duties; be it further enacted, That upon all assessments to be made for any year commencing from and after the 5th April 1825, all and every the window or windows in any part of a dwelling-house, tenement, or building, or of the household and other offices described in the said act, which shall be an interior window constructed so as wholly to derive and give light from any other window or windows in the exterior wall or walls or outside of any such house, tenement, or building, or offices aforesaid, or on the roof or roofs thereof respectively, such exterior window or windows being duly charged to the said duties, shall not be deemed and taken to be a window or light chargeable with duty; and so much of the rules and provisions in the said act contained, as relate or extend to the assessing and charging any such interior window or light, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 5.

39. Where the whole or part only of any dwelling-house, being a farm-house, divided or not divided into distinct tenements, shall be occupied by any labourer or labourers, servant or servants, bonâ fide retained and employed in affairs of husbandry by the occupier or tenant of the farm to which such dwelling-house shall belong, and no part thereof shall be occupied by the occupier or tenant of the said farm, or by any other person or persons (except as aforesaid), such dwelling-house, and the landlord, occupier, or tenant, shall, during the continuance of the occupation in manner aforesaid, be exempt from any duty chargeable for such house by the said acts; provided that every such exemption shall be duly claimed by the occupier or tenant of the farm, and allowed in the manner directed by the said acts as in other cases of exemption from the said duties, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 6.

40. And whereas by 57 G. 3. c. 25. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 160. 167—170] and 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 4, exemptions from duty are provided for certain houses, tenements, or buildings, occupied or used by persons in trade, or exercising professions, vocations, or callings in the manner therein described, no person inhabiting, dwelling, or abiding therein, except in the day-time only, and the occupiers respectively having separate and distinct places of residence, as therein mentioned; and the said first-mentioned act also contains a provision for authorizing the occupier of certain of such premises, namely, of any detached mill or place of manufacture or warehouse, not being parcel of or attached to any other dwelling-house, to appoint any one of his or her servants named in a licence to be granted by the respective commissioners in the manner therein authorized, to watch and guard such premises in the night-time, without being liable to the said duties: and whereas it may be expedient, for the protection of property, to extend the provision last-mentioned to other cases of houses, tenements, or buildings within the exemptions in the said acts described, for the purpose of watching and guarding the same in the night-time; be it further enacted, That upon all assessments of the said duties, to be made for any year commencing from and after the 5th April 1825, it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts, and of this act, in their respective districts, and they are hereby authorized and empowered at the instance and request of any occupier or occupiers of any house, tenement, or building, for which exemption from the said duties is provided, and shall be duly claimed and allowed under the provisions of the said acts, to grant to any such occupier or occupiers a licence in writing, signed by any three of such commissioners, at a meeting and in the manner by the said first-mentioned act prescribed, authorizing such occupier or occupiers to appoint any one of his or her servant or servants named in such licence to watch and guard such house, tenement, or building in the night-time; and that the abiding of such licensed servant therein, for the purposes only of watching and guarding the same under such licence, shall not render the occupier thereof liable to the duties by the said acts granted, for the year in which such exemption shall be allowed, and such licence shall be obtained; and which licence shall not in any case extend to authorizing any servant or servants to be named therein, or any part of his or her family to inhabit or dwell in any such house, tenement, or building, as a place of residence; any thing in the said acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 7.

41. Nothing herein contained shall render any person or persons liable to a higher or other duty of assessed taxes in lieu of the duties hereby repealed, so far as the same apply to the particular person or article employed, kept, or used; provided that the employment or use, and also the construction of any carriage, shall not exceed the employment, use, or construction respectively allowed under the regulations of the said acts or of this act, and the rules and schedules therein, by which such duties hereby repealed were granted and regulated; and the provisions of the 4 G. 4. c. 11, so far as the same apply to the protection of persons from further assessment to any other duty in lieu of the duties thereby repealed (subject as therein mentioned), shall be extended and applied to the duties hereby repealed, to all intents as if the said provisions were re-enacted by and made particularly applicable to the provisions of this act; and where any person or persons shall be chargeable with and duly assessed to the duty for any carriage with less than four wheels, and shall occasionally employ in the capacity of groom, stable-boy, or helper in the stable, any person bonâ fide retained by him, her, or them for the purposes of husbandry, manufacture, or trade, such person or persons shall not be charged with any duty payable by the said acts in any year commencing from and after the 5th April 1825, for a male person, by reason of such occasional employment; and where any person being a victualler duly licensed to sell ale or beer shall employ any one male person under the age of 15 years to draw, carry out, or deliver by retail any ale, beer, or liquors, which any such victualler shall be duly licensed to sell, such victualler shall not be liable to any duty chargeable by the said acts for one such male person, by reason of such employment; and any person who shall have kept and used, or who shall keep and use any carriage, built and constructed in every respect as a taxed cart, under the rules and regulations of the said acts, shall not be liable to any other or higher duty for such carriage in lieu of the said duty on taxed carts hereby repealed, although such person shall or may have used or shall use the same with the seat of such carriage not fixed, or with such seat suspended by slings or braces; and any person who shall have kept and used, or who shall keep and use any carriage with three wheels, in every respect (other than in the number of wheels) built and constructed and within the description contained in the 58 G. 3. c. 17, for charging the duty hereby repealed on carriages with four wheels drawn by ponies, mules, oxen, or asses, shall not be chargeable with any duty for such carriages with three wheels; and any person or persons occupying a farm of less annual value than 200*l. per ann.*, and making a livelihood principally thereby, shall be exempt from duty for any horses, mares, or geldings bonâ fide kept and generally employed by such person or persons for the purposes of husbandry on such farm, although such horses, mares, or geldings, or any of them, shall be occasionally let to hire or used by such person or persons in drawing for hire or profit, in the manner allowed by 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 4, [ante, pl. 15], by occupiers of farms of the like annual value, and making a livelihood solely thereby, and from the profits of such letting and use; any thing in the said several acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 8.

42. The repeal by this act of the said duties on coachmakers and on makers of carriages, and also on persons selling carriages by auction or on commission, shall not in any manner be construed or taken to exempt any or either of such description of persons from their several liabilities to keep and make entries for inspection, in books, of carriages built or constructed in the manner required by the said acts, and to deliver copies of entries made in such books to the assessor or assessors in the said acts described, subject to the penalties for default thereof, and relating thereto respectively, as provided and required by the several acts in force at the passing of this act; and which provisions, so far as the same apply to such coachmakers and makers and sellers of carriages, are hereby declared to remain in full force; any thing in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 9.

43. Where any contract of composition now in force for any of the duties of assessed taxes doth contain any duty or duties repealed, or for which exemption is provided by this act, it shall be lawful for the commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, in their respective districts, and they are hereby authorized and required, to cause every such contract, and the assessments and duplicates thereof or relating thereto, to be reduced in respect and to the amount of any such duty or duties hereby repealed or exempted, with the additional duty payable thereon by virtue of such contract; and every such reduction shall commence and take effect from and after the days herein directed for the repeal of or exemption from such duties respectively; all which reductions shall and may be made under the rules and provisions of the 4 G. 4. c. 11., and of the several other acts in that behalf; and every such contract so reduced shall be of the same force and effect for the recovery and enforcing payment of the reduced instalments, to all intents as if the full amount of the instalments compounded for continued payable on such contracts, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 10.

44. And whereas, by reason of the repeal and reduction of the said duties of assessed taxes respectively, the compensation by poundage directed by the said acts on the amount of the assessments of the remaining duties to persons acting as clerks to the said commissioners of certain districts, may in particular cases, be inadequate to enable such clerks to defray the expences incurred by them in the execution of their duty under the said acts; be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the treasury to order and direct the allowance and discharge of such actual expences, or any part thereof, as shall be necessarily incurred by any such clerk in the due execution of the said acts, where such allowance shall appear to the treasury reasonable and proper to be made, over and above the allowance by poundage made to any such clerk for the particular year of assessment to which such expences shall relate, under the authority of the said act; and the certificate of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, or any three or more of them, shall be an authority to the receivers-general respectively to pay such further allowance, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 11.

45. And whereas by the 48 G. 3. c. 55. and 52 G. 3. c. 93., and the exemptions contained in schedule (G.) [Stat. Dig. this tit. p. 1510.] thereof, any person who, on account of poverty, shall be discharged from the assessment made in respect of his or her dwelling-house in pursuance of the regulations of the said acts, and having one dog and no more, the same not being a greyhound, hound, pointer, setting-dog, spaniel, lurcher, or terrier, is exempted from the duty for such dog, to be allowed in the manner by the said acts prescribed: and whereas, by reason of the repeal by this act of certain of the said duties on windows and inhabited houses, persons who would have been entitled to such exemptions before the passing of this act, may lose the benefit thereof for one dog, without further provision for that purpose; be it further enacted, That in every case where any certificate for exemption on account of poverty, obtained in the manner by the said acts directed, shall be duly made and delivered to the respective commissioners, and shall be found and adjudged by them respectively to be sufficient for exempting any person from any of the duties in respect of his dwelling-house hereby repealed, if such duties had continued payable, it shall and may be lawful for the said respective commissioners, and they are hereby authorized, upon the allowance of any such certificate, to grant the said exemption for one such dog, to all intents as if the said duties in respect of the dwelling-house of the person seeking the benefit of the said exemption had been discharged from the assessment under any such certificate: provided, that a due assessment shall be made for every such dog, and that the discharge thereof shall be made by the respective commissioners on the production and allowance of the said certificates, and in the manner prescribed for granting exemptions by the said acts, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 12.

46. The several powers and provisions contained in this act shall be carried and put into execution by the several commissioners, assessors, collectors, inspectors, surveyors, and other officers appointed and acting in the execution of the said acts in their respective districts, and the several powers, rules, and provisions in the said acts contained, in assessing, collecting, granting exemptions from, and enforcing, paying, and accounting for the said duties and compositions (except so far as the same are herein varied, or for which other provisions are made by this act), shall be practised and put in execution by such commissioners and other officers respectively, to all intents, and subject to the like penalties and forfeitures and authorities to enforce and recover the same, as if such powers, rules, and provisions, penalties and forfeitures, had been expressly re-enacted and incorporated in and by this act, 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 13.

III. Compounding.

47. To extend the period allowed to persons compounding for their assessed taxes, and to give further relief in certain cases therein mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 50. [4 G. 4. c. 45, 5 G. 4. c. 44. AMD. as to persons compounding for duties on two-wheeled carriages keeping four-wheeled carriages, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 6.; and for reducing the payments under contracts of composition made in respect of articles which are repealed by this act. 6 G. 4. c. 7. s. 10., ante, pl. 43.]

48. Whereas by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 113. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 260. 293, et seq.], intituled, An Act to continue several acts for the relief of persons compounding for assessed taxes from an annual assessment, for a further term; and to amend the acts relating to assessments and compositions of assessed taxes, persons therein described, who had compounded for the said duties under the acts therein recited, were authorized to continue their former compositions for a further term; and persons therein also described, who had not so compounded, were authorized to compound for the term and in the manner in the said act prescribed, and on the conditions therein contained: provided that such persons respectively should give notices of their intentions so to continue their former compositions, or to compound, on or before the 5th April 1822, in the manner by the said act prescribed: and whereas it is expedient to enlarge the period for compounding under the said act, and to grant relief in certain cases herein-after described: be it therefore enacted—[Time for compounding or continuing composition extended on notice given before 1st Sept. 1822, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 1. Again extended on notice given before 1st Sept. 1823, 4 G. 4. c. 45. ss. 1, 2.]

49. Whereas by 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 2., intituled, An Act for allowing persons to compound for their assessed taxes for the remainder of the periods of composition limited by former acts, and for giving relief in certain cases therein mentioned, the persons therein described, who had not entered into composition under the provisions of the acts therein mentioned, within the times thereby limited, were authorized, on giving notice on or before the 1st Sept. 1823, to compound on their respective assessments, to be made for the year commencing from the 5th April 1823, for the then remainder of the periods in the said acts named, (that is to say) for the term of five years for the duties on houses and windows, and for the term of four years for the other assessed taxes: and whereas it is expedient further to extend the provisions of the said acts, for enabling persons now to enter into composition for the remainder of the said periods which were unexpired on the 5th April 1824, in the manner herein provided; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [3d June 1824], it shall and may be lawful for any person who shall be duly assessed to the said rates and duties for the year commencing the 5th April 1824, and who shall give the notice of their, his, or her intention to compound within the time and in the manner herein-after provided, and they are hereby respectively declared to be competent to compound for the rates and duties assessed on his dwelling-house for the term of four years, and for his other assessed taxes allowed to be compounded for by the said acts, and therein particularly enumerated, for the term of three years respectively, to commence from the 5th April 1824, together with an additional annual duty of 1s. for every 20s. of the respective amounts so assessed, and so after that rate for any greater or lesser sum than 20s.; and the assessments so to be made and compounded for under this act, shall severally be and remain to the same annual amount for the respective periods last-mentioned, to all intents as if the said duties had been compounded for under the said acts, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 1. EXP.

50. Every person desirous of compounding under this act shall, on or before the 2nd Aug. 1824, deliver or cause to be delivered, free of charge, to the surveyors acting for the respective districts comprising the parishes or places wherein such persons shall respectively reside, a notice in writing, according to the form and in the manner by the said acts directed, declaring his intention to compound under this act, and which notice shall be acted upon, observed, and followed for the purposes of composition, on a full and complete assessment for the said year, commencing from the 5th April 1824; and the said commissioners shall and are hereby authorized and required to contract with such persons respectively, under the provisions in the said recited acts and this act respectively contained, for the periods and in the manner herein limited, and according to the form of contract [which is here omitted, the clause having expired] set forth in the schedule to this act annexed, mutatis mutandis, to all intents as if such notices had been delivered within the times by the said acts limited, and under the several provisions thereof, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 2. EXP.

51. The several persons who for the time being shall be commissioners for putting in execution the acts relating to assessed taxes, and the said recited acts for compounding for the said duties, shall be commissioners for putting in execution this act, and the powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective counties, ridings, divisions, shires, and stewartries, cities, boroughs, cinque ports, towns, and places in G. B.; and the several assessors, collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general for the time being, appointed or to be appointed to put in execution the said acts, shall respectively be assessors, collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general, to put in execution this act within the limits of their respective divisions, districts, and places to which they are or shall be appointed; and the respective commissioners and other persons authorized by the said recited acts to contract and agree for such compositions, or to do or perform any other matter or thing for carrying the said recited acts into execution shall, severally and respectively, contract and agree for the composition to be entered into under this act, and do and perform all such matters and things as are required to be done and performed in execution of this act within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, and all the powers and authorities given and granted to them by or under the said recited acts, so far as they apply and are not repugnant to this act, shall be revived and continued for and during the respective terms herein limited, as fully as if the same were herein expressly re-enacted, and shall severally be applied, construed, deemed and taken to belong to this act as part thereof, in like manner as if the same had been herein expressly given; and the said commissioners and others before mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all things necessary for putting this act in execution in the like and as full a manner as they or any of them were authorized to put in execution the several recited acts, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 3., 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 8. [See 5 G. 4. c. 44. ss. 4—8. inclusive, ante, pl. 28—32.]

52. And whereas a power is given in and by the said first mentioned act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 115. s. 8. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 308.] to persons therein described, who had compounded for any of the duties of assessed taxes in the said act enumerated, other than the duties on houses and windows, to renew his or her former composition on such establishments for the further time therein limited, in respect of the particular articles allowed to be compounded for under the said act, on payment to the same amount in respect of such articles, and a further duty granted by the said act of 1s. for every 20s. of the aggregate amount of such former composition: and whereas it is expedient to relieve from the said additional duty of 1s. persons who have not at any time during the period of their former compositions increased their establishment, upon which they so first compounded, so as to have become chargeable with a greater aggregate amount of duty than the amount compounded for, such claims of exemption being made and allowed in the manner herein-after provided; be it further enacted, That if any person or persons who have given, or who shall give notice of renewing his, her, or their former compositions under the provisions of the said recited act, or of this act, shall not have increased his, her, or their establishment since entering into such first composition, whereby such person or persons have not become or are liable to be charged with a greater amount of duty for the whole of the articles chargeable than the duty so compounded for, it shall and may be lawful for him, her, or them to claim the exemption from the said additional duty granted by the said act, upon giving notice in writing of such his, her, or their intention to the surveyor of the said duties acting for the district in which such person or persons shall reside, according to the form in the schedule [which is not here given, the clause having expired] to this act annexed, on or before the 1st Sept. 1822; and all such notices shall and may be retained in the hands of the said surveyor respectively, until the expiration of 30 days after the delivery thereof; and every such surveyor shall carefully and diligently examine the same, and from time to time, within the said period of 30 days, deliver the same to, and therewith certify to the said respective commissioners, his satisfaction with, or his objections to the said notices delivered in such cases; and in case the surveyor shall object to any such claim, he is hereby required to give notice thereof in writing to the respective commissioners, and his objections thereto shall, in pursuance of such notice, be heard upon appeal before the said respective commissioners, subject to such rules and regulations as appeals are directed to be heard and determined under the several acts relating to the assessed taxes, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 2.

53. In all claims to be allowed by the said respective commissioners, acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, in the cases herein provided, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, to contract with the said persons, under the said recited act, for a renewal of his, her, or their composition, exclusive of the said additional duty by the said act granted; and where any claim shall be made and allowed under this act, upon any contract made and entered into before the passing thereof, it shall be lawful for any two of the said respective commissioners, and they are hereby required, to certify under their hands every such allowance on the back of such contract, without erasing the said additional duty from the body thereof; and all and every such contracts so endorsed shall be as valid and effectual for enforcing the same to the amount of the reduced consideration and instalments by virtue of such endorsement, to all intents as if the said contracts had been originally entered into without including therein the said additional or further duty, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 3. [See ss. 4, 5. ante, pl. 15, 16.]

54. And whereas persons removing from their respective dwelling-houses at any time within the year ending the 5th April 1822, and occupying other dwelling-houses to which they have not been assessed for that year, are required to deliver statements of the number of windows, and the value of the said dwelling-houses, at which the same were respectively chargeable, in order to an assessment for the year commencing 5th April 1822, on the amount whereof the persons therein described are respectively authorized to compound under the said first-mentioned act; and whereas doubts have arisen as to the time at which such statements were intended by the said act to be delivered, and the windows to be comprized therein; be it declared and further enacted,

That the windows to be returned in each such statement were intended by the said last-mentioned act to be, and shall be, the same number on which an assessment hath been made, or might or ought to have been made thereon, if the same had been then occupied for the year ending on the 5th April 1822, according to the laws relating to assessed taxes in force at the time of making the said act; and in all cases where any statement hath been delivered before the passing of this act [1st July 1822], containing a less number of windows than were chargeable on the dwelling-house mentioned therein on the 6th April 1821, a new statement shall be delivered within two calendar months after the passing of this act, conformable to the declaration and enactment before-mentioned, and it shall be lawful for any person or persons before described, whether such statements have been before delivered or not, to deliver such statements within the said period according to which assessments shall be made on the number of windows comprized therein; and all contracts of composition made or to be made contrary to this act, shall be void and of no effect; provided, that the commissioners who may have already executed any contract of composition upon statements delivered contrary to this act, may amend the same without executing new contracts, by endorsing thereon the number of additional windows, duty, and per centage, on every such contract, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 6.

55. It shall be lawful for every person competent to renew his, her, or their composition, or to compound under the said recited act or this act, to include in such composition renewed or entered into respectively, the duty in respect of any clerk, or of any steward, bailiff, overseer, or manager, or of any male person described in the 52 G. 3. c. 93. schedule (C.) No. 3. [Stat. Dig. this title, p. 1503] such male person being occasionally employed in any of the capacities enumerated in the schedule to the said act marked (C.) No. 1., as in the said schedule No. 3. is described: provided nevertheless, that the composition of any such person so renewing his, her, or their former composition, or compounding, shall contain the duty for one such servant chargeable in the said schedule marked (C.), No. 1.; and it shall be lawful for the respective commissioners to include such respective articles herein allowed, or any of them in such composition respectively, on the same terms as if the said articles had been originally allowed to be compounded for by the said act; and in cases where contracts shall have been entered into before the passing of this act, it shall be lawful for the said respective commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to amend the same, by causing the amount of composition for any of the articles aforesaid, to be certified by endorsement on such contract, under the hands of any two of such commissioners; and the sum so charged and added to the amount of the said composition in and by such certificate, and to the assessment thereof, shall and may be levied and recovered by the same instalments, and in like manner, as the amount of composition inserted in the body of such contract, and in addition thereto; any thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 7.

56. If any person, during the continuance of his composition under the said act or this act, shall, by reason of any employment in the public service in the execution of any office, military, naval, or civil, be required and ordered to reside out of the U. K., and such person shall give notice thereof to the surveyor of the district in which such composition shall be entered into, every such composition shall cease and determine on the 5th April next after such notice and the time of such absence and removal from the said U. K., on payment of all arrears due on such contract up to the said 5th April last-mentioned; and the commissioners for the affairs of taxes shall cause the discontinuance of such contract to be certified to the commissioners of the district in which it was made: provided, that nothing herein contained shall exempt any such person from his or her liability to assessment under the acts relating to the assessed taxes for any year or years commencing from the 5th April last aforesaid, in respect of all or any part of his establishment continued to be kept and employed in the said U. K. for any part of his family, or from his liability to assessment under the said acts, from and after the 5th April next following the discontinuance of such employment in the public service, and his returning to and residing in the U. K. to all intents, as if such composition had not been entered into, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 8.

57. The several and respective commissioners acting in the execution of the said act, shall be commissioners for putting in execution this act, and the powers herein referred to or contained, in all and every the respective counties, ridings, divisions, shires, and stewartries, cities, boroughs, cinque ports, towns, and places in G. B.; and the several collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general for the time being, appointed or to be appointed to put in execution the said recited act, shall respectively be collectors, surveyors, inspectors, and inspectors-general, to put in execution this act, within the limits of their respective divisions, districts, and places to which they are or shall be appointed; and the said commissioners and others before-mentioned are hereby empowered and required to do and perform all things necessary for putting this act in execution, in the like and in as full and ample a manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in execution the said act; and all and every the powers and authorities, methods, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, matters, and things contained or referred to in the said act (except where such provisions are varied, or other provisions are substituted by this act), shall, in collecting, levying, and accounting for the said compositions and monies respectively, be severally and respectively duly observed, practised, and put in execution throughout G. B., in relation to all and every the compositions, duties, and monies aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if the same powers, authorities, methods, rules, directions, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, matters, and things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the body of this act, and applied to all and every such compositions, duties, and monies aforesaid, as part of the provisions of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 50. s. 9.

58. And whereas by reason of the repeal of the duties of assessed taxes in Ire., persons who have entered into composition in that part of the U. K., under the provisions of the act authorizing compositions in Ire., will, on their removal to G. B., lose the benefit of such compositions in regard to any increase of the description of articles so compounded for in Ire.; and it is expedient to give relief to such persons, by allowing them to compound under the provisions of this act, according to the number and extent only of the articles compounded for in Ire.; be it further enacted, That in every case in which any person so having compounded in Ire. shall, on the occasion of his residence in G. B., be desirous of retaining the benefit of the same contract of composition entered into in Ire., it shall be lawful for him so to do, and for that purpose to annex to the said notice of his intention to compound under this act, to be given within the period and in manner herein-before described, the original contract of composition entered into in Ire., or a true copy thereof, duly authenticated by the proper officer in that behalf; and on the receipt of such notice and contract, or a true copy thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the respective commissioners acting in the execution of this act in and for the district in which such notice shall be delivered, and such person shall reside, to make an assessment of duty on every such person respectively, for the year commencing from 5th April 1823, according to the number only of the particular articles so included in the said contract of composition, and which shall be deemed and taken in such cases as a full assessment, for the purposes of composition, for the like description of articles under this act; and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said commissioners to enter into a contract of composition with such persons respectively, under the provisions of this act; and all such compositions so to be entered into shall be of the same force and effect, and shall give the person compounding the like privileges and advantages in respect of the same description of articles contained in such composition, as would have been enjoyed under any other contract authorized to be made by virtue of this act: provided, that no such contract so to be entered into as last aforesaid, and nothing herein contained, shall be construed to exempt any such person last-mentioned from assessment during the continuance of his said composition, by reason of his residence in G. B., for and in respect of any articles kept and used, and chargeable with any duty under the said acts, of a description different from the duties compounded for in Ire., but such persons respectively may, on giving notice of his intention in that behalf, in the manner herein-before directed, respectively compound under this act for such other articles, upon and according to a full and true return and assessment for the same, to be made for the said year, commencing as aforesaid, in the manner directed by this act in other cases of composition; and the whole of the duties so to be compounded for shall and may in such cases be included in one and the same contract, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 3.

59. Where any person compounding under the said recited acts or this act shall have removed from the district in which such composition shall have been entered into, to another dwelling-house and place of residence, and shall thereupon cease to have any dwelling-house or place of residence within the district in which he so compounded, the annual assessment payable on such composition for the year commencing from 5th April next following such removal, shall be transferred to the district in which such person shall then reside; and it shall be lawful for the respective commissioners acting in the execution of the said acts and of this act, within and for the district to which such person shall have so removed, and they are hereby required, upon receiving a certificate thereof, and of the amount of the annual assessment payable on any such person's contract of composition in the former district, under the hands of any two of the commissioners acting for such last-mentioned district (and which certificate to be prepared under the authority of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, the said commissioners acting for the said district are hereby required to sign and cause to be delivered to the surveyor for the same district from time to time, as soon as conveniently may be, after every such removal), to cause the several amounts of the duties and instalments compounded for and payable from and after the period last aforesaid, by any such person, to be added to and charged in the assessment of the parish to which such person shall have so removed, and in the annual duplicate of assessment required to be made out by the said commissioners under the said acts for such last-mentioned district; and all such assessments and instalments of composition shall, when so transferred, be collected, levied, and raised under the same powers, and by the same rules, provisions, ways, and means, as if the said duties had been originally compounded for and made payable to the collectors or collector in the said last-mentioned district, and as if the same originally formed part of the assessment of the parish, ward, or place to which the said instalments shall have become transferred under the authority of this act, any thing in the said recited acts or in any contract contained to the contrary notwithstanding: provided, that nothing herein contained, notwithstanding the transfer of the said future instalments, shall prevent the raising and levying of all arrears of composition payable by the persons last herein described, in the district from which they, he, or she shall have so removed as aforesaid, or otherwise, up to the 5th April next following such removal, by the same powers and provisions as the said duties were recoverable before the passing of this act; and all such future instalments, until actually transferred to the assessment of another parish, ward, or place, shall so in like manner be raised and levied under the provisions of the said acts, as part of the assessments of the district in which such compositions were entered into, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 4.

60. In every case when and as the future instalments payable under any composition shall have been transferred, and added to the assessment of the parish, ward, or place, in the district to which any person shall have removed under the provisions last herein-before contained, and which shall be duly certified under the authority of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, it shall be lawful for the commissioners acting for the district from which the person whose composition shall be so transferred shall have ceased to reside, to discharge all such future instalments so transferred, from the assessment on the parish, ward, or place therewith before charged, and in the duplicates of the said duties to be prepared and transmitted from the said last-mentioned district, under the provisions of the said acts, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 5.

61. In order to the due collection and payment of the instalments on compositions, to all intents as annual assessments in the districts in which the persons chargeable shall reside during the continuance of such compositions, it shall and may be lawful for the respective commissioners acting for any district from which any such person shall again and from time to time remove, to observe and follow the like provisions for transferring the instalments due and payable on such composition, for the year commencing from the 5th April next following such removal, to the district, parish, ward, and place to which such person shall again remove, and for the commissioners acting for the last-mentioned district to add the same to the assessment, and cause the same to be raised in such last-mentioned district, by the same ways and means as are herein provided with respect to a first removal; and all and every the said provisions last herein contained, as applied to a first removal, shall be observed, followed, and applied to and upon every subsequent removal of the same person, as well for enforcing the payment of all arrears of the said compositions, as for charging and raising the future instalment or instalments, as part of the assessment of the parish, ward, or place, to and in which the person so compounding shall actually remove and reside, as for exonerating and discharging the assessments and duplicates for the parish, ward, and place from which such person shall have so again removed, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 6.

62. Where any person having compounded under the said acts for a carriage with two wheels, shall have substituted a four-wheel carriage in lieu thereof, and have compounded for the same, and for payment of the difference of duty, under the power given for that purpose by an act passed in the last session of parliament [so in the act, but the title corresponds with 4 G. 4. c. 11.], intituled, An Act for repealing certain of the duties of assessed taxes, for reducing certain other of the said duties, and for relieving persons who have compounded for the same, it shall be lawful for every such person to have and enjoy the same privileges during the continuance of his said contract, as he would have enjoyed under the said acts, if they respectively had originally compounded for a carriage with four wheels; and every person who hath compounded under the said acts, or who shall compound under this act for a male servant or male servants, chargeable with duty under schedule (C.) No. 1, of 52 G. 3. c. 93. [Stat. Dig. this title, p. 1502] may employ any male person or male persons, not being servants to such persons so compounding, as occasional waiters, or in any of the capacities enumerated in the said schedule (C.) No. 1, free of any duty, provided such respective employments shall not exceed or extend beyond those allowed and defined by the rules contained in the schedule marked (C.) No. 3, of the said last-mentioned act, in respect of such male persons last-mentioned; and all assessments made or to be made on such persons so compounding as last aforesaid, during the continuance of his, her, or their composition, in respect of any such occasional waiters or male persons aforesaid, shall be null and void, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 7. [See s. 8. ante, pl. 51.]

63. All and every the provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, and things contained in the said recited acts, although expressly applied to the compositions made under the said acts, or either of them, shall severally and respectively be construed and deemed to apply to the compositions to be entered into under this act, and (except where other provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, and things are substituted in and by this act) shall severally and respectively be used and practised in ascertaining the amount on which any composition is to be made, and the additional rate to be imposed thereon, and in doing and performing all other matters and things necessary for carrying this act into execution, and shall be construed, deemed, and taken to belong to this act, as part thereof, in like manner as if the same were severally repeated in and expressly applied to the provisions of this act; and where other provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, or things are substituted by this act, in lieu of any provisions, directions, rules, regulations, methods, clauses, matters, or things contained in the said acts, the same respectively shall be construed, used, and practised in such manner and to the like effect in all respects, as if the said recited acts and this act had been incorporated, and as if this act had expressly abrogated and made void the several parts of the said recited acts, in lieu whereof any part of this act is substituted, 4 G. 4. c. 45. s. 9. [See s. 10, ante, pl. 19.]

64. Provisions of former composition acts, except as hereby varied, applied to this act in entering into compositions, and granting relief under existing compositions, 5 G. 4. c. 44. s. 8. [See the section at length, ante, pl. 32.]

65. In case any person, who, having compounded under the said recited acts, in respect of a carriage with two wheels, shall be desirous, during the year commencing on the 5th April 1823, of discontinuing to keep the same, and of substituting a carriage with four wheels in lieu thereof, it shall be lawful for him so to do, on giving notice of such his or her intention to the surveyor of the said duties acting for the district in which such person shall reside, within six calendar months after the passing of this act, on payment of the difference of duty so compounded for on a two-wheeled carriage, and reduced by this act, and the duty chargeable by the said act and also reduced by this act, on a four-wheeled carriage, together with the duty of 5 per cent. on such difference to be endorsed by certificate on every such contract of composition by any two of the commissioners acting in the execution of the same acts in the district in which such contract shall have been entered into, and to be made payable from and after the 5th April 1823, by half-yearly instalments, during the continuance of the said contract, and which additional payments shall be enforced in like manner as if they were originally inserted in every such contract, and any person seeking the benefit of this provision shall and may, during the continuance of his or her said composition, keep and use any four-wheeled carriage free of duty, 4 G. 4. c. 11. s. 6.

KNOW all men, That we, two of the commissioners acting in the execution of the acts in relation to the assessed taxes for the division of—in the county of—have contracted and agreed with—of—in the said division, in pursuance of an act passed in the fifth year of King George the Fourth, for the composition of assessed taxes, as stated in the margin hereof, and additional rate; which several amounts are to be paid to the collectors of the said—or to the collectors of any parish or place to which the said—shall remove, and to which any part of the said composition shall thereupon be transferred, under the provisions of the said act, by two instalments; viz.

1st instalment on or before the tenth day of October:

2d Instalment on or before the fifth day of April:

and so yearly, during the respective terms of four years, and three years, from the fifth day of April 1824, mentioned in the said act.

The condition of the above composition is, that the above-named—shall duly pay, or cause to be paid, to the collectors for the said compositions, or one of them, on or before the days above mentioned, upon demand, the yearly sum of—by two instalments in even portions, taking their or his receipt in writing for the same; otherwise the said composition shall be levied of the goods and chattels of the said—or sued for and recovered by any of the ways and means by which the monies due on assessments may be sued for and recovered.

TRANSPORTATION.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. To amend the several laws relative to the transportation of offenders, to continue in force till 1st May 1821., 56 G. 3. c. 27. [Stat. Dig. this tit. pl. 25.] EXTENDED to offenders in foreign dominions, 59 G. 3. c. 101.; CONTINUED for two years, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 6.; AMENDED as to the employment in the colonies of male convicts under sentence of transportation, 4 G. 4. c. 47., which was, by s. 5. to continue in force so long as 56 G. 3. c. 27. remained in force; — all therefore now EXPIRED.

(STATUTES in force.)

2. For the transportation of offenders from G. B., 5 G. 4. c. 84.

3. Whereas the several laws in force for regulating the transportation of offenders from G. B. will expire at the end of the present session of parliament; and it is expedient that the laws relative to that subject should be revised and consolidated into one act: be it therefore enacted, That this act shall take effect on the last day of this present session of parliament; and that on and from that day, all things remaining to be done, touching the punishment, imprisonment, correction, removal, transportation, discipline, employment, diet, and clothing of persons sentenced or ordered to transportation or banishment from any part of G. B., under any acts heretofore or now in force, or pardoned on condition of being transported under any such acts, shall be continued, done, and completed under the provisions of this act; and that all sentences and orders for transportation, all orders in council, and other orders, warrants, instructions, directions, appointments, authorities, contracts, and securities, made, issued, or given under any of the said acts, and in force at the time of the commencement of this act, shall continue in force under and by virtue of this act, unless and until they shall be revoked or superseded, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 1.

4. From and after the commencement of this act, every person convicted before any court of competent jurisdiction in G. B., of an offence for which he or she shall be liable to be transported or banished, shall be adjudged and ordered to be transported or banished beyond the seas, for the term of life or years for which such offender shall be liable by any law to be transported or banished; and every sentence of transportation or banishment passed or to be passed on any offender in any court of competent jurisdiction in G. B., and every order for transportation or banishment made or to be made in pursuance of the sentence of any such court or other competent authority, shall subject the offender to be conveyed beyond the seas under the provisions of this act; and whenever H. M. shall be pleased to extend mercy to any offender convicted of any crime for which he or she is or shall be excluded from the benefit of clergy, upon condition of transportation beyond the seas, either for the term of life, or any number of years, and such intention of mercy shall be signified by one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state to the court before which such offender hath been or shall be convicted, or any subsequent court with the like authority, such court shall allow to such offender the benefit of a conditional pardon, and make an order for the immediate transportation of such offender; and in case such intention of mercy shall be so signified to the judge or justice before whom such offender hath been or shall be convicted, or to any judge of H. M.'s court of K. B. or C. P., or to any baron of the exchequer of the degree of the coif in Eng., such judge, justice, or baron shall allow to such offender the benefit of a conditional pardon, and make an order for the immediate transportation of such offender, in the same manner as if such intention of mercy had been signified to the court during the term or session in or at which such offender was convicted; and such allowance and order shall be considered as an allowance and order made by the court before which such offender was convicted, and shall be entered on the records of the same court by the proper officer thereof, and shall be as effectual, and have the same consequences as if such allowance and order had been made by the same court during the continuance thereof; and every such order, and also every order made by the court of justiciary in Scot. for the transportation of any offender, whose sentence of death shall be remitted by H. M., shall subject the offender to be conveyed beyond the seas under the provisions of this act, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 2.

5. It shall be lawful for H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, from time to time, to appoint any place beyond the seas, either within or without H. M.'s dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or banishment shall be conveyed; and that when any offenders shall be about to be transported or banished from G. B., one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state shall give orders for their removal to the ship to be employed for their transportation, and shall authorize and empower some person to make a contract for their effectual transportation to some of the places so appointed, and shall direct security to be given for their effectual transportation, in the manner herein-after mentioned, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 3.

6. The sheriff or gaoler receiving such order of removal shall by virtue thereof forthwith remove every offender to whom the same shall apply, and who, having been examined by an experienced surgeon or apothecary, shall appear to be free from any putrid or infectious distemper, and fit to be transported to the ship employed for his or her transportation, and there deliver every such offender to the contractor, together with a true copy, attested by such sheriff or gaoler, of the caption and order of the court by which each such offender was sentenced or ordered for transportation, containing the sentence or order of transportation of each such offender, by virtue whereof he or she shall be in the custody of such sheriff or gaoler; and also a certificate specifying concisely the description of his or her crime, his or her age, whether married or unmarried, his or her trade or profession, and an account of his or her behaviour in prison before and after trial, and the gaoler's observations on his or her temper and disposition, and such information concerning his or her connexions and former course of life as may have come to the gaoler's knowledge; and such contractor shall give a receipt in writing to the sheriff or gaoler, for the discharge of such sheriff or gaoler, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 4.

7. Every such contractor, with two sureties, shall, before any such offender shall be delivered to him to be transported, give security by bond to H. M., that he will effectually transport, or cause to be transported, every offender included in his contract, to such place beyond the seas as shall be specified in the contract, and procure from the governor of the colony, or other person to whom he shall be directed by one of the principal secretaries of state to deliver such offender, a certificate of the landing of such offender in that place, whereto he or she shall be ordered to be transported (death and casualties by sea excepted); and that such offender shall not be suffered to return to any part of the U. K., by the wilful default of such contractor, or of any person employed by him, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 5.

8. If any such offender shall be guilty of misbehaviour or disorderly conduct on board of the ship in which he or she shall be transported, it shall be lawful for the surgeon or principal medical officer for the time being of such ship, to inflict or cause to be inflicted on such misbehaving or disorderly offender, such moderate punishment or correction as may be authorized by the instructions which he may receive from one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state: provided, that no such punishment or correction shall be so inflicted, unless the master or principal officer for the time being of such ship shall first signify his approbation thereof in writing under his hand; and every such punishment or correction, together with the particulars of the offence for which the same is inflicted, and such written approbation as aforesaid, shall on the same day, in all cases, be entered by such master or principal officer as aforesaid, upon the log-book of the ship, under a penalty of 20*l.* for every neglect to make such entry, to be recovered to the use of the informer, by bill, plaint, or information, in any court of record in Eng., or in one of the supreme courts of New South Wales or Van Dieman's Land, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 6.

9. Provided, that whenever the transportation of any such offender shall take place in any ship belonging to H. M., it shall be lawful for one of the principal secretaries of state, by warrant under his hand, to nominate some person who shall have the custody of such offender during the voyage, and thereupon such offender may be delivered to such nominee, without any contract or security being required or given for the effectual transportation of such offender; and every such nominee shall have the like power of punishing misbehaviour and disorderly conduct in such offender during the voyage, as is hereby given to the surgeon of a ship specially employed for the transportation of offenders, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 7.

10. So soon as any such offender shall be delivered to the governor of the colony, or other person to whom the contractor, or such nominee as aforesaid, shall be so directed to deliver him or her, the property in the service of such offender shall be vested in the governor of the colony for the time being, or in such other person; and it shall be lawful for the governor for the time being, and for such other person, whenever he shall think fit to assign any such offender to any other person for the then residue of his or her term of transportation, and for such assignee to assign over such offender, and so as often as may be thought fit; and the property in the service of such offender shall continue in the governor for the time being, or in such other person as aforesaid, or his assigns, during the whole remaining term of life or years for which such offender was sentenced or ordered to be transported: provided, that for the purposes of this act, every person administering the government of a colony, by whatever name or title he may be denominated, shall be deemed to be the governor thereof, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 8.

11. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall in any manner affect H. M.'s royal prerogative of mercy, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 9.

12. It shall be lawful for H. M. from time to time, by warrant under his royal sign manual, to appoint places of confinement within Eng. or Wa., either at land, or on board vessels to be provided by H. M. in the river Thames, or some other river, or within the limits of some port or harbour of Eng. or Wa., for the confinement of male offenders under sentence or order of transportation, which shall be under the management of a superintendant and overseer to be appointed by H. M.; and it shall be lawful for one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state to direct the removal of any male offender who shall be under sentence of death, but who shall be reprieved, or whose sentence shall be respited during H. M.'s pleasure, or who shall be under sentence or order of transportation, and who, having been examined by an experienced surgeon or apothecary, shall appear to be free from any putrid or infectious distemper, and fit to be removed from the gaol or prison in which such offender shall be confined, to any of the places of confinement so appointed; and every offender who shall be so removed shall continue in the said place of confinement, or be removed to and confined in some other such place or places as aforesaid, as one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state shall from time to time direct, until such offender shall be transported according to law, or shall become entitled to his liberty, or until one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state shall direct the return of such offender to the gaol or prison from which he shall have been removed; and the sheriff or gaoler having the custody of any offender whose removal shall be ordered in manner aforesaid, shall, with all convenient speed, after the receipt of any such order, convey or cause to be conveyed every such offender to the place appointed, and there deliver him to such superintendant or overseer, together with a true copy, attested by such sheriff or gaoler, of the caption and order of the court by which such offender was sentenced or ordered for transportation, containing the sentence or order of transportation of each such offender, by virtue whereof he shall be in the custody of such sheriff or gaoler; and also a certificate, specifying concisely the description of his crime, his age, whether married or unmarried, his trade or profession, and an account of his behaviour in prison before and after his trial, and the gaoler's observations on his temper and disposition, and such information concerning his connexions and former course of life as may have come to the gaoler's knowledge; and such superintendant or overseer shall give a receipt in writing to the sheriff or gaoler, for the discharge of such sheriff or gaoler, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 10.

13. It shall be lawful for H. M. to appoint one fit and able person to be superintendant of the said places of confinement; and in case it shall be deemed expedient, it shall be lawful for H. M. also to appoint one fit and able person to be assistant or deputy to such superintendant, at one or more of the said places of confinement, and to be constantly resident at or near the place or places to which he shall be appointed; and also one fit and able person to be overseer of each such place of confinement, who, with a sufficient number of officers and guards, shall constantly reside therein; and such superintendant shall personally visit and inspect such places of confinement four times in every year, or oftener if occasion shall require, and shall distinctly examine into the state of such places of confinement, the behaviour and conduct of the respective assistants or deputies, overseers, officers, and guards, the treatment and condition of the prisoners and the amount of the several earnings, and the expences attending every such place of confinement, and shall, at least twice in every year, make a faithful report of the same to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, who shall cause such report to be laid before both houses of parliament at the beginning of every session; and such superintendant shall distinguish in such report the amount of the earnings and expences at each of such places of confinement, and shall state the average number of prisoners confined therein, and the number of days labour done by such prisoners, distinguishing the work of artificers, and of any other superior labourers, from that of common labourers; and such superintendant shall also, in matters of extreme necessity, make a special report thereof to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, who may, and is hereby authorized to afford such redress or provide such regulations as he shall deem proper; and such superintendant, assistants or deputies, and overseers, shall continue in office during H. M.'s pleasure, and shall receive such salaries as one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state shall appoint; and such superintendant shall be paid such travelling and other reasonable expences as shall be incurred by him in discharge of his duty, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 11.

14. Whenever any offender shall be brought to any such place of confinement as aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers of this act, he shall be washed, cleansed, and purified, and the clothes in which he shall be then clothed shall be burnt, if necessary, or otherwise shall be preserved and taken care of for him by the overseer, and re-delivered to him upon his quitting it, or sold for his benefit, and the produce thereof accounted for to him by the overseer; and when such offender shall be finally discharged, such other decent clothing as shall be judged necessary and proper by the superintendant, shall be delivered to such offender by the overseer, and also such sum of money for his immediate subsistence, as the superintendant shall think proper, so as such sum shall not in any case exceed 5*l.*, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 12.

15. It shall be lawful for H. M., by any order or orders in council, to declare his royal will and pleasure, that male offenders convicted in G. B., and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to labour in any part of H. M.'s dominions out of Eng., to be named in such order or orders in council; and that whenever H. M.'s will and pleasure shall be so declared in council, it shall be lawful for one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state to direct the removal and confinement of any such male offender, either at land or on board any vessel to be provided by H. M. within the limits of any port or harbour in that part of H. M.'s dominions which shall be named in such order in council, under the management of the said superintendant, and of an overseer to be appointed by H. M. for each such vessel or other place of confinement; and that every offender who shall be so removed shall continue on board the vessel or other place of confinement to be so provided, or any similar vessel or other place of confinement to be from time to time provided by H. M. until H. M. shall otherwise direct, or until the offender shall be entitled to his liberty, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 13.

16. The said superintendant shall from time to time make returns, specifying the name of every person in custody in each of such places of confinement, the offence of which he shall have been guilty, the court before which he shall have been convicted, and the sentence of such court, together with his age and bodily state, and his behaviour whilst in custody; and also the names of such offenders as shall have died whilst in such custody, or shall have escaped, or have been lawfully discharged from the same; which returns shall be made on the 1st Jan., April, July, and Oct. in every year, to one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, on the oath of the overseer of each place of confinement, such oath to be made before a justice of the peace, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 14.

17. After the removal of any offender under this act, the superintendant and overseer who shall have the custody of him, shall, during the term of such custody, have the same powers over him as are incident to the office of a sheriff or gaoler, and shall in like manner be answerable for any escape of such offender; and if any offender shall during such custody be guilty of any misbehaviour or disorderly conduct, the superintendant or overseer shall be authorized to inflict, or cause to be inflicted on him, such moderate punishment or correction as shall be allowed by one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state; and such superintendant or overseer shall also, during such custody, see every offender fed and clothed according to a scale of diet and clothing to be fixed on, and notified in writing by one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state to the superintendant; and shall keep such offender to labour at such places, and under such regulations, directions, limitations, and restrictions, as by such secretary of state shall from time to time be prescribed; and in case of the absence of any such superintendant or overseer, or of the vacancy of his office, his duties or powers shall be discharged and exercised in all respects by the officer or person on whom the command of the place of confinement shall devolve, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 15.

18. It shall be lawful for such superintendant, and he is hereby authorized, in every such place of confinement as aforesaid, either at land or on board any vessel to be provided as aforesaid, and also in every place wherein any offenders under his superintendence shall be employed to labour, to act in every respect as a justice of the peace, as if he had been named in the commission of the peace, and had been duly qualified to act as a justice of the peace for the county or place in which any such place of confinement shall be, or any such offender shall be employed to labour, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 16.

19. And whereas by the laws in force in some parts of H. M.'s dominions not within the U. K., offenders convicted of certain offences are liable to be punished by transportation beyond the seas, and other convicts adjudged to suffer death in such parts of H. M.'s dominions have received or may receive H. M.'s most gracious pardon upon condition of transportation beyond the seas, and there may be no means of transporting such convicts to any of the places appointed by H. M. in council in that behalf, without first bringing them to Eng.; be it therefore enacted, That whenever any convict adjudged to transportation by any court or judge in any part of H. M.'s dominions not within the U. K., or any convict adjudged to suffer death by any such court or judge, and pardoned on condition of transportation, have been or shall be brought to Eng. in order to be transported, it shall be lawful to imprison any such offender in any place of confinement provided under the authority of this act, until such convict shall be transported, or shall become entitled to his liberty; and that so soon as every such convict shall be so imprisoned, all the provisions, rules, regulations, clauses, authorities, powers, penalties, matters, and things aforesaid, concerning the safe custody, confinement, treatment, and transportation of any offender convicted in G. B., shall extend and be construed to extend to every convict who may have been or may be hereafter adjudged to transportation by any court or judge in any part of H. M.'s dominions not within the U. K., and to every convict adjudged by any such court or judge to suffer death, and pardoned on condition of transportation, and brought to Eng. in order to be transported, as fully and effectually as if such convict had been convicted and sentenced at any session of gaol delivery holden for any county within Eng., 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 17.

20. It shall be lawful to keep to hard labour every offender under sentence or order of transportation, while he or she shall remain in the common gaol, if his or her health shall permit, and if one or more of the visiting justices of such gaol shall give a written order to that effect; and that it shall be lawful for one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, if he shall think fit, to order that any such offender be removed from the common gaol to the house of correction, and there kept to hard labour, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 18.

21. The time during which any offender shall continue in any gaol or house of correction, or in any such place of confinement as aforesaid, under sentence or order of transportation or banishment, shall be taken and reckoned in discharge or part discharge of the term of his or her transportation or banishment, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 19.

22. The sheriff or gaoler, and every person employed in the conveyance of any offender in order to be transported or banished, or to be imprisoned in any such place of confinement as aforesaid, or in the reconveyance of any offender from any such place of confinement to the gaol or prison from which he was removed, may, in such manner as he shall think fit, carry and secure such offender in and through any county of G. B., towards the sea-port or place from whence he or she is to be transported or banished, or where he or she is to be confined, or to the gaol or prison to which he or she is to be re-conveyed, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 20.

23. In Eng. and Wa. all such fees, on the delivering out of custody of any such offender so ordered to be transported or removed, as have usually been paid to the sheriff or gaoler, and all reasonable expences which the sheriff or gaoler shall incur in every such removal, shall be paid by the county, riding, division, city, borough, liberty, or place for which the court in which the offender was convicted shall have been held; and the sheriff or gaoler shall receive the money due for such expences from the treasurer of such county, riding, division, city, borough, liberty, or place; such fees and expences being first allowed by the order of the justices of the peace at their quarter or other general sessions of the peace, who are hereby required to make such order as shall be just in that behalf; and the clerk of the court shall be paid by such treasurer the same fee as hath been usually paid, and he is lawfully entitled to receive, for every order of transportation; and in Scot. all such fees and expences shall be paid in the same manner as has been heretofore practised, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 21.

24. If any offender who shall have been or shall be so sentenced or ordered to be transported or banished, or who shall have agreed or shall agree to transport or banish himself or herself on certain conditions, either for life or any number of years, under the provisions of this or any former act, shall be afterwards at large within any part of H. M.'s dominions, without some lawful cause, before the expiration of the term for which such offender shall have been sentenced or ordered to be transported or banished, or shall have so agreed to transport or banish himself or herself, every such offender so being at large, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer death as in cases of felony without the benefit of clergy; and such offender may be tried either in the county or place where he or she shall be apprehended, or in that from whence he or she was ordered to be transported or banished; and if any person shall rescue or attempt to rescue, or assist in rescuing or attempting to rescue, any such offender from the custody of such superintendant or overseer, or of any sheriff or gaoler or other person conveying, removing, transporting, or re-conveying him or her, or shall convey or cause to be conveyed any disguise, instrument for effecting escape, or arms to such offender, every such offence shall be punishable in the same manner as if such offender had been confined in a gaol or prison in the custody of the sheriff or gaoler, for the crime of which such offender shall have been convicted; and whoever shall discover and prosecute to conviction any such offender so being at large within this kingdom, shall be entitled to a reward of 20*l.* for every such offender so convicted, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 22.

25. In any indictment against any offender for being found at large contrary to this or any other act now or hereafter to be made, and also in any indictment against any person who shall rescue or attempt to rescue, or assist in rescuing any such offender from such custody, or who shall convey or cause to be conveyed any disguise, instrument for effecting escape, or arms, to any such offender, contrary to this or any other act now or hereafter to be made, whether such offender shall have been tried before any court or judge within or without the U. K., or before any naval or military court-martial, it shall be sufficient to charge and allege the order made for the transportation or banishment of such offender, without charging or alleging any indictment, trial, conviction, judgment, or sentence, or any pardon or intention of mercy, or signification thereof, of or against or in any manner relating to such offender, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 23.

26. The clerk of the court or other officer having the custody of the records of the court where such sentence or order of transportation or banishment shall have been passed or made, shall, at the request of any person on H. M.'s behalf, make out and give a certificate in writing, signed by him, containing the effect and substance only (omitting the formal part) of every indictment and conviction of such offender, and of the sentence or order for his or her transportation or banishment (not taking for the same more than 6*s.* 8*d.*), which certificate shall be sufficient evidence of the conviction and sentence or order for the transportation or banishment of such offender; and every such certificate, if made by the clerk or officer of any court in G. B., shall be received in evidence, upon proof of the signature and official character of the person signing the same; and every such certificate, if made by the clerk or officer of any court out of G. B., shall be received in evidence if verified by the seal of the court, or by the signature of the judge, or one of the judges of the court, without further proof, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 24.

27. Nothing in this act contained respecting offenders under sentence or order of banishment, shall apply to persons adjudged to be banished under 60 G. 3. c. 8. [Stat. Dig. tit. LIBEL, pl. 6.], intituled, An Act for the more effectual prevention and punishment of blasphemous and seditious libels, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 5.

28. Whereas it hath sometimes happened, that felons under sentence or order of transportation in New South Wales and the islands adjacent, have received from the governor or lieutenant-governor thereof remissions, either absolute or conditional, of the whole or of some part of the term of their transportation, and have by their industry acquired property, in the enjoyment whereof it is expedient to protect them; and the like may happen in future in the same colony, and in other colonies to which felons may be transported under this act; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for every felon under sentence or order of transportation, who hath received or shall receive any such remission as aforesaid from the governor or lieutenant-governor of New South Wales, or from the governor or lieutenant-governor of any other colony, who may be authorized to grant the same, while such felon shall reside in a place where he lawfully may reside under such sentence, order, or remission, and under the provisions of this act, to maintain any action or suit for the recovery of any property, real, personal, or mixed, acquired by such felon since his or her conviction, and for any damage or injury sustained by such felon since his or her conviction, not only in the courts of the colony or place where such felon shall lawfully reside, but also in the courts of this kingdom, and of all other H. M.'s dominions; and if the defendant in any such action or suit shall plead or allege in his defence the plaintiff's or complainant's conviction of felony, and the plaintiff or complainant shall allege and prove that he or she hath received such remission as aforesaid, and is residing in some place consistent therewith and with the provisions of this act, a verdict shall pass and judgment shall be given for the plaintiff or complainant, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 26.

29. If any suit or action shall be prosecuted in Eng., Wa., or Ire., against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done by the authority of this act; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or judgment shall in any manner be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for the same as any defendants have by law in other cases; and notwithstanding a verdict shall be given for the plaintiff in any such action, such plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant, unless the judge before whom the trial shall be had shall certify his approbation of the verdict, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 27.

30. All actions, suits, and prosecutions against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within six calendar months after the fact committed, and not otherwise; and if the fact was done within the body of any county, it shall be laid and tried in that county, and no other; and if done out of the body of any county, it shall be laid and tried in the county of Middlesex, and not elsewhere, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 28.

31. From and after the commencement of this act, so much of 4 G. 1. c. 11. ss. 1, 2, 3. [Stat. Dig. tit. TRANSPORTATION, pl. 2. 4, 5.], intituled, An Act for the further preventing robbery, burglary, and other felonies, and for the more effectual transportation of felons, and unlawful exporters of wool; and for declaring the law upon some points relating to pirates, as relates to contracts and security for the transportation of offenders, and to the punishment of those who return from transportation; and so much of 6 G. 1. c. 23. ss. 2—7. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 7.], intituled, An Act for the further preventing robbery, burglary, and other felonies, and for the more effectual transportation of felons, as relates to the same objects; and 16 G. 2. c. 15. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 8—11.], intituled, An Act for the more easy and effectual conviction of offenders found at large within the kingdom of G. B., after they have been ordered for transportation; and 8 G. 3. c. 15. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 12, 13.], intituled, An Act for the more speedy and effectual transportation of offenders; and so much of 28 G. 3. c. 24. ss. 4, 5. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 17.] intitled, An Act to continue several laws relating to the granting a bounty on the exportation of certain species of British and Irish linens exported, and taking off the duties on the importation of foreign raw linen yarns made of flax, and to the preventing the committing of frauds by bankrupts, and for continuing and amending several laws relating to the imprisonment and transportation of offenders, as relates to the transportation of offenders, and their removal to and imprisonment in temporary places of confinement; and so much of 51 G. 3. c. 46. s. 7. [Stat. Dig. tit. PRISON, pl. 194; and the rest of the act is repealed by 4 G. 4. c. 64. s. 1. see GAOLS], intitled, An Act for the better regulating of gaols and other places of confinement, as relates to the imprisonment and employment in hard labour of prisoners sentenced to transportation; and 43 G. 3. c. 15. [Stat. Dig. tit. TRANSPORTATION, pl. 21, 22.] intitled, An Act to facilitate and render more easy the transportation of offenders; shall be and the same are hereby repealed, 5 G. 4. c. 84. s. 29.

32. For punishing offences committed by transports kept to labour in the colonies; and better regulating the powers of justices of the peace in New South Wales, 6 G. 4. c. 69.

33. Whereas by 5 G. 4. c. 84., intitled, An Act for the transportation of offenders from G. B., H. M. is empowered by order in council to declare his royal will and pleasure, that male offenders convicted in G. B., and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be kept to labour in any part of H. M.'s dominions out of Eng., to be named in such order or orders in council, and that whenever H. M.'s will and pleasure shall be so declared in council, it shall be lawful for one of H. M.'s principal secretaries of state to direct the removal and confinement of any such male offender, either at land, or on board any vessel to be provided by H. M. within the limits of any port or harbour in that part of H. M.'s dominions which shall be named in such order in council: and whereas it is expedient, for preserving uniformity of discipline and punishment among such offenders, that they should continue amenable to the criminal law of Eng.: be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the lords spiritual and temporal, and commons, in this present parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that every offence committed by any male offender kept to labour in any part of H. M.'s dominions out of Eng., under and by virtue of the provision herein-before recited, whether such offence shall be treason, felony, or misdemeanor by the law of Eng., shall be an offence of the same quality, degree, and denomination, and shall be attended with the same punishment and consequences, wheresoever such offence shall be committed by such male offender, while so kept to labour as aforesaid, as if the same were committed within Eng., and shall be tried, heard, and determined in the supreme criminal court of the colony or place within whose jurisdictions respectively the offence shall have been committed, or under any commission issued by virtue of an act passed in the 46th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled, An Act for the more speedy trial of offences committed in distant parts upon the sea, 6 G. 4. c. 69. s. 1.

43. Provided that nothing herein-before contained shall extend to any offenders under sentence of transportation in New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or any islands adjacent thereto, 6 G. 4. c. 69. s. 2.

35. All and every the powers, authorities, and jurisdiction which in and by 4 G. 4. c. 96. s. 19. [ante, tit. NEW HOLLAND, pl. 51.] intitled, An Act to provide until 1st July 1827, and until the end of the next session of parliament, for the better administration of justice in New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, and for the more effectual government thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto, are vested in the courts of general and quarter sessions, for the taking cognizance of and punishing all crimes and misdemeanors not punishable with death, committed by any felons or other offenders who have been or shall be transported to New South Wales or its dependencies, and whose sentences have not expired or been remitted, or for taking cognizance of complaints made against any such felons or offenders for drunkenness, disobedience of orders, neglect of work, absconding or desertion, abusive language to their, his, or her employers or overseers, insubordination or other turbulent or disorderly conduct, or for punishing such offences, or any of them, shall be and all such powers, authorities, and jurisdiction are and is hereby vested in any one or more justice or justices of the peace in and for the said colony, or in or for any district or county thereof, to be by such justice or justices exercised in a summary way; provided that no such justice or justices shall exercise any such powers, authorities, or jurisdiction as aforesaid, in any case where any court of general or quarter-sessions shall be appointed to be held within one week after the complaint shall be preferred against any such offender, at any place not more than 20 miles distant from the place at which the offence shall be charged to have been committed, 6 G. 4. c. 49. s. 3.

36. It shall and may be lawful for H. M., by any order or orders to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued, with the advice of his privy council, to appoint, or by any such order or orders in council to authorize the governors, lieutenant-governors, or other persons, for the time being administering the government of any of H. M.'s foreign possessions, colonies, or plantations, to appoint the place or places within H. M.'s dominions to which any offender, convicted in any such foreign possession, colonies, or plantations, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be sent or transported; and all such persons shall, within the place or places to which, in pursuance of any such order or orders in council, they shall or may be so sent or transported, be subject and liable to all such and the same laws, rules, and regulations as are or shall be in force in any such place or places, with respect to convicts transported from G. B., 6 G. 4. c. 69. s. 4.

37. All persons who have heretofore been transported or sent to New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or to any other part of H. M.'s dominions, under or in pursuance of or in execution of any judgment or sentence of any court in any of H. M.'s foreign possessions, colonies, or plantations, shall, in New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or such other part of H. M.'s dominions as aforesaid, be henceforth subject or liable to all such laws, rules, and regulations as are or shall be in force in New South Wales or Van Diemen's Land, or such other part of H. M.'s dominions as aforesaid, with respect to convicts transported from G. B.; and all officers, justices of the peace, and other persons whatsoever, shall be and they are hereby absolutely indemnified of, from, and against all indictments, informations, suits, actions, and demands whatsoever, which shall or may at any time hereafter be brought or maintained, or which may now be depending against them or any of them, for or in respect of any act, matter, or thing by such officers, justices of the peace, or others done or performed, in enforcing against any such persons, so transported from H. M.'s said colonies or plantations, the laws, rules, and regulations or any of the laws, rules, and regulations in force with respect to convicts transported from G. B.; and it shall and may be lawful to the defendants in any such indictments, informations, suits, or actions, to plead the general issue, and to give this act and the special matter in evidence upon the trial of any such issue; and if a verdict shall be given for any such defendant in any such indictments, informations, suits, or actions, such defendant shall thereupon be entitled to enter up judgment, with double costs of suit, 6 G. 4. c. 69. s. 5.

TURNPIKE ROADS.

1. To amend the general laws now in being for regulating turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., 3 G. 4. c. 126. [AMD. and REP. as to ss. 5, 6. 8. 10. 19. 32. 34. 42. 50. 52. 56. 67. 68. 77. 96. 102. 104. 122. 129. 135. 145., by 4 G. 4. c. 95., and further AMD. as to s. 61. as to justices for ridings, &c. acting as trustees for turnpike roads, by 5 G. 4. c. 69. post, pl. 63. See 4 G. 4. c. 16. post, pl. 226, 227.]

2. Whereas the laws now in force for the general regulation of turnpike roads in that part of G. B. call Eng., are found to be ineffectual, and require amendment; wherefore, for remedy thereof, be it enacted, That from and after the 1st Jan. 1825, 13 G. 3. c. 84. [Stat. Dig. tit. TURNPIKE ROADS pl. 3, 4. 6—10. 12—17. 19—28. 30, 31. 33—41. 43—92.] intitled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes; and also 14 G. 3. c. 14. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 17, 18.] intitled, An Act to repeal a clause in an act made in the 15th year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes,' which regulates the width of the wheels, and the length of carriages liable to be weighed, and for indemnifying persons who have offended against the said clause; and also 14 G. 3. c. 36., intitled, An Act to explain and amend an act made in the 15th year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes,' so far as the same relates to the continuing and granting an additional term of five years to acts made for amending turnpike roads; and also 14 G. 3. c. 57. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 42.] intitled, An Act to repeal so much of an act made in the last session of parliament, for reducing into one act the general laws relating to turnpike roads, as exempts persons from the payment of tolls at side-gates erected at places specified in any act of parliament; and also 14 G. 3. c. 82. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 5. 11. 22. 35.] intitled, An Act for explaining and altering an act made in the 15th year of His present Majesty, intitled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes,' so far as the same relates to the payment of additional tolls at weighing-engines, and the number of horses to be used in carriages drawn on turnpike roads, and for allowing certain exemptions with respect to weight and payment of toll in particular cases; and also 16 G. 3. c. 39. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 52.] intituled, *An Act for repealing a clause in an act made in the 15th year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes,' which relates to the counter-sinking of the tire of the wheels of all waggons, wains, and other carriages to be used on turnpike roads; and for explaining a provision in the said act, with respect to the fellies and tire of carriages having the fellies of the wheels of the gauge of six inches or upwards; and also 16 G. 3. c. 44. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 29.] intituled, *An Act for suspending, for a limited time, so much of an act made in the 15th year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes,' as is to subject carriages having the fellies of the wheels thereof of less breadth or gauge than six inches to the payment of double tolls, and for vacating contracts for leasing tolls; and also 17 G. 3. c. 16. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 94—96.] intituled, *An Act for limiting the exemptions from tolls (granted by any act or acts of parliament for repairing turnpike roads), on account of cattle going to and from water or pasture; and also 18 G. 3. c. 28. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 29.] intituled, *An Act for repealing so much of an act made in the 15th year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the general laws now in being for regulating the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., and for other purposes,' as is to subject carriages having the fellies of the wheels thereof of less breadth or gauge than six inches to the payment of double tolls, and for vacating contracts for leasing tolls; and also 18 G. 3. c. 63. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 97—99.] intituled, *An Act for enabling trustees under particular turnpike acts to meet and carry such acts into execution, notwithstanding they may not have met or adjourned agreeable to the directions of such acts, and for preventing disputes touching the payment of tolls for horses or carriages belonging to or employed by officers or soldiers on duty; and also 21 G. 3. c. 20. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 93.] intituled, *An Act for declaring certain provisions of an act made in the 15th year of His present Majesty, relating to the turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., to extend to all acts made and to be made for repairing roads subsequent to the passing of the said act; and also 25 G. 3. c. 57. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 100, 101.] intituled, *An Act to exempt carriages carrying the mail from paying tolls at any turnpike-gate in G. B.; and also 52 G. 3. c. 145. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 102—104, 106—108, 113.] intituled, *An Act to explain the exemption from toll in several acts of parliament, for carriages employed in husbandry, and for regulating the tolls to be paid on other carriages, and on horses, in certain other cases therein specified; and also 53 G. 3. c. 82. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 105, 109, 110, 114.] intituled, *An Act to amend an act made in the 52d year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act to explain the exemption from toll in several acts of parliament, for carriages employed in husbandry, and for regulating the tolls to be paid on other carriages and on horses in certain other cases therein specified,' and for other purposes relating thereto; and also 55 G. 3. c. 119. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 115—118.] intituled, *An Act to enable the trustees of turnpike roads to abate the tolls on carriages, and to allow of their carrying extra weights in certain cases; and also 57 G. 3. c. 37. [Stat. Dig. tit. id. pl. 111, 112.] intituled, *An Act to explain and amend an act of the 53d year of His present Majesty, relating to tolls on carriages used in husbandry, and to remove doubts as to exemption of carriages not wholly laden with manure from payment of toll; shall be repealed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 1.********

3. Provided that nothing herein shall extend, or be construed to extend, so as to revive or give any force or effect to any act repealed by the recited acts, or any of them, but such acts shall be repealed, as if this act had not been made, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 2.

4. Provided, that nothing herein shall extend to prevent the suing for and recovery of any penalty incurred by any offence committed against the provisions of the said herein-before recited acts, previous to the repeal of the said acts by this act, or to prevent or defeat any prosecution commenced or to be brought for such offence, but all penalties incurred may be sued for, and all encroachments, nuisances, and other offences made or committed previous to the repeal of the said acts, against the provisions of the said recited acts, may be abated or prosecuted in the same manner as if this act had not been passed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 3.

5. And whereas it is of great importance that one uniform system should be adhered to in the laws for regulating the management and maintenance of turnpike roads throughout the kingdom; be it therefore enacted, That from 1st Jan. 1825, all the enactments, provisions, matters, and things in this act contained, shall extend, to all acts of parliament now in force, and to all acts which shall hereafter be passed, for making, widening, turning, amending, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road in Eng., save and except where any other commencement is particularly directed by this act, and as to such enactments, provisions, matters, and things as shall be expressly referred to, and varied, altered, or repealed by any such act as shall be hereafter passed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 4.

6. That from 1st Jan. 1826, the tire of any wheel of any waggon cart, or other such carriage, which shall be used or drawn on any turnpike road, shall not be so made or constructed as not to deviate more than half an inch from a flat or level surface in wheels exceeding six inches in breadth, or more than one quarter of an inch from a flat or level surface in wheels less than six inches in breadth, or in case the several nails of the tire or tires of every such wheel shall not be so countersunk as not to project above one quarter of an inch above the surface of such tire or tires, then and in every such case the owner of every such waggon, cart, or other such carriage, shall for every such offence forfeit 5*l.*, and every driver thereof 40*s.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 5. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 1. See new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 2. post, pl. 155.]

7. From 1st Jan. 1826, no waggon or other such carriage shall be allowed to travel or be used on any road, with the fellies of the wheels thereof of a less breadth than three inches; and from and after the day and year last mentioned, if any waggon or other such carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of less breadth than three inches, shall be used or drawn on any turnpike road, the owner of every such waggon or other such carriage so used, shall for such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, and every driver thereof, not being the owner, any sum not exceeding 40*s.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 6. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 3., and see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 5, 10. post, pl. 156, 161.]

8. From 1st Jan. 1825, the trustees or commissioners appointed by virtue or under the authority of any act or acts of parliament made or to be made for making or maintaining any turnpike road, shall and they are hereby required to demand and take, for every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of less breadth than four and a half inches at the bottom or soles thereof, or for the horse or horses, or cattle drawing the same, one half more than the tolls which are or shall be payable for any carriage of the same description, having the wheels thereof of the breadth of six inches; and for every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of four and a half inches, and less than six inches at the bottom or soles thereof, or for the horse or horses, or other cattle drawing the same, one-fourth more than the tolls or duties which are or shall be payable on any carriage of the like description, having the wheels thereof of the breadth of six inches, by any act or acts of parliament now in force, or hereafter to be passed, for making or maintaining any turnpike road, before any such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage respectively, shall be permitted to pass through any turnpike gate or bar, where tolls shall be payable by virtue of any such acts, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 7.

9. Provided, that where any particular act of parliament now in force for the making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road shall direct a higher rate of toll to be taken on any waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of less breadth than six inches, and such higher rate is more than the addition which is herein-before directed to be taken, such higher rate of tolls in and by such act imposed shall continue to be levied and collected on the road to which the said act relates, in the proportions therein fixed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 8. [Recited and REP., 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 4. See new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 5—10. post, pl. 156—161.]

10. Where any waggon or cart shall have the sole or bottom of the wheels thereof rolling on a flat surface, and the nails of the tire of such wheels countersunk and be cylindrical, that is to say, of the diameter on the inside next the carriage as on the outside, so that when such wheels shall be rolling on a flat or level surface, the whole breadth thereof shall bear equally on such flat or level surface, and shall have the opposite ends of the axletrees of such waggon, cart, or other carriage, so far as the same shall be inserted into the respective naves of the wheels thereof, horizontal, and in the continuance of one straight line, without forming any angle with each other, and in each pair of wheels belonging to such carriage, the lower parts when resting on the ground shall be at the same distance from each other as the upper parts of such wheels, it shall and may be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road at a general meeting, if they shall think fit so to do, to make an order for every such waggon and cart to pass through any toll-gate or bar under the superintendence of the trustees or commissioners making such order, upon paying only so much of the tolls and duties as shall not be less than two-thirds of the full toll or duty payable by any turnpike act, on such waggon, cart, or other carriage, and the horse or horses or cattle drawing the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 9.

11. Provided, that nothing herein contained relating to the breadth of the wheels of carriages, or to the tolls payable thereon, shall extend or be construed to extend to any chaise marine, coach, landau, berlin, barouche, sociable, chariot, calash, hearse, break, chaise, curricule, gig, chair, or taxed cart, market cart, or other cart for the conveyance of passengers or light goods or articles, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 10. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 18. See new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 19. post, pl. 166.]

12. It shall and may be lawful for any trustee or commissioner of any turnpike road, and for every collector or his deputy, or other person acting by or under the authority of the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, or of their lessees of tolls, to measure and examine the breadth and construction of the wheels of every waggon, cart, or other such carriage passing on such turnpike road; such measurement and examination to take place, if the trustee, commissioner, or other authorized persons making the same shall so require, previously to such waggon, cart, or other carriage being allowed to pass through any toll-gate or bar at which toll shall be payable; and if any owner or driver of any such waggon, cart, or other carriage, shall turn or drive out of the road, in order to avoid or evade the measuring of the wheels of such waggon, cart, or other carriage, or if any such owner, driver, or any other person, shall refuse to allow the wheels of any such waggon, cart, or other carriage to be measured, and the construction thereof examined, or shall attempt to pass through any toll-gate or bar before such measurement and examination shall be made (the same having been required), or shall in any way hinder or obstruct any such trustee or commissioner, or other authorized person, in making such measurement and examination, every such owner, driver, or other person so misbehaving, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; and that it shall not be lawful for any such waggon, cart, or other carriage, not permitted to be measured or examined as aforesaid, to pass along any turnpike road; and if any collector or his deputy, or any other person appointed to collect the tolls, shall allow the same to pass before such measurement and examination shall be made (the same having been required), he shall for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.* 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 11.

15. And for regulating the weights to be allowed to waggons, wains, carts, and other carriages, be it further enacted, That the weights hereafter next specified shall be allowed to every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage, (that is to say,) to every waggon, wain, or other four-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of nine inches at the bottom or soles thereof, together with the loading of such carriage, 6 ton 10 cwt. in summer, and 6 ton in winter; to every cart or other such two-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the like breadth, together with the loading of such carriage, 3 ton 10 cwt. in summer, and 3 ton in winter; to every waggon, wain, or other such four-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of six inches and less than nine inches at the bottom or soles thereof, together with the loading of such carriage, 4 ton 15 cwt. in summer, and 4 ton 5 cwt. in winter; to every cart or other such two-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels of the breadth last mentioned at the bottom or soles thereof, together with the loading of such last mentioned carriage, 3 tons in summer, and 2 ton 15 cwt. in winter; to every waggon, wain, or other such four-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of four inches and a half and less than six inches at the bottom or soles thereof, together with the loading of such carriage, 4 ton 5 cwt. in summer, and 3 ton 15 cwt. in winter; to every cart or other such two-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth last mentioned at the bottom or soles thereof, together with the loading of such carriage, 2 ton 12 cwt. in summer, and 2 ton 7 cwt. in winter; to every waggon, wain, or other such four-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of a less breadth than four inches and a half at the bottom or soles thereof, together with the loading of such carriage, 3 ton 15 cwt. in summer, and 3 ton 5 cwt. in winter; to every cart or other such two-wheeled carriage, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth last mentioned, together with the loading of such carriage, 1 ton 15 cwt. in summer, and 1 ton 10 cwt. in winter; and for the several purposes of this act, it shall be deemed summer from the 1st May to the 31st Oct., both days inclusive, and winter from the 1st Nov. to the 30th April, both days inclusive, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 12. [See post, s. 35. pl. 36.]

14. To every caravan, or other four-wheeled carriage used for the conveyance of goods, and built and constructed with springs, shall be allowed the weights following; that is to say, for every such carriage 3 tons and 15 cwt. in winter, and 4 tons 5 cwt. in summer, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 13.

15. Provided, that to each dray with two wheels of not less than four inches and a half in breadth, and drawn by not more than three horses, and used in London, or within the bills of mortality, there shall be allowed at all times of the year, together with the loading of such dray, the full weight of 2 tons 16 cwt., 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 14.

16. It shall be lawful for all trustees and commissioners appointed by or under any act of parliament, for the making or maintaining of any turnpike road, or for any person authorized by them, and they are hereby empowered and required, to receive, take, and demand, over and above the tolls payable by any act of parliament now in force or hereafter to be passed, the following sums of money as additional toll for every hundred weight of 112 lbs. to the hundred, which any waggon, cart, or other such carriage, together with the loading thereof, shall weigh at any weighing-engine over and above the weights herein-before [in s. 13. pl. 14.] allowed to each of them respectively (that is to say): for the first and second hundred of such overweight, the sum of 3*d.* for each hundred; for every hundred of such overweight above 200 and not exceeding 500, the sum of 6*d.*; for every hundred of such overweight above 500 and not exceeding 1000, the sum of 2*s.* 6*d.*; and for every hundred of such overweight exceeding 1000, the sum of 5*s.*; which said additional sums or tolls hereby granted and made payable at any weighing-engine, shall be levied and recovered in any of the cases aforesaid, in such manner as any other toll or duty payable on the road on which any such weighing-engine shall be erected, is or shall be by law to be levied and recovered, and the monies arising therefrom shall be applied to the repairs of the turnpike road on which the same shall be recovered, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 15. [Exemptions from toll not to protect carriages from penalties for overweight, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 17. post, pl. 165.; as to reducing such tolls, id. s. 20. post, pl. 167.]

17. Provided, that the regulations of weight herein-before mentioned and provided shall not extend to any waggons, carts, or other carriages carrying only manure or lime for the improvement of land, or any hay, straw, fodder, or corn unthrashed, except hay, straw, fodder, or corn carried for sale; nor to any waggons, carts, or other carriages, carrying only one tree or one log of timber, or one block of stone, or one cable or rope; nor shall the said regulations of weight extend to any chaise marine, coach, berlin, barouche, sociable, chariot, calash, hearse, break, gig, chaise, or taxed cart, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 16. [Extended to carriages with one piece of metal, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 21. post, pl. 168.]

18. And whereas many persons may at the time of passing this act be farmers or contractors for the tolls arising or payable on turnpike roads, and for tolls and penalties for overweight, and whose contracts will not expire until after the 1st Jan. 1823; for remedy whereof, and for protection of such lessees or contractors, be it further enacted, That in case any lessee, farmer, or contractor for any tolls and penalties for overweight, payable to any trustees or commissioners appointed by virtue of any act of parliament for making, repairing, or amending turnpike roads, whose contract will not expire until after the 1st Jan. 1823, shall by reason of this act be desirous of being discharged from his contract, so far as regards such tolls or penalties for overweight, and of such his desire shall, on or before the 1st Sept. 1822, give notice in writing to the treasurer or clerk of any such trustees, then such farmers, lessees, or contractors shall, from 1st Jan. 1823, be released and discharged from their respective contracts, so far as the same relate to such tolls or penalties for overweight; and every such contracts shall from thenceforth cease and be void as to the residue of the term then to come and unexpired therein, so far as such contracts relate to such tolls or penalties for overweight, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 17. Exp.

19. Provided, that in case any such lessee, farmer or contractor, shall give such notice as herein-before [in s. 17. pl. 18.] mentioned, then it shall be lawful for such trustees or commissioners, if they think fit, to make any new contract with such lessee, farmer or contractor, or to make any compensation to him, in respect of such tolls or penalties for overweight, or to cause the said tolls or penalties for overweight to be re-let on a day and at a place to be by them appointed, of which one month's notice at least shall be given, and thereupon to proceed to, and to re-let the same for the best price they may then be enabled to obtain, without being compelled to put up the said tolls or penalties for overweight at the sum at which they were last let, or to have any other meeting for the letting thereof, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 18. Exp.

20. It shall not be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, their lessee or collectors, or other officers, to make any composition for any additional tolls or duties for or in respect of the overweight, or in any other manner as to the weight which any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage shall carry or weigh; but every contract and agreement for such composition for overweight shall be null and void; and every lessee, collector, or other officer entering into or agreeing to any such composition, and every person with whom any such composition or agreement shall be made or entered into, shall for every such composition or agreement, and for every abatement of toll for overweight in consequence thereof respectively, forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.* to any person suing for the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 19. [Recited and Rep. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 12., see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 13., post, pl. 162.]

21. If any person shall unload, or cause to be unladen, any goods, wares, or merchandize, from any cart, waggon, or other carriage, at or before the same shall come to any turnpike-gate or weighing-engine erected by virtue or in pursuance of this or any other act made for the repair or preservation of any turnpike road, or shall load or lay upon such carriage after the same shall have passed any such turnpike or weighing-engine, any goods, wares, or merchandize, taken or unladen from any horse, cart, or other carriages belonging to or hired or borrowed by the same waggoner or carrier, in order to avoid the payment of the said respective duties payable for overweight; or if any person shall so unload in order to carry considerable quantities of goods through any turnpike-gate or by any weighing-engine in one and the same day, and thereby pay less toll at such turnpike gate or weighing engine than would have been paid if such goods, wares, or merchandize had not been so unladen; or if any driver of any waggon or cart shall not wait a reasonable time whilst any other carriage shall be weighed, which shall have come to the weighing-engine before the carriage of which he shall be the driver; or if the driver of any waggon or cart shall refuse or delay to remove or drive any such waggon or cart from the weighing-machine, in order by such neglect or refusal to impede or delay the weighing of any other waggon or cart, or shall turn or drive out of any road in order to avoid or evade the weighing of any waggon or cart; each and every person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted before one or more justice or justices of the peace for the limit where the offence shall be committed, upon the oath of one credible witness, shall forfeit and pay the sum of 5*l.*, to be levied upon the goods and chattels of the owner of such cart, waggon, or other carriage; and each and every driver, not being the owner of such waggon or carriage, so offending, and being thereof convicted as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 40*s.*, and in case of non-payment thereof, shall be committed to the house of correction for any time not exceeding two calendar months, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 20.

22. It shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners, at any of their respective meetings, if they think proper, to order and cause to be built and erected, at any of the turnpikes or toll-gates on the roads under their care and management, or at such distance therefrom as they shall think expedient, one or more crane or cranes, machines, or engines, with a suitable house or other building thereto, proper for the weighing of waggons or carriages conveying any goods or merchandize whatsoever, and by a notice on a board for that purpose, to be put up at every such weighing-machine, to order and direct all and every such waggons or carriages which shall come within 100 yards of any crane, machine, or engine, to be weighed, together with the loading thereof, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 21.

23. The keeper of every toll-gate or bar where any weighing-engine shall be erected, or any other person appointed or to be appointed by the trustees or commissioners, or by their lessee, to the care of such weighing-engine, shall and is hereby required to weigh all such waggons, carts, and other carriages liable to be weighed, which shall pass loaded through such gates or bars respectively, and which he shall believe to carry greater weights than are allowed to pass without paying the said additional toll; and if any collector or person so appointed shall permit any such waggon, cart, or other carriage to pass by or through any such toll-gate with greater weights than are hereby allowed, without weighing the same and receiving such additional tolls as aforesaid, he shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 5*l.*; and if the owner or driver of any waggon, cart, or other carriage shall refuse to allow the same to be weighed, or shall resist any gate-keeper or toll-collector in weighing the same, every owner or driver so offending shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 22.

24. And in order to detect the said collector or receiver in any fraudulent contrivance or neglect of duty in the matters aforesaid, it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for any trustee or commissioner, or surveyor of every turnpike road, if he shall suspect any such connivance or neglect as aforesaid, to cause any waggon, cart, or other carriage which shall have passed through any toll-gate where any weighing-engine shall be erected, and shall not have passed above 300 yards beyond such toll-gate, to return to such weighing-engine, and be there weighed with the loading which passed through such toll-gate, in the presence of such trustee or commissioner or surveyor, upon requiring the driver thereof to drive such carriage back to such weighing-engine, and upon paying or tendering to him the sum of 1*s.* for so doing, which sum of 1*s.* shall be returned to the person paying the same, if upon weighing such carriage and the loading thereof it shall be found above the weight hereby allowed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 23.

25. And for the better enforcing the authority of this act, be it further enacted, That the surveyors of every turnpike road shall, and they are hereby authorized and required to make convenient places for turning such carriages upon every such turnpike road where any weighing-engine shall be erected, within 300 yards of such toll-gate, on each side thereof, if the ground will admit of the same; and if the driver of any such carriage, being so requested to return with his carriage to such weighing-engine, shall neglect or refuse so to do, he shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; and it shall be lawful for any peace-officer or other person being then present, upon such neglect or refusal, to drive and take such carriage back to such weighing-engine, in order to be weighed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 24.

26. Provided, that when two or more turnpike roads meet at or near the same place, it shall and may be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike roads respectively, at a meeting to be held for that purpose to fix upon some convenient place to erect a weighing-engine upon, which will accommodate all such turnpike roads, and by agreement amongst themselves at such meeting to proportion the expences which may attend the making, erecting, maintaining, and keeping in repair such weighing-engine, and likewise the money arising from forfeitures to be incurred for overweight at such weighing-machine, amongst all such turnpike roads, in such manner as to them shall appear just and reasonable, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 25.

27. In every case in which, under any act of parliament relating to any turnpike road, there is an exemption from toll or duty in respect of any horse, mule, ass, ox, waggon, cart, or other carriage, drawing or carrying any dung, mould, marl, or compost, of any nature or kind soever, for improving or manuring the land, or hay, straw, or any other fodder for cattle, or materials for repairing any turnpike road or highway, such exemption shall be deemed to extend in respect of every such waggon, cart, or other carriage, and also in respect to the cattle drawing the same, going empty or loaded only with implements necessary for more convenient carriage, or loading or unloading such landing, or returning empty, or with such implements as aforesaid, having been so laden, notwithstanding the said waggon, cart, or other carriage shall, for the purpose of aforesaid, go to or return from any parish or place in which the said turnpike does not lie, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 26. [See as to lime, 4 G. 4. c. 16. post, pl. 226, 227.]

28. Provided, that for the preventing of frauds on toll-collectors by waggons, carts, or other carriages passing empty, or loaded only with implements necessary for the more convenient carriage of, or for loading or unloading manure, or materials for the repair of any turnpike road or highway, through turnpike gates, under pretence of going for such manure or materials, the owner or driver of every such empty waggon, cart, or carriage, claiming the same exemptions or any of them, shall in all cases pay the toll in respect of such waggon, cart, or other carriage, before the same shall be permitted to pass through such turnpike-gate; and the collector of such toll shall thereupon deliver to such owner or driver a ticket, to be marked "manure exemption" or "road materials" (as the case may be), with the name of the gate and the date when delivered, and the amount of the toll so paid; all which sum or sums so paid shall be repaid to the owner or driver of such waggon, cart, or other carriage, upon his or their returning with such waggon, cart, or other carriage so laden as aforesaid, and producing such ticket; and every collector of such toll refusing to give such ticket on receiving the toll, or refusing or neglecting to return the same toll upon the return of such waggon, cart, or other carriage so laden, and re-delivery of the "manure exemption" or "road materials" ticket, as the case may be, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay to the owner of such waggon, cart, or other carriage, a penalty of not more than 5*l.*, upon conviction thereof before one or more justice or justices of the peace for the county, riding, division, or place where such offence shall be committed, upon the oath of one credible witness, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 27.

29. The owner or driver of any waggon, cart, or other carriage laden with manure for land, or materials for any turnpike road or highway, passing through any turnpike-gate, or otherwise passing on or across any turnpike road, shall not be liable to pay any toll, nor shall any toll be demanded for such carriage so laden, or the cattle drawing the same, by reason only of any basket or baskets, empty sack or sacks, or spade, shovel, or fork necessary for loading or unloading such manure or materials, being in or upon any such waggon, cart, or other carriage, in addition to such manure or materials, if the loading thereof is substantially manure for land, or materials for the repair of any turnpike road or highway as aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 28.

30. All horses travelling for hire under the post-horse duties acts, [See ante, tit. STAMPS] having passed through any turnpike-gate erected or to be erected on any turnpike road, drawing any carriage in respect of which any toll shall have been paid, on returning through the turnpike-gate at which the toll shall have been paid, and the other gates (if any) cleared by such payment, either without such carriage, or drawing such carriage, the same being empty, and without a ticket denoting a fresh hiring, shall be permitted to repass toll-free, although such horses or carriage shall not have passed through such turnpike-gate on the same day; provided that such horses so travelling shall return before nine of the clock of the morning succeeding the day on which they first passed the turnpike-gate at which the toll shall have been paid, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 29.

31. Where any horse or horses shall pass through any turnpike-gate on any road, not drawing any carriage, and a toll shall be paid on such horse or horses at such turnpike-gate, and the same horse or horses shall return drawing any carriage on the same day, or within eight hours after their first passing through such gate, the toll paid on such horse or horses on their originally passing shall be deducted from the toll payable on the same when drawing the carriage to which they shall be attached on their return, so that no higher toll shall in the whole be taken than if such horse or horses had in the first place passed through such turnpike-gate drawing the said carriage, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 30.

32. And whereas coaches, chariots, chaises, chairs, carts, and other carriages, sometimes pass through turnpike-gates affixed, tied, or secured to waggons or carts, and horses are sometimes sent under the charge of the drivers of such waggons and carts, and are fastened thereto; and it is expedient to determine what tolls such coaches, chariots, chaises, chairs, carts, and other carriages, and horses, ought to pay on passing through such gates; it is therefore enacted, That where by any act for repairing any turnpike road no toll is directed to be taken for or in respect of any coach, chariot, chaise, or any other carriage whatsoever with four wheels, passing through any turnpike-gate on such road, affixed, tied, or secured to any waggon or cart, the same toll, and no more, shall and may be demanded and taken for and in respect of such coach, chariot, chaise, or other carriage, as if the same had passed through drawn by two horses; and where by any act for repairing any turnpike road no toll is directed to be taken for or in respect of any chair, cart, or other carriage whatsoever, with two wheels only, passing through any turnpike-gate on such road, so affixed, tied, or secured to any waggon or cart as aforesaid, the same toll, and no more, shall be demanded and taken for and in respect of such chair, cart, or other carriage with two wheels only, as if the same had passed through drawn by one horse only; and where any horse shall be fastened to but not used in drawing any waggon, cart, or other carriage, such horse shall not be liable to a higher toll than a single horse; provided that if any coach, chariot, chaise, chair, cart, or other carriage so affixed, tied, or secured to any waggon or cart, shall have any goods conveyed therein other than the harness thereto belonging, and such articles of package as may be necessary for the protection of such carriages, the same shall be liable to double the toll hereby imposed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 31.

33. No toll shall be demanded or taken by virtue of this or any other act of parliament, on any turnpike road, for any horses or carriages attending H. M. or any of the royal family, or returning therefrom [See further 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 24. post, pl. 170.]; or of or from any person or persons, for any horse or horses or other beast or cattle, or for any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage employed in carrying or conveying, or going empty to fetch, carry, or convey, or returning empty from carrying or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying, on the same day, any stones, bricks, timber, wood, gravel or other materials for making or repairing any turnpike road or public highway, or for building, rebuilding, or repairing any present or any future bridge or bridges on any such road or public highway [or of or from the surveyor of any turnpike road when engaged in executing or proceeding to execute, within the limits of his own or any adjoining trust, the powers of this or any other act of parliament for repairing, maintaining, or relating to any turnpike road REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 25.], or for any horse, beast, or other cattle or carriage employed in carrying or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying on the same day, any dung, soil, compost, or manure (save and except lime [See as to lime 4 G. 4. c. 16. post, pl. 226, 227.]) for improving lands, or any ploughs, harrows, or implements of husbandry (unless laden also with some other thing not hereby exempted from toll), or any hay, straw, fodder for cattle, and corn in the straw, which has grown or arisen on land or ground in the occupation of the owner of any such hay, straw, fodder, or corn in the straw, potatoes, or other agricultural produce, and which has not been bought, sold, or disposed of, nor is going to be sold or disposed of, or for any horses or other beasts employed in husbandry going to or returning from plough or harrow, or to or from pasture or watering-place, or going to be or returning from being shod or farried, such horses or other beasts not going or returning on those occasions more than two miles on the turnpike road on which the exemption shall be claimed; or of or from any person or persons going to or returning from his, her, or their proper parochial church or chapel, or of or from any other person going to or returning from his, her, or their usual place of religious worship tolerated by law, on Sundays, or on any day on which divine service is by authority ordered to be celebrated; or of or from any inhabitant of any parish, township, or place, going to or returning from attending the funeral of any person who shall die and be buried in the parish, township, or hamlet in which any turnpike road shall lie; or from any rector, vicar, or curate going to or returning from visiting any sick parishioner, or on other his parochial duty within his parish; or for horses, carts, or waggons employed only in carrying or conveying any vagrant sent by a legal pass, or any prisoner sent by any legal warrant, or returning empty after having been so employed; or for any horses or carriages, of whatever description, employed or to be employed in conveying the mails of letters and expresses under the authority of H. M.'s post-master-general, either when employed in conveying, fetching, or guarding such mails or expresses, or in returning back from conveying or guarding the same; or for the horse or horses of any officers or soldiers on their march or on duty, or for any horse or horses or other beast, or any cart, carriage, or waggon employed in carrying or conveying, or returning empty from carrying or conveying, having been employed only in carrying or conveying the arms or baggage of any such officers or soldiers, or employed in carrying or conveying, or returning empty from having been employed only in carrying or conveying any sick, wounded, or disabled officers or soldiers; or for any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage whatsoever, or the horse or horses or other cattle drawing the same, employed in conveying any ordnance, or barrack, or commissariat, or other public stores of or belonging to H. M., or for the use of H. M.'s forces, or returning empty from having been so employed; or for any carriage conveying volunteer infantry, or for any horse furnished by or for any person belonging to any corps of yeomanry or volunteer cavalry or infantry, and rode by him in going to or returning from any place appointed for and on the days of exercise, inspection, or review, or on other public duty, provided that such person shall be dressed in the uniform of his corps, and shall have his arms, furniture and accoutrements according to the regulations of such corps at the time of claiming the exemption; or for any horses or carriages carrying or conveying any person or persons to or from any election of a knight of the shire to serve in parliament for the county or counties in which such turnpike road shall be situated; or for any horses or carriages which shall only cross any turnpike road, or shall not pass above 100 yards thereon, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 32. [These exemptions not to extend to protect such carriages from penalties for overweight, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 17. post, pl. 165.; and see as to exemptions made by local acts, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 26. post, pl. 171.]

34. Provided, that so much of this act as directs that no toll shall be demanded or taken from any person or persons going to or returning from his, her, or their proper parochial church or chapel, or of or from any other person or persons going to or returning from his, her, or their usual place of religious worship tolerated by law, on Sundays, or on any day on which divine service is ordered by authority to be celebrated, shall not extend so as to exempt any such person or persons from the payment of toll at any turnpike-gate or gates situate within the distance of five miles of the Royal Exchange in the city of London, or within the distance of five miles of Westminster-hall in the city and liberties of Westminster, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 33.

35. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend so as to exempt any waggon, cart, or other carriage laden with dung, soil, compost or manure for manuring land, or any horse or other beast drawing the same, from any toll imposed in respect thereof by virtue of any local act or acts now passed, whereby such toll has been imposed for the maintenance of the roads therein respectively mentioned, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 34. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 22. See new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 25. post, pl. 169.]

36. No person owning or driving, or causing to be driven any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage provided for the service of H. M.'s forces, or conveying any ordnance, or barrack, or commissariat, or other public stores of or belonging to H. M., or for the use of H. M.'s forces, shall be subject to any additional toll, penalty, or forfeiture for overweight; nor shall any such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, or the horse or horses drawing the same, while so employed, be stopped or detained by reason of any weight in any such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, or of being drawn by any number of horses or oxen; but it shall be lawful for the owner or driver of any such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, to put any number of horses or oxen to such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage; any thing in any act of parliament relating to highways or turnpike roads, or in this act contained to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 35.

37. Every person who shall, by any fraudulent or collusive means whatsoever, claim or take the benefit of any exemption from toll or from overweight, or for using any additional horse or horses, or of any other exemption whatsoever in this act contained, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; and in all cases the proof of exemption shall be upon the person claiming the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 36.

38. On or before the 1st Jan. 1825, the trustees and commissioners of every turnpike road shall and they are hereby required to put up or cause to be put up, and afterwards to be continued at every toll-gate within their respective districts, a table, painted in distinct and legible black letters on a board with a white ground, containing at the top thereof the name of the gate at which the same shall be put up, and also a list of all the tolls payable at every such gate, distinguishing the several tolls, and the different sorts of carriages for which they are to be paid, where there shall be any variation therein, and also a list of the several gates which shall be wholly or partially cleared by the payment of toll at the toll-gate or bar where such table of tolls shall be affixed; and the said trustees or commissioners shall also provide tickets denoting the payment of toll, and on such several tickets shall be named and specified the name of the gate at which the same respectively shall be delivered, and also the names of the several gates freed by such payment, one of which tickets shall be delivered gratis to the person paying the toll; and on the production of such ticket at any gate or gates therein mentioned as being cleared as aforesaid by the payment of the toll at the gate where such ticket was delivered, the person producing the same shall pass through the gate or gates therein mentioned, without paying any further or additional toll, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 37. [See further, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 28., post, pl. 172.]

39. In all carriages wherein oxen or neat cattle shall be used, two oxen or neat cattle shall be considered as one horse, for all the purposes mentioned in this act, or any particular turnpike act with respect to tolls or other things, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 38.

40. If any person subject or liable to the payment of any of the tolls under and by virtue of this or any other act of parliament for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, shall, after demand thereof made, neglect to pay the same, or any part thereof, it shall be lawful for the persons authorized or appointed to collect such tolls, by themselves, or taking such assistance as they shall think necessary, to seize and distrain any horse, beast, cattle, carriage, or other thing, upon or in respect of which any such toll is imposed, together with their respective bridles, saddles, gears, harness, or accoutrements, (except the bridle or reins of any horse or other beast, separate from the horse or beast), or any carriage in respect of the horses or cattle drawing the carriage on which such toll is imposed, or any of the goods or chattels of the person or persons so neglecting or refusing to pay; and if the toll, or any part thereof, so neglected or refused to be paid, and the reasonable charges of such seizure and distress, shall not be paid within the space of four days next after such seizure and distress made, the person so seizing and distraining may sell the horse, beast, cattle, carriages, or things so seized and distrained, or a sufficient part thereof, returning the overplus of the money to arise by such sale (if any) and what shall remain unsold, upon demand, to the owner thereof, after such tolls, and the reasonable charges occasioned by such seizure, distress, and sale, shall be deducted, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 39.

41. If any dispute shall happen or arise about the amount of the tolls due, or the charges of making, keeping, or selling any distress made for non-payment of any tolls, it shall be lawful for the collector, or the person distraining, to retain such distress, or the money arising from the sale thereof (as the case may be), until the amount of the tolls due and the charges of the making, keeping, and selling the distress be ascertained by some justice of the peace for the county, division, or place wherein the turnpike or toll-gate at which the toll in dispute shall be payable shall be situate, who, upon application made to him for that purpose, shall examine the matter on the oath of the parties or other witness or witnesses (which oath such justice is hereby authorized and empowered to administer), and shall determine the amount of the tolls due, and shall award such costs and charges to either party as to the said justice shall appear right and proper; all which costs and charges shall and may be levied and recovered, in case of non-payment thereof forthwith, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons so awarded or directed to pay the same, by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, rendering the overplus (if any) upon demand, after deducting the costs and charges of making such distress and sale, to the person or persons whose goods and chattels shall have been so distrained and sold, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 40.

42. If any person shall with any horse, cattle, beast, or carriage, go off or pass from any turnpike road, through or over any land or ground near or adjoining thereto, (not being a public highway, and such person not being the owner or occupier, or servant or one of the family of the owner or occupier of such land or ground) with intent to evade the payment of the tolls granted by any act of parliament; or if any owner or occupier of any such land or ground shall knowingly or willingly permit or suffer any person, (except as aforesaid,) with any horse, cattle, beast, or carriage whatsoever, to go or pass through or over such land or ground with intent to evade any such tolls; or if any person shall give or receive from any person other than the collectors of the tolls, or forge, counterfeit, or alter any note or ticket directed to be given, with intent to evade the payment of the tolls, or any part thereof; or if any person shall fraudulently or forcibly pass through any such toll-gate with any horse, cattle, beast, or carriage; or shall leave upon the said road any horse, cattle, beast, or carriage whatsoever, by reason whereof the payment of any tolls or duties shall be avoided or lessened; or shall take off, or cause to be taken off, any horse or other beast or cattle from any carriage, either before or after having passed through any toll-gate, or having passed through any toll-gate shall afterwards add or put any horse or other beast to any such carriage, and draw therewith upon any part of any turnpike road, so as to increase the number of horses or other beasts drawing the said carriage after the same shall have passed through any toll-gate, whereby the payment of all or any of the tolls shall or may be evaded; or if any persons shall do any other act whatever in order or with intent to evade the payment of all or any of the tolls, and whereby the same shall be evaded, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 41.

43. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike roads, from time to time as they shall see convenient, to compound and agree for any term not exceeding three years at any one time, with all or any of the inhabitants of the several parishes, hamlets, or places, to or through which such road may lead or pass, for the passing of their horses, cattle, or carriages through all or any of the toll-gates to be erected on such road, or on the sides thereof; which composition shall be paid yearly in advance, and in default thereof, the composition or agreement with the person or persons making such default shall thenceforth be void; and all such composition money shall be paid and applied in such manner as the tolls are directed to be paid and applied: provided, that no such composition shall extend to the additional tolls for overweight herein-before directed to be taken; but all such additional tolls shall be demanded and recovered notwithstanding any composition for tolls, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 42. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 11. See new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 15. post, pl. 162.]

44. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners appointed in and by virtue of any act of parliament for the repairing and amending any turnpike roads, in case no power or effectual power should be given to them under the act by which they are appointed, and they are hereby empowered, at a meeting to be held for that purpose (of which one calendar month's notice shall be given in writing, to be affixed on all turnpike gates which shall be then erected upon such roads, and in some public newspaper circulated in that part of the country), from time to time to lessen and reduce all or any of the tolls granted by any of the said respective acts, for and during such time as the said trustees or commissioners shall think proper; and afterwards, at any meeting to be held as aforesaid, from time to time, as they shall see occasion, to advance all or any of the tolls so lessened to any sum of money not exceeding the several rates granted by such acts of parliament and this act respectively: provided nevertheless, that where the whole money borrowed on the credit of the tolls granted by any such act shall not have been paid and discharged, no such tolls shall be lessened or reduced without the consent of the person entitled to five-sixths of the money remaining due upon such respective tolls, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 43.

45. Provided, that in all cases where the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall reduce or advance the tolls on the road or roads for which they shall act, such reduction or advance shall be made as to waggons, carts, and other carriages, the breadth of the wheels whereof is regulated by this act, with reference to the proportion or scale of tolls payable on such waggons, carts, or other carriages, according to the breadth of the wheels thereof; (that is to say,) the trustees or commissioners making the reduction or advance shall reduce or advance the toll payable on waggons, carts, or other such carriages, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of the breadth of six inches, and shall then take and demand double or other proportions (as the case may be) of such reduced or advanced tolls on waggons, carts, or other carriages, having the fellies of the wheels thereof of a greater or less breadth than six inches; and the reduction or advance of the proportion of toll to be payable by this or any other act of parliament, in respect of the breadth of wheels, or any other reduction or advance of tolls, to be made in any other way than in manner aforesaid, shall be null and void, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 44.

46. No toll-gate shall hereafter be erected on the side of any turnpike road, unless the same be ordered by the trustees or commissioners at a meeting, of which 14 days public notice shall have been given in writing affixed upon all the toll-gates erected on such road within 10 miles of the place where such intended gate is to be erected, and within the trust for erecting the same, and also in some public newspaper circulated in that part of the country, specifying the place where such toll-gate is proposed to be erected, and unless five trustees or commissioners at least shall sign the said order at such meeting, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 45.

47. If the trustees or commissioners appointed to put any act of parliament made for the repair of any turnpike road into execution, shall exceed their power by erecting or continuing any gate or turnpike where they have not any power, by virtue of any act of parliament, to erect such gate or turnpike, it shall be lawful for the justices of the peace for the limit where any such gate or turnpike is or shall be erected or continued, in their general quarter session assembled, upon complaint of such excess of power in such trustees, in a summary way to hear and determine whether such power has been exceeded, and if such power has been exceeded, to order the sheriff of the county, who is hereby authorized and required to execute such order, to remove any such gate or turnpike, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 46.

48. Every mortgagee that hath taken or been in possession, or shall hereafter take or be in possession of any toll-gate or bar set up or erected on any turnpike road, or of any lands or tenements, the rents and profits whereof are appropriated to the repairs of any part of any turnpike road, shall, within 21 days after he shall have received notice in writing from the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike road, render an exact account in writing to such trustees or commissioners, or to such person as they shall appoint, of all monies received by him, or by any other person or persons for his use and benefit, or by his authority, at such toll-gate or bar, or otherwise, and what he has expended in keeping or repairing the same; and in case he shall neglect to render such account when required as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay to the said trustees or commissioners, for every refusal, neglect, or omission, the sum of 50*l.*, to be applied to the use of the road on which such toll-gate or bar shall be erected, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 47.

49. If any such mortgagee shall keep possession of any toll-gate or bar, by himself or by any other person or persons on his behalf, and receive the tolls or duties thereat, or of any such rents and profits as aforesaid, after such mortgagee shall have received the full sum of money due on his mortgage, and the interest thereof with costs, such mortgagee shall forfeit and pay, as a penalty, to the trustees or commissioners, double the sum of money he shall have received, over and above the sum of money due as aforesaid, with treble costs of suit, to be recovered by the treasurer or clerk to such trustees or commissioners, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of H. M.'s courts of record, which when recovered shall be applied to the use of the respective road or roads on which such toll-gate or bar shall be placed, or such rents appropriated, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 48.

50. If any mortgagee of any tolls, toll-gates, bars, chains, toll-houses, and buildings, on any turnpike road, shall seek to obtain the possession of the said toll-gates, &c. in order to pay himself the principal money and interest, or any part thereof, due to him, it shall be competent for him, as lessor of the plaintiff, and upon his demise only, and without uniting in such demise the other mortgagees of the said tolls and premises, to obtain such possession; but such person or persons who shall obtain the possession thereof, shall not apply the tolls which may consequently be received by him, to his own exclusive use and benefit, but to and for the use and benefit of all the mortgagees of the said premises, pari passu, and in proportion to the several sums which may be due to them as such mortgagees, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 49.

51. It shall be lawful for any two or more trustees or commissioners of any turnpike roads, upon the death of any collector appointed to collect the tolls upon such turnpike road, to nominate and appoint some other fit person in his place until the next meeting of the trustees or commissioners of such road, which person so to be nominated and appointed shall have the like power and authority, and be accountable in the same manner in all respects, as the person so dying had or would have been if living; and that if any toll-collector or deputy-collector, who shall be discharged from his office by the trustees or commissioners authorized for that purpose, shall refuse to deliver up the possession of the house, buildings, and appurtenances which he enjoyed in right of his appointment to that office, within two days after notice of his discharge shall be given to him or left at his house; or if the wife or family of any such toll-collector or deputy who shall die as aforesaid, shall refuse to deliver up the possession of such house, building, and appurtenances, within four days after such new appointment shall be made as aforesaid, then and in either of the said cases it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace for the county where such turnpike-house shall be, by warrant under his hand and seal, to order a constable or other peace-officer with such assistance as shall be necessary, to enter such house and premises in the day-time, and to remove the persons who shall be found therein, together with their goods, out of such house, and to put the new-appointed officer into the possession thereof, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 50. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 47.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 49. post, pl. 188.; see further 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 58, 59. post, pl. 196, 197.]

52. No collector, or person renting such tolls, or residing in such toll-house as aforesaid, and no apprentice or servant of any such collector or person, shall thereby gain a settlement in any parish or place whatsoever; and that no tolls to be taken at any gate erected or to be erected by the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, nor toll-house erected or to be erected for the purpose of collecting the same, nor any person in respect of such tolls or toll-house, shall be rated or assessed towards the payment of any poor's rates, or any other public or parochial levy whatsoever, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 51. [See further 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 51. post, pl. 174.]

53. If any collector, or other person appointed to collect the tolls on any turnpike road, shall permit or suffer any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage to be drawn or pass upon any turnpike road within the view or with the knowledge of such collector or toll-gatherer, or to pass through any toll-gate or bar, with wheels of a less breadth or of a different construction, or [drawn with a greater number of horses than by this act allowed], or without such names and descriptions painted thereon as are herein-after directed, and shall not within the space of one week proceed for the recovery of the forfeiture or penalty hereby inflicted, or shall allow any coach, chariot, waggon, cart, or other carriage, or any passenger, to pass through any toll-gate at which such collector or other person shall be stationed, without paying the toll payable, or shall be guilty of any other misconduct in his office, every collector or other person so offending, and being thereof convicted before one justice, shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, as the justice by and before whom such offender shall be convicted shall judge proper, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 52. [The words in italics repealed, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 27.]

54. Every toll-collector on every turnpike road shall place or cause to be placed on some conspicuous parts of the fronts of the several toll-houses at which they shall be respectively stationed, and so that the same shall appear to public view, their christian surnames, painted in black on a board with a white ground, each of such letters of such name or names to be at least two inches in length, and of a breadth in proportion; and that such board shall be and remain at such toll-house during the whole of the time that the person whose name shall be expressed thereon shall be on duty thereat; and every such collector shall place, or cause to be placed, on the front of the toll-house or toll-houses at which such collectors shall be stationed, the board herein-before [in s. 37. pl. 58., and see 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 28. post, pl. 172.] directed to be provided by the trustees or commissioners, containing the usual name of the turnpike-gate where the board shall be affixed, and also the list of the tolls payable at such gate, and of the several gates cleared by the payment of toll at the gate where such collector or collectors shall be stationed as aforesaid; and if any collector of the said tolls shall not place such boards respectively as aforesaid, and keep the same there during the time he shall be such collector as aforesaid, or shall demand and take a greater or less toll from any person than he shall be authorized to do by virtue of the powers of any act, or of the orders and resolutions of the trustees or commissioners made in pursuance thereof, or shall demand and take a toll from any person who shall be exempt from the payment thereof, and who shall claim such exemption, or shall refuse to permit or suffer any person to read, or shall in anywise hinder any person from reading the inscriptions on such boards respectively, or shall refuse to tell his christian and surname to any person who shall demand the same, on being paid the said tolls, or any of them, or shall, in answer to such demand, give a false name or names, or shall refuse or omit to give to the person paying the toll a ticket denoting the payment of the tolls, and naming and specifying the toll-gate at which such ticket has been delivered, and the toll-gate or toll-gates (if any) freed by such payment, or upon the legal toll being paid or tendered shall unnecessarily detain, or wilfully obstruct, hinder, or prevent any passenger from passing through any turnpike or toll-gate, or shall make use of any scurrilous or abusive language to any trustee or commissioner, traveller, or passenger, then and in every such case every such toll-collector shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.* for every such offence, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 53. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 29.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 30—50. post, pl. 173.]

55. Provided, that in case any toll-collector, or person acting as such shall offend against any of the provisions of this act, whereby any penalty shall be incurred, and shall abscond or absent himself so as not to be found, then it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace, before whom any such toll-collector or person shall have been convicted of any such offence, in case of such collector or other person absconding after conviction, or in case of his or her absconding previous to conviction, then for any other justice of the peace acting for the county, on an examination of the circumstances, and ascertaining by the examination of witnesses that such offence has been committed by the person absconding, to order and adjudge that the penalty incurred as aforesaid shall be paid by the lessee or farmer of the tolls under whom such collector or other person shall act; all which penalties shall be levied and recovered from such lessee or farmer, and applied in manner herein-after [in s. 141. pl. 143.] directed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 54.

56. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road, at a public meeting, to let to farm the tolls of the several gates erected upon their respective turnpike roads, in the manner herein-after mentioned, although no express power shall have been given by any act for that purpose; and that whenever any tolls shall hereafter be let to farm by virtue of the powers given by this or any other act of parliament, the following directions shall be observed; (that is to say), the trustees or commissioners shall cause notice to be given of the time and place for letting the same, at least one month before the day to be appointed for that purpose, by affixing the same upon every toll-gate belonging to such turnpike road, and also by insertion thereof in some public newspaper circulated in that part of the country, and specifying in every such notice the sum which the said tolls produced in the preceding year, clear of the salary for collecting the same, in case any hired collector was appointed, and that they will let such tolls by auction to the best bidder, on his producing sufficient securities for payment of the money monthly, or otherwise (as in such notice shall be specified), and that they will be put up at the sum which they were let for or produced in the preceding year, clear of the salary of the collector; and to prevent fraud or any undue preference in the letting thereof, the trustees or commissioners are hereby required to provide a glass with so much sand in it as will run from one end of it to the other in one minute, which glass at the time of letting such tolls shall be set upon a table, and immediately after every bidding the glass shall be turned, and as soon as the sand is run out it shall be turned again, and so for three times, unless some other bidding intervenes, and if no other person shall bid until the sand shall have run through the glass three times, the last bidder shall be the farmer or renter of the said tolls, and shall forthwith enter into a proper agreement for the taking thereof, and paying the money at the times specified in such notice, with such surety or sureties for payment thereof, and under such conditions and in such manner as the said trustees or commissioners shall think fit; and if the person being the last bidder shall not forthwith enter into such agreement, it shall be lawful to put up the said tolls again immediately for another bidder, and in like manner to continue putting up the same until a bidder shall be found who shall enter into such agreement; and in case no bidder shall offer, or in case the same shall not be let at such auction, it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners to accept a private tender for the same, and to demise or let to farm, or agree to demise or let to farm, all or any of such tolls, at any sum not less than the sum at or for which they shall then have been last let [see ante, ss. 17, 18. pl. 18, 19.]; or the said trustees or commissioners may appoint a collector of such tolls, or fix some future day for the letting thereof, as they shall judge most proper, upon giving such notice thereof as aforesaid, and shall in that case put them up at such sum as they think fit; and if the person who shall be the farmer, or renter, or collector of such tolls shall take a greater or less toll from any person than what is authorized or directed by this or the particular turnpike act, he shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of 5*l.*, and the said agreement for renting the tolls shall, if the said trustees or commissioners shall think fit to vacate the same, become and be null and void: provided, that at all such lettings the trustees or commissioners shall be entitled to bid for the tolls so to be let, either by themselves or their clerk or treasurer, or any other person by them respectively authorized; provided, that no such tolls shall be demised or leased for any longer term than three years at any one time, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 55. [See 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 52. pl. 190.]

57. Provided, that on every letting of any tolls, the said trustees or commissioners shall, if they shall think fit, take of the renter or farmer thereof one, two, or more months' rent in advance before they shall put such renter or farmer in possession of the toll-gate, bar, toll-house, or turnpike, at which such tolls are to be collected, and that in every agreement to be entered into by any trustees or commissioners for the letting of any tolls, the rent or money payable for such tolls shall be reserved and made payable monthly, or otherwise, as in the notice for letting the said tolls shall be specified; and the renter or farmer of such tolls shall produce two sufficient sureties to join in the said agreement, undertaking on their parts for the due and punctual payment of the rent or sum of money to be paid for the said tolls, according to the terms of the agreement entered into by him; and in every case where the terms of such agreement shall not be fulfilled, but the rent or sum of money to be paid at the commencement of any one month shall not be paid when the same shall become due, but shall remain unpaid for three days after the same shall become due, then and in every such case the trustees or commissioners making any such agreement shall, and they are hereby empowered, if they think fit, to declare the said agreement void, and to re-enter and take possession of any such toll-gate, bar, or toll-house, and the tolls there collected, and to re-let the same in manner hereinbefore [s. 55. pl. 56.] directed, or to appoint a collector or other fit and proper person to collect and receive the same, and to put out and remove the person so failing in their agreement, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 56. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 51; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 52—54. post, pl. 190.]

58. Provided, that all contracts and agreements to be made or entered into for the farming or letting the tolls of any turnpike roads, signed by the trustees or commissioners letting such tolls, or any two or more of them, or by their clerk or treasurer, and the lessee or farmer, and his sureties, of such tolls respectively, shall be good, valid, and effectual, notwithstanding the same may not be by deed or under seal; any act or acts of parliament or law to the contrary thereof notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 57.

59. During such time as the tolls, or any part thereof, shall be leased to any person whomsoever, it shall be lawful for the lessee or farmer thereof, or such other person as he shall by writing or writings under his hand, authorize or appoint, to demand and take such tolls so leased, demised, or farmed, and to use all such means and methods for the recovery thereof, in case of non-payment or evasion, as any collector of such tolls appointed under or by virtue of any act of parliament for the making of turnpike roads, or by this act, is authorized and empowered to use; and such lessee or farmer, or other person as aforesaid, so demanding and taking such tolls, shall be subject to the like pains, penalties, and forfeitures, and shall be liable to the like actions and prosecutions, as any collector of such tolls appointed by the trustees or commissioners is subject or liable to, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 58.

60. In case any dispute, suit, or litigation shall arise, touching or in any wise relating to the tolls granted by any act of parliament, the person appointed to collect the same, or any other acting under the authority of the trustees or commissioners, shall not be incompetent to give evidence in any such dispute, &c. on account of his being appointed to collect such tolls, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 59.

61. The right, interest, and property of and in all the toll-gates and toll-houses, weighing-machines, and other erections and buildings, lamps, bars, toll-boards, direction-boards, milestones, posts, rails, fences, and other things which shall have been or shall be erected and provided in pursuance of any act of parliament for making turnpike roads, with the several conveniences and appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging, and the materials of which the same shall consist, and all materials, tools, and implements which shall be provided for repairing the said roads, and the scrapings of the said roads, shall be vested in the trustees or commissioners acting in pursuance of such act for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to apply and dispose of the same as they shall think fit, and to bring or cause to be brought any action or actions, and to prefer and prosecute, or order and direct the preferring and prosecuting of any informations or indictments, against any person or persons who shall dig up, break or pull down, steal, take or carry away, spoil, destroy, injure or damage, any of the toll-gates or toll-houses, weighing-machines, or other erections or buildings, lamps, bars, toll-boards, direction-boards, mile-stones, posts, rails, fences, and other things, or any of the conveniences and appurtenances thereto belonging, or any of the tools, implements, or materials aforesaid, or shall interrupt them the said trustees or commissioners, or any of their officers, in the possession thereof; in all which proceedings it shall be sufficient to state generally such articles to be the property of the clerk for the time being to the said trustees or commissioners, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 60.

62. All H. M.'s justices of the peace for the time being acting for the county or counties through which any turnpike road now does or hereafter shall pass, shall be added to and joined with the trustees or commissioners for making, repairing, or maintaining every such turnpike road, and shall, on qualifying themselves as hereafter mentioned, have all the same powers and authorities, as if the said justices had severally been named or elected trustees or commissioners in or under any act or acts of parliament under which such roads shall be made, repaired, or maintained, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 61.

63. Whereas 3 G. 4. c. 126. was passed, intituled, An Act to amend the general laws now in being for regulating turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng.; and whereas one other act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. was passed, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an act passed in the third year of the reign of His present Majesty, to amend the general laws now in being for regulating turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng.; and by the said first recited act it was, [s. 61.] amongst other things enacted, That all H. M.'s justices of the peace for the time being, acting for the county or counties through which any turnpike road now does or hereafter shall pass, shall be added to and joined with the trustees or commissioners for making, repairing, or maintaining every such turnpike road, and shall have all the same powers and authorities to all intents and purposes as if the said justices had severally been named or elected trustees or commissioners in or under any act or acts of parliament under which such roads shall be made, repaired, or maintained; and whereas it is expedient that H. M.'s justices of the peace acting for any riding, division, or soke, should also be enabled to act as trustees for the repair of turnpike roads; be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [17th June 1824], all H. M.'s justices of the peace for the time being, acting for the county or counties, riding or ridings, division or divisions, soke or sokes, through any part which any turnpike road now does or hereafter shall pass, shall have such and the like powers and authorities for the making and repairing any such turnpike road, and be subject to the same rules and regulations, by virtue of or under the said recited acts, as any of H. M.'s justices of the peace acting for any county or counties, 5 G. 4. c. 69.

64. No person [see as to swearing trustees, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 52. post, pl. 175. and see as to qualification, 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 55, 56. pl. 178, 179.] who shall hereafter be chosen or appointed a trustee or commissioner, shall be qualified or capable of becoming and acting as a trustee or commissioner in the execution of any act of parliament for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, unless he shall be in his own right, or in the right of his wife, in the actual possession or receipt of the rents and profits of freehold or copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the clear yearly value of 100*l.* above reprises, or shall be heir apparent of a person possessed of freehold or copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments of the clear yearly value of 200*l.* above reprises; and unless he shall, before he shall act as such trustee or commissioner, take and subscribe the oath or affirmation following, before any two or more of the trustees or commissioners appointed or to be appointed by or in pursuance of such act, who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same, in the words or to the effect following; (that is to say,)

'I — do swear, [or, being of the people called Quakers, do solemnly affirm,] That I truly and bona fide am, in my own right [or, in the right of my wife], in the actual possession and enjoyment of [or, in the receipt of rents and profits issuing out of] freehold or copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the clear yearly value of 100*l.* above reprises, [or, am heir apparent of —, who to the best of my knowledge is seised of freehold or copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the clear yearly value of 200*l.* above reprises,] [or, that I am possessed of a personal estate of 10,000*l.*, clear of all debts and incumbrances, as the case may be.] So help me God.'

'[or, being a Quaker, omit the words 'So help me God.']

3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 62.

65. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall hinder or prevent any person from acting as a trustee or commissioner of any turnpike roads, any part of which are or shall be situate within 10 miles of the Royal Exchange in London, who shall be possessed of personal property to the amount or value of 10,000*l.*, after payment of his debts, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 63.

66. Provided, that no person appointed or to be appointed a trustee or commissioner in or by virtue of any act for repairing turnpike roads, shall be capable of acting as such in the execution of any such act, in any case where he shall be personally interested (except as herein-after provided), nor during the time he shall keep a victualling-house, or other house of public entertainment, or who shall sell wine, cider, beer, ale, spirituous or other strong liquors by retail, or who shall be a lessee or farmer of the tolls on any turnpike road, or of any part thereof; and if any person not being qualified as aforesaid, or being disqualified by any of the causes aforesaid, or not having taken and subscribed the oath herein-before [s. 62. pl. 64.] mentioned, or being a Quaker, not having made and subscribed the affirmation herein-before [s. 62. pl. 64.] mentioned, shall nevertheless presume to act as a trustee or commissioner in the execution of any such act, every such person shall for such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.* to any person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt or on the case, or by bill, plaint, suit, or information, wherein no essoign, &c., and only one imparlance shall be allowed; and the person so sued or prosecuted shall prove that he is qualified, and not disqualified as aforesaid, or otherwise shall pay the said penalty, without any other proof or evidence on the part of the prosecutor than that such person had acted as a trustee or commissioner in the execution of any act for repairing turnpike roads: provided nevertheless, that no act or proceeding touching the execution of any such act, which shall be done or performed by any such unqualified or disqualified person previously to his being convicted of the offence before mentioned, shall be thereby impeached or rendered nugatory, but all such proceedings shall be as valid and effectual as if such person had been duly qualified: provided, that no mortgagee or assignee of any mortgage or other security, or any lender of money upon the credit of the tolls, or receiving interest thereout for the same, shall on that account only be deemed unqualified to act as a trustee or commissioner in the execution of any such act; and any trustees or commissioners appointed or to be appointed under any such act, who are or shall be in the commission of the peace, may act as such justices of the peace, in the execution of any such act, notwithstanding their being such trustees or commissioners, except in such cases only wherein they shall be personally interested otherwise than as a trustee, commissioner, mortgagee, assignee, lender of money, or holder of any security on the credit of the tolls granted by any such act, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 64.

67. No trustee or commissioner of any turnpike road shall, from and after this act shall be in force, enjoy any office or place of profit under any act of parliament in execution of which he shall have been appointed, or shall act as trustee or commissioner, or have any share or interest in, or be in any manner directly or indirectly concerned in, any contract or bargain for making or repairing or in any way relating to the road for which he shall act, or for building or repairing any toll-house, toll-gate, or weighing-engine thereon, or for supplying any materials for the use thereof; nor shall any such trustee or commissioner let out for hire any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, or any horse, cattle, or team, for the use of any turnpike road for which he shall act as a trustee or commissioner; nor by himself, or by any other person for or on his account, directly or indirectly, receive any sum of money to his use or benefit out of the tolls collected on the road for which he shall act, during the time he shall be acting as a trustee or commissioner of such road; and if any person after having been appointed or elected a trustee or commissioner of any turnpike road, shall, without having first duly resigned such office at some meeting of the trustees of the road for which he shall have been elected or appointed, hold any such office or place, or be concerned in any such contract or bargain, or shall sell any such tools or implements, or let out for hire any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, horse, cattle, or team, or receive any money out of the tolls as aforesaid, every trustee or commissioner so offending, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 100*l.* to any person who shall sue for the same, and shall from and after the conviction of any such offence be incapable of acting as a trustee or commissioner of any turnpike road; and all acts, orders, matters, and things made or done as a trustee or commissioner by the party so convicted, shall from thenceforth be null and void to all intents and purposes, and all and every such contract and bargain shall be and the same is hereby declared to be void, and shall not be enforced against or carried into effect by the other trustees or commissioners entering into the same: provided, that all acts, orders, matters, and things, made or done by such trustee or commissioner previously to his being convicted of any such offence, shall be good and effectual; and further provided, that nothing in this enactment contained shall extend to any trustee or commissioner who shall receive any sum of money paid out of the tolls of any turnpike road, as or by way of purchase-money, damages, rent, recompence, or satisfaction agreed upon or awarded to such trustee or commissioner, for any lands, grounds, tenements, or hereditaments, purchased or taken for the purpose of diverting or altering, or for the use of the turnpike road for which he shall act as a trustee or commissioner, or for a repository for materials to be used thereon, or for the damage done to any inclosed or private grounds of any such trustee or commissioner, in taking materials therefrom, or in carrying or conveying them over the same, or to prevent any such trustee or commissioner from selling or disposing of, for the use of the turnpike road, any materials, or any timber grown or growing on the land or grounds of such trustee or commissioner, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 65. [See this section amended as to holders of shares in canals or railways, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 37. pl. 180. and also s. 41. pl. 182.]

68. When and as often as any of the trustees or commissioners, save and except the justices of the peace, appointed or to be elected and appointed under any act of parliament for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, shall die, or by bankruptcy, insolvency, or otherwise, become disqualified to act, or by writing under their hands refuse to act in the execution of such act, it shall be lawful for the surviving or remaining trustees or commissioners from time to time to elect and appoint one other fit person, qualified as aforesaid [ss. 62. 64. pl. 64, 66.] to be a trustee or commissioner in the room of every trustee or commissioner dying or becoming disqualified or refusing to act as aforesaid; provided that notice of the time and place of meeting of the trustees or commissioners for every such election be given by the clerk or clerks to such trustees or commissioners, by affixing the same in writing upon all the toll-gates or turnpikes erected upon the said road for which they shall act as trustees or commissioners, and by inserting such notice in one or more of the newspapers circulating in that part of the country where such road shall pass, 14 days at least before every such meeting; and every person who shall be elected and appointed a trustee or commissioner pursuant to the directions of this act, shall and may act with the surviving and remaining trustees or commissioners in the execution of such act, to all intents and purposes, as if he had been therein named and appointed a trustee or commissioner, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 66.

69. The said trustees or commissioners shall from time to time meet at such time and place, on or near their respective roads, as to them shall seem convenient, and may adjourn themselves, to meet at any place, and at such times as the said trustees or commissioners, or the major part of them present at any meeting shall appoint; and at all their several meetings the trustees or commissioners shall pay and defray their own expences, except any sum not exceeding 10*s.* per diem for the use of the room wherein they shall meet; and all orders and determinations of the trustees or commissioners in the execution of any such act shall be made at meetings to be held in pursuance thereof, and not otherwise, (except in the cases hereby otherwise particularly provided for) and that no order or determination shall be made unless the major part of the trustees or commissioners present shall concur therein; and that all acts, orders, and proceedings relating to any such act, which are directed to be had, made, done, or exercised by or before the said trustees or commissioners, and all the powers and authorities hereby in them vested generally, shall be had, made, done, and exercised by the major part of the trustees or commissioners who shall be present at the respective meetings to be held by virtue of any such act, the whole number present not being less than three (except in such cases where any other number is by any local act or this act named for any particular or special purpose); and that all acts, orders, or proceedings, had, made, or done by or before such three trustees or commissioners, shall have the same force and effect, and be binding and conclusive on all persons and to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as fully and effectually as if the same were had, made, done, or executed by or before all the said trustees or commissioners; and that a chairman shall and may in the first place be appointed at every meeting to be held by virtue and for the purposes of this act, who, in case of an equal number of votes (including the chairman's vote), shall have the casting or decisive vote; and that no order or determination at any meeting of the said trustees or commissioners once made, agreed upon, or entered into, shall be revoked or altered at any subsequent meeting, unless notice of the intention to make such revocation or alteration shall have been given at a previous meeting holden for the same road, and entered in the book of proceedings of such meeting, and also by affixing such notice, signed by any two or more trustees or commissioners, on all the turnpike-gates then erected upon such road, 21 days at least before such meeting, nor unless such revocation or alteration shall be agreed to be made by seven trustees or commissioners at the least, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 67. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 58.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 39. post, pl. 181.]

70. If at any time it shall be thought necessary, for the better execution of any act of parliament for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, that the trustees or commissioners of such road should meet before the time to which any meeting may be adjourned, it shall be lawful for any two or more of such trustees or commissioners (or for the clerk to the said trustees or commissioners, by an order in writing signed by any two or more of them), to give notice of such earlier meeting in the manner before directed, in which notice shall be expressed the time, place, and purpose of such earlier meeting (such time not being less than 14 days after publication of the said notice); and all the orders and determinations of the trustees or commissioners at all such meetings shall be as valid as if the same had been done at any other meeting of trustees or commissioners held by virtue of this act, or the act under and by virtue of which they shall act as trustees or commissioners: provided, that no other business than what shall be specified in such notice shall be transacted at any such meeting, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 68. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 40.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 41. post, pl. 182.]

71. All trustees and commissioners of every turnpike road shall hold a general meeting of the trust for which they shall respectively act, on a day to be by them or any three or more of them appointed, in the months of April, Sept., or Oct., of which meeting 21 days' notice shall be given by inserting the same in some newspaper usually circulating in the counties in which the road or roads, in respect whereof such meeting shall be held, lie or are situated, which said meeting shall be called or known as "the general annual meeting of the trustees or commissioners;" and at such meeting the trustees or commissioners assembled shall elect a chairman for the purposes thereof, and shall also audit their accounts, and report the state of the road or roads under their care and superintendence, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 69. [See this section AMD. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 42. post, pl. 183.]

72. Where a sufficient number of the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall not meet on the day appointed by any such act or acts respectively, for their first meeting, or shall not meet on the day appointed by adjournment for their meeting, or for want of a proper adjournment, by which means, or by some or one of them, the intent of the said act or acts may be frustrated, in all or either of the said cases it shall be lawful for so many of the said trustees or commissioners as shall meet, or the major part of them, or in case no such trustee or commissioner shall be present, for their clerk or clerks, to cause notice in writing to be affixed on all the turnpike-gates which shall be then erected on the said respective roads, or if no turnpike-gate shall then be erected, to cause the like notice to be affixed in the most conspicuous place in one of the principal towns or places nearest to which the roads directed to be repaired do lie, and also in some public newspaper circulated in the county in which the road shall be situate, at least 10 days before the intended meeting, appointing such trustees or commissioners to meet at such place where the preceding meeting was appointed to have been held, or at the place directed for the first meeting of such trustees or commissioners, if no such preceding meeting shall have been held; and the said trustees or commissioners, when met in pursuance of such notice, shall and they are hereby required to proceed and carry such act or acts into execution, in the same and in as ample a manner, as they might or could have done if no such neglect had happened, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 70. [See tit. STATUTES, 4 G. 4. c. 35.]

73. It shall not hereafter be lawful for any trustees or commissioners to continue or appoint the person who has been or may be appointed to act as their clerk in the execution of any act or acts of parliament for repairing and maintaining any turnpike road, or the partner of any such clerk, to be or to hold the offices of clerk and treasurer for the purposes of such act or acts, or to continue or appoint the person who has been or may be appointed treasurer, or the partner of any such treasurer, to be the treasurer and clerk for the purposes of such act or acts; and if any person shall act in both the capacities of clerk and treasurer, or if any person being the partner of any such clerk shall act as treasurer, or being the partner of such treasurer shall act as clerk in the execution of this or any other act, every person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.* to any person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, in any of H. M.'s courts of record at

Westminster, by action of debt or on the case, or by bill, suit, or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance, shall be allowed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 71. [See as to the appointment of officers and their salaries, duties, &c. 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 43, 44, 45. 47. post, pl. 184—187.]

74. That all orders and proceedings of the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road, together with the names of the trustees or commissioners present at every meeting, shall be entered in a book or books to be kept by the clerk of the said trustees or commissioners for that purpose, and be signed by the chairman of the meeting or meetings at which such orders or proceedings shall be from time to time made or had; and that such book or books shall be open at all seasonable times to the inspection of any of the trustees or commissioners, without fee or reward; and such orders and proceedings, so entered and signed by the chairman of such meeting or meetings as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be original orders and proceedings; which said book or books, as well as the book or books in which the oath or affirmation directed to be taken by the said trustees or commissioners shall be entered, and also the book or books directed to be kept for registering mortgages and assignments, and all entries in such books respectively, shall and may be read in evidence in all courts whatsoever, in all cases of appeal, and in all prosecutions, suits, and actions whatsoever, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 72.

75. The trustees and commissioners of every turnpike road shall, and they are hereby required, from time to time and at all times, to order and direct a book or books to be provided and kept by their clerk for the time being; in which book or books such clerk shall enter, or cause to be entered, true and regular accounts of all sums of money received, paid, laid out, and expended for or on account of the road for which such clerk shall act, and of the several articles, matters, and things for which such sums of money shall have been disbursed, laid out, and paid; and such book or books shall at all seasonable times be open to the inspection of the said trustees or commissioners, or any creditor or creditors on the tolls collected and taken on the road to which such books relate, without fee or reward; and the said trustees or commissioners and creditors, or any of them, shall or may take copies of or extracts from the said book or books, or any part or parts thereof, without paying any thing for the same; and the said book or books shall be produced by the said clerk at all meetings of the said trustees or commissioners; and in case any clerk shall refuse to permit, or shall not permit any of the said trustees or commissioners, or any such creditor, to inspect any such book or books, or to take such copies or extracts as aforesaid, or in case such clerk shall refuse or neglect to produce such book or books at any meeting of the said trustees or commissioners, such clerk shall forfeit and pay any sum of money not exceeding 5*l.*, to be levied and applied in the same manner as other penalties are hereby directed to be levied and applied, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 73.

76. The trustees and commissioners of every turnpike-road may sue and be sued in the name or names of any one of such trustees or commissioners, or of their clerk or clerks for the time being; and that no action or suit to be brought or commenced by or against any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road by virtue of this or any other act of parliament, in the name or names of any one of such trustees or commissioners, or their clerk or clerks, shall abate or be discontinued by the death or removal of such trustee, commissioner, clerk or clerks, or any of them, or by the act of such trustee, commissioner, clerk or clerks, or any of them, without the consent of the said trustees or commissioners; but that any one of such trustees or commissioners, or the clerk or clerks for the time being to the said trustees or commissioners, shall always be deemed to be the plaintiff or plaintiffs, defendant or defendants (as the case may be), in every such action or suit: provided, that every such trustee, commissioner, clerk or clerks, shall be reimbursed and paid, out of the monies belonging to the turnpike-road for which he or they shall act, all such costs, charges, and expences as he or they shall be put unto, or become chargeable with or liable to, by reason of his or their being so made plaintiff or plaintiffs, defendant or defendants, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 74.

77. No person shall be capable of holding any place of profit under any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, who shall sell any wine, ale, spirituous liquors, or provisions by retail, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 75.

78. Provided, that the trustees and commissioners of every turnpike road shall and they are hereby required to take sufficient security from every treasurer to be appointed by them for the purposes of any act or acts of parliament for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, for the due and faithful execution of his office, before such treasurer shall enter upon his office; and if they shall so think proper, shall and may also take such security from any other officer to be appointed under or by virtue of this or such other act, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 76.

79. All such officers as shall be appointed by any commissioners or trustees of any turnpike road, shall, as often as required by the commissioners or trustees, render and give to them, or to such person as they shall for that purpose appoint, a true, exact, and perfect account in writing, under their respective hands, with the proper vouchers, of all monies which they shall respectively to the time of rendering such accounts, have received, paid, and disbursed by virtue of this or any other act, or for or on account or by reason of their respective offices; and in case any money so received by any such officer shall remain in his hands, the same shall be paid to the trustees or commissioners, or to such person as they shall, in writing under their hands, authorize and empower to receive the same; and if any such officer shall refuse or wilfully neglect to render and give such account, or to produce and deliver up such vouchers, or shall for the space of 14 days after being thereunto required by the said trustees or commissioners, or any three of them, refuse or neglect to render and give up to them, or to such person as they shall direct or appoint, all books, papers, writings, tools, matters, and things, in his hands, custody, or power, relating to the road for which he shall act, or which he shall have disposed of without the consent and approbation of the trustees or commissioners, then it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace for the county where the officer so making default shall be or reside, upon application made to him for that purpose, by or on behalf of the trustees or commissioners, to make inquiry of and concerning any such default as aforesaid, in a summary way, as well by the confession of the party as by the testimony of any credible witness upon oath, without fee or reward, and by warrant under his hand and seal to cause such money as shall appear to him to be due and unpaid, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such officer, rendering to him the overplus (if any) on demand, after payment of the money remaining due, and deducting the charges and expences of making such distress and sale; and if sufficient distress cannot be found, or if it shall appear to any such justice in manner aforesaid, that any such officer shall have refused, or wilfully neglected to give such account, or to deliver up all books, papers, &c. in his custody or power, relating to the execution of his office, such justice shall commit him to the house of correction or common gaol of the county where such offender shall be or reside, there to remain without bail or mainprize until he shall make and give a true and perfect account, and verify the same in manner aforesaid, and shall produce and deliver up the vouchers relating thereto, and shall have paid the money (if any) remaining in his hands as aforesaid, according to the direction of the trustees or commissioners, or shall have compounded with the said trustees or commissioners for such money, and paid such composition according to their direction, which composition all trustees and commissioners are hereby empowered to make and receive, or until he shall deliver up such books, papers, &c. as aforesaid, or have given satisfaction to the trustees or commissioners concerning the same; but no such officer who shall be committed on account of his not having sufficient goods and chattels as aforesaid, shall be detained in prison by virtue of this act for any longer time than six calendar months, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 77. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 46.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 47. pl. 187.]

80. The trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road shall and they are hereby required, at their general annual meeting in each year, to examine, audit, and settle the accounts of the respective treasurers, clerks, and surveyors appointed by them, and to require such treasurers, &c. to produce their books, accounts, papers, and vouchers, and to examine into the revenues and debts, distinguishing bond from simple contract debts, of the several roads for which they shall act as treasurer, clerk, or surveyor; and when the accounts of the said several treasurers, clerks, and surveyors, shall be settled and allowed by the trustees or commissioners present at such meeting, the same shall be signed by the chairman of such meeting; and if any treasurer, &c. shall refuse or neglect to produce his accounts, or any book, paper, or voucher required to be produced by him, such treasurer, &c. shall be dealt with according to the provisions herein-before [s. 77. pl. 79.] contained with regard to officers refusing to account or deliver up books or papers, or pay over money in their hands; and when and as soon as the said accounts of the said respective treasurers, &c. shall be audited, allowed, and signed, the clerk to the trustees or commissioners holding such meeting shall forthwith make out a statement of the debts, revenues, and expenditure received or incurred on account of the trust for which the meeting shall be held, in the form contained in the schedule to this act annexed [No. 24.]; which said statement shall be submitted to the trustees or commissioners assembled at such meeting, and when approved by the majority of them shall be signed by the chairman of the said meeting; and the said statement, being so approved and signed, the said clerk shall, within 30 days thereafter, transmit the same to the clerk of the peace of the county in which the road or the major part thereof, to which the said statement relates, shall lie; and if any clerk shall refuse or neglect to make out such statement as aforesaid, or to transmit the same within the time herein-before mentioned, he shall for such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.*, to be recovered as herein-after directed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 78.

81. The clerk of the peace of every county to whom such statements shall be transmitted, shall, on receiving same, cause them to be produced to the justices assembled at the quarter sessions to be held next after the receipt thereof, and also to be registered and kept amongst the records of the quarter sessions of the county for which such clerk of the peace shall act; and the said statements so to be transmitted to the said respective clerks of the peace, shall, when registered, be open to the inspection of every person whatsoever, who may take extracts therefrom or copies thereof, paying to the clerk of the peace in whose custody the same shall be, the sum of 5*s.* for each inspection, and the sum of 6*d.* for every 72 words of each extract or copy taken, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 79.

82. The said trustees or commissioners shall, immediately after such accounts and statements have been examined, audited, and signed, cause a sufficient number of copies of such statements to be printed, and direct their clerk to transmit a copy thereof to each acting trustee or commissioner, having duly qualified himself to act as such trustee or commissioner of such road, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 80.

83. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, to borrow and take up at interest, on the credit of the tolls arising on such road, such sums of money as they shall from time to time respectively think proper, and to demise and mortgage the tolls on such road or any part or parts thereof, and the turnpikes and toll-houses, for collecting the same, (the costs and charges of which mortgages shall be paid out of the tolls) as a security to any person or persons or their trustees, who shall advance such sums of money; which mortgages shall be in the words or to the effect following; (that is to say),

‘By virtue of an act passed in the — year of the reign of — intituled, [here set forth the title of this act,] we, whose hands and seals are hereunto subscribed and set, being — of the trustees [or, commissioners] for putting into execution an act passed in the — year of the reign of —, intituled, [here set forth the title of the act under which the trustees or commissioners borrowing the money and granting the mortgage shall act,] in consideration of the sum of — sterling advanced and paid by A. B. of — to the treasurer of the said trustees [or commissioners], do hereby grant and assign unto the said A. B. and his executors, administrators, and assigns, such proportion of the tolls arising and to arise on the said turnpike road, and the toll-gates and toll-houses erected or to be erected for collecting the same, as the said sum of — doth or shall bear to the whole sum now or hereafter to become due and owing on the security thereof: to have, hold, receive and take the said proportion of the said tolls, toll-gates, toll-houses, and premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said A. B. and his executors, administrators, and assigns, for and during the residue of the term for which the said tolls are granted by the said last-mentioned act, unless the said sum of — with interest after the rate of — per cent. per ann. shall be sooner repaid and satisfied. Given under our hands this — day of —.

And copies of all such mortgages shall be entered in a book or books to be kept for that purpose by the clerk or treasurer to the said trustees or commissioners, for which entry such clerk shall be paid the sum of 5*s.* and no more, out of the tolls payable on such road, and which said book or books shall and may at all seasonable times be perused and inspected without fee or reward; and it shall be lawful for all persons respectively to whom any mortgage shall be made as aforesaid, or who shall be from time to time entitled to the money thereby secured, to assign or transfer their right, title, and interest in and to such mortgage, and the principal money and interest thereby secured, to any other person or persons whomsoever; which assignment or transfer may be made in the following words, or words to the like effect, to be indorsed on such mortgage security, or to be underwritten or thereunto annexed, and signed in the presence of and attested by one or more credible witness or witnesses; (that is to say),

‘I A. B. [or, I, C. D. assignee, executor, or administrator of A. B., as the case may happen], do hereby assign and transfer this mortgage security, with all my right and title to the principal money thereby secured, and all interest now due and hereafter to grow due upon the same, unto E. F., his or her executors, administrators, and assigns. Dated this — day of — 18 —.

Witness G. H.

(Signed)

A. B. or C. D.

Which transfer shall be produced and notified to the clerk or treasurer of the said trustees or commissioners, within two calendar months next after the day of the date thereof, who shall enter the same in the said book or books, for which entry the said clerk or treasurer shall be paid the sum of 5*s.* and no more; and such transfer shall then entitle such assignee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to the full benefit of such mortgage security; and every such assignee may, in like manner, assign or transfer the same, and so toties quoties; and it shall not be in the power of any person (except the person to whom the same shall be last transferred, his respective executors or administrators), to release, discharge, or make void the original mortgage security or the monies due thereon, or any part thereof; and all persons to whom any such mortgage or transfer shall be made as aforesaid, shall, in proportion to the sums of money thereby secured, be creditors on the tolls by such act granted, and on the said toll-gates and toll-houses, in equal degree one with another, or in such order as shall be agreed upon and stipulated by the said trustees or commissioners at the time of the advance of their respective shares, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 81. [Trustees not personally liable on mortgages, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 61. post, pl. 199.; and as to paying off creditors, s. 60. pl. 198.]

84. If any person shall agree to advance any sum of money to be employed in the making or repairing of any turnpike road, or highway intended to be made turnpike, and shall subscribe his name to any writing for that purpose, he shall be liable to pay every such sum of money so subscribed, according to the purport of such writing; and in default of payment thereof within 21 days after the same shall become payable, and shall be demanded by the person to whom the same is made payable by such writing, or if no person be named therein for that purpose, by the treasurer of such turnpike or intended turnpike road, it shall be lawful for every such treasurer or other person to sue for and recover the same in any of H. M.'s courts of record, by action of debt or on the case, or by bill, suit, or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance, shall be allowed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 82.

85. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road, and they are hereby fully authorized and empowered, from time to time, to make, divert, shorten, vary, alter, and improve the course or path of any of the several and respective roads under their care and management, or of any part or parts thereof, and to divert, shorten, &c. the course or path of any of the said several and respective roads, through or over any commons or waste grounds, or uncultivated lands, without making satisfaction for the same, and also through or over any private lands, tenements, or hereditaments, tendering and making satisfaction to the owners thereof, and persons interested therein, for the damage they shall sustain thereby; and it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners, and for their surveyor or surveyors and workmen, with or without carriages or cattle, from time to time, to enter upon any such commons or waste grounds, or uncultivated lands, private lands, tenements, or hereditaments as aforesaid, through or over which the said road, or the widenings and alterations thereof, pass, or are intended to pass, and to stake out and make the same in such manner as the said trustees or commissioners shall think necessary or proper, without being thereby subject to be deemed a trespasser or trespassers, or to any fine, penalty, or forfeiture for entering or continuing upon any part of such lands, &c. respectively, for any of the purposes aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 83.

86. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road to treat, contract, and agree with the owners of and persons interested in any lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, with their appurtenances, which they shall deem necessary to purchase for the purpose of widening, diverting, altering, and improving such road, for the purchase thereof, and for the loss or damage such owners or persons may otherwise sustain; and it shall be lawful for all bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, husbands, guardians, trustees, feoffees in trust, committees, executors, administrators, and all other persons whomsoever, not only for or on behalf of themselves, their heirs and successors, but also for and on behalf of the person or persons entitled in reversion, remainder, or expectancy after them, and for and on behalf of their cestuique trusts, whether femmes covert, infants or issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, or other person or persons whomsoever, and to and for all femmes covert who are or shall be seised of or interested in their own right, and to and for all and every person and persons whomsoever, who are or shall be possessed of or interested in any such lands, &c. or premises, or who shall sustain any damage as aforesaid, to contract with the said trustees or commissioners for the sale thereof, or for the satisfaction to be made for the same, or for such damages as aforesaid; and by conveyance, lease and release, or bargain and sale, to sell and convey unto the said trustees or commissioners all or any such lands, &c., or premises, or any part thereof, for the purposes aforesaid; and all contracts, sales, and conveyances which shall be so made shall be good, valid, and effectual, without fine or recovery, and shall be a complete bar to all estates tail and other estates, rights, titles, trusts, and interests whatsoever, any law, statute, usage, custom, or other matter to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such bodies politic, corporate, &c., and all other persons, shall be and are hereby indemnified for what they or any of them shall do by virtue of or in pursuance of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 84. [See as to land for deposit of materials, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 56. post, pl. 194.; and as to the sale of houses, ss. 57. 63. post, pl. 195, 201.]

87. If any such bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, husbands, guardians, trustees, feoffees, committees, executors, administrators, or any other person or persons interested in any such lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises, or sustaining any damage as aforesaid, upon notice to him, her, or them given or left in writing at the dwelling-house or dwelling-houses, place or places of abode of such person or persons, or of the principal officer or officers of any such bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, or at the house of the tenant in possession of any such lands, &c. or premises, shall for the space of 30 days next after such notice given or left as aforesaid, neglect or refuse to treat, or shall not agree in the premises, or by reason of absence shall be prevented from treating, then the said trustees or commissioners shall cause such damage, value, or recompence to be inquired into and ascertained by a jury of 12 indifferent men of the county, riding, or place wherein such lands, &c. or premises do lie; and in order thereto, the said trustees or commissioners are hereby empowered and required from time to time, as occasion shall require, to summon and call before such jury, and examine upon oath, all and every person and persons whomsoever who shall be thought necessary and proper to be examined concerning the premises (which oath the said trustees or commissioners, or any or either of them, are and is hereby empowered to administer); and such trustees or commissioners shall, by ordering a view or otherwise, use all lawful ways and means, as well for their own as for the said jury's information in the premises; and after the said jury shall have inquired of and assessed such damage and recompence, they the said trustees or commissioners shall thereupon order the sum of money so assessed by the said jury to be paid to the said owners or other persons interested, according to the verdict or inquisition of such jury; and such verdict or inquisition, and judgment, order, and determination thereon, shall be final, binding, and conclusive to all intents and purposes against all parties and persons whomsoever claiming or to claim any estate in possession, reversion, or otherwise, their heirs and successors, as well absent as present, infants, femmes covert, idiots, lunatics, and persons under any other disability whatsoever, bodies politic, corporate or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, as well as all and every person and persons whomsoever; and for summoning and returning such juries, the said trustees or commissioners are hereby empowered to issue their warrant or warrants in writing to the sheriff of the county wherein such lands, &c. or premises do lie, commanding him to impanel, summon, and return an indifferent jury of 24 persons, qualified to serve upon juries, to appear before such trustees or commissioners at such time and place as in such warrant or warrants shall be appointed; and such sheriff or his deputy is hereby required to impanel, summon, and return such number of persons accordingly; and out of the persons so impanelled, summoned, and returned, or out of such of them as shall appear upon such summons, the said trustees or commissioners shall and are hereby empowered and required to swear or cause to be sworn 12 men, who shall be a jury for the purposes aforesaid; and in default of a sufficient number of jurymen, the said sheriff or his deputy shall return other honest and indifferent men of the standers-by, or that can be speedily procured to attend that service, to the number of 12; and all persons concerned shall have their lawful challenges against the said jurymen when they come to be sworn, but shall not challenge the array; and the said trustees or commissioners acting in the premises shall have power, from time to time, to impose any reasonable fine or fines upon such sheriff, his deputy, bailiff, or agent, making default in the premises, and on any of the persons that shall be summoned and returned on such jury, and who, without sufficient excuse, shall not appear, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn on the said jury, or being sworn shall refuse to give or shall not give their verdict, or in any other manner wilfully neglect their duty therein, contrary to the meaning of this act, and on any of the persons who, being required to give evidence before the said jury, shall, without sufficient excuse, refuse or neglect to appear, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn and examined or to give evidence, so that no one fine be more than 10*l.* on any such sheriff, deputy, bailiff, or agent, nor more than 5*l.* on any other person, for one offence, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 85.

88. Every sum of money or recompence to be agreed for or assessed as aforesaid, shall be paid out of any monies in the hands of the said trustees or commissioners, or out of the tolls granted by the act for making and repairing such turnpike road, or out of the monies to be borrowed on the credit thereof, to the parties or persons respectively entitled thereto, or to their agents, or into the bank of Eng., in manner by this act directed (as the case may be); and upon such payment to such parties or persons, or their agents, or into the bank of Eng., and after 30 days' notice thereof given to such parties or persons, or to their agents, or left at their respective usual places of abode, or with the tenant in possession of such lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, then such lands, &c. and premises respectively shall be vested in such trustees or commissioners, and shall and may be taken and used for the purposes of such act; and such lands, and the site of such lands, &c. and premises, shall be laid into and made part of the road, in such manner as the said trustees or commissioners shall direct, and shall be repaired and kept in repair by such trustees or commissioners, by the same ways and means as any other part of the road under their management is or ought to be kept in repair; and all parties and persons whomsoever shall be divested of all right and title to such lands, &c.; and after such new road shall be completed, the lands or grounds constituting any former roads or road, or so much and such parts thereof as in the judgment of the said trustees or commissioners may thereby become useless or unnecessary, or shall or may be stopped up and discontinued as public highways (unless leading over some moor, heath, common, uncultivated land or waste ground, or to some church, mill, village, town or place, lands or tenements, to which such new road or roads doth not or do not immediately lead, and which may therefore be deemed proper to be kept open either as a public or private way or ways, for the use of any inhabitant at large, or any individual or individuals), and shall be vested in, and shall and may be sold and conveyed by the said trustees or commissioners, in the manner herein mentioned, for the best price that can be gotten for the same, and the money arising by such sale shall be applied for the purposes of the act for repairing and maintaining such turnpike road; and all conveyances, being executed by the said trustees or commissioners, and enrolled in the office of the clerk of the peace for the county, city, or place wherein such road shall be situate, shall be good and effectual in the law to all intents and purposes whatsoever; or it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners, instead of making such sale as aforesaid, to give up to the owners or proprietors of any adjoining lands, &c. whose building, land, or ground shall be had or taken for the purposes of this act, any part of the present or old roads in lieu of and in exchange for the same, in such way and manner as such trustees or commissioners, and owners or proprietors, shall agree upon and think fit, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 86. [See as to expenses of sale and form of conveyance, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 55. post, pl. 193.]

89. In case any jury or juries to be summoned and sworn pursuant to the directions and authority of this act, shall give in and deliver a verdict or assessment for more money as a recompence or satisfaction for the right, interest, or property of any person in any such lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises, or for any loss or damage to be by him sustained, than what shall have been agreed to and offered by such trustees or commissioners before the summoning or returning the said jury or juries, as a recompence or satisfaction for any such right, interest, or property, or for any loss or damage as aforesaid, then and in such case the costs and expences of summoning and maintaining the said jury and witnesses, and all other expences attending the hearing and determining such difference, shall be borne and paid by the treasurer to the trustees or commissioners, out of any money which shall then be in his hands, or out of any monies to be received by virtue of the act for repairing and maintaining such turnpike road, such costs and expences to be settled and ascertained by some justice of the peace for the county or place wherein the dispute shall have arisen, not interested in the matter in question, who is hereby authorized and empowered to settle and determine the same, and to make an order on the treasurer of the trustees or commissioners liable thereto for the payment thereof; but if any such jury or juries so summoned and sworn as aforesaid shall give in and deliver a verdict or assessment for no more or for less money than shall have been agreed to and offered by the trustees or commissioners before the summoning and returning of the said jury or juries, as a recompence and satisfaction for any such right, interest, or property in any such lands, &c. or premises, or losses or damages as aforesaid, then the costs and expences of summoning and maintaining the said jury and witnesses, and all other expences as aforesaid, shall be borne and paid by the person with whom such trustees or commissioners shall have such controversy or dispute; which said costs and expences having been ascertained and settled by some justice of the peace for the county, riding, or place wherein the cause of dispute shall arise, not interested in the matter in question (who is hereby required to examine and settle the same), shall and may be deducted out of the money so assessed and adjudged, as so much money advanced to and for the use of such person, and the payment or tender of the remainder of such monies shall be deemed and taken, to all intents and purposes, to be a payment or tender of the whole sum so assessed and adjudged, or otherwise such costs and expences, in case the same or any part thereof shall exceed such damages, and shall not be paid upon demand, after being so ascertained and settled as aforesaid, may be recovered by the said trustees or commissioners by the ways and means herein-after provided for the recovery of penalties and forfeitures: provided, that in all cases where any person shall, by reason of absence, have been prevented from treating, such costs and expences shall be borne and paid by the said trustees or commissioners in manner aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 87.

90. When any turnpike road shall be diverted or turned, and the new road shall be made and completed, such new road shall be in lieu of the old road, and shall be subject to all the provisions and regulations in any act of parliament contained, or otherwise, to which the old road was subject, and shall be deemed and taken to be a common highway, and shall be repaired and maintained as such; and the old road shall be stopped up, and the land and soil thereof shall be sold by the trustees or commissioners to some person whose lands adjoin thereto, as herein-after mentioned with regard to pieces of ground not wanted; but if such old road shall lead to any lands, house, or place, which cannot, in the opinion of the said trustees or commissioners, be conveniently accommodated with a passage from such new road, which they are hereby authorized to order and lay out if they find it necessary, then and in such case the old road shall be sold, but subject to the right of way and passage to such lands, house, or place respectively, according to the ancient usage in that respect; and the money arising from such sale in either of the said cases shall be applied towards the purchase of the land where such new road shall be made, or in the same manner as the tolls arising on such road, as the trustees or commissioners thereof shall think fit; and upon the completion of any contract whereby any part of the old road shall be given in payment for the value of the ground taken for the new road, or upon payment of the price of any part of the old road, the soil of such old road shall become vested in the purchaser thereof and his heirs; but all mines, minerals, and fossils lying under the same shall continue the property of the person who would from time to time have been entitled to the same if such old road had continued, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 88. [See note to s. 86. ante, pl. 88. See as to fencing, draining, &c. turned or altered, &c. roads, 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 66, 67.; and as to liability of those persons to repair new road, who were liable to repair old road, id. s. 68. post, pl. 203—205.]

91. Where the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall have purchased, or shall be possessed of any piece or pieces of ground not wanted for the purposes of such road, it shall be lawful for such trustees or commissioners to sell and dispose of the same: provided, that the said trustees or commissioners, before they shall sell and dispose of any such piece or pieces of ground not wanted as aforesaid, to any other person shall first offer the same to the person of whom the same shall have been purchased, or to the person whose lands shall adjoin thereto; and if such person respectively shall then and thereupon refuse, or shall not agree (except with respect to or on account of the price thereof) to purchase the same respectively, on an affidavit being made and sworn before a master or master extraordinary in the high court of chancery, or before one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county, liberty, or place where such ground is situate (who are hereby respectively empowered to take such affidavit), by some person or persons no way interested in the said piece or pieces of ground, stating that such offer was made by or on the behalf of such trustees or commissioners, and that such offer was then and thereupon refused, or was not agreed to by the person to whom the same was made, such affidavit shall in all courts whatsoever be sufficient evidence and proof that such offer was made, and was refused, or not agreed to by the person to whom such offer was made (as the case may be); and in case such person shall be desirous of purchasing such piece or pieces of ground, and he and the said trustees or commissioners shall differ or not agree with respect to the price thereof, then the price thereof shall be ascertained by a jury, in manner in this act directed with respect to disputed value of premises to be taken and used in pursuance of this act, and the expence of hearing and determining such difference shall be borne and paid in manner herein-before directed with respect to such purchases made by the said trustees, mutatis mutandis; and the money to arise by the sale or sales of such pieces or parcels of ground shall be applied by the trustees or commissioners to the purposes of the act for repairing and maintaining such turnpike road, but the purchaser thereof shall not be answerable or accountable for any misapplication or non-application of such money; and the conveyances of such piece or pieces of ground shall be made to the purchaser or respective purchasers thereof, and in such manner and form as is herein-before directed with respect to the conveyances to be made of the land constituting any part of the roads herein-before directed to be sold, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 89.

92. If any money shall be agreed or awarded to be paid for any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, purchased, taken, or used by virtue of the powers of this act, by any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, which shall belong to any corporation, feme covert, infant, lunatic, tenant for life or in fee tail general or special, or person or persons under any disability or incapacity, such money shall, in case the same shall amount to or exceed the sum of 200*l.*, with all convenient speed be paid into the bank of Eng., in the name and with the privity of the accountant-general of the high court of chancery, to be placed to his account ex parte the trustees or commissioners of the road for which such lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall be taken, to the intent that such money shall be applied, under the direction and with the approbation of the said court, to be signified by an order made upon a petition to be preferred in a summary way by the person or persons who would have been entitled to the rents and profits of the said lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in the purchase of the land tax, or towards the discharge of any debt or debts, or such other incumbrances, or part thereof, as the said court shall authorize to be paid, affecting the same lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or affecting other lands, tenements, or hereditaments standing settled therewith to the same or to the like uses, trusts, intents, or purposes; or where such money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like direction and approbation of the said court, in the purchase of other lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon such and the like uses, trusts, intents, and purposes, and in the same manner as the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which shall be so purchased, taken, or used as aforesaid, stood settled or limited, or such of them as at the time of making such conveyance or settlement shall be existing, undetermined, and capable of taking effect; and in the meantime and until such purchase shall be made, the said money shall, by order of the said court of chancery, upon application thereto, be invested by the said accountant-general, in his name, in the purchase of 3l. per cent. consolidated, or 3l. per cent. reduced bank annuities; and in the meantime and until the said bank annuities shall be ordered by the said court to be sold for the purposes aforesaid, the dividends and annual produce of the said consolidated or reduced bank annuities shall from time to time be paid, by the order of the said court, to the person or persons who would for the time being have been entitled to the rents and profits of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments so hereby directed to be purchased, in case such settlement or purchase were made, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 90.

93. Provided, that if any money so agreed or awarded to be paid for any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, purchased, taken, or used for the purposes aforesaid, belonging to any corporation, or to any person under disability or incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the sum of 200l., and shall amount to or exceed the sum of 20l., then and in all such cases the same shall, at the option of the person for the time being entitled to the rents and profits of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments so purchased, taken, or used, or of his guardian or guardians, committee or committees, in case of infancy or lunacy, to be signified in writing under their respective hands, be paid into the said bank, in the name and with the privity of the said accountant-general of the high court of chancery, and be placed to his account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in manner herein-after directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid, at the like option, to two trustees to be nominated by the person making such option, and approved by three or more of the trustees or commissioners taking such lands, tenements, or hereditaments (such nomination and approbation to be signified in writing under the hands of the nominating and approving parties), in order that such principal money, and the dividends and interest arising thereon, may be applied in manner herein-before directed, so far as the case be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the direction or approbation of the court of chancery, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 91.

94. Provided, that where such money so agreed or awarded to be paid as last before mentioned shall be less than 20l., then the same shall be applied to the use of the person who would for the time being have been entitled to the rents and profits of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments so purchased, taken, or used, in such manner as the said trustees or commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall think fit; or in case of lunacy or infancy, then to his guardian or guardians, committee or committees, to and for the use and benefit of such person so entitled respectively, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 92.

95. In case the person or persons to whom any sum of money shall be awarded for the purchase of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments to be purchased by virtue of this act, shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make a good title to the premises, to the satisfaction of the trustees or commissioners, or any three or more of them, or in case such person to whom such sum of money shall be so awarded as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the person entitled to such lands, tenements, or hereditaments be not known or discovered, then it shall be lawful to and for the trustees or commissioners, or any three or more of them, to order the said sum of money so awarded as aforesaid, to be paid into the bank of Eng., in the name and with the privity of the said accountant-general of the said court of chancery, to be placed to his account, to the credit of the parties interested in the said lands, tenements, or hereditaments, (describing them,) subject to the order, controul, and disposition of the said court of chancery, which said court of chancery, on the application of any person making claim to such sum of money, or any part thereof, by motion or petition, is hereby empowered, in a summary way of proceeding, or otherwise, as to the said court shall seem meet, to order the same to be laid out and invested in the public funds, and to order distribution thereof, or payment of the dividends thereof, according to the respective estate, title, or interest, of the person making claim thereunto, and to make such other order in the premises as to the said court shall seem just and reasonable; and the cashiers of the bank of Eng., who shall receive such sum of money, are hereby required to give a receipt or receipts for such sum of money, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose use the same is received, to such person or persons as shall pay any sum of money into the bank of Eng. as aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 93.

96. Provided, that where any question shall arise touching the title of any person to any money to be paid into the bank of Eng., in the name and with the privity of the said accountant-general of the said court of chancery, in pursuance of this act, for the purchase of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance of this act, or to any bank annuities to be purchased with any such money, or to the dividends or interest of any such bank annuities, the person who shall have been in possession of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments at the time of such purchase, and all persons claiming under such person, or under the possession of such person, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, according to such possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the satisfaction of the said court of chancery; and the dividends or interest of the bank annuities to be purchased with such money, and also the capital of such bank annuities, shall be applied and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made to appear to the said court, that such possession was a wrongful possession, and that some other person or persons was or were lawfully entitled to such lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or to some estate or interest therein, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 94.

97. Provided, that where by reason of any disability or incapacity of the person or corporation entitled to any lands, tenements, or hereditaments to be purchased under this act, the purchase-money for the same shall be required to be paid into the court of chancery, and to be applied in the purchase of other lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to be settled to the like uses in pursuance of this act, it shall be lawful for the said court of chancery to order the expences of all purchases from time to time to be made in pursuance of this act, or so much of the said expences as the said court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary costs and charges of obtaining such order, to be paid by the trustees or commissioners, or any three or more of them, who shall from time to time pay such sums of money for such purposes as the said court shall direct, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 95.

98. It shall not be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, in altering or diverting the course of any part of the turnpike road under their care and management, to deviate over any inclosed lands or grounds more than 100 yards from the line or course of such turnpike road, without the consent in writing of the owner or proprietor of such lands or grounds, or to take in or make use of any garden, yard, paddock, park, planted walk or avenue to a house, or any inclosed ground planted as an ornament or shelter to a house, or planted and set apart as a nursery for trees, or any part thereof respectively, without the like consent of the owner or proprietor thereof first had and obtained: provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to revoke, limit, abridge, alter, or vary any powers or authorities contained in any act of parliament existing and in force at the passing of this act, for making, altering, or diverting any turnpike road or the course thereof, to be made, altered, or diverted and maintained under the authority of such acts, but the same powers and authorities shall and may be used, exercised, and carried into effect by the trustees or commissioners appointed by such acts, fully and effectually, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 96. [REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 64.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 65. pl. 202.]

99. It shall be lawful for the surveyor to the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road, and for all such persons as he or they shall appoint, to search for, dig, gather, take and carry away any materials for making or repairing any turnpike road, out of any common river or brook (not being within 50 yards of any bridge, dam, weir, or jetty), or out of or from any waste or common in any parish, hamlet, or place in which any part of such road may lie, or in any adjoining parish, hamlet, or place, and to haul and carry away any such materials when got over any common or waste lands, without paying any thing for such materials, and without being deemed a trespasser; the said surveyor, or other person, filling up the pits or quarries, levelling the grounds, or sloping down the banks wherefrom such materials shall be taken, or railing or fencing off such pits or quarries, so that the same shall not be dangerous to any persons or cattle, and paying or tendering for the damage done by going through and over any inclosed lands or grounds for or with such materials, and such damages to be ascertained as herein-after mentioned; and also that it shall be lawful for the said surveyor, and such person or persons as he or they shall appoint, to search for, dig, get, gather, take, and carry away any such materials in or out of the land of any person where the same may be had or found, in any parish, hamlet, or place in which any part of such road shall lie or be situate, or in any adjoining parish, hamlet, or place (not being a garden, yard, park, paddock, planted walk or avenue to any house, or any piece of ground planted and set apart as a nursery for trees), making or tendering such satisfaction for such materials, and for the damage done to the owners or occupiers of the lands where and from whence the same shall be dug, gathered, and carried away, or over which the same shall be carried, as the said trustees or commissioners shall judge reasonable; and also to land on and carry through or over any inclosed lands or grounds (not being a garden, yard, park, paddock, planted walk, or avenue to a house, or any piece of ground planted and set apart as a nursery for trees), or on, through or over any open land or common, any stone or other materials for making or repairing any such road, or for building or repairing any present or future toll-house on or by the sides thereof, from any river, stream, or canal, in any parish, hamlet, or place in which any such road lies, or in any adjoining parish, hamlet, or place, paying or tendering for the damage done in landing on, or going through or over any inclosed lands or grounds for or with such materials, such sum of money as the said trustees shall judge reasonable; and in case of any difference between such trustees or commissioners, surveyors, or other persons appointed or employed as aforesaid, and the owners and occupiers of such lands, or any of them, concerning such payments and damages as aforesaid, any two or more justices of the peace for the county, riding, or place wherein the place from whence such materials shall have been taken shall be situate, on 10 days' notice thereof being given in writing by either party to the other, shall hear, settle, and determine the matter of such payments and damages, and the costs attending the hearing and determining the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 97.

100. Provided, that it shall not be lawful for any surveyor, or any other person acting under the authority of this act, to dig, gather, get, take or carry away any materials for making or repairing any turnpike road, or for other such purpose as aforesaid, out of or from any inclosed land or ground, until notice in writing, signed by the surveyor, shall have been given to the owner or owners of the premises from which such materials are intended to be taken, or his or her known agent, or to the occupiers of the premises from which such materials are intended to be taken, or left at the house or last or usual place of abode of such owner or occupier, to appear before any two or more justices of the peace acting in and for the county, liberty, or place where the lands from whence such materials are intended to be taken shall lie, to show cause why such materials shall not be had therefrom; and in case such owner, agent, or occupier shall attend pursuant to such notice, but shall not show sufficient cause to the contrary, such justices shall, if they think proper, authorize such surveyor or other person to dig, get, gather, take, and carry away such materials, at such time or times as to such justices shall seem proper; and if such owner, agent, or occupier shall neglect or refuse to appear by himself or herself, or his or her agent, the said justices shall (upon proof on oath of the service of such notice, and which oath they are hereby empowered to administer,) make such order therein as they think fit, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if such owner or occupier, or his or her agent, had attended, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 98.

101. If any surveyor of any turnpike road, or any person employed by him, shall, by reason of the searching for, digging, or getting, any gravel, sand, stones, chalk, clay, or other materials for repairing any highways, make or cause to be made any pit or hole in any common or other lands or grounds, rivers or brooks as aforesaid, wherein such materials shall be found, the said surveyor shall forthwith cause the same to be sufficiently fenced off, and such fence supported and repaired during such time as the said pit or hole shall continue open, and shall, within three days after such pit or hole shall be opened or made, where no gravel, stones, or materials shall be found, cause the same forthwith to be filled up, levelled, and covered with the turf or clod which was dug out of the same; and where any such materials shall be found, within 14 days after having dug up sufficient materials in such pit or hole, if the same is not likely to be further useful, cause the same to be filled up, sloped down, or fenced off, and so continued; and if the same is likely to be further useful, the said surveyor shall secure the same by posts and rails, or other fences, to prevent accidents to persons or cattle; and in case such surveyor shall neglect to fill up, slope down, or fence off such pit or hole in manner and within the time aforesaid, he or they shall forfeit the sum of 20s. for every such default; and in case such surveyor shall neglect to fence off such pit or hole, or to slope down the same, as herein-before directed, for the space of six days after he or they shall have received notice for either of those purposes from any justice of the peace, or from the owner or occupier of such several ground, river, or brook, or any person having right of common within such common or waste lands as aforesaid, and such neglect and notice shall be approved upon oath before one or more of the said justices of the peace, such surveyor shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 10l., nor less than 40s., for every such neglect, to be determined and adjudged by such justice or justices, and to be laid out and applied in the fencing off, filling up, or sloping down such pit or hole, in such manner as the said justice shall direct and appoint; which forfeiture, in case the same be not forthwith paid, shall be levied as other forfeitures are herein-after directed to be levied, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 99.

102. Provided, that it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners to contract and agree with any person whomsoever for the purchase or demise from him, of and to hold any land or ground for the purpose of digging stones, gravel, and materials therefrom for the repair or use of the said road, and at any time afterwards to sell the land or ground so purchased by public auction or tender; provided also, that the entering into any such contract or agreement as last aforesaid shall not be compulsory against any person unwilling to enter into the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 100.

103. If any person shall take away any materials which shall have been gotten, dug, or gathered for the repair or use of any turnpike road, or any materials out of any quarry which shall have been made, dug, or opened for the purpose of getting materials for any turnpike road, before the surveyor of such road and the workmen employed for getting such materials shall have discontinued working therein for the space of six weeks (except the owner or occupier of any private grounds, and persons authorized by him to get materials in such quarry for his own private use, and not for sale), every person so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5l., 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 101.

104. The trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road are hereby empowered to purchase or rent any piece or pieces of land or ground not exceeding in any one place six yards square, on the sides of such road, as repositories for stone, gravel, and other materials for making or repairing the same; and in case any difference shall arise between such trustees or commissioners and the owner of such land or ground, with respect to the value thereof, or the necessity or propriety of taking such land or ground, the same shall be settled and determined by any two justices of the peace acting in and for the county where the said land or ground shall be situated, in manner herein-before [viz. s. 98. pl. 100.] directed with respect to getting materials for the repair of any turnpike road, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 102.

105. It shall be lawful for the company of proprietors, or the trustee or trustees for the proprietors of any canal, or of any railway or tram-road, on which any flint, gravel, stone, or other materials for the repair of any turnpike road shall be conveyed, and they are hereby authorized to lessen and reduce the tolls and rates imposed by any act of parliament by which any such company shall be appointed, or any other act whatsoever, on the carriage of such flint, gravel, stone, or other materials carried on the said canal or railway, and to appoint such lower tolls and rates to be taken for the carriage and conveyance of the same as the said company or trustees shall think proper; and all such reduced tolls shall be collected, taken, and recovered by the same persons and means, and by and under the same powers, provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, as the original tolls might have been taken in case the same should not have been reduced; any act of parliament, bye-law or ordinance, or trust-deed, to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 103.

106. All persons who by law are liable to do statute-work, or are chargeable towards the repairing and amending any turnpike road, shall remain liable thereto in like manner as they now are or have heretofore been; and it shall be lawful for any two or more justices of peace, upon application made to them by any three or more of the trustees or commissioners, or by their clerk or surveyor of such turnpike road, yearly to adjudge and determine what part or proportion of the statute-work shall every year be done upon such road by the inhabitants of the respective parishes in or through which the said road shall lead or pass, and also what proportion of the money received by the surveyor of the highways of every such parish, in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, shall be paid to the said trustees or commissioners, or their treasurer; and in order thereunto the surveyor of the highways for every such parish shall, on an order in writing made by the said justices, on an application to them by the trustees or commissioners of the turnpike road, or by their clerk or surveyor, and respectively delivered to such surveyor of the highways, or left at his usual place of abode, deliver within 10 days afterwards, to the said turnpike surveyor, or at his place of abode, true and perfect lists in writing of the names of the several persons who within such parish are by law liable to do statute-work for that year, or to the payment of any money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, distinguishing the nature of the work to be done, whether with teams or draughts, or otherwise, and also the amount of the respective sums to be paid; which lists of names shall be made in such manner and under such regulations as are directed by any law or statute in force for the repairs of the public highways, and may be made in the form specified in the schedule to this act [No such form was given, but the omission is supplied by 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 77. and sch. No. 2.]; and the said turnpike surveyor having received such lists, shall within five days afterwards give a notice to the surveyor of the highways of the time when such lists will be laid before the said justices, in order to apportion the said statute-duty; and at the time appointed in and by such notice the said lists shall be laid before the said justices by the said turnpike surveyor, in the presence of the said surveyor of the highways; and out of such lists the said justices shall allot, appoint, and order such persons who shall appear to be liable to do statute-work in every year upon such road as the said justices shall think reasonable; and the same shall be done on such days and at such time (not being hay-time or harvest), and on such parts of the said road, as the said trustees or commissioners, or their surveyor, shall from time to time order, direct, or appoint; and the said justices shall order and direct the persons who by such lists shall be subject and liable to the payment of any money in lieu of or as a composition for the statute-work as aforesaid, to pay such proportion thereof as the said justices shall think proper to the surveyor of such parishes respectively, to be by him paid over to the said trustees or commissioners, or their treasurer, at such time as the said justices shall direct; and in default of payment thereof, the same shall be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the respective persons liable to the payment thereof, in like manner as any penalty is by this act directed to be recovered; and every person who shall neglect or refuse to do such statute-work as aforesaid, after notice in writing given to or left for him, at his usual place of abode, by any surveyor to the said trustees or commissioners, shall, for every day of his default, or the default of any labourer, team, draught, horse or beast to be provided by him, be liable to such fines, penalties, and forfeitures as such person may be liable to by any law; and if any person who shall come to work as a labourer, or shall be sent with any team or draught to work on any part of such road, shall be found idle or negligent by any surveyor, such surveyor is hereby empowered to remove and dismiss the person who shall be so found idle or negligent, and in that case every such person shall be liable to the respective forfeitures and payments as aforesaid, as if he had neglected or refused to come, or such team or draught had not been sent to work on any part of such road; all which forfeitures shall be paid to the treasurer of the said trustees or commissioners, and applied towards amending the said road; and in case the surveyor of the highways for any of the said parishes shall refuse or wilfully neglect to give in any such lists as aforesaid, or shall give in false and imperfect lists, or shall neglect to collect or pay over such composition-money in manner aforesaid, every such surveyor so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 10*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 104. [Recited and REP., 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 79.; new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 80. post, pl. 214.]

107. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road to compound and agree with any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, for the repairs or statute-work to be by him, her, or them done on any such turnpike road, and also with the surveyor of the highways for any of the parishes, hamlets, or places in which the said road doth or shall lie and be situate, for a certain sum of money, by the year or otherwise as the said trustees or commissioners shall think reasonable, in lieu of the whole or any part of the statute-work or other work to be by all or any of the said inhabitants and occupiers done on the said road, [which composition-money shall always be paid by the surveyor of the highways, or other officer of the parish, hamlet, or place, or by the person so compounding, to the treasurer of the trustees or commissioners in advance, on or before the 29th Sept. in each year, or otherwise such person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, or inhabitants and occupiers within such parish, hamlet, or place, shall not be permitted to compound for that year;] and all such composition-money shall be applied for the purposes of such turnpike road; and that every such surveyor of the highways who shall pay any such composition-money shall be reimbursed the same in like manner as surveyors of the highways are by the laws in being to be reimbursed the money by them laid out and expended in buying materials for the repairing of any other highway, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 105. [The words in italic REP., 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 82., and new provision made; post, pl. 216.]

108. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike roads to contract and agree with any person liable to the repair of any part of the road under the care and management of such trustees or commissioners, or of any bridges thereon, by tenure or otherwise, for the repair thereof, for such term as they shall think proper, not exceeding three years, and to contribute towards the repair of such road or bridges, such sum of money as they shall think proper out of the tolls arising on such turnpike road, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 106.

109. And whereas many bridges on turnpike roads are by prescription at present liable to be repaired by certain parishes, and not by the county or counties in which they are situated, and which bridges from change of times and circumstances are become no longer sufficiently convenient for the use of the public without being enlarged or otherwise improved; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such county or counties, parish or parishes respectively, to enter into a composition or agreement with each other, and by the authority of those persons who shall be legally competent to make rates for such county and parish respectively, whereby the improvement and future repair of any such bridge shall be undertaken and lie upon the county or counties in which such bridge is locally situated; and that all rates made for carrying into effect any such composition, agreement, repairs, or improvement, shall be made and assessed in the same manner as other the rates of such county or parish respectively, and shall be good and valid to all intents and purposes, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 107.

110. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, and for such parish or parishes, in like manner to enter into a composition or agreement with each other, and by the authority of the persons at present legally competent to make rates for such parish or parishes, whereby, in consideration of such sum of money as shall be agreed upon being yearly paid to the treasurer of the trustees or commissioners entering into such composition or agreement, out of the rates to be raised for the repair of the bridge or bridges the subject thereof, the repairs of any such bridge shall, during the continuance of any act of parliament under which such trustees or commissioners shall be appointed or act, be undertaken and carried on by the said trustees or commissioners; and that all rates and assessments raised and levied for carrying such composition or agreement into effect, shall, in like manner, be good and valid to all intents and purposes whatsoever, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 108.

111. And whereas there are or may be turnpike roads in such a state and condition with regard to their repairs and the revenues arising upon them, that the statute-duty required to be performed upon the same may be in the whole or in part dispensed with, and employed more advantageously, for the benefit of the other public highways within the parish, township, or place liable to the performance of such duty; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the justices of the peace at any special sessions, upon application to them made by the surveyor of the highways, or by any two inhabitants of any parish, township, or place, to summon before them the clerk and surveyor of any turnpike road within such parish, township, or place alleged to be in the situation before described, and then and there to produce before them a state of the revenues and debts of such turnpike road, and for such justices to inquire into the state and condition of the repairs thereof, and also of the repairs of such other highways; and if it shall appear to the said justices, upon full and clear evidence, that the whole or any part of such statute-duty may be conveniently dispensed with from such turnpike road, without endangering the securities for the monies advanced upon the credit of the tolls thereof, and that such statute-duty is wanted for the repairs of the other highways within such parish, township, or place, then and in that case it shall and may be lawful for the said justices to order the whole or part of such statute-duty to be performed upon the highways not being turnpike within such parish, township, or place, under the direction of the surveyor thereof, during such time as to them shall seem reasonable, and the same shall be performed accordingly, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 109.

112. When the inhabitants of any parish, township, or place shall be indicted or presented for not repairing any highway being turnpike road, and the court before whom such indictment or presentment shall be preferred shall impose a fine for the repair of such road, such fine shall be apportioned, together with the costs and charges attending the same, between the inhabitants of such parish, township, or place, and the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike road, in such manner as to the said court, upon consideration of the circumstances of the case, shall seem just; and it shall be lawful for such court to order the treasurer of such turnpike road to pay the sum so proportioned for such turnpike road out of the money then in his hands or next to be received by him, in case it shall appear to such court, from the circumstances of such turnpike debts and revenues, that the same may be paid without endangering the securities of the creditors who have advanced their money upon the credit of the tolls to be raised thereupon, which order shall be binding upon such treasurer, and he is hereby authorized and required to obey the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 110.

113. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners to make and keep, or cause to be made and kept in repair, any causeway or causeways for the use of foot-passengers in, upon, or on the sides of the turnpike road in such manner as they shall think proper; and also to make or cause to be made a road through the grounds adjoining to any ruinous or narrow part of any turnpike road (not being the site or ground whereon any house stands, nor being a yard, garden, park, paddock, planted walk or avenue to any house, or any inclosed ground planted and set apart as a nursery for trees), to be made use of by all passengers, cattle, and carriages, as a public highway, whilst the old road is repairing or widening, and till such time as it shall be convenient for passengers and carriages to pass along the same, making such recompence to the owners and occupiers of such private grounds respectively, for the damages they shall or may thereby sustain, as shall be adjudged reasonable by the trustees or commissioners of the road under repair or alteration; and in case of any difference concerning such damages between such owners or occupiers and such trustees or commissioners, that then it shall be lawful for any two or more justices of the peace acting in and for the county wherein such grounds shall be situate, on 14 days' notice in writing being given by either party to the other, to settle, adjudge, and finally determine what recompence shall be made to such owners and occupiers, for the damages they shall have sustained as aforesaid, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 111.

114. Provided, that nothing herein contained as to the making or maintaining any causeway or footpath, or any other matter or provision in this act, shall extend to authorize or empower any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road to lay down, continue, repair, or maintain any pavement, or any paved or pitched causeway or footpath, in or upon or at the side of any turnpike road within any town, village, or hamlet where such turnpike road shall pass through the same, unless provision shall have been or shall be specially made for that purpose in the act of parliament under which such turnpike road shall be made, maintained, or repaired; but in default of such provision every such pavement, paved or pitched causeway or footpath, within such town, village, or hamlet shall be made, repaired, and maintained, by and at the costs of the inhabitants of such town, village, or hamlet, or by such other persons as shall be in anywise liable to make, maintain, and repair the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 112.

115. Ditches, drains, or water-courses of a sufficient depth and breadth, for the keeping all turnpike roads dry, and conveying the water from the same, shall be made, scoured, cleansed and kept open, and sufficient trunks, tunnels, plats, or bridges, shall be made and laid where any carriage-ways or footways lead out of the said turnpike roads into the lands or grounds adjoining thereto, by the occupier or occupiers of such lands or grounds; and every person who shall occupy any lands or grounds adjoining to or lying near such turnpike road through which the water hath used to pass from the said turnpike road, shall from time to time as often as occasion shall be, open, cleanse, and scour the ditches, watercourses, and drains for such water to pass without obstruction; and that every person making default in any of the matters or things aforesaid, after 10 days' notice to him given, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 113.

116. It shall be lawful for the surveyor of every turnpike road, and such person as he shall appoint, to remove and prevent all annoyances on every part of every turnpike road, by filth, dung, ashes, rubbish, or any other matter or thing whatsoever being laid or thrown upon any turnpike road, or upon any open common or waste land within 80 feet of the centre thereof, and to dispose of the same for the benefit of such road, in case the owner thereof shall neglect to remove the same within 12 hours after notice in writing, signed by any two trustees, or the surveyor of such road, given to such owner for that purpose, or in case the owner is not known, then after a like notice affixed for three days on the nearest turnpike-gate; and to turn any watercourses, sinks, or drains running into, along, or out of any turnpike road, or any part thereof, to the prejudice of the same, and to open, scour, and cleanse any watercourses or ditches adjoining to any turnpike road, and make the same as deep and large as he shall think proper and necessary, in case the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands shall neglect to open, scour, or cleanse such watercourses or ditches after seven days' notice in writing given for that purpose; and the charges thereof, and of removing any annoyances, to be settled by any one or more justices of the peace of the county or place where such part of the turnpike road shall lie, shall be reimbursed to the said surveyor by such owners or occupiers, and the same shall be recovered in such manner as the penalties and forfeitures are herein-after directed to be recovered; and if after the removal of any of the said annoyances, any person shall again offend in the like kind, every such person shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 5*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 114.

117. In all cases where any gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or under-drain made or hereafter to be made under or at the sides or near any turnpike road, shall be used as well for the conveyance of the water from such turnpike road, as for conveying water, filth, or other matters from the houses or premises of the inhabitants of any town, hamlet, village, street, or place, and no specific mode of repair, or persons liable to the expences of maintaining the same shall be appointed, the expence of maintaining and repairing such gutter, &c. shall be borne and defrayed equally or in proportions by the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike road, and the inhabitants of the town, hamlet, village, street, or place using the same; and in order to ascertain the proportion, and recover such expences, the surveyor of the turnpike road under or at the sides or near to which such gutter, &c. shall be situated, shall as often as shall be requisite repair the same, and shall then make out an account of the costs and expences of such reparation, and produce the same to any two or more justices of the peace acting for the county or place where such gutter, &c., or so much thereof as shall be repaired, shall lie; and it shall be lawful for the said justices, and they are hereby authorized to examine the accounts and statements to be produced to them, and to inquire as to the persons using such gutter, &c., and to proportion the amount to be paid by the trustees or commissioners of the turnpike road, and by the inhabitants and persons using such gutter, &c. respectively, and to fix and ascertain the amount of such proportion as they the said justices shall deem just and reasonable, to be paid by the said several parties respectively; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to pay the sum directed by the said justices to be paid by him, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so neglecting or refusing, by a warrant under the hands and seals of any two or more justices of the peace acting for the county or place where such person shall reside, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 115.

118. The owners or occupiers of the land next adjoining to every turnpike road, shall cut, prune, and trim their hedges to the height of six feet from the surface of the ground, and also cut down, prune, or lop the branches of trees, bushes, and shrubs growing in or near such hedges, or other fences adjacent thereto (such fences, trees, bushes, or shrubs, not being in any garden, orchard, plantation, walk, or avenue to a house, nor any tree, bush, or shrub, being an ornament or shelter to a house, unless the same shall hang over the road, or any part thereof, in such a manner as to impede or annoy any carriage or person travelling thereon) in such manner, that the turnpike road shall not be prejudiced by the shade thereof, and that the sun and wind may not be excluded from such turnpike road to the damage thereof; and if such owner or occupier shall not within 10 days after notice given by the surveyor for that purpose, cut, prune, and trim such hedges, or cut down, prune, or trim such branches of trees, bushes, and shrubs in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said surveyor and he is hereby required to make complaint thereof to some justice of the limit where such turnpike road shall lie, who shall summon the occupier of such lands before him to answer the said complaint; and if it shall appear to such justice that such occupier has not complied with the requisites of this act in that behalf, it shall be lawful for such justice, upon hearing the surveyor and occupier of such land or his agent (or in default of his or her appearance, upon having due proof of the service of such summons), and considering the circumstances of the case, to order such hedges to be cut, trimmed, and pruned, and such branches of trees, bushes, and shrubs to be cut down or pruned, or trimmed in such manner as may best answer the purposes aforesaid; and if the occupier of such lands shall not obey such order within 10 days after it shall have been made, and he or she shall have had due notice thereof, he or she shall forfeit the sum of 2*s.* for every 24 feet in length of such hedge which shall be so neglected to be cut, trimmed, and pruned, and the sum of 2*d.* for every tree, bush, or shrub which shall be so directed to be cut down, pruned, or trimmed; and the surveyor, in case of such default made by the occupier, shall and he is hereby required to cut, prune, and trim such hedges, and to cut down, prune, or trim such branches of trees, bushes, and shrubs, in the manner directed by such order, and such occupier shall be charged with and pay, over and above the said penalties, the charges and expences of doing the same, or in default thereof, such charges and expences shall be levied, together with the said forfeitures, upon his or her goods and chattels, by warrant from a justice of the peace, in such manner as is authorized for forfeitures incurred by virtue of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 116.

119. Provided, that no person shall be compelled, nor any surveyor permitted, by virtue of this act, to cut or prune any hedge at any other time than between the last day of Sept. and the last day of March, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 117.

120. If any person shall make or cause to be made any dwelling-house or other building, or any hedge or other fence on or at the sides of any turnpike road, in such manner as to reduce the breadth or confine the limits thereof, or shall fill up or obstruct any ditch at the side thereof; or shall make or cause to be made any dwelling-house or other building, or any hedge or other fence on any common or waste land on the side or sides of any turnpike road, within the distance of 50 feet, if within three miles of any market town, or if beyond that distance, within 25 feet from the middle or centre thereof; or shall make any drain, gutter, sink, or watercourse across, or otherwise break up or injure the surface of any turnpike road, or of any part thereof; or shall plough, harrow, or break up the soil of any land or ground, or in ploughing or harrowing the adjacent lands, shall turn his or their plough or harrow in or upon any land or ground within the distances aforesaid from the middle or centre of any turnpike road made or to be made, or make any other encroachment on any turnpike road within the distances aforesaid from the middle or centre thereof; every person so offending shall forfeit, for every such offence, 40*s.* to such person as shall make information of the same; and it shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners who have the care of any such road, to cause such dwelling-house or other building, hedge, ditch, or fence, drain, sink, watercourse, gutter, or other encroachment to be taken down or filled up, or where any ditch shall be filled up or obstructed, to be opened and cleansed at the expence of the person to whom the same shall belong; and it shall be lawful for any one or more justice or justices of peace of the county where such offence shall be committed, upon proof thereof to him or them made upon oath, to levy, as well the expences of taking down or filling up or cleansing such dwelling-house or other building, hedges, ditches, drains, or other encroachments as aforesaid, as the respective penalties hereby imposed, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner on demand, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 118.

121. The said trustees or commissioners shall cause stones or posts to be set up or placed in or near the sides of every turnpike road, at the distance of one mile from each other, denoting the distance of any and every such stone or post from any town or place, and also such direction-post at the several roads leading out of any such road, or at any crossings, turnings, or terminations thereof, with such inscriptions thereon denoting to what place or places the said roads respectively lead, of such height or size, and to be erected in such situations as they the said trustees or commissioners shall think proper; and also to cause to be painted in legible characters, on some wall or board at the entrance of every town or village, the name of such town or village, and shall also cause stones to be put up marking the boundaries of parishes where such boundaries shall cross any turnpike road, and from time to time to repair or renew such stones, posts, and boards, and keep and continue legible the inscriptions on such stones, posts, walls, and boards respectively; and if any person or persons shall wilfully break, cut down, pull up, or damage any such posts, stones, or boards, or shall obliterate, deface, spoil, or destroy all or any of the letters, figures, or marks which shall be inscribed or painted thereon, or on any such walls, and be thereof convicted before any justice of the peace for the county, city, or place where such offence shall be committed, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one witness, such person so offending shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 10*l.* for every such offence, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 119.

122. And whereas by several acts of parliament relating to particular turnpike roads, power is given to the trustees to water the roads during certain months in the year, and to take additional tolls on account of the said watering, and the time specified in such acts has been found in many instances too limited to afford to the public all the advantages which might be derived from watering the said roads; be it further enacted, That wherever an act or acts has or have been passed to enable the trustees of any turnpike road or roads to water the same or any part thereof, and to take an additional toll for such watering during a limited time in the said act or acts specified, it shall be lawful for the trustees of the said road or roads, at any general meeting held for that purpose, to order that such part of the said road or roads as by the local act relating to the same is allowed or directed to be watered, and a certain additional toll to be taken for such watering, shall be watered, and the said additional toll for watering the same may be demanded and taken for any time between the 1st March in every year and 1st Nov. following; and the said trustees shall have and they are hereby authorized to exercise and enforce all the powers, authorities, remedies, and penalties, for collecting the said additional tolls for watering the roads during the time aforesaid, as they now by law have for any other tolls which may be demanded and collected on the said roads, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 120.

123. If any person shall ride upon any footpath or causeway, by the side of any turnpike road, made or set apart for the use or accommodation of foot passengers, or shall lead or drive any horse, ass, mule, swine, or cattle or carriage of any description, or any wheelbarrow, truck, or sledge, or any single wheel of any waggon, cart, or carriage apart therefrom, upon any such footpath or causeway, or shall cause any injury or damage to be done to the same, or the hedges, posts, rails, or fences thereof, or shall wilfully pull down or damage any bridge, wall, or any other building or erection made by the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, or repaired or repairable by them; or shall haul or draw, or cause to be hauled or drawn upon any part of such turnpike road, any timber, stone, or other thing, otherwise than upon wheeled carriages, or shall suffer any timber, stone, or other thing, which shall be carried principally or in part upon wheeled carriages, to drag or trail upon such road to the prejudice thereof; or shall use any tipstick, joggle, or other instrument for the purpose of retarding the descent of any cart or other carriage down any hill, in such manner as to destroy, injure, or disturb the surface of any turnpike road; or shall in or upon such road, or by the side or sides thereof, or in any exposed situation near thereto, kill, slaughter, singe, scald, burn, dress, or cut up any beast, swine, calf, lamb, or other cattle; or if any person driving any horse or other beast on the said road, carrying any iron bar or rod, basket or pannier, or any other matter or thing, shall place such bar or rod, basket or pannier, matter or thing, so that the same or any of them shall project more than 30 inches from the side of such horse or other beast, or so as in any manner to obstruct or impede the passage of any person, or any horse, beast, or carriage travelling along such turnpike road; or if any hawker, higler, gipsy, or other person travelling with any machine, vehicle, cart, or other carriage, with or without any horse, mule, or ass, shall pitch any tent, booth, stall, or stand, or encamp upon or by the sides of any part of any turnpike road; or if any blacksmith, or other person occupying a blacksmith's shop situate near any turnpike road, and having a window fronting the said road, shall not, by good and close shutters every evening after it becomes twilight, bar and prevent the light from such shop shining into or upon the said road; or if any person shall make or assist in making any fire commonly called bonfires, or shall set fire to or wantonly let off or throw any squib, rocket, serpent, or other firework whatsoever, within 80 feet of the centre of such road; or bait or run for the purpose of baiting any bull, or play at football, tennis, fives, cricket, or any other game or games upon such road, or on the side or sides thereof, or in any exposed situation near thereto, to the annoyance of any passenger; or if any person shall leave any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage whatever upon such road, or on the side thereof, without any proper person in the sole custody or care thereof, longer than may be necessary to load or unload the same, except in cases of accident, and in cases of accident for a longer time than may be necessary to remove the same, or shall not place such waggon, wain, or other carriage during the time of loading or unloading the same, or of taking refreshment, as near to one side of the road as conveniently may be, either with or without any horse or beast of draught harnessed or yoked thereto; or shall lay any timber, stone, hay, straw, dung, manure, soil, ashes, rubbish, or other matter or thing whatsoever upon such road, or on the side or sides thereof, or the footpaths or causeways adjoining, to the prejudice of such road or footways, or to the prejudice, annoyance, interruption, or personal danger of any person travelling thereon; or shall suffer any water, filth, dirt, or other offensive matter or thing whatsoever, to run or flow into or upon such road or footpaths, from any house, building, erection, lands, or premises adjacent thereto; or if any person driving any pigs or swine upon such road shall suffer such pigs or swine to root up or damage such road, or the fences, hedges, banks, or copse on either side thereof respectively; or if any person shall after having blocked or stopped any cart, waggon, or other carriage in going up a hill or rising ground, cause or suffer to be or remain on such road the stone or other thing with which such cart or other carriage shall have been blocked or stopped; or if any person shall pull down, damage, injure, or destroy any lamp or lamp-post put up, erected, or placed in or near the side of any turnpike road or toll-house erected thereon, or shall extinguish the light of any such lamp, every person offending in any of the cases aforesaid shall for each and every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 40*s.*, over and above the damages occasioned thereby, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 121. [See as to assessing these damages, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 69. post, pl. 206.]

124. If any horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle of any kind, shall at any time be found wandering, straying, or lying about any turnpike road, or across any part thereof, or by the sides thereof (except on such parts of any road as lead or pass through or over any common or waste, or uninclosed ground), it shall be lawful for any surveyor of the road where the same shall be found, or any other person whomsoever, to seize and impound every such horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle, in the common pound of the parish, township, tithing, or place where the same shall be, or in such other place as the trustees or commissioners of the road where the same shall be found shall have provided for that purpose; and the said horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle there to detain until the owner thereof shall for every horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle so impounded, pay the sum of 5*s.* to the person impounding the same, together with the reasonable charges of impounding and keeping the same; and in case the said penalty, charges, and expences shall not be paid within four days after such impounding, it shall be lawful for the surveyor of the road on which the same shall have been seized, to sell or cause to be sold every such horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle; and the money arising from such sale, after deducting the said penalty, and charges and expences of impounding, keeping, and selling every such horse, ass, sheep or swine, or other beast or cattle, shall be paid to the person whose property the same so sold shall appear to have been, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 122. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 74. See new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 75. post, pl. 210.]

125. In case any person shall release, or attempt to release, any cow, horse, ass, swine, or other live stock or cattle which shall be seized for the purpose of being impounded under this act, from the pound or place where the same shall be so impounded, or shall pull down, damage, or destroy the same pound or place, or any part thereof, or any lock or bolt belonging thereto, or with which the same shall be fastened, or shall rescue or release, or attempt to rescue or release any distress or levy which shall be made under this act, until or before such cow, horse, ass, swine, or other live stock or cattle seized or so impounded, or such distress or levy so made shall be discharged by due course of law, every person so offending shall, upon conviction thereof before any one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county or place where the offence shall have been committed, either upon confession of the party or parties offending, or upon the oath of one witness, and which oath the said justice is hereby authorized to administer, be committed by such justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, to the common gaol or house of correction of such of the said counties wherein the said offence shall have been committed, there to remain without bail or mainprize for any time not exceeding three calendar months, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 125.

126. And whereas doubts may arise as to what is to be deemed the road, or the centre of the road; be it therefore enacted, That where, in this or any other act of parliament relating to turnpike roads, any matter or thing is directed or forbidden to be done within a certain distance of the centre of the road, that portion of ground shall be deemed and taken to be the road which has been maintained by the trustees or commissioners as hard road, and repaired with stones, gravel, or other materials used in forming roads, for six months immediately preceding any offence committed against such regulation; and the centre of the road shall be the middle of such hard road, where a line being drawn along the road or a point marked, an equal number of feet of hard road which have been so maintained and repaired as aforesaid for six months before, shall be found on each side of such line or mark: provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize any person to inclose or make any encroachment on any waste lands or grounds lying on the side of any turnpike road, being part of the highway, and over which the King's subjects have been used and accustomed to pass; but every person who shall inclose such waste lands and grounds, or obstruct the right of passage over the same, shall continue and be subject to the same process and penalties as if this act had not been made, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 124.

127. No door or gate of any building, park, paddock, field, or inclosure whatsoever, shall be made to open into or towards any part of any turnpike road, or of any footpath belonging thereto, or be suffered to continue so to open, except the hanging-post thereof shall be fixed or placed so far from the centre of any part of such turnpike road, as that no part of such door or gate shall, when open, project over any part of such turnpike road, or any footpaths belonging thereto; and the occupier or occupiers of any building, park, paddock, field, or inclosure having any door or gate opening outwards, contrary to the meaning of this act, shall, within 14 days after notice to him, her, or them given, either personally or in writing, from the surveyor of any turnpike road, cause such door or gate to be hung so that no part of the same, when open, shall project over any part of such turnpike road, or any footpath belonging thereto; and in default thereof, the surveyor of the said turnpike road is hereby authorized to cause the door or gate to be hung according to the intention of this act; and the person guilty of such neglect or default shall, upon complaint made to any justice or justices of peace acting in and for the county or place where such neglect shall appear, and upon conviction upon the oath of one credible witness, pay to such surveyor such sum as the said justice or justices shall direct, to defray the expence of making the alteration and hanging such door or gate, and shall also forfeit and pay a further sum not exceeding 40s. for his, her, or their neglect therein, to be fixed by and at the discretion of the justice or justices before whom such conviction shall be made, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 125.

128. It shall be lawful to and for the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road, at any meeting to be held for that purpose, on 10 days' notice in writing of such meeting being affixed upon the turnpike-gates on the road, and they are hereby authorized from time to time as they shall think fit, to order and direct that in all cases where any waggon or cart shall descend any hill or hills on the said road with either of the wheels locked, a skid-pan or slipper shall be used or placed at the bottom of such wheel during the whole time of its being so locked, in such manner as to prevent the said road from being destroyed or injured by the locking of such wheel; and that it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners from time to time to repeal, alter, or renew such order as they shall think necessary; and that whilst any such order so to be made as aforesaid shall be in force, every person who shall drive or act as the driver of any waggon or cart down any hill with either of the wheels locked, and without using or having such skid-pan or slipper at the bottom of such wheel in manner aforesaid, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding 20s.: provided, that a copy of such order shall be affixed on all the turnpikes standing on such road for 30 days at least before the same shall be in force, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 126.

129. No person shall hereafter erect or cause any windmill to be erected within the distance of 200 yards from any part of any turnpike road, under the penalty of 5*l.* for every day such windmill shall continue: provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to render legal the re-erection or continuance of any windmill in any case where by the common law such windmill shall be a public or private nuisance, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 127.

130. If any person whatsoever shall wilfully or maliciously pull down, pluck up, throw down, level, or otherwise destroy or damage any turnpike-gate, or any chain, rail, post, or bar, or other fence or fences belonging to any turnpike-gate, or any other chain, bar, or fence of any kind whatsoever, set up or erected, or hereafter to be set up or erected, to prevent passengers passing by without paying any toll directed to be paid by any act of parliament relating thereto, or any house or houses erected or to be erected for the use of any such turnpike-gate or turnpike-gates, or any weighing-engine; or shall forcibly rescue any person or persons being lawfully in custody of any officer or other person for any of the offences before mentioned; that then and in any of the said cases, every person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported to one of H. M.'s plantations abroad for seven years, or in mitigation thereof shall suffer such other punishment as the court may direct, as in cases of petit larceny, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 128.

131. And for the better discovery of offenders, be it enacted, That the owner or owners of every waggon, wain, or cart, and also of every coach, post-chaise, or other carriage, let either in the whole or in part to hire, shall paint or cause to be painted in a straight line, upon some conspicuous part of his waggon, wain, or cart, or upon the shafts thereof, and upon the pannels of the doors of all such coaches, post-chaises, or other carriages, before the same shall be used upon any turnpike road, his, her, or their christian and surname, and the place of his, her, or their abode, or the christian and surname and place of abode of the principal partner or owner thereof, in large legible letters not less than half an inch in height, and continue the same thereupon so long as such waggon, cart, coach, post-chaise, or other carriage shall be used upon any such turnpike road; and the owner of every common stage-waggon or cart employed in travelling stages from town to town, shall, over and above his or her christian and surname, paint or cause to be painted on the part, and in the manner aforesaid, the following words, "common stage waggon" [or cart, as the case may be]; and every owner or proprietor of any such waggon, cart, wain, coach, post-chaise or other carriage as aforesaid, using or allowing the same to be used upon any turnpike road without the names and descriptions painted thereon respectively as aforesaid, or who shall paint or cause to be painted any false or fictitious name or place of abode on such waggon, wain, cart, coach, post-chaise, or other carriage, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding 5*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 129. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 14.; see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 15. post, pl. 163.]

132. It shall be lawful for any one person to act as the driver of two carts on any turnpike road, and for such carts to pass and travel on any turnpike road, being only under the care and superintendence of such single person: provided, that such carts when under the care of only one person shall not be drawn by more than one horse each, and the horse of the hinder cart shall be attached by a rein or reins to the back of the cart which shall be foremost, and in case the said horse shall not be so attached, the driver of the said carts shall forfeit the sum of 20s. to be recovered as other penalties are by this act to be recovered: provided also, that this enactment shall not extend to carts travelling on any turnpike road within 10 miles from the cities of London or Westminster, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 130.

133. And whereas numbers of carts and waggons, and frequently more than one, are intrusted to the care of children, who are unable to guide the horses drawing the same; be it therefore enacted, That no cart or waggon travelling on any turnpike road, shall be driven by any person who shall not be of the full age of 13 years, under a penalty not exceeding 10 shillings, to be paid by the owner of such cart or waggon, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 131.

134. And whereas many accidents happen, and great mischiefs are frequently done, upon streets and highways, being turnpike roads, by the negligence or wilful misbehaviour of persons driving carriages thereon; be it therefore enacted, That if the driver of any waggon or cart of any kind shall ride upon any such carriages in any turnpike road, not having some other person on foot or on horseback to guide the same, (such light carts as are usually driven with reins, and are then conducted by some person holding the reins of the horse or horses, not being more than two, drawing the same, excepted), or if the driver of any carriage whatsoever on any part of any turnpike road shall, by negligence or wilful misbehaviour, cause any hurt or damage to any person or carriage passing or being upon such road, or shall quit the road and go on the other side the hedge or fence inclosing the same, or wilfully be at such distance from such carriage, or in such a situation whilst it shall be passing upon such turnpike road that he cannot have the direction and government of the horses or cattle drawing the same; or if any person shall drive, or act as the driver of any such coach, post-chaise, or other carriage let for hire, or waggon, wain, or cart, not having the owner's name as hereby required painted thereon, or shall refuse to discover the true christian and surname of the owner or principal owners of such respective carriage; or if the driver of any waggon, cart, coach, or other carriage whatsoever, meeting any other carriage, shall not keep his or her carriage on the left or near side of the road, or if any person shall in any manner wilfully prevent any other person or persons from passing him or her, or any carriage under his or her care upon such road, or by negligence or misbehaviour prevent, hinder, or interrupt the free passage of any carriage, or of H. M.'s subjects, on any turnpike road, every such driver so offending in any of the cases aforesaid, and being convicted of any such offence, either by his own confession, the view of a justice of the peace, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses before any justice of the peace of the limit where such offence shall be committed, or where such offender shall be apprehended, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 40s. in case such driver shall not be the owner of such carriage; and in case the offender be the owner of such carriage, then any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; and in either of the said cases shall, in default of payment, be committed to the house of correction for any time not exceeding one month, unless such forfeiture shall be sooner paid; and every such driver offending in either of the said cases shall and may, by the authority of this act, with or without any warrant, be apprehended by any person or persons who shall see such offence committed, and shall be conveyed before some justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law; and if any such driver in any of the cases aforesaid, shall refuse to discover his name, it shall and may be lawful for the justice of the peace before whom he shall be taken, or to whom any such complaint shall be made, to commit him to the house of correction for any time not exceeding three months, or to proceed against him for the penalty aforesaid, by a description of his person and the offence only, without adding any name or designation, but expressing in the proceeding that he refused to discover his name, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 132.

135. The trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, at a public meeting, may and they are hereby empowered, if they think fit, to direct prosecutions by indictment, or otherwise, against the offender or offenders for any nuisance or other offence done, committed, or continued in or upon any of the turnpike roads under their care respectively, or to recover any penalty or forfeiture incurred under the provisions of this or any other turnpike act, at the expence of the revenues belonging to such turnpike roads, to be allowed by such trustees or commissioners at some subsequent meeting, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 133.

136. In all cases where any action shall be brought by or against any trustee or trustees, or commissioner or commissioners of any turnpike road, evidence of such trustee or trustees, commissioner or commissioners, having acted as such, together with the act of parliament by which he or they was or were appointed, or the order or a copy of the order for his or their appointment or election, in case he or they was or were appointed or elected by the trustees or commissioners, shall be sufficient proof of his or their being a trustee or trustees, commissioner or commissioners, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 134.

137. Provided, that when any sum of money shall be directed or ordered to be paid by any justice of the peace, in pursuance of the directions of any act relating to turnpike roads, by way of compensation or satisfaction for any materials, costs, damages, spoil, or injury of any nature or kind whatsoever, done or committed by the said trustees or commissioners, or any person or persons acting by or under their authority, and such sum shall not be paid by the said trustees or commissioners, to the parties entitled to receive the same, within 14 days after demand in writing shall have been made, stating the order of such justice or justices, from the clerk to the said trustees or commissioners, or their treasurer, in pursuance of the direction or order made by such justice or justices, then the amount of such compensation shall be levied and recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels vested in the said trustees or commissioners by virtue of any such act, under a warrant to be issued for that purpose by such justice of the peace, which warrant any such justice is hereby authorized to grant under his hand and seal, on application made to him for that purpose by the parties entitled to receive such sum for any such materials, costs, damages, spoil, or injury as aforesaid; and in case any overplus shall remain after payment of such sum, and the costs and expences of hearing and determining the matter in dispute, and also the costs and expences of such distress and sale, then such overplus shall be returned on demand to the said trustees or commissioners, or to their treasurer for the time being, as the case may be, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 135. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 70.; and see new provision, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 71. post, pl. 207.]

138. Every constable, headborough, or tithingman refusing or neglecting to put this act into execution, or to account for and deliver any forfeiture or penalty according to the directions of this act, and every surveyor of any turnpike road, and every toll-collector, and all other persons employed or to be employed by any trustees or commissioners appointed or to be appointed for the repairing roads, who do or shall receive salaries or rewards, who shall wilfully neglect, for the space of one week after any offence being to their knowledge committed, to lay such information upon oath before one or more of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the limit wherein such offence was committed, as by this act is directed, shall, upon due information made upon oath before one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said limit, forfeit for every such neglect the sum of 5*l.*, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 136.

139. Provided, that no conviction shall be made by virtue of this act, unless upon the view of a justice convicting, or on confession of the party accused, or upon the oath of one witness, and that any inhabitant of any parish, township, or place in which any offence shall be committed contrary to this act, shall not be deemed an incompetent witness by reason of his or her being an inhabitant of such parish, township, or place; and that any justice of the peace may act in the execution of this act, notwithstanding he may be a creditor, or a trustee or commissioner for making, repairing, and maintaining the roads on which any offence contrary to this act shall be committed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 137. [Trustees may be witnesses, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 84. post, pl. 218.]

140. If any person after having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum of money for his costs, charges, and expences, shall be summoned as a witness to give evidence before any justices of the peace, touching any matter of fact contained in any information or complaint for any offence against any act relating to turnpike roads or this act, either on the part of the prosecutor or the person accused, shall refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place for that purpose appointed, without a reasonable excuse for his, her, or their refusal or neglect, or appearing shall (after having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum for his costs, charges, and expences) refuse to be examined upon oath, and give evidence before such justice of the peace, then such person shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding 40s., 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 138.

141. In case any person shall resist or make forcible opposition against any person employed in the due execution of this act, or any particular act made for amending any turnpike road, or shall assault any surveyor, or any collector of the tolls, in the execution of his office, or shall pass through any turnpike-gate, rail, chain, or other fence or fences set up or to be set up by authority of parliament, without paying the toll appointed to be paid at such gate or other fence, or shall hinder or make any rescue of cattle or other goods distrained by virtue of this act, every such person offending therein shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 10*l.*, at the discretion of the justice or justices before whom he or she shall be convicted, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 139.

142. Whereas offences may be committed against this act, or other acts for repairing and maintaining turnpike roads, by persons unknown to the collectors or other officers; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, or their clerk, or collectors, surveyors, or other officers respectively, and such other person as he or they shall call to his or their assistance, without any warrant or other authority than this act, to seize and detain any unknown person who shall commit any such offence or offences, and take him before any justice of the peace for the county, district, or place near to the place where the offence or offences shall be committed, or such offender shall be apprehended; and such justice and justices shall, and is and are hereby required to proceed and act with respect to such offender, according to the provisions of this or any other acts for repairing turnpike roads, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 140.

143. All penalties, forfeitures, and fines [by this act inflicted or authorized to be imposed (the manner of levying and recovering and applying whereof is not herein otherwise directed), shall upon proof and conviction of the offences respectively, before any justice of the peace for the county, riding, or place where the offence shall have been committed (as the case may require), either by the confession of the party offending, or by the oath of any credible witness (which oath such justice is in every such case hereby fully authorized to administer), be levied, together with the costs attending the information and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party offending, by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice (which warrant such justice is hereby empowered and required to grant), and the overplus (if any) after such penalties, forfeitures, and fines, and the charges of such distress and sale, are deducted, shall be returned, upon demand, unto the owner of such goods and chattels; and in case such fines, penalties, and forfeitures shall not be forthwith paid upon conviction, then it shall be lawful for such justice to order the offender so convicted to be detained and kept in safe custody until return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless the offender shall give sufficient security, to the satisfaction of such justice, for his appearance before such justice, on such day as shall be appointed for the return of such warrant of distress, such day not being more than seven days from the time of taking any such security, and which security the said justice is hereby empowered to take, by way of recognizance or otherwise; but if upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereupon, then it shall be lawful for any such justice of the peace as aforesaid, and he is hereby authorized and required, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such offender to be committed to the common gaol or house of correction of the county, riding, or place where the offender shall be or reside, there to remain, without bail or mainprize, for any time not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalties, forfeitures, and fines, and all reasonable charges attending the same, shall be sooner paid; and the monies arising by such penalties, forfeitures, and fines respectively, when paid or levied, if not otherwise directed to be applied by this act, shall be from time to time paid one moiety thereof to the informer or person suing for and recovering the same, and the other to the treasurer to the trustees or commissioners for repairing and maintaining the road on which such offence shall have been committed, and applied and disposed of for the purposes of such road and of this act, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 141. [See 4 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 83, 84. post, pl. 217, 218.]

144. Provided, it shall be lawful for any justice or justices before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this act, or any turnpike act, if he or they shall think proper, to mitigate or reduce the penalty incurred by such person, so as such reduction or mitigation do not exceed two-thirds of the penalty to which such person would be liable under this or any other act, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 142. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 85.]

145. Every prosecutor or informer shall sue for and recover any forfeiture or penalty imposed by this or any other act of parliament made for erecting turnpikes, or for repairing and amending turnpike roads, in the manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say), if the same shall exceed the sum of 20*l.* or upwards, it shall be recoverable by action of debt in any of H. M.'s courts of record, in which it shall be sufficient to declare that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of—, being forfeited by an act passed in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, intituled, An Act [here set forth the title of this act, if the offence shall be committed under it, or, An Act, &c. setting out the title of the act under which the penalty shall be claimed]; and the plaintiff, if he recover in any such action, shall have full costs, provided that there shall not be more than one recovery for the same offence, and that 21 days' notice be given to the party offending, previous to the commencement of such action, and that the same be brought and commenced within three calendar months after the offence for which such action is brought shall have been committed; and if such penalty or forfeiture shall not exceed the sum of 20*l.*, and shall be more than 5*l.*, the same shall be recoverable only by information before a justice of the peace, subject to appeal in manner herein-after mentioned; and if such penalty or forfeiture shall not exceed the sum of 5*l.*, the same shall in like manner be recoverable only by information before a justice of the peace, and no writ of certiorari to remove the same shall be allowed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 143.

146. Where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied by virtue of this act, or any other act for repairing, amending, or maintaining any turnpike road, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any default or want of form in any proceeding relating thereto; nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio, on account of any irregularity which shall be afterwards done in making the distress; but the person aggrieved by such irregularity, may recover the satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case: provided, that no plaintiff shall recover in any action for such irregularity, trespass, or wrongful proceedings, if tender of sufficient amends shall be made by or on behalf of the party who shall have committed or caused to be committed any such irregularity or wrongful proceedings, before such action brought; and in case no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in any such action, by leave of the court where such action shall depend, at any time before issue joined, to pay into court such sum of money as he or they shall see fit; whereupon such proceedings, or orders and judgments, shall be had, made, and given in and by such court as in other actions where the defendant is allowed to pay money into court, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 144.

147. Provided, that if any person shall think himself aggrieved by any thing done by any justice or justices of the peace in pursuance of this act, except under the particular circumstances herein-after mentioned, and for which no particular method of relief hath been already appointed, such person, in case the penalty or forfeiture shall exceed the sum of 40*s.*, where the appeal is to be against a conviction for a penalty or forfeiture, may appeal to the justices of the peace at the next general quarter sessions of the peace to be held for the limit wherein the cause of such complaint shall arise, such appellant first giving to such justice, by whose act such person shall think himself aggrieved, notice in writing of his intention to bring such appeal, and of the matter thereof, within six days after the cause of such complaint arose, and within four days after such notice entering into recognizances before some justice of the peace, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to try such appeal at, and abide the order of, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the justices at such quarter sessions, and also to pay the penalty or forfeiture, in case the conviction should be affirmed; and every justice of the peace, having received notice of such appeal as aforesaid, shall return all proceedings whatever had before him respectively, touching the matter of such appeal, to the said justices at their general quarter sessions aforesaid, on pain of forfeiting 50*l.* for every such neglect; and the said justices at such session, upon due proof of such notice having been given as aforesaid, and of such recognizance having been entered into in manner before directed, shall hear and finally determine the causes and matters of such appeal in a summary way, and award such costs to the parties appealing or appealed against, as they the said justices shall think proper, to be levied and recovered as herein-before directed, and the determination of such quarter sessions shall be final and conclusive; and no proceeding to be had or taken in pursuance of this act shall be quashed or vacated for want of form, or removed by certiorari, or any other writ or process whatsoever, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster: provided, that in case there shall not be time to give such notice, and enter into such recognizances as aforesaid, before the next sessions to be holden after the conviction of the appellant, then such appeal may be made to the next following sessions, and shall be there heard and determined, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 145. [Recited and REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 86. See NEW PROVISION, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 87. post, pl. 219.]

148. Where any oath or affirmation is by this or any act relating to any turnpike road required and directed to be made or taken, the justices of the peace of any county or place, or the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road (as the case may be), and according to the several jurisdictions herein given to them respectively as aforesaid, shall and they are hereby respectively empowered to administer the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 146.

149. If any action or suit shall be commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, then such action or suit shall be commenced within three months after the fact committed, and the same shall be brought in the county or place where the cause of action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the defendant in every such action or suit may plead the general issue, and at the trial thereof give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the matter complained of shall appear to have been done under the authority and in execution of this act, or if any such action or suit shall be brought after the time limited, or be brought and laid in any other county or place than as afore-mentioned, then the jury shall find for the defendant, and if the plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his action after the defendant shall have appeared, or have a verdict against him or her, or if upon demurrer, judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for recovery thereof as any defendant hath in any cases by law, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 147.

150. The forms of proceeding relative to the several matters contained in this act, which are set forth and expressed in the schedule hereunto annexed, may be used upon all occasions, with such additions and variations only as may be necessary to adapt them to the particular exigencies of the case, and that no objection shall be made or advantage taken for want of form in any such proceedings by any person whomsoever, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 148. [The 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 149. is similar to 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 92. which see post, pl. 224.]

151. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to extend to 56 G. 3. c. lxxxiii., intituled, An Act for improving the road from the city of Glasgow to the city of Carlisle, or to three several acts amending the same, passed in the 58th and 59th years of the reign of His said late Majesty, and in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 150. [See 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 93. post, pl. 225.]

152. All persons concerned or interested in any bill for making or repairing any turnpike road, or for widening or diverting such road, may signify their consent to the same by affidavit, taken and authenticated according to the form herein-after prescribed, unless the committee of either House of Parliament to whom such bill, or the petition of such bill, shall be referred, shall otherwise order, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 151.

153. It shall be lawful for any one or more justice or justices of the peace, or master or masters extraordinary in chancery, to take affidavits on oath or affirmation (which oath or affirmation such justice or master is hereby authorized and empowered to administer) of the answers that may be given by the owners and occupiers of lands, on applications made to them for their consent to such bills; and every affidavit shall be in the form following, as near as the circumstances of the case will admit:

'A. B. of—maketh oath, and saith, that he did apply to C. D., who he believes to be the owner of [set out the property] being part of the lands through which the intended turnpike road from E. to F. is to be carried, or the alteration to be made [as the case may be], and that he received from such owners the answers set forth in the paper hereunto annexed.

(Signed)

A. B.

Sworn [or, solemnly affirmed], before me [as in the other forms herein-before set forth.] As witness my hand and seal.'

And no such affidavit as aforesaid shall be subject to any stamp-duty now payable by any act of parliament, or which shall hereafter be imposed, unless specially named and made subject thereto by the act imposing the same, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 152.

154. Provided, that proof of the hand-writing of any justice of the peace, or master extraordinary in chancery, before whom any such affidavit shall be made as aforesaid, shall be sufficient evidence of the signature of such justice or master before any committee of either house of parliament, without any witness being produced who was present at the time when such affidavit was made, and without a witness being produced to prove that such justice or master, before whom such affidavit was made, was at the time of making such affidavit a justice or master extraordinary in chancery, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 153.

155. From and after the 1st Jan. 1826, the several nails of the tire or tires of the wheels of every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage used or drawn on any turnpike road, shall be so countersunk as not to project beyond one-quarter of an inch above any part of the surface of such tire or tires; and if any waggon, cart, or other such carriage shall, from and after the 1st Jan. 1826, be drawn or used on any turnpike road, with any wheel or wheels made, constructed, or being otherwise than as herein-before last described, the owner or owners thereof shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 40s., and every driver thereof any sum not exceeding 20s., for each and every time that such waggon, cart, or other such carriage shall be used or drawn on any turnpike road, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 2.

156. Where the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall not, previously to the passing of the said act, have taken and collected on the road under their care, the additional tolls on waggons, wains, carts, or carriages having the wheels thereof of less breadth or gauge than six inches from side to side at the bottom or sole thereof, and on the horses or beasts drawing the same, directed to be taken and collected by 13 G. 3. c. 84. and the local acts, in execution whereof the said trustees or commissioners shall act, shall not have provided a scale of tolls applicable to the road under their care, such trustees or commissioners shall, after the 1st Jan. 1824, continue to take, collect, and receive, for every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage having the fellys of the wheels thereof of less breadth or gauge than four and a half inches from side to side at the bottom or sole thereof, or for the horses or beasts drawing the same, the same tolls as are in and by such local acts payable in respect of such carriages; and for every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage having the fellys of the wheels thereof of the breadth or gauge of four and a half inches, and less than six inches at the bottoms or soles thereof, or for the horses or beasts drawing the same, one-sixth less than the tolls which are or shall be payable for the same; and for every waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage having the fellys of the wheels thereof of the breadth of six inches or upwards at the bottoms or soles thereof, or for the horse or horses drawing the same, one-third less than the tolls which are or shall be payable for the same by any turnpike act or acts, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 5.

157. Where any particular turnpike act or acts shall direct an higher or lower rate of toll to be collected and taken on any waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage, or on the horse or horses drawing the same, regulated by or in respect of the greater or lesser breadth of the wheels of such waggon, &c. and where, in addition to the tolls received under such particular act or acts, the additional tolls in respect of the breadth of wheels authorized to be taken by the 13 G. 3. c. 84., shall not have been collected and imposed, it shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners acting in execution of any such particular act or acts, from and after the 1st Jan. 1824, to continue to collect the tolls directed to be taken under the powers of such act or acts, in execution whereof they shall act, and they shall not impose the additional tolls authorized and required to be levied by the said recited act on waggons, wains, carts, or other such carriages having the fellys of the wheels thereof of less breadth than six inches, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 6.

159. Provided, that in every case where the tolls authorized to be taken on any turnpike road shall be in the hands of the trustees or commissioners thereof, and not let to farm, but collected on their account, such trustees or commissioners shall, in case such tolls were increased by the provisions of the said recited act, within 14 days after the passing of this act [19th July 1823], reduce the said tolls, and fix the amount thereof according to the provisions of this act; and in case the tolls collected on any turnpike road shall be let to farm, it shall be lawful for such trustees or commissioners to compound with the lessee for reducing the same, and fixing the amount thereof according to this act; and in each of the said cases the provisions of this act with regard to tolls herein-before next mentioned shall then commence and take effect at the time of such reduction, and shall not be postponed to the said 1st Jan. 1824, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 7.

159. And whereas many persons may at the time of passing this act [19th July 1823] be farmers or contractors for the tolls arising or payable on turnpike roads, and for tolls and penalties for overweight, and whose contracts will not expire until after the 1st Jan. 1824; for remedy whereof, and for protection of such lessees or contractors, be it enacted, That in case any lessee or lessees, farmer or farmers, contractor or contractors for any toll or tolls arising or payable on any turnpike road, or for any tolls and penalties for overweight, payable to any trustees or commissioners appointed by virtue of any act of parliament for making, repairing, or amending turnpike roads, whose contract will not expire until after the 1st Jan. 1824, shall, by reason of this act, be desirous of being discharged from his, her, or their contract or contracts, so far as regards such tolls arising and payable on any turnpike road, on any tolls and penalties for overweight, and of such his, her, or their desire, shall, on or before the 1st Sept. 1823, give notice in writing to the treasurer or clerk of any such trustees or commissioners, then and in every such case all such farmers, lessees, or contractors, shall, from and after the said 1st Jan. 1824, be released and discharged from their respective contracts, so far as the same relate to such tolls arising and payable on any turnpike road, or to such tolls or penalties for overweight; and all and every such contracts shall thenceforth cease and be null and void as to the residue of the term or time then to come and unexpired therein, so far as such contracts relate to such tolls arising and payable on any turnpike road, or to such tolls and penalties for overweight, any thing in such leases or agreements to the contrary notwithstanding, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 8.

160. Provided, that in case any such lessee, farmer, or contractor, shall give such notice of determining his contract as in s. 8. pl. 159. mentioned, then it shall be lawful for such trustees or commissioners, if they think fit, to make any new contract with such lessee, farmer, or contractor, or to make any compensation to him in respect of such tolls payable on any turnpike road, or of the said tolls or penalties for overweight, or to cause the said tolls, and the tolls or penalties for overweight to be re-let on a day and at a place to be by them appointed, of which one month's notice shall be given, and thereupon to proceed to re-let the same, and to re-let the same for the best price they may be enabled to obtain for the same, without being compelled to put up the said tolls arising and payable on such road, or the said tolls or penalties for overweight, at the sum at which they last let, or to have any other meeting for the letting thereof, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 9.

161. No person shall by virtue of the said act, or this or any other act, have the benefit of any exemption from toll or penalties for overweight, or to pay less toll for any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, or the horses or beasts drawing the same, and carrying any particular kind of goods, than other carriages of the like nature carrying other goods ought to pay, unless such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, in respect of which the exemption shall be claimed, shall have the sole of the bottom of the fellys of the wheels thereof of the breadth or gauge of four and half inches or upwards (other than and except carts and carriages employed in carrying corn or grain in the straw, hay, straw, fodder, dung, or lime for the improvement of land, or other manure, or any plough, harrow, or implements of husbandry only), but that the tolls imposed by any act, together with the additional tolls required to be taken for every such waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, having the sole or bottom of the fellys of the wheels thereof of less breadth or gauge than four and half inches as aforesaid, and for horses or beasts drawing the same; and the additional tolls or penalties for overweight (except as before excepted) shall be paid in the same manner as if no exemption or less toll had been allowed, and as fully as all other waggons, wains, carts, and carriages, and horses drawing the same, ought respectively to pay, which are not entitled to any exemption from toll in the whole or part, or to pay a less toll than other waggons, wains, carts, and carriages, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 10.

162. The trustees and commissioners of every turnpike road may from time to time, as they shall see convenient, compound and agree, for any term not exceeding one year at one time, with any person or persons, for the tolls payable for any horses, cattle, or beasts, or carriages, passing through any of the turnpikes or toll-gates of the road under their care and management, and collected and taken under the authority of the particular act or acts in execution of which such trustees or commissioners shall act, or of the said act or this act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 15.

163. And for the better discovery of offenders, be it enacted, That the owners of every waggon, wain, or cart, or other such carriage, shall, after the 1st Oct. 1823, paint or cause to be painted in one or more straight line or lines upon some conspicuous part of the right or off-side of their waggon, wain, or cart, or other such carriage, or upon the off-side shafts thereof, before the same shall be used on any turnpike road, their christian and surname, and the place of their abode, or the christian and surname and place of abode of the principal partner or owner thereof, at full length, in large legible letters not less than one inch in height, and continue the same thereupon so long as such waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage shall be used upon any turnpike road; and every owner and proprietor of any waggon, wain, or cart, or other carriage, who shall use or allow the same to be used on any turnpike road without the names and descriptions painted thereon as aforesaid, or who shall paint or cause to be painted any false or fictitious name or place of abode on such waggon, wain, or cart, or other carriage, shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 15.

164. If any waggon or cart, built or constructed to be and usually used on any railway or tramroad, shall be drawn or pass loaded on any turnpike road, out of and away from such railway or tramroad, for the distance of more than 100 yards, the owner or proprietor thereof shall forfeit 40*s.*, and the driver thereof, not being the owner, 20*s.* for every time such waggon or cart shall be so drawn and pass, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 16.

165. In case where any exemption from toll shall be claimed or allowed under the said act or this act, or any other turnpike act or acts, such exemption shall not extend to or be allowed for the additional tolls imposed by the said act, and directed to be taken for every hundred weight, of 112 lbs. to the hundred, which any waggon, cart, or other such carriage, together with the loading thereof, shall weigh at any weighing-engine, over and above the weights in the act allowed to each of them, unless the waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage, in respect of which the exemption shall be claimed, shall likewise be by the said act or this or some other act or acts, specially exempted from such additional tolls for overweight: but in all cases (where not specially exempted) the said additional tolls shall be paid, and only the original toll allowed, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 17.

166. Nothing in the said act or this act relating to the breadth of wheels of carriages, or the regulations of weight, or to the tolls payable in respect of the wheels, or of the weight of carriages, shall extend to any chaise-marine, coach, landau, berlin, barouche, phaeton, sociable, chariot, calash, hearse, break, chaise, curricule, gig, chair, or taxed cart, or any cart not drawn by more than one horse or two oxen, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 19.

167. The trustees or commissioners of the turnpike roads within 10 miles of the cities of London and Westminster, and the borough of Southwark, are hereby empowered at any meeting to be held for the purpose (of which meeting, and the purposes thereof, 14 days' notice shall be given), to lower the several additional tolls by the said act directed to be taken for overweight, in such manner as to them shall seem fit, and from time to time to take such reduced tolls for overweight as shall be fixed on at such meeting or meetings, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 20. [See ante, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 15. pl. 16.]

168. The regulations of weight in the said act or this act mentioned [see 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 16. ante, pl. 17.] shall not extend to any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage carrying only one block, plate, roll, or vessel of iron or other metal, or compounded of any two or more metals cast, wrought, or united in one piece, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 21.

169. Nothing in the said act or this act shall extend to exempt any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage laden with dung, compost, or manure for manuring land, or any horse or other beast drawing the same, from any toll imposed in respect thereof by any local turnpike act or acts, where in such act or acts such dung, compost, or manure shall be specially made subject to toll throughout the whole of such roads, without any local, parochial, or partial exemption, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 23.

170. No toll shall be demanded or taken by virtue of the said act or this act, or any other turnpike act or acts, for any horses or carriages attending or going to attend, or returning from having attended H. M., or any of the royal family, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 24.

171. Provided, that nothing herein, or in the said act contained, shall extend to repeal or take away any exemptions from toll which shall have been granted or allowed by any act for making or repairing any turnpike road, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 26.

172. The trustees and commissioners for making, &c. any turnpike road shall put up or cause to be put up, and afterwards to be continued, at every toll-gate within their respective districts, a table, painted in distinct and legible black letters, on a board with a white ground, containing at the top thereof the name of the gate at which the same shall be put up, and also a list of all the tolls payable at every such gate, distinguishing severally the total amount of tolls payable under any particular act, and this and the said act; and the different sorts of carriages for which they are to be paid, where there shall be any variation therein, and also a list of the several gates which shall be wholly or partially cleared by the payment of toll at the toll-gate or bar where such table of tolls shall be affixed; and the said trustees or commissioners shall also provide tickets denoting the payment of toll, and on such several tickets shall be specified the name of the gate at which the same respectively shall be delivered, and also the names of the several gates freed by such payment, one of which tickets shall be delivered gratis to the person paying the toll; and on the production of such ticket at any gate or gates therein mentioned, as being cleared as aforesaid, by the payment of the toll at the gate where such ticket was delivered, the person producing the same shall pass through the gate or gates therein mentioned without paying any further or additional toll, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 28. [See ante, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 37. pl. 58.]

173. Every toll-collector on every turnpike road shall place or cause to be placed on some conspicuous parts of the fronts of the several toll-houses at which they shall respectively be stationed, and so that the same shall appear to public view, their christian and surnames, painted in black on a board with a white ground, each of such letters of such names to be at least two inches in length, and of a breadth in proportion, and such board shall be and remain at such toll-house during the whole of the time that the person whose name shall be expressed thereon shall be on duty thereat; and if any collector shall not place such board and keep the same there, during the time he shall be such collector, or shall demand and take a greater or less toll from any person than he shall be authorized to do by virtue of any act, or of the orders and resolutions of the trustees or commissioners made in pursuance thereof, or shall demand and take a toll from any person or persons who shall be exempt from the payment thereof, and who shall claim such exemption, or shall refuse to permit any person or persons to read, or shall in any wise hinder any person or persons from reading the inscriptions on such board, or shall refuse to tell his christian and surname to any person or persons who shall demand the same, on being paid the said tolls, or shall in answer to such demand, give a false name or names, or shall refuse or omit to give to the person paying the toll a ticket denoting the payment of the tolls, and naming and specifying the toll-gate at which such ticket has been delivered, and the toll-gate or toll-gates (if any) freed by such payment, or upon the legal toll being paid or tendered, shall unnecessarily detain or wilfully obstruct, hinder, or prevent any passenger or passengers from passing through any turnpike or toll-gate, or shall make use of any scurrilous or abusive language to any trustee or commissioner, traveller or passenger, then and in every such case every such toll-collector shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* for every such offence, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 30., [See ante, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 53. pl. 54.; and post, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 50. pl. 189.]

174. No collector or receiver of any tolls or penalties for overweight, residing in any house or building, erected or used by the trustees of any turnpike road, for the residence or accommodation of persons appointed for weighing any waggons or other carriages, and no apprentice or servant of any such collector or receiver, shall thereby gain a settlement in any parish or place; and no tolls or penalties for overweight to be taken at any house or weighing-machine erected or to be erected, or adjoining to any turnpike road, nor any person whatsoever in respect of such tolls or penalties, or any house or building as aforesaid, shall be rated towards the poor's rates, or any other public or parochial rate or levy whatsoever, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 31. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 51. ante, pl. 52.]

175. No person who shall, after the passing of this act, be chosen or appointed a trustee or a commissioner, under any act or acts for making or maintaining any turnpike road, shall act as such trustee or commissioner, unless he shall, before he shall act as such, (except in administering the oath or affirmation herein-after mentioned,) take and subscribe before one or more of the said trustees or commissioners, who are hereby empowered to administer the same, the oath or affirmation following; that is to say,

'I, A. B. do swear [or being one of the people called Quakers, do solemnly affirm] that I will truly and impartially, according to the best of my judgment, execute and perform the several powers, authorities, and trusts reposed in me as a trustee [or commissioner] by virtue of an act passed in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, intituled, An Act to amend the general laws now in being for regulating turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng.; and also an act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled [here set forth the title of this act]; and also an act passed in the — year of the reign of H. M. —, intituled, [here set forth the title of the act under which such trustee or commissioner shall claim to act. So help me God.] — [Or being a Quaker, omit the words 'So help me God.']

And if any such person shall act (except as aforesaid) before he shall have taken and subscribed the said oath or affirmation, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit 50*l.* with full costs of suit to any person who shall inform or sue for the same, in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, or on the case, bill, suit, or information, wherein no essoign, &c. and only one imparlance, shall be allowed: provided, that no act or proceeding touching the execution of 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, or any act for making, &c. any turnpike road which shall be performed or done by any such person who shall have omitted or neglected to take and subscribe the said oath or affirmation, shall be thereby impeached; but all such proceedings shall be as valid as if such person had taken such oath or affirmation previously to his having acted as such trustee, &c. [See ante, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 62. pl. 64.], 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 32.

176. If any person being a Quaker shall have been or shall hereafter be appointed or elected, by or under any act of parliament for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, a trustee or commissioner of such road, and shall be in other respects qualified according to the provisions of the 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 62. pl. 64., it shall be lawful for such person on taking and subscribing the affirmations in the said recited act and this act contained, to act as a trustee or commissioner in execution of the act by or under which such person shall be appointed or elected without being subject or liable to any penalty or forfeiture by such act imposed for acting as a trustee or commissioner not having taken and subscribed the oaths therein contained, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 53.

177. Provided, that nothing in 3 G. 4. c. 126., or in this or any other act contained, shall extend so as to require any justice of peace acting for the county, to take or subscribe any oath of qualification [see 5 G. 4. c. 126. s. 62. pl. 64.], before he shall act as trustee in the execution of any turnpike act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 54.

178. Where any persons shall, previously to the 1st Jan. 1823, have been duly qualified according to the provisions of, and taken the oath prescribed in that behalf by 13 G. 3. c. 84. [now repealed, 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 1.], intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament the general laws now in being for regulating turnpike roads in that part of G. B. called Eng., or for other purposes, or have been duly qualified according to the provisions of, and taken the oaths prescribed by, any other act of parliament, for making, maintaining, or repairing any particular turnpike road previously to the said 1st Jan., and shall have been then acting as a trustee or commissioner in the execution of such act, it shall be lawful for such person to continue to act as a trustee or commissioner under such act, without qualifying or taking the oath prescribed in and by 3 G. 3. c. 126. s. 62., and although such person may not be possessed of freehold or copyhold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or be heir-apparent to any person possessing the same, to the amount required by the same recited act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 55.

179. Provided, that if any trustee or commissioner who shall have been acting as such previously to the said 1st Jan. 1823, shall have lost or parted with, subsequently thereto, or shall hereafter lose or part with by sale, assignment, bankruptcy, insolvency, or otherwise, the qualification in respect of which he acted as a trustee or commissioner, and shall not be possessed of the qualification required by the said act of 13 G. 3. c. 84., or by the act or acts in the execution of which such trustee or commissioner shall have acted, every such trustee or commissioner shall therefrom become disqualified, and be incapable of any longer acting as a trustee or commissioner; and if any such trustee or commissioner so becoming disqualified, shall presume to act in execution of the act or acts under which he previously acted, he shall be liable to the penalties and forfeitures imposed by the 3 G. 4. c. 126., on persons acting as trustees or commissioners not being duly qualified, to be sued for and recovered under the powers and provisions of the said act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 56. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 62. ante, pl. 64.]

180. And whereas in and by 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 65., pl. 67., it is, amongst other things provided, that no trustee or commissioner shall have any share or interest in, or be in any manner directly or indirectly concerned in any contract or bargain for making or repairing, or in any way relating to the road for which he shall act, or for building or repairing any toll-house or toll-gate, or weighing-engine thereon, or for supplying any materials for the use thereof, nor shall let out for hire any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage, or any horse, cattle, or team, for the use of any turnpike road for which he shall act as trustee or commissioner, nor by himself or by any other person for or on his account, directly or indirectly receive any sum of money to his use or benefit out of the tolls collected on the road for which he shall act during the time he shall be acting as a trustee or commissioner of such road, and in and by the said recited act any trustee or commissioner offending in any of the cases aforesaid is thereby made liable to pay the penalty of 100*l.*, be it further enacted, That no person being a trustee or commissioner of any turnpike road, shall be liable to and forfeit the said penalty of 100*l.*, or any other penalty or forfeiture, for or by reason of his or their being only a proprietor or holder of any share or shares in any canal or railway company which shall contract with the trustees or commissioners of the road, for which such person shall act as a trustee or commissioner, for the carriage or conveyance of any materials for the repair of such road, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 57.

181. The trustees or commissioners for executing any act for making or maintaining any turnpike roads, shall from time to time meet at such time and place on or near their respective roads, as to them shall seem convenient, and may adjourn themselves to meet at any place or places, and at such time or times, as the said trustees or commissioners, or the major part of them, shall appoint; and at all their several meetings the trustees or commissioners shall pay their own expences, except any sum not exceeding 10*s.* per diem for the use of the room wherein they shall meet; and all orders and determinations of the trustees or commissioners in the execution of such act shall be made at meetings to be held in pursuance thereof, or of the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, and not otherwise (except in the cases otherwise particularly provided for by the said recited act or any such act, for making or repairing turnpike roads); and no order or determination shall be made, unless the major part of the trustees or commissioners present shall concur therein; and all acts, orders, and proceedings relating to any such act, or the recited act and this act, which are directed to be had, made, done, or exercised by or before the said trustees or commissioners, and all the powers and authorities vested in them generally, shall and may be had, made, done, and exercised by the major part of the trustees or commissioners who shall be present at the respective meetings to be held by virtue of such act or this act, the whole number present not being less than three (except in cases where any other number is by any local act, or the recited act or this act, named for any particular purpose); and all acts, orders, or proceedings had, made, or done by or before such three trustees or commissioners, shall have the same force and effect as if the same were had, made, done, or executed by or before all the said trustees or commissioners; and a chairman shall in the first place be appointed at every meeting, to be held by virtue and for the purposes of any such local act, or the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, who, in case of an equal number of votes (including the chairman's vote), shall have the casting vote; and no order or determination at any meeting of the said trustees or commissioners, once made, shall be revoked or altered at any subsequent meeting, unless notice of the intention to make such revocation or alteration shall have been given by three or more trustees or commissioners, by writing under their hands, to the clerk to the said trustees or commissioners, at a previous meeting holden for the same road, and entered in the book of proceedings of such meeting, and unless notice signed by any two or more trustees or commissioners shall have been affixed on all the turnpike-gates then erected upon such road, 21 days at least before such meeting, nor unless such revocation or alteration shall be agreed to be made by a greater number of trustees or commissioners than concurred in the making of any such order or determination: provided, that nothing herein contained, prohibiting trustees from expending more than 10*s.* per diem for the use of the room wherein they shall meet, shall extend to the trustees or commissioners of any road within five miles of the Royal Exchange in London; but such last-mentioned trustees or commissioners may expend any sum not exceeding 20*s.* for the use of such room, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 39. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 67., pl. 69.]

182. And if at any time it shall be thought necessary, for the better execution of any act of parliament for making or maintaining any turnpike road, that the trustees or commissioners should meet before the time to which any meeting may be adjourned, it shall be lawful for any two or more of such trustees or commissioners (or for the clerk to the said trustees or commissioners, by an order in writing, signed by any two or more of them) to give notice of such earlier meeting, by advertisement in some newspaper circulated in the neighbourhood of such road, and affixed on all the turnpike-gates then standing on such road, in which notice shall be expressed the time, place, and purpose of such earlier meeting (such time not being less than 14 days after publication of the said notice); and all the orders and determinations of the trustees or commissioners, at all such meetings, shall be as valid as if the same had been done at any other meeting of trustees, &c. held by virtue of the said recited act or this act, or the act under and by virtue of which they shall act as trustees, &c.; provided, that no other business than what shall be specified in such notice shall be transacted at any such meeting, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 41. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 68. pl. 70.]

183. Whereas by 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 69. pl. 71. all trustees and commissioners of every turnpike-road are required to hold a general meeting of the trust for which they respectively act, on a day to be by them or any three of them appointed in the months of April, Sept., and Oct.; be it enacted, That where by any act a general annual meeting of the trustees acting in execution of such act, shall be appointed to be held, at any other time than in the said months of April, Sept., or Oct., and the said trustees shall have held such meetings under the authority of such act, it shall be lawful for such trustees to continue to hold the said general annual meetings, at the time mentioned in the act under which they shall be appointed, instead of the said months of April, Sept. or Oct., 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 42.

184. The trustees or commissioners for making, &c. any turnpike road, may and they are hereby empowered, by writing under their hands, to appoint such collector or collectors of the tolls arising on such turnpike road, and clerk or clerks, treasurer or treasurers, surveyor or surveyors of the said roads, and other officers, as the said trustees or commissioners shall think necessary; and such collectors, clerks, treasurers, surveyors, and other officers, from time to time remove, and on removal, death, or resignation of any such collector, &c., to appoint others in their stead; and may and are hereby authorized, out of any of the monies arising on such turnpike road, to allow and pay to the several collectors, clerks, treasurers, surveyors, and other officers, and to such other persons as shall be assisting them in the execution of the act for making, &c. such road, and the 3 G. 4. c. 126. and this act, such salaries, rewards, and allowances, as such trustees or commissioners shall deem reasonable, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 43. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 71. pl. 75.]

185. Provided, that it shall not be lawful for the trustees or commissioners acting under any act for making or maintaining any turnpike road, to continue or appoint the person who has been or may be appointed their clerk in the execution of such acts or the partner of any such clerk, or the clerk or other person in the service or employ of any such clerk, the surveyor for the purposes of such act, or to continue or appoint any person who has been or may be appointed surveyor, or the partner of any such surveyor, the clerk to the said trustees or commissioners, and if any person shall accept both the offices of clerk and surveyor for the purposes of such act, or if any person being the partner of any such clerk, or the clerk or other person in the service or employ of any such clerk, shall accept the office of surveyor, or being the partner of any such surveyor, shall accept the office of clerk in the execution of such act, and if any such surveyor shall hold or accept any place or office of profit or trust under the said trustees other than that of surveyor, every such person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of 50*l.* to any person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, in any of H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt or on the case, or by bill, suit, or information, wherein no essoign, protection, or wager of law, nor more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 44. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 71. pl. 75.]

186. If the surveyor of any turnpike road shall have any part or share or interest in any contract or bargain for work, materials, tools, or other things to be done or provided upon, for, or on account of any road or bridge, or any part thereof under his care and management, or shall on his own account directly or indirectly let to hire any team, or sell or dispose of any timber, stone, or other materials to be used or employed in making or repairing any such road or bridge, he shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of 50*l.*, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 45. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 65. pl. 67.]

187. And all such officers as shall have been or shall be appointed by any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, shall, from time to time, when thereunto required by the trustees or commissioners, deliver to such trustees or commissioners, or to such person or persons as they shall appoint, true, exact, and perfect accounts in writing, under their hands, of all monies which they and every of them respectively shall have received to that time, by virtue of any act, and how much thereof hath been paid and disbursed, and for what purposes, together with the proper vouchers for such payments, and shall pay all such monies as shall remain in their or any of their hands to the said trustees or commissioners, or to such person or persons as they shall appoint to receive the same, and not otherwise, within such time as such trustees or commissioners shall limit; and if any such officer or person shall refuse or neglect to produce or deliver up such accounts, and the vouchers relating to the same, or shall refuse or neglect to pay the money due on such account within the time and in manner aforesaid, or if any such officer or person shall refuse or neglect to deliver up to the said trustees or commissioners, or to such person or persons as they shall appoint, within 10 days after being thereunto required by the said trustees or commissioners, all the books, papers, or writings in his custody or power, then it shall be lawful for any one justice of the peace for the county, riding, or division in which such road or any part thereof shall be situate, upon complaint made to him by or on behalf of the said trustees or commissioners, by warrant under his hand and seal, to summon such officer or officers, person or persons, to appear before him, and upon his or their appearing, or not being to be found, to hear and determine the matter of such complaint in a summary way, and to settle the said account if produced; and if, upon confession of the officer or officers, person or persons against whom any such complaint shall be made, or by the oath or oaths of any witness or witnesses (which oath such justice shall administer without fee,) or upon inspection of the said accounts, if produced, it shall appear to such justice that any of the money which shall have been collected or received, shall be in the hands of such officer or officers, person or persons, such justice is hereby authorized and required, on non-payment thereof, by a warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such money to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such officer or officers, person or persons respectively; and if no goods and chattels can be found sufficient to satisfy the said money, and the charges of distraining and selling the same, or if such officer or officers, or other person or persons, shall not appear before the said justice at the time and place appointed, unless for some sufficient reason, or if appearing, shall refuse or neglect to give and deliver to such justice an account of all receipts and payments as aforesaid, or to produce and deliver up to the said justice the several vouchers and receipts relating to such accounts respectively, or the books, accounts, papers, and writings in his or their custody or power relating to the execution of any turnpike act, or the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act; then and in either of the cases aforesaid, such justice is hereby authorized and required, by a warrant under his hand and seal, to commit such officer or officers, or other person or persons, to the common gaol or house of correction of the county in which such road shall be situate, there to remain without bail, in case he shall be committed for non-payment of any money received by him or them, or in his or their hands, until he shall have accounted for and paid the full amount thereof, or compounded with the trustees or commissioners, and paid such composition, in such manner as the said trustees, &c. shall appoint (which composition such trustees may make); or in case he or they shall be committed for not delivering any account-books, papers, or writings as aforesaid, until he or they shall have delivered up such books, papers, and writings, or made satisfaction in respect thereof to the said trustees or commissioners; provided that no person, who shall be so committed, for want of sufficient distress, shall be detained in prison by virtue of this act, for a longer space of time than six calendar months, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 47. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 77. pl. 79.]

188. Upon the death, incapacity, refusal, neglect, or absconding of any collector or receiver of tolls at any turnpike or weighing-machine on any turnpike road, any two or more trustees or commissioners, though not assembled at any meeting, by writing under their respective hands, shall and may nominate and appoint a proper person in his place, to continue until the then next meeting of the trustees or commissioners, in the stead of such collector or receiver as shall so die, become incapable, refuse, neglect, or abscond; which person so nominated and appointed shall have the like power and authority, and be answerable and accountable in the same manner as the person who shall die, become incapable, refuse, neglect, or abscond, would have had or been subject to if living; and if any collector or receiver of tolls, who shall be discharged from his office by the said trustees or commissioners, or the wife or widow, or any of the children, family, or representatives of any collector or receiver who shall die, abscond, refuse, or neglect to perform his duty, or be discharged, or any other person having the possession of any toll-house or buildings, or weighing-machine erected by virtue of any turnpike act, or of 3 G. 4. c. 126., shall neglect or refuse to deliver up such possession, for the space of three days after demand thereof made, and notice in writing given for that purpose by any two or more of such trustees or commissioners, or by their clerk or treasurer, then it shall be lawful for any such justice of the peace for the county or place where such toll-house or building or weighing-machine is situate, by warrant under his hand and seal, to order any constable or other peace-officer for the same county or place, with such assistance as shall be necessary, to enter such house or building or weighing-machine in the day-time, and to remove the person who shall be found therein, together with his, her, or their goods, out of the same, and to put the said trustees or commissioners, or any of their officers, in the possession thereof, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 49. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 50. pl. 51.]

189. Provided, that after the passing of this act [19th July 1825], no person who shall ask and take more toll than he is authorized to take by this act, or any act now in force, or by any act hereafter to be made and passed, shall be prosecuted by indictment for extortion, or otherwise, nor shall any other proceeding be adopted against such person for the offence aforesaid, other than by prosecuting for the forfeiture and penalty before a justice of the peace, as herein or by the recited act directed, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 50.

190. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, under and subject to the directions of the said recited act and this act, to let to farm, or agree to let to farm, all or any part of the tolls of the several gates erected upon their respective roads, and all or any of the said gates, either together and in one lot, or by parcels and in several lots; and in case the said trustees or commissioners shall at any time let to farm the said tolls in parcels or lots, it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners to put up each such parcel or lot at such sum as they shall think fit, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 52. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 55. pl. 56.]

191. When the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall put up the tolls to let to farm, the said trustees or commissioners may, if they think fit, appoint some persons to bid for the same on their account, to the intent that such tolls may not be let for less than an adequate value, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 53.

192. Whereas in some situations a toll-gate or bar belonging to trustees or commissioners of one road, is placed so near to the gate or bar of the trustees or commissioners of another road, as to be inconvenient to the respective trusts, and to the public; be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, if they shall agree thereto, at any public meeting to be holden for that purpose, to take to farm the tolls payable at any toll-gate or bar of any other road adjoining or near to the road under their care; and the trustees or commissioners so farming the tolls may collect and receive the same, or may reduce the said tolls so farmed, or may discontinue the same, as they see fit, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 54.

193. All sales and conveyances of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to be sold by the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike roads, shall be made at the expence of such trustees or commissioners, and shall be expressed in the following or some similar form of words, as the circumstances of the case may require: viz.

'We, — of the trustees or commissioners acting in execution of an act passed [here insert the title of the act appointing them], in consideration of the sum of — to us paid by [name of the purchaser], do hereby grant and release to the said [name of the purchaser], all [describing the premises to be conveyed], and all our right, title, and interest to and in the same, and every part thereof, to hold to the said [name of the purchaser], his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for ever, by virtue and according to the true intent and meaning of an act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled, An Act [here set forth the title of this act]. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this — day of —

194. Provided, that it shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road to purchase or rent, with the consent of the owner or proprietor thereof, any piece or pieces of ground within 10 miles of the Royal Exchange, as a repository for materials, such piece or pieces of ground to be of such extent as they may think proper, so as the same shall not exceed in the whole half an acre, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 56. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 84. pl. 86.]

195. Where any toll-house or toll-houses, standing or adjoining on any turnpike road, and which shall have been erected by or vested in the trustees or commissioners of such road, shall become useless and be no longer required, it shall not be lawful for such trustees or commissioners to sell or dispose of such toll-house or toll-houses, but in every such case such trustees or commissioners shall cause such toll-house or toll-houses, with the outhouses attached thereto, to be pulled down, and the materials thereof to be sold or removed, and the scite of such toll-house or toll-houses, together with the gardens and appurtenances thereunto belonging, may then be sold by the said trustees or commissioners, in the same manner as and under the regulations in the recited act and this act contained, with respect to any land or ground not wanted for the purposes of the road, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 57.

196. During such time as the tolls arising on any turnpike road, or any part thereof, shall be leased, demised, or let to any person whomsoever, it shall be lawful to and for the lessee or farmer thereof, or such other person as he shall authorize or appoint to occupy and enjoy the toll-house or toll-houses at which the said tolls so let are to be collected, and to arise, with all the appurtenances and conveniences to the same toll-house or toll-houses belonging, for the purpose of collecting such tolls, during so long time only as such lessee or farmer shall duly and regularly pay his rent, and perform the covenants, agreements, and conditions of such lease, demise, or letting, but no further or otherwise, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 58. [See as to obtaining possession of toll-house when detained by collector, &c. 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 50. pl. 51. and next pl.]

197. In case all or any of the tolls arising by virtue of any turnpike act shall have been let to farm to any person or persons in any manner whatsoever, and the lessees, shall neglect or refuse to perform the terms and conditions on which the same shall have been so let; or in case the rents agreed to be paid by such lessees, shall be in arrear by the space of seven days next after any of the days on which the same ought to be paid, pursuant to the agreement for letting to farm thereof, or in case any such lease or agreement shall in any other manner become void; then it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace for the county or place, by warrant under his hand and seal, to order a constable or other peace-officer, with such assistance as shall be necessary, to enter upon and take possession of any toll-house, toll-gate, bar or chain, or weighing-machine, and the buildings and appurtenances thereto belonging, and to remove such lessees, or other persons who shall be found therein, together with their goods, out of and from the possession of the said toll-house, and from the collection of tolls, and to put the said trustees or commissioners, or any one of them, or their new appointed officer, or other person acting by or under their authority, into the possession thereof; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners (if they think fit) to vacate and determine the contract or agreement (if any) for letting the said tolls to such lessees, and the same shall be from that time utterly void, (save as to the covenants or agreements for payment up to that time of the rent thereby reserved, or other covenants on the lessee's part, which shall have been holden,) as if such demise or agreement had never been made; and it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners in every such case, to let the said tolls again to any other person or persons, or cause them to be collected as if no former demise, contract, or agreement had been made relative thereto, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 59.

198. In case the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall at any time be desirous of paying off any portion of the principal monies due and owing upon the credit of such road, where all the interest due thereon shall have been duly paid, or otherwise satisfied, it shall be lawful for them, at any meeting to be holden according to the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, or of the act or acts in execution of which they act, (notice of such intended meeting and of the purposes thereof being first given, at least 28 days preceding the same, by advertisement in some newspaper circulated in the neighbourhood of the said road,) if they shall think fit, instead of paying the same rateably amongst all the creditors, to determine by lot to which of such creditors the whole or any portion thereof shall be so paid, and to pay the same to such creditors only, or to any of the creditors, with the consent of all the other creditors, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 60.

199. Provided, that the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall not be personally subject to or liable to be charged with the payment of any money, by reason of their having signed or executed any mortgage, or assignment by way of mortgage, or other security to be made by notice, or in pursuance of any turnpike act: provided also, that in case any action, suit, or prosecution shall be brought or commenced against any such trustee or commissioner for any thing done by virtue or in pursuance of the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, or any act for making or maintaining any turnpike road, all the costs of defending such action, suit, or prosecution, which such trustee, &c. shall incur in consequence thereof, shall be defrayed out of the tolls arising on the turnpike road for which such trustees, &c. shall act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 61. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 81. pl. 83.]

200. All books containing the accounts and proceedings of the trustees or commissioners for executing any turnpike act, or containing any orders or agreements made or entered into by them, such books being kept and signed in manner directed by the recited act and this act, shall be given in evidence in all cases of appeal, and in all prosecutions, suits, and actions whatsoever, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 62.

201. In case the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall become possessed of any tenements or hereditaments, which are useless or unnecessary for the purposes of such road, it shall be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners to sell and dispose of the same, in the same manner as by the recited act they are authorized to do, in the cases of any land or ground not wanted for the purposes of such road, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 63. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 84. pl. 86.]

202. It shall not be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road in altering or diverting the course of any part of the turnpike road under their care, to take or pull down any dwelling-house or other building, or in altering or diverting the course of any part of the turnpike road under their care and management, to deviate over any inclosed lands more than 100 yards from the line or course of such turnpike road, without the consent in writing of the owner or proprietor, or of the person or persons authorized to act for and on behalf of the owner or proprietor of such dwelling-house or other building, or of such lands or grounds, or to take in or make use of any garden, yard, or paddock, or any park, planted walk or avenue to a house, or any inclosed ground planted as an ornament or shelter to a house, or planted and set apart as a nursery for trees, or any part thereof, without the like consent of the owner or proprietor, or of the person or persons hereby authorized as aforesaid first had and obtained; and it shall be lawful for all bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, husbands, guardians, trustees, feoffees in trust, committees, executors, administrators, and all other persons whomsoever, not only for or on behalf of themselves, their heirs and successors, but also for and on behalf of the person or persons entitled in reversion, remainder, or expectancy after them, and for and on behalf of their cestuique trusts, whether femes covert, infants, or issue unborn, lunatics, idiots, or other person or persons whomsoever, and to and for all femes covert who are or shall be seized of or interested in their own right, and to and for all and every person or persons whomsoever, who are or shall be possessed of or interested in any such lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises, or who shall sustain any damage, to give their consent in writing to the said trustees or commissioners, for the taking or pulling down of such dwelling-house or other building, or the making of such deviation of more than 100 yards as aforesaid, or the making use of such garden, yard, paddock, park, planted walk, avenue, or other such premises as aforesaid, and to contract with the said trustees or commissioners for the sale thereof, or for the satisfaction to be made for the same, or for such damages as aforesaid, and by conveyance, lease and release, or bargain and sale, to sell and convey unto the said trustees or commissioners all or any such lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises, or any part thereof, for the purposes aforesaid; and all contracts, sales, and conveyances which shall be so made, shall be good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes, without fine or recovery, and shall be a complete bar to all estates tail and other estates, rights, titles, trusts, and interests whatsoever; and all such bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, tenants for life or in tail, husbands, guardians, trustees, feoffees, committees, executors, administrators, and all other persons, are hereby indemnified for what they or any of them shall do in pursuance of this act: provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to revoke, limit, abridge, alter, or vary any powers contained in any act or acts existing and in force at the passing of this act [19th July 1825], for making, altering, or diverting any turnpike road, or the course thereof, to be made, altered, &c. and maintained under the authority of such acts, but the same powers shall be exercised and carried into effect by the trustees or commissioners appointed by such acts, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 65. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 96. pl. 98.]

203. In all cases where the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall turn or alter any part of such turnpike road, or make any new road over and through any private grounds, or across any public or private footway, or shall take away any fence for widening or improving any such road, the said trustees or commissioners shall make or cause to be made and planted proper quickset hedges, or shall make or build proper fences or walls on both sides of such new made road, or on the side upon which any such fence may be so removed as aforesaid, with sufficient ditches to the same, and sufficient posts and rails, or other fence, on both sides of such quickset hedges to protect the growth thereof, so as effectually to guard and fence off the lands adjoining any such road from trespass or injury by horses, asses, cattle, sheep, or swine; and also proper gates, stiles, posts, bridges, and arches, where necessary, out of any such road into the lands adjoining, and shall keep such fences so to be made, in good order and repair, for and during the term of five years from the time that such fences shall have been made or set up; unless the owners or proprietors shall agree with the trustees or commissioners to keep such fences in repair from an earlier period for such time as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 66. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 88. pl. 96.]

204. It shall be lawful for the surveyors, and other persons appointed by the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, from time to time to cut, make, or maintain drains or watercourses upon and through any lands lying contiguous to any such road, and also to make ditches in such places and in such manner as such surveyors, by order of such trustees or commissioners, shall judge necessary; and make sufficient fences and barriers, and other erections, on any part of the said road, in order to prevent any rivulet or current of water from flooding the same, as such surveyors shall judge necessary; making such satisfaction to the owners or occupiers of such lands so to be used, cut through, or built upon, for the damages which they may sustain thereby, as such trustees or commissioners shall judge reasonable; and in case of any difference between such owners or occupiers and such trustees or commissioners, the same shall be finally settled by any two justices of the peace for the county, city, or place in which such road shall lie or be situate, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 67.

205. And whereas doubts have arisen and may arise, whether any body politic or corporate, or any particular person or persons, liable to repair, by tenure or otherwise, any old turnpike road, or part of such road, widened, altered, diverted, or turned, ought to repair or contribute to the repair of the whole or any part or proportion of the new road set out in lieu of the old turnpike road; for obviating such doubts and preventing disputes about the same, be it further enacted, That all and every body politic or corporate, and person and persons, who was, were, or shall be liable as aforesaid to the repair of any old turnpike road, which has been since the passing of the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or shall be widened, altered, diverted, or turned, shall respectively be and continue in the same manner liable to the repair of such new road, set out in lieu of the old road, or so much thereof as shall be equal to the burthen and expence of repairing such old road, from which he, she, or they shall be exonerated by the widening, altering, diverting, or turning thereof, and if the several parties interested therein cannot agree, the same shall be viewed by two justices of the peace of the county where such road shall be, and shall be settled, adjusted, and determined, by them, in such manner as they shall think just and reasonable; and from and after such determination of the justices, the body politic or corporate, and person and persons liable to repair such new road as aforesaid, shall bear all charges of presentments, indictments, and prosecutions for not repairing the same; and if it shall be found more convenient to fix a gross sum, or an annual sum to be paid by any body politic or corporate, or person or persons, instead of fixing the part or proportion of such new road to be repaired by him, her, or them, the said justices may, with the consent of such person or persons, and also of the trustees or commissioners of the new road, obtained at a meeting of such trustees or commissioners, order and direct the same accordingly; and the order and direction of the said justices shall be final and conclusive, and shall continue binding on all bodies politic or corporate, and persons whomsoever, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 68.

206. Where by this act, or the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or any act for making or maintaining any turnpike road, any damages or charges are directed or authorized to be paid or recovered in addition to any penalty for any offence, the amount of such damages or charges, in case of dispute respecting the same, shall be settled, ascertained, and determined by the justice or justices of the peace by or before whom any offender shall be convicted of any such offence; who is hereby authorized and required on non-payment thereof, to levy such damages or charges by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, in manner directed by the said recited act [3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 141. pl. 143.], for the levying of any penalties or forfeitures, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 69.

207. When and as often as any sum or sums of money shall be directed or ordered to be paid by any justice or justices of the peace, in pursuance of the directions of the said act or this act, or any act relating to turnpike roads, as or by way of compensation or satisfaction for any materials or costs, or for any damage, spoil, or injury of any nature or kind whatsoever, done or committed by such trustees or commissioners, or any persons acting under their authority, and such sum of money shall not be paid by the said trustees or commissioners to the party or parties entitled to receive the same, within 10 days after demand in writing made from the clerk to the said trustees or commissioners, or their treasurer, in pursuance of the direction or order made by such justice or justices, and in which demand the order of such justice or justices shall be stated, then the amount of such compensation or satisfaction shall and may be levied and recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels vested in such trustees or commissioners by virtue of any turnpike act, or of the goods and chattels of their treasurer for the time being, under a warrant to be issued for that purpose by such justice or justices, which warrant any such justice or justices may and shall grant under his or their hand and seal or hands and seals, on application made to him or them for that purpose, by the party or parties entitled to receive such money; and in case any overplus shall remain after payment of such money, and the costs of hearing and determining the matter in dispute, and also the costs and expences of such distress and sale, then such overplus shall be returned on demand to the said trustees or commissioners, or to their treasurer, as the case may be: provided, that it shall be lawful for such treasurer to retain out of any monies which he shall have received or shall receive in pursuance of any such act, or the recited act or this act, all such damages, costs, charges, and expences as he shall have sustained or be put unto by virtue of any such warrant as aforesaid, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 71. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 135. pl. 157.]

208. If any person or persons shall wilfully pull down, break, injure, or damage any table of tolls put up or fixed at any toll-gate or bar, on any part of any turnpike road, or wilfully or designedly deface or obliterate any of the inscriptions, letters, figures, or marks thereon; or if any person or persons shall wilfully pull up, throw down, break, injure, or damage any posts, rails, or fences placed or put up, by order of any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, or their surveyor, either by the side or sides of such road, or at or near to any pit or quarry which shall be used, opened, or made for the getting of stones, gravel, or other materials for the purposes thereof, in order to prevent accidents, or if any person shall wilfully cause any damage or injury to be done to any bridge, arch, wall, or other building or erection to be set up or erected by virtue of any act on any part of any turnpike road, or by the side or sides thereof; or if any person shall cast or throw any earth or rubbish, or other matter or thing, into any drain, ditch, culvert, tunnel, or other watercourse made by virtue of any act, so as to obstruct the water from running or draining off any turnpike road; or if any person shall, without being thereto authorized by the surveyor, shovel up, scrape, gather, or carry away any stones, gravel, sand, or other materials, slutch, dirt, mire, drift, or soil from off any footpath or causeway, or any other part of such road; or if any person shall in any manner wilfully prevent any other person from passing him or her, or any carriage under his care, upon any such road; or if any such person shall dig, make, or use any pit or pits, for sawing of timber or wood, within 30 feet of the centre of any such turnpike road, unless where inclosed by a fence from any such road; every person offending in any of the cases aforesaid, shall forfeit not exceeding 40s.; and one moiety shall be paid to the informer, and the other moiety shall be paid to the treasurer of such trustees or commissioners, and applied towards the repair of such road, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 72. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 121. pl. 123.; and 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 69. pl. 206.]

209. In case the driver of any waggon, cart, or of any coach or other carriage, shall offend against any of the provisions of any act for making or maintaining any turnpike road, or the recited act or this act, whereby any penalty shall be incurred, and shall refuse to give his name, or shall abscond or absent himself so as not to be found, then it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace, before whom complaint shall be made, and he is hereby required to issue a summons, requiring the owner of such waggon, &c. to appear before him, to answer the matter of such complaint; and if such owner shall refuse or neglect to appear, or appearing shall not then, or within 10 days thereafter, produce the driver so offending, or disclose his name and place of abode, then the said justice, or any other justice, on an examination of the circumstances, and ascertaining by the examination of witnesses on oath, that such offence has been committed by any such driver of any waggon, &c. shall order and adjudge that the penalty incurred by such driver shall be paid by the owner of such waggon, &c.; which penalty shall be recovered and applied in manner directed by the recited act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 73.

210. If any horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle of any kind, shall at any time be found tethered, or wandering, straying, or lying about any turnpike road, or on any part thereof (except on such parts as lead or pass through or over any common or waste or uninclosed ground), it shall be lawful for any surveyor of the road where the same shall be found, or any other person or persons whomsoever, to seize and impound every such horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle, in the common pound (if any) of the parish, township, tithing, or place where the same shall be found, or in such other place as the trustees or commissioners of the road shall have provided, or shall provide for that purpose, and the said horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle there to detain, until the owners shall for every and each horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle so impounded, pay the sum of 2s., together with the reasonable expences of impounding and keeping the same, to the treasurer, clerk, or surveyor of the road; the said 2s. for each beast to be applied to the use of, and in aid of the tolls of such road; and in case the said penalty and expences shall not be paid within five days after such impounding (notice being thereof first given to the owner, if known, or if not known, by affixing written notices at the two next toll-gates on the road nearest to the place where the same shall be impounded), it shall be lawful for any one or more justice or justices of the peace of the county or place where the offence shall have been committed, to order every such horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast or cattle to be sold, except where it shall be made to appear to such justice or justices, that the horse, ass, sheep, swine, or other beast impounded, escaped from any inclosure by any gate or fence being wilfully or negligently left open or destroyed by, any person not being owner or occupier, or employed by such owner or occupier, in which case such justice or justices may remit the said penalty; and the money arising from such sale, after deducting the said penalty and expences of impounding, keeping, and selling, shall be paid to the person whose property the same shall appear to have been; and in case the owner shall not be known, and no application shall be made for the money arising from such sale within 21 days after such sale shall have taken place, the said money shall be applied, after deducting the said expences, in the same manner as the said penalty of 2s. is herein-before directed to be applied: provided, that no owner of any horses, asses, sheep, swine, or other beasts or cattle impounded as aforesaid, shall in any case pay more than 5*l.* over and above the expences of impounding and keeping the same, for any number of horses, asses, sheep, swine, or other beasts or cattle impounded at one time; and provided, that nothing in this clause shall be deemed to take away any right of pasturage which may exist on the sides of any turnpike roads, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 75. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 122. pl. 124.]

211. If any person or persons having the care of any waggon, wain, cart, or other such carriage conveying goods for hire or reward, or for sale, on any turnpike road, shall not chain or fasten any dog, that may be attending him on such road, to such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, every person so offending shall forfeit not exceeding 20s., 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 76.

212. Whereas the form of the list to be delivered to the surveyors of turnpike roads by the surveyors of the highways is omitted in the schedule to the recited act; be it enacted, That the form given in the schedule to this act annexed, marked (No. 2.) shall be used for that purpose, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 77.

213. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, or for their clerk, surveyor, or any other officer by their order, to contract and agree, by the year or otherwise, with any person or persons for the making, amending, altering, or maintaining the said road, or any bridges, toll-houses, or buildings thereon, or for any other thing which such trustees or commissioners are by any act for making or maintaining turnpike roads, or 5 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, or any other act, authorized to make, build, do, execute, or perform; and all contracts or agreements in writing entered into by the said trustees or commissioners, or pursuant to any order of the said trustees or commissioners, by their clerk, surveyor, or other officer, with any workmen or other person or persons, relating to any matter or thing to be done by virtue of any such act, or the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or this act, shall be binding on the said trustees or commissioners and their successors, and upon all other parties who shall sign the same, and the heirs, executors, and administrators of such other parties; and actions and suits shall and may be maintained thereon by the said trustees or commissioners, and damages and costs recovered against the party or parties, or person or persons failing in the performance of such contracts or agreements respectively; and such sum or sums of money as shall be requisite for the due performance of such contract shall be the measure of the damages to be recovered in any action or suit, against such party or parties as aforesaid, making default in fulfilling his or their contract or agreement, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 78.

214. All persons who by law are or shall be liable to do statute-work, or are or shall be chargeable towards the repairing and amending any turnpike road, shall be and remain liable thereto, in like manner as they now are or have heretofore been; and it shall be lawful for any two or more justices of the peace in and for the county, city, or place in which any such turnpike road is situate, shall and are hereby empowered, upon application made to them by any three or more of the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike road, or by their clerk or surveyor, yearly to adjudge and determine what part or proportion of the statute-work shall every year be done upon such road, by the inhabitants of the respective parishes, hamlets, or places, in or through which the said road doth or shall lie, lead, or pass, and also what proportion of the money received by the surveyor of the highways of every such parish, &c. in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, shall be by him paid to the said trustees or commissioners, or their treasurer; and in order thereunto the surveyor of the highways for every such parish, &c. shall, on an order in writing made by the said justices, on an application to them by the trustees or commissioners of the turnpike road, or any three or more of them, or by their clerk or surveyor, and respectively delivered to such surveyor of the highways, or left at his last or usual place of abode, bring and deliver within 10 days afterwards to the said turnpike surveyor, or to his place of abode, true and perfect lists in writing of the names of the several persons who within such parish, &c. are by law subject and liable to do statute-work for that year, or to the payment of any money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, distinguishing the nature of the work to be done, whether with teams or draughts, or otherwise, and also the amount of the respective sums to be paid; which lists shall be made in such manner and under such regulations and restrictions, as are or may be directed by any law or statute in force for the repairs of the public highways, and may be made in the form specified in the schedule to this act; and the said turnpike surveyor, having received such lists, shall within 14 days afterwards give a notice to the surveyor of the highways, of the time when such lists will be laid before the said justices, in order to apportion the said statute-duty; and at the time appointed by such notice, the said lists shall be laid before the said justices by the said turnpike surveyor, in the presence of the said surveyor of the highways (if he shall attend), and out of such lists the said justices shall allot, appoint, and order such and so many of the persons who shall appear to be subject and liable to do statute-work, in every year upon such road, as the said justices shall think reasonable, and the same shall be done on such days and at such time (not being hay-time or harvest), and on such parts of the said road, as the said trustees or commissioners, or their surveyor, shall from time to time order, direct, or appoint; and the said justices shall order and direct the surveyor of such parishes, &c. to pay over to the said trustees or commissioners, or their treasurer, or other person duly authorized to receive the same, such proportion of the composition money for statute-work as they the said justices shall think proper, and at such time or times as the said justices shall direct; and every person who shall neglect or refuse to do such statute-work, after notice in writing given to or left for him at his last or usual place of abode for that purpose, by any surveyor to the said trustees or commissioners, shall for every day of default, or the default of any labourer or labourers, team or teams, draught or draughts, horse or horses, beast or beasts to be provided by him, be subject and liable to such fines, penalties, and forfeitures as such person may be subject and liable by any law or statute now in force for repair of the public highways; and if any person who shall come to work as a labourer, or shall be sent with any team or draught to work on any part of such road, shall be found idle or negligent by any surveyor to the said trustees or commissioners, such surveyor is hereby empowered to remove and dismiss the person who shall be found idle or negligent; and in that case every such person shall be subject and liable to the respective forfeitures and payments aforesaid, as if he had neglected or refused to come, or such team or draught had not been sent to work on any part of such road; all which forfeitures shall be paid to the treasurer to the said trustees or commissioners, and applied towards amending the said road; and in case the surveyor of the highways for any of the said parishes, &c. shall refuse or wilfully neglect to give in any such lists as aforesaid, or shall knowingly and wilfully give in false and imperfect lists, or shall refuse or neglect to collect or pay over such composition money, or any part thereof in manner aforesaid, every such surveyor so offending shall for every such offence forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*; and such composition money may be recovered from such surveyor of the highways, by distress and sale of his goods and chattels, by warrant under the hands and seals of any two justices of the peace for the county, city, or place where any such road shall lie or be situate, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 80.

215. Where any turnpike road shall pass through any parish, township, or place, liable to the repair of the roads within the same, but for which no surveyor of the highways shall be appointed, then the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of such parishes, &c. respectively; and in cases where neither surveyor, churchwardens, or overseers shall be appointed, then such other inhabitant or inhabitants of such parish, &c. as shall be thereto required, by an order in writing made by the justices, on application to them by the trustees or commissioners of the turnpike road, or by their clerk or surveyor, and respectively delivered to such churchwardens or overseers, or inhabitant or inhabitants, or left at their last or usual places of abode, shall deliver within 10 days afterwards to the said turnpike surveyor, or to his place of abode, true and perfect lists in writing, of the names of the several persons, who within such parish are by law subject and liable to do statute-work for that year, or to the payment of any money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, distinguishing the nature of the work to be done, whether with teams or draughts, or otherwise, and also the amount of the respective sums to be paid; which lists shall be made and used, and dealt with in the manner directed by the recited act and this act; and the statute-work shall be ordered and adjudged by the justices, and enforced and required, or compounded for, in the same way as if the said lists had been made and delivered by the surveyor of the highways, under the provisions of the recited act and this act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 81.

216. So much of 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 105. pl. 107. as directs that the composition money in lieu of statute-duty, shall always be paid by the surveyor or surveyors of the highways, or other officer of the parish, hamlet, or place, or by the person compounding, to the treasurer of the trustees or commissioners in advance, on or before the 29th Sept. in each year, or otherwise that such persons, bodies, &c. shall not be permitted to compound for that year, shall be repealed; and after the passing of this act, all composition money in lieu of statute-duty shall be paid by the persons compounding, to the treasurer of the trustees or commissioners, at such time or times, and in such manner, as shall be agreed upon at the entering into such composition, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 82.

217. In all cases in which by the recited act any penalty, by that or any other act or acts for making or maintaining any turnpike road imposed, is made recoverable by information before a justice of the peace, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to whom complaint shall be made of any offence against any such act, or the recited act or this act, to summon the party complained against before him, and on such summons to hear and determine the matter of such complaint, and on proof of the offence to convict the offender, and to adjudge him to pay the penalty, and to proceed to recover the same, although no information in writing shall have been exhibited or taken by or before such justice; and all such proceedings by summons without information shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if an information in writing was exhibited, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 83. [See 3 G. 4. c. 126. s. 141. pl. 143.]

218. And no person shall be deemed incompetent to give evidence or be disqualified from giving evidence in any action, suit, prosecution, or other legal proceedings in any court of law or equity, or before any justice or justices of the peace under any act for making or maintaining any turnpike road, or the recited act or this act, by reason of being a trustee or commissioner of such road, or a mortgagee or creditor of the tolls, or a farmer, lessee, or collector of such tolls, or a treasurer, or clerk, or surveyor, or other officer under such act; nor shall such evidence, for any of the reasons aforesaid, be rejected, or liable to be questioned or set aside, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 84.

219. Provided, that if any person shall think himself aggrieved by any order, judgment, or determination made, or by any matter or thing done by any justice or justices of the peace, or by any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road in pursuance of this act, or the recited act, or any local act for making, repairing, or maintaining any turnpike road, (except where the order, judgment, or determination of any such justice or justices, trustees or commissioners, are hereby declared to be final and conclusive, and except under the particular circumstances herein-after mentioned), and for which no particular method of relief hath been already appointed, such person may appeal to the justices of the peace at the next general or quarter sessions of the peace, to be held for the county, division, riding or place wherein the cause of such complaint shall arise, such appellant first giving to such justice, commissioner, or trustee, by whose act or acts such persons shall be aggrieved, notice in writing of his intention to bring such appeal, and of the matter thereof, within six days after the cause of complaint shall arise, and within four days after such notice entering into such recognizances before some justice of the peace, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to try such appeal at, and abide the order of, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the justices at such general or quarter sessions; and also to pay the penalty in case the conviction should be affirmed; and every justice of the peace, commissioner, or trustee, having received notice of appeal, shall return all proceedings whatever had before him respectively, touching the matter of such appeal, to the said justices at their general or quarter sessions; and the said justices at such sessions, upon due proof of such notice having been given, and of such recognizance having been entered into in manner before directed, shall hear and finally determine the matters of such appeal in a summary way, and award such costs to the parties appealing or appealed against, as they shall think proper, to be levied and recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person against whom such determination shall be given, and the determination of such general or quarter sessions shall be final and conclusive; and no proceeding to be had or taken in pursuance of this act, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form, or removed by certiorari, or any other writ or process whatsoever, into any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster; provided, that in case there shall not be time to give such notice, and enter into such recognizances as aforesaid, before the next sessions to be holden after the conviction of the appellant, then such appeal may be made to the next following sessions, and shall be there heard and determined: provided, that no appeal shall be allowed against any conviction for any penalty which shall not exceed the sum of 40s., 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 87.

220. All the powers, authorities, provisions, regulations, privileges, penalties, forfeitures, clauses, restrictions, matters, and things whatsoever, contained in the said recited act, so far as the same are not expressly altered or repealed by this act, shall extend and be in force with respect to this act, and shall be applied and put in execution, as fully as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the body of this act, and were made part thereof; and the 3 G. 4. c. 126. and this act shall, as to all matters whatsoever (except as aforesaid), be considered as one act, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 88.

221. The schedule (No. 2.) intituled, "Table of weights allowed in winter and summer to carriages directed to be weighed," shall be repealed; and the schedule (No. 1.) annexed to this act shall be made use of instead thereof, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 89.

222. And whereas doubts have arisen as to the roads to which the provisions of the said recited act extend, be it therefore enacted, That nothing in the said recited act or this act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any road or roads not under the care and management of trustees or commissioners, or to any road or roads which shall be made, maintained or supported under the provisions of any act or acts of parliament passed for an unlimited period, notwithstanding tolls may be collected on such roads, or shall extend to affect, alter or interfere with the qualifications of any commissioner or other persons having the care and management of any such last-mentioned roads, or with any tolls taken, or weights carried thereon, or in any other manner therewith, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 90.

223. Provided, that nothing in the 3 G. 4. c. 126., or in this act contained, shall extend to the 59 G. 3. c. 30., intituled, An Act for vesting in commissioners the line of road from Shrewsbury in the county of Salop, to Bangor Ferry in the county of Carnarvon, and for discharging the trustees under several acts of the 17th, 28th, 36th, 41st, 42d, 47th, and 50th years of His present Majesty from the future repair and maintenance thereof, and for altering and repealing so much of the said acts as affects the said line of road, nor to any act passed in the same year, 59 G. 3. c. 48., intituled, An Act to amend an act passed in the 55th year of the reign of His present Majesty, for granting to H. M. the sum of 20,000l. towards repairing roads between London and Holyhead by Chester, and between London and Bangor by Shrewsbury, and for giving additional powers to the commissioners therein named, to build a bridge over the Menai Straits, and to make a new road from Bangor Ferry to Holyhead, in the county of Anglesea: nor to any road or roads repaired, maintained, and supported under the powers and provisions of the said two last-mentioned acts, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 91.

224. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to the turnpike road called the Commercial road, or the several branches leading from and out of the same, authorized to be made, repaired, and maintained under and by virtue of five several acts of parliament made and passed in the 43rd, 44th, 46th, 49th and 51st years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for making and maintaining the roads communicating with the West and E. I. docks, and for repairing the Cannon Street road, and for making and maintaining a new road to Barking, and a road from the Romford and Whitechapel road to Tilbury Fort, in the counties of Middlesex and Essex, and also for making a new branch of road from King David Lane, Shadwell, to the Essex road at Mile End in the county of Middlesex, or to affect, encroach upon, vary, alter, or interfere with any of the tolls, weights, or duties created by virtue of the said acts or any of them, or any of the powers and authorities given to or vested in the trustees acting under or by virtue of the said acts, or any or either of them, 5 G. 4. c. 126. s. 149.; 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 92.

225. Provided, that so much of the turnpike road from Carlisle to Glasgow as lies in the county of Cumberland shall, after the passing of this act, be subject to the regulations, powers, and provisions of the 3 G. 4. c. 126., and this act, so far as the same respects nuisances, annoyances, and trespasses; and the justices of the peace for the county of Cumberland are authorized to enforce all penalties for nuisances, annoyances, and trespasses on the said road within the said county, 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 93.

The SCHEDULE to which 5 G. 4. c. 126. refers; containing the Forms of Proceedings mentioned in that Act.

No. I.—Order of trustees for erecting a weighing-engine.

At a meeting of the trustees of the turnpike roads under an act passed in the — year of the reign of H. M. King George the — “For [state the title of the act], held at — the — day of —.

‘In pursuance of the powers given to us by an act passed in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, for regulating turnpike roads, we do hereby order that an engine proper for the weighing of carriages of the constructions and weights specified in the said act, be forthwith erected at, or as near as conveniently may be to the toll-gate or bar now erected upon the said turnpike road at —; and that A. B. the [treasurer, clerk, or] surveyor of the said turnpike road, do contract with some proper person [or, with C. D.] [in case the trustees shall think fit to name the person] for the making and erecting such engine, and do inspect and take care that the same is properly done; and we do order the gatekeeper at the said gate or bar for the time being to attend the said weighing-engine, and carefully to weigh all carriages passing loaded upon the said road, at the place where such engine shall be erected, together with the loading thereof, and to take the several additional tolls or rates for overweight, and give tickets of the weight of such carriages and loading, when required by the driver thereof, and also to enter in a separate book to be kept by him for that purpose, an account of every carriage so weighed, which shall with the loading exceed the weights allowed by the said act, and account to us for the money received for all such overweight.’

No. II.—Table of weights allowed in winter and summer, to carriages directed to be weighed (including the carriage and loading) by the act of the third George the Fourth. [REP. 4 G. 4. c. 95. s. 89., pl. 221. and new one given, Sch. No. 1.]

No. III.—Agreement between trustees of different turnpike roads for erecting one weighing-engine for the use of such roads.

‘At a meeting of the trustees of the turnpike roads, under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — “For [state the principal part of the title of the act], and also of the trustees of the turnpike roads, under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — “For [&c. as above], held at — the — day of — for the purpose of agreeing upon and ordering a weighing-engine at the joint expence of the trustees, for the use of the said several turnpike roads, pursuant to the powers given by an act passed in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, “For regulating turnpike roads.”

‘It appearing to us, that a weighing-engine may be erected at — [describing the spot where it can be most conveniently placed], which will accommodate both the said turnpike roads, according to the true intent and meaning of the said act: we do therefore order, &c. [as in the form above mentioned], and we do hereby agree and order, that the expences of making and erecting the said weighing-engine, and the sum of —, which we do hereby agree and order shall be paid to the toll-gatherer attending the said toll-gate for the time being, weekly for his extraordinary trouble in attending the said weighing-engine, shall be advanced and paid by the treasurers of the said several turnpike roads, in the shares and proportions following; videlicet, that the treasurer of the — road shall pay [one-half], [two-third], [three-fourth] parts thereof [as the trustees shall agree], and the treasurer of the — road shall pay the remaining [one-half], [one-third], or [one-fourth] part thereof; and that the money to be received at the said weighing-engine by forfeitures for overweight, shall be paid to the said respective treasurers in the like proportions, and applied by them for the use of the said respective turnpike roads.

‘(Signed)

No. IV.—Notice of a meeting of trustees for ordering a side gate to be erected.

‘Notice is hereby given, that the trustees of the turnpike roads under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — “For [state the material parts of the title of the act], will meet at the house of — at — on the — day of — next, at the hour of — in the — noon, in order to consult about erecting a toll-gate on the side of the said turnpike road, at or near a place called — across a certain highway there, leading to —.

‘Dated the — day of —

‘A. B. Clerk to the said trustees.’

No. V.—Order of the trustees for erecting a side gate.

‘At a meeting of the trustees of the turnpike roads, under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — “For [here state the material parts of the title of the act], being assembled this — day of — to enforce the directions of an act passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, “For regulating turnpike roads.” [as far as the same respects the erecting of side gates.]

‘In pursuance of public notice given in writing upon all the toll-gates erected on the said road, and also in the — newspapers circulated in this part of the county, for 14 days now last past, we do order, that a toll-gate shall be erected on the side of the said turnpike road, at or near a place called — across a certain highway there, leading to —, and that the following toll be taken at the said gate, videlicet, [here insert the particular tolls to be taken at the said side gate.]

No. VI.—Notice for letting tolls.

‘Notice is hereby given, that the tolls arising at the toll-gate [or toll-gates, if more than one] upon the turnpike road at —, called or known by the name of the — gate, will be let by auction to the best bidder, at the house of — at — on the — day of — next, between the hours of — and — in the manner directed by the act passed in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, “For regulating turnpike roads,” which tolls produced the last year the sum of — above the expences of collecting them, and will be put up at that sum; whoever happens to be the best bidder, must at the same time pay one month in advance (if required) of the rent at which such tolls may be let, and give security, with sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of the trustees of the said turnpike road, for payment of the rest of the money monthly. [or in such other proportions as shall be directed.]

‘A. B. Clerk to the trustees of the said turnpike road.’

No. VII.—Order of trustees for reducing the tolls.

‘At a meeting of the trustees of the turnpike roads, under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — “For, &c. [state the principal part of the title of the act], held at — the — day of —.

‘We, whose names are subscribed, being — or more of the trustees acting under the said act, being now assembled for reducing the tolls authorized to be taken by and under the said act, pursuant to public notice given for that purpose in the — newspapers circulated in this part of the country, and also affixed upon all the turnpike-gates erected upon the said turnpike road, for upwards of one calendar month now last past, and having the consent of the several persons entitled to five-sixths parts of the money now remaining due upon the credit of the said tolls, this day signified and proved to us, do hereby order, that the tolls granted by the said act shall, from and after the — day of — be lessened and reduced in the following manner [here state the several reductions proposed to be made].’

No. VIII.—Agreement between the trustees of a turnpike road and a person liable by tenure to repair some part of it.

‘At a meeting of the trustees of the turnpike roads, under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — “For [state the principal part of the title of the act], held at — the — day of —.

‘Whereas A. B. of — is liable by tenure, &c. [as the case shall be] to the repair of a certain highway leading between — and —, of the length of — yards or thereabouts, and the said highway being now made turnpike road by virtue of the said act, will occasion a greater expence to make and keep the same in proper repair than would have been necessary if no such act had been obtained, and the said A. B. attending this meeting in person [or, by C. D. his attorney or agent authorized to treat in his behalf], the said trustees and the said A. B., &c. in pursuance of a power given by an act passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, “For regulating turnpike roads,” have, in order to put and keep the said road in proper condition and repair, come to the following agreement, videlicet; that the said trustees shall on or before the — day of — next pay and allow the sum of — out of the tolls arising upon the said turnpike roads towards putting the said road into proper repair, to be laid out and expended by the surveyor of the said turnpike road, and that the said A. B. shall advance and pay into the hands of the treasurer of the said turnpike road, on or before the — day of — next, the sum of — to be also laid out and expended by the said surveyor in the repair of the said road, and that from and after the — next, the said turnpike road shall be kept in repair by the said trustees out of the said tolls as aforesaid, so long as the said turnpike act shall continue, upon the said A. B. paying into the hands of their treasurer the sum of — upon the — in every year, which the said A. B. doth hereby for himself and his heirs agree to pay accordingly, so long as the said road shall be so repaired by the said trustees as aforesaid.’

[Or, it shall be agreed that A. B. shall keep the road in repair upon having an annual allowance in money or statute-duty from the said trustees, let the agreement be varied and adapted to the case.]

No. IX.—MAGISTRATES’ SUMMONS.

‘To the surveyors of the highways of the parish of — in the county of —.

‘Upon application made by —, surveyor of the turnpike roads from —, appointed by the trustees for putting into execution an act of parliament passed in the — year of the reign of H. M. King George the —, intituled, “An Act — by order of the trustees for the said road to us, two of H. M.’s justices of the peace acting in and for the said county; we do hereby summon you, the surveyors of the highways of the parish or place of — in the said county, to deliver a list to the said — as such surveyor as aforesaid, at his house, situate in the said county, within — days after the service of this summons, of the names of the several persons, inhabitants of the said parish or place, and who are by law subject and liable to do statute-work for the present year upon the road situate in the said parish or place, or to the payment of any money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, distinguishing the nature of the work to be done, whether with teams or draughts, or otherwise, and also the amount of the respective sums to be paid; and we the said justices do hereby require you to make such lists of names, in such manner and under such regulations and restrictions as is or are directed by any law or statute now in force and effect for the repair of the public highways.

'And in case you shall refuse or wilfully neglect to give in such list as aforesaid, or shall knowingly or wilfully give in a false or imperfect list, you so offending will for every such offence forfeit and be liable to pay a sum not exceeding 10l.

'Given under our hands and seals this — day of — in the year of our Lord 182—.'

No. X.—Notice to be given to surveyors of highways.

[See 3 G. 4. c.126. s.104. which is REP. 4 G. 4. c.95. s.79, 80. pl.214.]

'To the surveyors of the highways of the parish or place of — in the county of —.

'I do hereby give you notice, that the list delivered by you to me as surveyor of the turnpike road from — to — in the said county of —, of the names of the several persons who within your said parish or place are by law liable to do statute-work for the present year, or to the payment of money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, will be laid before two of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county, in pursuance of the directions of the act, passed in the — year of H. M. King George the —, intituled "An Act — on the — day of — at — in the said county, in order that such two justices may adjudge and determine what part or proportion of the statute-work for the said year shall be done upon the said road, and also what proportion of the composition money shall be paid to the trustees of the said road, or to their treasurer. And I do hereby give you further notice, that I shall apply to the justices for [one-half, one-third, as the case may be] of the statute-duty from your parish for this year, which according to the list delivered by you will be (say) — days in the whole — in composition money. If you object to this division, you will in course appear, but if not, the same will be confirmed by the justices, if they think proper.

'Dated this — day of —. Surveyor of the said turnpike road.'

No. XI.—Justices' order, apportioning statute labour.

'We, two of H. M.'s justices of the peace, acting in and for the to wit. } county of — upon application by — the surveyor appointed by the trustees of the turnpike road from — to — in the said county, in pursuance of an act of parliament passed in the — year of the reign of H. M. King George the —, intituled, An Act for — do adjudge and determine that the inhabitants of the parish of —, in the said county of — shall do — part or proportion of the statute-work for the ensuing year upon such turnpike road in the said parish of — being a parish in which the said road lies, and that — proportion of the money received by the surveyor or surveyors of the highways of such parish or place, in lieu of or as a composition for such statute-work, shall be by him or them paid to the said trustees of the said turnpike road, or to their treasurer, or other person authorized by them to receive the same, on or before the — day of —; the names of the several persons appointed to do such proportion of the statute-work on the said turnpike road appear in the schedule to this order.

'Given under our hands the — day of — 182 —. (Signed)

No. XII.—Order of justices at a special session to take part of the statute-duty from turnpike roads, for the benefit of other highways in the said parish, &c.

'County of — } At a special sessions held by the justices of the peace for the to wit. } said county, acting in the [hundred] of — within the said county, at — on the — day of —.

'Whereas application and complaint upon oath has been made unto us by A. B. surveyor of the [parish, &c.] of — that the several highways, not being turnpike, within the said [parish, &c.] are very extensive and in bad repair, and that a considerable part of the statute-duty arising within the said [parish, &c.] hath been called forth and required to be applied in the repair of certain turnpike roads lying within the said [parish, &c.] which are in good condition, and have a considerable revenue for their support, arising from the tolls collected thereupon; and we having duly summoned C. D. the surveyor of the said turnpike road to appear before us, to show cause why the said statute-duty called forth and applied by him to the repair of the said turnpike road, should not be withdrawn therefrom and applied to the repair of the other highways within the said [parish, &c.], and upon hearing the said C. D., and receiving an account of the revenues and debts of the said turnpike road, and of the state and condition of the repair of the said turnpike road and highway respectively; and it appearing to us, upon full consideration had thereupon, that part of the statute-duty hitherto employed by the said [parish, &c.] for the repair of the said turnpike road may be conveniently dispensed, without endangering the securities for the money advanced upon the credit of the tolls thereof, and that such statute-duty is wanted for the repairs of the other highways within the said parish; we, in pursuance of the power given to us by the act passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, "For regulating turnpike roads," do order, that from and after the — day of — next, there shall be only [one] day's statute-duty performed by the inhabitants of the said [parish, &c.] upon the said turnpike road within the same, and that the remainder of the statute-duty shall be performed upon the other highways within the said [parish, &c.]

[If there are more turnpike roads than one, or the whole statute-duty shall be thought fit to be taken away, this form must be varied to fit those cases. The summons to the surveyors will be very easily formed from this order.]

No. XIII. Certificate of the above order to the justices of the peace at their quarter sessions.

'I A. B. clerk to the trustees mentioned in the above order, do hereby certify to the justices of the peace for the [county] [riding] [division] of — at their general quarter sessions of the peace, that the above is a true copy of the order made by the said trustees for the purposes therein mentioned.

'Dated this — day of — A. B.'

No. XIV. Agreement by subscription for advancing money to make and repair a turnpike road or highway.

'We whose names are subscribed, do agree to advance and pay the several sums wrote by us opposite to our names, unto — to be laid out and expended in the making and repairing a certain highway leading from — to — after an act of parliament shall be obtained for making the same turnpike road, upon having the tolls to be collected upon such turnpike road assigned and made over to us as a security for the respective sums so to be advanced by us, together with interest for the same after the rate of — per centum per annum, which sums we do hereby severally agree to pay by instalments, in the following manner, videlicet; one-fourth part thereof on the — day of — next; one other fourth part, [&c. &c. &c.]

'Dated this — day of —.'

No. XV. Warrant from a justice of the peace to enter the toll-gate house and remove the persons therein.

'County of — } To the [constable], [headborough], [tithingman], of — in the to wit. } said county.

'Whereas complaint hath been made unto me A. B. esquire, one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county, upon the oath of — and other evidence now produced to me, that C. D., who now inhabits the turnpike or toll-gate house at — upon the turnpike road leading from — to — and was appointed to collect the tolls there, hath been duly discharged by the trustees of the said turnpike road from any further collecting or receiving the tolls arising at the said gate, and hath refused and still doth refuse to quit the possession of the said house, and the said C. D. having been summoned to appear before me this day, to show cause why he should not be removed from the said house, and having shown no sufficient cause for that purpose [or, not having appeared], I do hereby authorize and require you, with such assistance as shall be necessary, to enter into the said toll-house or turnpike-house, and the buildings belonging thereto, in the day time, and to remove the said C. D. and all such persons as shall be found therein, together with his and their goods, out of such house and buildings, and to put E. F., the person lately appointed by the trustees to collect such tolls, into the possession thereof, for which this shall be your sufficient warrant.

'Given under my hand and seal this — day of —.'

[This form may be varied to suit the case of the widow or family of a deceased collector.]

No. XVI.—Bond from the surveyor.

'We, A. B. surveyor of the turnpike roads, under an act passed in the — year of the reign of King George the — "For [state the principal part of the title of the act] and C. D. of — are bound to E. F. of — in the sum of — pounds, to be paid to the said E. F. his executors, administrators, and assigns, for which payment we hereby bind ourselves severally, and each of our heirs, executors, and administrators.

'Dated the — day of —

'The condition of this bond is such, that if the said A. B., his executors or administrators, shall duly and faithfully account for, apply, and pay all and every the sum and sums of money which hath come or shall come to his hands as surveyor of the turnpike road aforesaid, according to the direction and true intent and meaning of the said act, and of the statute made in the third year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, "For regulating turnpike roads," then this bond to be void, or else to remain in full force.'

[The bond from the treasurer will be in the same form.]

No. XVII.—Summons for any person or persons to attend a justice or justices.

'County of — } To A. B. of — o wit. }

'Whereas complaint and information hath been made before me, C. D. one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said [county, &c.] by E. F. of —, That, &c. [here state the nature and circumstances of the case, as far as it shall be necessary to show the offence, and to bring it within the authority of the justice, and in doing that, follow the words of the act, as near as may be]. These are therefore to require you personally to appear before me [or, the justices to be assembled at their special sessions to be holden], at — in the said [county, &c.] on the — day of — next, at the hour of — in the — noon, to answer to the said complaint and information made by the said E. F. who is likewise directed to be then and there present, to make good the same. Herein fail not.

the said A. B. hath [here set forth the offence, describing it particularly in the words of the statute, as near as may be] (contrary to the statute in that case made and provided), by reason whereof the said A. B. hath forfeited the sum of — to be distributed as herein is mentioned, which he hath refused to pay:
these are therefore in H. M.'s name to command you to levy the said sum of — by distress of the goods and chattels of him the said A. B.; and if within the space of four days next after such distress by you taken, the said sum, together with the reasonable charges of taking and keeping the same, shall not be paid, that then you do sell the said goods and chattels so by you distrained, and out of the money arising by such sale, that you do pay one-half of the said sum of — to E. F. of —, who informed me of the said offence, and the other half of the said sum of — to I. K. the surveyor of the turnpike road [describing it] where the said offence [neglect or default] happened, to be employed towards the repair of the said road, returning the overplus on demand to him the said A. B. [the reasonable charges of taking, keeping, and selling the said distress being first deducted]; and if sufficient distress cannot be found of the goods and chattels of the said A. B. whereon to levy the said sum of — that then you certify the same to me, together with this warrant.

or any of his or her family whom he or she may be legally bound to maintain, shall have become chargeable to any parish, township, or place; every person returning to and becoming chargeable in any parish, township, or place from whence he or she shall have been legally removed by order of two justices of the peace, unless he or she shall produce a certificate of the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of some other parish, township, or place, thereby acknowledging him or her to be settled in such other parish, township, or place; every petty chapman or pedlar wandering abroad and trading, without being duly licensed, or otherwise authorized by law; every common prostitute wandering in the public streets or public highways, or in any place of public resort, and behaving in a riotous or indecent manner; and every person wandering abroad, or placing himself or herself in any public place, street, high way, court, or passage, to beg or gather alms, or causing or procuring or encouraging any child or children so to do, shall be deemed an idle and disorderly person within the true intent and meaning of this act; and it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to commit such offender (being thereof convicted before him by his own view, or by the confession of such offender, or by the evidence on oath of one credible witness) to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one calendar month, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 3.

6. Every person committing any of the offences herein-before mentioned, after having been convicted as an idle and disorderly person; every person pretending or professing to tell fortunes, or using any subtle craft, means, or device, by palmistry or otherwise, to deceive and impose on any of H. M.'s subjects; every person wandering abroad and lodging in any barn or outhouse, or in any deserted or unoccupied building, or in the open air, or under a tent, or in any cart or waggon, not having any visible means of subsistence, and not giving a good account of himself or herself; every person wilfully exposing to view, in any street, road, highway, or public place, any obscene print, picture, or other indecent exhibition; every person wilfully, openly, lewdly, and obscenely exposing his person in any street, road, or public highway, or in the view thereof, or in any place of public resort, with intent to insult any female; every person wandering abroad and endeavouring by the exposure of wounds or deformities to obtain or gather alms; every person going about as a gatherer or collector of alms, or endeavouring to procure charitable contributions of any nature or kind, under any false or fraudulent pretence; every person running away and leaving his wife, or his or her child or children, chargeable, or whereby she or they or any of them shall become chargeable to any parish, township, or place; every person playing or betting in any street, road, highway or other open and public place, at or with any table or instrument of gaming, at any game or pretended game of chance; every person having in his or her custody or possession any picklock key, crow, jack, bit, or other implement, with intent feloniously to break into any dwelling-house, warehouse, coach-house, stable, or outbuilding, or being armed with any gun, pistol, hanger, cutlass, bludgeon, or other offensive weapon, or having upon him or her any instrument, with intent to commit any felonious act; every person being found in or upon any dwelling-house, warehouse, coach-house, stable, or outhouse, or in any inclosed yard, garden, or area, for any unlawful purpose; every suspected person or reputed thief, frequenting any river, canal, or navigable stream, dock, or basin, or any quay, wharf, or warehouse near or adjoining thereto, or any street, highway, or avenue leading thereto, or any place of public resort, or any avenue leading thereto, or any street, highway, or place adjacent, with intent to commit felony; and every person apprehended as an idle and disorderly person, and violently resisting any constable or other peace-officer so apprehending him or her, and being subsequently convicted of the offence for which he or she shall have been so apprehended, shall be deemed a rogue and vagabond, within the true intent and meaning of this act; and it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to commit such offender (being thereof convicted before him by the confession of such offender, or by the evidence on oath of one credible witness) to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three calendar months; and every such picklock key, crow, jack, bit, and other implement, and every such gun, pistol, hanger, cutlass, bludgeon, or other offensive weapon, and every such instrument as aforesaid, shall, by the conviction of the offender, become forfeited to the King, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 4.

7. Every person breaking or escaping out of any place of legal confinement before the expiration of the term for which he or she shall have been committed or ordered to be confined by virtue of this act; every person committing any offence against this act which shall subject him or her to be dealt with as a rogue and vagabond, such person having been at some former time adjudged so to be and duly convicted thereof; and every person apprehended as a rogue and vagabond, and violently resisting any constable or other peace-officer so apprehending him or her, and being subsequently convicted of the offence for which he or she shall have been so apprehended, shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue within the true intent and meaning of this act; and it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to commit such offender (being thereof convicted before him by the confession of such offender or by the evidence on oath of one credible witness) to the house of correction, there to remain until the next general or quarter sessions of the peace; and every such offender who shall be so committed to the house of correction, shall be there kept to hard labour during the period of his or her imprisonment, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 5.

8. It shall be lawful for any person whatsoever to apprehend any person who shall be found offending against this act, and forthwith to take and convey him or her before some justice of the peace, to be dealt with in such manner as is herein-before directed, or to deliver him or her to any constable or other peace-officer of the place where he or she shall have been apprehended, to be so taken and conveyed; and in case any constable or other peace-officer shall refuse or wilfully neglect to take such offender into his custody, and to take and convey him or her before some justice of the peace, or shall not use his best endeavours to apprehend and to convey before some justice of the peace any person that he shall find offending against this act, it shall be deemed a neglect of duty in such constable or other peace-officer, and he shall on conviction be punished in such manner as is herein-after directed, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 6.

9. It shall be lawful for any justice of the peace, upon oath being made before him that any person hath committed or is suspected to have committed any offence against this act, to issue his warrant to apprehend and bring before him or some other justice of the peace the person so charged, to be dealt with as is directed by this act, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 7.

10. It shall be lawful for any constable, peace-officer, or other person apprehending any person charged with being an idle and disorderly person, or a rogue and vagabond, or an incorrigible rogue, to take any horse, mule, ass, cart, car, caravan, or other vehicle, or goods in the possession or use of such person, and to take and convey the same as well as such person before some justice of the peace, and for every justice of the peace by whom any person shall be adjudged to be an idle and disorderly person, or a rogue and vagabond, or an incorrigible rogue, to order that such offender shall be searched, and that his or her trunks, boxes, bundles, parcels, or packages shall be inspected in the presence of the said justice, and of him or her, and also that any cart, car, caravan, or other vehicle which may have been found in his or her possession or use, shall be searched in his or her presence; and it shall be lawful for the said justice to order that any money which may be then found with or upon such offender shall be paid and applied for and towards the expence of apprehending, conveying to the house of correction, and maintaining such offender during the time for which he or she shall have been committed; and if upon such search money sufficient for the purposes aforesaid be not found, it shall be lawful for such justice to order that a part, or if necessary the whole of such other effects then found, shall be sold, and that the produce of such sale shall be paid and applied as aforesaid, and also that the overplus of such money or effects, after deducting the charges of such sale, shall be returned to the said offender, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 8.

11. When any justice as aforesaid shall commit any such incorrigible rogue to the house of correction, there to remain till the next general or quarter sessions, or when any such idle and disorderly person, rogue, and vagabond, or incorrigible rogue, shall give notice of his or her intention to appeal against the conviction of him or her, and shall enter into recognizance as herein-after directed to prosecute such appeal, such justice shall require the person by whom such offender shall be apprehended, and the person or persons whose evidence shall appear to him to be material to prove the offence and to support such conviction, to become bound in recognizance to H. M., his heirs and successors, to appear at the said general or quarter sessions, to give evidence against such offender touching such offence; and the justices of the peace at their said general or quarter sessions are hereby authorized and empowered, at the request of any person who shall have become bound in any such recognizance, to order the treasurer of the county, riding, division, or place in which the offence shall have been committed, to pay unto such prosecutor, and unto the witness or witnesses on his or her behalf, such sum of money as to the court shall seem reasonable and sufficient to reimburse such prosecutor and such witness or witnesses respectively for the expences he, she, or they shall have been severally put to, and for his, her, or their trouble and loss of time in and about such prosecution; which order the clerk of the peace is hereby directed and required forthwith to make out and deliver unto such prosecutor, or unto such witness or witnesses, upon being paid for the same the sum of 2s. and no more; and the said treasurer is hereby authorized and required, upon sight of such order, forthwith to pay unto such prosecutor or other person or persons authorized to receive the same, such money as aforesaid, and the said treasurer shall be allowed the same in his account; and in case any such person or persons as aforesaid shall refuse to enter into such recognizance, it shall be lawful for such justice to commit such person or persons so refusing to the common gaol, there to remain until he, she, or they shall enter into such recognizance, or shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 9.

12. When any incorrigible rogue shall have been committed to the house of correction, there to remain until the next general or quarter sessions, it shall be lawful for the justices of the peace there assembled to examine into the circumstances of the case, and to order, if they think fit, that such offender be further imprisoned in the house of correction, and be there kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding one year from the time of making such order, and to order further, if they think fit, that such offender (not being a female) be punished by whipping, at such time during his imprisonment, and at such place within their jurisdiction, as according to the nature of the offence they in their discretion shall deem to be expedient, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 10.

13. In case any constable or other peace-officer shall neglect his duty in any thing required of him by this act, or in case any person shall disturb or hinder any constable or other peace-officer in the execution of this act, or shall be aiding, abetting, or assisting therein, and shall be thereof convicted upon the oath of one credible witness before one or more justice or justices of the peace where such offence shall be committed, every such offender shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; and in case such offender shall not forthwith pay such sum so forfeited, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant from such justice or justices; and if sufficient distress cannot be found, it shall be lawful to and for one or more such justice or justices to commit the person so offending to the house of correction, there to be kept for any time not exceeding three calendar months, or until such fine be paid; and the said justice or justices shall cause the said fine, when paid, to be forthwith delivered to the treasurer of the county, riding, division, or place where such offence shall have been committed, to be by him added to and used as part of the stock of the said county, riding, division, or place, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 11.

14. In case any constable or other peace-officer shall be convicted before any one or more justice or justices of the peace, for any neglect of any duty required of him by this act, or of any disobedience of any lawful warrant or order of any justice or justices of the peace issued under the provisions of this act, and in case any two or more justices of the peace shall impose any fine, or direct any penalty to be paid by such officer, under and by virtue of the powers given to justices of the peace by 35 G. 3. c. 55. [Stat. Dig. tit. JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl. 127.] intituled, An Act to authorize justices of the peace to impose fines upon constables, overseers, and other peace or parish-officers, for neglect of duty, and on masters of apprentices for ill-usage of such their apprentices, and also to make provision for the execution of warrants of distress granted by magistrates, or under any other powers enabling such justices in that behalf, then it shall be lawful for such justice or justices, upon conviction of any such offender, to reimburse to the person on whose complaint or information such offender shall have been convicted, all necessary costs and expences which such person may thereby have incurred, or by any appeal made in consequence thereof, by making an order under his or their hands and seals upon the treasurer of the county, riding, division, or place, to pay to such person the amount of such costs and expences, on producing the said order and giving a receipt for the same, and the same shall be allowed the said treasurer in his account, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 12.

15. It shall be lawful for any justice of the peace, upon information on oath before him made, that any person herein-before described to be an idle and disorderly person, or a rogue and vagabond, or an incorrigible rogue, is or is reasonably suspected to be harboured or concealed in any house kept or purporting to be kept for the reception, lodging, or entertainment of travellers, by warrant under his hand and seal to authorize any constable or other person to enter at any time into such house, and to apprehend and bring before him or any other justice of the peace every such idle and disorderly person, rogue, and vagabond, and incorrigible rogue as shall be found therein, to be dealt with in the manner herein-before directed, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 13.

16. Any person aggrieved by any act or determination of any justice or justices of the peace out of sessions, in or concerning the execution of this act, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, riding, division, or place in and for which such justice or justices shall have so acted, giving to the justice or justices of the peace whose act or determination shall be appealed against, notice in writing of such appeal, and of the ground thereof, within seven days after such act or determination, and before the next general or quarter sessions, and entering within such seven days into a recognizance, with sufficient surety, before a justice of the peace for the county or place in which such person shall have been convicted, personally to appear and prosecute such appeal; and upon such notice being given, and such recognizance being entered into, such justice is hereby empowered to discharge such person out of custody; and the court at such general or quarter sessions shall hear and determine the matter of such appeal, and shall make such order therein as shall to the said court seem meet, and in case of the dismissal of the appeal, or the affirmance of the conviction, shall issue the necessary process for the apprehension and punishment of the offender, according to the conviction, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 14.

17. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend so as to restrain, hinder, or prevent any visiting justice of any county gaol, house of correction, or other prison, from granting a certificate or other instrument for enabling any person discharged from a county gaol, house of correction, or other prison, to have or receive alms or relief in or upon his or her route to his or her place of settlement; provided, that such certificate be made and drawn up in compliance with the directions and provisions of any act of parliament for the better regulation and management of gaols, houses of correction, or prisons; and if any person to whom any such certificate or instrument shall be delivered shall act in any manner contrary to the directions or provisions of such certificate or instrument, or shall loiter upon his or her route, or shall deviate therefrom, every such person shall be and be deemed to be a rogue and vagabond within the provisions and directions of this act, and shall be punished accordingly, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 15.

18. From and after the passing of this act [21st June 1824], no justice of the peace, mayor, or other magistrate shall grant to any person, other than a person entitled thereto under 43 G. 3. c. 61. [Stat. Dig. tit. VAGRANT, pl. 76.], intituled, An Act for the relief of soldiers, sailors, and marines, and of the wives of soldiers in the cases therein mentioned, so far as relates to Eng., any certificate or other instrument enabling such person to ask alms or relief in their route to any place, or for any other purpose whatever; and every person asking alms or relief under and by virtue of any certificate or other instrument hereby prohibited, is liable to be declared to be an idle and disorderly person in like manner as if he or she had possessed no such certificate or other instrument as aforesaid, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 16. [See 58 G. 3. c. 92. Stat. Dig. (ADDEN.), tit. VAGRANT.]

19. No proceeding to be had before any justice or justices of the peace under this act shall be quashed for want of form; and every conviction of any offender as an idle and disorderly person, or as a rogue and vagabond, or as an incorrigible rogue, under this act, shall be in the form or to the effect following, or as near thereto as circumstances will permit; (that is to say),

} Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord to wit. } — at — in the county of —, A. B. is convicted before me C. D. one of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the said county, of being an idle and disorderly person [or a rogue and vagabond, or an incorrigible rogue] within the intent and meaning of the statute made in the fifth year of the reign of H. M. King George the Fourth, intituled, An Act [here insert the title of this act]; that is to say, for that the said A. B. on the — day of — at — in the said county [here state the offence proved before the magistrate], and for which said offence the said A. B. is ordered to be committed to the house of correction at —, there to be kept to hard labour for the space of — [or until the next general or quarter sessions.] Given under my hand and seal the day, year, and at the place first above-written.

And the justice or justices of the peace before whom any such conviction shall take place shall, and he and they is and are hereby required to transmit the said conviction to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace to be holden in and for the county, riding, division, or place wherein such conviction shall have taken place, there to be filed and kept on record; and a copy of the conviction so filed, duly certified by the clerk of the peace, shall and may be read as evidence in any court of record, or before any justice or justices of the peace acting under the powers and provisions of this act, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 17.

20. In all cases where an action shall be brought against any justice of the peace, constable, or other person, for or on account of any matter or thing whatsoever done or commanded by him in the execution of his duty under this act, such justice, constable, or other person, if he shall have judgment in his favour, shall have treble costs awarded to him by the court, unless the judge shall certify that there was a reasonable cause for such action, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 18.

21. Every such action shall be commenced within three calendar months after the cause of action or complaint shall have arisen, and not afterwards; and if any person or persons shall be sued for any matter or thing which he, she, or they shall have done in the execution of this act, he, she, or they may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 19.

22. Every person who under this act shall have been convicted as an idle and disorderly person, or as a rogue and vagabond, shall be deemed to be actually chargeable to the parish, township, or place in which such person shall reside; and shall be liable to be removed to his or her last legal settlement, by the order of two justices of the peace of the division or place in which such person shall reside, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 20.

23. Provided, that wherever by any act of parliament now in force it is directed that any person shall be punished as an idle and disorderly person, or as a rogue and vagabond, or as an incorrigible rogue, for any offence specified in such act, and not herein-before provided for, in every such case, whether such person shall or shall not have committed any offence against this act, every such person shall be punished under the provisions, powers, and directions of this act, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 21.

24. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend or apply to Scot. or Ire., nor to alter any law now in force for the removal of poor persons born in Scot., Ire., or the Isles of Man, Jersey, and Guernsey, and becoming chargeable to parishes in Eng., such persons not having committed acts of vagrancy as herein-before described, nor to alter any law now in force relating to lunatic vagrants, 5 G. 4. c. 83. s. 22.

WALES. (COURTS OF GREAT SESSIONS.)

1. To enlarge and extend the power of the judges of the several courts of great sessions in Wa., and to amend the laws relating to the same, 5 G. 4. c. 106. [REP. as to s. 29. by 6 G. 4. c. 50. tit. JURY.]

2. Whereas difficulties have arisen in H. M.'s courts of great sessions in Wa. from a want of power in the judges of such courts respectively to compel any person residing out of the jurisdiction of any such courts respectively, to attend as a witness on any trial or cause therein: and whereas inconvenience has been experienced for want of power in the judges of the said courts of great sessions to issue commissioners for taking of answers, examinations, and affidavits, and for the examination of witnesses, at places out of the respective jurisdictions of the said courts, and of administering oaths to the persons putting in such answers and examinations, and making such affidavits, and being examined as witnesses: and whereas difficulties have arisen in H. M.'s courts of great sessions in Wa. with respect to enforcing rules, orders, and decrees of the said courts, against persons who have entered appearances in suits instituted in such courts, or have come in as creditors or purchasers, and submitted to the jurisdiction thereof, but by reason of their residence being out of the limits of the jurisdiction of the said courts, or of their having withdrawn themselves therefrom, are not amenable to the process thereof: and whereas it is advisable that further provisions be made for discouraging the practice of commencing frivolous and vexatious suits in H. M.'s courts at Westminster, in causes of action arising within the dominion and principality of Wa., and also to expedite suits in the said several courts of great sessions, and provide for new trials, and regulate the practice therein: and whereas it is therefore expedient that the powers of the judges of the said courts should be enlarged and extended, and the laws and usages relating to the same be amended: and whereas it is also expedient to regulate the fees and King's silver payable on fines and recoveries levied and suffered within the principality of Wa., and to provide for the more effectually levying and suffering the same: be it enacted, That from and after the passing this act [24th June 1824], when and as often as the attendance of any person shall or may be deemed necessary as a witness to give evidence in, about, or concerning any suit, cause, trial, commission, or issue, prosecuted, brought, and depending in or before any of the said courts of great sessions, and such person shall not, when his attendance is so deemed necessary, be resident within the jurisdiction of the said court of great sessions, where such his attendance may be so deemed necessary, but be resident at such time in Eng. or Wa., in all such cases it shall be lawful for any of the parties in the said suits, trial, commission, or issue, to apply to the proper officer of H. M.'s courts of exchequer at Westminster, and such officer is hereby authorized to issue a writ or writs of subpœna ad testificandum, or any writ or writs of subpœna duces tecum, on demand, in like manner as the same is or are issuable by the said court of exchequer in any cause, trial, suit, commission, or issue depending therein; and such writ or writs of subpœna ad testificandum and of subpœna duces tecum shall be directed to such person, commanding such person to attend and give evidence as a witness in such court of great sessions, upon such cause, trial, commission, suit, or issue so prosecuted and depending therein; and such person shall be compelled and compellable to attend the same, in like manner and under such penalties as if the said writ or writs had issued to command his attendance in the said court of exchequer, in, upon, or concerning any suit, cause, trial, commission, or issue depending therein; and any such party, on whose behalf any such writ or writs shall be issued, in default of obedience to any such writ or writs by the person to whom the same may be directed, and on whom the same shall be served, shall have the like remedy against such person for such default, as if the said writ or writs had issued from the said court of exchequer, to compel such person to attend and give evidence thereon; provided, that in every case where a new cause or issue is commenced, it shall and may be lawful for the marshal of the said court of great sessions in which such new cause or issue is commenced, in the name of a justice of such court, to issue such writs of subpœna ad testificandum or of subpœna duces tecum, as either of the parties to the said suit shall require; and in case of disobedience to any such writ, the parties shall have the like remedy in the said court of exchequer as if the said writ or writs had been directly issued out of that court, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 1.

3. Whereas it may be expedient, for the better and more perfect administration of justice in Wa., that the court of K. B., C. P., and exchequer should in certain cases have the power of granting new trials of causes which have been commenced and been tried in the said court of great sessions; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1824], it shall and may be lawful for any party, who shall be dissatisfied with any verdict given or obtained, or nonsuit entered against him, in any action which shall have been tried in any of the said courts of great sessions, to apply by motion to any of the said courts of K. B., C. P. or exchequer sitting in banco, for a rule to show cause why a new trial of such action should not be granted, or nonsuit set aside and a new trial granted, or a verdict entered for the plaintiff or defendant, or a nonsuit entered, as the case may be, in the same manner as hath been usually heretofore done in actions depending in the said courts, and tried at nisi prius before any judge of assize, by virtue of any record issuing out of the said courts; and that thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said courts to grant such rule, and proceed to hear and determine the merits of the same, in such manner and form as hath been heretofore done in actions depending in the said last-mentioned courts, and tried as aforesaid; and in case the courts shall make the said rule absolute, which they are hereby authorized and empowered to do, and order a new trial to be had between the parties in such action, that upon the party who shall have obtained such rule delivering an office copy of such rule so made absolute, to the proper officer of the court of great sessions where such cause was tried, all proceedings upon the former verdict or nonsuit so obtained in the said courts of great sessions shall cease, and the said actions shall proceed to trial at the next or some other great sessions, to be holden in and for the county in which the same was tried as aforesaid, in like manner as if no trial had been had therein; or in case of a verdict being ordered to be entered for the plaintiff or defendant, or a nonsuit being ordered to be entered, (as the case may be,) judgment shall be entered accordingly, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 2.

4. A transcript of the record for which such new trial shall be moved, or motion made for altering the verdict, or entering or setting aside a nonsuit, certified by the prothonotary of the said courts of great sessions respectively, or his deputy, shall be transmitted to the court to which such application shall be made as aforesaid, for the purpose of such motion for a new trial, or setting aside such nonsuit and granting a new trial thereon, or entering a verdict for the plaintiff or defendant, or entering a nonsuit, and which transcript the said prothonotary or his deputy is hereby authorized to deliver on demand, on payment of the usual fee; and the costs of such application for a new trial and setting aside such nonsuit, or entering a verdict for plaintiff or defendant, or entering a nonsuit, shall be in the discretion of the said court to award and order to and by which party to such motion the same shall be paid; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to prevent any of the said courts of great sessions from granting any new trial, or setting aside any nonsuit, or entering a nonsuit, or altering a verdict, according to any rule established therein, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 3.

5. It shall be lawful for the said court, to which such applications shall be made, or any commissioner appointed to take affidavits [See s. 9. pl. 10.] therein, to administer an oath to any person making an affidavit either to obtain such rule, or show cause against the same as aforesaid; and every person forswearing himself, in such affidavit [See s. 10. pl. 11.], shall incur and be liable to the same penalties as if such affidavit had been made and sworn in an action depending in the said court; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to stay or delay the entering up judgment which shall have been given or obtained in any action in any of the said courts of great sessions, and suing out execution thereon, unless the party intending to apply under this act for a new trial thereof, or for alteration of the verdict, or entering or setting aside a nonsuit, with two sufficient sureties, such as the court of great sessions wherein such action shall be depending shall allow of, shall first before such stay made be bound unto the party for whom such verdict or nonsuit shall have been given or obtained, by recognizance to be acknowledged in the same court, in such reasonable sum as the same court of great sessions shall think fit, to make and prosecute such application for such new trial or alteration of verdict, or entering or setting aside a nonsuit, and also to satisfy and pay, if such application shall be refused, all and singular the debts, damages and costs adjudged and to be adjudged in consequence of the said verdict, or nonsuit, in the said court of great sessions, and all costs and damages to be also awarded for the delaying of execution thereon; and upon such recognizance being entered into, the said court of great sessions is hereby authorized to stay all proceedings in such action; and further, that the entering up of judgment in any of the said courts of great session, in any writ of dower or action of ejectment, and suing out execution thereon, shall not be stayed, unless the party or parties intending to apply for a new trial, or to alter the verdict or enter or set aside a nonsuit therein under the provisions of this act, shall be bound in manner aforesaid unto the party in whose favour such verdict or judgment of nonsuit shall have been given or obtained, in such reasonable sums as the court of great sessions in which such action shall be depending shall think fit, with condition, that if such application shall not be made and prosecuted, or shall be refused, the party so intending to make such application shall pay such costs, damages, and sum of money as shall be awarded by the said court of great sessions, in case no such application shall have been made and prosecuted, or after such application shall have been refused; and upon such recognizance being entered into, the said court of great sessions is hereby authorized to stay all proceedings in such action, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 4.

6. And to the end that the same sum and damages may be ascertained, it is further enacted, That the court of great sessions wherein such action shall be depending, upon such failure to make and prosecute such application, or such refusal as aforesaid, shall issue a writ (if necessary) to inquire as well of the mesne profits as of the damages by any waste committed after such verdict or nonsuit in such writ of dower or action of ejectment shall have been given or obtained; and upon the return thereof, judgment shall be given, and execution awarded for such mesne profits and damages, and also for costs of suit, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 5.

7. And whereas all writs of execution issued upon judgments obtained in the said courts of great sessions in Wa., are now returnable only at the great sessions held for the respective counties; and sheriffs frequently delay executing the same for many months, and often refuse to make returns to such writs, or to pay over the money received by them; and sheriffs may also refuse to return bailable processes, returnable in the vacation, until the following great sessions, to the great prejudice of the suitors of the said court; for remedy whereof, and facilitating the proceedings of the said courts, be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, 24th June 1824, all writs of execution upon judgments obtained in the said courts of great sessions shall be made returnable before the judges of such courts respectively, on the common day in each of the two vacations annually betwixt the two sessions (being the first days of Trinity term after the spring sessions, and the first day of Hilary term after the autumn sessions), or on the first day of the next sessions, at the election of the party obtaining such judgment, or his attorney, who shall sue out the same; and that the sheriffs (to whom any such writ of execution, or bailable writ issued out of the said courts, returnable in the vacation, shall be delivered) shall make due returns of such writs at the time the same shall be returnable, and file such writs and returns with the proper officer of such courts, or as soon afterwards as such sheriff shall be called upon by a rule of the same courts, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 6.

8. It shall and may be lawful to and for the respective prothonotaries of the said courts, or such other officers as the judges of the said courts respectively shall appoint, to grant rules for the sheriffs in the vacation to return such writs of execution and bailable processes as shall be returnable in the vacation, in such manner and under such regulations as the said justices of the said court shall appoint for that purpose; and in case any sheriff shall refuse or decline to return any writ within six days after the service of such rule on him or his deputy, such sheriff shall be in the like contempt, and answerable in the same manner as if such rule had been made by the said judges at sessions, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 7.

9. It shall be lawful to and for the said prothonotaries, or such other officer as aforesaid, to grant rules in the vacation for a particular of the plaintiff's demand, and of defendant's set-off, and for leave to plead several matters, or to pay money in stay of proceedings, or to sign judgment for want of a plea, in any action depending in the said court, under such regulations as the said judges shall appoint for that purpose, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 8.

10. It shall and may be lawful for the judges of the said courts of great sessions respectively, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue commissions to persons resident out of the jurisdiction of such courts, for the purpose of taking answers, examinations, and affidavits, and for the examinations of witnesses in causes in equity, and also for the taking of affidavits and the examination of witnesses at law, in such manner and in such cases as the said court of exchequer has been used to issue the same, as occasion shall require, and of administering oaths to the persons putting in such answers and examinations, and making such affidavits, and being examined as witnesses, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 9.

11. All and every person or persons forswearing him, her, or themselves in any answer or affidavit, or in any deposition or examination, taken and sworn before any commissioner appointed by virtue of this act, shall incur and be liable to the same penalties as if such answer or affidavit, deposition or examination, had been taken and sworn in any suit in equity depending in the said court of exchequer, or in any action depending in the said court, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 10. [See s. 4. pl. 5.]

12. It shall be lawful for the judges of the said courts of great sessions, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in all cases at law, when the said courts shall be sitting, in any county within the limits of such courts respectively, to make such rules and orders in suits at law, instituted and depending in the other counties within their jurisdiction, as to them the said judges shall seem meet, and occasion shall require; and such rules and orders shall be as valid and effectual in the law, and as binding upon the parties, as if the same had been made in the particular county in which such suits were instituted, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 11.

13. It shall and may be lawful for the judges of the said courts of great sessions, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in all cases, both at law and in equity, when the said courts shall not be sitting in Wa., to hear motions and petitions, and make such rules and orders thereon in vacation, and out of the jurisdiction of the said courts, as to them the said judges shall seem meet, and occasion shall require; and such rules and orders shall be as valid in the law, and as binding upon the parties, as the same would or might have been in case the same had been made in Wa., within the jurisdiction of the said courts, and during the sitting thereof, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 12.

14. And whereas doubts and difficulties arise as to serving process in actions within the respective courts of great sessions, where the cause of action arises in one county, and the defendant or defendants reside in another county, each such counties being within the same jurisdiction of such court of great sessions respectively; be it enacted, That whenever a cause of action shall arise in one county and the defendant or defendants shall reside in another county, such counties as last aforesaid being within the same jurisdiction of the said courts of great sessions respectively, it shall be lawful that any writ or writs to commence any action within any of the courts of great sessions, shall issue, directed to the sheriff of such county wherein such defendant or defendants may reside, such last-mentioned county being within the same jurisdiction of the said courts of great sessions respectively, notice being endorsed on such writ of the county wherein such action is brought, and which said writ or writs shall be deemed legal process to compel such defendant or defendants to appear to such action or actions, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 13.

15. In all cases in which judgments shall have been obtained in the courts of great sessions respectively, it shall be lawful for the prothonotary of the circuits of the said courts of great sessions within which such judgment has been obtained, and he is hereby required upon the application of the person or persons so obtaining the same, to issue a testatum execution against the defendant or defendants, his, her, or their goods and chattels, directed to the sheriff of any of the counties within the same jurisdiction of such court of great sessions, although such county is not the county within which such judgment was obtained, in such and the same manner, and with the same force and effect as testatum executions are issued from the courts at Westminster into any county on judgments in actions where the venue is laid in another county, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 14.

16. In all cases in which any person shall have commenced any suit, or have entered any appearance in any suit at law or in equity instituted in any of the said courts of great sessions, or shall have come in as a creditor or purchaser, or otherwise submitted to the jurisdiction of the said courts of great sessions, but by reason of his residence out of the jurisdiction of such courts, or having withdrawn therefrom, his person or goods cannot be made amenable to the process thereof, it shall be lawful for the said court of exchequer in all suits and matters in equity, and in all suits and matters at law for the said court of exchequer, and also for the said courts of K. B. and C. P., upon a certificate from the proper officer of the said courts of great sessions, of such commencement of suit, or of such appearance having been entered or such submission made, and upon a transcript or office copy of such rule, order, or decree being duly certified to the said court of exchequer in matters of equity, or in matters of law to the said court of exchequer or the said courts of K. B. and C. P., together with an affidavit of a due service of a copy of such rule, order, or decree, and of the non-performance thereof, to issue an attachment or other process for enforcing obedience to the same, in such manner as is usual for the purpose of enforcing obedience to the rules, orders, and decrees of such court, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 15.

17. And whereas it is expedient that the judges of the said courts of great sessions should have full power over the officers thereof; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1824], it shall and may be lawful for the judges of the said courts, and they are hereby authorized to remove any officer of the said courts, or his deputy, for peculation, extortion, or other misconduct, and appoint a new officer or deputy in the room of the person so removed; any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that nothing in this clause contained shall authorize such judges to dismiss on their own authority any officer of the said courts nominated and appointed by the crown, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 16.

18. And whereas it is expedient that security shall hereafter be given for any sums of money paid into any of the said courts of great sessions for and on account of any party to any suit therein; be it further enacted, That the judges of the said several courts of great sessions shall and may, within their respective jurisdictions, have and take, and are hereby required to have and take, from any officer of such courts respectively, and hereafter to be appointed, within three calendar months next after such appointment, and as often after as occasion may require, such security as to such judges shall seem proper for and concerning the accounting for all and every sum and sums of money which such officer shall receive in any cause or suit at law or in equity pending in any such court of great sessions, and which said sum or sums of money shall be paid into any such court by any person in any suit therein, and received by any such officer or officers as is or are or shall be accustomed or authorized to receive the same; such security to be given by recognizance, or otherwise, as the said judges shall direct, binding every such officer, together with two or more sufficient sureties, in such penal sum as to the said judges shall seem proper, for the due accounting for all and every such sum or sums of money so paid, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 17.

19. It shall be lawful for the judges of the said courts of great sessions, and they are hereby authorized in all cases in which they shall think fit, to order and direct any sums of money belonging to the suitors of the said courts of great sessions to be paid into the bank of Eng., in the name and with the privity of the accountant-general of H. M.'s court of exchequer at Westminster, subject to the order and decree of the court of great sessions at the instance of which it shall be so paid in; and the said accountant-general is hereby directed to obey the orders and decrees of such court of great sessions in regard thereto, in like manner as he obeys the orders and directions of the said court of exchequer, and to act and do all matters and things relating to the delivering, securing, and investing of the money so ordered to be paid, and the payment, selling, and transferring of the same, and the keeping the accounts with the bank of Eng., and other matters relating thereto, in the like manner as he acts and does all matters and things relating to the delivery, securing, and investing of the money and effects of the suitors of the said court of exchequer, and the payment, selling, and transferring of the same, and the keeping the accounts or other matters relating thereto, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 18.

20. And whereas by 15 G. 3. c. 51. [Stat. Dig. tit. WALES, pl. 224.] intituled, An Act to discourage the practice of commencing frivolous and vexatious suits in H. M.'s courts at Westminster, in causes of action arising within the dominion of Wa., and for further regulating the proceedings in the courts of great sessions in Wa., it is enacted, [viz. by s. 1.] that in case the plaintiff in any action upon the case for words, action of debt, trespass on the case, assault and battery, or other personal action, where the cause of such action shall arise within the dominion of Wa., and which shall be tried at the assizes at the nearest English county to that part of the said dominion of Wa. in which the cause of action shall be laid to arise, shall not recover by verdict debt or damages to the amount of 10*l.*, in such case, if the judge who tried the cause, on evidence appearing before him, shall certify on the back of the record of nisi prius, that the defendant was or were resident in the dominion of Wa. at the time of the service of the writ or other mesne process served on him in such action, on such fact being suggested on the record or judgment roll, judgment of nonsuit shall be entered against the plaintiff; and such defendant shall be entitled to and have like judgment and remedy thereon, to recover such and the like costs against the plaintiff in such action, as if a verdict had been given by the jury for the defendant, unless the judge before whom such cause shall be tried shall certify on the back of the record that the freehold or title of land was chiefly in question, or that such cause was proper to be tried in such English county: and whereas it is expedient that so much of the said act as is herein recited should be repealed, and other provisions be made in lieu thereof; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said act as has been herein recited be and is hereby repealed, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 19.

21. And whereas it is also expedient that so much of the 15 G. 3. c. 51. which relates to prevent transitory actions, where the cause of action does not amount to 10*l.*, arising within the said principality, from being brought in any of H. M.'s courts of record out of the said principality [viz. s. 2.], be repealed, and other and further provisions substituted in lieu thereof; be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said last-mentioned act be and is hereby repealed, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 20.

22. In all actions upon the case for words, action of debt, trespass on the case, assault and battery, or other personal action, and all transitory actions, which from and after the 6th Nov. 1824, shall be brought in any of H. M.'s courts of record out of the principality of Wa., and the debt or damages found by the jury shall not amount to the sum of 50*l.*, and it shall appear upon the evidence given on the trial of the said cause, that the cause of action arose in the said principality, and that the defendant was resident in the dominion of Wa. at the time of the service of any writ, or other mesne process, served on him, in such actions, and it shall be so testified under the hand of the judge who tried such cause, upon the back of the record of nisi prius (on such facts being suggested on the record or judgment roll), a judgment of nonsuit shall be entered thereon against the plaintiff, and the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant in such action his costs of suit, and the defendant shall have like remedy to recover the same as in the case of a verdict given for the defendant in such action; and in the taxation of all costs allowed and given to the defendant, the proper officer shall allow to the plaintiff, out of the defendant's costs, the full sum given by the verdict to the plaintiff for his debt or damages; and although no judgment shall be entered for the plaintiff upon such verdict, yet nevertheless such verdict, without any judgment entered thereon, shall be an effectual bar to any action commenced in any court whatsoever by the plaintiff for the same, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 21.

23. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall bar or preclude any person from commencing and carrying on any action, and which may be tried at the assizes at the nearest English county to that part of the said dominion of Wa. in which the cause of action shall be laid, to arise against any defendant or defendants so resident in the dominion of Wa., and obtaining full costs in such action, if the judge before whom the cause shall be tried shall certify on the back of the record that the title or freehold of land was chiefly in question, or that such cause was proper to be tried in such English county, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 22.

24. And for better preventing vexatious delays and expences occasioned by the suing forth writs of certiorari for the removal of actions, suits, causes, or other proceedings at law commenced and carried on in any of H. M.'s courts of great session in Wa., and for regulating in future the issuing of such writs; be it further enacted, That from and after 6th Nov. 1824, no writ of certiorari shall be granted, issued forth, or allowed, to remove any action, bill, plaint, cause, suit, or other proceeding at law whatsoever, originated in or commenced, carried on or had in any of H. M.'s courts of great sessions in Wa., unless it be duly proved upon oath that the party suing forth the same hath given seven days' notice thereof in writing to the other party concerned in the action, bill, plaint, cause, suit, or other proceeding sought to be so removed, and unless the party so applying or suing forth such writ shall, upon oath, show to the court in which application shall be made sufficient cause for issuing such writ, and so that the party therein concerned may have an opportunity to show cause, if he or they shall so think fit, against the issuing or granting such certiorari, and that the costs of such application be in the discretion of the court wherein such application shall be made for such certiorari, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 23.

25. And whereas the sums of money now demandable and payable for fines and recoveries levied and suffered at the several courts of great sessions in Wa., are unequal and uncertain in the amount; be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1824], the fees to be paid on any fine or recovery so levied or suffered, and the amount of King's silver to be paid thereon, shall be in the same proportion, and ascertained and calculated in the same manner by the proper officer, as the fees and King's silver now usually payable on fines and recoveries levied and suffered in H. M.'s courts of C. P. at Westminster, and shall not exceed the same, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 24.

26. Provided, that in all and every case where such fees and King's silver are now payable to any person duly authorized to receive and compound for the same, under and by virtue of any patent for any term now in existence, within the respective courts of great sessions in Wa., the same sums as are now demandable and payable under and by virtue of such patent shall be hereafter paid during the term granted by such patent; but that when and as often as such term cease, expire, and determine, the said sums of money thereafter payable upon levying or suffering of any such fines and recoveries, as King's silver or fees thereon, within the limits of the jurisdiction of the court or courts of great sessions in such patent named, and the term whereof shall have so ceased, expired, and determined, shall immediately after any such expiration and determination, be thenceforth in the same proportion, and be ascertained and calculated in the same manner by the proper officer, as the fees and King's silver now usually payable on fines and recoveries levied and suffered in the said court of C. P. and shall not exceed the same, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 25.

27. And whereas fines can now be levied in the said courts of great sessions within the dominion of Wa. twice only in the year, and it is expedient to give to H. M.'s subjects possessing lands, tenements, and hereditaments within Wa., the power of levying such fines four times in the year, in like manner as the subjects of the realm of Eng. can now levy the same; be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act [24th June 1824], it shall be lawful for the cursitor of every court of great sessions in Wa., to issue any writ or writs of covenants, for the purpose of levying any fine or fines within the jurisdiction of such courts respectively, such writs to be issued and be tested, and bear date 14 days at least before the first day of Hilary term, or 14 days at least before the first day of Trinity term in each year; and the several cursitors, and each of them, are hereby required so to do as often as applied to for that purpose, on payment of the usual fee or fees now demandable on any writ of covenant; and that every writ or writs so tested or bearing date as aforesaid be made returnable on the said first day of Hilary term, and the said first day of Trinity term respectively in each such year; and that upon an acknowledgment of such fine or fines by the proper parties to the same, taken before a judge of such court respectively, or by virtue of any dedimus potestatem, which the said cursitor or cursitors is and are hereby also required to grant, as often as the same be necessary, on the allocatur of a judge of the court of great sessions within whose jurisdiction the fine may be so levied, in like manner in which such allocatur is given when a fine is acknowledged on any dedimus potestatem, or otherwise during the sitting of such courts of great sessions, and on a certificate made on the back of any such writ or writs of covenant by the proper officer of such court, of the actual payment of King's silver payable upon every such fine or fines, and which certificate such proper officer is hereby required to make upon payment of such King's silver, at the costs and charges of any person or persons paying the same, such fine or fines shall have full force and effect, and be deemed to be fully completed from the said first day of Hilary term, or the said first day of Trinity term, on which the said writ or writs shall be made returnable as aforesaid; and proclamation, if necessary, shall be made of such fine or fines at the next ensuing great sessions, and at the two following great sessions, according to law; and all such fine and fines shall operate and enure, and shall be equally binding upon all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and upon all parties privy thereto, from the said first day of Hilary term, and the said first day of Trinity term, in like manner as if the same was or were levied during the sitting of the court of great sessions, within the jurisdiction of which such lands, tenements, and hereditaments are situated, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 26.

28. Every fine and fines hereafter levied in Wa. shall take effect and enure, and be deemed complete from the date of the caption of the acknowledgement taken in such fine or fines, and on the payment of King's silver due thereon, notwithstanding the death or deaths of any party or parties to such fine or fines after such acknowledgment, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 27.

29. From and after the passing of this act [24th June 1824], any person authorized to take affidavits as a commissioner in the courts of K. B., C. P., and exchequer, or a master extraordinary in the high courts of chancery in the U. K., matter or matters arising, or fines or recoveries levied or suffered within the said respective courts of great sessions, in like manner as any affidavit is now taken in the said last-mentioned courts of K. B., C. P., exchequer, or chancery, of and concerning any fines or recoveries levied or suffered, or any cause, matter, or thing depending or in anywise concerning any of the proceedings arising or being within the last-mentioned courts, 5 G. 4. c. 109. s. 28.

30. And for the better regulation of persons hereafter serving as petit jurymen at any of the said courts of great sessions; be it further enacted, That from and after the 1st July 1824, no person shall be compellable to serve on any petit jury at any such court of great sessions, unless he possesses an estate of freehold or copyhold of the clear yearly value of 8*l.* or upward, or any estate for the term of any life or lives, or for the term of 99 years from the commencement of such estate, of the clear yearly value of 15*l.*, 5 G. 4. c. 106. s. 29. [REP. 6 G. 4. c. 50. s. 62. ante, tit. JURY.]

WARRANTS OF ATTORNEY.

1. For preventing frauds upon creditors by secret warrants of attorney to confess judgment, 3 G. 4. c. 39. [EXTENDED to the assignees of insolvent debtors, 5 G. 4. c. 61. s. 16. See INSOLVENT DEBTOR.]

2. Whereas injustice is frequently done to creditors by secret warrants of attorney to confess judgments for securing the payment of money: whereby persons in a state of insolvency are enabled to keep up to appearance of being in good circumstances, and the persons holding such warrants of attorney have the power of taking the property of such insolvents in execution at any time, to the exclusion of the rest of their creditors; for remedy thereof be it enacted, That from and after the 29th Sept. 1822, if the holder thereof shall think fit, every warrant of attorney to confess judgment in any personal action or a true copy thereof, and of the attestation thereof, and the defeasance and indorsements thereon, in case such warrant of attorney shall be given to confess judgment in H. M.'s court of K. B. at Westminster, or such a true copy thereof as aforesaid, in case such warrant of attorney shall be given to confess judgment in any other court, shall within 21 days after the execution of such warrant of attorney, be filed, together with an affidavit of the time of the execution thereof, with the clerk of the docquets and judgments in the said court of K. B., 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 1.

3. From and after the said 29th Sept. next, if at any time after the expiration of 21 days next after the execution of such warrant of attorney, a commission of bankrupt shall be issued against the person who shall have given such warrant of attorney, under which he shall be duly found and declared a bankrupt, then, unless such warrant of attorney, or a copy thereof, shall have been filed as aforesaid, within the said space of 21 days from the execution thereof, or unless judgment shall have been signed, or execution issued on such warrant of attorney within the same period, such warrant of attorney, and the judgment and execution thereon, shall be deemed fraudulent and void against the assignees under such commission, and such assignees shall be entitled to recover back and receive, for the use of the creditors of such bankrupt at large, all and every the monies levied, or effects seized under such judgment and execution, 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 2.

4. And whereas the object of the said provision may be defeated by any person giving a cognovit actionem, instead of a warrant of attorney to confess judgment, be it enacted, That every cognovit actionem given by any defendant in any personal action, in case the action in which such cognovit actionem shall be given shall be in the said court of K. B., or a true copy of such cognovit actionem in case the action wherein the same is given shall be in any other court, shall, together with an affidavit of the time of the execution thereof, be filed with the said clerk, in like manner as such warrants of attorney, or copies thereof and affidavits, within the space of 21 days after such cognovit actionem shall have been executed, otherwise such cognovit actionem and any judgment entered up thereon, and any execution taken out on such judgment, shall be deemed fraudulent and void against the assignees of the person giving such cognovit actionem under a commission of bankrupt issued against him, after the expiration of the said space of 21 days, in like as warrants of attorney, and judgments and executions thereon, are deemed and taken to be fraudulent and void by this act, 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 3.

5. If such warrant of attorney or cognovit shall be given subject to any defeasance or condition, such defeasance or condition shall be written on the same paper or parchment, on which such warrant of attorney, or cognovit actionem shall be written, before the time when the same or a copy thereof respectively shall be filed, otherwise such warrant of attorney, or cognovit actionem, shall be null and void, 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 4.

6. The said officer of the said court of K. B. shall cause every warrant of attorney and cognovit actionem, in every personal action, and every copy thereof filed in his office, to be numbered, and shall keep a book, in which he shall cause to be fairly entered an alphabetical list of every such warrant of attorney or cognovit, containing therein the names and additions and descriptions of the defendants or persons giving such warrants of attorney or cognovit, and also the names, additions, and descriptions of the plaintiff or persons in whose favour the same shall have been given, together with the number and the dates of the execution and filing of the same, or of a copy thereof respectively, and the sums for which judgment is to be entered up, and also the sums which are specified to be paid by the defeasances or conditions in each warrant of attorney or cognovit actionem, and the times when the same are thereby made payable, according to the form contained in the schedule to this act; which said book, and every warrant of attorney and cognovit actionem, or copy thereof, filed in the said office, shall be searched and viewed by all persons at all seasonable times, paying to the officer for every search against one person 6d., 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 5.

7. The said officer shall be entitled to receive, for his trouble in filing and entering such warrant of attorney or cognovit, or a copy thereof as aforesaid, the sum of 1s., 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 6.

8. Any person shall be entitled to have an office copy of each warrant of attorney, or cognovit actionem, or of the copy thereof filed as aforesaid, upon paying for the same at the like rate as for office copies of judgments in each of such courts respectively, 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 7.

9. It shall be lawful for any of the judges of the court in which such warrant of attorney or cognovit actionem is given, to order a memorandum of satisfaction to be written upon such warrant of attorney, cognovit actionem, or copy thereof respectively, as aforesaid, if it shall appear to him that the debt for which the same was given as a security shall have been satisfied or discharged, 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 8.

SCHEDULE of 3 G. 4. c. 39. s. 5. ante, pl. 6.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

(STATUTES repealed, see 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 23., post, pl. 26.)

(STATUTES in force.)

1. For ascertaining and establishing uniformity of weights and measures, 5 G. 4. c. 74. [AMD. and time of commencement prolonged, 6 G. 4. c. 12. See rates of excise duties, allowances, and drawbacks on beer and malt and spirit made in Scot. or Ire., equalized in consequence of the above acts, 6 G. 4. c. 58.]

2. Whereas 5 G. 4. c. 74. was passed, and the operation of certain clauses and provisions in the said act contained is by the said act directed to take place from and after the 1st May 1825, and the operation of certain other clauses in the said act contained is by the said act directed to take place within three calendar months, or within six calendar months respectively next after the passing of the said act; and it is by the said act, among other things, enacted, that the several statutes, ordinances, and acts, and parts of the several statutes, ordinances, and acts, in the said recited act mentioned and specified, so far as the same relate to the ascertaining or establishing any standards of weights and measures, or to the establishing or recognizing certain differences between weights and measures of the same denomination, shall, from and after 1st May 1825, be repealed: and whereas it hath been found that further time is necessarily required before the said act can be conveniently carried into effect: be it therefore enacted, That the several clauses in the said act contained, the operation whereof is by the said act directed and appointed to commence and take effect from and after the 1st May 1825, shall commence and take effect on the 1st Jan. 1826, and not sooner; and that such matters and things as by the said act are required to be done within three calendar months or within six calendar months respectively next after the passing of the said act, shall and may be lawfully done at any time before the expiration of three calendar months or six calendar months respectively after the 1st May 1825; and that the several statutes, ordinances, and acts, and parts of statutes, ordinances, and acts, which by the said recited act are repealed from and after the 1st May 1825, shall remain and continue in force until the said

1st Jan. 1826, and no longer, and shall, from and after the 1st Jan. 1826, be repealed to all intents and purposes, as if the said 1st Jan. 1826 had been mentioned and specified in the said recited act, instead of the said 1st May 1825; the said recited act, or any clause, matter, or thing in the same contained, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding, 6 G. 4. c. 12. s. 1.

3. Whereas it is necessary for the security of commerce, and for the good of the community, that weights and measures should be just and uniform: and whereas notwithstanding it is provided by the great charter [viz. MAGNA CHARTA, c. 25. Stat. Dig. tit. WEIGHTS, &c. pl. 1.], that there shall be but one measure and one weight throughout the realm, and by the treaty of union between Eng. and Scot., that the same weights and measures should be used throughout G. B. as were then established in Eng., yet different weights and measures, some larger, and some less, are still in use in various places throughout the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., and the true measure of the present standards is not verily known, which is the cause of great confusion and of manifest frauds: for the remedy and prevention of these evils for the future, and to the end that certain standards of weights and measures should be established throughout the U. K. of G. B. and Ire.; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the 1st May 1825, the straight line or distance between the centres of the two points in the gold studs in the straight brass rod, now in the custody of the clerk of the House of Commons, whereon the words and figures "Standard Yard, 1760," are engraved, shall be declared to be the original and genuine standard of that measure of length or lineal extension called a yard; and that the same straight line or distance between the centres of the said two points in the said gold studs in the said brass rod, the brass being at the temperature of 62 degrees by Fahrenheit's thermometer, shall be and is hereby denominated the "Imperial Standard Yard," and shall be the unit or only standard measure of extension, wherefrom or whereby all other measures of extension whatsoever, whether the same be lineal, superficial, or solid, shall be derived, computed, and ascertained; and that all measures of length shall be taken in parts or multiples, or certain proportions of the said standard yard; and that one-third part of the said standard yard shall be a foot, and the 12th part of such foot shall be an inch; and that the pole or perch in length shall contain five such yards and a half, the furlong 220 such yards, and the mile 1760 such yards, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 1.

4. All superficial measure shall be computed and ascertained by the said standard yard, or by certain parts, multiples, or proportions thereof; and that the rood of land shall contain 1210 square yards, according to the said standard yard; and that the acre of land shall contain 4840 such square yards, being 160 square perches, poles, or rods, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 2.

5. And whereas it is expedient that the said standard yard, if lost, destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured, should be restored of the same length, by reference to some invariable natural standard: and whereas it has been ascertained by the commissioners appointed by H. M. to inquire into the subject of weights and measures, that the said yard hereby declared to be the imperial standard yard, when compared with a pendulum vibrating seconds of mean time in the latitude of London, in a vacuum at the level of the sea, is in the proportion of 36 inches to 39 inches, and 1593 10 thousandth parts of an inch; be it therefore enacted, That if at any time hereafter the said imperial standard yard shall be lost, or shall be in any manner destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured, it shall be restored by making, under the direction of the lord high treasurer, or the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., or any three of them, for the time being, a new standard yard, bearing the same proportion to such pendulum as aforesaid, as the said imperial standard yard bears to such pendulum, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 3.

6. From and after the 1st May 1825, the standard brass weight of one pound troy weight, made in the year 1758, now in the custody of the clerk of the House of Commons, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be the original and genuine standard measure of weight, and that such brass weight shall be and is hereby denominated the imperial standard troy pound, and shall be the unit or only standard measure of weight, from which all other weights shall be derived, computed, and ascertained; and that one-twelfth part of the said troy pound shall be an ounce; and that one-twentieth part of such ounce shall be a pennyweight; and that one-twenty-fourth part of such pennyweight shall be a grain; so that 5760 such grains shall be a troy pound, and that 7000 such grains shall be and they are hereby declared to be a pound avoirdupois, and that one-sixteenth part of the said pound avoirdupois shall be an ounce avoirdupois, and that one-sixteenth part of such ounce shall be a dram, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 4.

7. And whereas it is expedient that the said standard troy pound, if lost, destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured, should be restored of the same weight, by reference to some invariable natural standard; and whereas it has been ascertained, by the commissioners appointed by H. M. to inquire into the subjects of weights and measures, that a cubic inch of distilled water, weighed in air by brass weights, at the temperature of 62 degs. of Fahrenheit's thermometer, the barometer being at 30 inches, is equal to 252 grs. and 458 thousandth parts of a grain, of which, as aforesaid, the imperial standard troy pound contains 5760; be it therefore enacted, That if any time hereafter the said imperial standard troy pound shall be lost, or shall be in any manner destroyed, defaced, or otherwise injured, it shall and may be restored by making, under the directions of the lord high treasurer, or the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three of them for the time being, a new standard troy pound, bearing the same proportion to the weight of a cubic inch of distilled water, as the said standard pound hereby established bears to such cubic inch of water, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 5.

8. That from and after 1st May 1825, the standard measure of capacity, as well for liquids as for dry goods not measured by heaped measure, shall be the gallon, containing 10lbs avoirdupois weight of distilled water weighed in air, at the temperature of 62 degs. of Fahrenheit's thermometer, the barometer being at 30 inches; and that a measure shall be forthwith made of brass, of such contents as aforesaid, under the directions of the lord high treasurer, or the commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K., or any three or more of them for the time being; and such brass measure shall be the imperial standard gallon, and shall be the unit and only standard measure of capacity, from which all other measures of capacity to be used, as well for wine, beer, ale, spirits, and all sorts of liquids, as for dry goods not measured by heap measure, shall be derived, computed, and ascertained; and that all measures shall be taken in parts or multiples, or certain proportions of the said imperial standard gallon; and that the quart shall be the fourth part of such standard gallon, and the pint shall be one-eighth of such standard gallon, and that two such gallons shall be a peck, and eight such gallons shall be a bushel, and eight such bushels a quarter of corn or other dry goods, not measured by heaped measure, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 6.

9. The standard measure of capacity for coals, culm, lime, fish, potatoes, or fruit, and all other goods and things commonly sold by heaped measure, shall be the aforesaid bushel, containing 80lbs. avoirdupois of water as aforesaid, the same being made round with a plain and even bottom, and being nineteen inches and a half from outside to outside of such standard measure as aforesaid, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 7.

10. And whereas by 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 7. the figure of the standard bushel measure directed to be used for the sale of coals, culm, fish, potatoes, and fruit is fixed and determined: and whereas it is expedient that the figure of all other measures used for sale of coals, and all other goods and things commonly sold by heaped measure should also be fixed and determined; be it therefore enacted, That from and after 1st Jan. 1826, all such measures shall be cylindrical, and the diameter of such measures shall be at the least double the depth thereof, and the height of the cone or heap shall be equal to three-fourths of the depth of the said measure, the outside of the said measure being the extremity or base of such cone, 6 G. 4. c. 18. s. 2.

11. In making use of such bushel, all coals and other goods and things commonly sold by heaped measure, shall be duly heaped up in such bushel, in the form of a cone, such cone to be of the height of at least six inches, and the outside of the bushel to be the extremity of the base of such cone; and that three bushels shall be a sack, and that 12 such sacks shall be a chaldron, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 8.

12. Provided, that any contracts, bargains, sales, and dealings, made or had for or with respect to any coals, culm, lime, fish, potatoes, or fruit, and all other goods and things commonly sold by heaped measure, sold, delivered, done or agreed for, or to be sold, delivered, done, or agreed for by weight or measure, shall and may be either according to the said standard of weight, or the said standard for heaped measure; but all contracts, bargains, sales, and dealings, made or had for any other goods, wares, or merchandize, or other thing done or agreed for, or to be sold, delivered, done, or agreed for by weight or measure, shall be made and had according to the said standard of weight, or to the said gallon, or the parts, multiples, or proportions thereof; and in using the same the measures shall not be heaped, but shall be stricken with a round stick or roller, straight and of the same diameter from end to end, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 9.

13. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the selling in Ire., by measure, of any articles, matters, or things which by any law in force in Ire. are required to be sold by weight only, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 10.

14. Copies and models of each of the said standard yard, the said standard pound, the said standard gallon, and the said standard for heaped measure, and of such parts and multiples thereof respectively, as the lord high treasurer of the U. K., or the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three of them for the time being, shall judge expedient, shall, within three calendar months next after the passing of this act [17th June 1824], be carefully made and verified under the direction of the said lord high treasurer, or the said commissioners of H. M.'s treasury, or any three of them for the time being; and that the copies and models of the said standard yard, of the said standard pound, of the said standard gallon, and of the said standard for heaped measure, and of parts and multiples thereof, so forthwith to be made and verified as aforesaid, shall, within three calendar months after the passing of this act [17th June 1824], be deposited in the office of the chamberlains of the exchequer at Westminster, and that copies thereof, verified as aforesaid, shall be sent to the lord mayor of London and the chief magistrate of Edinburgh and Dublin, and of such other cities and places, and to such other places and persons in H. M.'s dominions or elsewhere, as the lord high treasurer or commissioners of the treasury may from time to time direct, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 11.

15. H. M.'s justices of the peace in every county, riding, or division in Eng. or Ire., or shire or stewartry in Scot., and the magistrates in every city, town, or place (being a county within itself) in Eng. or Ire., and in every city or royal burgh in Scot., shall, within six calendar months after the passing of this act [17th June 1824], purchase for their respective counties, ridings, or divisions, shires or stewartries, cities, towns, or places, or cities or royal burghs, a model and copy of each of the aforesaid standards of length, weight, measure, and of each of the parts and multiples thereof; which models and copies when so purchased, shall be compared and verified with the models and copies deposited with the chamberlains of the exchequer as aforesaid, in such manner as aforesaid, and upon payment of such fees as are at present payable to the said chamberlains upon the comparison and verification of weights and measures with the standards thereof, and such models and copies, when so compared and verified, shall be placed for custody and inspection with such person or persons, in such place or places, as the said justices and magistrates, in their respective counties, ridings, and divisions, and shires or stewartries, cities, towns, and places, or cities or royal burghs, shall appoint, and the same shall be produced by the keeper or keepers thereof, upon reasonable notice, at such time and place, within each such county, riding, &c. as any person shall by writing under his hand require; the person requiring such production paying the reasonable charges of the same, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 12.

16. The expence of procuring and transmitting such models and copies for the respective counties, ridings, or divisions, cities, towns, or places, shall be paid in Eng., out of the rates payable in such counties, ridings, or divisions, cities, towns, or places; and in Scot., such expences in the respective shires and stewartries, and cities or royal burghs, shall be as-essed by the commissioners of supply upon such shires and stewartries, and upon cities or royal burghs by the magistrates thereof, and shall be paid along with the land-tax payable in such shires or stewartries, and cities or royal burghs, to the collectors of the land-tax in such shires or stewartries, and cities or royal burghs respectively; and in Ire. such expences shall be paid in the respective counties and counties of cities and counties of towns, by presentments to be made by grand juries; and the collectors of such county rates in Eng., of land-tax in Scot., and of the assessments under grand jury presentments in Ire., shall have such and the same powers of levying and recovering the assessments to be made under this act, as are competent to them for levying and recovering the said county rates, land-tax, and grand jury assessments respectively; and the said collectors respectively shall, out of the proceeds of such assessments, pay the expences of procuring and transmitting such models and copies as aforesaid accordingly, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 15.

17. Provided, that in all cases of dispute respecting the correctness of any measure of capacity, arising in a place where recourse cannot be conveniently had to any of the aforesaid verified copies or models of the standard measures of capacity, or parts or multiples of the same, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace or magistrate having jurisdiction in such place, to ascertain the content of such measure of capacity by direct reference to the weight of pure or rain water which such measure is capable of containing; 10 lbs. avoirdupois weight of such water, at the temperature of 62 degrees by Fahrenheit's thermometer, being the standard gallon ascertained by this act, the same being in bulk equal to 277 cubic inches, and 274 one-thousandth parts of a cubic inch, and so in proportion for all parts or multiples of a gallon, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 14.

18. From and after 1st May 1825, all contracts, bargains, sales, and dealings, which shall be made or had within any part of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire., for any work to be done, or for any goods, wares, merchandize, or other thing to be sold, delivered, done, or agreed for by weight or measure, where no special agreement shall be made to the contrary, shall be construed to be made and had according to the standard weights and measures ascertained by this act; and in all cases where any special agreement shall be made, with reference to any weight or measure established by local custom, the ratio or proportion which every such local weight or measure shall bear to any of the said standard weights or measures, shall be expressed and specified in such agreement, or otherwise such agreement shall be null and void, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 15.

19. And whereas it is expedient that persons should be allowed to use the several weights and measures which they may have in their possession, although such weights and measures may not be in conformity with the standard weights and measures established by this act; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person to buy and sell goods and merchandize by any weights or measures established either by local custom, or founded on special agreement; provided, that in order that the ratio or proportion which all such measures and weights shall bear to the standard weights and measures established by this act, shall be and become a matter of common notoriety, the ratio or proportion which all such customary measures and weights shall bear to the said standard weights and measures, shall be painted or marked upon all such customary weights and measures respectively; and that nothing herein-contained shall extend to permit any maker of weights or measures, or any person or persons whomsoever, to make any weight or measure at any time after the 1st May 1825, except in conformity with the standard weights and measures established under the provisions of this act, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 16.

20. And for the purpose of ascertaining and fixing the payments to be made in consequence of all existing contracts or rents in Eng. and Ire., payable in grain or malt, or in any other commodity or thing, and in consequence of any toll or rate heretofore payable according to the weights and measures heretofore in use; be it enacted, That at the general or quarter sessions of the peace to be holden in every county, riding, or division, and in every city, town, or place (being a county of itself) in Eng. or Ire., next after the expiration of six calendar months after the passing of this act [17th June 1824], or at any general quarter sessions of the peace to be holden thereafter, an inquisition shall be taken before the justices assembled at such general or quarter sessions, by the oaths of 12 substantial freeholders of the said respective counties, cities, towns, or places, having lands or tenements to the value of 100*l.* per ann. or upwards, to be summoned by the sheriff or proper officer of every such county, city, town, or place, to inquire into and ascertain the amount, according to the standard of weight or measure by this act established, of all contracts or rents payable in grain or malt, or any other commodity or thing, or with reference to the measure or weight of any such grain, malt, or other commodity or thing, and the amount of any toll or rate heretofore payable according to any weights and measures heretofore in use within such counties, cities, towns, or places respectively; and such inquisitions, when taken, shall be transmitted by the respective clerks of the peace of the same counties respectively, or by the mayor, bailiff, or other head-officer of every such city, town, or place (being a county of itself), into H. M.'s courts of exchequer at Westminster and Dublin respectively, and shall there be enrolled of record, and shall and may be given in evidence in any action or suit at law or in equity; and the amount so to be ascertained shall be the rule of payment in regard to all such contracts, rents, tolls, or rates, in all time coming; and the costs and charges of such inquisitions, and the enrolments thereof, shall be paid and defrayed in Eng. out of the general rate or stock of every such county, riding, division, city, town, or place (being a county of itself), and in Ire. by presentments of the several grand juries, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 17.

21. And for the purpose of ascertaining and fixing the payments to be made of all stipends, feu-duties, rents, tolls, customs, casualties, and other demands whatsoever, payable in grain, malt, or meal, or any other commodity, or thing in Scot., or in any place or district of the same; be it enacted, That the sheriff-depute or sheriff-substitute in each shire, and the steward-depute or steward-substitute in each stewartry, within Scot., shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the expiration of six calendar months from and after the passing of this act [17th June 1824], summon and impanel a jury of the same number, and with the same qualifications, which are required in the jury who strike the fiar prices of grain within the same shire or stewartry, to assemble at such place or places as he shall find convenient; which jury shall inquire into and ascertain the amount, according to the standards by this act established, of all such stipends, feu-duties, rents, tolls, customs, casualties, and other demands whatsoever, payable in grain, malt, meal, or any other commodity or thing, according to the weights and measures heretofore in use within the same shires or stewartries; and such inquisitions, when taken, shall be transmitted by the respective sheriff clerks or steward clerks of such shires or stewartries, into H. M.'s court of exchequer at Edinburgh, and shall there be enrolled of record, and shall and may be given in evidence in any action or suit at law or in equity; and the amount so to be ascertained shall, when converted into the standard weights and measures, be the rule of payment in regard to all such stipends, feu-duties, rents, tolls, customs, casualties, and other demands whatsoever, in all time coming; and the costs and charges of such inquisitions, and the enrolment thereof, shall be assessed and levied, paid and defrayed, by every such shire or stewartry, in manner as is herein-before directed [s. 13. pl. 16.] in regard to the assessment for the models of the weights and measure to be purchased for the same shire or stewartry, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 18.

22. As soon as conveniently may be after such inquisitions shall have been made and enrolled in Eng., Ire., and Scot. respectively, accurate tables shall be prepared and published under the authority of H. M.'s treasury, showing the proportions between the weights and measures heretofore in use, as mentioned in such inquisitions, and the weights and measures hereby established, with such other conversions of weights or measures as H. M.'s treasury may deem to be necessary; and after the publication of such tables, all future payments to be made shall be regulated according to such tables, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 19.

23. And whereas the weights and measures by which the rates and duties of the customs and excise, and other H. M.'s revenue, have been heretofore collected, are different from the weights and measures of the same denominations directed by this act to be universally used: and whereas the alteration of such weights and measures may, without due care had therein, greatly affect H. M.'s revenue, and tend to the diminishing of the same; for the prevention thereof, be it therefore enacted, That so soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this act [viz. 17th June 1824], accurate tables shall be prepared and published under the direction of the treasury for the time being, in order that the several rates and duties of customs and excise, and other H. M.'s revenue, may be adjusted and made payable according to the respective quantities of the legal standards directed by this act to be universally used; and that from and after the 1st May 1825, and the publication of such tables, the several rates and duties thereafter to be collected by any of the officers of H. M.'s customs or excise, or other H. M.'s revenue, shall be collected and taken according to the calculations in the tables to be prepared as aforesaid, 5 G. 4. c. 74. s. 20.

24. All the powers, rules, and regulations in force, and contained in the several acts herein-after mentioned, specified, and set forth, for the ascertaining, examining, seizing, breaking, and destroying any weights balances, or measures, shall be applied and put in execution in G. B. for the ascertaining and examining, and for the seizing, breaking, and destroying of any weights or measures not conformable to the standard weights and measures ascertained and authorized by this act, and for the punishment of any person or persons having any defective weight or measure, not conformable to the said standard weights and measures; that is to say, 29 G. 2. c. 25., intituled, An Act for appointing a sufficient number of constables for the service of the city and liberty of Westminster, and to compel proper persons to take upon them the office of jurymen, to prevent nuisances and other offences within the said city and liberty; and 31 G. 2. c. 17., for explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual the said recited act of the 29th year; and 55 G. 3. c. 102. [Stat. Dig. tit.

WEIGHTS, pl. 56.], intituled, An Act for the more effectual prevention of the use of defective weights, and of false and unequal balances; and 37 G.3. c.143. [Stat. Dig. tit. WEIGHTS, pl. 56.], for explaining and amending the said recited act of the said 35th year, and as the said recited act of the said 35th year is amended by the said act of the said 37th year; and 55 G.3. c.43. [Stat. Dig. tit. WEIGHTS, &c. pl. 56.], intituled, An Act for the more effectual prevention of the use of false and deficient measures; and all the powers, rules, regulations, provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said several acts contained, shall be applied and put in execution as if the weights or measures ascertained by this act had been specified in the said recited acts respectively, and as if all such powers, rules, &c., and modes of recovery thereof, were repeated and re-enacted in this act, except only so far as the said recited acts or any of them, or any part thereof, are expressly repealed or altered by this act, or any other act or acts, 5 G.3. c.74. s.21.

25. All the powers, rules, and regulations in force, and contained in the several acts herein-after mentioned, specified, and set forth, passed in the parliament of Ire., shall be applied and put in execution in Ire., for the ascertaining and examining, and for the seizing, breaking, and destroying of any weights or measures not conformable to the standard weights and measures ascertained and authorized by this act, and for the punishment of any person or persons having any defective weight or measure, or any weight or measure not conformable to the said standard weights and measures, and for the carrying into effect the several provisions of the said recited acts with reference to the said standard weights and measures; that is to say, 4 Ann., for regulating the weights used in Ire.; 11 G.2., for the buying and selling all sorts of corn and meal, and other things in the said act mentioned, by weight; and 25 G.2., intituled, An Act for buying and selling all sorts of corn and meal, and other things therein mentioned, by weight, and for the more effectual preventing the frauds committed in the buying and selling thereof; and 27 G.3., intituled, An Act for establishing market juries in cities, and which said last-mentioned act was by 28 G.3. extended to all counties of towns and corporate towns in Ire.; and all the powers, rules, and regulations, provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said several acts contained, shall be applied and put in execution, as if the weights or measures ascertained by this act had been specified in the said recited acts respectively, and as if such powers, rules, regulations, provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, and the modes of recovery thereof, were repeated and re-enacted in this act, except only so far as the said recited acts or any of them, or any part thereof, are expressly repealed or altered by this act, or any other act or acts, 5 G.4. c.74. s.22.

26. The several statutes, ordinances, and acts, and parts of the several statutes, ordinances, and acts herein-after mentioned and specified, so far as the same relate to the ascertaining or establishing any standards of weights and measures, or to the establishing or recognizing certain differences between weights and measures of the same denomination, shall, from and after the 1st May 1825, be repealed; that is to say, certain ancient statutes or ordinances made previous to the reign of King Edward the Third, but being of uncertain date, intituled or known by the names or descriptions following: "Assisa panis et cervisie," or "The Assize of bread and ale;" "Statutum de pistoribus, et cetera," or "Statute concerning bakers, et cetera;" [See Stat. Dig. tit. BREAD, pl. 23.] "Assisa de ponderibus et mensuris," or "Tractatus de ponderibus," or "Compositio de ponderibus," or "Assize of weights and measures;" "Statutum de admensuratione terræ," or "Statute for the measuring of land;" "Compositio ulnarum et perticarum;" [Stat. Dig. tit. WEIGHTS, &c. pl. 1.], &c. and also so much of 14 Ed.3. c.12. [See Stat. Dig. tit. WEIGHTS, &c. pl. 7.], 8.] as relates to the making of bushels and weights, and sending the same into every country; and also so much of 14 Ed.3. c.21. s.2. as directs that the sack of wool ought to contain 26 stones, and every stone 14 pounds; and also so much of 18 Ed.3. st.2. c.4. [Stat. Dig. tit. WEIGHTS, &c. pl. 9.] as relates to commissioners to assay weights and measures; and also so much of 25 Ed.3. st.5. c.9, 10. [Stat. Dig. tit. B. called Scot., and for further regulating and encouraging the said manufactures'*, as relates to the weight of hemp or flax; and also an act made (in the parliament of Ire.) 26 G.3., for preventing frauds in the measurement of lime; and also so much of 38 G.3. c.89. s.4., intituled, An Act for transferring the management of the salt duties to the commissioners of excise, and for repealing the duties on salt, and the drawbacks, allowances, and bounties thereon, as relates to the weight of a bushel of salt; and also so much of 43 G.3. c.69. s.12. in part, intituled, An Act to repeal the duties of excise payable in G. B., and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, as relates to the quart, gallon, and barrel of beer or ale; [and all the said recited statutes or ordinances and acts, and parts of statutes and acts, so far as the same or any of them relate to the ascertaining or establishing any standards of weights and measures, or to the establishing or recognizing certain differences between weights and measures of the same denomination, but no further or otherwise, shall, from and after 1st May 1825, be and the same are hereby repealed]; save and except only so far as any such statutes or acts, or any part thereof, repeal any other statutes or acts, or any part thereof, which relate to the ascertaining or establishing any standard of weights and measures, or to the establishing or recognizing certain differences between weights and measures of the same denomination; all which statutes and acts, or any parts thereof so repealed, shall be and remain repealed, 5 G.4. c.74. s.25.

27. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to repeal the 31 G.2. c.17., nor in any manner to affect or alter the power given by the said recited act to the dean, high steward, or his deputy, and the burgesses of the city of Westminster, to appoint a proper officer to size and seal all weights and measures used by persons dealing by weight and measure in the said city of Westminster and the liberties thereof, but that all the powers given and reserved to the said dean, high steward, or his deputy, and burgesses, by the said recited act, shall and may be exercised in the appointing of a proper officer to size and seal all such weights and measures as shall, from the passing of this act, be lawful and be used by persons dealing by weight and measure within the said city and liberties of Westminster, and shall and may be used and exercised by any officer so appointed, in the same manner in all respects as is directed by the said recited act with relation to the weights and measures in the said recited act mentioned, 5 G.4. c.74. s.24.

28. Provided, that from and after the passing of this act [17th June 1824] all tuns, pipes, tertians, hogsheads, or other vessels of wine, oil, honey, and other gaugeable liquors, imported or brought into the port of the city of London, and landed within the said city and the liberties thereof, shall be subject and liable to be gauged, as heretofore hath been of right accustomed, by the lord mayor of the city for the time being, by virtue of his office of gauger, or by his sufficient deputies, lawfully appointed, save and except that the contents of all such tuns, pipes, tertians, hogsheads, and other vessels, shall and may be ascertained by the standard measure of capacity for liquids directed by this act, and the multiples thereof; and that all such tuns, pipes, tertians, hogsheads, or other vessels that shall be found wanting of the true contents which such tuns, pipes, tertians, hogsheads, or other vessels ought to be of, to be ascertained as aforesaid, together with the wine and other liquids therein contained, shall be subject and liable to the like seizures and forfeitures as is or are provided by any act of parliament heretofore made for ascertaining the true contents of tuns, pipes, tertians, hogsheads, and other vessels of wine, oil, honey, and other gaugeable liquors; and that the moiety of such forfeitures due to H. M., his heirs and successors, shall be, in like manner as heretofore hath been accustomed, accounted for by the lord mayor for the time being, as such gauger, and his deputies, to H. M., his heirs, and successors, in his and their court of exchequer at Westminster, 5 G.4. c.74. s.25.

29. Provided, that this act or any thing herein contained shall not extend to prohibit, defeat, injure, or lessen the right of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, or of the lord mayor of the said city for the time being, of, in, to, or concerning the office of gauger of wines, oils, honey, and other gaugeable liquors imported and landed within the city of London and the liberties thereof, 5 G.4. c.74. s.26.

WOOL.

From and after 10th Dec. 1824, all acts and parts of acts of the parliament of G. B. and Ire. respectively, and of the parliament of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire. whereby the exportation from any part of the U. K., or from the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to foreign parts, or the carrying coastwise of sheep or lambs' wool, or any manufacture thereof, or of sheep or lambs alive, or of hare or coney wool, or of hare or coney skins is prohibited or restrained, or whereby the packing, marking, or moving of wool, or of any manufactures thereof within any part of the U. K., or the said islands, is in any way regulated, shall be repealed; and from and after 10 Dec. 1824 there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid to H. M. a certain duty when such articles are exported, 5 G.4. c.47. s.2. [This act is REP. from 5th July 1826, 6 G.4. c.105. s.382.]
